OVER FOUR MILES OF CURBING, FIVE BLOCKS OF HARD SURFACE ROAD LAID IN CROWELL BY WPA

The progress made by the street curbing and curbing WPA project being carried on in Crowell has exceeded the expectations of those in charge of the work. According to a report released yesterday by Walter Thomson, project superintendent.

Four Miles of Curb
When Crowell's project was started on Jan. 22, 1939, it was thought that only about two blocks of paving would be placed. It is possible that four blocks of curb have been laid to date, approximately four miles of curb has been laid along the streets of Crowell. Pavement base has been laid on five blocks for future asphalt topping.

Laying of Asphalt Top
Laying of the asphalt topping on the gravel base was started this week on Logan Street leading from Main Street east toward the school campus, six blocks north of the court house.

The topping consists of a three-inch layer of stone and same mixed with asphalt, which is acknowledged by authorities to be an improvement over the old type of asphalt road.

The last stretch of gravel base to be laid was completed last week in the street leading from the pavement at the Borchardt Chevrolet Company eastward to the premier Hotel, and topping will be laid in the near future. The base is 18 feet wide.

A concrete dip has replaced the old wooden bridge at the hotel.

More Work Wanted
It is hoped that the pavement will meet with the same approval as the curb did, and through this project Crowell can become a city with hard surfaced streets.

This work, or project, and co-operation of the people, as owners of property on which the pavement joints are required to furnish only about one-fourth of the total cost, and those who have already had pavement laid on the streets joining their property have voiced complete satisfaction with the quality of the pavement and curb at the unusual low cost.

Much Money Spent Here
Total cost on this project, to date, is approximately $16,658.35, which in itself has been of great benefit to the community as a whole.

All of the material in this work has been purchased from Crowell business men and that also is an aid to the city. It is estimated that about $6,000 have been spent in Crowell for cement and other materials on this project since it started in January. This raises the total amount of money that has been turned loose in Crowell as a result of this work during the past nine months to approximately $22,658, or an average of about $2,265 each month.

While this $22,658 were being paid out in Crowell, the city, or property owners, spent $4,500 as its part of the project, or, in fact, each dollar that the property owner has spent has brought a little more than five dollars in return. The remainder of this amount has been furnished by the government.

Curb Scattered
Four miles of curb in the residential section of a city the size of Crowell is at first thought a staggering amount, but yet there are many streets upon which there is no curb and there is not a street in the city that is completely curbed from the square. Houston Street, leading north from the square, has more curb than any street in the city, and it is not completed. There yet remains three 50-foot gaps to be closed.

A large amount of curb will be found on Main Street leading to the north from the square, and the

Truscott Bows to Benjamin In 6-Man Grid Tilt

Benjamin's six-man football team defeated the Truscott team by a score of 39 to 19 on the Truscott gridiron last Friday afternoon in a conference game of the newly formed six-man football league in that section. The league is composed of Truscott, Mattson, Sunset, Vera and Benjamin.

Benjamin drew first blood early in the opening period when Meizer flipped a pass to Cartwright to score. The pass and run covered over 40 yards. Sams carried the ball over for the extra point.

Truscott scored shortly afterward when a pass, Young to English, netted 35 yards and a score. English's place kick was low.

McGregor passed to Williams for 20 yards and another Benjamin score. The extra point was kicked and Benjamin led 15-6.

In the second quarter, Sams ran about 50 yards for a touchdown and the kick was no good. A few minutes later, Lindsey took a short pass and ran about 20 yards for Benjamin's fourth touchdown. The extra point try failed and Benjamin held a 27-6 lead at the end of the first half.

In the third quarter, Benjamin's

EAGLES NOSE OUT WILDCATS BY 7-6 SCORE

Eagles' First Victory Over Crowell In Ten Years

Excitement ran high in Chillicothe last Friday night when the Eagles nosed out the Crowell High School Wildcats by a score of 7 to 6 to hang up their first victory over a Crowell team in ten years. This was also the closest score between the teams since 1936 when the Wildcats registered a 7 to 6 victory over the Eagles.

Defensive Battle
As was predicted, the game Friday night turned into one of the greatest defensive battles this district has seen in several years and defensive play was featured throughout the contest with the exception of the two touchdowns.

The first half of the game was scoreless with the Eagles having the edge as this part of the game was played almost entirely in Wildcat territory, but the second half found the two teams dividing honors with play taking place all over the field.

Scores From Kick
Six plays after the opening kickoff of the second half, John Lee Orr, quarterback, faked the ball to Dick Smith, right end, and scurried out around right end without any blockers and raced down the sideline for 65 yards and Crowell's touchdown. The Eagle line sifted through to block Wayne Canup's kick for extra point.

Pass Counts for Eagles
Four plays after the kickoff following the Wildcats' touchdown, Davis, Eagle halfback, started out around right end, faked back and shot a pass to Hopkins, fullback, from the Crowell 45 for the Eagles' score. Dillon, left end, added the all-important extra

7,350 Bales of Cotton Ginned in Foard County

Over 7,350 bales of cotton have been ginned in Foard County from the 1939 crop, according to figures obtained from the five gins in the county late Wednesday afternoon.

A large portion of the crop has been gathered, however, reports from the gins were that the cotton was still being brought in pretty steady with the exception of Rayland. The gin there reported that practically all of the crop had been gathered and the stream of cotton was very thin.

The yield over the county has been slightly heavier than was thought shortly after the heat wave early in September which badly burned cotton in the county.

The mark this year is already much higher than it was on Nov. 3, 1938, when gin reports gave a total of 6,938 bales.

The Thalia Farmers' Gin leads the gins of the county with 2,725 bales and the Rayland gin is a close second with 2,080 bales.

Shelterbelt Protects Corn and Increases Lambert Farm Yield

Farmers of Foard County will be interested to know that white native corn planted April 15 by T. F. Lambert on his farm in the Rayland community on the north side of a shelterbelt made a yield of 25 bushels per acre. Weather conditions that prevailed during the summer were droughty along with hot winds.

A field of corn not protected by a shelterbelt, planted the same time, with same weather conditions and same care, yielded only 5 bushels per acre.

Mr. Lambert says the only difference in the two fields was that one had a shelterbelt on the south side to keep off the hot winds and the other did not. He also says that the fact that every farm does not have a shelterbelt results in a considerable loss to the community in crop production.

FOARD COUNTY PIONEER DIED SUNDAY NIGHT

Funeral Services Held at Thalia Baptist Church Monday

Funeral services for J. B. (Uncle Jim) Gray of Thalia, 81-year-old Foard County pioneer, were held Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Thalia Baptist Church. The services were conducted by Rev. Frank McNair, pastor of the Electra Baptist Church, former pastor of the Thalia Church.

MART EBELING, DALLAS BROKER, MAKING SUCCESS OF OPERATING BIG 4 RANCH NEAR TRUSCOTT

Women in the War

Woman's place is no longer in the home, say these English lassies.

Top: Miss Elspeth Ironside (right), daughter of Gen. Edmund Ironside, chief of the imperial general staff, drives her father's official auto. Below: Actress Elizabeth Allen serves tea at a canteen "somewhere in England."

The following story by A. B. Griffing concerning Mart Ebeling and his Big Four Ranch appeared in The Dallas Morning News Sunday, Oct. 8. The ranch is situated in Foard and Knox Counties with the quarters being located near Truscott.

A lifelong city man who applied business methods to the soil and made it pay dividends is Mart Ebeling. Dallas merchandise broker and owner of the Big Four Ranch in Knox and Foard Counties.

Unlike most Texas cattlemen, Mr. Ebeling never became seriously interested in the industry until after he had achieved a considerable success in other fields.

"I just saw the possibilities and went into it," he says of his entry into the livestock business.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Mr. Ebeling started his business career there in 1893 when, at the age of 14, he quit school to become an errand boy for a jewelry store. After working at several jobs he formed a connection with a milk products company in 1904, which he still maintains, and in 1909 moved to Dallas and started his brokerage business.

He began his ranching enterprise in 1918 when in a partnership with three other men he bought the first 4,800 acres of the 20,000 acres he now owns individually.

High-Tension Living May Hurt General Health of Individual

Austin.—A generation ago living conditions were less forced than they are today. Clock-consciousness was defined by hours rather than by minutes. And while there was less actual leisure than now, the tempo of daily existence was moderate. Today, transportation, manufacturing, business, recreation, and life in general, to a great extent, seem to be under time's driving influence. While this new speed has definitely contributed to the amazing progress that has made this country great, and is reflected in the high living conditions now enjoyed in the average home, it has not been without its drawbacks.

One of the most important of these is its possible effect upon health. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, "Of course no one would revert to former days, but it cannot be denied that misdirected, high-tension living overtaxes the nervous system and may undermine the general health of the individual. Recently, an outstanding neurologist, after making allowances for disease conditions due to syphilis, drug addiction, alcoholism, congenital defects, and old age, claimed that many cases of mental collapse and less marked conditions of the nervous system could be traced to a too-rapid pace both in work and play, and to an accompanying habitual disregard of basic health requirements. He emphasized, however, that the fault does not lie so much in the high-pressure system of life as in overapplication.

"A sustained, fast living pace can be somewhat neutralized by the wise expenditure of leisure time. Indeed, it can be said that it is not one's occupation, however exacting it may be, which usually does the damage to nerves and health, but the combination of high-speed work and disregard of nature's fundamental laws.

"Those who are burning the candle at both ends could well stop to consider that the excessive use of stimulants, consistent loss of sleep, and the nerve-shattering practices in general are the allies of nervous breakdowns, neurotic conditions, and more serious mental manifestations.

"High-speed-day-and-night life is not advisable for present satisfaction, health or ultimate peace of mind. The wise person will, therefore, avoid it and let moderation rule.

Nobuyuki Abe, Japan's new premier, succeeded Kiichiro Hiranuma to that post when the Japanese cabinet resigned in a body following announcement of the German-Russian pact. Maternal Health Education Needed to Control Syphilis

Austin.—The need for education that will bring every potential mother—and in particular those mothers infected with venereal diseases—to the physician early in pregnancy, and the necessity for adequate treatment and follow-up of every case of syphilis thus uncovered, is emphasized by the Texas State Department of Health.

The 1,200 deaths, and 8,000 annual syphilitic births, are the price of ignorance which reflects the failure of maternal health education in Texas. These deaths are needless, when we consider the present state of scientific knowledge and practice in regard to the control of syphilis.

There are many potential mothers in Texas today infected with syphilis. Without treatment, the chances are that more than 80 per cent of their offspring will be infected. Unless the need for treatment early in pregnancy is impressed upon all potential mothers, and the necessity for blood tests as a routine check in physical examinations is realized, too many mothers will not know that they have syphilis and are in need of treatment.

Reason number one for this neglect is that many women do not understand the importance of early and good prenatal care, including examination and, if necessary, treatment for syphilis.

It is pointed out that the chances that a healthy, non-infected child will be born of a mother with syphilis are less than one in six. "Start treatment before the fifth month of pregnancy—even before the third—and that ratio can be reversed to ten healthy children out of every eleven born. The remedy is education of our people, so that they may know what to expect in a prenatal examination," states the Health Department.

Taxes for Texans Amount to $6 a Week Per Family

Tax bill paid by the people of Texas during the 1938 fiscal year amounted to $6 a week per family, according to a new state-wide publication, The Taxpayers Digest, a preliminary number of which was issued this week.

The new semi-monthly publication, described as "a Texas journal of accurate news and pertinent comment relating to the public revenue—local, state, and national," is published by The Taxpayers Research Bureau, Dallas, with Peter Molyneux, widely known Texas editor, author, and economist as editor. Booth Mooney of Dallas, associated with Mr. Molyneux in the publication of The Texas Weekly, is associate editor of The Taxpayers Digest.

Mission of the new tax newspaper, according to Mr. Molyneux, is to help the average man to study and understand the fact that the Texas tax bill has been growing steadily during the last 15 years, and is still growing.

The revenue of the State Government of Texas, raised by taxation during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, amounted to $111,650,527. Mr. Molyneux said, "and that of all the local governments of the State amounted to $120,688,246. The Taxpayers Research Bureau estimates the Federal taxes paid by the people of Texas during that year as not less than $221,000,000. This is given as an extremely conservative estimate, but assuming it to be approximately correct, and adding it to the totals of State and local taxes, it appears that the total tax bill of the people of Texas for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, was not less than $454,000,000."

"On that basis the people of Texas during that year paid the equivalent of approximately $6 a week per family in Texas. And a large percentage of the people of the State paid that amount or much more," he concluded.

At Wichita, Kan., it is said a leisure time program stressing aviation reduced juvenile delinquency 55 per cent in two years.

American factories employed since mid August and mid September more than 800,000 additional workers.

U. S. Soil Chief Praises Course in Conservation at North Texas State Teachers College

Denton, Texas.—The farmer and ranchman have the cure for soil destruction by wind and water in the palms of their hands, but the voices of all citizens can determine the success or failure of a conservation program to save our soil heritage for future generations. Dr. H. H. Bennett, chief of the Soil Conservation Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, said in a statement just issued commending the value of courses in conservation given this summer at North Texas State Teachers College and nine other Texas institutions of higher learning.

The conservation course given last year at North Texas State Teachers College was the first college course of its kind ever offered in the United States. This year NTSTC repeated the course and nine other Texas schools co-operated in giving the same instruction. Several other colleges used a number of the conservation lectures.

The course indicates the important part that educational institutions can play "in bringing about conservation and wiser use of our land," Dr. Bennett said in a letter to the NTSTC director of public relations. The enactment of a State soil conservation districts law in Texas this past year is an example of the concrete results that can come from an enlightened public opinion, he also stated.

"Schools and colleges," he added, "enjoy a unique opportunity to help develop that public opinion. If they can teach that cities, no less than crops, wither and die when the fertility of the land is exhausted, and that all of us will share in the success or failure of the conservation program, they will help greatly to make that program effective and sure."

Job-Creating Ideas in State Contest Reveals Initiative of Youth

Job making, as contrasted to job seeking, looms as a hopeful aspect in the unemployment situation. Especially among young people does the "pioneering spirit" enter into job thinking. If results in a recent NYA sponsored job-creation contest in Illinois are typical of youth of the nation, Maxine Davis summarizes its results in the current Rotarian Magazine.

Initiative and ingenuity were ingredients in prize-winning ideas. For example, Myrtle Pauline Rose, of Maunie, discovered the need people have for birth certificates, and for a small sum handles the technicalities of getting them for clients.

Turning his Nature hobby into the business of supplying such items as frogs, crayfish, and earthworms to high school biological laboratories brought Mitro Pellock, of Bend, a prize and a good income.

Two brothers in Rockford, aged 17 and 16, opened a "shopper's service" in their town. They have a crew of boys with bicycles who do any errand for 10 cents. Operated with strict efficiency, it has proved a profitable venture.

Tricky inventions of potential commercial value put other ingenious lads above the job-hunting class. August Matzonen of Chicago, devised a transparent rubber band to fit over wrist watches and protect them from water while swimming or washing dishes.

William Harris, of Urbana, has developed a new idea in T squares which may give him a good income. Dave Daer invented a right-angled instead of a round thumbtack for drawing boards which has profit possibilities.

As novel in its way, continues Miss Davis, is the idea of several Chicago boys who rented a vacant lot near a high school and "park" bicycles for 2c a day.

State N. Y. A. Administrator William J. Campbell, serving on a volunteer basis since his recent appointment as district attorney in Chicago, is pleased with the results because they prove that American youth still has individual ideas.

"We have a pessimistic older generation so long the youngsters are licked before they start," he says. "All the boys and girls hear is that security is the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. Security! American youth has never had security. The genius of the American people has always been in the insecurity of its people. I cannot conceive of normal, natural American youth without the spirit of adventure."

An organization known as Air Youth of America with headquarters at Rockefeller Center, N. Y., has been formed for the purpose of supplying technical advice and information to interested boys organizations and to boys interested in aeronautics. The organization is a non-profit, non-commercial organization. Its support will come from private subscription and nominal service fees.

Crowell, Texas, October 19, 1939

And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto myself.—John 12:32.

The taking of Poland by Hitler is perhaps one of the most ruthless and unjustified and indefensible acts of recent history.

The greatest business builder is advertising and the failure to seek business by advertising stamps any concern as lacking in initiative and indifferent to progress.

Newspaperless Town

We have often tried to imagine what a town would be like which is so blind to community interests as to be indifferent in its support of a local newspaper.

The newspaperless town indicates that it is either too small to be of much business importance, or that its citizens are without business enterprise or civic pride.

Such a town would advertise to the world that it did not think much of itself and didn't care what others thought of it.

The lack of subscription support such as would make a newspaper unprofitable shows that either the paper itself lacks reader interest or that the people of the community are incapable of appreciating it.

Either way the result is the same. The newspaperless town passes unnoticed and cannot expect to be known to the world as anything but a backward community and a place where people live, but do not thrive.—Wareham, Mass., Courier.

RIVERSIDE 4-H CLUB

In a meeting of the Riverside 4-H Club, Tuesday, Oct. 10, Miss Joellene Vannoy gave a talk on clothing. She said, "A girl needs certain garments of wearing apparel in order to be suitably dressed for work, church, play, and for parties and entertainments."

In planning a wardrobe, consideration should be given to the type of clothes needed, and the type of person to wear them, as well as the amount of money which can be spent and the quantity of clothes needed.

The first step is to take an inventory of all the clothing on hand, listing it and stating its condition.

Eagles—

After the Chillicothe score, the game settled back into a defensive fight, with the Wildcats stopping the only scoring threat made by either team when they held the Chillicothe boys for downs and took the ball on the Crowell 10.

Most Unusual With Wildcat followers accustomed to the Crowell boys drawing a large number of penalties, all were surprised last Friday night when the Wildcats went through a game without having a penalty called against them.

First Period V. Johnson's kickoff went out-of-bounds and the Wildcats took the ball on their own 35. Orr picked up three, but Brown and Meason failed to gain and Meason punted to the Eagles' 34.

From their own 34, the Eagles staged a ground drive, featuring Scruggs, which carried them to the Crowell 28 and Johnson passed to Dillon to place it on the 10. Scruggs made 3 and Johnson added 1. After an incomplete pass, Scruggs crashed into right tackle but failed to make a first down and the Wildcats took possession of the ball on the 3.

Meason punted from behind his own goal line to the Crowell 40, with the ball being returned to the 38. Scruggs picked up 5 yards on two running plays and a pass, Davis to Dillon, was incomplete. A second pass fell incomplete and Crowell took the ball on its own 32.

Orr picked up 1 and Brown failed to gain. Meason made 3 and punted to the Eagles' 40 as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter Scruggs ripped through center for 5 and then crashed through right tackle for 8. He then circled left end for 22 yards to put the ball on the Crowell 25. On two plays, Scruggs gained 4 and on the third play the drive was stopped when Fitzgerald intercepted Hopkins' pass and made a short return to the Crowell 37.

One running play and two passes, one falling incomplete, netted the Wildcats' only 1 yard and Meason punted from his own 38 to the Chillicothe 47 and Davis returned the punt to the Crowell 46.

Three plays later Orr intercepted Davis' pass on the Crowell 25. Meason lost 4 and Orr gained it back. A pass, Smith to Canup, netted 19 yards to put the ball on the Crowell 48 with the Wildcats' only first down of the first half. Orr gained 1. On the second play, Orr tossed a short pass to Smith, who lateraled wild to Meason and Davis recovered on the Crowell 35.

Johnson rushed through the line for 5. Scruggs was thrown for his first loss of the present season on the next play when Orr rushed through from the secondary to drop him for 4 yards. Davis passed to Dillon to carry the ball to the Crowell 17. Davis failed to gain and Ownbey knocked down an Eagle pass behind the goal line. A second pass from Davis to Dillon put the ball on the 12. Johnson made 2. A pass fell incomplete and Johnson made 1 more. Scruggs failed to gain and Crowell took the pigskin on its own 4 after stopping a 31-yard Eagle drive as the first half came to a scoreless close.

Second Half Fitzgerald's kick was taken on the Chillicothe 9 by Davis and returned to the 27. Hopkins made 3 and Scruggs added 3. On the fourth down, Davis punted to the Crowell 35.

Smith came around from his end position and passed incomplete to Canup. On the same play, Orr faked the ball to Smith and struck out around right end to break into the clear and raced 65 yards down the side line for the Wildcats' touchdown. Canup's kick for extra point was blocked.

Fitzgerald kicked to the Chillicothe 13 and the ball was returned to the 31 by Davis. Scruggs made 3 and Hopkins passed to Dillon for 21 yards. After failure to complete a pass, Davis shot a short pass to Hopkins who galloped the remainder of the 45 yards to the goal line. Dillon added the winning point with a place kick.

Dillon kicked and Meason stepped off the playing field as he caught the ball. Orr skirted left end for 5. Meason ran around the opposite wing for 8. Orr failed to gain and a pass, Smith to Ownbey, netted 5 yards. Orr tossed wide to Smith, and Meason got off a 57-yard punt which was picked up on the 1-yard line by Davis who managed to work the ball out to the 8. After gaining 2 yards, Davis punted out-of-bounds on the Crowell 30. Two plays failed to gain and on the next two Orr and Meason advanced the ball 9 yards but failed to make a first down and the Eagles took the ball on their 21.

A series of ground plays carried the Eagles to the Chillicothe 47 and Davis was forced to punt. Orr took the punt on the Crowell 39 and returned to the 40. Alterating, Orr and Meason registered 14 yards and drove on down to the Chillicothe 46 where the drive was stopped when Davis intercepted Orr's pass and returned to the 45. Two Eagle passes failed to find receivers as the quarter ended with Chillicothe leading 7 to 6.

On the first play of the last period, Johnson punted from his own 45 to the Crowell 25, with Orr returning to the 35. Meason lost 1 and Smith passed incomplete to Canup. Orr tried the sneak play which had resulted in Crowell's touchdown earlier in the game but was dumped for a 7-yard loss. Meason got off a 41-yard punt and the Eagles started scrimmage from their 40. They drove to the Crowell 10-yard stripe where the Wildcats' defense stiffened and Crowell took the ball on the 10.

Orr ran right end for 6 yards and Smith skirted left end for 18. Three more plays carried the Wildcats to the Crowell 44. On the following play, Dillon intercepted Orr's pass to give the Eagles the ball on the Chillicothe 46 and stopped another Crowell drive.

REA Two-Day Farm Electric Show to Be Here Nov. 20-21

The Southwest Rural Electric Association, Inc., of Tipton, Okla., this week completed arrangements that will bring the big REA two-day Farm Electric Equipment Show to Crowell November 20 and 21. This traveling exhibit, which carries with it a huge tent, smaller tents and truck loads of electric farm equipment and household appliances, is touring eight states in the largest wide-scale demonstration of this type ever undertaken in the United States.

It is brought here through the cooperation of the local project, the State Extension Service, neighboring Rural Electric Co-operatives in Love County, Red River Valley Rural Electric Co-operative; in Harmon County, Harmon Electric Co-operative, Inc.; in Cotton County, Cotton Electric Co-operative, and the Rural Electrification Administration. Farm people will have an opportunity to see a very wide variety of electrically-powered equipment in actual operation. Grain grinding will be hauled in from nearby farms. Feed grinders will be operated with various size motors of from one-quarter to ten horsepower by Fred Jordan of REA and a representative of the Extension Service.

The morning and early-afternoon program in the big tent will be of especial interest to farm women. New labor-lightening appliances will be demonstrated by Miss Bernice Strawn, REA home economist. The use of washing machines, electric irons, and other electrical appliances in the home laundry will be taken up in the laundry demonstration as part of the women's program. With modern washing machines and electric ironing equipment, the laundry for a large family can be done quickly and with little drudgery. Planning of the laundry, and points on the selection of equipment and its care, will likewise be taken up.

Manufacturers of farm machinery, plumbing, home appliances, and lighting fixtures, are co-operating with REA and local co-operatives to bring this caravan of equipment to inform farm families of the latest developments in farm and home electrical uses.

Much of the equipment that will be demonstrated has been especially designed for automatic electric operation. The demonstration will show that in the average case lighter and smaller equipment can be used advantageously.

W. S. Laing was selected chairman of the committee on general arrangements. He will name various committees or members of the co-operatives to have charge of labor arrangements for grain to grind and for other demonstration materials. Extension agents of Jackson, Greer, Kiowa and Tillman Counties in Oklahoma, and Wilbarger and Foard Counties in Texas are also taking part in organizing this program.

The motors used in the demonstration will be moved from place to place with a specially designed device. They will get current through heavy underground cable simply laid out on the ground from the panel. It can be handled, walked on, and driven over by cars and trucks without danger. Every important phase of electrical use on the farm and in the home will be included in the tour's program. Farmers from twenty counties, whether they are receiving current from REA lines or not, are invited to attend these educational demonstrations.

In the Paducah game, Meason turned in one of the most dazzling pieces of broken field running since Dick Todd left Crowell High School. On three touchdown trips, he covered more than 180 yards and that is probably a district record.

In Crowell's last two games, Orr has turned in spectacular bits of running. Against the Bulldogs, he raced 76 yards for a touchdown and in the Eagle game, he slipped into the clear and scampered 65 yards for a score.

From the records, football followers will be able to see three of the district's most outstanding backs in action on the Crowell gridiron next week.

Crowell's hopes to land in the district's top position were blasted last Friday night when the Eagles took a 7-6 victory over the Wildcats, but with two hard games behind them, the Wildcats can still capture third place and possibly tie for second. With the district having so many strong teams this year the champion will not be known until the season is finished and the schedule could be first place.

Tomorrow night on the Chillicothe gridiron a part of the championship question will be decided when the Burk Burnett Bulldogs meet the Eagles. If the Bulldogs defeat the Eagles, they still have to play more strong clubs than Chillicothe will if it is the winner of the scrap.

es a goodly number each year for the market.

He had 1,500 acres in cultivation, on which he raises wheat and feed, principally grain sorghums. In addition he buys much feed from surrounding farmers.

Keeps Feed on Hand

"Most of the farmers around there know they can nearly always sell their feed to me," Mr. Ebeling said. "I bought my first feed on hand. I bought my first feed there during a drouth. I'll never forget that it pays to keep ahead with the feed supply."

In addition to his cattle, Mr. Ebeling raises polo ponies from thoroughbred stallions.

An ardent sportsman, Mr. Ebeling maintains the place as a game preserve and has put in stocks of deer and wild turkeys that are multiplying rapidly under his protection.

Though he visits his ranch only about once a month and on special occasions when he plays host there to his many friends, Mr. Ebeling's ranch is no plaything.

"If there wasn't money in it, I'd close it out," he said. "It operates on a cash basis and it pays dividends."

Urging Texans to become more cattle-minded, Mr. Ebeling declares that though it may be trite, it is worth saying repeatedly that the surface of the cattle industry in Texas has barely been scratched so far.

"Farmers in the vicinity of milk processing plants have proved that diversifying will pay," he said. "They can do the same thing with beef cattle and other livestock. Good stock is necessary for success in the business and the use of registered sires is the way to improve stock."

"Beau Geste" Lusty Tale of Gallantry

A roaring, lusty tale of the indomitable gallantry of three loyal brothers will blaze across the screen of the Rialto Theatre when Paramount's great new production of "Beau Geste" is presented on Thursday, Oct. 19, to local audiences.

Gary Cooper, Ray Milland and Robert Preston are starred in this glorious picturization of the great P. C. Wren novel, produced and directed by William A. Wellman and written for the screen by Robert Carson. The superb supporting cast is headed by Brian Donlevy, Susan Hayward, J. Carroll Naish, Donald O'Connor and James Stephenson. As indicated by the nature of the production, thousands of other players round out the cast, serving as legionnaires, and members of wild desert tribes.

With Cooper, Milland and Preston cast as the three "Geste" brothers, "Beau," "John" and "Digby," respectively, the picture tells how they gallantly join the French Foreign Legion to avert having the finger of suspicion point at any of them as guilty of the theft of a valuable sapphire, the "Blue Water," from their guardian. In the legion, there is desperate conflict between the brothers and a mad, brutal sergeant, who, suspecting that one of the brothers has the gem in his possession, determines to get it for himself.

Christian Science Services "Probation after Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 22. The Golden Text is: "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him" (James 1:12).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death." (Hosea 13:14). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If it is true that man lives, this fact can never change in Science to the opposite belief that man dies. Life is the law of Soul, even the law of the spirit of Truth, and Soul is never without its representatives" (page 427).

Ichabod and Ebenezer The first seven chapters of the first book of Samuel have a distinct message to our day and generation, although they record events in ancient Israel in the dim and distant long ago. They cover a period of some twenty years, the beginning very dark indeed. Things were in a sad state in Israel. The very tabernacle which God had filled with His glory on the day of its dedication by Moses had become a center of moral corruption, for the priests, the sons of Eli, who ministered there, were unworthy representatives of their holy vocation. Then a terrible calamity was permitted to strike the nation. The Ark of the Covenant was captured by the Philistines and carried in triumph into the house of their idol, Bagon, and the priests that bare it were slain by the sword.

Our Weekly Sermon

By Dr. Max I. Reich, Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

The dying priestess took in the significance of this judgment when the tidings reached her of Israel's defeat, the death of her husband, and the capture of the Ark. It was the last that broke her heart, for she belonged to the godly remnant in Israel. So she called the son born in that hour of anguish, Ichabod, that is, the glory is departed! The name of that son of sorrow was to be a constant reminder to a backslidden people that their sins had driven the glory out of the land.

It may be that there is someone reading these lines who feels that Ichabod has been written over his life. There was a time when Christ was indeed very precious, and the Scriptures sweeter than the droppings of the honeycomb. Secret prayer was a delight, and the fellowship of God's people the greatest boon on earth. But the encroachments of sin have brought thee into darkness and bondage, and thy soul dwells, as it were, in a desolate house.

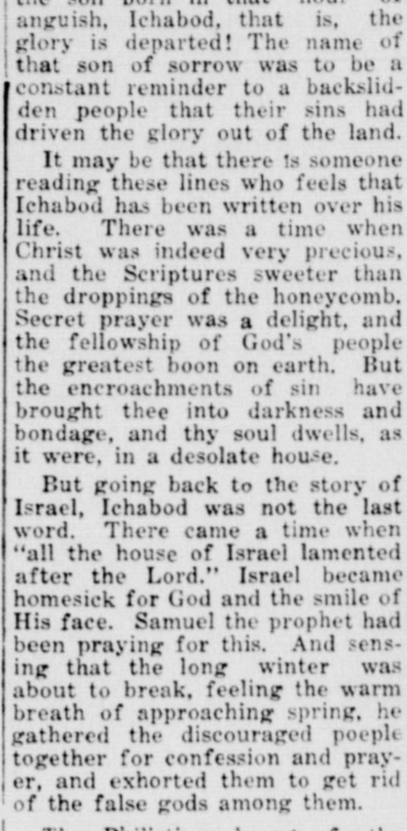

But going back to the story of Israel, Ichabod was not the last word. There came a time when "all the house of Israel lamented after the Lord." Israel became homesick for God and the smile of His face. Samuel the prophet had been praying for this. And sensing that the long winter was about to break, feeling the warm breath of approaching spring, he gathered the discouraged people together for confession and prayer, and exhorted them to get rid of the false gods among them.

The Philistines heard of the assembled Israelites and came in to the land with an army to crush by force this beginning of a revival. How often the enemy beset himself and makes fierce assaults upon the newly awakened and returning soul! But Samuel offered a lamb on the altar—a type of Christ in His holy sacrifice—and as the smoke of the burnt offering ascended as a sweet savor to God, God thundered from heaven against the impudent enemy of His people, who were now again right with Him. On the very battlefield where twenty years before the Ark had been captured, Israel won a signal victory, which Samuel celebrated by putting up a stone monument on the spot, calling it Ebenezer—hitherto hath the Lord helped us.

While still serving the strange gods, the people might have said, "Hitherto Philistia and her gods have had power over us." But now God had turned bondage to deliverance, Ichabod into Ebenezer, on the ground of the sacrifice of Christ, typified by the lamb on the altar.

So, beloved reader, who has lived for long in the shadows of thy Ichabod, come to the cross of Christ, to the Lamb of God that

Four Chinese Who Caused a World Crisis

Here are the four Chinese whose alleged murder of a Jap puppet official at Tientsin, China, several months ago precipitated Japanese demands that Great Britain recognize the "new order" in China. British-Jap conferences in Tokyo, started as a result of the incident, are still continuing and the four prisoners are shown being removed from British to Japanese custody, one of the points on which the British capitulated.

Yeah, We Can't Have That

taketh away the sin of the world whose precious blood, in all value and worth, is ever being shed, and the power of thy equal enemies will be broken, enzezer will be thy jubilate money to the restoring grace of God. In an interesting book "Twilight of Man," Prof. E. Hooton, 51-year-old Harvard anthropologist makes some observations of the human race, which if borne out by facts, should cause concern. According to Hooton, "As governments become weighted down more and more heavily with the obligations of supporting their indigent, unemployed, and infirm, they totter toward bankruptcy and resort to desperate expedient of state wars." Other observations, millennium of Morons is "Much charity fosters human of inferior intelligence which willing to take liberty but grant it to others." "Medical science has reached a stage of development in which it is not sufficient to kill off the chronically ill, and not good enough care for them." Hooton believes the human race is in danger of devolution. He recommends that to select some thousands about-to-marry couples, for their children for a few generations, and learn exactly heredity and genetics can. Thereafter, he believes, we would know how to breed his race better.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By JULIAN CAPERS JR.
The pension heat, generated by cutting pensions $6, and drawing several thousand pensioners who drew less than $6 before the cut, had reached its boiling point in Austin this morning in this column. Gov. O'Daniel brought a new rabbit out of the hat, when he sent a letter to the members of the Legislature, if they would enact a bill, incorporating the main feature of the highly controversial bill. The Governor wants the bill to abrogate their oath to waive the right to debate any substitute or different tax plan, and pledge themselves in advance to vote for the tax bill. It is fairly common, from the statements by members of both House and Senate, that O'Daniel's proposal will be rejected by a majority of the legislators.

Loan Payment Made
However, with the payment of $150,000 to a syndicate of Dallas banks as the first installment on funds advanced to pay pensions, it appears certain that reduced pension funds, and the howl going up from the old folks will bring about a special session sooner or later, regardless of any refusal of legislators to hog-tie themselves in advance to any corporation-sponsored sales tax scheme advanced by O'Daniel.

Under the constitution, the legislators are the sole judges of how revenue shall be raised. Once the Legislature is convened, the House of Representatives is free to consider any method of fund-raising it desires, and doubtless will consider several methods, including Ernest Thompson's proposal for a 5-cent additional tax on crude oil production. The pressure from the old people, the teachers and other beneficiaries of the defunct social security program is becoming so great that it raises a serious threat to the possibility of O'Daniel's re-election as Governor. When the Governor becomes convinced that this situation prevails, best guessers here believe, he will convene a special session without conditions or promises. That may not be until after January 1, although many Austin observers think it will be sooner.

Beware Coughs
Common colds
That Hang On
Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the infection, loosens germ laden phlegm, stimulates secretion and aids nature to heal raw, tender, inflamed, mucous membranes. How many medicines you tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the guarantee that you are to like it or he will give you your money back.

Beauchamp Named To Court
Fulfilling a forecast in this column, Judge Tom Beauchamp, Secretary of State and former East Texas "professional politician," who has served as county judge, assistant attorney general, and in other offices, was named by Gov. O'Daniel as a Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the state's highest criminal tribunal, succeeding Presiding Judge W. C. Morrow, who resigned. O'Daniel has not yet named a successor to Beauchamp as Secretary of State, but reports are that he favors his personal secretary, William Lawson, for the $5,000 post. Confirmation of Beauchamp, as well as several other important appointments made by O'Daniel, must be had by the Senate, although unless a special session is held before January, 1941, some of the appointments, including that of Beauchamp, will expire before confirmation is had.

Parents Charged With Whipping Child

Mr. and Mrs. Mariano Fanelli of Camden, N. J., had to be guarded against mob violence when arraigned in police court on charges of beating their three-year-old daughter, Madeline. Recovering at a hospital from multiple cuts and bruises, the child showed the effects of a terrible thrashing.

Two Minute Sermon
(By Thomas Hastwell)
The Reward of the Well Done Task: In the first chapter of Genesis is found the story of the creation of the world. There is one line in this graphic description that has always struck me forcibly. When God created the land, and the water, and the heavens, and the grass, and the birds, and the beasts, he viewed each task, and the scripture says: "He saw that it was good." No detail was lacking that might add to the completeness of the whole. What a model for every worker. How much it might mean to every individual if he would perform every task, every duty of life in such a way that at its completion he would be able to say "it is good." Many go through life doing the tasks of each day indifferently. They receive no thrill of accomplishment because they have failed to put into their work sincerity. They have not discovered that there is no pleasure to be found in a task indifferently done. They have not discovered that to the one who performs each task to the best he knows how, there comes a satisfaction and a joy of achievement that glorifies the humblest task, and makes of it a satisfying experience. Work so that when the task is finished, be it big or little, you can say: "It is good."

Austin Notes
Fame is fleeting, as was demonstrated here when the State Board of Education, in session to adopt textbooks, required the publisher of a volume of biography to delete a sketch of the life of Charles A. Lindbergh, before approving the book. Some board members explained the board did not favor inclusion of the lives of any living persons. . . . The future of the existing system of prorating the production of crude oil in Texas is bound up in litigation which has been instituted by Humble Oil Co., and F. W. Fischer, "Big Fish" who ran for governor in 1936, owner of many East Texas wells. Both Humble and Fischer seek to enjoin enforcement of the current East Texas proration order, both on different grounds. Fischer objects to the use of acreage as a factor in determining allocation to various wells, while Humble's lawyers claim the company is losing $28,000 daily in oil it is entitled to produce, but cannot under the order. A three-judge Federal court has taken the matter under advisement.
