Farmers Warned by Wheat Buyers Of Harvesting Wet or Green Grain

ELEVATORS ARE LELLED BY WET HEAT IN DAY

For Green Wheat to Docked Five Cents Per Bushel

Wheat farmers of Foard County were warned by the elevator men that while it is wet or green, in payment released Wednesday noon, farmers were asked to thresh wheat until it has ripened or dried from the received in this county Wednesday.

Wheat unloaded at an elevator will be docked five cents in addition to the test if the load will be refused. Elevator owners and managers stated that all elevators were practically full of wet wheat and it cannot be shipped until it has dried sufficiently to insure shipping. Nearly all the wheat brought in this week has been a little green and it is necessary that this wheat be dumped on the ground or put into the elevators to move until it has dried, or it will spoil.

Important fact pointed out by wheat buyers was that the customers and the elevator men handling wet wheat as the wheat will test low if it is wet and the elevator men lose the time and money in drying the moisture from the grain. Several thousand bushels of wheat are on the ground and three elevators in Crowell each of them are having to handle the trouble and expense of drying the wheat in the elevator bins to keep it from spoiling.

It was thought that this could be handled until recent rains, but then it was necessary to take steps to check harvesting of this wheat because so much would be received in a few days that it would be impossible to handle it. The farmers realize that they have a year's work invested and are anxious to have their wheat out of the fields but it is necessary to aid them more than already been done, so it is necessary to dock the wheat for protection.

COUNTY AGENT WARNS FOARD FARMERS OF HOPPER MENACE; SHOULD SPREAD POISON SOON

Foard County faces a heavy hopper infestation unless farmers make rapid applications of poison to help curb this pest menace, according to County Agent N. J. Nagy. Although farmers do not realize the situation, a large grasshopper hatch is on the move and steps should be taken immediately to control them to prevent damage to crops can be avoided.

Nagy recommends the following standard formula, the use of coarse wheat bran, 25 lbs.; Paris green or white arsenate, 1 lb.; high grade amyl acetate (avoid cheap grades of amyl acetate or bronzing liquids), 1 qt.; cane or sorghum molasses (corn syrup), 2 quarts; and water, sufficient to make a moist mash.

The mash and poison together thoroughly. Dilute the amyl acetate and molasses in about two quarts of water. Pour this liquid mixture of poison and molasses until every particle is moist, and mix thoroughly until it is obtained that is quite sticky so it will fall apart after tightly squeezed and may be sown broadcast.

A quantity of mash should be broadcast so as to cover about 100 square feet. A good practice is to broadcast the mash early in the morning before nine o'clock, the hoppers do not actively feed until the dew dries up. If it is broadcast over the entire acreage protected. Where they are coming from fence rows or

CROWELL LOSES CLOSE GAME TO QUANA H SUN.

O. O. Hollingsworth Resigns as Manager of Crowell Club

The Crowell baseball team lost its closest H-W-F league game to Quana H Sunday by the score of 7 to 6. This game was scheduled to be played in Crowell but the rain that fell Saturday rendered it impossible to play on the local diamond so the tilt was held in Quana H. Quana H will play here June 20 in return of Sunday's game.

The feature of the game was the pitching of H. Green, who held the heavy hitting Quana H club scoreless from the second until the ninth inning, while Crowell piled up what then seemed to be a winning margin of six runs. Again the weakness of the relief pitching of the Crowell nine proved detrimental. Green weakened in the ninth and was relieved by Sheppard but he could not stop the Quana H rally, which tied the game at 6-all. Graves took over pitching duties with a man on third base and an error by the catcher on his second pitched ball let in the winning run.

Quana H took the lead in the first inning, 3-0, but Crowell scored once in the first and Norman started a rally in the fifth, which netted three runs, by blasting a three-base hit with a man on base. The other two Crowell scores came in the seventh frame.

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN VOTE TO AID BUILDING NEW CITY PARK AT BANQUET MON.

The proposal for the establishment of a city park was introduced to the Farmers and Business Men's Association at its monthly banquet held in the basement of the First Methodist Church Monday night.

The aid of the organization was asked in helping to secure deeds to the land on which the park will be built by Mayor C. T. Schlagal, and Mrs. Oscar Boman, representative of the Garden Club. Mr. Schlagal gave the financial condition of the city and asked for help in obtaining this beauty spot for the town. Mrs. Boman told how much had been done without having to seek aid and gave the figures on how much money would be needed before work could be started.

The association voted one hundred per cent for the park and the money needed to secure the remaining deeds will be raised by donations of the business men. The majority of the titles have already been obtained through the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Roberts and Mrs. Boman. The only asset of this civic organization was that of securing the deeds to the land. Work will start just as soon as this has been completed.

In connection with the park, a new foot bridge to replace the original wood bridge will be erected.

This park will be constructed on the vacant lots just west of State Highway 16, one block south of the square, through the cooperation of the State Highway Department, the City of Crowell, the NYA and local citizens. This project is being sponsored by the Garden Club, and its members will assist in doing the beautification work.

Crowell will furnish the site and the highway department will straighten the winding creek that runs through the block and level up the ground. NYA youths will build the park.

A financial committee was appointed to receive the donations of the various business firms of Crowell. They are as follows: Claude Callaway, chairman; W. F. Kirkpatrick, I. T. Graves, Geo. Self, Jack Seale and Rev. E. L. Yeats.

Program
J. A. Stovall was the principal speaker of the program and discussed facts about Crowell getting business from the east part of the county. Mr. Stovall has lived at Thalia a number of years and is well acquainted with the situation.

RAINS DURING WEEK-END ADDS INCH TO TOTAL

2.4 Inches Received in May; 10.3 Inches Fell Since January 1

One inch of rain received in Crowell last week-end raised the total inches of rainfall registered during May at the Crowell State Bank to 2.4 inches.

Over ten inches of rain and snow have been received since January 1. More precipitation was recorded in March than in any of the other four months. There were 2.2 inches of rain and a four-inch snow recorded in that month. One-quarter inch of rain was registered in January. No rain fell in February and 1.7 was received in April.

Approximately six inches more of rain fell here in the first five months of 1937 than in the same period in 1936, as no rain was recorded in three of the months last year.

The total rainfall for the first five months of this year is more than half of that received during the entire year of 1936, which was 18.97.

Many On WPA Rolls

As of April 26, there were 251 cases certified for WPA work in this county and 13 cases are receiving direct relief, making a total of 264 families in Foard County receiving aid from the government.

Using the 1930 census and figuring an average of four and a half persons to a case, which is a close average, there is 18.81 per cent of the population of this county dependent upon the government for aid, but the number of WPA cases have materially dropped in the past thirty days due to the fact that jobs have been obtained elsewhere in preparing for the 1937 wheat harvest.

STORY TOLD IN FT. WORTH OF FORMER FOARD COWBOY ROPING PANTHER OVER 40 YEARS AGO

A story told by R. B. Dixon of Fort Worth appeared in Sunday's Star-Telegram relating to Tom Latham, a former Foard County cowboy and cattle man, roping a panther and chopping its head off in the year 1894. In looking for some one who could recall the incident, J. C. Thompson and N. J. Roberts, two of the younger old-timers, felt like they had faint recollections of the occurrence, however, Mr. Thompson stated that such happenings were thought little of in those days. Antelope and wild turkey were plentiful in this section and Ed Hudlow killed a bear on the section where the city water wells are located. The bear had broken his chains and was escaping captivity from a ranch in the northwest part of the county.

At the time he roped the panther Mr. Latham lived on what is now known as the H-Anchor Ranch west of Crowell, according to Mr. Thompson. All agreed that Mr. Latham could rope anything he wanted to. He is now a resident of Oklahoma City.

The story as it appeared in the Star-Telegram follows:

"Several weeks ago a newspaper story told the hazardous adventure of a motion picture actor who roped a panther while on a hunt.

"R. B. Dixon, 1600 East Hattie Street, yesterday told of a similar incident and another that went it one better, both of them happening more than 40 years ago.

"In 1894 Dixon went to visit his cousins who lived on a ranch near Margaret in Foard County. Early one morning his cousin, Tommy Latham, was down in the breaks about half a mile from the ranch house.

"Latham flushed a large panther, roped it and calloped to the house dragging the panther behind him at the end of a lariat. Latham pulled up short at a hitching post in the corral, grabbed an ax and chopped the animal's head off.

"But that wasn't so much.

"Another cousin, Dixon said, once treed a panther with dogs. Picking up a rock, the cousin took careful aim and let fly. Down the animal came—as dead as a panther can be.

"Dixon was born near Corsicana. His father, A. J. Dixon, took part in the California gold rush of '49.

"Dixon still remembers many of the hardships of that long trek after gold when men were attacked by Indians and if they survived the Indian attacks, died of thirst."

ONLY 1 1/2 DAYS OF FAVORABLE WEATHER HAD

Harvest Should Be in Full Swing By Next Week

Over 38,000 bushels of the predicted one million bushel wheat crop for 1937 had been received at the elevators of Foard County Wednesday. Due to weather conditions wheat has been harvested for approximately one and a half days since the first load was received last week.

Prospects of the harvest being in full swing by the middle of this week were checked by general rains over the county Wednesday. Rains during the past two weeks have delayed threshing of the wheat and so much green and wet wheat have been brought to the elevators during the time that cutting was possible that it was necessary to try to stop harvesting until the wheat is dry.

Reports on the yield are favorable. The lowest yield reported was the first load reported here, which was about 17 bushels per acre and the largest yield is 40 bushels per acre. According to the reports that have been received the average yield so far this year is well over the 20 bushel mark.

The tests of the wheat ranges between 51 and 61, but the majority is testing around 55 due to its being damp. Better tests are expected when the wheat becomes drier.

A premium of $10 was paid to Glen Fox late Tuesday afternoon for bringing the first load of wheat to test 60 to the Foard County Mill. This elevator received its first load Thursday of last week. The Farmer's Elevator received its first load of wheat from R. H. Cooper Monday.

Providing weather conditions are favorable wheat harvest in Foard County will be in full swing by the middle of next week.

Many trucks have come into this county from different sections of the state and Oklahoma to carry wheat from the combines and threshers to the elevators, as Foard County could not supply the demand for trucks, because so many of them are hauling gravel for the hard surfacing of Highway 16 south of Crowell.

There will be a small oat crop made in this county this year. From all indications there will not be a car load of oats shipped from this county via the railroads, but the oats that will go out of the county will probably be trucked to the Plains.

Hours and Wages

Last Monday the President sent his message to Congress recommending legislation to bar the products of child labor from interstate commerce and to set up a maximum hour and minimum wage legislation to relieve the distressing unemployment situation in the Nation. He again called to our attention what everyone knows, that more than a third of our people are ill-fed, ill-clothed and ill-housed. Bills were immediately introduced by Senator Black in the Senate and Representative Connelly in the House, Chairman of the Labor Committee, providing:

- 1. Creation of a 5-man board to control industrial wages in interstate commerce, the President to name the board. 2. Congress to go on record against "employment of workers under substandard labor conditions in occupations in interstate commerce." 3. Board studies would determine basic wage and hour levels. 4. Child labor (under 16) would be defined as an "unfair practice." 5. "Fair wages" would be "fairly and reasonably commensurate with the value of the service rendered." 6. Definition of a "reasonable" work week would be "a number of hours of employment in a week which is reasonably suitable to the nature of the service or class of service rendered." 7. The board could revise hour and wage standards, if necessary. 8. Use of strikebreakers or industrial espionage would be labeled an "oppressive labor practice." 9. Major industries would be forbidden to send into interstate commerce any "unfair goods," made in violation of the board's standards. The message asked for all these objectives and in addition asked action by states to deal with labor conditions in interstate commerce. Exempt from provisions of the administration labor bills would be persons earning more than $1,200 a year, persons earning more than 80 cents an hour, and employers of fewer than 15 persons.

Social Security Decisions

In three badly split decisions the Supreme Court last Monday continued their complete reversal program of the decisions they have rendered against the New Deal the first three years and rendered their 10th, 10th and 11th decisions upholding the validity of the Social Security Act. These three decisions make eleven consecutive decisions the Court has rendered upholding the validity of major New Deal legislation since the President called to the attention of the country the reactionary decisions of the Supreme Court and recommended legislation to reorganize the Federal Judiciary. Certainly the political decisions rendered by the Court this year, completely reversing the decisions they have rendered on New Deal legislation the past three years, show that something has caused the Supreme Court to recognize the errors of their decisions the past three years in holding New Deal legislation unconstitutional. However, as usual the same division of the Court 5 to 4 prevails in these decisions. Last Monday, two 5 to 4 decisions by the Court and Mrs. W. M. Howell visited Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Howell of Good Creek. J. B. Weatherred spent Thursday and Friday visiting his brother, R. E. Weatherred, of Crowell.

held the unemployment insurance section of the Social Security Act valid. By a 7 to 2 decision they held the Old Age Pension provision valid.

New Deal Power Program

Friday, Government Counsel requested the Supreme Court to pass upon the constitutionality of the entire New Deal Power program under which the Administration had made loans and grants to construct Municipal Power plants, extend electricity to farm homes and has enacted legislation setting up hydro-electric power projects nationwide. The Supreme Court in the Duke Power Company case, although the case was fully developed, sent it back to the trial court for further consideration. The Court refusing to pass on a large part of the power program. A large number of injunction suits filed by the Power Trust nationwide has almost stopped the power program, however, all power cases reaching the Circuit Courts of Appeal have upheld the validity of the Administration power program without a single dissenting opinion. More than $1,000,000,000 is the annual excessive profits being extracted from the consumers of electricity and similar excessive profits prevail in all other lines of the Utilities, telephone, telegraph, gas, transportation, etc. Nearly the whole power program is blocked and it is to be hoped that the Supreme Court will pass upon this important question before they take their three months' vacation on full pay, beginning this week.

Cheap electric current for all is the ultimate goal of the Administration's Power program. A far reaching long range program to assist the one-third of our people who are ill-fed, clothed and housed to provide these necessities for them is being worked out and legislation is pending to provide same. This is the real reason why from here on the country will hear all kinds of propaganda being spread to cause discontent in and out of Congress to try to force early adjournment to block the enactment of this legislative program of the Administration designed to benefit our people. Buying power must be maintained today if we are to continue our march of progress back to recovery.

The Administration's Program

The President in his press conference last week announced that a message on eliminating loopholes in our Revenue Laws would be sent to Congress this week. Loopholes in our tax laws were discussed in my last week's letter. It is interesting to note that we continue to collect the major portion of our revenue from sales and income taxes rather than from come taxes as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Fiscal Year, Income, Other, Total. Rows for 1936 and 1937.

Thus we see that 65 per cent of the revenues last year were deducted through sales taxes and taxes. Information clearly indicates that through holes and evasions in our laws, more revenue escapes collection.

Relief

The House debated last week and finally passed and sent to the Senate on Tuesday afternoon after the most bitter session of the relief bill of $100,000,000 for the next fiscal year. The big controversy arose over the fact that many water projects had been invited by the PWA and WPA and approved by the different cities and given a very uncertain status under pending legislation. It is believed that a satisfactory compromise will be finally reached this program between the House and the Senate in working their differences.

Bands cut from an inner tube will prevent jars from breaking when put in basket or box for taking on picnic or auto trip?

Can you cut an inch wide and slip a couple on each jar and they can be carried with perfect safety?

Lovely hooked rugs may be made from gunny sacks? One sack is used for the foundation and the others are dyed, the desired colors, raveled, and then hooked in.

Milk is not so "fluid" as commonly thought? It has more solid food material than onions, beets, carrots, lettuce, pumpkin, tomatoes and many other foods.

Carrots, beets and turnips cut lengthwise are sweeter in flavor and have more food value retained when cooked than if cut crosswise?

When a similar piece of material is not available for a patch, net may be used on finely knitted material with satisfactory results? Baste the net under the hole and darn down with short running stitches.

HUMAN EYE REGARDED AS NATURE'S GREATEST GIFT

Mother Nature polished off her happiest invention the day she took a sphere about the size of a ping pong ball, implanted therein a set of optical gadgets whose analogs can be found in a small box camera, and labeled her product the human eye, says Literary Digest.

Nature practiced a good deal on the animal kingdom before she perfected her chef-d'oeuvre. She gave the eagle a set of eyes which are virtual telescopes, able to distinguish tiny objects from incredible distances. And the zebra has eyes with horizontal pupils, the better to see while grazing with head to the ground. A bee distinguishes ultraviolet light to which the human eye is blind.

Insects have compound eyes particularly suited for seeing motion. The dragonfly's eye has 30,000 facets, each set at a different angle. Owls can see in the semi-darkness. Fishes are specialists in underwater vision. Ages ago, Nature gave some of the huge reptiles a third eye in the back of the head to keep watch on danger from the rear.

But man alone possesses an eye with vision sharp enough for reading and close work. Man also has the inestimable advantage of seeing things in three dimensions. To practically all animals, vision is a two-dimensional affair like a picture on a bill-board, with colors more or less absent—birds, for instance, can not see blues and violets.

FORCED EARLY FERRYMEN TO CHARGE UNIFORM FEE

You'd think my living depends on your getting mileage IT DOES I'm no big company myself, just because I sell a good big company's oil, etc. This business is mine, and their oil has to show my customers a heap longer mileage and cool smooth operation, or I wouldn't make near as safe a living. I'd rather have my good trade on Conoco Germ Processed oil, than just getting people to change here once, and always be worried about new ones showing up. A lot of my trade comes from clear out around, because nothing but my Germ Processed oil will Oil-Plate their engines. You see, the patent Germ Process gets this oil to form a strong slippery Plating on every working surface. Mind you, Oil-Plating can't drain down while your car is parked. So it can't let your engine start up "dry," which engineers say is the greatest danger. And the way it's Plated on, Conoco Germ Processed oil isn't using up in a hurry. Then that's getting more mileage out of both your oil and engine—coming here to me for Oil-Plating. CONOCO GERM PROCESSED OIL from Your Mileage Merchant

REGULAR ADVERTISING IS BEST

Advertising, before it can perform its full duty, must do four things. It must attract attention, interest, create desire, sell. To attract attention an advertisement must be large enough to be easily seen by a hurried reader and must contain a message. To interest it must tell something about the merchandise offered for sale that the prospective purchaser desires to know. To create desire it must present the desirable features of the merchandise offered, and cause the reader to see how it can be useful or helpful to him. In other words, cause him to desire to possess it. To sell, it must prompt him to take the necessary action whereby the ownership of the article is transferred to him. Few advertisements can do this with one or two insertions. In selling merchandise an advertisement works along certain well known, well defined lines always. It follows certain well known laws. One of these is the law of repetition; that the word accomplishes its purpose and builds up sales. The occasional advertisement is of little value as a sales and a good will builder.

Most of us have no difficulty becoming tax conscious after the tax law has been passed and we have been assessed. It is too late then. The time to become tax conscious is before the law is passed.

The pain that falls across the county line won't make the grass in our county grow and the trade that goes to other towns won't make our town grow.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—Preliminary maneuvers in house and senate at the first called session of the 45th legislature, considering nothing but repeal of race horse gambling, furnished no surprise, but ran true to prediction. The house state affairs committee quickly brought out the Bradbury bill for repeal by a 14-to-1 favorable vote, and rejected a bill by Conde Hoskins to make repeal effective Aug. 1, 1939. It also tabled bills providing for local option on horse racing. The house probably will finally pass the Bradbury repeal bill and send it to the senate before this is published.

Meanwhile, in the senate, where the real fight is to develop, Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth began his parliamentary maneuvers by seeking to send a bill, identical with Bradbury's measure, to the state affairs committee instead of the criminal jurisprudence committee, which favorably reported a similar bill in the regular session. The state affairs committee carries a definite majority of anti-repeal senators, and Rawlings had hopes of stifling the bill in committee there. But the senate, by a tie vote, refused to aid him after it had likewise refused a motion by Senator Nelson, repealist leader, to have the senate consider the bill as a committee of

Texas Press Ass'n. Will Convene June 10-12 in Brownwood

Brownwood, June 2.—Since organization of the Texas Press Association, which is to hold its 58th annual convention in Brownwood June 10-12, the body has been served by 59 presidents. Of this number, 31 past presidents are living and all are being given a special invitation to attend the Brownwood meeting.

W. A. Adair of Marshall is the oldest past president. He was elected in 1875. Will H. Mayes of Austin, former Brownwood newspaper publisher who will deliver the welcome address at the opening program of the convention, served as president in 1899. In his 57 years as an organizer, the Texas Press Association has had 14 secretaries. All except two are still living. Sam P. Harben, Richardson, present secretary, has the longest record of service. He has been secretary of the organization since 1908. Mr. Harben attended his first meeting of the state association in Brownwood in 1905. The association has had six treasurers, two of whom are living. They are B. F. Harigel of LaGrange, who is the present treasurer, and A. W. Gifford, who served as second treasurer.

First three meetings of the association were held in Houston, in 1880, 1881 and 1882, and the association has met there four times since. Dallas and San Antonio each have entertained the convention five times. The association has met in Central West Texas only twice in its history, in Brownwood in 1905 and in San Angelo in 1931.

the whole. The votes indicated a very close division, with the repealists having a slight edge.

Anti Strategy

Anti-repealists plan to fight the battle out along these lines: First, they will propose to postpone the effective date of repeal until 1939. Failing in this, they next will seek to substitute a local option measure permitting counties to vote on pari-mutuel betting; then, as a last ditch move, they plan to try to attach many amendments to the bill, including changes that would outlaw raffles, trades days, church auctions, bank nights and other technical "gambling" affairs. They hope to kill the bill by making it unwieldy and unworkable.

Governor's Plans

Gov. Allred, if the senate acts in time on race betting, plans to submit a law making operation of "bookie" shops a felony, and another outlawing dog racing, which at present is not illegal under decisions of the highest Texas courts. He has said definitely he will not propose any revenue measures at this session, but will give the legislature a rest after this special session and then call a session "for revenue only" later, after he has had time to study the taxation situation. With several constitutional amendments, which if passed will call for substantial appropriations, it is quite likely the revenue session will be held in September or October after the special election in August.

Austin Watches Washington

All eyes were turned this week toward Washington, eagerly awaiting the final outcome of the most important rebellion in congress since advent of the New Deal. When the national house kicked over the traces this week and ear-marked a third of the billion and a half relief fund, refusing pleas of administration leaders to leave its control solely in the hands of the President, and then cut Harry Hopkins' salary to $10,000 a year, every congressman and every state had a big stake in the development. If the congressmen stand pat, Texas stands to get about $33,000,000 for WPA projects already approved, for which towns and counties have issued bonds to raise matching funds. In addition, Texas highway commission would get about $2,600,000 additional federal road funds. The state also would receive a large sum from the rivers and harbors fund, much of it to be spent on lakes and ponds in the West Texas dust bowl. The Texas legislature memorialized the Texas delegation to stand pat on the earmarking program and Chairman R. L. Bobbitt of the highway commission is in Washington on the same mission. Observers here claimed the house action indicated ed clearly the congressmen are "fed up" on the Hopkins "boondoggling" WPA program, and the congressmen, with elections coming up next year, want some pie definitely earmarked for their respective districts before they turn loose of the relief funds.

Powerful County Lobby

The recent regular session again demonstrated that there is no more powerful political force in Texas than the county courthouse rings when they organize en masse for or against something. The county politicians came to Austin in swarms to support the constitutional amendment resolution which would have given them four-year terms and the measure that proposed $3,000 annual salaries for the legislators. Despite the fact that the four-year office amendment would have virtually wrecked the state's political machinery, leaving the Democratic party without any method of paying the cost of holding primary elections for state officers, the house rallied 107 votes in favor of it, under the lash of the county lobby, and the chance of perpetuating the representatives in office another four years without an election.

Vann M. Kennedy, Austin newsman and secretary of the state Democratic committee, hastily briefed the measure, showing how it would let down the bars to Negro voters, destroy the party machinery and leave no way to elect state officers, congressmen, railroad commissioners and district judges, and succeeded in heading off the resolution before a senate committee. But the heavy vote in the house, and the violent efforts of the county politicians to pass the measure regardless of consequences, showed a definite trend toward government "by the politicians for the politicians" in Texas.

Conoco Dealers Here Expect Profit From Big Tourist Season

Local merchants, and particularly the Conoco dealers, are looking forward to substantial profit this summer, as a result of the largest tourist season in history, according to J. G. Cooper, manager here for Continental Oil Company.

"Early summer requests received by the Conoco Travel Bureau for touring information indicate that 1937 will surpass even last year's travel business," he said.

"Naturally all merchants will profit, but the Conoco dealers have an additional reason for optimism.

"Under Continental's new policy all of its products are sold through independent dealers which means that every Conoco dealer either owns or leases his station, is in business for himself. He doesn't work for a weekly or monthly pay envelope; so naturally he gets out and hustles for that extra profit. And when he gets that profit, it stays in town, as he spends his money with the local merchants.

"Furthermore, Continental Oil Company is giving its dealers some fine co-operation. They are talking newspaper space to advertise their own products. In this advertising Conoco dealers are known as 'mileage merchants'—and, actually that's just what they are."

SAFETY SLOGANS

Traffic deaths in the first two months of 1937 totaled 5,500. This was an increase of 1,050 over the corresponding period in 1936.

The best way to reduce traffic accidents and fatalities in this country is to drive safely and to walk safely. Both are necessary. Both are equally important.

Herders Do Not Desert Flocks

In great blizzards, Western sheep herders seldom if ever desert their hungry and helpless flocks and dogs, even when they themselves are freezing and starving through the neglect of the traveling camp-tender who brings their food and fuel. They stay on the job, asserts a writer in Collier's Weekly, not because desertion means a ten-year prison sentence, but because "sticking" is the unwritten law of the range.

Constitutional Amendments

H. J. R. NO. 26 House Joint Resolution

Proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adopting a new Section to be known as Section 51-c which shall provide that the Legislature shall have the power to provide, under such limitations and restrictions as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient for assistance to the needy blind over the age of twenty-one (21) years, and for the payment of same not to exceed Fifteen Dollars ($15) per month each, and providing for payment of such assistance or aid only to actual bona fide citizens of Texas and providing that the requirements for the length of time of actual residence in Texas shall never be less than five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance and continuously for one year immediately preceding such application; and providing that the Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for assistance to such blind; providing for an election on the question of adoption or rejection of such amendment and making an appropriation therefor; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof and prescribing the form of ballot.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, as amended, be amended to read as follows: "The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for assistance to the needy blind as that Government may offer not inconsistent with the restrictions hereinabove provided."

Instructions to Aid in Drowning Accident Given

Austin.—"No elaborate equipment is needed to save a life from drowning," is the opinion of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "In fact, actual harm has been done by the misuse of the so-called life preservers. Modern resuscitation apparatus has been perfected so that oxygen and carbon dioxide can be used without inflicting more damage to cases of asphyxiation and drowning. It is tragic enough to have a drowning accident, but it is far more tragic if no one present at the time knows how to save a life by artificial respiration."

"The prompt application of artificial respiration is of primary importance, and for the purpose the easiest, simplest and most effective. This should begin at once and continue rhythmically until natural breathing is established—this may take four or more hours. Procedure: First: Kneel, and straddle the patient below the hips placing hands on small of the back with fingers over the lowest ribs, tips of fingers just out of sight. Second: With arms straight, while counting one, two, swing forward bearing weight on body firmly but not violently. Third: Swing backward while counting one, straighten up and thus relieving pressure—this allows air to be drawn into the lungs. Fourth: Rest in this position for two counts. Fifth: Repeat these movements rhythmically, forward and backward, without interruption, about twelve to fifteen a minute, until natural breathing is restored. Sixth: Meanwhile, if assistance is at hand, a physician should be sent for, the patient's tight clothing should be loosened at neck, chest, waist and he should be kept warm. The patient should not be moved until he is breathing normally and then should not be allowed to get up but should be carried in a lying position to a place where he can be kept warm and receive medical attention."

Boys working on a National Youth Administration project at Spindle Top park in Beaumont are converting several acres of the site which has been useless into a recreation area. Thousands of cubic yards of debris have been moved, a 1,000-foot drainage ditch dug, stumps removed and the ground leveled on six acres, and on the cleared site four picnic units have been constructed and shrubs transplanted.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: Section 1. That Section 16, Article XVI, of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows: "Section 16. Brief Bits of News From Here and There

Scientists have evolved an accurate test for intoxication by tests of the blood. If the blood contains two-tenths of one per cent of alcohol it is evidence that the patient is intoxicated. The brain and spinal fluid of every person killed in an accident in New York City is analyzed by the Toxicological Laboratory of New York City. The victim is adjudged intoxicated if the analysis shows as much as one-fourth of one per cent alcoholic content in the fluid.

It is estimated there are 500,000 chronic alcoholics in the United States.

The tube which will carry the seventeen foot lens in the world's largest telescope now being erected at Mount Palomar, Calif., is as tall as a six story building and weighs with its fittings 500 tons. It is so delicately balanced that it can be swung by a motor exerting 1-165,000th of a horse power or smaller than that required to run a sewing machine.

The worlds largest telescope now being erected at Mount Palomar, Calif., will cost when completed two years hence, $6,000,000. It will have a range of vision of approximately 1,200,000,000 light years. Translated into miles this amounts to 7,200,000,000,000,000,000. A light year is the distance traveled by a ray of light moving at the rate of 186,000 miles a second.
