Spring Football Training Will Start Monday

Record Group of Bookies Expected to Be in Uniform

Spring training for the Crowell High School football aspirants will open on Monday, March 25, at which time a record number of bookies are expected to report for duty, according to Coach Graves.

In the past years, spring training has always started immediately following the close of the football season, but this year's workouts have been postponed after the county meet here Tuesday, Friday and Saturday, to allow all of the boys in high school to practice for track. On Monday, the boys will report for school in good condition owing to the great amount of running they have done during the past week.

When all of the lads report Monday, Coach Graves will be faced with a problem that is self-experienced by a coach in a school of the size of Crowell—that of having enough suits for all who report. The first few suits will be devoted largely to the coaching staff.

Not Many Rogues
Coach Graves will also be faced with the lack of seasoned material. An abundance of young raw material, however, just to what the rookies will develop after next. The big problem dealt with during the spring training period will be to find to replace Que Meason, John Orr, Oran Johnson, Wayne Up, Jack Fitzgerald, Hugh Gibson, Frank Dunn, Dick Smith, and Gibson, Charlie Clark, all of last year's squad are Joe W. D. Hudgeons and the Thompsons.

One Veteran Back
Among all the boys expecting to report, there will be only one veteran. He is Bill Ownbey who is the right halfback post in (Continued on Page Five.)

School Census Deadline Set For March 30

Many of Children In Crowell District Yet To Be Listed

The deadline for enumerating children of scholastic age for the 1940 school census is Sunday, March 21, but all scholastics must be recorded on or before Saturday, March 30, according to an announcement by L. A. Andrews, census trustee for the Crowell Independent School District.

The census returns for the school district, which was started on March 1, are almost complete but there is a number of children of school age who have not yet been registered and a drive is being made to include every child between the ages of 6 and 18 years in the complete returns.

To date, 616 scholastics for the 1940-41 school term have been enumerated and the total enumeration for last year was 635 children, and Mr. Andrews stated that with the co-operation of the parents of the district this number might again be obtained.

Children who will be six years old and under 18 years of age on Sept. 1, 1940, are eligible to be enumerated and should be reported. If your child has not been enumerated or if you know of some family with children that has recently moved into the district, you are urged to notify Mr. Andrews who will see that they are listed.

Every scholastic in the district entitles the school to about $22 in state and county aid and for every child of school age that is not listed, the school will lose that much, so in one point of view it is of interest to the parents of the district to take an interest in the scholastic enumeration.

Christian Church Will Have Easter Sunrise Service

The Christian Church will begin Easter Sunday with a Sunrise Service beginning at 6:45 a. m. The service is arranged to be a period of early morning worship and meditation in which the Life of Jesus as the Messiah, as the Teacher and Healer, as the resurrected Lord and Christ, and as the Savior of the world will be stressed.

It is the aim of the service to provide a quiet time in the early morning when Christian people may come and in the quietness of the hour fellowship and commune without interruption.

The service is open to the people of this community. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of Crowell by the pastor and the membership of the Church to come for this period of worship at the beginning of the significant day.

NEW PASTOR

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCown of Odessa have moved to Crowell to make their home and are located in the Herman Fox house one block north of the square. Mr. McCown comes to Crowell as half-time pastor of the East Side Church of Christ.

IMPROVING

T. J. Ferguson, who received injuries while repairing a windmill tower several days ago, is improving satisfactorily. His daughters, Mrs. Charles Schwab of San Antonio and Mrs. Henry Kilgore of Gainesville, were at his bedside last week.

Holds Meet Here

Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, pictured above, clothing specialist of the Texas A. & M. Extension Service, held a meeting with the women and girls of Foard County in the district court room in Crowell last Thursday afternoon, at which time she gave a demonstration on "Building Good Looks for Women and Girls" by correct wearing of clothing. Mrs. Barnes used dresses furnished by The Beverly Shop and The Ben Franklin Store in the demonstration.

Two hundred and twenty club women, club girls and members of Homemaking classes of the county attended the meeting.

Mrs. Barnes was born at Morantville, Kentucky, and attended the University of Wisconsin and Columbia University. She taught school for a time and was a county home demonstration agent in Florida until 1918, when she came to the Texas Extension Service as a district agent. In 1920 she was appointed to her present position.

During the past seven years, 177 Texas counties have done organized wardrobe demonstration work under the supervision of home demonstration agents. Texas was the first state to sponsor the wardrobe demonstration.

In 1937, 25,418 4-H club girls and home demonstration club members did clothing work under the direction of Mrs. Barnes, and 156,776 garments were made. The value of the clothing made by these women and girls is estimated at a third of a million dollars annually.

Census School Will Be Held Here Next Week

Five Counties Will Be Represented in Three-Day School

A census school for enumerators of Foard, Hardeman, Knox, Throckmorton, Baylor and Wilbarger Counties will be held in the district court room in Crowell on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 25, 26 and 27, with Cliff Deaton, area supervisor of Wichita Falls, in charge.

Training for enumerators will teach them to properly fill out the blanks in Uncle Sam's ten year roll call which will start April 1, and will be completed in two weeks.

Need Rooms

There will probably be a need for rooms other than those of the hotels of the city can furnish, and anyone who has a room to rent for those two nights is asked to call George Self at the Self Motor Company or The News office.

Social Security Service to Be Established Here

Crowell has been selected by the Social Security Board as one of the points where itinerant service will be established, it was announced last week by Roscoe L. Surles, manager of the Wichita Falls field office of the Social Security Board, which serves the area in which Crowell is located.

Regular monthly visits will be made to Crowell at 3 p. m. on the following days: March 28, April 25, and May 30, Surles said, with space provided in the court house. These visits are for the purpose of contacting employers and employees, potential beneficiaries, and others in connection with their problems relating to the Federal old-age and survivors insurance provisions of the Social Security Act.

The representative of the Social Security Board will handle claims for old-age and survivors insurance, applications for social security account numbers, applications for employer identification numbers, and wage discrepancy cases. He will also be available to furnish information on any phase of the program, Surles said.

The recent amendments to the Social Security Act authorized the payment of monthly insurance, beginning January 1, 1940, to qualified wage earners, supplementary payments to wives over 65 of qualified workers, and to their minor children. The amendments also provide survivors insurance to aged widows, minor children, and wholly dependent parents, and in some instances, lump-sum payments to the survivors of fully insured wage earners who die after January, 1940.

Insurance is also provided for currently-insured individuals who die after January 1, 1940, to young widows with minor children, to minor children themselves, and lump-sum payments to survivors and to those equitably entitled where the wage earner is not survived by a relative eligible to receive monthly insurance payments.

Mr. Surles further stated that the age 65 limitation which formerly applied in covered employment is eliminated by the amended Social Security Act, retroactive to January 1, 1939, and that any person now engaged in covered work, regardless of his age, is subject to the taxing provisions of the act and may build up old-age insurance by future employment.

Deadline For Registering of Cars Nearing

Over 1,260 Vehicles Yet to Be Tagged in Foard County for '40

Approximately 1,260 motor vehicles in Foard County must be registered for 1940 license plates by Saturday, March 30, according to figures obtained from the tax assessor-collector's office Wednesday.

Only 311 motor vehicles of the county had been licensed for 1940 Wednesday and an average of about 180 cars must be re-registered per day between now and March 30 for the total to reach the number registered in 1939.

The officials urge automobile owners not to wait until the last few days to obtain their car tags, as an overwhelming rush is expected at the office during the last few days. A penalty will be assessed on all tags sold after March 31, and all motor vehicles must bear the new plates on April 1.

The total for 1939 was 1,580 licenses, including 1,204 passenger cars, 189 farm trucks and 187 commercial vehicles. Of the 311 vehicles registered for 1940, there have been 261 passenger cars, 33 farm trucks and 17 commercial vehicles licensed for 1940.

CONVINCING FACTS

"Fate of Rural Retailer Not Predestined," says Robert V. Mitchell of the College of Commerce, University of Illinois, as printed in a recent issue of the National Editorial Association Service Letter.

A study recently completed by Mr. Mitchell reveals that small-town business men continue to gain and hold customers, despite increased competition, by neat and efficient store arrangement regular advertising, and personal relation with customers.

Mr. Mitchell included in his study interviews with merchants of 289 stores in 72 Illinois villages, and came to the conclusion that "There is still opportunity for success in retailing in a small community."

While there has been a "decided shifting of retail trade away from small villages to the larger trading centers," he said, "the fate of the rural retailer is not predestined." Stores with good appearance and good advertising, with managers who establish personal contacts with their customers, continue to succeed where others do not, he reported.

"The personal relations between owner and customer is one of the most effective tools of the village merchant," Mr. Mitchell said. "The owner is in a position to know his customers and their wants. He can learn the individual preference of his customers and serve them better."

The already overburdened taxpayer will be rejoiced to learn that the Wage-Hour law, besides being the most harmful piece of legislation ever passed for small beginning industries, is going to have its force of field inspectors increased from 290 to 700 by June 1, that regular inspection may be made of the 250,000 industries in this country coming under the law. Incidentally this is only the beginning of this bureau.

The biggest joke is a committee headed by a chairman who won't take suggestions from anyone but himself. He can't work with any body except a group of "yes" men. His only reason for wanting a committee is the sense of superiority and inflation of ego it gives him to be issuing orders right and left to his helpless but courteous committee.

The Dies committee reports that 10 or 12 C. I. O. unions are tainted with Communism. This may explain the unrest and the disturbance in industry caused by these organizations in this country. The aim of Communism at the present time in this country is to create dissatisfaction and discontent and stir up trouble.

An irrefutable answer to the nonpreparadists: But for the French Maginot defense line Germany would today be driving her tanks over French soil destroying her land and laying waste her towns. Because of the line she has been stopped on the border.

The receipts of the United States government during Franklin Roosevelt's administration will be nine times what they were during Theodore Roosevelt's administration and almost four times what they were during Herbert Hoover's administration.

Following a ruling that to be eligible to relief, clients in Saginaw County, Michigan, must surrender the license plates on their automobiles, fifty families chose the cars in preference to relief, and asked that their names be stricken from the relief rolls.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

It is not an uncommon thing in every community when young people get married today for the question to be raised by friends and acquaintances, "What have they got to get married on, or what has he got to get married on?"

I think sometimes too much emphasis is put on how much material possessions the contracting parties have as though this were the only thing that counted. It is important that young people starting out have some stake but I do not believe that the possession of such a stake is any assurance of a happy or successful marriage. I have known of many marriages in which both parties had a liberal supply of this world's goods that were not in the least successful, and which in spite of it went on the rocks in a few years.

Not every young man can approach marriage with a good bank account but every young man, before he considers getting married should know how to make a living. I think this is more important than having a lot of money. I think the chances for a successful marriage and a happy home are distinctly on the side of the young man who knows how to make a living, rather than with the couple who start out with sufficient money to buy everything they think they need.

I think there is pleasure and a satisfaction that comes to two people who working together build up their own competence that those who have had it thrown in their lap never come to know. A young man with the right sort of stuff in him will not think of getting married and asking a young woman to share his lot until he does know how to make a living, until he has mastered some trade or profession for which there is a need in the world and through which he can market his services.

I think that the young man, if he is the right sort, and the kind that is going to get ahead in the world, will be satisfied with anything less than the utmost of which he is capable. By that I do not feel that any bright young man should be satisfied with fitting himself to wash cars if he has in him the ability and the talent to do a bigger and a better job. He should endeavor to place himself in a work in which there is a future, a possibility of advancement and a superior market for such a service.

I do not mean to say by this that the job of washing cars need be despised. No honest work should be despised. What I am trying to say is that a young man with ability far beyond that required to wash a car should not be content with work of this kind. He should aim for something better, something that would come nearer commanding his whole ability and resources, something that had more possibilities and more of a future. But if washing cars is his forte in life he should so perfect himself in it that he would be known as the best car washer in the whole community. He should be so thorough and his work should be so satisfactory, that those who had a car to wash would rather have him wash it than any one else. I believe it is possible to make a profession out of the lowly task of washing cars through which one might render as acceptable a service in the community as in any other field.

The point is that the young man should know how to make a living and should aim as high as his capabilities will permit. If he does this the lack of this world's goods, when he sets up a home of his own with the girl of his choice, will be a minor matter.

Jesse D. Miller Enters Race for Sheriff's Office

Jesse D. Miller is making his formal announcement this week as a candidate for the office of sheriff and tax assessor-collector, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

Mr. Miller has been a resident of the Thalia community for the past twenty years, but has lived in Crowell for the past two months.

He has the following to say regarding his candidacy:

"To the voters of Foard County: "In submitting to the people of Foard County my candidacy for sheriff, tax assessor-collector, I do so realizing the responsibilities of the office. I have been a resident of Foard County for twenty years, coming to this county from Cooke County where I was born and raised."

"I believe in law enforcement and if elected I expect to enforce the law. "My time will be devoted exclusively to the duties of the office, as I will have no other interests to engage my attention, and I expect to put all my energies into the management of the affairs of this office in an efficient manner."

"I expect to see every voter in the county before the primary, and if I miss anyone, it will not be intentional." We can readily understand how a man might very much desire to be president of the United States for one or two terms but can think of no reason why a man would wish to shoulder the worry and strain of the position for three terms. A man gets all the glory and all the honor the office can confer when he has served two terms.

that is going to get ahead in the world, will be satisfied with anything less than the utmost of which he is capable. By that I do not feel that any bright young man should be satisfied with fitting himself to wash cars if he has in him the ability and the talent to do a bigger and a better job. Judge Defends Youth; Censures Parents for Juvenile Delinquency

Pointing an accusing finger at "oldsters" in fixing the responsibility for juvenile delinquency, Judge Ernest L. Reeker, of Madison, Neb., champions "youngsters" in his current Rotarian magazine article, and suggests that in a majority of cases a warrant should be issued for parents who would place unqualified blame on their children when they get into trouble.

"When people ask me, 'Judge, what's wrong with the young people of today?' my answer is always the same: 'There's nothing wrong with the young folks—the trouble is with their elders,'" he asserts. For 15 years he has been a juvenile judge, he tells Rotarian readers, and has handled 1,560 cases. "In my treatment of juvenile delinquents, I have found that nine times out of ten a warrant should be issued for the parents of the child, charging them contributing to the delinquency of a minor, instead of permitting them to throw all the blame on their offspring."

He declares that he is "sick and tired of having 'holier-than-thou' prosecuting attorneys, rough-and-ready police officers, and hair-splitting judges continue to produce criminals" by sending youngsters to institutions through a lack of understanding. Of the 1,560 boys and girls with whom Judge Reeker has dealt, only 50 have been sent to correctional institutions; of these only six continued in a life of crime. He has little use for reform schools since he discovered that officials of one of them took more interest in a prize dairy herd and bull than in the youths committed to their custody. "The bull had better quarters and better care and its diet was more closely watched than were those of the 300 boys in the institution," he charges.

Parental neglect accounts for its share of youthful criminals, but "society itself has a pretty rotten record," Judge Reeker declares. Juvenile courts themselves need cleaning up, lawyers and judges must be trained to investigate backgrounds of children in trouble, and the conditions spawning crime must be eliminated, he reasons.

He concludes by saying he'd like to issue a bench warrant for every citizen, and sentence each to "leave nothing undone that a people might do to make certain that the children of today do not populate the prisons of tomorrow."

Sulfapyridine—The Miracle Worker in A War on Pneumonia

When a loved one was stricken with pneumonia a few years back, and you looked deep into your physician's eyes to ask: "Isn't there something you can do?" in most cases he was forced to shake his head in helplessness. In those days dreaded pneumococcus took 100,000 lives annually. But a new miracle worker—sulfapyridine—has come into the medical picture, and will save the lives of approximately 50,000 pneumonia victims this year, according to Stephen J. McDonough, medical journalist, who writes a dramatic personal story in the current Rotarian Magazine.

Shortly after he had released a sulfapyridine press dispatch—with skepticism and crossed fingers—McDonough found himself desperately ill with the most deadly type of pneumonia infection. But his physician wasn't helpless, because sulfapyridine was just emerging from its experimental stage, and a supply was rushed 500 miles to treat his case. Within a week after sulfapyridine treatments were begun he was out of the hospital. Miraculous? Yes, declares this Rotarian contributor, but that's the way this new chemical works.

An allied drug of sulfanilamide, which was originally "just a brick-red powder—one of the coal-tar dyes used to color cloth," sulfapyridine is unlike many other germicides, which annihilate germs, McDonough writes. "Sulfanilamide and sulfapyridine smother the disease-causing bacteria. Most germs can grow only when there is enough oxygen, just like a human being. They use oxygen only by first converting it into hydrogen peroxide, the common gargling fluid. Sulfanilamide and sulfapyridine stop this oxygen conversion process and keep the germs from breathing until the white blood corpuscles consume them."

LIVING DEMOCRACY

Around our community we don't have an abnormal concern in the affairs of other nations. Within our means, we contribute to the relief of distressed peoples, but we know that agitated discussions of ideologies while the canapes are being passed won't save the world, and we go into no sporadic dithers about what's going to become of democracy. Matter-of-factly, we preserve it by the way we live.—Edith M. Stern in the Rotarian Magazine.

Radio Programs To Feature AAA Program Work

Ranchmen, Farmers Urged to Listen To Program Tues.

Two Texans—a West Texas ranchman and an AAA range inspector—will discuss range conservation work on the National Farm and Home Hour on the National Broadcasting System on Tuesdays during the next five weeks, starting March 26 and ending on April 23, according to information released here by the AAA office.

These programs will be of interest to ranchmen and farmers of the county and all are urged to listen to the programs.

They are Walter V. Roy, chairman of the Garza County Agricultural Conservation Association committee, and George Samson, Garza County range inspector, who will go to Washington, D. C., to appear on the national program. Garza County was selected from a long list of Texas counties which had done outstanding work under the range conservation program to portray benefits derived from range improvement practices.

The Garza County program will be one of two on range conservation in a series of fifteen programs on the AAA and conservation entitled "Today's Soil Tomorrow." In the program of the series Administrator R. M. Evans talked, as the final program, Secretary Agriculture Henry A. Wallace will talk. In the remaining programs the participants will be farmers and ranchmen.

Your attention is called to the Garza County program, as well as the other programs in the series, all of which should prove of interest.

The schedule of programs to be given follows:

- March 26, Lime and phosphate for permanent pastures.
April 2, Terracing.
April 9, Range conservation.
April 16, Woodland management.
April 23, Secretary Wallace, "Conservation—Today and Tomorrow."

There is no system in the world that will make a success of one. The habitually careless, thoughtless, indifferent person so because he is too lazy and shiftless to be otherwise.

In Nation's Department of Agriculture

CLAUDE R. WICKARD

GROVER B. HILL

Two dirt farmers, with a combined experience of 54 years of farm operation and leadership, are now in the No. 2 and No. 3 posts of the National Department of Agriculture.

Grover B. Hill, who was named Assistant Secretary of Agriculture in December, has been a Texas rancher and farmer since 1911. Claude R. Wickard, newly appointed Under Secretary of Agriculture, has farmed a general grain and livestock farm near Camden, Ind., for nearly a quarter of a century. Both men have been associated with administrative work of the AAA Farm Program in recent years.

Mr. Hill, 51, was named a field representative of the AAA in 1934, after serving on a committee which drafted the AAA Range Program. Since 1936 he has been in charge of the range program for the Southern Region of the AAA. During the drought of 1934, he directed the regional cattle-buying program in New Mexico, Texas, and Oklahoma. He studied at the University of Texas from 1909 to 1911, after which he went into ranching and farming near Amarillo. The new Under Secretary first became connected with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in 1933 and in 1936 he was made director of the North Central Division of the AAA. As director of the division, which includes the Corn Belt States, Mr. Wickard stressed farm-administration of the AAA. Mr. Wickard, now 47, has operated the same Indiana farm which was farmed by his father and grandfather. He graduated from Purdue University in 1915 and in 1927 was named a Master Farmer of Indiana in recognition of his work as a farm leader and the improved farming practices which he followed.

The Resurrection of Christ

Text.—As he said.—Matthew 28:6.

These are short words—"as he said"—but through them one may see the resurrection of Christ with superior clearness. That outstanding event must be viewed in the light of what He said before it came to pass. Three times before the event Christ said He would be killed and rise again the third day.

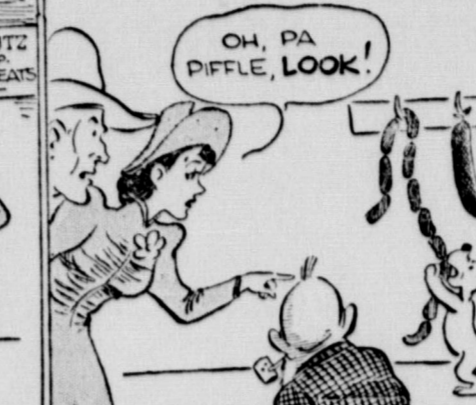

To be killed is more than to faint. To be killed is more than to be in a comatose state, more than to have suspended animation. When the Roman soldier drew the spear from Jesus' side and forthwith there came out blood and water, the act was like trying to heap vengeance upon the dead; but the result was added positiveness to the fact of real death.

Likewise, to rise again from the dead could not mean a phantom exhibit or some spiritual attainment. He said, "I will rise again." If we are to receive the words "as he said," we must include this word "rise." The evidences are indeed many and beyond successful denial. He met the question as to whether He might be exhibiting an apparition by taking food and eating it to them that an apparition would not have flesh and bones as they saw him have. A phantom or spiritual exhibit could not stand in the face of such evidence.

To overcome death, the power of which had survived and wrought through so many ages, we quite agree is not small deed. To exhibit that it is done is miraculous. To have said He would do it, and then to have

First Methodist Church

Jesus took pains on the day of His resurrection to convince His disciples that He was truly alive. His sudden appearance was sufficient cause to awaken fear in their hearts, but, "peace be unto you," gave initial assurance that this One who stood in their midst was no strange specter, but was indeed their Lord. The corruption had put on in corruption, and the mortal had put on in immortality. The Risen Christ is the joyful, vital assurance of the validity of our belief in immortality.

Without this hope the world would be one of darkness and disappointment, and man would be the most miserable person in the world.

On the next Sabbath day, go to church and manifest your hope in the death of resurrection of Christ the Lord.

Show your love for those that you have "loved long since and lost a while." W. B. HICKS, Pastor.

Christian Science Services

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 24, 1940. The Golden Text is: "Lay not made good his statement, that is the account of the resurrection of Christ.

Of the thirty thousand men of soldier age put to death by Pontius Pilate and Titus, not a single one can be named by the most scholarly writers, except Jesus. They were killed, and they entered into impenetrable silence. He was killed and He entered into undeniable prominence. Why? He said He would rise again, and He did rise, "as he said."

"To this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living" (Rom. 14:9). His death and resurrection guarantee the believer's salvation for life or death. Happy the soul that surrenders to this living Lord, saying, "Lord, I believe."

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS JR.

Austin.—The prospect that Vice President John Garner may face a strong fight within his own home state to obtain the support of the Texas delegation to the national Democratic convention next July arose in State political circles this week, as rumors flew rapidly about the state that "draft Roosevelt" third term advocates were preparing to call a meeting and launch the battle. Prominently mentioned as sponsors of the meeting were Tom Miller, Mayor of Austin, a strong Roosevelt supporter, who, since Austin got multiplied millions for Colorado River hydroelectric development, probably would be for Roosevelt to remain in office indefinitely, and Jim Ferguson, the old fox of Texas politics, who has always been a strong Roosevelt partisan. Nucleus of the "draft Roosevelt" organization would be postmasters, other Federal employes numbering into the thousands, (who aren't proposing to take the Hatch law very seriously), and other thousands of WPA, pension, unemployment insurance and other Federal fund beneficiaries. The reports were enough to send the Garner organization workers, Gene Germany, State Democratic committee chairman, and Myron Blalock, co-chairman of the Garner campaign forces, scurrying over the State for hurried conferences.

Will F. D. R. Run?

The O'Daniel controlled State Executive Committee, meeting in Hillsboro, quickly squelched an anti-Garner movement sponsored by two rebel members—Mrs. Frances Haskell Edmondson, of San Antonio, co-chairman of the committee, and O. P. Lockhart of Austin. Mrs. Edmondson had previously endorsed Garner, and announced she would seek to defeat Mrs. Clara Driscoll, of Corpus Christi, as National Committee-woman. But she exercised a woman's privilege and changed her mind. Now she's for Roosevelt for a third term, and will run

Nothing Like Amusing the Day

There is no question of Roosevelt's strength with the masses. But in Texas State conventions, or instruct delegations. The politicians generally do those things, and in Texas the politicians distinctly don't want Roosevelt.

Mann Hits County Officials

Attorney General Gerald Mann, that amazing man who lays down the law and lets the chips fall where they may, held this week that Dallas County is not authorized to purchase automobiles for county commissioners, nor to pay their travel expense while on missions outside the county. Many Texas counties, if this ruling applies generally, have been violating the law. In Dallas County, for instance, a check last winter showed that various members of the County Commissioners' Court made a total of 27 trips to Austin, principally on lobbying errands, during the first four months of the legislative session. It would be interesting to know how many illegally paid for trips the taxpayers financed when the county judges and commissioners moved in on the Legislature to lobby for the County Judges' Road Bond bill, and the Tax Remission bill—the latter declared unconstitutional by Mann and a Court of Civil Appeals—were before the solons.

Spoils System Costs Pile Up

The costly spoils system by which the State government of Texas is run continued to pile up discord and waste of the taxpayers' money this week. Railroad Commissioners Jerry Sadler and Lon Smith, who "cleaned out" employees of the Commission when they formed a "job alliance" after Sadler took office, were appointed to the post of State supervisor in charge of the land oil proration district, charging he accepted a $5,000 bond on a felony conviction in the allowable of $5,000 to recommend a company. The oil company, reported, notified officers solicited, and the money was in marked bills, later alleged have been found in Bigham's session. Sadler is running Governor, and Smith for re-election as Railroad Commissioner.

The sniping warfare between majority of the Board of Control composed of two O'Daniel appointees, and Dr. W. J. Johnson, as superintendent of the Antonio state hospital, continued. The two board members, acting to approve Johnson's resignation, dismissing three more employees held the board must act with personnel changes made with the Superintendent to make effective.

Some observers here the "investigation" of Dr. Johnson by the Board of Control, the row kicked up by Dr. Johnson, of the Liquor Control Board may have some influence on the action of the Senate in continuing these and other O'Daniel appointments next January.

Ex-Attorney General Bill Crow, victim of the four years ago, emerges as an asset in His book, entitled "Professions Politicians," will be out April 1. Texas political circles await it with considerable interest, since O'Daniel labelled Crow "professional" and Bill checked off as "accepted" the title.

WHO'S WHO IN THE FACULTY

Benorita Elena Yeats es la profesora de Espanol. She also teaches bookkeeping and typing. She has been teaching in CHS for one and one-half years. She has blue eyes and brown hair and is 5 ft. 5 in. tall. She likes everything "Spanish," lots of food and smalls and lots of people and things. Her dislikes are noise and having to get up in the morning.

She attended college at Weatherford Jr. College, McMurry, Denison Teachers' College, Canyon, and at the University of Mexico. She has a B. A. degree and will get her M. A. this next summer.

Comments: When you are discouraged, don't let your courage fade; go buy yourself a lemon and make some lemonade. V-e-r-y good!

The students in CHS all love and admire Miss Yeats because—well—just because she's what she is!

They were probably all home soaking their feet in hot water. Maybe that's just a sample of what life's going to be like, kids! What's this we hear about Shorty Roark buying a 14c stamp at some party last week? That must have been some letter, Shorty! But how did the gal enjoy it?

This week-end was just too-oo quiet! (Oh, yeah!) Some of you do something and do it quick! I mean something printable!

Yours till rabbit's eyes turn green!

CAT'S CLAW

Have you heard that Jean Orr and J. T. Hughston, Margaret Shirley and T. L. Owens really went to town on their school work last Friday night? Good work, T. L.—that old saying "if you wish long enough," must be working at last—wish it all the time!

Remember Doris Campbell with J. M. Hill again and we are really proud for you J. M., even if we do wish Blaine Barker well!

Bill, the CHS debaters certainly cannot have had a rollicking good time when they went to Lubbock last week-end. Ask any of them what they did and they can tell you plenty. Say, they won some prizes. Congratulations Virginia Thomas, Joyzell Tysinger, Joe W. Beverly and A. Y. Olds. Keep up the good work.

Jimmie Williams and Bettye Miller certainly made a cute couple at Church Sunday morning. These seniors really worked Sunday. You didn't see very many of them out Saturday night!

JOHN GARNER LEADS PRESIDENTIAL RACE

Texas' distinguished favorite son—John N. Garner, the only Democrat to have announced unqualifiedly that he is a presidential candidate—is today the leading choice of his Party to succeed to the Presidency.

JOHN N. GARNER

Uniformly popular in all sections of the country and among all classes of people, Vice President Garner is esteemed for his sound common sense, practical liberalism, and long experience in governmental affairs. Political observers in Washington agree that these attributes, together with the fact that his sturdy log-cabin Americanism is the nation's best safeguard against involvement in war, are responsible for his popularity among the rank and file of the people.

His name has been submitted directly to voters in a number of state primaries, in accordance with his democratic philosophy that "the people should decide." In announcing his candidacy last December, Mr. Garner said: "I will accept the nomination for President. I will make no effort to control any delegates. The people should decide. The candidate should be selected at primaries and conventions as provided by law and I sincerely trust that all Democrats will participate in them."

Patriotic Texans will attend their own precinct conventions May 4 to record their support of their noted fellow Texan.

Garner long before the New Deal came into power. He has opposed the New Deal only on questions of extravagant spending and its conciliatory attitude toward sit-down strikers.

3. His sturdy log-cabin Americanism is the people's best safeguard against involvement in war. He is a genuine patriot, a believer in George Washington's advice against meddling in foreign disputes.

4. He is a vigorous and rugged personality that inspires confidence. Despite his 70 years, his outdoor life and clean living have kept him verile and alert. Moreover, he is a plain American—a homebody, who has been happily married to a charming and gracious wife for more than 40 years.

These attributes of John Garner's appeal to the best elements in American life, lead political observers to believe that he is the strongest nominee the party could select.

"POPULAR"

Class meetings were held Thursday morning to nominate the most popular (representative) boy and girl from each class. The contest is sponsored by the F. H. T. Club girls and the receipts will go toward sending a representative to the Homemaking Rally in Dallas April 24. It costs a penny to vote and anyone is entitled to vote. Those chosen as the most representative boy and girl from each class were: Senior class, Charlie Clark and Margaret Long; Junior class, Duane Capps and Betty Miller; Sophomore class, Charlie Thompson and Marjorie Davidson; Freshman class, Lowell Campbell and Dovey Barker. Come on students, let's vote for your favorite candidate.

It seems that Joe Wallace Beverly (playboy to you!) has an overwhelming influence over the junior class. He campaigned for Betty Miller and guess what? She got it! Oh, hum! These politicians!

THE BLUEBONNET

(Marjorie Young)
 When April comes the bluebonnet raises its beautiful head to the world. Many have seen this flower, but few know its history.

On March 5, 1901, it was voted the State flower, the bill having been fostered by Lieut. Gov. Barry Miller.

The bluebonnet is to Texas, what the cherry blossom is to Japan.

It has a color and shape not equaled in any other flower and spreads itself over most of Central and Southern Texas.

The original name by which it was known, was Buffalo Clover. Through the efforts of the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts, the seeds are gathered each season and sent to all parts of the world, but it is "Texas" to the last petal and is mingled inseparably with its song and story.

With little care it is easily grown, blooms toward the last of April, and adds charm to any flower garden.

WHY NOT TRY EFFERESCENT NERVE TABLETS

HAVE YOU EVER HAD DAY when you felt tense, irritable, nervous, restless?

Dr. Miles Effervescent Nerve Tablets for Sleeplessness due to Nervousness, Nervous Irritability, Nervous Headache, Excitability and Restlessness. Your very best if you are not easily satisfied.

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES CO.

Our work has just begun

YOU think electric service is a wonderful thing—and it is. It lights our homes. It makes our streets safe at night. Turns wheels in factories. Lifts the burden of housework. Helps make the good things of life cost less.

Really, there doesn't seem much left for electricity to do, does there?

Yet we employees of your electric company believe that every service and comfort electricity now gives you is but a beginning of what's to come.

Why, today we don't even know what electricity is. We simply know and enjoy some of the things it is capable of doing every moment of the day and night. But we also know that there are still a great many undiscovered tasks for electric service.

Who will perform these miracles-to-come?

The men who serve you now—the same great army of skilled technicians, capable managers and loyal employees whose tireless efforts in your behalf have already vastly improved the service your electric company gives you, already drastically reduced its cost.

No, it isn't an accident that electricity has reached its greatest present development in the United States. The reason is that these thousands of men and women in the electrical industry have the American spirit of initiative—the good old-fashioned kind.

Their work, and theirs alone, makes your electric service the best in the world. It's an amazing service. It gets better and better, costs less and less.

Your electric company doesn't often think about the work it has done because it is too busy planning the work that lies ahead.

MORE FOR YOUR MONEY
 In the last 10 to 15 years, the engineering improvements and operating economies of your electric company have made it possible to cut the average price of household electricity just about in half. Many customers now using more household appliances, lots of light, a radio, and refrigerator pay very little more to operate all of these than they used to pay for light alone.

Miss Flesher baked the bride's cake. It was a four-tier cake, decorated very beautifully with

P. T. A. MEETING

At the March meeting of the local P. T. A. on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. I. T. Graves was in charge of a program in which two readings and an octet of girls were the feature numbers. A reading was given by Margaret Davis and also by Alton Reeder Griffin. In gypsy costume, eight girls sang a clever song. They were, Mary Evelyn Edwards, Wanda B. Evans, Evelyn Jean Scales, Evelyn Flesher, Joyzelle Tysinger, Wanda B. Ketchersid, Betty Jo Zeibig and Bonita Liles. They were accompanied at the piano by Dorothy Winningham.

Mrs. C. W. Thompson reviewed an article from National Parent-Teacher, "Jack and Jill."

Mrs. Tanner Billington presided over the business session. In the count of mothers, Mrs. Floyd Thomas' room received the prize for the primary department, Miss Anne Lee Long's in the Intermediate department and the Freshman class in High School.

The nominating committee submitted the names of officers for next year. Their report was accepted and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Frank Flesher, president; Mrs. Gordon Bell, vice president; Mrs. Jno. Raso, secretary, and Mrs. Lewis Ballard, treasurer.

The Intermediate mothers served punch and cookies to the large number present.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

The Adelpian Club met on March 13 and enjoyed a splendid program on scenic waterways of the United States. Mrs. W. B. Johnson led the program and stated that the study would be on the three most important rivers in the United States.

Mrs. Henry Borchardt gave the Hudson River, saying it was the most beautiful one of all and was the ideal vacation spot.

Mrs. W. A. Dunn, accompanied at the piano by Miss Anne Lee Long, sang "Where the Silver Colorado Winds Its Way," and "Beautiful Ohio."

Mrs. A. Y. Beverly described the Colorado River, saying that this river, instead of being noted for its beauty, was important in that it had been such a help to mankind. She gave a very good description of the Boulder Dam and the Grand Canyon.

Mrs. Johnson told about the Columbia River and the country through which it flows. She told of the beauties of the states of Washington and Oregon and of the Coulee Dam that is under construction and that will be such a great help to the people in the eastern part of these two states.

Mrs. Geo. Self was hostess and served a delicious refreshment plate from the lace covered table, with the St. Patrick motif prevailing.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

Mrs. Hines Clark was hostess to the Columbian Club on Wednesday, March 13.

Mrs. Grady Halbert was leader of an instructive lesson on the Government giving "Our Common Ideals," which are ideals of justice and law.

"The Bill of Rights—What It Means to America," was reviewed by Mrs. J. S. Ray. "Later Amendments—When Passed and Why," was discussed by Mrs. T. B. Klepper.

The hostess passed dainty refreshment plates carrying the St. Patrick motif and color, to members and two guests, Mrs. W. B. Hicks and Miss Ida Richardson.

The club voted to have a bakery sale next Saturday morning, March 23, in the building formerly occupied by Self Dry Goods Company.

HARMONY CLUB

Miss Anne Lee Long and Mrs. W. B. Fitzgerald were hostesses to the Harmony Club members and one guest, Mrs. Jno. E. Long, Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Long.

The program was a combination of two programs, since the February meeting was attended by such a small number on account of bad weather that no program was given at the time. This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Beverly with Mrs. Alva Spencer as co-hostess.

Mrs. Ernest King was leader of the March program. Mrs. Clint White reviewed articles from the Music Magazine. Mrs. Leon Solomon told the story of the writing of "My Old Kentucky Home" by Stephen C. Foster. The song was sung as a duet by Miss Mary Ragland Thompson and Mrs. T. B. Klepper, accompanied by Mrs. Arnold Rucker. Evelyn Jean Scales sang "Texas, Pride of the South." She was accompanied by Miss Anne Lee Long. Mrs. W. A. Dunn sang "Have You Ever Been to Texas in the Spring?"

A delicious refreshment plate was served by the hostesses.

VIVIAN H. D. CLUB

A very enjoyable day was spent by the Vivian H. D. Club with Mrs. Roy Young, Thursday, March 14.

Since Miss Joellene Vannoy, home demonstration agent, could not be present, no demonstration was given.

The club voted to put on a play to help replenish the treasury.

There were 13 members and three visitors, Mesdames H. Young, Arthur Walling and Miss Mildred Fish, present.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Charlie Beatty Thursday, March 28. "Planning the Farmstead" will be the demonstration.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

"In laying out a farmstead plan, the route to be traveled in doing the chores should be borne in mind," Miss Joellene Vannoy, county home demonstration agent, told the ladies of the West Side Club when they met with Mrs. Vera Butler on March 13.

"The buildings should be so placed that in performing the routine work unnecessary walking is avoided. A farmer's time is valuable. If the average farmer were told that some time during the year he would find it necessary to take a trip of 150 to 200 miles and that he would have to walk all the way carrying feed or milk or harness he would declare that he would not have the time. Yet many farmers are walking that distance over and above the amount that would be necessary in performing routine work were their buildings efficiently arranged," Miss Vannoy continued.

Mrs. C. F. Hunter, Mrs. Tom Patton and Mrs. Milton Hunter and Patsy were visitors.

The club will meet on March 27 with Mrs. W. A. Cogdell as hostess.

MARGARET 4-H CLUB

"Always place all of the pattern on the material before cutting any of it," said Miss Joellene Vannoy, Foard County home demonstration agent, to the members of the Margaret 4-H Club at the meeting held in the school building on Friday, March 15.

When placing a pattern on the material, it is best to follow the directions which come with the pattern, because it saves the time of cutting out and the possible chance of making an error. Another point brought out by Miss Vannoy was to place the pattern on the material in such a manner to be certain of having enough material to cut all pieces.

Eight members and the agent were present for the meeting.

The next meeting of the club will be on March 22 and the topic of the study will concern poultry houses.

THALIA 4-H CLUB

A pair of lounging pajamas and several dresses were cut out at the Thalia Girls' 4-H Club which was held at the school house on March 13.

Many pretty prints and patterns were selected by the girls to make their dresses.

The next meeting will be March

27 at the school house and the demonstration will be on poultry houses that chickens like.

4-H CLUB NO. 2

The meeting of the Second 4-H Club was held Monday, March 11, in Miss Black's room at 1:30 p. m. Miss Joellene Vannoy helped Ann Favor cut out a house coat. The girls were taught how to use a pattern.

The report of the social committee was given and it was decided to go on a hike to North Pocket Park Saturday morning, March 16.

The next meeting will be in Miss Black's room from 1:30 to 2:15 p. m.

ROTARY CLUB

The program for the Crowell Rotary Club at its meeting Wednesday at noon was in charge of Leslie Thomas. The first number on the program was a selection of vocal duets rendered by A. C. and Kenneth Payne of Margaret without accompaniment.

The balance of the program was given by students of the speech department of the Crowell schools under the direction of Mrs. I. T. Graves, instructor. Alton Reeder Griffin gave a reading which was followed by a gypsy song and dance by eight girls as follows: Evelyn Jean Scales, Joyzelle Tysinger, Evelyn Flesher, Evelyn Edwards, Bonita Liles, Wanda B. Evans, Wanda Ketchersid and Bettie Jo Zeibig, with Miss Dorothy Winningham playing the piano accompaniment. The program was closed with declamations by Billy Scott Bruce and John Thomas Raso.

Rotarian Leonard Holt of Quanah was a visitor.

CONVENTION DATES SET

Abilene.—Dates for the 1940 convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce have been set as May 13, 14 and 15. West Texans will gather in Big Spring on those dates for the 22nd annual convention of the regional organization.

Preliminary plans for the event were discussed at a recent meeting of Big Spring Chamber of Commerce representatives and WTCC officials.

"Americanization" will be one of the central themes of the 1940 convention. The country's youth will participate through the cooperation of the Boy Scouts of America in an "Americanization parade," E. K. Fawcett, Del Rio, WTCC president, and a Scout leader for many years, made this suggestion several weeks ago and is calling upon area Boy Scout councils all over the West Texas territory to co-operate.

Second annual meeting of the Freight Rate Equality Federation, statewide organization sponsored by the WTCC to seek parity in freight rates for Texas, will be held during the convention.

The freight rate topic will be one of the principal discussions of the convention. J. M. Willson, Floydada, is president of the FREF, which has a membership of 130 affiliated organizations.

Shelterbelt Crews Plant Over 40,000 Trees Each Day

Special to The News.

Wichita Falls, March 6.—Over 40,000 trees a day are being planted by 25 Texas shelterbelt crews, State Director W. E. Webb of the Prairie States Forestry Project, reported after a check-up of the field records. The last load of over 5,000,000 trees raised at the Plainview Shelterbelt Nursery will be moved to storage places in the field by March 15.

Some trees are stored in the ground at "heel-in" beds centrally located in the planting areas. There are thirteen such heel-in areas in Northwest Texas. In addition to these heel-in beds a large number of trees will be kept in cold storage to prevent premature growth as a result of the warm weather now in progress. One of the principal worries of the shelterbelt foresters is to keep the trees from growing before they are planted in shelterbelts. It is for this reason the trees are being stored for late March and April planting in cold storage plants.

The peak of the planting season is here. The end of the 1940 tree planting season will be over in three or four weeks. With the same good cultivation given the row crops, it will not be more than three or four years before these young trees will be doing their part in taming the wind.

Miss Gladys Moore, sister of Mrs. Jim Cates of Crowell, announces the formal opening of a new beauty shop, Gladys Moore Beauty Service, in Lubbock today, March 21. The shop is located at 1413 Avenue Q.

Miss Moore is well known in Crowell and had operated a beauty shop in Vernon for many years.
