Gerald Mann Outlines Senatorial Platform In Crowell Tuesday

Vigorously condemning strikes in defense industries, Attorney General Gerald C. Mann told a large crowd of voters here Tuesday afternoon that "We must have action in stopping them."

Speaking in the interest of his candidacy for the United States Senate, Mann added: "Strikes in defense industries must be stopped. They imperil the freedom which has made it possible to strike. A defense strike is a blow at democracy."

Mann outlined in detail a bill he proposes to introduce immediately in the senate which will "deal effectively" with strikes in industries producing defense material. Under the bill, work stoppage is eliminated, but labor is insured fair wages and guaranteed the right to bargain collectively. Declaring that a public office and the influence and publicity that goes with it should not be capitalized on for the purpose of making money, Gerald Mann has turned over to the press copies of his 1939 and 1940 income tax returns showing that the total income for those years consisted only of his salary as Attorney General, fixed by law.

Last Rites Will Be Held at 10 o'Clock This Morning

J. M. Glover, 74, resident of the Foard City community since the fall of 1908, passed away at his home in that community Tuesday evening at 8:15. He had been in ill health for several years, but his condition became critical about ten days ago.

Funeral services for Mr. Glover will be held in the Foard City Church this morning at 10 o'clock with Rev. I. T. Huckabee, pastor of the Truscott-Foard City Methodist Churches, officiating. Burial will be in the Crowell Cemetery and arrangements will be under the supervision of Womack Funeral Home.

Mr. Glover was born Jan. 27, 1867, on a farm near Jackson, Madison County, Tenn., where he grew to manhood. He came to Texas in September, 1890, to visit his brother, the late John L. Glover, who lived in Williamson County near Taylor. In December, 1891, he was married to Miss Della Rader of Georgetown and they went to the old home in Tennessee and lived until 1897 when they returned to Williamson County. In 1902 when the Indian Territory was thrown open for agricultural purposes they went there "in the rush." Mr. Glover leased land near Okmulgee and lived there six years and during this time the Indian Territory became a part of the state of Oklahoma.

Filling a life-long desire to live in Texas, Mr. Glover and his wife returned to Foard County in the fall of 1908 and bought a farm in the Foard City community and built a home where he reared his family. Mr. Glover died in May, 1930.

In September, 1931, he was married to Miss Bess Toombs in Tennessee.

Reduction Made In Delinquent Tax Payments

Property owners of Foard County who are assessed with delinquent state and county taxes will be given the opportunity to save from 14 to 40 per cent by paying them during the next few weeks, according to County Attorney Foster Davis.

All persons owing delinquent taxes are urged to take advantage of this opportunity. A bill was recently passed by the Legislature remitting penalty and interest on taxes and providing for a flat rate of 6 per cent interest if delinquent taxes are paid in full on lot, block or tract of land.

This ruling will be in effect until Nov. 1, 1941, unless it should be declared unconstitutional, according to Mr. Davis. Payment of delinquent taxes now will save taxpayers much money.

SAFETY SLOGANS

Play safe day after day, and keep the doctor and nurses away. Little microbes grow into big infections.

Form the habit of carefulness instead of carelessness. Am I as careful as I can be?

Picnic fires are lots of fun, but put them out when you are done. Luck may live with you for many years, or it may desert you today. Don't count on it.

A thousand homes can be destroyed by a single match. The most valuable man is the careful man.

Practice safety for yourself, others will follow you. Before you go—stop and know. An accident maker is the chance taker.

A careful habit is the best body guard. Playing safe beats playing a harp.

You pay most for safety when you try to get along without it. Better be fired with enthusiasm for safety, than fired for recklessness.

Pour oil on troubled waters but never on your fire. A right act strikes a chord that extends through the universe, touches all moral intelligence, visits every world, vibrates along its whole extent, and conveys its vibrations to the bosom of God!

Binney. Do the truth you know and you shall learn the truth you need to know—George Macdonald.

"All is of God that is and is to be; and God is good." Let this suffice us still, resting in childlike trust upon His will who moves to His great ends unthwarted by the ill."—Cawper.

How do you regard safety? There is no romance in court-judging disaster.

A tree will make a million matches. One match will start a fire which destroys a million trees. Better wait than weep.

Careless habits will ruin your life. Don't stop thinking, but stop and think.

You won't have to hurry if you start early. Preventing fires the year around, reduces fire in your town.

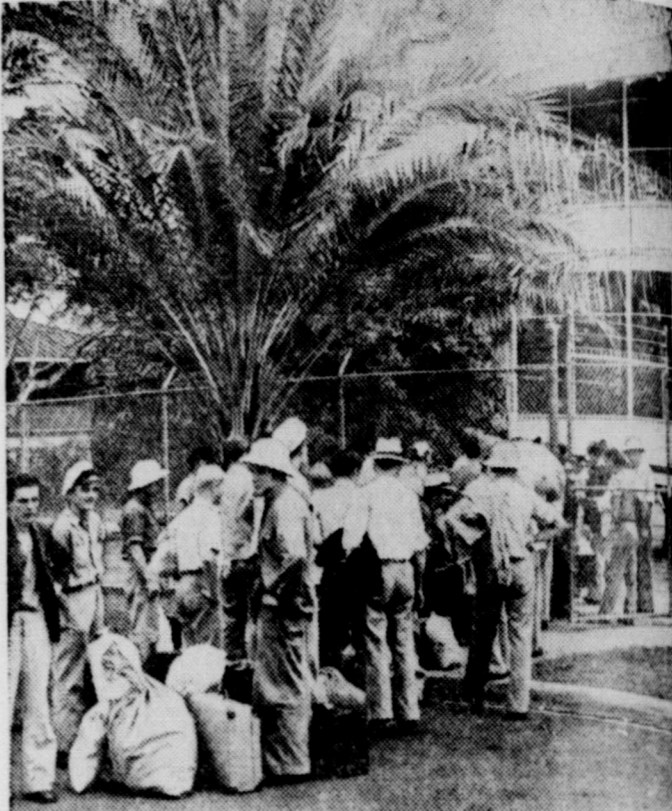

THOUGHTS OF SERIOUS MOMENTS

Everybody finds out, sooner or later, that all success worth having is founded on Christian rules of conduct.—Henry Martyn Field.

We can do anything we want to do if we stick to it long enough.—Helen Keller.

COTTON CLASSING SCHOOL

Lubbock, June 9.—As a service to the ginning and cotton trades of West Texas, a two to three weeks course in cotton classing is offered during June or July each summer by the Textile Engineering department of Texas Technological College. Cotton classing based on the Universal Standards is taught both for beginners and for experienced cotton classers. Usually the course is conducted by a representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, who, at the close of the school, may give an examination for a government license for students with sufficient commercial experience.

Some of the vegetables that should be in every garden this summer are: okra, cream peas, butter beans, tomatoes, green beans of the pole type, shallot onions, green pepper, egg plant and New Zealand spinach. In the field plant cushaws, pumpkins, and winter squash.

Two Minute Sermon
(By Thomas Hastwell)

When One's Spiritual Battery Is Down: I talked recently with a man who was deeply disturbed over the fact that he was about to lose his position. His worry not only unfitted him for his work, but unfitted him for seeking a new position. I asked him why he did not try praying about it. "I've tried that," he said, "many times, but it doesn't help me. I can't seem to get the help I need and must have from it." The incident reminded me of one morning recently when I went out to start my car. It was a cold morning and the battery would not turn over the engine. I had to have the battery recharged before I could start the car. Prayer is like that. Unless an individual builds up his spiritual faith in advance he cannot expect to turn to it when the need is great. The secret of prayer never learns the individual who never learns the secret of prayer when emergency and need comes finds himself like my car battery on the cold morning, too low in spiritual energy to lift himself out of his problems.

Mann

Official is public business and for that reason I pledge that for so long as I am United States Senator from Texas, when I file my income tax return each year, I shall at the same time file with the Secretary of State at Austin a copy of those income tax returns, where they will become public records open to public inspection at all times. "The lines of this campaign now have been definitely drawn," he continued. "The race has narrowed down to a contest between Gerald C. Mann and the Governor of Texas. If I more typify those things which you want in your United States Senator I hope that you will join hands with other friends of Gerald C. Mann in every town and county in the state in this campaign."

Mann advocates raising the base pay of the soldier from $21 to $40 per month, the increase to be placed in a federal savings account for the soldier until he is mustered out of the service. Declaring there must be no weak links in our total national preparedness, the able, energetic attorney general said the needy aged must be cared for and the farmer and ranchman taken into consideration. "Old age assistance by a system of federal matching has become a federal question," Mann said. "When elected United States senator I shall support legislation providing equal, uniform assistance to all the needy aged and let the federal government see to it that such a law is efficiently administered, justly construed and fairly applied. "There cannot be a sound national economy until the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar is put on a par with that of the other man," the speaker continued. "So long as our infant industries which have grown into giants are protected, so must our farmers and ranchmen be protected. Too long have they been forced to buy on a protected market and sell on an unprotected market. Thirty-five years ago one bale of cotton would have bought a good wagon. Today it would take three bales. As United States senator I shall favor continued federal aid to our farmers and ranchmen. Mann has scheduled an average of eight speeches a day in the closing days of the campaign on a state-wide tour patterned after his campaign of three years ago when his smashing victory for the attorney generalship wrote political history in Texas. In the Ford Rouge River plant a run lasting 746 24-hour days was recently completed on a continuous glass making machine. During the time 2,345 miles of glass, 51 inches wide was produced. More than 100,000 public buildings and 565,000 miles of roads have been built or improved by WPA workers during the five and one-half years of its operation. This is equivalent to 180 miles of road and nine new buildings in every county of the United States. Dairy specialists say that a cow producing about 24 pounds of milk per day is now selling in Texas for $75 or more. Four out of every ten persons in leading Texas cities depend upon the petroleum industry's payrolls for a living. More than 90 per cent of all oil wells in North Texas are small pumps.

American Highway Tourists Will Spend 5 or 6 Billion Dollars

The 3,065,000 miles of highways in America, upon which virtually "one-third of a nation" will travel on vacation jaunts this summer, play a second vital role as the arteries of a vast dollar flow from section to section, state to state, coast to coast. American highway tourists will spend between five and six billion dollars for vacation tours this year, according to estimates of travel bureau experts. By U. S. estimate, approximately half the 27,300,000 cars registered in the country will carry their owners on summer jaunts averaging 3,300 miles—a greater distance than from the Atlantic to the Pacific. With an average of 3.5 persons per car, this represents some 47,775,000 Americans en route over the highways. Virtually every fourth car on the road today is a Chevrolet, according to William E. Holler, Chevrolet general sales manager, who has sold a million cars a year during the seven years he has held that position. "Assuming that Chevrolet owners are represented among the summer tourists only a proportion to the number of Chevrolets as compared with all other makes," he said, "by the law of averages, Chevrolet owners will spend more than a billion dollars on summer vacations. "While some areas are distinctly 'tourist country,' they are not the only regions to profit from tourist travel," Mr. Holler said. "And, peculiarly enough, recreation is far from the largest single item of expenditure on the tourist's budget. Actually, travelers spend 25 per cent of their vacation allowance in retail stores. A total of 21 per cent is spent in hotel dining rooms, restaurants, and roadside dining places. Twenty per cent goes to hotels, tourist camps, tourist homes and for other accommodations. Another 20 per cent is required for gas, oil, repairs and garaging of the car. Only eight per cent is spent on recreation, with a final six per cent allotted to refreshments, soft drinks, hot dogs, and what have you. "But the important single thing to remember about this billion dollars Chevrolet owners will spend this summer is the broad spreading of funds that it represents. Some 20,000 hotels, in all sections of the country, 15,000 tourist camps, 200,000 tourist homes, and 325,000 gasoline stations—not to mention the retail stores, restaurants, souvenir shops, etc., will share this huge disbursement. "Since approximately 85 per cent of vacation travel is by motor car, thousands of communities off the beaten path receive a portion of this fund. Even the areas not usually classed as 'tourist attraction' profit from the passage of our nomadic Americans. "According to the Automobile Manufacturers Association, America tops all nations in the amount of highways open to its citizens. Second is Russia, with 1,682,000 miles. Canada has 599,040 miles; Japan, 501,766, and Australia, 485,546. "The highways which take our citizens out to the 'wide-open spaces,' which permit of vacation jaunts to new and different scenes, which speed this flow of wealth from one section to another, leveling off the highs of the industrial areas... those same

Summer Vacationists Need Vaccination Against Typhoid

Austin.—Vacation time is once again at hand, and among preparations for your summer vacation, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, urges that you include vaccination against typhoid. "If you have not been vaccinated against typhoid fever recently—within the last year or two—go at once to your family physician for the three shots of typhoid vaccine that will protect you against that disease. Don't wait until just before your vacation to be vaccinated against typhoid," Dr. Cox urged. "Do it now, because the three shots are given at weekly intervals, and it takes several weeks for the protective treatment to establish itself throughout your system. "Typhoid fever is a germ disease. Water, milk, or other foods that have been contaminated by typhoid germs are the main sources of the disease. "A great deal has been accomplished by public health measures to prevent the spread of highways serve yet another purpose. They allow us in America to get to know one another, erase sectional lines, and build up a unity of thought and feeling that is especially significant at this time. "If for no other reason, the value of the motor car, the passenger car that serves us for business and recreation as well, becomes more apparent. If it brings Americans to a greater realization of the 'oneness' of their outlook, if it knits more closely the 48 states, if it gives the hard-tensed industrial worker opportunity to 'get away from it all' for two weeks or so, then surely the motor car may be said to be playing a vital role in national preparedness."

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM CHALLENGES SENATORS

Washington, June 12. (Special)—The twelve members of the Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce were asked this week by telegraph whether Senator Burton K. Wheeler had obtained their permission to use the Committee letterhead, carrying their names, in Wheeler's letter mailed nationwide asking support of a war referendum. Dr. Henry Costeff, of Peoria, Ill., one of the recipients of the letter from the American First leader, asked the Fight for Freedom Committee to intervene "because the public will notice the prominent names and get the impression that these Senators are enlisted with Wheeler." Prominent members of the Senate Committee, aside from Wheeler who is chairman, include Senator Alben W. Barkley (Ky.), majority leader, and Senator Robert F. Wagner, of New York. typhoid from such sources. The protection of public and private water supplies from contamination, the extension of community sanitation, the sanitary supervision of food, pasteurization of milk, and other public health measures have all helped to safeguard the public against the disease. Typhoid is much less prevalent than formerly, but it is still a source of much unnecessary and avoidable illness. "The typhoid-producing germs are passed in the discharges from persons ill with typhoid or who have had it at some time. Some persons continue to pass the germs long after recovery from the illness and become what are known as 'carriers.' If these carriers in their personal habits are careless in handling or preparing food for other people, the food may become contaminated and be a source of danger. Some of the most serious outbreaks of typhoid within recent years have been traced to foods handled by careless carriers. "Another source of danger in the rural areas is the unprotected water supply. You can not tell whether water is safe for drinking purposes even if it looks clean. It is wise to boil all water used for drinking purposes in non-urban areas. For the same reason, unless you are certain of the source of your milk supply while on camping trips, you had better boil that also. "State and city health departments can and do protect the public against many of the dangers of typhoid from public sources, but the best protection against unknown sources of infection is through vaccination against the disease. "You will have no trouble in arranging for typhoid vaccination prior to your vacation. See your family physician before you leave. Don't trust to luck."

Farm Labor Shortage Forecast for Fall

College Station, June 16.—A shortage of farm labor in Texas may be experienced in the summer and fall months. Summarizing the prospects, however, T. R. Trimm, extension economist in farm management, says the probable shortage will be more in the form of the wage farm operators will be able, or required, to pay than a physical shortage. Reports from over the state, he continues, indicate that during peak seasons at least, many farmers will have to pay higher wages than in corresponding periods of 1940 in order to obtain all of the labor needed. Moreover, the proper distribution or routing of migratory labor may be more difficult than in recent years. The latter condition is forecast by the delayed season, which was due to excessive rain. This caused farmers in south, central and north Texas to plant their cotton at about the same time. As a result, picking seasons between regions will be close together. Cotton itself presents a peculiar problem, Trimm says. Mechanization of cotton farms has been increasing rapidly for several years. As a consequence more and more farmers are increasing the amount of hand labor employed during the seasonal peak and decreasing the number of regular workers on farms. The progress of mechanization, therefore, appears to depend to some

CHURCHES

In the material affairs of life, and in man's struggles to subsist in a war torn world, we might absent ourselves from all services. I rather think God will go forward leading those who trust him, and giving grace where most deserving. He has a way of his own in dealing with humanity. The fifty-fifth chapter of the Prophecy of Isaiah would make interesting reading for many people in this, our day.

There is deep interest on the part of the people who attend church today. It seems also that the church is making a greater effort to meet the needs of the people than in years past. It will be a happy day when the general public will permit the church to help supply that something for which each enlightened soul yearns.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also" (Psalms 95:3, 4).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men" (I Corinthians 1:25).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Either Mind produces, or it is produced. If Mind is first, it cannot produce its opposite in quality and quantity, called matter. . . In spiritual history, matter is not the progenitor of Mind" (page 551).

and catastrophes increase! There is a reason. The words of this psalm trace the origin of the family up to God. As surely as He arranged the sun to give light by day and the night to shelter us in for rest, so surely has He made this a part of the program for the human being. Let us not think that the plan is a temporary one. There is no possibility of the state, the school, or the church providing a proper substitute. It is of a day yet to come of which we read, "Give unto the Lord, O Ye families of the people, give unto the Lord glory and strength." That is from a psalm picturing millennial peace on earth; therefore the family program must endure through years to come. Temporarily, here and there, we may see it interrupted, but it cannot be utterly overthrown. When our Lord was on earth He cherished the good spirit of the home at Bethany. His teaching about children's devotion to parents proclaims His feeling about the home. And though mothers may have brought their babies to Him that He might only touch them, He took them in His arms, put His hands upon them and blessed them - outdoing the mothers' hopes. Obedience "in the Lord" is the very essence of kindness. It insists upon the kindly attitude of the child, and what can be a more kindly act in the family than to teach a child obedience? It may cost many a heartache, but the instrument for the future is worth it all. Fathers are not to make their children unduly resentful lest they be discouraged. And only by touch them. Former Crowell Girl Is Member of College A Cappella Choir

Denton, June 16.—Miss Wanda Rose Liles, graduate of Crowell High School, who is now a sophomore at the North Texas State Teachers' College, has been named a member of the famous North Texas State Teachers' College A Cappella Choir. Dr. Wilfred C. Bain, choir director, has announced.

Miss Liles, who graduated from high school in Crowell in 1939, has been chosen as first alto in the North Texas State summer choir. Formerly a speech student at the college, she has changed her major to voice, and her selection for choir membership is a recognition of her outstanding musical ability.

Famous throughout Texas, the NTSTC A Cappella Choir has won wide recognition as one of the finest musical organizations of its kind in the Southwest. Annually it makes a tour of this area, and recently it served as the nucleus of the great choruses which were featured in the three-day Bach festival this spring at the Teachers' College in Denton.

Miss Liles has appeared in a number of student plays at North Texas State Teachers' College, including the one-act play, "Soldados," which was presented by the College Players during their spring drama festival in May. She has also served as prompter for the production of "Journiv's End," and is a member of the speech majors' club, the Quintilians, of the Mary Arden literary society, and of the College Players.

New Courses Offered by State Colleges in Sanitation Problems

Austin.—National defense training courses in water and sewage plant operation are now being offered as part of the curriculum in the University of Texas, A. & M. College, and Texas Technological College, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Department as a national defense measure and are tuition-free.

The courses provide three months of full-time training for water treatment and sewage plant treatment operators. The courses were designed to meet the need of additional trained water works and sewage operators to serve in municipal plants and in the plants of military and naval establishments.

The courses include instruction in general principles of sanitation, principles of water treatment, sanitary water analysis, water treatment, plant operation, principles of sewage treatment, sewage analysis, and sewage treatment plant operation. Practical application of sanitary problems is being stressed, and much of the course has been designated as laboratory work in the water and sewage plants of nearby municipalities.

That each student may obtain the maximum benefit from the defense course, enrollment has been limited to fifteen students per school.

"The State Health Department wishes to commend the University of Texas, Texas A. & M. College, and Texas Technological College for their co-operation in making these courses possible, thus supplying trained professional water and sewage plant operators at a time of national emergency when the need for such personnel in Texas is particularly great," Dr. Cox concluded.

Appropriation Made by Legislature on Cotton Research

A $250,000 cotton research bill, designed to find new uses for cotton, has been passed through the Texas Legislature by the two farmer members of the Texas Senate, Senators George Moffett of Chillicothe and Marshall Formby of McAdoo.

Governor O'Daniel has signed the bill which will permit the expenditure of a quarter of a million dollars during the next two-year period at Texas Technological College, Texas A. & M. College, and the University of Texas. The fund will be administered by the presidents of the three schools and all money will be spent on actual research and none for building purposes.

The bill had previously been introduced six times in the Legislature by Senator Moffett, and this session he was joined by Senator Formby, another Senator who lists his occupation as a dirt farmer.

Senator Moffett said that an expanded market for Texas cotton will do more to relieve unemployment in the small town areas, and will do more to fill up empty houses and stores than anything we can do for this state. He stated that the lack of markets for cotton products has curtailed the cotton acreage and consequently has driven thousands off Texas farms. "It is quite proper," he said, "that Texas, the leading cotton state, should take the lead in finding new uses for cotton."

Senator Formby pointed out that the DuPont Industries in the

"No strikes for us," say these 160 students, shown with their six instructors, of the Wichita Engineering Company Aviation School, who will be working in the aviation industry in a few weeks, take this opportunity to pledge to you our full and loyal support. When we are engaged in work in the aviation industry, we will see that work is not stopped and that the United States will emerge from the crisis that

Marketing Quota Card Allows Disposal of Wheat in Any Manner

If you have a wheat marketing quota card, you are free to dispose of your wheat in any way you wish, Grady Halbert, chairman of the Foard County AAA committee, pointed out this week.

Under AAA regulations, which went into effect with the approval by wheat growers of marketing quotas in the referendum May 31, wheat producers cannot obtain a marketing card until they have satisfied any claims the AAA might have against their wheat for production on excess acres, the AAA committee said.

"Since this is true, then it naturally follows that a producer holding a card on his wheat can sell it, store it, or do whatever he wants to with it," he continued. "This wheat is absolutely clear as far as the AAA is concerned and is eligible to move in the regular channels of trade."

Producers who do not clearly understand the operations of wheat marketing quotas should ask for fuller explanations at the county AAA office, the committee declared.

HAS HITLER "GAULEITER" PICKED FOR AMERICA?

Cincinnati, June 12. (Special)—Speculation over what Nazi "gauleiter" or leader Hitler has in mind for the United States was heard here this week after a Berlin broadcaster declared that "it is only a question of time before a leader will appear in America."

On behalf of the Fight for Freedom Committee, the Rt. Rev. Henry W. Hobson, national chairman, declared that "none of us knows specifically whom the Nazi broadcaster had in mind. But just what is it that Charles Lindbergh and his colleagues are driving at? There has been a disturbing trend in Mr. Lindbergh's remarks. In a broadcast in 1939, it will be remembered that he said "racial strength is vital—politics are a luxury."

USO District Leaders First To Fill Ranks

T. N. Whitehurst, Beaumont, top, and James H. Allison, Wichita Falls, bottom, rank top honors for being the first congressional chairmen in Texas in the campaign to raise funds for the United Service Organizations to complete organization of their districts. Whitehurst reported his job done first with Allison following as a close second, according to E. B. Germany, Dallas, Southwestern regional chairman. Kenedy County was the first in the United States to raise and oversubscribe its quota. Baylor County came in second, with a county from Oregon reporting third. The USO campaign is being carried into every county in the United States in a hope that all citizens will make contribution to the end that wholesome recreation and entertainment will be provided for the soldiers and sailors when on leave from camp.

HAD THE ADVANTAGE

The barber was quite swarthy, and his eyes were and sparkling. It was that he was descended from stock.

"What do you think of the Italian situation," he asked the customer. "What is your opinion of Mussolini?"
"The same as yours," the man in the chair.
"But how do you know?" inquired the barber.
"I don't," admitted the customer, "but you have the razor."
