Coach Graves' Wildcats Ready for Conference Game at Chillicothe

Coach Grady Graves' Wildcats are ready for their second conference game with the Chillicothe Eagles at Chillicothe Friday night although they will be handicapped with the loss of Charles Branch, regular Wildcat pivot man, who was injured in the Haskell game.

Branch received a fractured neck bone in the second quarter of the game when he dumped Rogers Haskell hog-caller, at the line of scrimmage. X-rays of the injury revealed nothing serious although the exact condition cannot be determined until the swelling has left his face. He will be ready for action in two or three weeks and the eleven should be running full strength when they meet the mighty Bulldogs from Burkett, barring further accidents.

The Wildcats have emerged from 4 practice tilts and one conference tilt with decisive victories and very few injuries. They are now ready to settle down and prepare the remainder of their schedule which consists of five conference games.

J. D. Greening Resigns After 15 Years Service

J. D. (Dud) Greening resigned his position with the Railway Express Company of the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway last week after delivering express packages in Crowell for more than 15 years.

When Mr. Greening took up his duties in this capacity, he delivered the express with a horse and hack, which he used for several years before changing to an automobile.

Mr. Greening was appointed to carry the mail between the depot and post office upon the resignation of "Uncle" Bill Wheeler over a decade ago. He still holds that position.

During his twenty years of service he has set a high record. He never missed a train or lost a package. "As far as that goes, I can't remember of ever having a flat tire between the depot and town," Mr. Greening said.

Earl Davis is carrying the express for the present.

McFARLANE TO BE IN CROWELL OCTOBER 18-19

To Speak on Proposed Crop Control Plan in Court Room

W. D. McFarlane, United States Representative from the 13th Congressional District, will speak in the district court room in Crowell at 7:30 o'clock Monday and Tuesday nights, according to announcement made this week.

Mr. McFarlane will discuss the proposed legislation for crop control and explain its points to the farmers of Foard County. He will speak each night in order to ascertain the sentiment of the farmers on this proposed legislation.

Immediately following the discussions of the crop control plan, Mr. McFarlane will show pictures and give details of the different parts of the Administration's work.

Mr. McFarlane will present several programs over this district before returning to Washington for a special session of Congress on November 15.

The public is urged to attend each of these programs as they will be of interest to everyone.

Nearly 5 Inches of Rain Falls In Foard County Since Friday; Gathering of Cotton Delayed

Going Places in Aggie Land

Nearly five inches of rain fell here from Friday night until Wednesday afternoon to place the ground in ideal condition for wheat. The rain has delayed the gathering of cotton several days but it is thought that the grade of cotton will not be lowered to a great extent because of the manner in which the precipitation came.

A heavy down pour and showers last Friday night totaled .90 of an inch. Rain started falling again Monday night and continued in a slow, easy downfall until Wednesday noon. The rain that fell Monday night until Tuesday morning measured 3.10 inches and continued showers Tuesday and Wednesday amounted to .80 to raise the total received from Friday until yesterday to 4.80 inches.

In October of last year only 1.10 inches of rain were received as compared with 4.80 inches already received in the same month of this year.

High Record

With 1937 only a little over nine months old, the highest mark since 1923, when over 37 inches of moisture fell, may be set as 27.35 inches of rain have fallen in Foard County so far this year. The record year for rainfall is 1919, during which 41.27 inches of precipitation were received. To date there have been only four years in the past twenty years in which more than 30 inches of rain have been recorded. They were 1919, 1920, 1923 and 1926.

This year marks the ninth year in the past twenty-three years during which over twenty-five inches of rain have been received. The average rainfall for Foard County is set at twenty-six inches and the rainfall so far this year is well over that mark.

ASPHALT TOP TO BE PLACED ON ROAD SOON

Materials Here, Work To Start in Next Few Days

The asphalt topping will be put on approximately four miles of State Highway 16 south of Crowell just as soon as dry weather conditions prevail. It is expected that the work will be done some time the latter part of this week or the first part of next, according to Tom Seale, resident engineer.

The topping material has arrived and will be ready for use when the road top has been cleared of the mud and dirt that collected there during the muddy weather this week. The road will be swept and the dirt cleaned off so that the asphalt will remain in place.

The work required to complete the topping will employ approximately 20 men for a period of two days. This will finish the road work south of Crowell until a future date when the road from Beaver Creek to the Wichita River will probably be completed.

Approximately 16,000 gallons of asphalt and 372 yards of gravel will be used in putting the last coat of topping on the gravel base. The fine gravel which will be mixed with the asphalt has been placed in small piles along the road and when the asphalt is sprayed, the gravel will be spread over it by hand. The finished strip will be twenty feet in width.

The asphalt will be heated at the railroad and again just before it is put on the road with a special sprayer which is equipped to heat the substance to a temperature of about 240 to 250 degrees before being sprayed, Mr. Seale stated.

Jack Welch Named on Stock Judging Team, Texas Tech

Jack Welch of Foard City, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Welch, has been selected as a member of the stock judging team, which will attend the American Royal, stock judging contest, in Kansas City October 16, according to announcement made last week by Ray Mowery, professor of animal husbandry and coach of the team. The six members of the team left Tuesday for Kansas City.

The animal husbandry class has been working since the opening of school in September in preparation for the contests. Members visited the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo and the Panhandle-South Plains Fair at Lubbock and made a study of the stock on exhibit.

HASKELL LOSES TO WILDCATS ON WET FIELD

Crowell Boys Defeat Heavy Indians 14 to 2

Coach Grady Graves' Wildcats overpowered the heavy Haskell Indians 14 to 2 in the last half of their fray on a water soaked gridiron in Haskell last Friday night. A heavy downpour which started forty-five minutes before game time and stopped a few minutes before the teams took the field, left the playing ground slippery. An excellent grass turf saved the field from being boggy although the "rabbit" backs of the Crowell club were slowed to a great extent and power plays through the 170-pound Indian line were responsible for the greater part of the Wildcats' gains.

The Wildcats left the Haskell fans talking about the blocking of Crowell's 151-pound line and the way the smaller Cats took the Indians out of plays. The local boys were at a disadvantage on the wet field but the blocking of linemen and backs was too much for the Haskell lads throughout the game. Many Indian backers stated that the blocking of the Local Chevrolet Dealers Attend Dallas Meeting

R. H. Borchardt and S. K. Edwards of the M. & S. Chevrolet Company are attending a meeting at Dallas where plans for the announcement of the new 1938 Chevrolet are being discussed. The meeting is being conducted by Chevrolet factory representatives. Chevrolet dealers in this and surrounding territory, will at this meeting, get their first glimpse of the new car. No definite information is available about the new Chevrolet, but from a reliable source it has been indicated that the 1938 model will be unusually striking in appearance.

According to these gentlemen the date of the first public showing of the new Chevrolet will be Saturday, Oct. 23. A number of orders for the new car have already been placed by people who want to be sure of early delivery.

RETURN FROM CALIFORNIA

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borchardt, Horace Lovelady of Vernon, and Mrs. P. S. Lovelady and daughter, Wilma Jo, returned Saturday from Riverside, Calif. Her daughter, Mrs. Henry Borchardt, went to Riverside to visit her mother and reached her bedside when her illness was most critical.

Mr. Borchardt and Mr. Lovelady went to California last week to return Mrs. Borchardt, Mrs. Lovelady and Wilma Jo, to Crowell.

UNIVERSITY SHOW
with DICK POWELL
and FRED WARRING
—which shows at the Rialto Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Dick Todd, former Crowell Wildcat star, is making a name for himself in national football circles with the Texas A. & M. Aggies this year. During the past week due to his spectacular performance in the Mississippi State game last Saturday Dick has received more publicity than any other player in the Southwestern Conference and probably the South.

The eyes of the nation will be focused on the Aggie-Frog game in Fort Worth this week to see if this grid wizard can repeat his dazzling performances twice in succession. Over 100 Crowell fans, who have watched Dick for many years, will be in Fort Worth to see him perform on the gridiron again in the game that might be the deciding game of the Southwestern Conference championship. According to reports, practically every town in this section of the state will be represented at the game.

Contrary to the belief, held by a few skeptical fans, that college football would slow him down, Dick is fast coming to the front in the Mississippi picture of the nation and still playing the same fast brand of football that made him famous as a high school star.

While in Crowell High School, Dick hung up a record that will be aimed at by future high school gridriders. He lettered four years and was an all-district high school player. During his four years of football, he ran up a total of 664 points, 318 of which were made during his last season with the Wildcats, which was probably a national record. His touchdown runs in his final two years averaged better than 25 yards each. It seems at present as though he is off to just as glamorous a record in college.

District Governor Visits Rotary Club Wednesday at Noon

Ed McLaughlin of Ralls, Governor of District 127, Rotary International, visited the Crowell Rotary Club Wednesday and spoke at the noon luncheon at O'Connell's Lunch Room. One hundred percent attendance was registered at the meeting. Governor Ed was accompanied to Crowell by Rotarian Oscar Kemp of Burkburnett. Mr. Kemp and C. C. Joy were visitors at the noon meeting. Change in Line-Up

Due to the absence of Branch, Franklin Evans will be shifted to the over duties at center and W. Statter will be used at left guard. These two boys with Captain Gibson at right guard will make the center section of a line that will be practically impregnable as the 165-pound Haskell backs were stopped cold at this point of the line. This change in line-up will also raise the average height of the Wildcat line a pound or two as Statter outweighs Branch by 8 pounds.

Wildcats Have Advantage

When the Crowell boys take the field tomorrow night at Chillicothe some of them will be lettermen. By comparing the scores of the Paducah and Eldorado games, one can readily see that the Wildcats have a more powerful scoring machine than the Eagles. The Dragons ran rough-shod over the Chillicothe lads 25-0 and in turn the Wildcats beat the Paducah eleven 14-6. Both teams have met the same with the squad. The Crowell bunch traveled to Eldorado for a pre-season scrimmage and

Early Treatment of Cancer Important Says Health Officer

Austin.—"The increasing number of persons in Texas dying from cancer justifies a warning at this time against quacks and so-called cancer cures," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"While newspapers, as a rule, do not carry the cancer type of advertising, there are many other ways for misinformation to reach the public. Undoubtedly there are persons who, being thus deceived from seeking proper advice, unnecessarily become cancer victims, while others not having cancer are fleeced out of much money for a cure," Dr. Cox continued.

"There are but two ways of treating cancer. First, by surgery; and second, by the use of radium or X-ray. Treatment must be started early and in the hands of a competent surgeon. Surgery is relied upon to remove cancerous tumors and is used in nearly two-thirds of the cases. X-ray or radium is used to advantage in one-third of the cases, frequently the two methods are combined. Self-medication, serums, colored lights, pastes, salves and diets are valueless.

"The great bulwark against cancer is early diagnosis. Every case is an emergency and it is unfortunate that the majority of those with cancer do not seek medical advice until beyond a permanent cure. No hope should be placed in fake cancer prophets and their treatments. Rather, the annual physical examination and an immediate reporting to your physician of any symptoms which may be suspected to be the beginning of cancer, should be relied upon. These symptoms are: any unusual bleeding from any body opening, any lump in the breast or other part of the body; any persistent sore, particularly on the face or mouth, and chronic indigestion. These conditions may not be cancer, but sometimes they are forerunners of the more common types of this disease. Where cancer is suspected, do not delay, but consult your family physician at once," Dr. Cox admonished.

And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel unto them.—The Acts 16:9-10.

Whenever one reaches a point that life ceases to be an adventure he is to be pitied. It is a fine thing to keep life an adventure always. Each day should be a new adventure with new discoveries, new experiences, and just goes ahead working, refusing to see the obstacles and hardships. There are few things that will not yield to the persistent effort of an individual who does not know what defeat is and does not know when he is licked.

Haskell Loses—

Crowell boys was the main factor in the Haskell team's downfall. Raymond Joy, cat-footed Wildcat signal barker, and John Lee Orr, swivel-hipped Crowell half, were the principal ground gainers, each matching yard for yard. Orr took over ball-toting duties when Joy bogged down on several different occasions and pushed over both of Crowell's centers.

Haskell's only score came in the second quarter, shortly after the removal of Branch. An Indian punt was killed on the Crowell 2-yard line to put the Wildcats in a hole. Joy ran the ball to the middle of the field in order to punt out. Evans was shifted to center and was unaccustomed to handling the wet ball passed the ball high and Orr could not handle it. Haskell linemen took advantage of the break and downed Orr behind the goal line for a safety.

al jam-up performance. Although he only carried the pigskin on a very few trips, he picked up many yards. His playing at safety was brilliant, as he returned punts under unfavorable conditions and two times stopped Indian drives with pass interceptions.

Wildcat William Simmons, full-back, with Statser and Gibson, guards, paved the way for the Crowell backs with blocking rarely witnessed on a soggy field. Simmons also aided the Wildcat cause with pass catches and recovered an Indian fumble in the drive that netted Crowell's first touchdown.

According to Haskell sports scribes, the Cats have the best team the Indians have encountered this year. They predict a bright future for the Crowell squad. One writer stated that a team with running mates such as Joy and Orr behind blocking as displayed by the Wildcat line, would be hard to stop by any team in District 10-B.

Not only did the Crowell eleven release a powerful running attack, but they put up a stiff defense that practically stopped the Indian backs as they gained only 71 yards through the Wildcat line. The Crowell boys registered 10 first downs and held the opponents to 4.

The passing attack of the Wildcats clicked for 63 yards with Fitzgerald and Canup doing the heavy lifting. Canup and Fitzgerald were also on the receiving end of the tosses in the majority of the passing plays. McKown, Canup and Johnson were powerhouses in Crowell's line.

Charles Branch, who made the first string at center in his first year of eligibility, received a fractured cheek bone early in the second quarter when he dropped Rogers at the line of scrimmage. He was removed from the game and will be out of the Chillicothe game and probably the Throckmorton melee. Crowell has an open date following the Chillicothe match.

Branch was taken to Quanah Saturday where X-rays revealed the injury not to be as serious as at first thought, although a minor operation might be necessary to raise the cheek bone to its normal position. If the injury responds to treatment, he will be ready for service in the Seymour game and in case of necessity he will be ready for the Throckmorton tilt.

Play by Play

Thomason of Haskell kicked to Crowell's 35-yard line and Johnson returned it 2 yards. Orr slipped through right tackle for 3 yards. Joy picked up 4 but the play was called back and Crowell penalized 5 yards for offside. Canup passed incomplete to Fitzgerald. Joy advanced the ball 8 yards to Crowell's 38-yard stripe and Orr punted to Haskell's 28.

Rogers rammed the line for 3 and then added 1 more. Rogers kicked from his own 32 out-of-bounds on the Wildcat's 28-yard marker. Joy made 7 yards but Crowell received a clipping penalty of 15 yards. Fitzgerald waded water around right end for 12 yards and Joy made it a first down with a 21-yard gain. Orr made 3 yards. Joy plowed the line for 5 yards but Crowell again drew an offside penalty of 5 yards. A pass, Fitzgerald to Canup, was incomplete. Joy lost 2 yards. Orr punted from Haskell's 43-yard line to the 15. On the first down, Rogers kicked back to Crowell's 40. Orr picked up 4 yards. Fitzgerald lost 6 yards on an attempted end run. Fitzgerald's pass to Canup netted 11 yards. Joy made it a first down but Crowell was penalized 5 yards for offside on the play. On the fourth down, Orr was dropped 4 yards behind the line of scrimmage and the ball went over to Haskell on their own 40 as the quarter ended.

Has What It Takes

After playing a little over one quarter of jam-up football last Friday night against the Haskell club, Charles Branch received an injury that forced his removal from the game. Although he received a blow in the face that would have equalled a good healthy kick from a mule, he thought that perhaps Coach Graves would be mad at him. The first thing Charles reached for was "Are you mad at me?" Charles had only a few rational moments from the time he was injured until after he returned home and at the half he poured it out to the boys about letting him down because Haskell was ahead 2-0 but the score did not remain that way very long after the Wildcats took the field in the second half.

Another incident that happened to prove further Charles' love for the game occurred upon his arrival in Crowell at which time he was in a stupor and half asleep. He was about to be removed from the car in which he slept from Haskell to the doctor's office when he looked around and said, "I'm ready to play, Coach."

Charles states that it is going to take a lot to keep him out of the Burk Burnett game and W. E. would be willing to bet that it would, too. According to Coach Graves, there has never been a boy at Crowell during his coaching regime that has trained any better than Charles has. That is saying a lot for any boy.

It Can Rain Here

W. E. heard a fellow say the other day that it looked as though Foard County was going wet by a large majority and after grabbing pencil and paper it was found that he was talking about the fine rain that was falling at the time.

A nice, long, gentle rain that totaled nearly five inches is a blessing to any place although it might be pretty hard on farmers who are trying to get their cotton out of the fields as soon as possible but a five inch rain is better than none.

What A Climax

The Crowell Wildcats will start the five remaining conference games with Chillicothe tomorrow night and should they come through undefeated to the Burk Burnett game, a thrilling climax of the District 10-B play will be witnessed on the Crowell field on November 19.

Following the Eagle feather-pulling, the Wildcats will get a rest and they will need it, too. The Cats have played five games so far this year and have been outweighed from five to fifteen pounds in every scrap. The open date will also give Branch more time to regenerate and with his return to the line-up the Wildcats will again be at full strength which has been plenty powerful.

After the week's lay-off the Crowell boys bump into the Throckmorton Greyhounds who have been having things pretty much their way along the football line this year. This game will be knifed in the Greyhounds' kenel. The Wildcats entertain the Iowa Park Hawks in Crowell the next week. The Hawks have been showing lots of power and if they keep improving the Wildcats will have to pluck many feathers to win over them.

After the Hawk fight, the Crowell club will travel to Seymour to tangle with the Panthers. Pre-season dope placed this squad as the second strongest team in the district but to date the Panthers have not made the showing expected of them. The highly-touted Burk Burnett Bulldogs invade Crowell in the last game listed on the schedule to take a few Wildcat pelts home with them but according to the account the Crowellites have been giving of themselves, it will take more than just a few growls and barks to get them. W. E. predicts that the winner of this Cat and Dog fight will also be the District 10-B champion.

Crowell Will Win

Crowell will win over the Chillicothe Eagles by a score that is unpredictable. It might be large or it might be small according to the way the team, with the changes in the line-up, clicks. If the touchdown twins, Joy and Orr, are lost from scrimmage: Crowell—23; Haskell 0. Passes: Crowell passed 7 times with 4 completed for 63 yards and 3 incomplete; Haskell passed 7 times with 2 completed for 16 yards, 3 incomplete and had 2 intercepted. Punts: Crowell punted 3 times for an average of 31 yards; Haskell punted 5 times for an average of 39 yards. Fumbles: Crowell fumbled 4 times, losing the ball twice; Haskell fumbled 4 times, losing the ball 1 time. First downs: Crowell—10; Haskell 4. Penalties: Crowell was penalized 4 times for 30 yards; Haskell was penalized 2 times for 10 yards.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin. — Taking the economy bill by the horns, the Texas senate this week defied Gov. Allred in his refusal to permit it to consider reduction of appropriations, and took up consideration of Grady Woodruff's economy bill, which would slice $4,000,000 off departmental appropriations for the next two fiscal years. Much of the reduction would come from reduction of salaries of state employees drawing over $1,500 a year, and from abolition of the jobs of the departmental press agents, who have sprung up all over Austin like a crop of broomweeds. There is no authority in law for the employment of press agents to "sell" the departments and the political-minded department heads to the legislature and the newspaper readers of the state, but they are carried on the payrolls by subterfuge, as "educational directors," "information directors," and "statistical experts." The senate by a decisive vote of 20 to 6 overruled Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul, who held that the reduction bill did not come within the governor's call, and permitted the introduction of the measure. The vote would indicate the senate will vote decisively to cut the expenditures. Then, if Gov. Allred, whose forces dominate the house, should block it there, or if he should veto it, the senate apparently has the governor in a "spot" where they can place the onus for failure to enact new tax bills squarely upon Allred.

Brain Trusters Run Wild

Over on the house side, spectators were treated to a strange sight. Dominated by Allred's ring of youthful brain-trusters—the majority of them kids just out of their teens, some still studying law—a subcommittee of the taxation and revenue committee sat for a continuous 13-hour hearing. They bandied figures running into the millions of dollars about like pennies, defied a large delegation of solid citizens who came to protect higher taxes by granting them a scant 45 minutes in the wee hours of Thursday morning to voice their protest, and came out with a $10,000,000 omnibus tax bill that will hike taxes on the oil industry, sulphur, public utilities, cement, and amusements, including movie admission—from 30 to 50 per cent and more. The bright young minds on the taxation committee—to some of whom the $10 a day they get as legislators represents the maximum earning capacity to date—baited witnesses representing billions of dollars of capital investment in Texas business, and many years of accumulated business wisdom and experience, with obvious delight.

What's the Answer?

With the session half gone, it is becoming increasingly obvious that the Allred program of $15,600,000 of new taxes is sunk without a trace. Whether increased levies amounting to $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 will get through depends largely upon the governor's co-operation with the senate. If Allred clings stubbornly to his determination not to permit reduction of governmental expense, it seems a good bet that the senate will not levy a dime of new taxes. If Allred surrenders, the senate may give him some tax increase.

Slap At Loan Sharks

Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul broke one of the rare tie votes in the senate this week to vote in favor of state employees who are being victimized by Austin loan sharks. Sen. Joe Hill offered a resolution asking state department heads to co-operate with the clutches of the sharks, who, the resolution said, charged 100 to 300 per cent interest, and terrorized employees by threats to report them to their chiefs, when the tie vote came on a motion to send the resolution to committee feeling right and the remaining nine Wildcats feel as though they would like to have a few touchdowns, then the score will be high. Of course, the Chillicothe boys will have something to say about the scoring too, but the Wildcats will be too much for them.

Haskell Fans Give Praise

Haskell fans were talking about the Wildcats last Friday night as though Crowell was their home. The thing that seemed to baffle boys block like they do, even a wet field doesn't stop them? Crowell fans were proud of the boys for their well-earned victory but they thought that the boys didn't play as good as they did against Paducah.

The wet, slippery field was particularly responsible for the players missing several blocks. Their feet would sometimes slip just as they were starting to block and incidentally they were off-balance, often not even touching the intended victim.

Takes Eleven Good Players

No matter who carries the ball over the goal line, every man on the team is just as responsible for the score as the one who lugged the leather over. On each play every man on the team has an assignment and if the play works that means that everyone has done his duty well.

Man for man, Crowell has the best blocking team in Wildcat history.

Names and News

Curtis Hill, formerly a district attorney in East Texas, and one of the ablest assistants attorney general, has resigned to enter private law practice with a Dallas law firm. Hill, holding down the transportation desk, has won high regard the past three years for his able handling of the state truck and bus legal problems. Gov. Allred, whose close friends Speaker Bob Calvert, Judge Ralph Yarborough, and Gerald Mann are all rumored candidates against Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul for attorney general, issued a formal statement of a "hands-off" policy in this race. Calvert's friends are reported to have been putting considerable pressure on the governor to aid the speaker, but with Woodul presiding in the recalcitrant senate, and far out in the lead in the political race, it was no time for Allred to endorse any of his prospective rivals. Emmett Morse's bill to permit local option on sale by the drink in the 14 "wettest" counties in Texas was sent back to the liquor control committee for a hearing, and again came out with a favorable report. Three Pairs Hard to Beat

1. Joel McCrea and Miriam Hopkins who appear in "Woman Chase Man" Thursday and Friday at the Rialto Theatre. This is a nonsensical comedy, for laughing purposes only. Sometimes it's broad humor that verges on slapstick. As often it is suave comedy, lively. In promising a different kind of picture, Samuel Goldwyn also promised a different Miriam Hopkins and Joel McCrea. In neither was he mistaken. Miss Hopkins has followed in the path-way blazed by Irene Dunn in "Theodora Goes Wild" and Claudette Colbert in "I Met Him in Paris" to become a comedienne of high rank. "Woman Chase Man" is being sponsored by the Junior Columbian Club.

2. Dick Powell and Rosemary Lane, who are the romantic leads in "Varsity Show" at the Rialto Sunday and Monday. Chiefly a musical picture but also bubbling over with comedy by Ted Healy, Walter Catlett and Sterling Holloway, it also has a very substantial story. Powell, who is a Broadway producer known for his flops, takes the job of producing a show for his alma mater. The faculty interferes and Powell quits the job. After many complications the picture finally ends with a very hilarious situation.

3. "Annapolis Salute," starring James Ellison and Marshal Hunt, is the story of two boys who go to the Naval Academy and fall in love with the same girl. One is so much in love with her that he wants to resign and marry her and the other is equally determined that he shall do neither and they become enemies. A serious accident finally clears the situation and all ends well to the tune of "Anchors Aweigh." "Annapolis Salute" is featured at the Rialto next Tuesday and Wednesday.

"The heavy tractor and grader had been working across this spot during Monday, re-grading the road.

"There have been a number of sinks of this kind that have occurred in the Hackberry community. Many other places over the county have suffered a like accident. The first one that was ever known in this county was some thirty-five or forty years ago, which happened about 12 miles southwest of Paducah. It was about 60 feet deep, and has been known since as the "natural well," as it has plenty of water in it and at one time a windmill was put over it. A few years past a man lost his wagon and team near Pease River, northwest of Paducah, while gathering feed. The sink happened as the team was passing over it. The hole was about 36 feet deep, killing one of the mules and the other one was so badly crippled that it had to be shot.

"Another sink occurred a few years ago on the John J. Richards ranch northwest of Paducah, but this happened apparently from no cause at all, as it was near the edge of a field but on pasture land.

"The sink that happened at Hackberry is giving Mr. Brooks much concern, as it will take many tons of dirt to fill it up; and to put it in Mr. Brooks' language: 'Money is now hard to get for extra road work.'

Eagle Tilt—

Records Show Much The Crowell boys have won every one of their games by decisive scores and the Eagles have won one, lost three and tied one. This comparison reveals that Crowell has the strongest squad but the local lads know that every game is a game within itself and that a game is not won until it is played. Crowell respects the brand of football that the Eagles play against a Crowell squad and fans are preparing to travel with the Wildcats to Chillicothe Friday night knowing they will see two bitter rivals battle to a finish as the Chillicothe gridmen would like nothing better than marring Crowell's conference standing.

Probable Starters

LIVE YOUR PRESENT

During the past two years I have asked 2,937 persons, "What do you live for?" I discovered that 94 per cent are merely enduring the present for some future event or condition. Poor souls. They are wasting today's realities for tomorrow's speculations, sitting bored at a great entertainment, waiting for a better show which may never open. It's a common failing.—William Moulton Marston, author, lecturer, and psychologist, in the Rotarian magazine.

Local Food Store Will Celebrate 4th Anniversary

The fourth anniversary of Everybody's Food Store will be celebrated this week-end with a sale on groceries and meats, according to C. R. Dodd, owner and manager.

When this store first opened its door on October 7, 1933, the establishment occupied a ten by twelve foot space in the A. L. Johnson building, one block west of the square. After being open one month, the floor space was tripled and a short time later that space was doubled.

The location remained in the Johnson building for approximately one year and then was moved east three doors so that the stock might be increased. After remaining in that building one year, Mr. Dodd moved the grocery to its present location, one door north of the post office where it has been the past year.

A meat counter was added last spring and later a meat market department was installed. New equipment for this department, including a meat vault and display counter, has been purchased and installed to make Everybody's Food Store an up-to-date grocery and meat market.

Power and Utility the Year Around

McCORMICK-DEERING Farmall Tractors

WHEN the spring season is in full swing, the horse farmer is at his wits' end for time. Long hours in the field behind slow-moving teams bring him to the end of the day thoroughly tired . . . and then the round of horse chores begins.

Farmall Tractor owners will tell you that this drudgery is needless. They do more work in the field each day with their up-to-the-minute power, and when night comes, they snap the switch and call it a day.

The three McCormick-Deering Farmall Tractors—F-12, F-20, and the F-30 shown above—handle planting and cultivating of all row crops as well as the general-purpose work from plowing to belt jobs.

Ask us to bring a Farmall out to your farm for a demonstration.

Home Economics News

The Home Economics classes of Crowell High School have been organized for the year and are all in full swing.

During the first semester the first year class sews; the second year class cooks, and the third year class makes a study of the budget.

BAND CAPS

The C. H. S. band caps have arrived. They are black and gold and will be worn in the formation at Chillicothe Friday night.

HERE AND THERE

Lots of to-do in recent years about kids working their way through college. How about college working its way through some of the kids?

That Spanish class was just a little noisy when Mr. Black walked in the other day. "Class, order!" he shouted. The entire class shouted: "Coco Cola!"

The horn on Ruby Statser's Model A is rather indifferent. It just don't give a hoot.

Miss Cogdell: Glendon, who made the first cotton gin?
 Glendon Russell: Oh, are they making it out of cotton now?

We see by the Purdue Exponent that New York co-eds intend to marry "men of brains, character, adequate incomes, and a nice sense of humor." Why, gals, we would call that bigamy.

Alligator hunters say the beast is absolutely harmless—so long as it keeps its mouth closed. Just like human beings.

LOCALS

Wilma Jo Lovelady has returned from Riverside, Calif., where she had been living for the past several years.

Juanita and Billie Brown spent the week-end in Haskell.

Berdell Nelson visited school Monday.

Thelma White spent Friday night with Thelma Jo Ross.

Joyce White spent Friday and Saturday nights with Frances Johnson.

Margaret Woods is absent from school today (Monday) on account of illness.

Mary Wanda Lewis, '37 graduate, visited in CHS Friday. Miss Lewis has been visiting in Houston.

CHS FLASHES

Just exactly what does Juanita Johnson mean when she says she spent a "most luscious" time with a certain boy this week-end?

Our secret agent reports that Mary Housouer's time was fairly evenly divided between Crowell and Vernon this last week.

Faye Zeibig is doing better than most of the football squad. She jumped from a first string to a substitute.

What a break for someone! Jim Whitfield is back in school.

Mr. Henry Black seems to be giving advice on learning to skate.

Herman Blevins was seen down at the skating rink one night last week using the floor for a sliding board.

Will someone please tell Mary Erma Owens that Glen Shook is not exactly a freshman? Glen might be called a five year senior.

CHEMISTRY

Our chemistry teacher analyzed that comparatively unknown quantity—woman—as follows:
 Element: Woman.

Occurrence: Found wherever man is. Seldom in the free state. With few exceptions the combined state is preferable.

Physical properties: All colors and sizes; usually found in semi-disguised condition; face covered with film of composite material. Stops at nothing and may freeze up at any time. Very bitter when left alone or not treated well.

Chemical properties: Very active, possessing great affinity for gold, silver, platinum, and precious stones. Violent reaction when encountered after being left alone. Able to absorb vast quantities of expensive foods or vitamins at any time. Inclined to turn a decided ter-looking specimen. Ages very rapidly. Possesses a great magnetic attraction for men.

Caution: Highly explosive in inexperienced hands.

IS IT CONCEIT?

"She is conceited," is the all too frequent accusation in Crowell High School. This is a broad state-

HIGHLIGHTS OF HASKELL GAME

It seems that two certain girls of Crowell spent Friday night in a car—it rained.

Apparently Thelma Lois forgot about the boy in Los Angeles Friday night—Gordon was near.

It seems that Junior tried to flirt with Mildred also.

We wonder if Robert Lewis likes the corners or what is in the corner.

We wonder why Billie stayed in Haskell. Could there have been an attraction?

It seems that Verne lost out by not coming home on the bus.

Chippie was quite taken in by Frances' charm Friday night.

We wonder why Jean didn't go back on the bus.

BEAUTYS DAUGHTER

By Kathleen Norris

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER XIV — Cudworth will not sign the death certificate, should Spencer die. Serena declares that Serena has loved him. Quentin arrives. Serena threatens to accuse Quentin. Investigation is started, saying she will expose their affair. While Quentin, looking desperately, saves Serena's life. Serena disappears.

CHAPTER XV

"He roused the very worst in me," she always said. Victoria had seemed to sit back and watch at her, and he never let her see enough money even to get up. She told me—she came to me every few days, you know she had to charge even her shoes at hotels. That day she had to me desperately. She looked beautiful, too; she was in the best of her color, and her eyes were so blue. Mother said if she left, "All dressed up and here to go!" I suppose it was life-life to her to live in that country house.

"I suppose so," she said slowly. "But I don't know that it matters. You've seen me looking pretty horrible, ugly and crying and frightened and only anxious to be let off pain; it doesn't seem to make you like me any less when I'm all gotten up in my new Paris clothes. Luckily people forget those things, when—under it all—they love each other."

"I told you my idea of marriage was companionship, home, children. You were a widower with a delicate youngster—" She laughed. "It seems funny now to think of Gwen as delicate, doesn't it?" she said. "Women were making your life a burden, and you needed just what I had to give. I remember our talking of it once, and your saying that whatever the agreement was before marriage, however reasonable and dispassionate the feeling was, no man could have a young wife around and not come to love her, that is presuming that he didn't come to hate her. Do you remember that?"

"Well, the joke was on me," Vicky said, "for I had it—had it desperately the whole time! I trembled and got silly when you spoke to me, I thought of you all day long and lay awake dreaming of you all night. I was the love-sickest woman who ever knelt down and thanked God that the most marvelous man in the world had designed to look at her! I never told you, I was too proud. I tackled the big house and the servants and answering the telephone and buying you new shirts, and that was the way I wanted to be. I didn't want to be the one to introduce the silly, the sentimental side of it, cry when you forgot my birthday, and expect you to compliment me every night on the way my hair was done! I'd said I wanted a certain kind of marriage—work and responsibility and companionship, and plenty of criticism if I didn't do my job, and I got it! But I've loved you all the time! Quent, when you come home tired at night and go to sleep with your big head on my shoulder, I lie awake sometimes for joy. Juliet, not Nicolette!"

"There!" she said. "That's my awful confession. I've made you a speech." Quent took Victoria in his arms. "You've made me a speech, Vic. I'll never forget it."

and she was still.

"Serena loved you," she said thoughtfully, in the silence.

"She never loved anyone but herself," Quentin said. "Everything she said and did revolved about that. She loved her own beauty and power. She used them to get what she wanted. I knew it, after a while. Morrison must have discovered it as soon as they were married. Her first husband tried twice to kill himself. She was cold and vain, poor girl! And she was the woman," he ended, "for whom I broke my heart!"

"No, you didn't break my heart."

"Breaking a person's heart is a cheap way of putting it," Quentin said. "It sounds romantic when it wasn't anything but damn stupid and selfish. You said what it really did, a minute ago. It made you think less of me; that's the real price. We never can go back to that. You'll never be able to trust me again. There'll always be that feeling, somewhere, 'way back in your mind, that I failed you!"

Vicky, her elbows on the kitchen table, her chin in her hands, looked thoughtful.

"I suppose so," she said slowly. "But I don't know that it matters. You've seen me looking pretty horrible, ugly and crying and frightened and only anxious to be let off pain; it doesn't seem to make you like me any less when I'm all gotten up in my new Paris clothes. Luckily people forget those things, when—under it all—they love each other."

Quentin answered her with a long look.

"I think you really believe that," he said after a while. "You are not like anyone else in the world!"

Vicky in her turn was thoughtful.

"Perhaps we're both tired," she said. "For that matter, what's happened tonight is enough to throw us into nervous breakdowns. We don't often talk this way. But it's only fair to tell you something, Quent, that may partly explain the way I feel, the way I act. When we were married, eleven years ago, I talked about marrying for reasons, about not being carried away by excitement, about not falling in love."

"I told you my idea of marriage was companionship, home, children. You were a widower with a delicate youngster—" She laughed. "It seems funny now to think of Gwen as delicate, doesn't it?" she said. "Women were making your life a burden, and you needed just what I had to give. I remember our talking of it once, and your saying that whatever the agreement was before marriage, however reasonable and dispassionate the feeling was, no man could have a young wife around and not come to love her, that is presuming that he didn't come to hate her. Do you remember that?"

"Well, the joke was on me," Vicky said, "for I had it—had it desperately the whole time! I trembled and got silly when you spoke to me, I thought of you all day long and lay awake dreaming of you all night. I was the love-sickest woman who ever knelt down and thanked God that the most marvelous man in the world had designed to look at her! I never told you, I was too proud. "There!" she said. "That's my awful confession. I've made you a speech." Quent took Victoria in his arms. "You've made me a speech, Vic. I'll never forget it."

(THE END)

Some perennial expressions are getting tiresome. We wish someone would take up some of these new ones:

"That's practically an impossibility."

"Nuts, but I'm tickled."

"Honest and truly."

"Merely."

"Nothing cheap about me."

Shower for Miss Minnie Ringgold, Bride-Elect of William E. Wells, of Omaha, Nebr., Given Wednesday

Miss Minnie Ringgold, who will become the bride of Mr. W. E. Wells of Omaha, Nebr., on Sunday, Oct. 17, was named honoree at a beautiful miscellaneous shower Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Beverly, when Mrs. Beverly, Mrs. Julian Wright, Mrs. Lewis Ballard, and Mrs. F. A. Davis were hostesses.

The guests, upon entering, were presented to a receiving line composed of Mrs. Beverly, Mrs. W. C. McKown, of Wichita Falls, sister of Miss Ringgold, Mrs. B. F. Ringgold, her mother, the honor guest, and Mrs. Claude Brooks, of MeLean, another sister. Mrs. Wright presided at the bride's book, at which nearly one hundred guests registered. Miss Anne Lee Long played piano numbers during the time the guests were assembling.

The reception rooms were attractively decorated with roses and other cut flowers of the season.

The bride-elect and her mother and sisters were given seats of honor during the rendition of the program. Mrs. C. W. Thompson and Mrs. T. B. Klepper sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Let the Best of the World Go By." They were accompanied by Miss Long. Miss Helen Harwell read "The Bride" by Edgar A. Guest. Mrs. Alva Spencer, also accompanied by Miss Long, played "Thais" by J. Massenet as a violin solo. Mrs. Davis, in a clever, original way, presented a gift to Miss Ringgold and invited her to go with her into an adjoining room which was completely filled with gifts from her many friends. They consisted of glassware, chinaware, silverware, linens, kitchenware, and numerous other things. The bride-to-be responded with appropriate words of thanks and appreciation.

A color scheme of pink and white was used in the dining room. A lace cloth over pink, covered the dining table, which was further enhanced by crystal candle holders with tall pink burning tapers. Miss Margaret Curtis and Florence Black poured punch which was served with white cakes in the shape of wedding bells and the pretty plate favors were pink candy wedding rings and white candy hearts tied with pink and white ribbons. Mrs. J. E. Harwell, Mrs. Byron Davis and Mrs. Ballard assisted in the dining room.

GROCERY and MARKET

Misses Mozelle Lilly and Juanita Hough were elected to membership in the club at the meeting.

Mrs. Alva Spencer, leader of the program, called an "acquaintance meeting" and gave interesting facts about Crowell.

Eighty-Sixth Birthday Celebrated Sunday

Mrs. Bettie Thomson of Crowell was the honor guest at a dinner Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Norwood, of Vernon, in celebration of her eighty-sixth birthday. Her four daughters, Mrs. Norwood of Vernon, Mrs. D. P. Beatty of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Hines Clark of Crowell, and Mrs. S. H. Puryear of San Antonio, have been joint hostesses for their mother's birthday celebration for a number of years but Mrs. Puryear was unable to be present on this occasion.

A sumptuous dinner was served at the noon hour at a T-shaped table with decorations of roses, zinnias and chrysanthemums, to the following: Mrs. Ozella Scoggins, Mrs. D. P. Mrs. Thomson has been a resident of Crowell for many years and, though she now divides her time among her daughters and their families, she still retains Crowell as her home. She is extremely active for her age.

LIBRARY NOTES

"Stella Dallas," a story of mother love, by Oliver Higgins Prouty, is a story not easily forgotten. Mrs. Prouty, with keen understanding and deep sympathy, unrolls this absorbing, pathetic, and romantic novel in such a way as to make it one of the greatest stories of mother love ever written.

The story concerns the marriage of Stephen Dallas, a man used to all the refinements that wealth can bring, to Stella, the daughter of a common mill-hand, completely unrefined, but with a heart of gold, and the rearing of their strange, beautiful daughter, Laurel, Stella, always trying to do the right thing for her child, inevitably does the worst possible thing. Realizing her errors, Stella makes a great sacrifice which she believes will bring Laurel to happiness and refinement.

This story gives a very interesting study of the characters of Stephen, Stella, and Laurel, three people as far apart in their respective tastes as is possible.

Successful Reunion

Once again the pioneers have assembled in Henrietta for their annual reunion, and once again we see the results of a joyous celebration. Some 500 or more pioneers registered with Mrs. C. H. Melton at the court house Wednesday and partook of the various events in their honor here the past two days.—Clay County Leader.

Long Staple Brings High Price

While other South Plains' sections are suffering from the lack of a cotton market, Lockney's long-staple is bringing as high as 8c and is being shipped out every day. Cotton authorities say the average grade staple for cotton coming to the local gins is 15-16 and on today's market (Thursday) is bringing 8c. In comparison to cotton elsewhere, that is considered exceptionally high.—Lockney Beacon.

Applications for 54 dams in Randall County were officially filed Friday afternoon by S. H. Condon with the WPA office in Amarillo. Successful Cooking School

The three-day motion picture cooking school sponsored by The Clarendon News and participating advertisers, which had its final showing Wednesday morning at the Pastime Theatre, was an outstanding success both from the standpoint of being an instructive course for housewives, and a merchandising event for the merchants who participated. Aggie-Frog Rivalry Dates Back 40 Years

College Station, Oct. 14.—The Texas Aggies can thank their veteran football enemies, the Texas Christian Horned Frogs, for their first push into serious football.

Forty years ago the Aggies and the Frogs, who will battle on the grid for the thirty-first time of record Saturday, Oct. 16, at Fort Worth, played their first game, with the Christians, then Ad Rann, coasting to easy 30 to 6 victory. Chagrined Cadets wanted to do something about it, but they did not know what to do.

Hal Moseley, now city manager for Dallas, hopefully suggested hiring a coach. Most of the boys didn't know what a coach was, but the cadet corps faithfully passed the hat and C. W. Taylor, graduate of Union College, became the first grid mentor of Texas Aggie record.

That original $150 reaped gigantic dividends as far as Aggie-Frog games were concerned. The battling Cadets won 16 of the next 17 games played, the Christians earning a scoreless tie in 1909. The Frogs, in fact, didn't win again until 1925, but their 3-0 victory that year reversed whole procedure. The Aggies did win again until the past year when they downed the Frogs 18 to 7.

The Cadets won 17 of the games played to date and the Frogs 10. Three ended in dead ties, two scoreless.
