INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET OPENS TONIGHT

SCHOOL CENSUS BEING TAKEN IN FOARD COUNTY

Wednesday, March 31 Deadline; 50 Less Than Last Year

The taking of the 1937 school census for the Crowell Independent School district is practically completed, and must be completed by Wednesday, March 31, according to L. A. Andrews, district trustee.

The total at present shows a decrease of about 50 less than was taken at the same time in 1936. This is due to the fact that the school district is larger than last year because Beaver Creek, which was annexed to the district, has a larger population than last year. The census period closes on March 31. Parents whose children had not been enumerated are urged to get in touch with Mr. Andrews.

The scholastic age includes children between the ages of six and sixteen, inclusive. Children who are six years old before September 1 and under eighteen years of age under the scholastic age.

Children should be reported by Andrews so that the school will receive its share of the state and county school aid. Parents whose children are attending school should by all means notify the school trustee for school, so that the school will benefit of the school aid, which is distributed to the school district.

A school for Scout Masters will be held in Crowell next Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 2, 3 and 4.

Sleeping quarters will be furnished in the basement of the Methodist Church Friday night and Saturday night will be spent in the country, Saturday and Sunday will be devoted to field work.

Invitations have been sent to the following towns: Truscott, Paducah, Quanah, Chillicothe, Thalia and Margaret. Any man who is interested in Scout work and wishes to learn more about it is invited to attend.

Her letter follows:

"We appreciated so much your letter of sympathy. It was such a terrible tragedy it is beyond words to express. We were having a P. T. A. meeting and had met in the gym because the primary children were on the program for a demonstration, about one hundred, and there wasn't room in the auditorium. It was the first time we have ever had a regular meeting in the gym. We started at 2:30 o'clock and had them on before we had our business in order for the busses to run on schedule, some of the busses make as many as three trips. They had finished and were back over in their own building which is about four or five hundred feet away. I was, of course, out in front of the group and heard a blast and when I looked around I saw the top of the building going straight up in the air. Of course, I ran out there, as did everyone else, but the dust, smoke and silt from the cement and bricks were so heavy one could not get a breath.

"Of course I was thinking of getting to Juana Fay, but I had to feel my way until I got to the edge of the steps and buried my

Don't Gamble With Chance

Often in our haste or enthusiasm we throw caution to the winds, and all too often suffer the tragic results. It's far better to take a little more time and a little more care and do things the safe way than to gamble with the chance of an accident.

CHOKES STEALS your mileage

CHOKES USES UP GASOLINE 5 to 15 TIMES FASTER!

Scientific tests prove that the world's greatest gas-waster is right on your instrument board.

That innocent-looking "choke" button is the thief that steals your mileage.

While the choke is pulled out for starting, or while the motor is warming up, your gas tank is being drained five to fifteen times faster than normal!

The simple, easy way to reduce this excessive waste is to use the new Phillips 66 PolyGas. It needs the least possible choke, because it is extra high test. And it is extra high test without a penny of extra price, because Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high test gasoline.

The result is that car owners everywhere report records of remarkable gasoline economy... outstandingly fast starting... extra power, pep, and miles... far finer performance on every count.

Remember, this great gasoline is now better than ever, since every gallon is enriched with extra energy units by the patented POLYmerization process.

Next time you see the Orange and Black 66 Shield, stop for a trial tankful of Phillips 66 Poly Gas... GO EASY ON THE CHOKES... and then just feel that difference!

Feared Halley's Comet

The fear which Halley's comet inspired in 1066, as being connected with the Norman conquest, has never died. Its subsequent appearance in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth centuries struck terror into all the nations of Europe, and in 1910 it presaged disaster for the Titanic, which was then on the stocks. Or so said the superstitious—after the event.—Answers Magazine.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—Out of the pall of grief which fell over Texas and the nation in the wake of the New London school disaster, claiming the lives of 455 children and teachers, will doubtless come legislation designed to prevent a repetition of the disaster. A joint committee of East Texas senate and house members, named promptly, was studying the cause of the catastrophe, which early reports indicated was the result of accumulated gas in the basement of the school building. Whether this was from leaking gas connections within the building or from drifting gas from near-by oil wells had not been determined at this writing.

But sentiment among the legislators indicated very positively that possibly laws requiring a malodorous in commercial gas, a more rigid inspection of school buildings generally and other indicated legislative measures will come out of the unparalleled tragedy.

Allred Program Sunk Two additional major planks in the program of Gov. Allred fell by the wayside during the week when action by the senate state affairs committee virtually killed for this session the two pending major public utility regulation bills. The utility interests saw their fight virtually won for them by outsiders when the Texas League of Municipalities spokesmen vigorously opposed turning regulation over to a state commission, as provided in Alan Van Zandt's measure.

Mayors and managers of many Texas cities joined in opposition. Final passage of the Tennyson's house bill, extending the right of utility regulation to small incorporated cities and towns, appeared to be the only victory in sight for those seeking stronger utility control at this session.

The other Allred-sponsored measure was the Herman Jones franchise tax bill, a highly controversial bill. The house literally riddled it with amendments that would reduce its probable revenue-raising power from $12,000,000 to less than $3,000,000 annually, and almost killed it by a motion for indefinite delay. The governor had strongly urged higher franchise taxes, devoting a large section of his original message to the subject.

Parole Board Created Texas acquired a legal system of pardon and parole, carrying out the terms of the constitutional amendment adopted last year, when the long deadlock between house and senate on where the board's headquarters should be located was broken by a compromise, with Austin designated as headquarters, but stipulating that the board must spend at least 15 days each month at either Huntsville or the prison farms. The new law removes much of the load of responsibility from the governor and prevents forever, it is believed, a repetition of "pardon peddling" by making it impossible for the governor to grant any pardon not first recommended by the board.

Labor Trouble Looms Possibility of a re-enactment in the Texas oil fields of the bitter labor warfare and sitdown strikes staged in Detroit was seen by some observers here as the date neared for the April drive of John L. Lewis' organization to enlist oil field workers under the banner of his committee for industrial organization. Seeking apparently to head off this drive, some major oil companies announced wage increases and other forecast such a step. The International Association of Oil and Gas Well Workers, already well entrenched in the Texas fields, is an affiliate of Lewis' union and provides a substantial nucleus for the drive, which will be launched by Lewis in person with speeches in several strategic oil centers in Texas next month.

Oil Cut Anticipated Meanwhile, a reduction of allowable oil production was announced after the statement by Rail Commission Chairman C. V. Terrell, pointing out the ample stocks of refined gasoline on hand, the decline in winter consumption of fuel oil and recent additions to crude stocks in storage. Continued drilling of new oil wells in Texas has brought the differential between marginal and flush wells to about three barrels, and many operators feel that some step, such as enactment of the pending Clint Small bill to prorrate marginal wells below the present 20-barrel minimum, must be taken soon if the commission is to continue to maintain the differential in favor of flush wells required by the Fed-

BYE-BYE TO OIL WORRIES CHANGE TO OIL-PLATING All the other "serious stuff" is out, if you take just one thing seriously about your engine oil . . . In selecting it—for a '37 model or anything else—be guided by things you really know for yourself. With this firmly fastened layer of lubricant always maintained on cylinders, bearings and other parts, it stands to reason that friction never finds them naked. They remain all covered constantly with slippery Oil-Plating, as though they were built with it on. It's on, every time you start the engine, because Oil-Plating can't run down "between times." And it's on throughout your hardest run, because Oil-Plating isn't liable to the usual "squeeze-out, scrape-off and burn-up." None of those worries any more, as you change to Conoco Germ Processed oil—and Oil-Plating economies. Continental Oil Co.

School Tragedy—

face until I could get a breath. The principal of the grade school, Mr. Waggoner, was just ahead of me, as we had asked him to go into the main building to get some paper for ballots. He was knocked down by the flying debris and was cut on the head. When it cleared away so one could see, which was about two or three minutes, all around was fallen debris and the children were all around screaming and waving their little hands, crying for help and dropping over dead, some were blown clear out of the building as they were laying all around dead. Words cannot express what a terrible sight it was, mothers running wild, screaming for their children. I don't know how long it was until I saw Juana Fay crawl out, however, she was only scratched almost all over. I tried to help get some of them out but the timbers and bricks were so heavy I couldn't get them free. I think it was about thirty minutes before I found Juana Fay, but it seemed like hours.

"The entire building was completely demolished, except the back walls of one wing, which housed the manual training department and a part of the stage in the auditorium was left standing. Mr. Hughston, I saw hundreds of the children with legs, arms and heads torn off and their bodies were mangled beyond recognition. After I found Juana Fay lots of the mothers asked me to help find their children. We ran up on top of the wreckage and Juana Fay said, "Oh, Mother, there is Miss Hanna," one of her teachers. She was mangled terribly, but Juana Fay knew her dress; I took two injured to town in my car and we knew there were hundreds under there smothering, if not crushed to death. I believe 90 per cent of the dead never knew what had happened. We lost nine of the teachers of the grade section, there were sixteen in that section and fourteen of the thirty-five in that building were killed. After a while, when we were pretty sure they were all dead and laying them out on the ground, several of my friends who had children that were Juana Fay's friends, asked me to help them identify their children. I began to go along and draw the cover back to see if I could find them and about the only way they could be identified was by their clothes. There was a group of Juana Fay's friends that were with since the third grade, about ten in number, and there is only two of them left, Juana Fay and one more.

"Fay and I went to Henderson to the funeral home trying to identify some bodies and we walked over rows and rows of dead, pulling the sheets back and when they were identified their names and numbers were pinned on them.

"It was only a short time until thousands of people were there as the blast was heard as far away as 15 miles. The oil companies all around sent crews and trucks, tractors, cats, everything to help dig out. They worked all night and until four the next day removing bodies. They soon strung up strong lights and put a broadcasting station on the ground. The Red Cross, Salvation Army, National Guards and ambulances, doctors and nurses from as far away as Dallas and Shreveport were soon there. Every building around was used for hospitals and morgues.

"For the last three days we have done nothing but go from funeral to funeral and around trying to console. I am thankful that mine was spared, but oh, how my heart bleeds for the others. Some lost as many as four children and one or two mothers were killed.

"Fay was working in Kilgore and didn't know if we were safe or not until he got here. You know we think when three or four are killed it is terrible, and it is, but just think of 455 children taken out of one community. It seems that all the sunshine is gone, nearly every home was touched.

"I don't know where the few that are left will finish the year, probably at Overton or a nearby school. There were 739 enrolled in that building and 600 in the primary building. You see there is not many left, possibly 200 in the grade school and high school. We were so proud of our band, had about 65 in it, now there is 12 left.

"The Parent-Teacher Association has received messages from all over the United States and the school has received them from all over everywhere. I was over to Mr. Shaw's house this morning and the table was piled full of telegrams, etc. It does help to know others are sorrowing with you."

Neutrality—

After debating the McReynolds Neutrality Resolution, H. J. R. 242, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday, the House finally passed this bill Thursday afternoon by a vote of 374 to 12. H. J. R. 242 was substituted by the House of S. J. 51, which passed the Senate the week before. This measure now goes to conference for the differences to be worked out between the House and Senate. The measure, as it passed the House, continues the present temporary neutrality Act and put this legislation on a two year trial basis, as a national peace policy. The House bill allows the President wide discretion in his powers relative to the "Cash and Carry" provisions of the bill. It would permit the President in case of Foreign wars or civil strife to prohibit by proclamation exporting of arms and munitions to belligerents and any other goods he finds might endanger the security of the United States.

Treasury-Post Office Bill—

The Treasury-Post Office Bill, H. R. 4720, was passed by the Senate last Wednesday afternoon. The measure as it passed the Senate, appropriates $719,814,810 for the operation of the Treasury Department during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, and provides $785,323,477 for running the Post Office Department for that time. The Senate eliminated the amendment inserted by the House, prohibiting the use of Executive Department employees for Congressional investigations. The measure now goes to conference to iron out the differences between the House and Senate.

State, Justice, Commerce and Labor Departments Bill—

The State, Justice, Commerce and Labor Departments appropriation bill was reported favorably by the House Appropriations Committee Friday. This measure, H. R. 5779, calls for the appropriation of approximately $121,222,000 for the maintenance of the four Departments for the fiscal year of 1938. This legislation will be debated by the House this week beginning Monday, March 22. It will likely be before the House most of the week.

Judicial Reform—

The Senate continues this week its hearings on the President's Court proposal. The Committee had before it during the week Professor Leon Green, of Northwestern Law School, Dr. Edward S. Corwin, Professor of law at Princeton, Honorable John T. Deane, President of the National Lawyers Guild, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Minnesota, and Honorable Robert Jackson, Assistant Attorney General.

All of these and many other eminent students of law, have stressed the importance of adoption of the President's Judicial Reform program. To the average minded person, they have exploded most of the critics' propaganda, generated by the same reactionary forces of the past three campaigns and have shown clear, convincing reasons why the addition of new blood to the Supreme Court is badly needed at this time. It has been carefully pointed out practically the only consistency of the Supreme Court's decisions, is their inconsistency, whether in construing state's rights or legislation affecting hours, wages, rate cases or most any of the economic philosophy.

At night when you drive note how difficult it is to see some one walking on the highway, especially if another car is approaching. Remember this when you have occasion to walk on the highway. Walk facing all traffic on your side of the road.

Do not allow a cold to hang on. If you can't break it up see your physician. When a cold hangs on it is an indication that the system's resistance is low.

Two Minute Sermon

Two Minute Sermon
(By Thomas Hastwell)

The Mastery of Simple Faith: One of the many lessons to be learned from Paul is the lesson of his steadfast faith in the outcome of things. No matter what hardships he was called upon to endure, or what obstacles were thrown in his way he met them with a calm faith and a feeling of inward assurance that their final outcome would be all right. He built himself up to a point in his living whereby he was undaunted by any situation in which he found himself. What an achievement. What a blessing is such a triumphant inner life, especially in times such as these when all of the things that past practices have approved have gone awry, and seem unsound, when it seems that fate itself has turned against us. It is for such times and such stress that faith such as Paul's was designed, and in such times and in such stress it is the only thing that will sustain and carry through a troubled soul. It is the one thing that will calm our fears and drive away our worries and send us to the tasks of the day fit to do our best.

WISDOM TO THE RESCUE

Subscribers, your waiting and your anxiety is at the die is cast, and the Edition is in your hands. You may wash your hands of you may throw them away, burn the H. S. newspapers, the Senior Edition has the inevitable. It has overshadowed the previous of the under graduates of the High School News.

WHAT HAVE YOU

Burns could write a few poetry on a worthless sheet and sell it for $10.00—wonderful. A new Mellon can put a few on a sheet of paper and on $100,000—that's finance, you could take some glass, a pen and just a few tools and a light bulb—that's genius. A workman can take a piece of worth $5.00 and make watch worth approximately $5,—that's mechanics.

AND THESE

When there was the poor fellow, when someone painted a on his Adams-apple in his secured a glass of root beer as collar before he noticed when there was the thin girl who so very skinny that, had been for her Adams-apple not have had a curve on when there was the big bull who run around the haystack that he tickled his face as tail. When there was the slime who brought propoganda was a rose. When there was the absent mind who scrubbed the ring wife and kissed the bathtub. When there was the cannibal who liked the boys when they were stewed.

HIGH SCHOOL SERVANTS

—Student who fails in more subjects.
 —Student with insufficient points.
 —Student at the bottom of the class.
 —Student who does outdaring.
 —Student who wins honors.
 —Student who does not in four years.
 —Student who makes excuse not having assignment.
 —Student fond of dancing.
 —Student who keeps his mind.
 —Student who sits the exit in order to be the out.

CAN YOU IMAGINE—

Lee Orr with a haircut?
 Ed Middlebrook accepting with a young lady over the in Vernon?
 Ed Trammel in a tuxedo?
 Evelyn yelling at a ball Graves expressing his opinion Sloan with one foot in the grave and the other on a banana peeling?

 Ike Wilson confessing he is good looking and fascinating?
 The Seniors without their sophistication?
 Dorothy Erwin still being able to count her ribs?
 Joe Eddy wearing overalls and digging ditches for a wife and seven children?

SNOOPINGS

Is it true that Adolf Slovak is really fond of the little girl who sings in the quartet? Could it be the singing or the red hair that catches his heart?
 We wonder what will happen if Sam Jr. does not come home? Will Ann's hopes all be in vain, or will she just pass it off as an everyday occurrence?
 Will someone please find out why Vern Joy is so popular with the boys; the other girls of CHS would like to know so that they might try the same thing. (Or does a poor rule work more than one way?)
 We find that the Seniors are having a little difficulty in deciding where they want to go on Senior Day. It seems that the boys want to go to Galveston, but the girls want to go to Carlsbad. We wonder if the boys want to see the bay or the bathing beauties.
 Snooper wants someone to do something mean so that they can get some publicity, or might we say let their public hear what they do for past time.
 Is it true that Garland Rasberry was in Chillicothe Sunday? Now, Garland, is that any way to do your girl friend in Paducah?
 Ike Wilson says his activity record should be written up in the annual: "Geometry, 1932; Geometry, 1933; geometry, 1934; geometry, 1935; geometry, 1936; geometry, 1937."
 We hope Ike passes geometry.
 Is it true that Gilbert Lankford and W. Statter went out to see the little McLain girl three times last week and was sent back to town without her. We find that W. F. finally got a date Saturday night.
 Would someone please tell us what coyote means to Franklin Evans. He couldn't have seen one by any chance.
 Why did Mary Housouer leave school Monday afternoon before four? Couldn't have been because of a little girl from Truscott that goes with Bob Lilly. Oh, how some people should be pitied for being so popular with the women!

SENIOR PRESIDENTS

Where do Senior Class presidents go?
 Every year a class graduates and rarely do we stop and think about what happens to its leading member in later years. The High School News staff has compiled a record of all the Senior presidents since 1928 and now you shall know what they do.
 In '28, Tom Reeder was Seniors Class president. He left Crowell, studied medicine for eight years, and is now an interne in a hospital in Houston, Texas.
 Vance Swain led the Seniors in 1929. Vance studied law, practiced a while in Crowell, was elected to the office of County Judge, and is now connected with a bonding company in Lubbock, Texas.
 Ernest Spears was Senior president in '30. Ernest has married and still lives in Crowell. He drives a school bus and works in his father's blacksmith shop.

 Ragsdale Lanier was elected president of the Senior Class in 1931. He has married and is now farming in Knox County.
 J. M. Crowell became leader of the Seniors in 1932. He studied pre-med in Texas Tech and is now a member of the faculty in the Travis Grade School in Quanah.
 In 1933, Mitchell Allee was chosen Senior president. A year or two after he graduated he obtained a position with Williamson-Dickie, a clothing firm in Fort Worth. He has risen to the post of buyer for that firm and recently won a paid vacation to New York City.
 Fred Spears, Senior president in '34, is now in Bakersfield, Calif., working in the oil field there.
 Geraldine Carter led the Seniors in '35. She has attended N. T. S. T. C. and was a leading personage in the dramatic department of that college.
 The Centennial Seniors stole a march on the other classes and claimed two presidents within one term. They were F. L. Rennels and Sam Crews Jr. Both of these boys are attending A. & M. this year.

TRACK MEET

School will be dismissed Friday for the annual Inter-scholastic League Meet which will be held Friday and Saturday.

DESTINIES IN LIFE

Let us turn the wheel of time to the year 1942 and look into the lives of the ex-seniors of 1937. We shall find that they have chosen many different vocations in life.
 We find that their president, G. D. Reeder, has become a noted chiropractor.
 Mary Green—a charming night club hostess.
 Garrett Middlebrook—a dairyman.
 Myrtle McKown—President of Temperance Society.
 Joe Eddy—a famous cook.
 Edith Hutchesson—a dancing instructor.

STYLE SHOW

The Homemaking Style Show was held in the high school auditorium Wednesday evening of last week. A miscellaneous program was given with the following taking part: Ann Mabe, Jenny Dee Coffey, Mary Housouer, Lois Norris, Frances Welch, Thelma Moore, Maxine Lindsey, Wanda Rose Liles, Paula Plunkett and Billie and June Billington. After the program, dresses made by the following homemaking III students were chosen as winners: Juanita Brown, first; Camille Graves, second; Virginia Coffey, third; Beulah Ivie, fourth; Mozelle Lemons, fifth; and Effie Griffin, sixth. Winners of the homemaking II contest were as follows: Helen Harwell, first; Daphyn McClure, second; Virginia Murphy, third; Frances Davis, fourth; Lenagene Green, fifth; Audrey Rogers, sixth; and Louise Eubank, seventh.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL

It is the desire of the CHS students that an annual be published in connection with The Foard County News. The Seniors especially desire this. Desire alone, however, cannot publish one unless an effort is made to do it. The time is rapidly drawing near and unless immediate steps are taken, the Seniors of '37 will not have the usual Senior publication.

TYPEWRITERS IN CHS

Ed Brisco calls attention to the need of new typewriters in CHS by classifying the old machines in the following manner:
 "The common type is known as the 'Hawaiian' or 'Hula' model. It shimmies.
 "Number two is the 'Lovebird' type. Every part is stuck on some other part, and the keys are stuck on themselves.
 "The 'hop-skip-and-jump' variety is the Jesse Owens of its regiment. It always goes twice as fast as the typist.
 "Number four is the 'Journalists Special', a sort of aviator-type machine. The keys always look over the field before they land.
 "The last model is known as the 'Secretary'. It slips into your lap at the slightest provocation."

WOMEN

A gold digger is a girl who can make and break a man at the same time.
 An old-fashioned girl blushes when she is embarrassed, but a modern femme is embarrassed when she blushes.
 Women's styles may change but their designs remain the same.
 A girl has two views of a secret. Either it's not worth keeping, or it's too good to keep.
 The old-fashioned girl who stepped out fit as a fiddle has a co-od daughter who comes home as tight as a drum.

JOKES

Mr. Todd: "What was the first nitride?"
 W. F. Statter: "Paul Revere's."
 Mr. Graves (in plain Geo.):

"And if the centers are an inch and a half a part, where would the line be?"
 Class (in unison): "Off-side."
 Mr. Todd (absent-minded professor): "I forgot to take my umbrella this morning."
 Mrs. Todd: "When did you miss it?"
 Mr. Todd: "When I reached up to close it after the rain had stopped."
 Coach Graves: "Yes, the inside of our earth is a molten mass of rock and flame."
 Charlie Clark: "Ain't that hell!"
 He: "Then I'll see more of you soon?"
 She: "In the suite by and by."
 Miss Cogdell: "There's no difficulty in the world that cannot be overcome."
 Theda Wright: "Have you ever tried squeezing tooth paste back into a tube?"

THINGS I'D LIKE TO DO

To go on a sit-down strike in CHS.
 To call all of the professors in CHS by the nicknames given them by the students.
 To give John Bowley an audition over Dr. Brinkley's radio station.
 To make the "fish" boys spend the night in the cemetery.
 To have "Texas" Russell smoke a box of George Childs cigars.
 To have Mr. Todd's FFA class use some Lifebuoy on the chickens in the lab.

ESSAY CONTEST

For the three best essays on "Why a Boy or Girl Should Not Smoke or Drink," C. P. Sandifer has offered three prizes amounting to ten dollars, first $5.00, second $3.00 and third $2.00.
 Mr. Sandifer made this offer during a talk he made to the students at the assembly program Monday morning. He gave several suggestions toward writing a good essay and expressed a belief that the essays will be very good.
 The essays must have ten reasons and must be handed in to Mr. Graves by 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon.
 The judges are to be Rev. J. W. Tyndall, Rev. E. L. Yeats, and Judge Claude Callaway.

DICK TODD WINS

Dick Todd, former CHS student who is now attending A. & M. College, upheld his athletic notoriety by winning two first places in the Southwestern Track Meet held in Fort Worth last week.
 In the broad jump, Todd's winning leap was twenty-three feet, three and one-half inches. Although his time of 10.1 seconds in the hundred yard dash was nothing near record time, it was sufficient to give him first place in that event.

 Todd was also a member of the Aggie relay team, which took first honors in the meet.

FRESHMAN DEFINITIONS

Robert Saunders thinks steel wool is fleece from hydraulic rams.
 Frank Dunn maintains that fleece is a type of vermin which inhabits the canine race.
 Absinthe is a state of being away, or not present, as "Absinthe makes the heart grow fonder."
 Que Meason.
 Glendon Russell says culture means to apprehend. His example is: "I've culture red-handed, you rat."
 Jimmy Williams says a prism is a penal institution where convex are kept.

 Joe Spencer, after reading the definition of prism, believes that convex are merely state prisoners.
 Epistle—a gangster's weapon.
 —H. C. Brown.
 "Atoms," informs Charley Clark, "was second president of the United States."
F. H. T. CLUB

The F. H. T. Club met last Thursday afternoon in the home economics room. Effie Griffin was leader of the program in which Edith Hutchesson gave a talk on "Making Your Room Attractive." Frances Welch and Ann Mabe were hostesses.

P. T. A. Officers for 1937-38 Elected Last Wednesday

The Crowell P. T. A. met at the High School auditorium March 16. Mrs. Frank Fleisher presided over the election of officers for the ensuing year, 1937-38. Those elected were: president, Mrs. Allen Sanders; secretary, Mrs. Tom Russell; treasurer, Mrs. P. D. Moseley; publicity chairman, Mrs. Roy Steele; magazine study, Miss Mildred Cogdell.

The following delegates were chosen to attend the district conference which will convene in Wichita Falls April 13 and 14. Mesdames Allen Sanders, Hubert Brown, R. L. Kincaid, T. B. Klepper, Roy Steele, O. W. Orr, and Miss Mildred Cogdell.

The program for the afternoon was on "Good Taste" and was led by Mrs. Sanders with Mrs. F. A. Davis as the principal speaker. Mrs. Davis stated that good taste consists of suitability and carries the quality of simplicity. It is acquired through the practice of discriminating between worthy and unworthy values of life. "The secret of good taste lies in making correct choices," said Mrs. Davis.

Miss Cogdell brought a valuable lesson on dealing with fear in small children.

The audience was favored with two original plays by the Home Economics girls. Miss Patterson, director, stated that the girls had written and prepared the skits practically unaided. The first play had as its theme the value of school training in dealing with accidents in the home. The cast was Marjorie Spencer, Virginia May Coffey and Dorothy Dee Coffey. The second play carried out the idea of budgeting the family income for wise spending. The cast

Spring Atmosphere Features B. & P. W. Banquet Thursday

Business and Professional Women, their bosses and other guests were made to feel that Spring in all its loveliness had come Thursday evening at a banquet given at O'Connell's Lunch Room. Pear blossoms, violets, and wild flowers were used in the table decorations, and tiny Easter chickens peeped from their nests at each place. In the center a huge Easter rabbit held place of honor.

This affair was the highlight in the club's observance of National Business Women's Week, and was planned by Miss Myrna Holman and Mrs. Alva Spencer.

Between courses everyone joined in singing clever parodies on various popular songs. Following the meal a varied program was presented by Miss Holman, who acted as toastmistress. Leon Solomon opened the program by playing "Spring Song" on his violin. Later he played a medley of Irish songs. Mrs. Alva Spencer accompanied him at the piano. Mrs. John S. Ray gave an interesting and instructive talk on "Texas Wild Flowers and Their Legends." Mrs. Rudy Warner, of Quanah, entertained delightfully with two song and tap dance numbers.

Paper kites in pastel colors marked covers for Mrs. Warner and Miss Ernestine Cadenhead of Quanah, Mrs. John S. Ray, Mrs. Herbert Edwards, Mrs. Marion Crowell, Mrs. A. W. Lilly, Mrs. Bryan O'Connell, Messrs. and Mesdames M. S. Henry, Alva Spencer, Leon Solomon, Julian Wright, M. O'Connell, Mrs. Henry Borchardt, Mrs. Alice Bell, Misses Lennis Woods, Thelma White, Ruth Patterson, Doris Oswald, Myrna Holman, Blanche Hays, Jim Lois Gafford, Lottie Russell, Gussie Todd, Maymie Lee Collins, Annie Mae Ellis, Zell Saunders, and Messrs. J. H. Lanier, R. R. Magee, Hubert Brown, Ed Rettig, Walker Todd.

The new books in the library this week are "Opera Hat" by Clarence B. Kelland, and "The Rising Star" by Alice Duer Miller. "Opera Hat" is a hilarious story of a man who rose from a brass-band background and a wood-hides-and-fertilizer business education to the highest social position in New York. Longfellow Deeds was a poet and a tuba player. Other wise he was a rather normal fellow. In perfect contentment, he was settled down to live a quiet life in Mandrake Falls. And he would, undoubtedly, have done so if Victor Semple, the great philanthropist, had not driven him off the road in Milan, Italy, and left Longfellow his giant fortune and consisted of Ann Mabe, Lucille Welch and Lois Evelyn Norris. On April 20, the P. T. A. will have an all-day session with a covered dish luncheon honoring the school faculty and rural mothers. An interesting program is being planned and all town and rural mothers are urged to be present and enjoy a day with the P. T. A.

THALIA METHODIST W. M. S.

The Methodist W. M. S. entertained the Margaret W. M. S. with a social in the home of Mrs. H. W. Gray Monday afternoon. A splendid program was given by the Margaret Society, after which a number of games and contests were enjoyed under the direction of Miss Minnie Wood. She was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. C. C. Lindsey, after which a lovely refreshment plate was served to the following Margaret ladies: Mrs. E. A. Irvin, Mrs. J. H. Ayers, Mrs. Harry Kelsey, Mrs. Leon Wall, Mrs. W. T. Blevins, Mrs. I. W. Middlebrook, Mrs. John Taylor, Mrs. Leo Owens, Mrs. J. L. Hunter Jr., Mrs. S. J. Boman and Mrs. Luke Bledsoe. Those attending from Thalia were: Mrs. C. H. Wood, Mrs. L. A. Roberts, Mrs. W. G. Chapman, Mrs. J. K. Langley, Mrs. J. A. Stovall, Mrs. Hamer McBeath, Mrs. J. L. McBeath, Mrs. E. S. Fleisher, Mrs. Norman Gray, Mrs. J. F. Matthews, Mrs. C. C. Lindsey, Mrs. W. L. Cox, Miss Minnie Wood and the hostess, Mrs. H. W. Gray.

THALIA BAPTIST WOMEN STUDY HOME MISSIONS

A week of prayer program for Home Missions was given Friday by the W. M. S. at the Thalia Baptist Church with 12 women and the pastor, Rev. Holt, attending. The following program was given: Devotional, by Mrs. Holt; "Christian Courage," Mrs. Tarver; prayer, Mrs. Hathaway; "Training of Negroes," Mrs. C. C. Wheeler; Behind the Numbers, Mrs. Jones; Uplifting Christ to the Indians, Mrs. Holt; prayer for Mission Fields, Mrs. H. G. Cox, of the First Baptist Church, Vernon. Luncheon followed with an inspirational address on home missions by Mrs. Cox.

ROTARY CLUB

New officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting of the Crowell Rotary Club held in O'Connell's Lunch Room Wednesday at noon. They are Hubert Brown, president; Jack Seal, vice president; Merl Kincaid, secretary; and Floyd Thomas, Raymond Burrow and Hid Haney, directors. The program was in charge of Floyd Thomas with Frank Kirkpatrick as the principal speaker. Visitors at the luncheon were Carl Vestal, Rotarian of Quanah, and A. W. Barker.

LIBRARY NEWS

The new books in the library this week are "Opera Hat" by Clarence B. Kelland, and "The Rising Star" by Alice Duer Miller.

"Opera Hat" is a hilarious story of a man who rose from a brass-band background and a wood-hides-and-fertilizer business education to the highest social position in New York. Longfellow Deeds was a poet and a tuba player. Other wise he was a rather normal fellow. In perfect contentment, he was settled down to live a quiet life in Mandrake Falls. And he would, undoubtedly, have done so if Victor Semple, the great philanthropist, had not driven him off the road in Milan, Italy, and left Longfellow his giant fortune and a stable of opera stars. Mr. Semple had been president of the Continental Opera Company. "The musical world will expect you to carry on," the lawyers told Longfellow.

"I can only read the bass clef," replied the stunned Mr. Deeds. In Mandrake Falls he had been shy, but you should see him in his "Opera Hat."

"The Rising Star" is another of Alice Duer Miller's entertaining novels. Lovely Gloria Beach was a social leader; young Felicia Alderby was her child's nurse. Both went to Hollywood. To one came fame, to the other failure. This story tells of their experiences.

E. C. Calvin of Amarillo and Miss Edna Tucker of Wichita Falls were married Saturday morning in the Methodist parsonage with Rev. E. L. Yeats performing the ceremony.

Boxing Bouts

The match between Ed Gafford and Marvin McKown was the most exciting scrap of the evening. Both boys threw precaution to the wind and slugged throughout the three rounds, each so tired at the end of each round they could hardly stand and both were saved by the final whistle. Gafford won by a close decision. Trammell staged a come-back in his bout with Jack Bailey to win the last two rounds and the decision. The judges commenting on Trammell stated that he was big, fast and an India rubber man. John Lee Orr won easily over John Long.

As a whole the boxers are good "considering" the experience they have had. This is the second time that the majority of the boys have ever had boxing gloves on and the first time for several of them. Only a few have had any previous experience.

Members of the Vernon boxing team were visitors. Fred Gordon and Ed Luttrell, members of this team, acted as judges. These boys, who have had quite a bit of experience in the ring stated that Crowell had some very good boxing material.

Cowley

(Continued from Page One) St. Patrick's Day, Cowley's birthday and the day Governor Allred's third son, Sam Houston Allred, was born in the Executive Mansion.

As a legislator, Cowley made a reputation for getting things done with no ballyhoo, few speeches and fewer bitter fights. He supported the Allred program and the present Spenser, Bob Calvert, also from Hillsboro. The son of a retired Hillsboro merchant, Cowley worked his way through the local high school and two years of the University of

4-H Club Girls Are Planting Gardens

Oxheart carrots, particularly rich in food value and adapted for growth in tight soil, were planted by Leota Murphy, garden demonstrator for the Margaret 4-H Club. These carrots and six other varieties of vegetables were planted in a "canvassed" garden about six by fifteen feet in size. The seeds were planted in rows about six inches apart, a tiny bit of water poured directly on the seed and then covered. The carrots were covered with about one-half inch of well rotted manure to insure their coming up.

Among the other varieties of leafy green, or yellow colored vegetables that Leota planted were lettuce, mustard, Danver's half-long carrots, and shogoin (a loose resistant) turnip.

When the planting was completed the bed was covered with a tow sack cover to protect it from cold and later from excess heat.

Turnips which had been stored in a pit in the ground all winter were shown by Marylou Nichols, garden demonstrator for the Black 4-H Club, to her co-operators.

These turnips had been stored by the family in the fall and had kept perfectly all winter. After the spring rains in order to prevent sprouting, they were taken up and bedded in a hill of dirt on top of the ground.

At this meeting of her club Marylou and her co-operators planted four varieties of leafy vegetables including refugee beans, a variety particularly good for canning and rich in food value.

Texas, and as a hardware clerk made many friends, who twice elected him representative. He declined to seek a third term. His warm personality and friendship with old colleagues in the legislature slate him to be a popular secretary.

Serving with Cowley are George Clarke and Alma Mullins Albert as second and third secretaries. Governor Allred appointed Moreland to the Unemployment Compensation Commission.
