WASHINGTON News Letter

War Clouds

It looks more each day like anything may happen throughout the world in the way of future wars. Daily conferences between representatives of England, France, Lithuania, Germany and Soviet Russia indicate how insecure our peace may be. This Congress carries appropriation bills amounting to more than a billion dollars for national defense. And now, Margaret Sanger, President of the National Committee on Federal Legislation for Birth Control, comes forward and offers as her suggestion for a permanent peace, the following:

"If a nation cannot maintain its population, and cannot solve its problem by emigration and control of foreign trade, it has three courses open: it can lower its standard of living, it can expand by force of arms, it can reduce its birth rate. The first means retrogression, the second means war and the third means birth control." Utility Holding Company Legislation Never before in history of the United States has the Congress received such a flood of propaganda as it is now receiving on the Rayburn-Wheeler Bill for the control of Public Utility Holding Companies. The members of the House and Senate are getting more than a hundred thousand letters and printed cards. The striking feature of this is that no specific objections are lodged against the bill or any of its sections. Only a general criticism is offered in spite of the fact that the bill contains 178 pages and 326 sections. But there is also much favorable comment that is specific and any number of comments similar to the following editorials can be found.

"The gist of the President's message was that gas and electric consumers cannot be expected to pay the maintenance of holding companies that cannot justify their existence on the ground of public service. That is sound doctrine."—South Bend Tribune.

"It is an interesting commentary on the patience, discipline and sportsmanship of the American people that they have accepted the inauspicious verdict, although hundreds of thousands of them have drained to its dregs the cup of misery caused by operations under holding companies now declared by the courts to be illegal."—Columbus Ohio, Dispatch.

"Roosevelt's message demanding legislation for the control of public utility holding companies was a good answer to the tremendous volume of messages opposing such legislation which has rolled in upon a bewildered Congress."—Washington Star.

Calendar
The House and Senate both have for the past week been occupied mainly with conference reports and minor bills. The only important legislation passed was the bills to strengthen the Navy, passed in the House on Wednesday, March 27th, and the repeal of the Pink Slip Income Tax Publicity provision, passed 28th.

Next week the House will immediately take up the long delayed final action on the Works Relief Bill. The conference report comes up Monday. The conferees reached an agreement the latter part of last week but action was deferred. Whatever time is left Monday will be devoted to the McSwain Bill to prevent profiteering in time of war and a Rivers and Harbors Bill authorizing general improvements has been placed on the calendar for Friday.

Mr. W. L. Jones of Fort Worth is a guest in the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith.

H. D. CLUBS

Sponge Cakes Made By C. H. D. A.

"Beating speaks texture in cake making," said Miss Norfleet Grimes, Young County Home Demonstration Agent to a group of club reporters and Home Demonstration Agents, Wednesday March 20, at the Seymour City Hall.

"To open," said Miss Grimes, "we are prone to rush through the making of a cake and a tough, coarse-grained cake is the result."

Miss Grimes in making the sponge cake began by beating the egg yolks. As each ingredient was added the mixture was vigorously beaten for several minutes. The result was a smooth, light-textured cake; a cake of which every woman might be proud.

The lemon frosting was easily assembled, and was beaten for twenty minutes over boiling water, cooled and a few drops of yellow coloring added for a lemon color. Miss Grimes cautioned the women add the liquid first for a smooth, velvety frosting.

Thirty-eight club women and five agents from Archer, Baylor, Stevens, Young and Knox Counties met for a Reporter's Conference, presided over by Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, Extension Editor from A. & M. College.

TO MEMBERS HASKELL-KNOX COUNTY BURIAL ASS'N

As the grief and sorrow overshadow us from the loss of a good husband and father, a substantial check came to us before the funeral. Words cannot express our feeling of appreciation to you, our friends, who through membership has made this possible.

May the blessings of an all-wise Father be with you and when sorrow comes to you may sincere friends show you the same kindness they have so nobly shown us. Sincerely and sorrowfully, Mrs. E. L. Corley and family.

TODAY and TOMORROW

By Frank Parker Stockbridge

FAME . . . . . a woman I can't find any figures that tell how many of the votes cast at the last Presidential election were cast by women, but there certainly were a good many millions. Not one of them could have voted if it had not been for the lifetime of work by the late Susan B. Anthony, the great pioneer of Woman Suffrage in America.

I was glad to have had an opportunity to be one of those to nominate her as a candidate for the Hall of Fame of New York University. As a very young reporter I had occasion once to interview Miss Anthony, then more than seventy years old. I recall vividly her spare figure and her quiet but determined manner.

"Government," she said, "is a job of housekeeping. Economy and common sense are the main requirements. Now, honestly, don't you think your grandmother has more common sense than any politician I wasn't so sure about it then, but you ever met?"

I wasn't so sure about it then, but as I grow older I think Miss Anthony was right. I hope they put her statue in the Hall of Fame. It is already in Statuary Hall in the Capitol at Washington.

PERSIA . . . . . now Iran The announcement from the State Department that Persia deserts hereafter to be called "Iran" reminds me of P. T. Barnum, the circus man. Mr. Barnum built himself a great house at Bridgeport, Connecticut, all tricked out with spires and minarets, and named it "Iranistan," which was the name in common use sixty-odd years ago for the country we now call Persia.

We are getting to know more about those nations of Western Asia since they have been discovered in their territory. Adjacent to Persia—Belgium, "Iran"—the "Turkistan," Afghanistan and Belchistan, all with potential wealth in oil and minerals as yet undeveloped.

The Government of the United States quietly recognized the independence of Afghanistan a short time ago, that nation having declared its independence of Great Britain in 1921. If I were still and adventurous youth I think I would like to take a whirl at exploration in that part of the world. I might find an emerald mine or an oil field, or a chance to build a railroad.

HOWE . . . . . his aim No man whom I ever knew gave his entire life so wholeheartedly and devotedly to the service of another as Louis McHenry Howe to Franklin D. Roosevelt. I have known Louis Howe for more than twenty years. In all that time he had but one goal in life. That was to put Frank Roosevelt in the White House. The two men first met when Mr. Roosevelt was a young State Senator in Albany and Louis Howe a smart young newspaper correspondent, with a decided instinct for politics. He managed Mr. Roosevelt's successful campaign for reelection, and from then on the two were inseparable.

Big Jake's Truscott Aggregation Coming For Game On Sunday

Skipper Jack Mayes has announced that his hopefuls will meet Big Jake Myers' Truscott aggregation here Sunday afternoon, and the game, which is the first of the year to be played here, will give local fans their first opportunity to see local lads in action, and the fact that Jake and Aubrey Myers, as well as a number of other Myers boys are playing with the Truscott aggregation is sufficient evidence that they will have plenty stiff competition.

Miss Estelle King Fatally Burned On Last Thursday

Miss Estelle B. King, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King who reside north-east of Munday, was fatally burned last Thursday when her clothing became ignited as she worked with a brooder at the family home. She was rushed to the Knox County Hospital at Knox City where she passed away at 8:20 Friday morning.

Deceased was born at Frederick, Oklahoma, March 30, 1913 and came to this community with her parents in December 1924. She was a young lady of charm and culture and being of a sunny disposition had made a large host of friends throughout this section, and her tragic death has occasioned much sorrow. She was a consistent member of the Church of Christ, having been converted some ten years ago.

RHINELAND

We are proud of our volley ball team. In spite of the many handicaps they performed splendidly, winning second place. Outdoor courts and the incessant dust-laden March winds are indeed a drawback to systematic volley ball playing.

The Seniors, who have been very impatiently waiting for their rings and pins, thought their English teacher, Miss French, was playing an April Fool trick on them last Monday when she came to school and said their rings and pins had come. The seniors are very much pleased with them.

The school boys played their first game of baseball this season with the Bomarton boys last Tuesday. They seem to think there was nothing wrong with the game except that the scoring was done on the wrong side. Our boys let it be known that they are out for the scalps of the Bomarton boys next week.

Miss Gertrude Skora of Wichita Falls visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sokora, last week.

Misses Louise Michalik, Emma and Christine Konarik and Mr. Theodore Vokrnas of Wichita Falls spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Michalik.

A surprise party was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Loran in honor of Mrs. Loran. Everyone reported a very enjoyable time.

Miss Cecilia Homer of Wichita Falls is visiting in the home of her father, Mr. Aston Homer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bruckner visited in Wichita Falls last Friday.

OBSERVER

A part of this column this week contains excerpts from some recent editorials in a great religious weekly.

In Fascist Germany

"Germany's repudiation of the Versailles Treaty was a surprise only in the time it came. Doubtless the neighboring nations have long known that Germany was rearming in violation of her treaty with them. This explains the slowness of the Allied countries, and indeed of all the world, to carry out their own implied obligation to disarm. From bitter experience the nations know that Germany holds lightly her treaties when they obstruct her military program. But the open repudiation and the frank confession of Nazi Germany that she will build a powerful military machine may prove just the move that is needed to clear up the situation. Now all countries know that they must immediately do something—either an arms race or a better understanding. The former is already under way; the latter only dimly seen as among the possibilities. Yet the latter is the world's hope for recovery.

Accompanying her repudiation of the Versailles Treaty is Germany's ruthless blow at the opposition in the Protestant churches. Now the bitter religious struggle seems to have come to its end. There is little hope of a survival of true Lutheran Protestantism in Germany except under conditions in which it survived in Rome in the days of the tyrant Nero. The fearless stand of the Confessional Synod Christians in refusing to surrender their loyalty to Christ and substitute the pagan German state has brought upon them the wrath of Hitler, and with it persecutions, imprisonment, and loss of position. That the arrested pastors were released pending this visit of the British Foreign Minister, only postponed the struggle, though the leaders of the German Christians under Mueller are said to be discouraged."

Protestantism in Germany has for a long time been one of the strongholds of the Christian faith. With Russia seeking to stamp out religion of any kind, Mexico in its fight against Roman Catholicism, weakening all religion we have a religious situation in the world that is not at all encouraging, in fact, on the other hand it is really alarming.

Should the U. S. go off after any of these lame Christianity would face one of the most difficult situations in its history.

Crime Control

"The Government, through the Treasury Department, is engaged in a nation-wide campaign against organized crime as it exists in every American city. The drive has already netted nearly three thousand criminals, including counterfeiters, narcotic suppliers and peddlers, liquor tax evaders, and violators of other federal laws. Drugs and liquor paraphernalia in huge quantities have been seized and destroyed by the more than twelve thousand federal agents who are working to break up the criminal rings. Present criminals are being caught and will be imprisoned, perhaps a few will be reformed. But what of the future crop of criminals? This question is raised by a member of the Harvard Law School, who declares that some two hundred thousand children now in our schools are soon to join the ranks of the criminals. This statement is based on studies of criminal records, especially those of juveniles, which show that the average age at beginning of delinquent behavior is nine years and seven months. The home and the school are the guardians of youth at this crucial age, and it is here that the attack against crime must be made by giving the growing boy a better training for living."

Not only is the U. S. Government vigorously pressing criminals but a special effort to execute the law. This is a hopeful sign and every good citizen should use his influence for the proper execution of all laws. Governors Alford and the Texas Rangers are showing us as well as the criminals that the law can be executed. A nation is no stronger than its ability to execute its laws.

The citizenship of Texas will be called upon before the year is out to vote on the return of liquor to the state. The liquor business has always been a lawless business and the Observer hopes every good citizen will use all his influence and vote against the return of this everlasting curse of the human race. This is one business that there can't be one good thing said for it.

SENIOR SCRAPBOOK

To get back to the biographies of the members of the 1935 Senior Class who expect to be graduated during the month of May, we are giving you the life of one of the most studious feminine students classified with us.

Mildred Laverne Gray
 Our friend is a native of Graham. She was born there on August 18, 1918 and remained there until she was six years old. Upon moving here, she entered the Munday Public Schools, and like many of the Seniors, has gained all her knowledge there. For six years she took music and accomplished much, even though we haven't heard her play in ages. Mildred has always been rather timid and bashful, never cutting up a wee bit in any of her classes, and her lessons she always prepared. This last year in school has changed her greatly, as it has several of us. She is continuously getting some of her classmates into trouble, and she never cracks a book. Would you have thought she used to make zero in spelling? Well, she did, but her entering spelling this year proved that she's come out of that.

The fortune teller told her that she was very peculiar, but we don't think she's any different from the rest of us. She'll probably be a good housewife some day, but we don't know for whom as yet!

rest of us. She'll probably be a good housewife some day, but we don't know for whom as yet!

AT THE DISTRICT

Munday will be represented in the debate, declamation, ready writers and extemporaneous speech contests and in the track and field events at Breckenridg in the University Interscholastic League District Meeting to be held on Friday and Saturday, April 5 and 6.

LIBRARY IMPROVEMENT

Last week Munday High School received a new set of books of which we are very proud. "The Encyclopedia Americana" is a library of universal knowledge in thirty volumes. The new set was published by copyright of 1932 by the Americana Corporation.

The library proper was also improved when ten new books were set among the old. These are taken from the Modern Reader's Series published by the MacMillan Company of New York City. The new Modern Reader's Series presents the world's best literature, among recent books as well as among the classics.

Every type of literature is included, novels, poetry, essays, biography, and so forth. Among the books recently published which we received are: "As the Earth Turns," by Gladys Hasty Carroll; "Portrait of an American," by Robert P. Carroll; "Traitor," by Edwin Arlington Robinson; and "Mexico," by Stuart Chase. Among the other books now brought out in the new format are: "Stranger Than Fiction," by Lewis Browne; "A Son of the Middle Border," by Hamlin Garland; "The Call of the Wild," by Jack London; "Forty Minute Plays," from Shakespeare," by Fred G. Barker; "Plays," by Henrik Ibsen, and "Contemporary Poetry" edited by Marguerite Wilkinson.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB

The Munday Junior Music Club met with Miss Darwin Campbell last Wednesday evening with a very interesting program. The discussion being "American Indian Music." Our leader was Miss Inez Thompson who directed the following program: "By the Waters of Minnetonka"—piano solo—Lucille Neff. Passing of the Red Man—discussion—Betty Reeves. Pueblo Music—Vernice Irick. Burlesque Songs—Robert Layne. Indian Flute—Wladimir Bauman. Wordless Songs—Mary Anna Burnison.

The program was effective as each member acting on the program wore Indian costume.

As soon as the program was over we began our work in the choral division. Our first attempt at choral singing will be Giuseppe Verdi's "Home to our Mountains" taken from the opera "Il Trovatore" and Benjamin Hapgood Burt's humorous melody "Wal, I Swam!" Then, too, we will of course learn the Junior Club Songs which states the object of all Junior Music Clubs of the Nation.

NURSERY RHYMES

Since Mattie Marie Isbell left with her parents to establish a home in Abilene, this will be her last report. The following are modernizations of the old Mother Goose Rhymes which you and I used to know:

Little Jack Horner sat in the corner Eating a Christmas pie; He put in his thumb and pulled out a plum, And said, "Awe Nuts, I thought this was apple."

Hickory, dickory, dock. The mouse ran up the clock; The clock struck one, The mouse ran down— I guess he couldn't take it.

The Grammar Echo

Editorial Editor—Ann Atkinson
 Joke Editor—Orville Matlock
 Personals—Peggy Jo Haynie
 Sports Editor—Winston Blacklock

The choral club from Munday Grammar School will go to Breckenridg on Friday, April 5, to compete in the district meet. The club is composed of twenty-one girls from the sixth and seventh grades. They have worked hard on the prescribed songs, and hope to make a good showing when they sing at the district meet. Competition, of course, will be much heavier than in the county event, but the girls are determined to do their best. They sing a one o'clock Friday at the Senior High School Auditorium, and would be very happy to have as many Munday friends in the audience as possible.

SPORTS

The grammar school boys baseball team is coming right along. We expect to play two games a week until the tournament. The boys have played the high school boys a few times and have proved to them that we are just as good at this game as they are.

5B Picnic

All members of the 5B class who made 100 on their spelling tests five times in succession were taken on a picnic. The group left for Broach's tank after school Friday. They were accompanied by their teacher, Miss Park.

Hiking and games furnished amusement and developed an appetite for the grand picnic supper that was spread later in the evening.

Club Meets

There was a meeting of the girls 6th Grade Club Thursday afternoon, March 28, at the home of Miss Park. Miss Park is the sponsor of the club. Plans for future meetings and hikes were discussed, then games were played and refreshments served.

Doll and Kite Day

It looked like a better babies show, with kites in the distance, to the observing eye, but in truth all those little people down in Miss Lowe's Second Grade were observing an old Japanese Custom. In Japan the first of April is known as Doll Day. By way of introducing a study of the Japanese people and their customs, the second grade girls celebrated "Doll Day." From baby dolls to the most beautiful of all was selected by grammar school teachers, the judges. Laverne Haney's doll was picked as the best dressed; Fredie MacLendon won second; and Melva Kitchen's doll was given third place.

After the doll show the second grade boys had a kite contest. The most beautiful kite belonged to Billy Jo Hensie, and the kite that flew the highest belonged to Billy Jo Penney.

At 3:15 Friday afternoon 3A and 3B had a kite contest at the football field. Judge Stephen's kite won first place for the best and highest flying kite. Delbert Beachamp's kite won a prize for being the neatest and prettiest.

Lake Creek News

There was a rabbit drive in the Lake Creek community last week. A large crowd was there and a nice dinner was served. Many rabbits were killed and some went off to a hopping.

The play at Lake Creek last Friday night was very good and a large crowd attended. Pauline Frost is sick again. Oats and wheat in the community are looking fine. Some farmers have maize and corn up.

The girls baseball team at Weiner won the county championship and Jerry Kane won first place in boys' singles in the tennis matches. We hope the ones that go to Breckenridg will do well.

LATEST TIRE INVENTION
 Reduces Tire Costs!

★ The recent increase in the price of good tires need not affect you if you take advantage of a new tire building method invented by Seiberling.

The new vapor-cure process enables Seiberling to build long-wearing, trouble-free, tough tires at lower prices.

This clever tire invention makes lower-priced Seiberling Tires wear longer than most high-priced equipment tires. We do not want to show our hand and broadcast the details of this money-saving invention in this advertisement. Come in and let us show you how the new vapor-curing system will enable you to buy more miles for your money. Let us show you how to put this great invention to work to reduce tire costs immediately.

Today and Tomorrow (Continued from Page One)

"ERSATZ" . . . . . again
During the World War we used to hear a great deal of the word "ersatz" which means, in German, "substitute." People wore "ersatz" clothes, ate "ersatz" food and so on. We learned then that Germany was a nation very short of raw material of all sorts, but very ingenious in inventing substitutes.

I remember some twenty-five years ago meeting Dr. Karl Duisberg, perhaps the foremost of Germany's industrial chemists. He showed me a set of "ersatz" rubber tires that he had made for the Kaiser's automobile. Germany was trying even then to make itself independent of natural supplies of raw materials. Duisberg's "ersatz" rubber was not very satisfactory, however, and very expensive.

Now the word "ersatz" appears again in the news dispatches. Germany is rearming, as she did in 1914. Her people are wearing "ersatz" clothes again. Her foreign commerce is falling off. To me the signs seem ominous.

SOCIETY

Wenday Music Club Entertains

Of premier interest to society circles here Saturday afternoon was the musical tea given by the Wenday Music Club at the spacious home of Mrs. J. K. Smith, when E. Edwin Young, head of the piano department and Herbert M. Preston, head of the violin department both of Hamilton-Simmons University of Abilene were presented in a joint program. These artists have spent a number of years in study here and abroad, having appeared in concert tours throughout the country and Munday music circles were fortunate to be able to bring them here. Each member of the Music Club was privileged to bring one guest and many out of town visitors were present.

Snap dragons and other spring flowers were artistically arranged in the living room suite, while the lace laid dining table was centered with carnation and fern. Here punch was served by Mrs. J. Horace Bass, with dainty refreshment plates passed by Mesdames Joe Davis, M. F. Billingsley and L. S. Handigree.

Mrs. Clarence Eiland is president of the Music Club and Mrs. Louise Ingram is director of the choral club.
