As the Bulldogs are confident they will defeat Crowell because of their defeat of Rockport and the weak Wildcat club. On the other hand the Wildcats take their victory over the Bulldogs in previous Friday night, they will have to meet the Chilli-

EAGLES FIRST TO CROSS GOAL OF WILDCATS

Crowell Has Easy Time In Dumping Holliday By Score of 40-6

Coach Grady Graves' fast-charging, hard-hitting Crowell Wildcats blasted the last obstacle between them and the Burk Burnett Bulldogs here Friday night when they humbled a heavier Holliday squad, 40 to 6. This game marked the first encounter between the Crowell and Holliday clubs as the Eagles entered District 10-B this year.

Goal Line Crossed

Although the Eagles were badly beaten throughout the game, they came to life long enough in the last quarter to gain the honor of being the first to cross the Wildcat's goal line when they drove down the field against the Crowell second stringers and flipped a short pass to score.

Wildcats Run Wild

The initial Wildcat touchdown came even quicker than the opposition had guessed, as the opener came on the third scrimmage play of the game.

Funeral Services for Joe Welch Held at Anna Thursday

Last rites for Joe Welch, 37, who died in St. Vincent's hospital in Sherman at 12:05 last Thursday morning from a fractured skull which he received when he was struck by an automobile Wednesday evening a short distance north of the intersection of Highway 79 and North Broughton Street in that city, were held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the Anna Methodist Church. Rev. John McCormack, pastor, officiated, assisted by Roy Kerr of Sherman. The deceased was a member of the Anna Methodist Church.

Mr. Welch was crossing the highway about 6:15 p. m. Wednesday when he was struck by an automobile driven by E. Truman Fletcher, Dallas traveling salesman. Witnesses were of the opinion the accident was unavoidable. Mr. Fletcher stopped and rendered assistance.

Joseph Horace Welch was born June 26, 1901, at Anna, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Welch, pioneers of the Anna community and at one time residents of Foard County. He attended Anna and Crowell schools, but had lived in Sherman for many years. Mr. Welch was a machinist at the Hardwick-Eiter Company where he had been an employee since 1922. He worked there the last time Tuesday, and was off Wednesday. His brother, Sam Welch, was killed by a car north of Anna in October, 1934. Survivors include a son, Joe Horace Welch Jr., of Sherman; four brothers, J. Y. Welch of Crowell, T. F. Welch of Foard City, Jim Welch of Cheyenne, Wyo., and Ripley Welch of Anna; three sisters, Mrs. Bessie Leuch of Anna, Mrs. Rebecca Brune of Brementon, Wash., and Mrs. Henry Ross of Crowell.

NEW CAR REGISTRATIONS

During the past week the following motor vehicles were registered in the office of the tax assessor-collector:

J. C. Hysinger, Chevrolet sedan. E. M. Gamble, Chevrolet sedan.

who slipped away from his tackler and raced across the goal line. B. Fitzgerald's place kick was no good.

Penalties Slow Mezon

Several long gains by Que Mezon, Crowell's galloping half back, were voided by penalties incurred on the plays. He saw 60 yards taken away from him because of penalties. One of the longest gains of the game, a 40-yard run, was also lost by him because of a holding penalty.

The longest run of the game came after the Holliday touchdown when Bernie Fitzgerald took the kick off on his own 25 yard line and raced up the side line for 75 yards to cross the goal line. The run and score was voided by an offside penalty given the Wildcat when the play was called back for a second kick off.

Following Crowell's second touchdown, the Eagles were held for downs and Crowell took their punt on their own 46. Mezon made 14 yards but Crowell drew an offside penalty on the play. Joy advanced the ball 9 yards and Mezon swept around left end for 40 yards but Crowell was given a holding penalty on the play. From the Eagle 47, Joy passed to Canup to place the ball on the 32. On the next play, Joy raced through left guard, reversed his field and stepped off the remaining 22 yards to the goal line. B. Fitzgerald passed to Canup for the extra point to set the score at 20 to 0 at the end of the opening quarter.

Early in the second quarter,

Mezon returned a punt to the Holliday 22-yard line. Joy and B. Fitzgerald dropped back, Mezon passed incomplete and Mezon went through the center of the line for 8 yards and a touchdown. The try at extra point failed.

Coach Graves ran his second string in at this point and the remainder of the half was played about even terms.

Early in the third quarter,

Mezon returned a punt to the Holliday 36 yard line. Joy hit right

Foard County Needs Hospital

It is generally agreed that Foard County needs a hospital where emergency cases especially can be cared for without delay.

Next Saturday qualified tax-paying voters of the county will vote on the issuance of $12,500 in Foard County bonds in order that the community may have a small, modern, well equipped hospital. It is necessary to have this amount to match WPA funds to complete the building and to buy the proper equipment after it is built.

The erection of the hospital building under the WPA program, using native rock, will furnish employment for about eighty men for approximately eight months.

The issuance of the bonds would raise the tax rate only 4c on the $100 valuation and would enable the county to sponsor a WPA project that would give to the people of the county proper hospitalization at a minimum cost.

Since the first of the year, Foard County has paid out about $125 per month to neighboring hospitals for county patients, besides an average of about five Foard County people per month that have been taken to out-of-town hospitals during the year. A delay in reaching a hospital 20 or 30 miles away might cost the life of some person.

There is no doubt concerning the need for the hospital and the voters will decide at the polls Saturday whether or not it will be built.

DAREDEVIL SHOW FOR CROWELL POSTPONED UNTIL SATURDAY, NOV. 5, SAYS JACK O-DIAMONDS

"Believe-It-or-Not"

Sheriff Amos W. Lilly brings us another "Believe-It-or-Not" story that is really a believe-it-or-not story and goes to prove the old legend about the hardness of a Negro's skull.

The daredevil was in Crowell last week and made plans and announcements for his show to be staged on the streets of Crowell Saturday, but the telegram stated that he would not be able to be in Crowell until Saturday, Nov. 5.

Voters to Decide Upon $12,500 Bond Issue For Hospital

Qualified tax-paying voters of Foard County will be given an opportunity Saturday to vote on the proposition of the county issuing $12,500 in bonds for the purpose of building and equipping a county hospital to cost approximately $35,000. Erection of the hospital will be a WPA project with Foard County as sponsor and the Federal Government furnishing a about $22,000 of the total amount required to erect the building. If the bond issue carries, $4,500 will be used to buy equipment and $8,000 will go into the construction of the hospital to supplement the amount furnished by WPA.

It is the plan of members of the Commissioners Court to build a two-story hospital on the location of the present hospital and the building will be constructed of native rock. It will be modern and complete in every respect and will furnish hospitalization for a maximum of 15 patients. It is believed that this size hospital will meet the needs of Foard County and the proposed bond issue would raise the county tax rate only 4 cents on the $100 valuation.

Construction of the building from rock is much cheaper for the county than to build it with brick as the WPA will furnish a greater portion of the cost when more men are employed. It is estimated that this project will furnish employment for about 80 men for approximately eight months if native rock is used.

Crowell F. F. A. Youth Attended National Meet

The Crowell FFA Chapter's representative to the 11th annual National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo., James Welch, returned from his trip last Friday and gave a very interesting report to members of the chapter Monday morning.

James spent seven days on the trip and saw many things of interest to himself and to the boys to whom he reported. He related in his report that he attended the American Royal Livestock and Horse Show, visited Swift & Company's packing plant, and was present for several meetings during the convention.

The Crowell chapter was the only one in the Vernon district which sent a delegate to the national convention. In his report, James told of seeing many beautiful and valuable horses at the American Royal, a horse show that has been an annual affair for a number of years. He also met the Star Farmer of America, Hunter Greenlaw, of Virginia and the delegates from Hawaii.

WHAT WE THINK

(By Frank Dixon)

Not long ago there came into my office a man who was approaching the time when he would be eligible for an old age pension. I had known him for a good many years and he had been an industrious, thrifty, hard working man who had always had sound ideas about money matters and the necessity of industry and thrift. Knowing this, I was greatly surprised when he came to me with rather fantastic ideas about the payment of old age pensions. He seemed to feel that all that was necessary to do was to levy a tax upon business of whatever amount was needed to pay everyone reaching the age of 65 an old age pension of $60, $75, $100 or $200 a month. He even believed that the tax should be levied in such a way that business, big and little, should absorb it all and should not pass it on. It amazed me that a man who ordinarily thought straight on matters of this kind could bring himself to a state of mind where he would believe that a thing like this could be possible. It seemed so unlike him to be misled by such an unsound argument. I can explain it only by the fact that he represents a type of mind that has developed in this country the past few years. Men everywhere who usually reasoned soundly have come to believe and advocate things that are obviously not logical or economically sound. They have apparently reached a point in their thinking where they seem to believe that all that is necessary to do is to pass a law to produce wealth, and that not only the pennies, but the dollars as well, will fall from heaven. It is truly unfortunate that the solution is hardly so simple. It is an inescapable fact that every dollar that is paid to any person as an old age pension, or for any other purpose, is going to first have to be earned by the sweat of some one's brow. Some man or some woman is going to have to work so many hours to earn it. Another thing of which the country may as well disabuse its mind is that business, big and little, can absorb an endless variety of taxes and remain solvent. There are thousands of small business men who represent the large percent of the business of this country who are putting in ten and twelve hours a day in their business in an effort to keep it going and are taking from it less than a mechanic's wage. I do not believe it is within the realm of physical possibility to impose upon them endless taxes to be absorbed. Such taxes, before they can be paid, have to be earned, since the mere fact of being in business invests no man with magic or ability to perform the impossible. I am in favor of the principle of the old age pension, but I believe that its institution should be guided by some semblance of reason and adherence to proven laws of economics. Unfortunately there seems to be something in the idea of the old age pension movement that causes many of its adherents to lose all sense of reason and proportion.

YEAH! CLEAN REST ROOMS ARE IMPORTANT BUT HOW GOOD IS YOUR GASOLINE?

Watch out, young fellow, you're leading your chin! That question gives us an opportunity to fire away with a fistful of facts. While motorists appreciate Phillips rest rooms, they really cheer for the economy of Phillips 66 Poly Gas. Their repeated and ever-growing praise have skyrocketed our sales figures in never before seen in the industry: 150 cent increase in the last ten years. Phillips 66 Poly Gas is more accurate custom-tailored to your month-by-month changes in climate than any other gas. And scientific surveys show that it costs nearly four times as much natural high gasoline as the average motor fuel. Yes sir! Your gasoline money buys volatility in Phillips 66 Poly Gas. And we declare that volatility is the most important quality in gasoline: Says a well-known scientist: "The volatile fuel can be used with a leaner carburetor setting, and hence with less fuel consumption." Says a professor of chemical engineering: "Increased volatility is very effective in shortening the warm-up period, providing more uniform distribution of fuel to the different cylinders, reducing the engine - and producing snapper acceleration and throttle response." Says an editorial in an oil magazine: "Outstanding in the characteristics of a proved motor fuel... for superior performance... is volatility." Remember, the extra volatility in Phillips 66 Poly Gas costs nothing extra, because Phillips is the world's largest producer of natural high test gasoline.

Too often too much is expected of an advertisement. An advertisement cannot perform miracles. It works along well known natural laws. It cannot create sales for a store that is poorly managed, poorly lighted, and in which the merchandise is not well displayed, nor good merchandising practices followed.

We think it would serve the Mexicans right for stealing a hundred million dollars worth of our citizens' oil property located in Mexico if every last American would swear off eating Mexican chili.

tackle for 11 yards and Meason went around left end to the 8-yard line with a 22 yard gallop. Joy slipped through left guard for the touchdown. B. Fitzgerald kicked the extra point to set the score at 33-0.

A few minutes later, Crowell took a punt on the Holiday 38. The ball was put in scoring position with a 20-yard pass from Joy to Canup. Joy made 4 yards to the 14-yard marker and then threw an incomplete pass. Meason went through right tackle for 14 yards and a touchdown. B. Fitzgerald added the extra point to finish Crowell's scoring.

The Wildcat defense continued to stack up a record that has not been equaled by any conference game this year. They held the Eagles to only 20 yards from running plays and threw them for 38 yards in losses. The pass defense clicked to hold the Holiday lads to only two completed passes out of 13 attempted.

Regulators Out
Four of the Wildcat regulars were out of the line up because of eligibility problems and an injury. Those out were Hugh Solis and Charles Branch, regular guards, and Oran Johnson, tackle. John Lee Orr was unable to see service at his halfback position because of a leg injury sustained in the Throckmorton game.

Murphy Solis and Frank Dunn were dropped into the guard slots and Reid Thompson filled up the tackle gap. Leroy Gibson replaced Orr in the backfield. All of these boys played stellar football and gave fans a warning of what they will do next year when they slip into the first string line up.

Others who saw service were Charlie Clark, Robert Saunders, Whitley Mitchell, Leonard Smith, Glendon Russell, Daniel Brisco and Murrell Diggs. With the exception of the touchdown drive, the Wildcats held the Eagles on even terms.

Summary
Yards gained from rushing: Crowell 231; Holiday 20. Yards lost from rushing: Crowell 14, Holiday 18. Passes: Crowell completed 5 for 98 yards, and 8 incomplete; Holiday completed 2 for 26 yards, 9 incomplete and 3 intercepted. Fumbles: Crowell fumbled 1 time and lost the ball; Holiday fumbled twice, recovering both. Punts: Crowell punted twice, one for 47 yards and one blocked; Holiday punted 8 times for 286 yards. First downs: Crowell 10; Holiday 1. Penalties: Crowell penalized 7 times for 58 yards; Holiday did not draw a penalty.

Grid Feats of Dick Todd Praised by Tucker

Dick Todd

Jinx Tucker, sports editor of the Waco Tribune-Herald and outstanding authority in Texas, praised Dick Todd, Texas A. & M. football star from Crowell, as the most outstanding football player in America for his feats on the gridiron last Saturday afternoon in the Aggie-Baylor Bear clash at Waco, which ended in a 6-6 tie, and was played on a wet, slippery field.

In one of the greatest collections of adjectives, Tucker says of Todd: "Playing his last game in this city, dandy Dick Todd, the greatest running back in America, electrified the Farmer cadets and fans, at the same time shocking the Baylor adherents with the greatest exhibition of ball carrying that a Waco gridiron has seen in much longer than a decade. This dazzling, daring, swivel-hipped speeding son of Crowell, dashed over the inadequate Bear defense like the wind from the rolling plains of West Texas from whence he comes. If all the yards he gained against the bears were laid end to end, they would come close to reaching from the Amicable building to the Baylor campus. Still late in the ball game after another great Aggie drive had carried the ball to the Baylor one-yard line, fourth down, Todd was told to take the ball and go over for victory.

"Now on this particular occasion you must stop a minute in your plaudits of the power of the Aggies to pay tribute to the Bears. As this dangerous son of the Plains started scampering toward end with all the speed that his flying cleats could muster, as every step charmed water out of the soaked turf, he was cut off by alert Baylorites at left end and then as he cut back in that customary majestic manner of his, and tried to crash over with his powerful momentum for he still had to go only a yard, as he left his feet to dive over with all the momentum that inspired, energetic muscles could muster, a charging Baylor lineman also left his feet. He met the sailing Todd head-on. You could hear the thud of flesh meeting flesh behind the closed windows of the press box. Something had to give, and it was not that powerful Baylor lineman. Todd crashed to the turf still that scant yard away from the goal line. Todd crashed and smashed at the Baylor line all afternoon. He swept around the Baylor ends and was no respecter of which end. He would wheel, he would wiggle, he would squirm, always driving, driving, driving for that extra yard. It was the first time that Baylor has ever failed to stop him, and though his team got only a tie he can look back upon his work with a satisfactory nod. No running back in America could have been his equal today. Such polish, such poise, such deceptive brilliance, has never before been seen on a Waco gridiron in a major college game. We daresay there were as many as 100 tackles that were missed when they were directed at the flying heels of Dick Todd.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—From unusually reliable O'Daniel sources this week came word that Carr P. Collins, Dallas insurance and mineral water executive, and closest political friend of Governor-Nominee W. Lee O'Daniel, may be offered appointment as new chairman of the State Highway Commission early next year.

The same source laughed at rumors that have been circulated lately of a break in the friendly relations between Collins and O'Daniel. Whether Collins would accept was another question. Close friends of the Dallas man have said repeatedly that he would not take a State appointment, but preferred to remain an unofficial friend and advisor of the new governor. His own business requires much of his time, and the highway post is rather exacting. Another argument against Collins' appointment is that both Collins and Harry Hines, now a member of the Commission, live in Dallas, and it has always been customary to distribute the Highway Commission posts on a geographical basis. The new member will succeed retiring John Wood, from East Texas, and if O'Daniel followed the policy of his predecessors, the new man would be from East, or Southeast Texas.

Woodul Raises Funds
Seeking directly to further his program of industrial expansion in Texas, W. Lee O'Daniel has enlisted Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul to head the task of raising $250,000 to finance appropriate exhibits for Texas at the forthcoming World Fairs in New York City and San Francisco.

Gov. Allred appointed a State Fair Commission more than a year ago, consisting of business tycoons from every section of Texas. But the commission never got going, and to date, has raised little or no money. O'Daniel regards the Texas exhibit as vitally important, and he canvassed the field for a man whom he believed could get the job done. He selected Woodul, whose interest in advertising Texas is of long standing.

Coach Meets Boy
The dismal showing of the Texas University football team this year gives Texas fans nothing to feel cheerful about, but they are telling a funny story on Coach Dan X. Bible, the team's $15,000 a year mentor. Bible was interviewed at the opening of the football season by a youthful high school player entering the University. The lad told of his high school prowess and recommended himself highly. Bible told him to report to the Freshman "B" squad. "You're pretty light, son, but a year's experience and a chance to learn my system ought to put you in shape to have a try-out for the Varsity," said the coach. "Listen, Coach," retorted the cocky youngster, "if I can't learn your system in three or four weeks, you better get yourself another system."

Mexican Oil Continues
The flood of Mexican oil into the port of Houston continues, despite the recent break in the Texas crude oil market, according to tender figures released by the Texas Railroad Commission this week, showing imports totaled 410,978 barrels during September, and estimates of 625,000 barrels for October, bringing the total well over the million barrel mark for the two months. The oil was consigned to two independent refiners at Houston, and, according to the applications for tenders, was intended chiefly for re-export to Europe and Japan. Texas oil men point out Mexico never had more than 18,000 barrels daily of royalty oil during normal times, and this was sold on their domestic market, and not exported. These shipments of more than 30,000 barrels daily, they point out, proves conclusively that the export oil is largely from expropriated American and British properties, seized without payment by the Mexican government last April. British oil companies have seized several shipments of this stolen oil sent to Europe by Mexico, and recovered possession of their stolen property by court action in France and Belgium.

Meanwhile, articles in American magazines are pointing out that Mexico apparently is preparing to seize without payment American power plants, under procedure similar to that of the oil seizures. One such article points out 25 per cent of the current generated by one large American power company is being stolen by private individuals, through "by-passes" on wiring systems and meters, and that Mexico has no laws to punish such theft. Seizure of the power plants themselves is regarded as an early possibility.

Thompson Talks to FDR
Extension of the powers of the Interstate Oil Compact, to regulate the output of American oil refineries is favored by President Roosevelt, according to Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission and Chairman of the Inter-State Oil Compact Commission. Thompson charges recent overproduction of gasoline caused the break in crude oil prices, despite a decrease in crude stocks above ground. He detailed the situation to President Roosevelt in a two-hour conference with the President at Hyde Park last week, and reported the President does not favor any further Federal regulation of the oil

TIPS FOR CONDITIONING FLOCK FOR FALL LAYING RELEASED BY COUNTY AGENT; START NOW

The following information concerning poultry flocks was released by County Agent John Nagy this week:

"The month of October is the last chance to get your crop of pullets in shape to bring in a little fall and winter income. Heavy egg laying is hard work. Vigor and health in good large pullets is what enables them to stand up under the strain. Look over the pullets, are they in shape for work; are they large bodied and thrifty? If not, check over the feed, their green range and possible parasites. Bring them into lay on a heavy grain ration.

"Start feeding laying mash and gradually reduce the grain allowance until the pullets are eating an equal weight of grain and mash.

"Body weight is an indication of condition. Amount of grain fed controls the body weight. Do not let your pullets lose weight during the fall and winter.

"Perhaps your pullets have already started to lay and a few may be in a neck molt. Stimulate their appetite, get more protein feed down them, to check the molt, by feeding a wet mash at noon. About three pounds of regular laying mash mixed crumbly to each 100 pullets. An extra feeding of skim milk is also good.

"In feeding mash it should be kept before the birds at all times in open hoppers. To encourage more mash consumption, it is a good practice to stir the mash frequently.

Green Feed is Essential

"Tender, succulent, green feed is essential to the management of a flock of laying hens. Green feed is best source of Vitamin A, which is absolutely necessary in order to promote good health, livability, egg production and hatchability in the poultry flock. Green feed is also high in vegetable protein, and is a laxative feed. Where the flock has access to plenty of succulent green feed, it will decrease the feed cost at 100 hens will consume 4 to 6 pounds of green feed per day.

Minerals

"Minerals play an important part in poultry feeds. The usual feeds supply some minerals and there are only a few that we need to give special consideration.

"Oyster shell is the principal source of calcium and is important in caring for the bone maintenance and egg shell. Oyster shell should be kept before the birds at all times in open hoppers. The hen will balance her needs from this. A coarse grade of shell is more desirable than the finely crushed or pulverized shell for hens."

A Halloween carnival will be held at the Crowell High School building Saturday night under the sponsorship of the Junior class, according to an announcement by Marvin Myers, class sponsor.

Many concessions will be held in the halls of the building and the hob-goblin spirit of Halloween will prevail throughout the festivities. Receipts from the carnival will be used by members of the Junior class in their many activities this year.

shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After those days, saith the Lord, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people" (Jeremiah 31:33).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Through repentance, spiritual baptism, and regeneration, morals put off their material beliefs and false individuality. It is only a question of time when they shall all know Me (God), from the least of them unto the greatest" (page 242).

The High School Principal: Good heavens, what crudity! The boy's a fool. The fault, of course, is with the grammar school.

The Primary Principal: Poor kindergarten blockhead! And they call that preparation! Worse than none at all.
The Kindergarten Teacher: Such lack of training never did I see! What sort of person can the mother be?
The Mother: You stupid child! But then you're not to blame, your father's family are all the same.

HOLLIDAY GAME (By Tom Andrews)

Playing easily throughout the game the Wildcats chalked up their sixth win of the season as they romped over the lowly Holliday Eagles 40-6. Although the Eagles were the weakest opposition the Wildcats have met this season, they were the first team to cross the Wildcat goal-line this season.
The Wildcat second team played at least half of the game, and it was against them that Holliday made its threat. When Holliday had advanced the ball to the first yard line, part of the first team was sent in, but a quick pass over the right side of the Holliday line was good for the only tally.
John Lee Orr was unable to play during this game. Maybe he exhausted himself getting his studies up to the passing mark so that he would be eligible to play. J. S. Owens played only about one quarter during the game. Maybe he had his mind on Saturday night and that girl from Vivian.
This week the Wildcats will run up against their toughest opposition of the season in the Burkburnd Bulldogs. The Bulldogs are the only other undefeated team in this district. It should be remembered that the Wildcats have defeated the Neocoma Indians and the Iowa Park Hawks by larger scores than have the Bulldogs. Crowell should win this game if the breaks don't go against them as they did last year. My score prediction: Crowell 19, Burkburnd 7.

RAH! RAH! RAH!

The football season is really getting under way now with a football game scheduled for the next four weeks. The pep squad shows the real, old honest-to-goodness student body spirit as dead have been hemmoming over as dead and buried. It's alive—that spirit, and we've all got it. That is nearly all of us. And I believe before the season gets much further under way we'll all have it. It's just simply too contagious for anyone to remain immune after that spirit comes alive. No matter how dignified, precise and school marmish, or sissy-like, you may be, you'll be letting out a yell after a while, every time you hear some one merely whisper, "Wildcats."

THE PROFS ARE SAYING

Miss Cogdell (in Ancient History): "Some of these C's are just barely C's. I had to squeeze to get them."
Clyde Eddy: "You'll have to squeeze to get mine next six weeks."
Miss Cogdell: "Oh, no, I don't squeeze twice in succession."
Henry Black (in Spanish): "Ah! Love affects you so that you can't tell a book from a pencil."
Mr. Foster (in General Science): "The most poisonous thing in the world is an airplane. One drop and you're dead."

Our Weekly Sermon

By Rev. William M. Runyan, Institute Editor, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

Text—He saved others; himself he cannot save.—Matthew 27:42.
In the observance of Good Friday, much is made of the "seven words spoken on that terrible day, the day of the crucifixion of the Son of God, should not be overlooked—the words spoken by the thieves; the words of the centurion; and, particularly the words of the above text.
These were extemporized words, not weighed, not rehearsed. They were the spontaneous expression of a rabble mind. These maligners of Christ thought they were telling utter truth, but it was no more than a half-truth, and perhaps not all of that.
There can be no contradiction of the fact that "he saved others." In His beneficent employment of saving others, the lame man was made to see; the leprous were made clean. The Lord Christ's path was not strewn with good intentions, but with good deeds.
Jesus scattered the seed of altruistic principles among men. Children were lifted from the shadow of disparegment and led to the sunlight of divine favor—"Suffer the little children to come unto me." The state of childhood in this world is happy in such proportion as the reign of Christ is experienced in home and nation.
Christ was a pioneering advocate of the "square deal." "Let him that is without sin among you cast the first stone." Fair enough!
In saving others Christ effected an economic change. He came to save "that which was lost," as well as those who are lost. Think of the vast and incalculable sums that would be saved to mankind for good and helpful use, were all devilish uses of money and means to be estopped.
Jesus saved others from inconceivable grief. His presence was indeed majestic at the Lazarus grave-side, when He said, "Lazarus, come forth." Seven sublime words, "Because I live ye shall live also," have been the radiant morn to banish the night of man's despair. Christ saved others; He is saving others and He will continue to save others—the reader of these lines, if not saved, may now prove His saving power.
But the maligners said also, "Himself he cannot save." To all appearance that was true; death was drawing nearer, and in a few hours the blessed Son of God was pronounced dead—done to His death by the brutishness of sinful man.
Nonetheless, He could have saved Himself, had He chosen to do so. "Know ye not," Jesus had said to His disciples, "that I could pray to my Father and he would send twelve legions of angels?" (Matt. 26:53); He also declared, "No man taketh my life from me," Christ "gave up the ghost," surrendered His spirit, bade it return to the Father.
Yet it remains true, "Himself he cannot save." He could not save Himself, for this end was He born that He might atone for the sins

Using Up the Feed Crop

By T. C. Richardson, Secretary Texas Breeder-Feeder Ass'n.

Someone has described a well-managed industry as a sort of perpetual motion, in which the processes of production are continuous throughout the year. The factory which runs only a few months and stops its machinery, closes its doors, and lays off its labor for weeks or months at a time has to make higher profits for its operating time or go out of business. The farm which loafers between crop seasons is in the same boat of inefficiency.
With the exception of the sub-tropic portions of the Southwest, where marketable crops may be harvested the year round, there is only one way of providing profitable use for the available farm labor and keeping the farm factory running twelve months in the year, and that is by keeping livestock and poultry in connection with crop production. Livestock and poultry grow while the farmer sleeps, and use much that would be lost without them, while crops await the season. The only perpetual motion farm therefore is a balanced farm, where plants and animals work together in their natural relation, each supporting the other.
With a surplus of feed on hand above normal needs, a good many Southwestern farmers this year will have to decide the best use to make of it. There are plenty of pitfalls for anyone who undertakes a new enterprise without previous experience, and this is particularly true in "going into" the livestock or poultry business on a commercial scale right out of a cotton patch.
Notice that we said "going into," not "growing into" the business. We Americans like to do things in a big way, and the temptation is great to start with a big herd of dairy cows, a large flock of sheep, a carload of beef cattle or hogs. Those who go in with a bang too often go out the same way, and then say the business is

With pastures and roughage, and a small amount of grain, raising dairy cattle from calf-hood to milk-cow age carries about as little risk for the beginner as any livestock enterprise. W. R. Hancock of Erath County tells of wintering 29 head of grade Jersey heifers on pasture, about two bales of hay per day, and a light ration of oats and cottonseed cake. They cost him an average of $10.50 and sold when fresh at $35 to $50.
If pastures are available for summer, and the operator intends to finish them the second fall and winter, beef calves may be wintered on cheap feed and pastures. It has been found that weight lost during winter on pastures alone costs a good deal more to gain it back than it would have cost to hold it by supplementing maintenance ration sufficiently to keep the animals gaining slightly.
If there is a great amount of grain to be sold the preference should go to fattening for slaughter, or feeding for heavy milk production or eggs. On the average farm, however, under average conditions, stock cattle or sheep are safer for the beginner than buying feeders and finishing them for the killing market. Bred ewes and heifers, fed and cared for through one winter, begin to pay off within a few months, and require less time and less technical knowledge of feeding than slaughter animals.
No conceivable farm legislation and no predictable set of circumstances promises to make cash-crop farming profitable again. Wise farmers are acting accordingly, to set up some combination of crop and livestock suitable to their particular circumstances, which will utilize their land and labor to a better advantage and greater profit.
"Perpetual motion" on the farm is more easily attainable than in the factory, for life goes on without artificial power. The natural cycle of plant and animal life is the answer—"God's plan," as an East Texas negro farmer calls it.

Bronchial Coughs Need Creomulsion

Just a common cough, a chest cold or a bronchial irritation of today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. They may be relieved now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Cressote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medicinal combination designed to aid nature in soothing and healing infected mucous membranes by allaying irritation and inflammation and by aiding in loosening and expelling germ-laden phlegm.
The Medical Profession has for generations recognized the beneficial effect of Beechwood Cressote in the treatment of coughs, chest colds, and bronchial irritations. A special process was worked out by a chemist, for blending Cressote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a good dose of genuine Beechwood Cressote which is palatable and may be taken frequently by both adults and children.
Creomulsion is one preparation that goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm. When coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles—due to common colds—hang on, get a bottle of Creomulsion from your druggist, use it as directed, and if you are not satisfied with the relief obtained, the druggist is authorized to refund your money. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

ALL YOUR CURIOSITY satisfied by Your Mileage Merchant... Ask him exactly how you're sure of fast winter starting and extreme oil economy by changing now to WINTER OIL-PLATING
IS OIL-PLATING just a different name? ... No. OIL-PLATING is what Conoco Germ Processed oil does! The out-and-out difference is this: OIL-PLATING will stay firmly attached—plated—clear to the topmost point in your engine, while any plain mineral oil drains clear down the crankcase at every stop.
Exactly where is your gain? Well, in starting up again—next day or next month—the coldest OIL-PLATED engine is always oiled in advance... pre-lubricated before any oil down in the crankcase could ever stir. OIL-PLATING thus keeps every engine part constantly slippery. The starter speeds... the battery lives and so does the engine, free of fierce starting friction.
But is there any oil saving? Why?... Because less engine wear puts more miles between quarts. And OIL-PLATING itself never passes out during the use of Germ Processed oil. Only the Germ Process, patented, creates OIL-PLATING, the sensible reason for you to switch to Your Mileage Merchant today.

Miss Nona Owens Married to William Backus in Las Vegas

On Oct. 20 at 6 p. m. at Las Vegas, Nevada, Miss Nona Owens, formerly of Crowell, was married to William Backus of Los Angeles, Calif.

The marriage was performed by Rev. C. H. Sloan, pastor of the Las Vegas Baptist Church. The attendants were Miss Fay Easley of Crowell and William D. Irwin of Los Angeles.

The bride was attractively attired in a colonial blue "Franklin" costume suit with Cross Fox fur trim. Her accessories were of navy blue and she wore a corsage of gardenias. Miss Easley wore a navy blue model with white trimmings and she also wore a gardenia corsage.

A reception was held at the famous Apache Hotel at Las Vegas after which the wedding party traveled to Boulder Dam, thence to Death Valley by way of Baker, Stone Pipe Wells and Furnace Creek, Nevada. On their way home to Los Angeles they visited Bishop, Calif., and its environs.

Upon their return to Los Angeles they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Irwin.

Mrs. Backus is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Owens and was reared in Foard County. Before the announcement of her marriage, she was head of the Ready-to-Wear department of J. C. Penny's in Vernon.

Mr. Backus is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Backus of Los Angeles, Calif., former residents of Foard County. He is a nephew of J. B. Easley of Vivian. He

Crowell Delegation Attend District Meet of B&PW Clubs

That old-fashioned Southern hospitality was much in evidence in Wichita Falls on Oct. 22 and 23 when 150 members of B. & P. W. Clubs in district one gathered at the Holt Hotel for their annual conference.

Outstanding business women of Texas were present, including Kate Adele Hill, state president of the Texas Federation; Miriam Coleman, executive secretary; Mary Jane Higgins, past president of the Fort Worth club; and Myrtle Russell of Electra, district director.

At the business meeting on Sunday morning, Miss Hattilee White, president of the Amarillo club, was elected director for 1935. Plainville was chosen for the next conference city, and Shamrock was awarded the attendance prize.

The Crowell delegation, headed by Miss Maymie Lee Collins, president and official delegate, included Misses Lottie Russell, Gussie Todd, Mrs. Henry Borchardt and Mrs. Leon Solomon.

The stunt presented by members of the Crowell delegation, "The Fatal Quest," a three-act drama in five minutes, at the Round-Up luncheon Sunday, tied for first place with Vernon and Shamrock. In the draw, Vernon was the winner.

An informal dinner at O'Connell's on the evening of Oct. 20, was the initial social meeting of the B. & P. W. Club for this year. Hostesses were Mrs. O'Connell and Mrs. Leon Solomon.

Stunts by each member of the club furnished hilarious entertainment for the evening.

GAMBLEVILLE H. D. CLUB

Toys and play are often thought of as a means of bringing pleasure and affording pastime for children. Toys should bring pleasure and promote education in childhood.

Mrs. G. C. Morgan told the ladies of the Gambleville Home Demonstration Club at a meeting held Oct. 22, in the home of Mrs. Amos Garrett.

A variety of hand-made toys and gifts were displayed. Among those were toys for make-believe, toys for building, housekeeping and games for indoors and outdoors. Patterns for toys were given to those present.

Bulldogs—

The Bulldogs, Coach Graves has at the same time been working on a defense to stop the runs of these heralded backs.

Another factor that brings the game to equal terms between the two clubs is the weight of the Wildcats and Bulldogs.

The average weight of the Bulldogs is 154½ pounds per man and that of the Wildcats is 155 pounds per man. The Burk Burnett line will be slightly outweighed, 160 pounds to 143 pounds per man, but the Bulldogs make up this in the backfield where they hold a weight advantage of two pounds per man, 144½ pounds to 142½ pounds.

This will be the "sugar" game between the teams since Voinney Hill took over the Bulldogs four years ago. The first two years that Hill was in Burk Burnett, the Wildcats whipped the Bulldogs in grand style, but during the past two years the tables have been turned and the Bulldogs have spanked the Wildcats soundly. This will be the odd game for the two teams since Hill went to Burk.

This annual Wildcat-Bulldog clash will feature a backfield show that will be a joy for any football fan to watch as four of the greatest backs will be brought together on the same gridiron.

In experience and weight, the two clubs are nearly even, with the Wildcats having a very slight edge. The Bulldogs will have five players in the game Friday night who started the game against Crowell last year and the Wildcats will have five.

The misadventure of the Bulldog line composed of the Elliott brothers at guards and Grace at center, has established a record for its strength and the Wildcats, Hugh Solis and Charles Branch at guards and Jack Fitzgerald at center, will pit their power against that of the three Burkmans.

The Bulldog tackles, Green and Johnson, will be matched against Johnson and Gafford of Crowell. The end position for the Hillmen will be filled by Clements and McKown, while Bernice Fitzgerald and Wayne Canup, two great defensive stars, will be holding down similar duties for Coach Graves.

The records set this season by those two backfields prove that they are smooth working and will be hard for opposing linemen to deal with.

Raymond Joy and Que Meason have done most of the Wildcats' ball carrying and have established a record that is probably not equalled in this district.

Joy will guide the fate of the Wildcat team from his quarterback position Friday night and will be out to share honors with the much-heralded Brown of Burk. He has set a ball-carrying record this season that makes him one of the most outstanding ball carriers in the district.

The Wildcat halfback, Que Meason, has also set a record that equals that of Joy's, and they will form a running team that Crowell fans hope will match or better the performance of Brown and Willett.

Information Regarding County Hospital

The following questions and answers are given here in order to convey to voters of the county as much information as possible on the erection of a County Hospital before the bond election, which will be held Saturday:

- Question: What is the amount of the proposed bond issue? Answer: $12,500.
- Q. How much of that amount would be used in building the hospital? A. About $8,000 for building and $4,000 to furnish and equip the hospital.
- Q. How much Federal help would be extended on this building? A. About $22,000.
- Q. What would that cost each taxpayer? A. There would be a tax levy of 4 cents on the $100 valuation.
- Q. How much would that cost me if my total tax rendition was $1,000? A. It would cost you 40 cents each year for the 13 years.
- Q. Why don't you use brick instead of rock to build the hospital? A. If we should build this hospital out of brick it would cost Foard County about $20,000 to pay its part and would not furnish more than one-third of the labor that a rock building would furnish.
- Q. Do you intend to build this hospital under a WPA project? A. Yes.
- Q. About how many men will the project employ? A. About eighty men for a period of eight months.
- Q. Do you think that rock will make a good hospital building? A. Yes, we have visited two beautiful hospitals that were built with rock and they are attractive.
- Q. If I understand the proposition correctly, the main object in building a hospital would be to furnish labor for the unemployed? A. Furnishing labor would be one of the outstanding motives, however, we will admit that every county should have at least one hospital in it and, too, we will have about two hundred men to furnish work for this winter and next spring, and the WPA tells us, if you will furnish the material, we will pay the men to work it into a building.
- Q. Where does the county send its charity patients at present? A. We send them to Quanah and Vernon hospitals, most of them to Quanah.
- Q. About what does it cost the county monthly for charity patients? A. About $125 per month. We paid Hardeman County Memorial Hospital $117 for September and $301 for August, however, the total amount for these two months was above the average.
- Q. Who would manage and have control of the hospital? A. The law provides that the Commissioners Court shall appoint six men on the Hospital Board and they manage and control the rules and regulations and govern same.
- Q. Where would the hospital be built? A. On the site where the old hospital is located.
