National Emergency Proclaimed By President Roosevelt In World-Wide Broadcast From White House

Radio broadcast Tuesday President Roosevelt proclaimed the existence of a "national emergency" and the world that the United States would do everything in its power to maintain the peace of the seas and supply to England and any other country which would resist the demands of the Axis powers.

The president told that the Axis "supreme purpose" was to obtain control of the seas, thus winning "the power to dictate to the Americas." "If the Axis powers fail to gain control of the seas, they are certainly defeated. Their dreams of world domination will then go by the board; and the criminal leaders who started this war will suffer inevitable defeat."

The high points in the national policy as outlined by the President were that "we shall actively resist wherever necessary and with all our resources, every attempt by Hitler to extend his Nazi domination to the Western Hemisphere, or to threaten it;" "to actively resist his every effort to gain control of the seas;" and to "give every possible assistance to Britain and all who, with Britain, are resisting Hitlerism or its equivalent with force of arms."

Damage to 1941 Wheat Crop Set At 50 Per Cent

Grain Suffers from Worms, Rains, Wind In Past Three Weeks

Wheat and other small grain in Foard County has been damaged approximately fifty per cent by worms, rain and wind during the past three weeks, according to an estimate released Tuesday by County Farm Agent John Nagy, who has been receiving damage reports from farmers in all sections of the county.

First damage was done to the grain, which had the prospects of being the best crop in the history of the county, by the army worms which struck the grain about three weeks ago. They are still eating late wheat, but the kernels of the early wheat have become too hard for them to damage.

Continued rains caused a rapid growth of the stalks and heads. High winds and accompanying rains have beaten the weak stalks to the extent that a great amount of wheat has been blown down. Some damage from rust was reported earlier in the season.

Farmers of the county reported Tuesday that wheat had been twisted and blown down so badly that a great percentage of it will be left in the field in spite of all efforts which can be made to pick it up during harvest.

Fighting of the army worms was started shortly after their appearance in the grain, but efforts in this line were greatly hampered by rains. About 50,000 pounds of poison bait was issued to wheat farmers from the local station in their fight against the pests. The poison was scattered in the fields but was ruined by water.

Minors Warned Not to Drive Motor Vehicles

A warning to parents who allow children who are minors to drive cars was issued here this week by the State Highway Patrolmen.

The patrolmen pointed out that under the law a child under 16 years of age may not drive an automobile and that all drivers, including minors over 16 years of age, must have an operator's license. The new drivers' law passed recently by the Texas Legislature is even more strict in regard to minors, they said, as parents are criminally liable if a minor is arrested for driving.

All children under 16 years and all minors not having driver's licenses caught driving a car, and their parents, will be subject to prosecution.

The patrolmen also pointed out the broader meaning of commercial operator under the new law. Now a commercial operator is a person who delivers or hauls property, regardless of ownership of property or vehicle, and must have a commercial license. A commercial license, of which the cost is $1.00, will allow a person to operate every type of vehicle for any purpose except hauling passengers for hire.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the barn on the farm of Cecil Dunn in the Good Creek community at an early hour Wednesday. Contents of the barn which included a tractor, feed, cotton seed, two saddles and harness, and a sow, were also destroyed.

Seven cows in a pen adjoining the barn broke down the fence and escaped injury. In rescuing a young calf from the pen, Mrs. Dunn received slight burns on her face and one of her eyes was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn had only recently moved to this farm, having bought it from P. M. Hinkle. A small amount of insurance was carried on the barn, but the tractor and other contents were not insured.

President Signs New Wheat Crop Loan Bill Monday

Bill Calls for Loan Value 1941 Wheat At 85 Per Ct. Parity

A new law concerning the wheat marketing quota and loan value of 1941 wheat went into effect Monday after being signed by President Roosevelt following its acceptance in both houses of Congress by large majorities last week, according to a telegram received Tuesday morning by A. V. Sheppard, secretary of the Foard County Agriculture Conservation Association.

Below are listed the differences in the new and old laws: Under the new law which went into effect in Foard County Tuesday morning, a producer can sell all wheat without penalty at the price supported by the loan program and all wheat produced on farm up to the farm marketing quota. The number of bushels of wheat on which the penalty will be collected will be the excess acreage times the normal or actual yield, whichever is the smaller.

Under the old law, which is now void, the farm marketing quota was determined by the farm acreage allotment times the normal or actual yield, whichever was the greater, and the 15c per bushel penalty was determined by any wheat produced above the farm marketing quota.

1941 Wheat Harvest Opened Here; Over 500,000 Bushels Expected

The 1941 wheat harvest was opened on Monday afternoon when the first load of wheat was received by the Farmers' Elevator from Hiram Gray. Since that time there have been a few combines start harvesting in various sections of the county.

The first load of wheat consisted of 119 bushels and tested 61 pounds per bushel, however, the grain had a high moisture content. The wheat was threshed on Mr. Gray's farm west of Thalia.

The first load of wheat received by the Foard County Mill was from A. B. Bell Wednesday afternoon. The load contained 109 bushels and tested 62 pounds.

Half Million Bushels Predicted Wheat and elevator men of the county predict that a little more than a half million bushels of wheat will be harvested in Foard County this season in spite of an estimated 50 per cent crop damage by worms, rain and wind. This would give the county a little more than 10 bushels per acre, as information from the county agent's office places the planted acreage in the county at 51,000 acres.

Wheat has been coming in to the elevators here since Monday, but all of the grain still contains too much moisture to be stored. Farmers are asked not to cut their grain until it is ripe enough and dry enough to be handled by the elevators.

July 1 Second Registration Day

Tuesday, July 1, has been designated by President Roosevelt as the second registration day for men for military service under the Selective Service Act in the United States. It is estimated that one million men who have reached their 21st birthday since Oct. 21, 1940, or will have reached that age before July 1, will sign up on that day.

The men will receive registration numbers when they sign up and their names will go to the bottom of the order list, however, it is possible that a man may be called within a few months after the registration day in spite of the fact that he is at the bottom of the list.

Further details will be released by the local board at a later date.

Organized Efforts Made to Fight Nazi Gestapo In America

Kansas City, Mo., May 19. (Special)—With the ringing challenge, "We can do plenty about the Nazi Gestapo in America," Friends of Democracy this week published a spine-chilling document on the activities, here and abroad, of Hitler's secret police. This 32-page document, released for publication here simultaneously with its release at New York, is the first detailed exposure given Americans of the creeping organization in the United States of the dread Gestapo, L. M. Birkhead, national director, said to newspapermen this week. Besides citing chapter and verse of the Nazi Gestapo's infiltration into many walks of American life, the document of Friends of Democracy treats photographically and textually with the "Gestapo Scourge in Germany" and its terrorists acts in the "blitzed" countries of Europe. "Nazism and the Gestapo are interchangeable terms," National Director Birkhead told newspaper men at national headquarters here. "Friends of Democracy is convinced that these revelations will unite Americans to fight Nazism wherever its viciousness appears, so that never again can Gestapo terrorism take root in this land of freedom. "Wherever Hitler's gray-green lightning goose-step triumphantly in the conquered countries of Europe, the road to treachery has been prepared by the Gestapo. "Under the leadership of Heinrich Himmler, the Gestapo has become the most destructive agency in the world. Himmler's agents are the tentacles of the Nazi octopus reaching out and enslaving the world." The document, distributed nationwide by Friends of Democracy, contains candid-camera shots of Gestapo mass executions in Europe, and facsimile reproductions of Gestapo commands to agents abroad, including those in "key" positions, "immediately menacing the security of this land of free people." The graphic exposure concludes with the militant warning that "we Americans must offer all of our strength, all our resources, to the forces of freedom now fighting Nazism and the paralyzing terrors of Gestapoism. This means all-out aid to Britain now."

Campaign Started to Raise Funds for Welfare Facilities

Dallas, May 18.—The United States Service Organizations campaign to raise funds to provide recreational and welfare facilities for our soldiers, sailors, and defense workers is "a vital and essential part of our national defense program," E. B. Germany of Dallas, regional and state chairman of the drive, declared Sunday afternoon in a state-wide broadcast over the Texas Quality Network. Officially opening the Texas campaign, which is calculated to raise $400,000 as the state's quota of the $10,765,000 sought nationally, Mr. Germany described the U. S. O. undertaking as a non-political, non-profit, and non-sectarian movement which has for its purpose "the development and inauguration of our national morale." The United Service Organizations for National Defense, Germany explained, was formed and incorporated by six leading social welfare organizations at the specific request of President Roosevelt and the Secretaries of War and the Navy, in order that private welfare activities might supplement and be co-ordinated with those of the Federal Government. The organizations comprising the U. S. O. are the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association,

Local Boards Not to Induct Men Useful for Defense At Own Job

General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, today urged the co-operation of all Texas local boards to make certain that no man is called for direct military training who is more useful for national defense in his civilian occupation.

Stressing the need for this careful selection, General Page called attention to the recent announcement by National Selective Service Headquarters that the Office of Production Management and other national defense agencies report increasing shortages not only of skilled workers but also in vital professions. He cautioned local boards against calling men needed in factory or field and concerning the necessity of maintaining an adequate reservoir of professional and technical specialists by permitting promising students to complete professional training.

"While the recruitment of a large peacetime Army is essential to national defense," General Page said, "it is equally important that there be no interference with the production of defense supplies and material. We must arm, feed and clothe the military forces of democracy and we must also maintain the morale of the civilian population by protecting public health and general welfare. To do this, we must make careful and intelligent investigation of every registrant to be sure in each case that a call to military training will not interfere with equally important civilian work for national defense."

Selective Service regulations with respect to occupational deferments, General Page declared, have the purpose of guiding local boards to three major results: (1) Prevention of avoidable shortages of necessary workers in the national industrial training program by deferment of individuals when there is evidence that they are "in training or preparation" for an occupation or employment necessary to the maintenance of "national health, safety, or interest," and (3) Anticipation of possible exhaustion of pools of highly skilled workers not now employed in defense activities but probably necessary in the near future for expansion of defense production, when such men "but for a seasonal or temporary interruption would be engaged in such defense activity."

Intelligent deferment of registrants

trants must also include students in certain specialized professional and technical fields, General Page declared. He pointed out that recent studies made by the Office of Production Management have shown the supply of manpower is either "dangerously low," or there are indications of shortages in the near future in seventeen professional and technical fields.

The eight in which the more critical situation exists are: Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Chemical Engineering, Mining and Metallurgical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Chemistry, Medicine and Dentistry. The other nine are: Agricultural Engineering, Sanitary Engineering, Pharmacy, Physics, Biology and Bacteriology, and four branches of Geology (Geophysics, Meteorology, Hydrology, and Cartography).

Students in these fields should be deferred, General Page said, "so long as they continue to be necessary men in preparation or training for activities necessary to national interest. Such deferments, he emphasized, must be made individually under the "necessary man" provisions of Selective Service regulations and should include students who have been deferred until next July 1, as well as those still to be classified.

Citing these needs for occupational deferments to safeguard national defense production, General Page also stressed the fundamental fact that the Selective Training and Service Act absolutely prohibits any class or group deferment. He said:

"The local board has full authority and responsibility, subject to appeal, for deciding whether or not a registrant is a necessary man and whether he should be selected or deferred. It must consider all the evidence submitted in connection with each individual case and must decide each case on its particular merits."

Every student coming within the purview of the "necessary man" deferment policy should immediately get into the hands of his local board the "Student Statement of Information" and "Affidavit of the College or University," which are necessary to the boards in making proper classification, General Page said.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

(By Boyce House)

The King Ranch must be the center of the world because it is as flat as a floor and the sky comes down at an equal distance all around. Its vastness offers a series of pictures as one traverses it.

Over there is the Santa Gertrudis ranch house (which can be seen from the highway)—a grand old building with a castle-like tower. Yonder is a Mexican cowboy who barely leans over to unfasten a gate without leaving the saddle. Here is a pasture filled with cattle of the Santa Gertrudis breed—animals of maroon hue with a splash of white on the face, and a hump on the shoulders, (a reminder of the blood of the Brahma cattle from India), and with broad, table-like backs. They look as sleek as contenders for the championships in the judging at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show.

Many of the Mexicans are members of families that have lived on the ranch for four or five generations. A contrast is furnished by two of these—fat George Garcia, with gray mustache, who moves with dignity; and wiry little Maurelio, a lad of not more than 10, who is as much at home on a horse as a Hawaiian youngster is in the water—and he has been ever since he was 5 and used to shimmy up into the saddle by the extensive use of his toes. In fact, when Trainer Egan gave Maurelio his first pair of shoes, the boy had to develop a new technique.

But there he is on a well-trained pony whose presence helps to reassure the high-strung young thoroughbreds that are being taught how to enter the starting-gate and how to go from the post at full speed, preparatory to carrying the King Ranch colors on tracks in California, Florida and elsewhere—but, of course, not in Texas because the law bars races here.

FOUGHT WITH PISTOLS

Austin, May 12.—In early Texas history, legislators weren't content to shout angry words at each other across the halls of state, but preferred to fight it out with pistols and fists.

Records in the University of Texas library—being studied by William Hogan a graduate student from University La.—reveal at least five fights occurred between law-makers during the Texas Republic.

The University of Louisiana historian said one day a shooting between two congressmen took place on the very steps of the Texas capitol—all over a matter of legislative policy.

On several occasions Hogan said the House adjourned to watch fights between legislators taking place on the capitol lawn.

All but three of Texas' 254 counties now have oil or gas production or exploration.

two smaller rooms, 20x30 feet, available for entertaining friends and relatives and for small group meetings. A ladies parlor 16x16 also will be included, where mothers, wives and sweethearts of service men may relax and make needed repairs.

At the far end of the lounge will be the entrance to a large social hall, dimensions of which will vary according to the needs of the community. This room will be a minimum size of 45x70 feet, and will have reading, writing, game and social facilities. It also will be equipped with folding chairs so that it may be utilized for group activities, entertainments and dramatics.

In certain localities where there is a need for sleeping accommodations over week-ends, cots will be provided to be set up in these larger rooms where service men may spend the night. Attractive furniture of modern design will be used throughout the buildings.

Wherever necessary office accommodations for the six participating agencies will be provided, and every unit will have ample office space for administrative purposes. Under certain emergency conditions similar clubs are to be provided for defense workers, including girls and women.

The cost of construction of these proposed units will be borne by the government, but operating costs will be carried by the United States Service Organizations.

More than 360 of the units will be built.

The 13th congressional district's quota of this amount is $14,940.

The War Department will make religious worship available to all soldiers in all its training camps. Instead of the plan used in the last war of conducting religious services in recreation rooms and mess halls, churches designed like a typical country church with slant roof and steeple will be built at a cost of $21,220 each. Each camp will have one church to each regiment. The churches will seat 400, have a balcony and electric organ. Catholic, Protestant and Jewish clergymen will take turns using them.

The Golden Text is: "There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord" (Proverbs 21:30).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do; and the God of peace shall be with you" (Philippians 4:9).

Christianity is the only religion which bases its claims upon the resurrection of its founder. The resurrection of Christ was His crowning miracle, the central and sufficient credential of His Messiahship.

The empty tomb which the disciples found has no other real explanation than that given in the Bible by His followers. Sunday, as every one knows, was not the original Sabbath to which the Jews clung to loyally.

The resurrection of Christ assures us of His acceptance with God. "He was delivered for our offenses, and raised again for our justification" (Rom. 4:25).

Full Equipment Swims to Harden 'Tommy'

Officers and non-commissioned officers of the British army are shown somewhere in England, in the most strenuous part of their "hardening" course. At the top, a detail of men takes a swim with full equipment. Below, the men with rifles strapped to their backs and in full kit clamber from the water after their chilly dip.

God is concerned about our welfare and we believe that He is. He will not permit to be thwarted plans that are for our best interest. If our plans do fail to materialize through no fault of our own, God has something better in store for us and in His own time will bring it to pass. We should not grieve because of such disappointments, but work with faith and wait obediently on His will.

Two Minute Sermon
(By Thomas Hestwood)

Work and Wait With Faith: I was talking recently with a man who was bitterly disappointed and discouraged because certain of his plans did not work out as he had hoped that they would. He talked as though he felt that the reversal of his plans would upset his whole scheme of life and that nothing could happen that would right things again. I cite the instance because it represents the common reaction that men and women have to such disappointments and such thwarting of their plans. This attitude results in a great deal of unhappiness among people of the world. I have often seen people who professed to have faith that God was looking after their welfare, and would provide the best for them, show the same degree of disappointment and discouragement that this individual showed, when their plans did not materialize. Such attitudes are not in harmony, if
