COUNTY AGENT GIVES FACTS ABOUT COTTON

Urges Farmer to Plan To Use Good Seed Next Season

Farmers of this county are urged by County Agent John Nagy to make plans to plant good staple cotton next season. Mr. Nagy stated that it pays the farmer to plant a long staple cotton and that the only practical way by which the cotton can be put back on the world market, thus bringing the farmer back to normal. Much progress was made toward this goal in Foard County this year as there were several hundred bushels of Mebane and Johnson cotton seed planted and the cotton has brought better prices than that grown from inferior seed.

As an example, Mr. Nagy gave the case of Hatley Easley. Mr. Easley has fifteen bales of lint cotton grown from pedigreed Watson seed and each of these bales has averaged 45 cents per pound, the highest rate yet given. A large portion of the cotton in the county which application for government loans have been made, have been turned down by government checkers because of the low quality staple. This cotton was grown from seed obtained at low prices from gin seed houses and it is impossible to mix the variety of the seed.

Finners and Mr. Nagy have been working hard to get good cotton communities in the county. The Margaret gin has taken a long step forward in this respect. The gin is buying bushels of seed from good staple cotton and trading it to their customers, bushel for bushel, for a poor grade of seed. In this manner, the gin is helping the farmer to get good seed for planting by time the ginning season closes.

Crowell President Returns from FFA Meet in Kansas City

He was very impressed by the manner in which FFA handled the meeting at Kansas City.

Texas had the largest representation and Breckenridge FFA boys won the national meat judging contest. Doyle Graves, a brother of Coach Graves of Crowell, was the vocational agriculture teacher at that school.

APPROPRIATION RECEIVED FOR WORK ON ROAD

$4,000.00 Allotted for Completion of Road North to River

Work on hard surfacing of State Highway 16 north of Crowell to Pease River will be continued until the road is completed, according to a statement made by Judge Claude Callaway yesterday. Continuation of this work was made possible by the $4,000 appropriation made by the State Highway Commission.

There has been much said about the work being stopped and in regard to this Judge Callaway stated that he felt assured there would be no let-up on this job until it is completed as he has received a copy of an order passed by the State Highway Commission appropriating $4,000 additional state funds which will assure the completion of this work.

The surfacing of this road is a WPA project and according to Judge Callaway there has been a shortage of WPA labor but there should be plenty of laborers ready to go to work on the road about December 1, due to seasonal farm labor closing. Because of this extreme shortage of labor, it was necessary for the State Highway Commission to make the additional appropriation.

The road is to receive two five-inch gravel courses and an asphalt topping.

NUMBER OF WPA EMPLOYEES IN COUNTY DROPS

Large Sums of Money Spent in County by Relief Branches

The number of WPA employees in Foard County has decreased a total of 86 since April, according to H. E. Thomson, head of the local relief office. Records reveal that at present there are 123 employees on the WPA rolls and that in April there were 213. The all-time high for relief clients was set at 355. This drop is due to seasonal farm labor, Mr. Thomson stated.

To date there are 24 women employed in the local WPA sewing room and 97 men working on WPA projects. There are 28 women and 141 men certified for WPA work at present.

Sewing Project

There is a total of 24 relief women and one non-relief woman employed in the sewing room in the court house. Two relief women and one non-relief woman are working on other projects in the county. The twenty-four women employed in the sewing room receive $21 each per month or a total of $504.00.

The sum of $2,037.00 constitutes the payroll of the ninety-seven men working on WPA projects or a salary of $21.00 per month each. The two relief women employed on other projects receive $32.20 each per month.

The WPA payroll in the county at the present time amounts to about $2,695.40 each month. Skilled and semi-skilled wages vary, but $21.00 is the minimum wage. For this estimate all workers are counted under the $21.00 wage scale.

B. Hargrove, hurting them to the pavement and inflicting injuries, as they started to cross the street.

Spurt in Latin-American Trade Seen As Boost for New Texas Industries

Dallas, (Special) — Marked increases in shipments from the United States to Latin-America, indicating the growing concentration of American business interests in Central and South American markets, challenge Texas to capitalize its proximity to these developing trade areas in bidding for new industry, a report of the All-South Development Council, made public this week, points out. The Council report cites a gain of 14 per cent in shipments to Latin-America for 1936, compared with 1935, more than twice the 6 per cent gain in exports to Asia, while no increase at all was registered in European shipments during the same period. Europe still ranks as America's No. 1 customer in volume of trade, with exports there last year totaling more than $1,000,000,000, but the significant gains in Latin-American trade point to Central and South America as the fastest growing foreign market of the United States, the Council's study declared. It recalls that exports to Latin-America today are 40 per cent higher than the $121,028,000 figure which was the average for the years 1910 to 1914. During the same period, shipments to Europe have declined 25 per cent from the 1910-1914 average of $1,350,299,000. "The growing importance of Latin-American markets is indicated by the $52,863,425 increase in exports over the 1935 figure of $376,718,611, to bring last year's total to $429,582,036," the report states. "Imports likewise showed a gain of $45,654,302, during the same period, to hit the $528,722,136 figure." The favorable position of the Lone Star state in the future development of foreign trade areas to the south, coupled with a 20 per cent increase in 1936 compared to 1935, which insures an expanded domestic market, are powerful appeals to industrialists contemplating the establishment of new plants and factories, the Council believes. The major factor retarding the rapid settlement of new industry in Texas, it feels, is the uncertainty of business men over the state's tax policies. The demand in some quarters of Texas for higher taxes on natural resource industries, and the absence of any satisfactory guarantee of equitable tax treatment to new industry, are preventing the Lone Star state from reaping the benefits of increased employment and larger payrolls which would result from the immediate location of new plants in the state. Supporting its contention that Central and South America present the most profitable markets for the further development of American trade relations, the report calls attention to the more favorable tariff rates there, compared to heavier European import duties on most American products. Despite increasing industrialization in Latin-America, this region, it declares, is still largely dependent on foreign countries for its manufactured goods.

Headquarters for West Texas C. of C. Moved to Abilene

Abilene.—The Executive Board of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting in Abilene Friday, moved the headquarters offices of the regional organization from Stamford to Abilene. The new headquarters building presented to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce by the city of Abilene, together with $5,000 to make alterations, was formerly the Federal postoffice building and will provide the country's largest regional organization with a plant second only to that of the United States Chamber of Commerce. "Increased activities of the organization and a desire to provide a permanent all-year headquarters for the All-West Texas Resource Community-Museum Exhibits were the prompting reasons for changing the headquarters," said Milburn McCarty, president of the regional organization. "The first floor of the 45 ft. by 90 ft. structure and 25 ft. by 50 ft. annex will be used," said McCarty, "to house our Century of Progress, Texas Centennial and Frontier Fiesta exhibits; the second floor for staff offices and committee rooms, for all present and new departments of the organization and the third floor for regional offices of allied organizations." "It will be some time, of course," continued McCarty, "before the new offices and exhibit can be arranged, at which time we want to have a formal opening and presentation of the building." Ray Nichols, past president and member of the Executive Board said, "The new headquarters are in keeping with the development of the West Texas territory, and with the demonstrated permanency, prestige and increased activities of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce organization and should launch our organization upon a new era of service to the average West Texas small town whose influence should always dominate the affairs of the organization." "I expect immediately to open my offices in the new headquarters," said D. A. Bandeen, manager of the organization, "although I expect to reside in Stamford for the time being."

The Stamford headquarters of the organization have served as the base of operations since its founding twenty years ago. Started as an organization to serve a limited number of counties, the organization has grown to embrace 130 counties of West Texas and 8 counties in Eastern New Mexico, having 178 affiliated towns and a supporting membership of over five thousand.

Colds Important Enough to Justify Careful Attention

Austin.—"Beware of the common cold," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, cautions the people of Texas. "This is the season of the year when colds are most prevalent, and their consequences causing the disease is not known, but every individual is acquainted with its effects." "Not a little of the susceptibility of catching colds can be overcome by a gradual acclimating to lowering temperatures and inclement outdoor weather. This hardening should begin now, and consist of regular exercise—walking is good—to be continued throughout the winter in weather of every kind. One should be careful to avoid wet stockings drying on the feet, over-heavy clothing and over-heated rooms. "There are two broad principles to observe in the treatment and prevention of colds. The first says: 'Let every person with a cold consider it seriously.' Every cold should be regarded as the possible beginning of a serious illness. That means seeking a physician's advice and explicitly following his directions. If he orders bed, then bed it should be. Complete rest is a fine way to overcome a cold in short order. "One's resistance to many diseases, including colds, can be raised by increasing one's vitality through observing the fundamental rules of health: plenty of fresh air, good wholesome food, neither too much nor too little, sufficient rest and the avoidance of habitual over-indulgence of devitalizing stimulants, including alcohol, tobacco and the like. "The cold is a common disease," Dr. Cox repeated, "but every cold is important enough to justify careful attention and treatment for its immediate cure. Death-dealing pneumonia and tuberculosis may begin with colds that do not receive care and attention."

Adventure Is Coming In The American Boy

Readers who like adventure and the lure of far places will find plenty to please them in coming issues of The American Boy Magazine. They'll read, for instance, of seamen and sabotage and San Francisco water-front trouble; of daring adventure in the world of pseudo-science, and of a feud aboard a plunging, rolling battleship. They'll read, too, of excitement aboard a transport plane blaring over jungled Mexican mountains, and of stranger planes that are not bound to earth, but swing through the noiselessness of space. Readers can follow a young ex-Mountie as he searches for clues in the wild northlands, and Tierney, the pie-eating detective, on the trail of city criminals. A new feature in The American Boy is pictures—pages that tell stories. Pictures, for instance, that vividly show a day in the life of a coast guardsmen, and how an Eskimo husky sled dog does his work. They transmit the thrill of battling a hundred pound, water-churning tarpon. Tips on how it's done are also given pictorially—ranging from how to run a broken field to how to be correct in a ballroom! Note—Subscription prices of The American Boy will be raised in the near future. Send your subscription order at once to take advantage of the bargain rate in effect: one year at $1.00, three years at $2.00. Foreign subscriptions 50c a year extra. Your name, address and remittance to The American Boy, 7430 S. Blvd., Detroit, Mich. One year stands the price is 15c a copy.

McCORMICK-DEERING Farmall Tractors

WHEN the spring season is in full swing, the honest farmer is at his wits' end for time. Long hours in the field behind slow-moving teams bring him to the end of the day thoroughly tired... and then the round of horse chores begins. Farmall Tractor owners will tell you that this drudgery is needless. They do more work in the field each day with their up-to-the-minute power, and when night comes, they snap the switch and call it a day. The three McCormick-Deering Farmall Tractors—F-12, F-20, and the F-30 shown above—handle planting and cultivating of all row crops as well as the general-purpose work from plowing to belt jobs. Ask us to bring a Farmall out to your farm for a demonstration.

MULLEIN STALK ONCE USED AS A TORCH AT FUNERALS

The mullein plant, whose combination of velvety leaves, towering stalks, and yellow flower makes it easy to identify, belongs to Europe. It came over hundreds of years ago in ballast, riding free like many other weed and flower stowaways. It has been here so long that Europeans think the mullein belongs to us, says a writer in the Chicago Tribune.

The leaves are soft and have a velvet-like texture. Nature has given the mullein this type of leaf as an overcoat to protect it in winter against severe cold. In the summer, when an August sun bears down on an open pasture (the common habitat of the mullein), this also acts as insulation, so that the plant does not lose too much moisture.

Mullein leaves also have their romantic uses. The story is that in the old days country girls used to take the mullein leaves and rub them on their cheeks to produce a peach blossom effect that no other cosmetic could give them.

There is a self-confident, arrogant air about a tall mullein stalk which is always impressive. It will take the roughest, driest places, or taken by other plants, and thrive without asking help from anyone. It has marched around the world making itself at home in a fight against all kinds of competition.

Other flowering weeds may be more beautiful and have more lovely flowers, but none can boast of being carried in great funeral processions of old Rome. The Romans used to dip the tall, strong mullein stalks in tallow and use them for funeral torches.

Fire Menaces Chicago Stock Yards

Flames which swept over a block-square building of one of the major meat-packing plants in the Union Stock yards at Chicago caused damage in excess of $200,000. Nearly a third of the fire-fighting apparatus of the city was called to the yards to prevent a spread of the conflagration. Picture shows firemen fighting the blaze.

Being Left-Handed

If you are left-handed, don't worry. There was a time when people regarded the use of the left hand as something not quite nice, observes a writer in London Answers Magazine. They would use every form of persuasion to make a child use the right hand, however unnatural it might be for him. Some scientists say that it is wrong to make a child turn from his instinct—which ever hand he habitually uses is the right hand for him. In fact, to compel him to change may have a serious effect on him mentally and physically. One expert goes further and says that it is the duty of everyone to learn to use both hands with equal facility. It is essential for us to be ambidextrous.

Weather Forecasting Easy

In many parts of the world the weather man can tell pretty accurately what the weather will be for weeks or even months ahead. The St. Lawrence River, for instance, becomes frozen over the #### second week in December and water flows again mid-April at the earliest. Near the equator it is always the same, very hot and very moist, but a little hotter and a little moister at the time of the equinoxes. In Bombay, India, the monsoon is pretty sure to come right after the first of June.

PORK PACKED IN BARRELS GAVE THE INDUSTRY NAME

As population on the eastern seaboard increased during the early development of the country, live stock producers in that area found it impossible to keep pace with demand. Settlers in the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys started to raise live stock.

With the advent of the railroad, notes a writer in the Chicago Tribune, stock was shipped to eastern centers where it was killed and processed. The first trend toward removal of the industry from the East occurred when pork packing was inaugurated in cities west of the Alleghenies. This consisted of the St. Lawrence River, for instance, becomes frozen over the

From this practice the industry derived its name, now a misnomer. During the Civil War Cincinnati was the nation's largest packing center.

About 1875 the refrigerator car was developed, which made possible the shipment of fresh meats, resulting in the rapid development of packing centers in Chicago and other middlewestern cities. Refrigeration made possible a continuous flow of fresh meats from the Middle West not only to the East but to all parts of the world.

King Cobra Eats Snakes

The king cobra is cannibalistic. That is, it generally refuses to eat any thing but snakes, and it likes to kill them itself and devour them as they are dying from the effects of its poison. A meal of a snake lasts the king cobra many days, depending on the size of the snake eaten. But all cobras cannot live on other snakes, and the smaller common spectacled cobra of India eats chiefly frogs, rats and small birds.

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.—Romans 1:16-17.

A recent survey of the unemployed of the country showed that the majority of them were either unskilled, or had but slight training in any skilled labor. This condition is due to the fact that in the past young men have been unwilling to serve an apprenticeship in a trade because the wages paid during the training period were less than they could receive running an elevator or driving a truck. A wise young man should know that a trade that can be learned in two weeks will never offer much stability, or pay very good wages for the reason that such a workman is too easily replaced, and he has too much competition, from the fact that many like him choose the trade that offers the largest immediate returns and is the easiest learned. The old German custom of every young man learning a trade has never been improved upon.

A large per cent of individual failures in life are due to lack of thrift and the ability for self discipline. The young man who cannot save a part of his wages when he is getting a few dollars a week will not save when he is earning ten times as much and the man who cannot save a part of his wages under our present scheme of living lacks the essential element of success. The reason why many cannot save is that they lack the power of self denial. They want everything they see, and if they have the money or can get credit, buy it. They go through life with the hounds of want always at their heels because they refuse to deny a weakness and manage their lives.

There is nothing that the world can give that affords a parent so much genuine pleasure as a son or daughter who grows up to be an obedient, earnest, worthwhile young person, and there is nothing that can bring a parent quite so much genuine grief and disappointment as to have a son or daughter grow up and fail to have these worthwhile qualities.

If it is true that the very streets of heaven are paved with gold the fellows who spend all their lives hoarding up a few hundred dollars worth of the stuff are going to get a shock when they see the thing for which they spent their entire lives for on earth, used as paving material.

First Frost The first frost and freeze of the year hit the Panhandle Monday night, Oct. 18. The temperature registered in Canyon was 36 degrees, but was lower on the North Plains. While the freeze was general over the Panhandle it was believed to have done little damage since such a large part of the feed crop had been harvested.—Canyon News.

Knapp, agriculturist with the American Crystal Sugar Co., at Rocky Ford, Colo., has been received by the county agent. Knapp states it appears from the tests that the beets are still growing, and if samples sent to him were of average size, Floyd County must have a very fertile soil for the production of sugar beets.—The Lockney Beacon.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—The daily newspapers of Texas—by the time this mail dispatch is in type—probably will have a "mild" omnibus tax bill by the Texas legislature's second called session, and the session will have gone into the limbo of history. Adoption by the senate, at the week-end, of a tax bill designed to raise about $2,500,000, was regarded as guaranteeing final passage of a tax bill. But only the final hour of the session could reveal exact details of the new tax measure.

Important Session Regardless of the details, however, the special session may go down in history as the most important in eight years, for it marked what most observers here regarded as a definite indication of a return to sanity in state government. On the strength of developments brought out at the session, many believed the following distinct trends of sentiment were revealed: 1. An end to the constant expansion of governmental functions, and its accompanying demands for more and more taxes, which was necessitated by the depression emergency, and has hung on ever since. 2. A definite demand by the taxpayers for a reduction in governmental expenditure, and elimination of duplication and waste, consolidation and abolition of useless bureaus and commissions, reduction of excessive higher bracket salaries, elimination of hundreds of useless employees who have attached themselves like barnacles to the vicious patronage system of state government, and better control methods for state expenditures. 3. Restoration of the constitutional allocation of funds for the public schools, by removing the excess allocations and returning the excess to the long-suffering general fund, which was sacrificed during the depression to keep the schools going.

Senate Regains Prestige Another of the more important by-products of the "tax" session has been a tremendous change in public opinion concerning the upper house of the legislature. The senate, originally designed as a deliberative body to act as a "brake" against precipitate and ill-considered action, has been the "goat" during the past few years, when everybody looked to the government to support him — by reason of its conservative refusal to go along with the house on unlimited pensions for everybody, and other exaggerations of the social security program. This time, the senate, meeting the demand for more taxes with a counter attack showing extravagance and waste in government, has found public sentiment swinging in its direction. The governor, who has used the senate as a foil for his own political plans for three years, was probably more amazed than anybody in Austin, to find the old cry of "wolf," directed at the senate, found little public response this time. Even the magic formula of President Roosevelt's name, to which Alford resorted in desperation repeatedly in his message, his press conferences, and even in his own "news" column which he sends out weekly to newspapers, failed to evoke a response from the taxpayers.

Speed in Seine Net Fishing Speed is all important in seine net fishing. When a school of herring is sighted, small boats encircle it with a huge, small-mesh net shortward, trying to reach net. Then the main boat hauls the shallow water before the fish dive under the net. In shallow water another net is "shot" under the fish, hauls them to the surface. They are scooped up in baskets, salted and thrown into the hold.

Odd Weather Forecasting In the days of Caesar the Roman weather men, called haruspices, did their forecasting by looking at entrails and birds flying. Their results were such that Cato, the censor, is reported to have said "that he wondered how one haruspex could look another in the face without laughing!"

Orchids to the Wildcat supporters who voluntarily donated to help pay the hospital expenses of the wounded Wildcat. Charles Branch, Mere words can not express the appreciation of the boy, his parents and local school officials for the willing aid given them in their period of trouble. At present, the prospects of Charles being in the line-up again are very gloomy and it seems assured that he will not play again this year. Doctors state that they think it best that he remain out of the game for the remainder of the year in order that his cheek can heal properly. Coach Grady Graves stated that he would not play Charles again until the doctors gave him permission and that looks as though it will not be this year. Charles can look forward to a bright year next season unless something out of the ordinary happens. His brilliant playing this year will practically clinch a position on the Crowell eleven in 1933 and unless a group of Dick Todds appear W. E. predicts that he will be one of Crowell's outstanding gridmen then.

Back to Work The Wildcats will go back to work Friday night against the Throckmorton Greyhounds in a conference tilt in the Hounds' home town after a week's lay-off. From all indications the Cats are ready to start play again after two weeks of drills and scrimmages.

Hounds Bite Hard The Greyhounds have established a reputation of being one of the roughest and toughest teams in the district. Backsmott, plastered them 40-6, but after the smoke had cleared from the Bulldogs' kennel it was found that their fullback, Brown, would not play again this year due to a broken arm and that their sensational star, Tolly McKown, would be lost to the team for a game or two because of an arm injury inflicted during the battle. The local boys are looking forward to their roughest game when they trot onto the field tomorrow night.

Two Men Being Held in Jail on Liquor Charges Two local men are being held in the Crowell jail facing liquor charges to be tried in the November term of county court. H. E. (Boots) Gribble of Crowell and Ernest Lee of Paducah were arrested Sunday afternoon at Gribble's residence in the east section of Crowell by Sheriff A. W. Lilly and Deputy Sheriff John Todd. Twenty-four pints of liquor were found hidden under the floor of the house. Gribble is being held on two charges: possession of intoxicating liquor in a dry area. His bond was set at $750 on each charge. Lee pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and was fined. A woman who gave Vernon as her home was arrested at the time but was later released. Cleo Spears was arrested Tuesday morning and is being held under a $750 bond on the charge of sale of intoxicating liquor in a dry area.

Foard Farmers Visit Experiment Station

Five Foard County farmers visited the Chillicothe experiment station Sunday afternoon, Oct. 24, to view crops grown there under experimentation. Invitations were sent by Walker P. Todd, vocational agriculture teacher, and by FFA boys to the fathers to make this trip, but due to other engagements only a few were able to attend. Improvements in several varieties of grain sorghum and cotton were among the experiments that were of much interest to the farmers from this county. Quadron and Blight resistant maize, and Mebane 141, a new variety of cotton, seemed to offer outstanding qualities for this region and orders were placed for some of these seed for next spring deliveries. Those making the trip were: Frank Flesher, John Thompson, Jim Shook, D. E. Todd, Roy C. Todd, and Walker P. Todd.

BARGAIN RATES NOW IN EFFECT; MANY RENEW

New Subscribers Also Being Added to List

The Foard County News' annual fall offerings of bargains in reading matter are now ready for subscribers and new readers. It is hoped that this fall's subscription business will be the best in many years. Every home in this county needs the home paper, not only for the news value, but as a means of saving money by reading the advertisements and taking advantage of the many bargains offered by advertisers throughout the year.

Business men and others who place ads in the paper are spending money to get in touch with people who want what they have to sell or trade. The newspaper is conceded by experts in advertising to be the most economical means of bringing buyer and seller together.

The following single subscriptions and clubbing offers are now available at this office: Foard County News, $1.50; Fort Worth Star-Telegram, daily and Sunday, one year $7.45, both papers one year, $8.20; The Wichita Falls Record-News or Daily Times one year, $4.50; either paper with the Foard County News, one year $5.50; Semi-Weekly Farm News one year $1.60; with The Foard County News, $2.15; The Pathfinder and The Foard County News, both papers one year, $1.85.

Our fall subscription campaigns have been successful for many years, whether conditions were good or not, and with conditions improved somewhat at this time, we anticipate a good subscription business.

Renewals and new subscribers received since the first of October are as follows: Alton Bell, city; J. O. Dollar, Ft. Sil, Okla.; Raymond Hallmark, Kermit; C. B. Graham, city; Mrs. Edith Waichter, Austin; J. D. Huskey, Route 2; Miss Edith Carter, Alpine.

Singing Star

Bobby Breen, youthful screen and radio singing star pictured above, is the main attraction of "Make A Wish" showing at the Rialto Theatre Thursday and Friday. His work in "Rainbow On the River" has won many fans to him who didn't think they would like the boy's soprano singing.

The story takes place at a boys' summer camp and later at a theatre. Chip, young son of a retired opera singer, is spending his vacation at a boys' summer camp where he meets John Selden, a composer, and the two become close friends. When Chip's mother came to visit him, John Selden falls in love with her and builds an operetta around her voice and personality. They become separated and it appears the operetta is doomed in production but the boy and his mother supply the music from memory bringing the story to a thrilling climax.

Miss Marion Claire plays the part of the opera singer and Basil Rathbone is cast as the composer. The live songs featured are by Oscar Strauss, Paul Webster and Louis Alter.

Comedy prevails in "Fight For Your Lady" when Jack Oakie, John Boles, Ida Lupino, and Erik Rhodes get together in one of the smartest shows of the new season. Full of gags from start to finish, the story is built around John Boles falling in love with Ida Lupino, who is already engaged to marry Erik Rhodes, dueling Austrian, who guarantees sudden death to anyone trespassing on his property. Preceded by a lot of foolishness, a duel is arranged in which Jack Oakie takes drastic steps to save John's life. This picture was not made to make sense but to make laughter. "Fight For Your Lady" shows at the Rialto Sunday and Monday.

the opening whistle but he feels that the boys are in the best of shape, physically and mentally, and will be able to deal with the Racers.

In every game this season the Crowell eleven has been outweighed but have made up for this difference with their fighting spirit. The small, elusive, swivel-hipped Wildcat backs have been able to slip through holes in the line made by hard, fast blocking for repeated gains against opponents who were many pounds heavier. Many long gains have been made through the air by heaves by Fitzgerald, Orr and Canup. Crowell sharpshooters, who have had about half of their tosses completed.

Wildcats Ready

The Crowell boys are ready to tangle with the Throckmorton team after an open date last week. The past two weeks have been spent in preparing a smooth clicking grid machine without the services of Charles Branch, center, who has been ordered by doctors not to participate in another game this season after an operation to raise his cheek bone, which had been fractured in the Haskell fray, back to its normal position.

Coach Graves watched his boys run through a heavy scrimmage Wednesday afternoon and pronounced them ready to go tomorrow night. Evans has been shifted from left guard to center and is playing the position very satisfactorily. W. F. Stotter, experienced reserve, has taken up the guard duties and it looks as though he is as capable as Evans with his bone-jarring blocks and stellar defensive work.

Throckmorton's probable starters and weights follow: Jones 140, Gordon 140, ends; Hibbitts 157, Criswell 185, tackles; Tucker 160, Keeter 130, guards; Cochran 135, center; Wilkinson 140, Cribbs 155, Lloyd 150, Odell 170, backs.

Glenn Shook told of his recent trip to Kansas City as a delegate from the Crowell chapter to the national FFA meeting.

Recie Womack attended his first meeting as a new member and Joe Ward was elected to membership in the club.

Crowell FFA Boys Make Annual Trip to Experiment Station

Thirty-two Crowell FFA boys made their annual visit to the Chillicothe experiment station on Wednesday, Oct. 20, to observe crops and improvements in plants in the past year.

The day was spent observing new varieties of trees, cotton, grain sorghums and grasses. J. Roy Quinby, superintendent of the station, explained the new developments made in crops. Crop conditions were much better than last year when the boys visited the experiment station.

Blight resistant maize, Quadron and Mehane 141 cotton seemed to be the outstanding crops, according to Walker P. Todd, adviser. Visits to the station are made in order that the FFA boys may know what is being done by the eighteen experiment stations in Texas. It is their purpose to develop, introduce and experiment with new varieties of plants.

Dale Jones, school bus driver, furnished transportation for the following boys: Jack Bailey, Herman Blevins, Fred Borchardt, Bascom Callaway, Cecil Garrall, Wayne Cobb, Carl Connell, Richard Davidson, Frank Dunn, Fred Ely, Ralph Flesher, Ed Gafford, Leroy Gibson, Kenneth Halbert, Leroy Haseloff, Raymond Joy, James Long, Bob Middlebrook, Basil Nelson, Billy Ownbey, J. S. Owens, Garland Rasberry, Bill and Glendon Russell, Guyton Sikes, Hugh Sollis, Wilson Starnes, Clyde Teal, Reid Thompson, James Welch, Clark Brown, Albert Cox and Mr. Todd.

Pins in Many Varieties

Pins are manufactured in England in hundreds of varieties from 3 1/2 inches long to entomologists' pins so small that it takes about 4,500 to weigh an ounce.

The Hussars

The hussars were the light cavalry troops originally raised by Matthias Corvinus in 1458 to fight against the Turks. Of the several possible origins suggested for the word, the most generally accepted is that it is derived from the Magyar word, husz, meaning twenty, the troops have been raised by selecting every twentieth man in the community.

Sunday School at 10 a. m. Sunday services at 11 a. m. Wednesday evening services at 8 o'clock. Sunday, Oct. 31, 1937. Subject: "Everlasting Punishment." The public is cordially invited.

Christian Science Services

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 31. The Golden Text is: "Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, and teachest him out of thy law" (Psalms 94:12). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Lord shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment. And he shall judge the world in righteousness: he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness" (Psalms 9:7, 8). The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "No final judgment awaits mortals, for the judgment day of wisdom comes hourly and continually, even in the judgment by which mortal man is divested of all material error" (page 291.)

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

Christians Are Made By Working At the Job: The book of Job is addressed to a group of people who had come into the church in the period immediately following Christ's ministry, many of whom, for various reasons, had grown lax and indifferent and had drawn away from the church, and followed false leaders. The same applied to lax and indifferent church members might be made with equal force today. The question naturally suggests itself as to the reason why, in view of the great numbers who come into the church each year, that the net gain in membership is relatively so small. The answer I think is found in the fact that many who come into the church never learn enough about God and the Church and its purpose in human lives to give them an understanding and a foothold sufficient to keep them from being easily led away. They remind me of the young man, who having decided to be an editor, presented himself at a neighboring newspaper office, announced his desire, and proceeded to sit down in the office and wait for the knowledge and the experience to come. As every one knows it would never come. That is not the way that editors, or lawyers, or surgeons are made. It is not the way Christians are made. No understanding follower of Christ was ever made by merely announcing an intention, coming to church and sitting down and doing nothing to make possible the realization of the desire. Followers of Christ like lawyers, and doctors, and journalists are made by working and studying, and making the thing of the profession a real, usable part of their lives. There is no other way to master a profession and there is no other way to become a Christian.

Odd Head Decorations

Aristocratic French women, shortly before the revolution in 1789, died with one another in decorating their headresses. Their large wigs were adorned with such ornaments as windmills, ships, animals and houses. One of the oddest, says Collier's Weekly, was the "Kitchen Coiffure," in which the headress included a dishcloth, a bunch of onions, a knife and fork and a scrubbing brush.

Boundaries of Pennsylvania

In 1682 William Penn purchased of the Delaware Indians a tract of land in the present counties of Bucks and Northampton, Pa. Penn and a party of Indians started on a walk beginning at the mouth of Neshaminy creek. After walking a day and a half he concluded that it was as much land as he wanted and a deed was given to the lands at that point. In 1737, after Penn's death, the tract was increased by a party of expert walkers to a point 70 miles in the interior.

The Harpsichord

The harpsichord was the predecessor of the modern piano. It went out of style about a century ago, but meanwhile such giants as Beethoven, Mozart, Bach, Couperin and others had written much music for it which over the years was played on the piano instead. The theory is that, if played on the harpsichord for which it was written, this music would have infinitely more appeal. The harpsichord is an instrument in which the strings, instead of being struck with a felt hammer as in the piano, are plucked with a tiny leather point which projects from a brass gadget that jumps up when a key is depressed. It has two keyboards and seven pedals, which give it an incredible variety of expressions, timbre and flexibility.

Use of Word "Bit"

"Bit" is the British slang for any small coin. The expression was transferred, in the South and West, in the United States, to the old Mexican real, worth 12 1/2c, an amount which at one time was called a shilling in certain eastern states. In those regions within the Mexican sphere of influence, quarters is said to be almost unknown. A short-bit is 10 cents, and a long-bit is 15 cents. Four bits and six bits are common there, but people east of the Mississippi get confused trying to compute bits at 12 1/2c each.

WASHING OF HANDS BEFORE EATING AN OLD CEREMONY

The custom of washing the hands before eating dates as far back as the beginning of formal dinner-giving. The early Egyptians, Romans and Greeks made a ceremony of washing the hands in water from small pitchers before each meal, says a writer in the Washington Star.

Voltaire Changed His Name

The great French poet, dramatist, and philosopher known to the world as Voltaire, was Francois Marie Arouet, born in 1694, the son of Francois and Marie Marquerite Daumart Arouet. At the age of twenty-four he was imprisoned in the Bastille for writing verses that displeased the regent. During this imprisonment he changed his name to Arouet de Voltaire. But as time passed the "Arouet" was dropped and he became known simply as Voltaire.

MYSTERY CLOCK ON GLASS DIAL AN ANCIENT TRICK

The so-called "mysterious clock" in which the hands rotate on a pin fastened on a glass dial, without any visible means of making them go, is based on a principle about 100 years old, observes a writer in the Washington Post.

Each hand has a circular box on the end beyond the center, like a counterpoise. In the box on the center arbor of which is fastened into the center of the inside of the box.

One side of the minute hand is weighted heavier than the other. The whole weight of the hand is poised on the center of the hand. In the turning of the movement, fastened to the hand by the center arbor, the heavy side of the movement seeks the lowest possible position, and in doing this, turns the hand just as fast as the center arbor turns—that is, the hand moves at the rate of one turn per hour thus spacing the minutes on the dial.

The hour hand has fastened to its box or counterpoise another movement arranged like that on the minute hand except that it is fastened by its hour-wheel pipe and, consequently, spaces off hours on the dial when it is running.

Both hands run on holes through which passes the pin to the center of the dial. The hands can be taken off the pin and replaced on it at any point on the dial.

The watch movement must be wound once a day, and may be regulated in the ordinary way.

Grand Teton National Park

Grand Teton National Park is approximately 150 square miles in area, lies south of Yellowstone and close to the western border of Wyoming. The greater part of the Teton mountains lies within this playground. Most travelers agree that the rugged beauty of the Tetons is not surpassed by that of any other mountain range in the world. The Grand Teton, 13,766 feet high, rises 7,000 feet above the surrounding country. The custom of floating fragrant flowers in the basin so the water would be pleasantly scented. In Egypt, a specially appointed servant had as his duty the anointing of the guest's head and the washing of his hands, upon his arrival in the house. The hands were washed again before leaving the table, and sometimes the ceremony was repeated several times during the progress of a long meal.

About the middle of the fifteenth century, the finger-bowl, park itself was not created until 1929.

Returned Goods

The use of scented water for washing the hands at table became general among the wealthy and fastidious classes. But unlike many faddish things, the use of the finger-bowl became as acceptable to us as to the folk who first thought of it.

WHY DON'T WE?

1. Use the 15 or 20 minutes before the 8:15 bell in the mornings for study?
2. Keep our mouths off the drinking fountains. (It spreads disease.)
3. Take care of school property. Such careless things as stopping up lavatories with paper and heading the whole hall, smearing chalk dust on the wall, etc. It shows lack of culture and good manners. Let's be better citizens. Let's remember that the things we do and the way we act reflect on our parents and our home training. We are not the only ones to suffer public criticism for such acts.
4. Improve our writing?
5. Quit sitting on top of desks?
6. Practice a little more courtesy?

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold, or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling the germ-laden phlegm.
 The Medical Profession has for many years recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Creosote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Creosote with other ingredients and now in Creomulsion you get a real dose of genuine Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and can even be taken frequently and continuously by both adults and children.
 Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund every cent of your money. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief that you want. Boys, we invite you to soap our windows, there's no danger in that.

An exhibit of inexpensive gifts which may be made at home will be found in the Lanier Hardware Store window? This exhibit was placed there by the Gambleville Home Demonstration Club women as a follow up of work along that line that had been done in the club.
 Dozens of other Christmas gift suggestions are on display in the agent's office and that patterns may be secured there?
 November is the month for home food supply achievement events? We shall be happy to have everyone visit with us at these meetings.
 Everything from a one-boy seesaw to a camp kitchenette may be made from second hand boxes and odd pieces of lumber?
 Mats for the table, bath mats, and other such articles may be woven from strips of discarded hose? Frames for the weaving may be made from cigar or other boxes or inexpensive ones may be purchased.

Plenty of Ammunition
 Unsuccessful road shows would steer clear of Cherokee and Smith counties if they knew how many ripe tomatoes were produced there. These two counties grow more tomatoes than any other section of Texas, and Jacksonville, of Tomato Festival fame, is the leading tomato shipping city of the South. The colorful vegetable is also grown in the Valley and on the coast, but East Texas ships out more than half of the total produce, which is 3,075,000 bushels.

Your Horoscope
 October 24, 25, 26—People born on either of these dates are generally determined and can surmount any obstacle to success, up to the point of attainment when they may suddenly stop and throw the result of their endeavor overboard. They are jealous and very envious of the success of others if it in any way interferes with their own. They are generally very suspicious of their mates.

October 27, 28—Not many things can be hidden from you if it is your desire to know them, not even the private affairs of others. Your gift of eloquence always carries conviction as a public speaker or conversationalist.

October 29, 30, 31—It is the little irritations of life that cause you the most misery. You have an ungovernable temper and it does not require much to irritate you, or long for your rage to subside. But underneath all this storm and tempest you have a very loving, sensitive nature, which is easily wounded. You possess plenty of enemies, but also a large circle of friends. You possess the faculty of learning much valuable information. You are able to make every one, including yourself, believe that you are authority.

SAFETY SLOGANS
 Fires, like accidents can be prevented.
 Two-thirds of all traffic accidents occur at night when only one-third of the traffic is on the road. Use extra caution when driving at night.
 If it is necessary to walk on the highway at night, walk facing the approaching traffic, never with your back to it. An approaching car light may blind a car driver until he cannot see a pedestrian.
 $293,000,000 worth of property was destroyed by fire last year. This represented a complete loss of that much wealth. It represented the labor of 292,000 persons at $20 a week for one year.
 A wise motorist will do everything he can to discourage hitchhiking. Many drivers have been robbed by those they have befriended.

THOUGHTS OF SERIOUS MOMENTS
 He is a fool who lets slip a bird in the hand for a bird in the bush.—Plutarch.
 Whoever has even once become notorious by base fraud, even if he speaks the truth, gains no belief.—Phaedrus.
 Most people would succeed in small things if they were not troubled with great ambitions.—Long-fellow.
 Mrs. Spencer: "He's studying French and Spanish and algebra. Joe, say 'Good Morning' for the lady in algebra."

Braunfels. History relates that after a few German settlements were made over here in 1840 an "Association for the Protection of German Immigrant in Texas" was formed of twenty odd princes, counts, barons, and noblemen in Germany.
 The association bought a grant near Comal Springs and in 1844 Prince Carl of Solms-Braunfels led them to America, where they founded their first colony west of Guadalupe. Erecting a log castle for Prince Carl, the colonists christened it Soppenberg in honor of his sweetheart, Lady Sophia. Fostering a government like that of the old country, Prince Carl stayed in Texas ten months. His counselors made a strangely mixed society, with a Count as the grocery man, a Baron as a farm, another Baron dispensing beer, and others in odd jobs. After Texas annexation the Prince returned to his ancestral castle in Braunfels.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS
 When you make an apple, or other fruit pie, if you will put all the sugar in first there will be no trouble with soggy under crust. Place on the lower shelf in hot oven and the crust will bake before the sugar starts to dissolve. In the case of tart fruit requiring more sweetening, put part of the sugar in first, then part of the fruit and the rest of the sugar, but do not have any of the sugar next to the upper crust.
 Home-made biscuit will be different if tomato juice or fruit juice is used instead of the liquid called for in the recipe.

RIVERSIDE H. D. CLUB

"What child doesn't enjoy wooden soldiers?" inquired the county home demonstration agent, Miss Myrna Holman, while giving Christmas suggestions at a meeting of the Riverside Home Demonstration Club in the school auditorium Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 26.

She displayed a number of wooden soldiers made from clothespins. The bottoms of the pins were cut off so that they stand alone, a cork is glued to the top for a hat and then the face and uniform are painted in attractive colors.

Miss Holman exhibited approximately 75 gifts which were made at a cost of $2.00. These included many varieties of toys for children, as well as novel and useful gifts for the grown ups. Cigar boxes, spoons, tin cans, clothespins, bright colors of paint and scraps of materials played a prominent part in making these unusual gifts.

In answering roll call members of the club showed a number of unique and useful inexpensive Christmas gifts.

Emma Schroeder, Mrs. Frank Ward and Mrs. Shirley McLarty were appointed to serve on the nominating committee and will report at the next meeting.

There were 9 members and 3 visitors, Mrs. W. L. Scott of Good Creek, Vivian Collins and Mrs. Frank Crews of Crowell, and the members of the Riverside girls 4-H Club present.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Grady Walker Nov. 9, at which time a book review will be given.

JAR CONTEST WILL BE HELD NOVEMBER 27TH

The Ball jar contest will be held Nov. 27, under the direction of the Home Demonstration Council. Each home demonstration club member is urged to enter two quart jars, one each of fruit and non-acid vegetables, except tomatoes.

These jars are to be brought to the first club meeting in November. They may be any kind of glass jars. The Council has set 200 jars as a goal for this contest.

Beginning in January, the home demonstration clubs of the county will have an exhibit every fourth Saturday in the month in some show window in Crowell. The Foard City Club will have charge of the January exhibit. The Gambleville Club has gift display this week.

FOARD CITY H. D. CLUB

The Home Demonstration Club met Thursday at the club house with several members, two visitors and Miss Myrna Holman present. A book review was given by Mrs. Roy Steele, and election of officers was carried on through the business meeting. Mrs. Hub Speck was elected president for 1938; Mrs. G. M. Canup, vice president; Mrs. Virgil Johnson, secretary; Mrs. Jones, assistant secretary; Mrs. Blake McDaniel, council delegate; Mrs. J. L. Farrar, song leader.

OLNEY EDITOR CHOSEN DIRECTOR IN WOLF HUNTERS ASSOCIATION

Len C. Warren, editor of the Olney Enterprise, was elected as a member of the board of directors of the Texas-Oklahoma Wolf Hunters association at a recent meeting of the board on the Stepp ranch north of Pease River.

Besides twelve directors, other officers elected were, Jim Hooks of Abilene, president; Lewis Ackers of Abilene, vice president; and J. W. Stovall of Olton was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Foard City Club Member Completes Modern Kitchen

That a large room with openings for six doors can be made into a conveniently arranged and attractive kitchen is shown by the work done at the home of Mrs. Caivel Thompson, member of the Foard City Home Demonstration Club.

First, a four foot closet was built across one side of the kitchen, one end of which serves as a storage pantry for the kitchen, separated by a partition from the other end which was made into a closet opening into the bedroom. This pantry is equipped with four long shelves and the plan is to add more shelves for additional storage space.

The sink with cabinets built below is placed on the east wall, the large well-equipped cabinet placed next to it on the left and the stove near by on the adjoining north wall. The new bottled gas stove and the mechanical refrigerator, which is placed so that it will be convenient to both the kitchen and breakfast nook, add much to the convenience of this work room.

By moving a door, saving out a double opening on the west side of the kitchen, and boxing in a small porch, an attractive breakfast room was added to the kitchen. This room has a window on the south and is equipped with an attractive breakfast table and chairs finished in green.

The walls of the kitchen and breakfast nook are papered with an attractive light paper, red and white being used for the color scheme of the rooms. The Dutch curtains are of white with a small red dot and the linoleum covering the entire floor is of cream, tan and red. A high stool and a rubber mat for comfort in working, and several attractive pictures complete this most cheerful and conveniently arranged kitchen.

A very serviceable and attractive bed-head has been made from feed sacks by Mrs. D. Gilbert, member of the Vivian Home Demonstration Club.

Six one hundred pound sacks of a pink color were used in making the spread. The pink spread was tufted in white. The design was made by making groups of three diagonal stripes across the spread in both directions, forming diamonds all over it.

Mrs. Gilbert says that she disregarded the seams in the spread when making the tufting design on it, but that they did not show up very much on the finished article.

Some orchid colored sacks have been saved and Mrs. Gilbert says that she plans to make a spread from them, this time using a design which will cover all of the seams.

LIBRARY NOTES

"The Open Road for Boys," a monthly magazine, has recently been added to the library. This magazine contains stories of many daring adventures of scouts, aviators, explorers, "Mounties," Indians, football stars, and various others. Although this is chiefly a boy's magazine, girls as well, have found it to be interesting and educational.

"The Youth's Companion, combined with American Boy" is also in the library. The two magazines are similar in that they contain the same kind of reading matter; however, the latter one contains more articles and less stories than the former. They both deal with material of vast interest to young people, and they rate highly among magazines of this kind.

FOARD CITY SCHOLASTICS

"Is Pun-kin Pie" your favorite? If it is, come to the pie supper October 29 at 7:30—that is Lavoyce Lafeyre's prodigiously decorated poster announcing the pie supper, and we add, if you don't like pumpkin, there will be multitudes of other kinds. It's up to the men and boys to let their prospective pie bakers know the brand they especially appreciate.

The weekly appearance of some nature study object is uncanny. Most in season this week, a bat was discovered clinging to the ceiling. Would you call it vocational guidance? The high school is being given experience in painting and decorating stage scenery for the auditorium.

About thirty were present for the P. T. A. meeting last Friday night. Mrs. Marlowe presided at the interesting meeting. Talks on humane education were given by Luther Owens, our postman, and Miss Caldwell, intermediate instructor.

Plans are being made for a course in music—the teaching of the scale notes and piano keyboard. Junior Watson, whom a seventh grade girl described as the prettiest boy she knew, has returned to school, just as the ninth grade en toto took time out for cotton picking.

Just as the lower grades are rejoicing over mourning over those all-important report cards, high school is gaining momentum in its studying at six weeks exams' approaching.

Definition of Education

Years ago one of the prize winning definitions of education published in the Forum was as follows: "Education is the knowledge, acquired through the systematic and harmonious cultivation of one's natural powers, which gives one the ability to adjust himself satisfactorily to his physical and intellectual environment."
