Board Voters to Determine Fate of Highway 16 Tomorrow

PURCHASE OF RIGHT-OF-WAY IS PROPOSED

county-wide election will be held in Foard County tomorrow, to determine whether or not the county should issue bonds for the purpose of buying right-of-way for the construction of Highway No. 16 from north to south to Wichita River.

The election was ordered by the commissioners court on April 12 and an official notice concerning the election was published in The News four weeks ago.

The election will be conducted by regular voting boxes over the county by the regular election officials. All property taxpayers of the county who have not yet been entitled to vote in the election.

The proposed route is in the east of Foard City, yet it would be less than one mile, or approximately one mile, farther from Crowell over the present highway.

The reduction of the interest rate was made possible by a recent sale of Federal Intermediate Credit Bank debentures to investors at an unusually low rate of interest. The association gets money to lend farmers from the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston.

MOTORISTS ARE THANKED FOR HELPING TO IMPROVE LOCAL TRAFFIC CONDITION

MISTRIAL IN CASE AGAINST VERNON MAN

A mistrial was entered in district court here last Saturday in the case against R. E. Martin of Vernon, charged with embezzlement, when the jury failed to agree after several hours deliberation.

TOMORROW'S ELECTION

Would you spend $1.00 in order to receive $37.50? And if you did not have the dollar, yet could borrow one, would you do so in order to get that $37.50? Common sense indicates that you or anyone else would.

CLASS OF 1934 EQUAL TO LARGEST IN HISTORY OF C. H. S.

TWENTY BOYS AND 18 GIRLS TO GRADUATE

With thirty-eight in the graduating class of Crowell High School for 1934, this number is the same as that for 1930, at which time the number to receive diplomas was the largest in the history of the school.

An unusual feature of the 1934 class is the fact that there are more boys than girls, the numbers being 20 and 18. In the Class of

'30, the girls outnumbered the boys, 25 to 13. The largest number of boys to graduate in past years was 15 in 1929.

The number of graduates for the past seven years follow:

Year	Girls	Boys	Total
1928	20	8	28
1929	17	15	32
1930	25	13	38
1931	19	7	26
1932	18	12	30
1933	17	13	30
1934	18	20	38
Total	134	88	222

The figures above are for the years in which the present superintendent, I. T. Graves, has served the local system.

Class History

We students who began our high school career as Freshmen in Crowell High in 1930 have at last attained the goal dear to the hearts of all C. H. S. students—that of being Seniors.

Although our Freshman class of '30 was large, it has been greatly increased by the addition of students from Margaret, Foard City, Vivian, Black, Four Corners and from other towns and communities. We as Seniors have enjoyed the privilege of having had the same faculty throughout the four years of our high school life.

This year, five Seniors played on the football team. They were Berl Lovelady, Guy Whitfield, Curtis Barker, Standley Womack and George Owens. Curtis and George were on the basketball team, and Curtis also participated in track events. Bill Baker and Rudell Russell were county winners for tennis doubles and Mozelle Lilly was a member of the girls' tennis doubles team which also won county championship. The district championship one-act play cast of 1934 included two Seniors, R. B. Cates and George Owens. Two Seniors, Alice Hunter and Maymie Lee Teague, competed in the Home Economics finals at Austin, Maymie Lee winning a first place.

Two of our Seniors, Jeff Bell and Lona Johnson, hold an unrivaled record for spelling. For the last four years they have won county championship. Another Senior, Sue Gorrell, won county in essay writing. All four debaters who were county winners for 1934 were taken from the Senior class, the boys' team being Bill Baker and Jeff Bell and the girls' team, Lona Johnson and Sue Gorrell.

The following Seniors were members of the high school chorus which won county championship in 1934: Donna McLain, Louise Pyle, Frances Ivie, who was a member of the quartet which won county championship, Alice Hunter, Mozelle Lilly, Cathryn Ferguson, Elsie Mae Cook, Lida Sue Gorrell, Maymie Lee Teague, Margaret Cates and Mary Dot Denton.

An achievement of which we Seniors are really proud is the winning of the high school queen by the Senior candidate, Mozelle Lilly. In the popularity contest of 1934 members of the Senior class won two places, Jeff Bell as the most dependable boy and Sue Gorrell as the most dependable girl.

The social calendar of the Senior class has been full and interesting this year. To start the season, the Seniors entertained the faculty with a chicken barbecue in September. In October the Seniors enjoyed a delightful spooky Halloween party at the home of Mrs. S. S. Bell. During the Thanksgiving holidays the Seniors were entertained in the home of Berl Lovelady with a party. Soon afterwards, on December 23, Rudell Russell was host to the Senior class at a Christmas party in his home. In January,

Seniors' Answers to Foard County News Questionnaire Bring Many Interesting Facts; Beating Olney Gave Biggest Thrill; Sue Gorrell and Jeff Bell Are Honored

Twenty-Eight Subjects Are Taught in C. H. S.

Crowell High School is affiliated with the University of Texas in twenty-seven of the twenty-eight subjects taught in this school. Typing was a new course added to C. H. S. this year and no affiliation has been secured for this subject yet, however, prospects are favorable affiliation will come by next year, thus giving C. H. S. full affiliation in every subject taught.

The subjects taught in C. H. S. are: English I, English II, English III, English IV, Ancient History, Modern History, American History, English History, Texas History, Civics, Economics, Algebra I, Algebra II, Plane Geometry, Trigonometry, Physiology, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Agriculture, Home Economics I, Home Economics II, Business Arithmetic and Typing.

Louise Pyle gave the Seniors a backward party, which proved to be one of the most enjoyable events of the year. On Valentine the Senior sponsor, Walker Todd, entertained the Seniors with a Valentine party in his home. The Juniors on April 12th honored the Seniors with the biggest social event of the year, the Junior-Senior Banquet, while on May 8 the Seniors responded with a picnic at Gribble Park for the Juniors. The Senior class mothers, Mrs. A. W. Lilly and Mrs. Vernon Pyle, entertained the Senior class with a delightful breakfast on May 16. On May 18 the Seniors spent a wonderful Senior day at Medicine Park, an event to which all had been looking forward to throughout the year.

We, as members of the Senior class of '34, wish to say that we have enjoyed to the utmost, the friendships of all our fellow students and teachers who have worked untiringly in an effort to prepare us to live worthy lives.

The Senior class as a whole is eagerly looking forward to graduation day when the Seniors with diplomas in their hands shall proudly march forth from the sheltering influence of dear old Crowell High, feeling that they are ready and well equipped to meet the responsibilities of life and to make citizens of which their alma mater shall be proud.

Over 600 pupils are enrolled in the Crowell school system. About 200 of this number are in Crowell High School.

A wide variety of interesting information concerning the 38 graduates of Crowell High for 1934 is revealed in the answers in the questionnaires that were submitted to each Senior by The News last week. Besides securing the information for "Brief Facts About Crowell High Graduates," the questionnaire also made possible enjoyable information on many other lines.

The questions were presented during a period at school and all answers were given without anyone conversing with another on any of the questions.

Biggest Thrill

In answer to the question regarding what single event gave them their biggest thrill in C. H. S., the Wildcats' exciting victory in football over Olney last year received the most prominent mention, 12 stating that it provided their biggest thrill. Other football games came in for mention also. Personal achievements provided a number of the greatest thrills. "Cut class twice and no one found it out," was the thrill given by one Senior girl. "Being able to graduate in '34," was mentioned by one of the fifth-year boys.

Sue's name was written 29 times, while 24 wrote Jeff's name in the boy's space. Lona Johnson for the girl choice and John Allen Fish for the boy, were next highest. A number of other Senior boys and girls were also named at least once.

Birthplaces

This-That, Etc.

By Typo Wrighter

Now that the Graduation Edition of 1934 is off the press and in the hands of our readers, we would like to know what you think of the idea of having such editions near the conclusion of school each year?

Next year we would like to have not only the pictures of Seniors, but group pictures of the other classes also. This year the Senior pictures and engravings were secured without the cost of a penny to a Senior and maybe some plan could be worked out between now and next spring whereby the same can be done for other students in the high school.

For this issue The News assumed the expense of securing the pictures and cuts, trusting that local business men would realize the value of running nice ads in the graduation edition in making our investment worthwhile and we have been more than pleased at their response. In fact, it was so good that we had to make the entire issue larger than we had at first expected, thus allowing more room for interesting school news.

L. V. Robertson, local photographer, furnished us with pictures at a very minimum of expense and his splendid co-operation did much to make this issue possible and we trust that many of those who have not purchased extra photographs from the original negatives will see fit to do so. Naturally the original photos show up better than it is possible to reproduce them in a newspaper.

The News was fortunate in having a number of other appropriate and timely cuts on hand for this issue and they help a lot in making this issue a sort of substitute school annual.

Although not so fancy and permanent as an annual, yet we believe you will find more reading matter in this issue dealing with school topics than you will see in the average high school annual.

The average high school annual cost is $2.50 to $4.00, while the cost of this "substitute" is but 5c to anyone wanting extra copies. Due to the expense of cuts, it is also necessary for students to share their cost in a high school annual, and of course this plan eliminates that extra burden.

Anyway, we trust that this edition will prove of real interest to you and in conclusion, we wish to express our most sincere thanks for the many forms of co-operation given us to make it possible.

Crowell really has the soft ball fever now and everyone is now seeing what the town missed in not having a local league before.

Amos Lilly's "Knee-Actions" are so proud of their record to date and state that they are now anxious to find out just how hot that Stovall team at Thalia really is. Mgr. J. A. Stovall was in Crowell last week and said he was afraid the "Knee-Actions" were about to back down on a game with his team. Anyway, the time seems ripe now for a contest between the two clubs.

Incidentally, no report of the Thalia league reached The News this week. We are also anxious to hear something more about that famous West Rayland team.

Six-Run Rally in 7th Inning Gives Paducah Victory Over Cats

Crowell lost a heart-breaker for pitcher Dink Russell in a baseball game at Paducah Sunday by the score of 9 to 3. Russell allowed only one hit until the 7th, when Paducah started bunting, with the result that he was driven from the box with a 6-run rally.

McMinn, Crowell infielder, led the batting attack for the day with four singles and one triple in five trips to the plate.

THE STORY SO FAR

Gordon trades herself in with Dr. Richard Morgan for fifteen thousand dollars—her family from the disfigurement of her brother, Roddy's, of that amount for a woman, who loves penniless young Page, and Richard is loved by a Haddon, a sophisticated married woman, Kingdon. Helena's husband, sees her, but holds his counsel, the ceremony, Nancy resigns to her position, Mr. Morgan, to release his daughter, what he considers her shame, sells his house to his son, Major Lomax, who rents it to the original owner, Helena is in a hurry to get married, and tries to make a deal. Once Page comes to her home and makes love to her, she is frantic—she loves Page and refuses to go back on her word with Richard by divorcing ready, and the girl helped her. "Have you had anything to eat?" "Me eat? Fer th' love o' Mike, however kin th' likes of me, git time ter eat—an him so sick!" "Oh!" Nancy found a little tea, half a loaf of dry bread, some sugar, and she managed to spread an old clean napkin on the end of the table. Then she sliced and toasted bread and made tea.

In spite of herself, Nancy watched Richard covertly. In the stern conflict that he waged, she had no place at all! She felt suddenly insignificant. Her very rage at his domination dwindled. She was spellbound; she had never noticed before how strong he was, how powerful and deft his hands in their dangerous office.

Nancy put the kettle back and dropped down on the floor beside the old stove, furious.

She had gone to this man and offered to marry him. After she had refused him, she had given herself to him legally. And tonight she had seen how great he could be—and he had not even looked at her.

Nancy could not stand it. She got up and went to the door and opened it. It was pitch black outside. She could not go; she wanted to go home—she was willing to wade through the mud and the water, anything, to get away! But she could not; there was no light anywhere. She shut the door silently and turned back; she did not want to see him again, but she could not help it.

He had his watch in his hand and was counting the child's pulse. It did not matter to him whether she went or stayed—so long as she did not obstruct him in his work. The strain on her mind grew way suddenly; she felt as if she had fallen through space; she did not matter at all! She sat down, huddled, on the window sill and stared out at the night.

Mr. Gordon, scornful to admit anxiety, sat up late, waiting for Nancy. Before the storm reached its height, Mrs. Gordon had phoned to Angie Fuller to know if Nancy had been there. Angie's reply that she had left before the rain began, worried the poor woman.

Mr. Gordon, pretending to read his newspaper, grunted.

"I've thought for some time that my children didn't have sense enough to come in when it rained!" he growled.

But all the same he sat up himself. Long after he had driven his worried wife upstairs, he tramped up and down the old room.

He went to the windows and threw open the shutters. It was morning now and the rain-swept earth smelled sweet. A mackerel sky showed its golden scales all over the rosy east. Mr. Gordon started down into his own garden. The Japanese quince was sagging in the corner. He started violently. He had heard his old gate creak on its hinges.

"The child's come home!" he thought with sharp relief.

But he opened the door to Page Roemer. The young man's clothing was wet and muddy, but Mr. Gordon did not see it.

"I believe I've forbidden you the house," replied Nancy's father.

"Mr. Gordon, your daughter was down at the inn when the storm broke yesterday afternoon. She went out—at its height—no one knows where. We can't find a trace of her!"

"When was it?" he asked, "and why did she leave?"

Page's answers were vague, but he said that Helena Haddon and her husband were both there. Helena had been with him, lending her car to help in the search.

"Go on, make what inquiries you can," he said sharply to Page.

"Try the Lomaxes. I've got to speak to my wife—then I'll look myself."

"I've been there!" Page's face set itself, then he looked at Mr. Gordon. "I went to Morgan's, but he's out, been out all night."

Mr. Gordon said nothing. He shut the door in the young man's face and went upstairs.

"Nancy was at the inn when the storm broke. The Haddons were out there; that Roemer boy's just come here to tell me. Of course, Nancy got out of it to shake him off. Don't worry, Mama; I'm going to see about the telephone, our wire's down on top of the Japanese quince."

Mrs. Gordon crept out of bed and dressed herself. She came downstairs before Amanda made the coffee, and tried to set the breakfast table, when Amanda came out from the kitchen.

"I'm makin' biscuits, Mis' Gordon, an' Mis' Haddon's autermobil's at de gate—I reckon yo' all gots ter go ter de doah yo'self."

Helena came up the path alone. Mrs. Gordon was agitated when she opened the door.

"Oh, Mrs. Haddon, where's Nancy?" she cried.

"I came here—I hoped she'd come home," Helena replied gently.

ly. "I've been nearly crazy all night," she said weakly. "Mr. Gordon's sure she's stopped somewhere—because of the storm. Page came here a while ago."

Helena's long eyes blimmed under their heavy lids. So, she thought, there is something in it! She thought she knew it all now. The mystery of Polestar's condition—discovered late the night before—had been explained just before she left the house. Henry had confessed to Kingdon Haddon. He had also told where Morgan went.

Amanda came to the door. "Mist' Page Roemer's outside, m'm. He'd like ter see Mis' Haddon."

Helena leaned over and deliberately kissed Mrs. Gordon. He's going with me. We'll find her. Don't be frightened," she said.

"I know where she is, dear boy," she said softly to Page. "I've just found out—we'll go and get her. She can't walk home through this mire."

Page knew nothing and divined nothing beyond his own mad anxiety. He knew that the mad infaturation of his own passion, his blind belief in Nancy's love for him, had led to this. Nancy had gone out into the storm to escape him. He hated Morgan again, hated him with all his soul, because Morgan had done what he could not do. But he followed Helena into her car. If she knew where Nancy was, he would find her—and if he found her, he would make her forgive him.

Nancy was drying her shoes by the fire when the big car—failing to cross the stream—stopped nearly a quarter of a mile away and Page and Helena took to the path over the hill.

Richard was still with the child, but the crisis had passed in the night and his poor mother, in the collapse of relief, was lying asleep on the floor. Nancy, shut out of the sick room, was trying to get ready to walk home.

She was putting on the wrecks of her shoes when there came a knock at the door. Richard himself came to answer it. He was still in his shirt sleeves. He had stripped off his collar and the strong cords in his throat showed like the scrolled muscles of an athlete.

The next moment the door opened and the broad sunshine showed her Helena and Page Roemer. Helena caught at Richard's arm.

"Richard!" she cried anxiously, "you're killing yourself! It's not right—we can't let you do it—you're too valuable!"

Diabetics Should Not Die Says Health Dept.

Austin, Texas. — Diabetics should not die, and yet they do and more of them most every year, stated Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, while speaking of the disease that is known as diabetes. The reason for most of these deaths is that the patient has not studied his disease.

Acid poisoning—diabetic coma—has been the diabetic's greatest danger, but with the use of insulin it should now no longer occur. Coma comes because patients over-eat and break their diet, and thus neglect to keep their urines free from sugar. Coma comes during acute infections, whether general, like pneumonia, tonsillitis, grip, or during local infections such as carbuncles and abscesses.

Another diabetic danger is gangrene which most commonly attacks the feet and often begins with injuries to the toes which become sore, because they were cut or bruised particularly when they were not clean. Diabetes is becoming more frequent because it is a disease chiefly of middle life and old age and today people are refusing to die young and so are living to die old. If one does not die of tuberculosis or diphtheria, it leaves more to die of diabetes and cancer, and hence the mortality from these diseases is rising. It is not contagious, it can be controlled by diet and insulin along with common sense and exercise, and if you have it you know you are in good company because so many famous people have had it too.

But if you don't want it, you stand a good chance of escaping it if in middle life you keep your weight at what the insurance companies with their weight tables and life tables have shown to be the best for longevity, namely a few pounds below the standard weight for age and height—in other words above forty years of age be thin rather than fat.

Boys and Girls

Mary Elsie Weems, of Coral Gables, Fla., has recently been adjudged "Miss Florida" in a beauty contest held at the Miami Biltmore hotel.

Harrie Nader, Jr., of West Point, Ga., recently won the children's popularity contest in the Chattahoochee Valley.

again to take farm products in international trade can be built up large quantities, it has been decided wise national policy to take 43 million acres of good farm land out of production. Farmers are being paid good money to do this. Insofar as this retired land can be used to help the farm family live at home, where they have not previously had enough land to do this, the Government is willing that it be done in the case of the cotton and wheat programs. The Administration also knows it to be sound national farm policy to swing cultivated land to pastures, and therefore encourages that land be sown to permanent pasture crops that normally do not furnish grazing the first year after seeding.

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration has brought millions of dollars to Texas farmers and in return asks co-operation in restricting all farm production during this trying transition period. The Administration is given permission to plant retired acres to anything and everything.

The Harvest Season is no Time for Twine Experiments

Rely on INTERNATIONAL

The difference between the price of poor twine and good twine varies from 3 to 6 cents per acre. The difference between the cost of poor twine and good twine cannot be measured by any such small change as pennies and nickels. Out in the harvest fields where time is money, this difference must be figured in dollars. And you pay this difference, with heavy interest, if you use poor twine.

Suppose you are harvesting the crop on a fifty-acre field and you have a break of one bundle per acre. What is it worth to stop the binder 50 times to make 50 adjustments? And will you get by with an average of but one broken bundle to the acre? Whenever your past experience has included twine troubles, what did the cheap twine really cost you?

International Twine has quality woven into it. Uniform length means uniformity in thickness; there are no extremely light and heavy places to cross in the knotter when the thin strand passes through the heavy strand without tying. This twine is correctly twisted so that it will not kink and snarl when running from the ball. See us now about your twine requirements for the harvest. Rely on International Twine when you go into your fields at harvest time.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY GIVEN BY MEMBER OF JUNIOR CLASS

Crowell High Band Started This Year; To Secure Uniforms

For the first time in its history, Crowell High School had a band of its own this year. Under the capable direction of L. T. Edwards, a group of inexperienced students were developed into a musical organization of which the school and community is justly proud.

During the year the band played for athletic contests, programs in the auditorium and other events, adding pep and enjoyment to each of these occasions. A better band than ever is expected next year.

Uniforms will be ordered soon and the band members will have them by the time the 1934-35 term opens.

Members of the band are: Tom Ray Roberts, John Lee Orr, Milton Magee, Dupree Allen, cornets; Burke Bell, Glendon Reeder, F. L. Rennels, Jr., James Everett Long, reeds; H. K. Edwards, Jr. Sam Crews, Jr., Wayne Cobb, trombones; Orville Orr, baritone; J. C. Ross, bass; Billy Drabek, alto; Fred Mabe, snare drum; Alice Hunter, bass drum.

Crowell musicians that are not high school students who have played with the band on various occasions are: Brown Franklin, trombone; Fred Kinsey, bass; Esca Brown, clarinet; Marion Crowell, cornet; Joe Ben Roberts, clarinet.

Director Edwards also plays with the band, using most any instrument that will increase the effectiveness of a particular number.

The following Senior prophecy was given by F. L. Rennels, Jr., member of the Junior class, at the annual Junior-Senior banquet on April 12:

Howdy folks, if I can find my glass eye and if you can manage to keep Walker Todd from snoring, I will attempt to star gaze a little and tell you about these high and mighty Seniors in the year of 1934. Everything is a little cloudy at present, but it is getting clearer.

As I gaze into the crystal I see Elsie Mae Cook, now 17. As you remember, she was a flopper at 17, an old maid at 25, taught school 10 years and who, in spite of the infirmity of years, has retained some degree of mentality.

O boy, O boy. What is this? It is one more Snuff Dipping Contest. Who is the winner?—Hot-cha—It's Louise Pyle.

What do we have here? A great football game is in progress. Southern California is playing Duke. Coach Curtis Barker and his boys have again beaten Duke.

I am now looking at the columns of the Wichita Times. Ah, what do I see in the Lovers' column? None other than Mozetta Middlebrook, formerly Mrs. Ben Whitfield. She is now a grass widow writing a column for the paper giving advice on engagements, flares, weddings, honeymoons and divorces.

Have you seen The Foard County News? Boy, it is a wow! Sue Gorrell is the feature writer. Her feature of the week is an article on "How to Kill Cockroaches."

Margaret Cates no longer lives at Wolf Town. She is a prima donna in the Claytonville community, sings in the village choir and makes biscuits for Melton Connell.

It seems that Thomas Smith, Darwin Bell and John Allen Fish have formed an organization for the purpose of flying a rocket ship to Mars. It is rumored that Pres. Fish is going to send Darwin on the trip.

The next person probably deserves our sympathy more than any other. It is Rudell—he is still a rich bachelor and all the girls are still chasing him. He uses Red Stag hair oil, Lifebuoy soap, Ben Hur perfume Listerine.

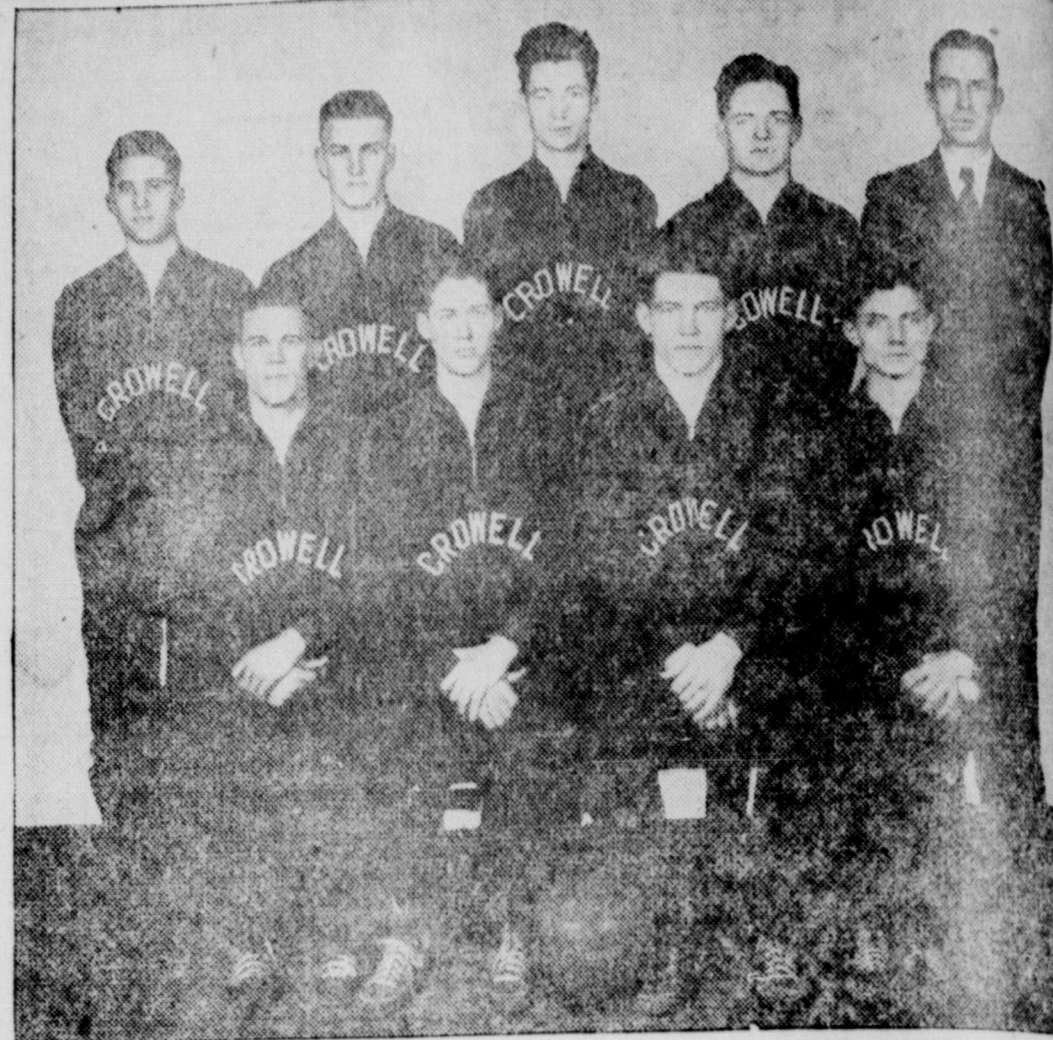

Is this a town? It is Crowell. Two fair damsels are waiting on their customers. They are Bernice Collins and Donna McLain giving Willard Kerley and Allison Denton their daily facials. Bernice and Donna are the best barbers in Crowell.

And what do I see here? Frances Ivie is having her face lifted for the third time—as all of you know, she is the second Kate Smith.

I next see amusement row coming into view. Sh! Where is the place? What? I see a lovely road house east of Foard City in the brakes. Let's take a look inside. What do I see? None other than the second Texas Guinan, or dance hall sally, in all her glory—Cathrynne Ferguson.

Wait a minute. I believe that the next one is at a circus. I hear a famous barker who is calling out the features of his show. Why it is none other than Jeff Bell still trying to fool the innocent people.

Basketball Team of 1934 Sets New Record

A new record for District No. 4 was set this spring when the C. H. S. Wildcats won the district basketball championship for the fourth consecutive year. Those in the picture of the 1934 basketball squad above are:

C. H. S. Boys Are Culinary Experts

By ORVILLE ORR

In the culinary field, C. H. S. is well represented by the male sex, starting John Allen Fish, the biscuit-baking boy, who is employed during the summer months by the Acme Brick Co.

Then there is Herbert Rettig, whose art is restricted more to French dishes, such as pie-a-la-mode.

George Owens, the dish bather, who manures knives and forks, occasionally indulges in the gentle art of potato peeling and mashing.

Chester Graham, more commonly known as "Soap Suds Samuel," can prepare eggs in such a fashion that only one who relishes them, escape with such a minor casualty as indigestion.

The writer will not list his own great qualities in the field of baking, for fear that such action might be interpreted as an effort to secure free advertising for his Dad's business.

Anyway, in this ancient art, it seems that members of the fairer sex have failed to hold the prestige they once had.

By A Senior
Realizing that this Graduation of The News will list the more serious side and important happenings of our class and school, I, as a representative of the "dumber element" of the Class of '34, feel that other things should also be mentioned, for they will stand out in our minds for a long time, nevertheless. For instance:

Hugh Spott's popularity with the opposite sex.

The lengthy careers in C. H. S. of Fred, Orville, Melvin—and there are some others too, but will not mention them on account of our chivalrous nature.

Madge Moyer's tardiness. Maybe it was because of the great distance (one-half block) that she had to walk.

Wonder if Melton Connell and Herbert Rettig could double for Mutt and Jeff.

What would an outsider think if he heard—Guy discuss Alpine, Bill discuss Altus, and Madge discuss Wichita? Bill will also tell anyone, except Seniors, how he passed chemistry.

And to think that Maymie Lee won a State championship in baby clothes. She's some baby, if you ask me.

Evidently Rudell is the lover par-excellent, for he is now courting one of the Soph dames.

Mozelle says she hates to think of leaving C. H. S. Is CHS the only reason? No!

Crowell High School rightfully lays claim to one of the greatest records of any high school in West Texas. Besides maintaining a high and efficient scholastic standard, the school has won eleven district championships, a state championship, bi-district championship and State quarter-finalist honors during the past five years. Numerous other individual championships have also been won by C. H. S. during this period.

Great Record for 1933-34

During the 1933-34 term, C. H. S. kept up its wide reputation for winning championships by winning the bi-district championship in football and district championships in basketball and one-act play. At the district Interscholastic meet, Crowell won first in literary events and second in track, being defeated by the narrow margin of one point by Matador.

Football Record

After winning second place in District 4-B football competition for the two previous years, the Wildcats smashed Olney's 5-year undefeated district record last fall with a 19 to 12 victory to give C. H. S. its first district football championship. After beating Graham 25 to 6 for the bi-district title, the Wildcats lost to Rockwall, 34-7, in the regional game. During the past 5 years Crowell has played 51 games, won 49, lost 9 and tied 2.

Basketball

A new basketball record for District 4 was set this year when Crowell won the district championship for the fourth consecutive year. Lamesa, second place winner in the State meet, eliminated the

Crowell High's bi-district championship football squad of the past season is pictured above. Those in the picture are, bottom row, left to right: Paul McKown, Aldon Horn, Dick Todd, Capt. Bill Dunn, Lester Patton, Guy Whitfield. Middle row, Jim Riley Gafford, Bill Dunagan, Berl Lovelady, Edward Jones, Lance Middlebrook, W. F. Brisco, John Cogdell. Top row, Raymond Gibson, Mark Saunders, Oscar Nichols, George Owens, Stanley Womack, Frank Meason, Millard Marr (deceased), Curtis Barker and Coach Grady Graves.

Graves has coached basketball here, C. H. S. has played 181 games, winning 157 and losing 24.

Dramatics

Again this year, C. H. S. won the district one-act play championship, making the fifth consecutive year that C. H. S. has won this honor under the direction of Mrs. I. T. Graves. Last year Crowell won the State championship in the finals at Austin and this year it took the State championship cast, Pampa, to eliminate Crowell. The local cast was beaten by a very narrow margin by Pampa in the regional tourney at Canyon.

Track

Coach Walker Todd's track team won the district championship in 1932 and was defeated by only one point for the championship this year. Dick Todd, member of the team, was high point man in the district meet and second high point scorer in the regional meet at Canyon. He won fourth in high hurdles and fifth in the broad jump in the recent State meet at Austin.

Home Economics

An individual State championship was brought to C. H. S. recently by Maymie Lee Teague, who took first in judging of children's clothes at the State Home-Making Rally in Austin. Mary Byrl Bell won fourth in judging "meal service" at this same meet. Miss Ruth Patterson, home economics instructor, accompanied these two winners and Edith Marie Gover and Alice Hunter, who were in the finals, to this State rally.

Senior Girl Attends Schools in 8 Cities

Madge Moyer has attended more schools than any other member of the Class of '34. Beginning her educational career at Findlay, Ohio, she has since attended schools at Texarkana, Fort Worth, Lubbock, Plainview, Wichita Falls, Abilene and Crowell.

Bill Baker and Hugh Spotts have also attended several schools as follows: Bill—Manitou, Headrick, Tesca, Altus and Frederick, Okla., and Clarendon and Crowell; Hugh—Vernon, Margaret, Lockney, Flomont, Ramsey, Irick Smyer and Crowell.

Mrs. R. L. Kincaid left Friday afternoon for Des Moines, Iowa, where she will attend the National P. T. A. Convention, which is now in session there. From there she will go to East Orange, N. Y., to visit her brother, C. E. Stephens, who is vice president of the Westinghouse Co., one of the nation's largest electrical manufacturing companies.

She plans to be at Columbia University in New York City early in June to see her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Kincaid, receive her Master's degree from that institution. Miss Kincaid has been a student in this university for the past year and will return to Crowell about the middle of June. They will return by boat to New Orleans.

Shower Last Week For Recent Bride At E. Swaim Home

Mrs. Bill Elliott was honored by her life-long friend, Miss Harriett Swaim, on Thursday morning with a delightful miscellaneous shower. Guests were received by the hostess' mother, Mrs. E. Swaim, and were presented to a receiving line with Miss Swaim, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. H. Schindler, Mrs. G. F. Elliott and Mrs. Dow Miller. The guest register of the bride's book was presided over by Miss Allison Self, and more than sixty guests registered. Mrs. A. F. Wright sang "Oh, Sweet Mystery of Life." Evelyn Jean Seales gave a reading, Wanda B. Cobb entertained with a tap dance and Doris Oswald sang "Sweethearts Forever." The musical numbers were accompanied by Mrs. Arnold Rucker, Mary Evelyn Edwards then addressed herself to the bride, who occupied a special seat of honor, and, in verse, told her life's story, from her school days to her marriage. Mary Evelyn attended Mrs. Elliott in 1931 when she graduated from the Academy of Mary Immaculate in Wichita Falls. Then she led her to an adjoining room where beautiful gifts awaited. Guests were served to punch, poured by Miss Allison Self and Mrs. Merl Kincaid. The house was attractive with cut flowers of the season.

Beautification of Hi-Ways Discussed At Co. Federation

An interesting feature of the Foard County Federation which met in the Methodist Church on Friday, May 4, was a talk on "Highway Beautification in Texas" and also a talk on "The Restoration of Jamestown" by Mrs. Ben G. Oneal of Wichita Falls. Mrs. Oneal told of the project under way to restore Jamestown, Va., to its original condition by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Mrs. M. S. Henry was leader of the program for the day and Mrs. Hines Clark reviewed an article, "Where Shall I Send My Daughter to College?" Mrs. Tom Russell talked on "College and the Poor Boy," and Mrs. N. J. Roberts on "We Modern Parents." A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at the noon hour with the Columbia Club as hostess club. Mrs. S. E. Tate, president, called on Mrs. Hubert Brown, who was a delegate to the district Federation Convention recently held in Amarillo, to give a report of that meeting. Her report was interesting and instructive. Mrs. T. B. Klepper reviewed some magazine articles on "Motion Pictures and the Child."

Seniors Entertain Juniors With Picnic At Park Last Week

In response to the annual banquet given the Seniors by the Juniors on April 12, the Seniors entertained the Juniors with a picnic at Gribble Park on May 8. The Juniors, Seniors and members of the faculty having left the school building at 5 o'clock, arrived at the park in time to play numerous out-door games, including football, baseball, red rover, leap frog, whip-to-the-right, flying Dutchman, three deep, races, and others.

When all had gained an appetite, refreshments consisting of several kinds of sandwiches, pickles, fruit and lemonade were served. Soon the games were resumed and continued until after sunset. After the picnic the Juniors gave fifteen raffle for the Seniors, while the Seniors returned the hearty yell and gave others for the faculty, sponsors and Seniors. The Juniors and Seniors piled into the cars, tired but happy, and started home from the last picnic that the Senior class of '34 will have with the Juniors in C. H. S.

en. Mrs. Edgar Womack, in colonial attire, told Margaret Long and Evelyn Jean, who posed as her granddaughters, the story of a number of her quilts as she showed them to her. The quilts were further described in song by Mrs. C. W. Thompson and Mrs. Jim Cook, also dressed in colonial costumes. Mrs. Jno. Ray accompanied them and played several other selections, illustrative of some of the quilts. The quilts were displayed by Misses Elsie Mae Cook and Florene Miller. Wanda Bee Cobb gave a dance number.

An additional feature of the program was a display of dolls which had been brought from the different countries and dressed in the mode of that country by Mrs. Witherspoon of Dallas. She made a trip to the Orient last summer, at which time she secured the dolls and she lectured concerning the dolls and the country they represented.

Votes were taken for the prettiest quilts and a tulip quilt made by Mrs. Arnold Rucker received the most votes and one made by Mrs. Chas. Thompson received second place. Both ladies were given bouquets of roses as prizes. Mrs. Dow Miller and Mrs. Maurice Kenner served the guests to punch.

Roscoe Brown and Menard Girl Marry

5 Six-Footers... and not a cramp in a Carload!

FIVE big men can relax in utter comfort on the deep cushions of the Ford V-8. Wide seats keep elbows out of ribs. Ample leg room keeps legs from being cramped.

Why? Because Ford measures roominess in terms of usable body room. Not in terms of the distance between bumpers, which means nothing when you come to analyze it.

The Ford V-8's very engine construction gives you more body room, as the diagram explains. Cylinders are "doubled-up" saving space, not strung along in a line to waste it.

See how much less space is occupied by the V-8 engine as compared with the ordinary "six" or "eight." Less space for the engine means more space for the passengers.

The Ford V-8 front seat is adjustable. It quickly and easily adapts itself to a six-foot-two husband or a five-foot-two wife. It ends forever that source of strife.

Before you buy any car at any price, drive the Ford V-8.
