There is now under construction in this city an immense building located at the end of the street running north up Brown Street, to be used as an elevator.

This building is being erected by W. S. This building cannot be used to its full capacity this year, still it is here next year, and it will have a bit of work this season.

The formation that is being drilled in, we are inclined to believe the formation of oil has been developed. What has been found in this at Crowell there is absolute doubt but that this entire is underlaid with the substance and all that is used to get it is to drill to it, men who are experienced in oil business and have made a study for many years, and who have worked in the fields and understand the business are free to admit that these here could not possibly be better than they are now.

There were more than 1,500 entries and five winners in the Houston contest. These five will be judged again along with 18 other Scripps-Howard cities in the national finals.

In a telegram received Sunday from Lewis C. Huff, assistant executive secretary of the Texas Salvage Committee, Judge Leslie Thomas, county defense co-ordinator, was officially informed that President Roosevelt had directed that an all out Nationwide Salvage Rubber Campaign should begin at 10:01 a. m. Monday, June 15, and continue until midnight on Tuesday, June 30. The President asked that every American citizen who had reclaimable rubber take it to the nearest gasoline filling station where it would be purchased at the uniform price of one penny per pound, stating that the oil industry had agreed to make available its personnel and facilities, including its filling stations and bulk plants, to be used as collection depots, and that oil company trucks would pick up the rubber from the filling stations, paying them at the same rate of one penny per pound. The oil industry would in turn sell the rubber collected to the Rubber Reserve Company, a subsidiary of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The oil industry will turn over to the National Headquarters of USO, Army Relief, Navy Relief and the American Red Cross, on an equal basis any receipts in excess of the purchase price, thereby eliminating the possibility of any profit resulting into the oil industry.

First information received indicated that all types of rubber except battery boxes, and parts thereof, and tire beads, would be received and that metal, wood and leather should be removed from such articles as leather shoes, baby buggy tires, etc., however, later information reveals that old tires are to be purchased "as is" without removing the tire beads but that tire beads separated from the tires are not to be purchased.

Early Monday morning several of the stations had not received instructions from their respective companies authorizing them to make such purchases, however, information to most of the bulk stations was received Monday, and it is believed that any filling station would be safe in purchasing scrap rubber, as the entire oil industry has pledged to the President its wholehearted cooperation in this measure. Any station not having received instructions from its dealer or company is asked to contact the person directly in charge and ask for instructions thereon.

It is believed that the scrap rubber campaign will produce sufficient rubber to eliminate the necessity for gasoline rationing and it is urged that every citizen emit every effort to assist in this campaign by making a thorough survey of his premises in search of such scrap rubber.

The local salvage committee is headed by John Nagy, county agent. Floyd Thomas and M. M. Welch are the other two members.

The U. S. D. A. Board also will assist in this collection and will send out letters to the farmers with reference to same.

Soldiers of Production America's "soldiers of production," men and women working in the plants of American industry, have their uniforms, too. Some uniforms worn by G-E workers on vital production jobs are shown below. 1. Not a gas mask, but a special nose mask to guard his breathing, is worn by this spray painter at his job in one of the General Electric plants. 2. Like a man from Mars, the "cold room" research man is a strange sight as he tests airplane instruments for high-altitude performance in a G-E laboratory. 3. Frankenstein? No, just another G-E worker. His job is sandblasting big turbine castings for Uncle Sam's ships at one of the General Electric plants. 4. The helmet he wears is to protect him from light! The rays from a welder's arc could cause blindness if he did not wear this strange headgear. General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier. Fifty-One Years

With this issue of the paper off the press The Foard County News completes fifty-one years continuous operation in this community. Next week it will enter upon its 52nd year, having been established at the time the county was organized in 1891.

The English writer and lecturer, L. A. G. Strong, says in one of his books: "The people who are right for us, the people whom we need to meet, we discover irresistibly. There is no need to look for them." This law, the late George William Russell, referred to as the law of spiritual gravitation. That is something interesting to contemplate, for one to think back over the people he has been associated with during his life time and measure the contribution they made to it. Most of the people we meet up with as we go through life with whom we have more than a passing acquaintance do contribute something to our lives. This is especially true if we are in any wise attracted to them. The fact that they attract and interest us is evidence that they do have a definite contribution to make to us.

The next windshield sticker will go on sale July 1. At this time car owners may be required to list their tires and extra tires by serial numbers. At this time also, according to present plans, cars will be registered for gasoline ration cards. After this registration the RFC may buy all extra tires. If the need for tires and rubber remains acute extra tires may be requisitioned.

The past ten years labor unions have run the country. For the next fifty or a hundred years after the war is over the soldiers and the men who have been in the service are going to run it.

HISTORY

Father's Day—The Third Sunday in June: Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, of Spokane, Washington, is credited with being responsible for the first observance of Father's Day in 1909. The idea suggested itself to Mrs. Dodd as a tribute to her father who reared a family of children after the death of their mother. She requested the Spokane Ministerial Association to set aside the third Sunday in June as a day for honoring the fathers. The suggestion was accepted and the first observance of the day was held in Spokane in June, 1911. The flower suggested was the rose, a red rose if the father was living and a white rose if the father was dead. During the next ten or fifteen years the day was observed in various parts of the country. Each group apparently not knowing of the effort being made at Spokane to establish the day, made an effort to secure general observance of the day each thinking they were pioneering the effort. One by one they came to hear of the observance of the third Sunday in June in Spokane, Wash., and efforts to set a different day were abandoned until this day has become generally accepted. Two efforts were made to establish the day by presenting a resolution in Congress but neither resolution passed. As the candy manufacturers have sought to promote the sale of gift packages of candy on Mother's Day, the sale of tobacco, cigars and neckties to be presented to fathers by sons and daughters, is promoted by tobaccoists and haberdashers.

Those in a position to know say that rationing has just begun and that all over the country men and women are going to have to change their habits and customs to conform to the program to help win the war. Rationing may extend to many other items, food, clothing and the like. Not only this but individuals may be strongly urged to save a part of their income by putting it in bonds. A further step will be the taking of skilled men from a nonessential industry and putting them into a war production industry where their skill may aid the defense program. The reaction of most people to these changes from routine and restrictions is "We are ready to do it if it will help win the war."

Few realize how critical the shortage of rubber is in this country. There is less than a year's supply on hand even under the strictest of rationing. Ninety-eight per cent of this came from the East Indies, a source from which rubber is no longer available in any quantities for at least two years. For this reason civilian uses of rubber are going to be cut more and more if the defense program is to receive sufficient rubber.

There is other good advice that can be given the average man today but the advice to save money, economize and buy bonds ranks as the best advice. There are two reasons why every one should buy bonds. The first reason is the government needs the money to carry on the defense program. The second one is that after the war is over the average citizen is going to do for the money to keep his own program going until things get adjusted.

We note that all safety razors are to be taken by the government for the army. How would it do for the male contingent of the population to vow to let their beards grow until the war is won?

Strange, but the things we enjoy are the things that cost us the extra money. They are the things we have to cut down on if we are going to save money.

What We Think
(By Frank Dixon)

It is not uncommon these days to hear now and then, a word of complaint because of the small degree of regimentation to which we as a people are being called upon to submit, and which attempts, to a degree, to order our lives. The complaints are seldom bitter, and most of them are passed by with the expression that if this is what it takes to win the war it will be borne with resignation and with patience.

Many who are thus cheerfully submitting are thinking in the back of their minds that they will go along with it for the duration, but as soon as the war is over will be back to normal times again, no restraints, no rules, no regimentation.

In my opinion this group is going to be rudely awakened and disillusioned. Regimentation, in my opinion, will not end with the war, rather it will be extended much more than it is now.

We, as individuals, and as a nation, are going to find ourselves working under a new set of rules. We are not going to be permitted to do many of the things we have done in the past and we are going to be required to do a lot of things that we have never before been called upon to do.

It would be folly of the most extreme type, in my opinion, to presume that upon the return of peace we can turn back to the plow where we left it, and take up once more our thread of life, and go on from where we left off. This cannot, should not be done. If it is, then the war, and our part in it, has been in vain.

If we cannot see and recognize in this upheaval the warning, the symptoms, that a new age is being born then our lesson has not been learned and another upheaval will have to come in the economic process of attempting to teach us.

In my opinion in the new order of the post war world as we have come to call it, the capitalistic system is going to have to make some adjustments. There is going to have to be more concern over what is for the good of the whole rather than merely the good of the individual. By capitalistic system I mean labor as well as management. I believe that both are susceptible to error and both have an equal responsibility. Both have got to come to look upon the common welfare rather than themselves alone.

There has got to come in this field a more liberal and a less selfish attitude. There is too much monopoly, too much greed for power, too much struggle for mastery, too little concern for the rest of the people, too little thought of service. This same spirit has got to pervade the world among nations. There has got to be less grabbing and cornering and controlling and more concern for the common welfare of the whole world and of all peoples.

Not simple, not easy, I will admit, but nevertheless it seems to me to represent the basic elements upon which a new world can be built and the only foundation upon which anything like a new order can be built.

4-H Livestock Members Have Need of Contest

Incentives to 4-H livestock club members as offered in the national meat animal contest, are more important this year than ever before, according to a statement by the National 4-H Committee in Chicago in announcing it for 1942. This is because some shows in which 4-H members enter have been cancelled.

"Even without a chance to show, 4-H owners of livestock can still put their work into competition if they enter the contest," it is stated "since it emphasizes the rate and cost of gains contained in the project record book, and also the general standing of the members in home, club and community activities."

With roundly a third of a million of clubsters growing market and breeding animals this year it is recognized by club leaders as good policy to keep alive their influence in the business and have the benefit of the large volume of their production for war and domestic needs.

Medals for county winners, watches for state victors and four fine trips and three $200 college scholarships are provided for this year's 13th annual contest by Thos. E. Wilson, chairman of the

Fairs, Livestock Shows Over State Cancelled

Fairs, livestock shows and other attractions set for summer and fall, are being called off in response to government appeals for fewer gatherings and less travel on the highways. Cancellations "for the duration" are being reported from many West Texas points.

This is right and necessary, says J. Thos. Davis, dean of John Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville and president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

But, says Dean Davis, the government program should not be allowed to seriously affect the essential activities of boys and girls, through their clubs and national agriculture classes, equipping themselves for service as farmers and ranchers. In letters last week to chapters of commerce managers in West Texas territory, and to local directors of the W.T.C.C., he asserted that 4-H club members of Future Farmers of America classes "are going to need all the encouragement possible with reference to their projects and school training. Therefore," he said "suggest that local chapters of commerce render all sympathy and aid possible to these 4-H boys and girls and FFA boys in their projects. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has designated for competition in its inter-county Defense and Preservation contest activities by the 103 component towns in junior club work."

A WEEK of the WAR

Pacific Fleet Commander Nimitz reported two and possibly three Japanese aircraft carriers and a destroyer were sunk, and three battleships, six cruisers and three transports were damaged in the battle of Midway Island. All planes on the two carriers definitely known to be sunk were lost, Admiral Nimitz said. One U. S. carrier was hit and some planes were lost, but casualties among the U. S. personnel were light, he said. Admiral King, Commander-in-Chief of the U. S. Fleet, said the enemy fleet has apparently withdrawn from the Midway area but battle maneuvers are continuing in the Hawaii-Dutch Harbor area. The Navy said the first Japanese attack on Dutch Harbor on June 3 resulted in few casualties and no serious damage, appearing to have been made "primarily to test our defenses." The Japanese planes which flew over the Harbor six hours after the initial attack were "engaged solely in reconnaissance," the Navy said.

Gen. MacArthur reported within six days Allied naval and air forces sank seven and possibly eight enemy submarines, two heavily loaded armed supply ships and an armed transport, and also badly damaged a 7,000-ton vessel. Allied losses in the Southwest Pacific were two cargo vessels. In air raids over Rabaul, Lea, Salamaua, Atamboga, Tulagi, Koepang, Dili, and Burma, 12 enemy planes were destroyed, one enemy tanker sunk, and runways, airfield installations and parked planes damaged. Three Allied planes were lost. The Navy said Allied merchant ship losses totaled 21 during the week, including nine U. S. ships.

Production

U. S. production of planes has reached the level of "nearly 5,000 a month," and by next year we will have reached the President's goal of 10,000 a month, the Senate Appropriations Committee announced. Army Air Forces Commander Arnold congratulated the Vega Aircraft Corporation at Burbank, Calif., on being six months ahead of schedule on production. WPB Chairman Nelson, after a tour of the automotive industry in Detroit, said American industry could "more than double present production by 1944." He also said the Government Synthetic Rubber Program would be able to take care of "all war production and essential civilian needs" by 1944. Despite the fact that almost twice as many light arms are required per man since the development of parachute troops, the Army has enough weapons to arm every soldier in the U. S., and all it can send abroad under present shipping conditions, War Under-Secretary Patterson reported. He said over-optimism regarding production schedules is unwarranted, however, because of rubber, nickel, and copper shortages.

A record total of 58 ships were delivered into service during May, while 65 other ships were launched and keels were laid for 75, the Maritime Commission reported. This compared with 36 delivered and 51 launched in April. The President asked Congress for an appropriation of $1,100,000,000 for the WSA to acquire and operate merchant vessels to carry American arms.

War Declared Against Balkan States

The U. S. declared war against Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania. The President said the three countries previously declared war on the U. S. as instruments of Hitler, and currently they are engaged in military operations against the United Nations and are planning to extend those operations. The Justice Department said enemy alien restrictions will be applied against nationals of the countries in the United States. Assets of these countries here have already been frozen.

Foreign Relations

The U. S. signed a Lend-Lease agreement with China, substantially the same as its aid to Britain, and proposed Lend-Lease agreements on the same terms with the Norwegian, Belgian, Polish, Greek and Netherlands Governments. Lend-Lease Administrator Stettinius said under the joint control of the combined boards in London and Washington the resources of the United Nations are now, in effect, one big pool, with each nation contributing to the extent permitted by its resources and military position. Reciprocal aid from nations receiving supplies from the American troops abroad without dollar payments, he said. The Agriculture Department reported 5 billion pounds of farm products were delivered to United Nations representatives between April, 1941, and May 1, 1942.

The American Red Cross said it has aided almost 750,000 war victims in the Middle East and distributed more than $2 million worth of relief material there, largely purchased with U. S. Government allocated funds. The State Department said 193 persons, including many U. S. citizens who have been awaiting passage in Sweden, arrived in New York on the SS Gripsholm, and 10 Axis officials and approximately 930 Axis civilians sailed for Lisbon on the Drottingholm.

The Armed Forces

The House passed and sent to the Senate a $3 billion supplemental Naval Appropriations Bill to provide 200,000 tons of submarines, 500,000 tons of auxiliary vessels, $150 million for aviation plant facilities, and other funds. Chairman Vinson of the House Naval Affairs Committee said approximately 99 more combatant ships will be commissioned during the remainder of 1942. Three

JOIN THE ATTACK ON TOKYO, ... YOURSELF!

Every person in America may not fly over Tokyo, but every one's dollars can help produce the bombing plans that do!

You, you, you, can join the attacks on Tokyo by saving at least 10% of your pay in War Bonds—by joining your company's pay-roll savings plan today or going to your local bank or post office and buying War Savings Bonds—at least 10% of your pay—every pay day.

Remember you can start buying War Bonds by buying War Stamps for as little as 10c and that you get a $25 War Bond (maturity value) for only $18.75.

Economy Highlights

Cecil Brown, the well known foreign correspondent, recently made a speaking tour of this country. In a radio broadcast from Los Angeles, he said that he had been enormously impressed by the incredible strides American industry is making in production for war. At the same time, he added, he was disturbed by the excessive degree of optimism held by many of us. In short, too large a proportion of the American people are not yet convinced that this will be a long and hard war.

That kind of optimism is not held in informed circles. Most of the experts still think that another New Year's day will come before the United Nations will be able to engage in major, continuing offensive drives against the enemy. In 1943, they forecast, a gigantic effort to knock Hitler out of the war will be made. Then, in 1944, the United Nations will be able to turn their full and undivided attention to Japan. And so, by that year's end the war may be over.

Other experts consider that time-table too optimistic. They argue that both Germany and Japan have immense armies and resources, and that it will take another year or two to wear them down and bring them to their knees. In any event, no informed commentator subscribes to the current rumors that the war is likely to be ended before 1942 passes. And none of them make the popular mistake of thinking that minor United Nations' victories constitute major disasters for the enemy.

In the meantime, this country has reason to be immensely proud of the quality and character of its fighting forces. After the debacle at Pearl Harbor, it took us months to get organized. For a long time there was lack of accurate co-ordination between the various branches of the military services. Now, apparently, conditions have undergone a great change for the better. The gigantic Japanese American sea engagement around Midway Island is an example. The Japanese, after making their feint at Dutch Harbor with a few bombers and pursuit planes, apparently expected that American commanders would hysterically disperse their forces. In all probability, they definitely expected to take both Midway and Oahu. But the American commanders, working on extremely accurate information provided by the Intelligence services, were ready. The Navy, the Army and the Marines worked in perfect harmony. The result was the most serious setback Japan has yet taken in the Pacific war. That battle, coming on top of the Coral Sea engagement, must be causing plenty of headaches among the moguls in Tokyo. They caught our forces asleep at Pearl Harbor. But our forces are 100 per cent awake and on their toes now.

This latest Pacific battle is important for the beating handed Japanese military power. Its greatest importance lies in the fact that it may have tipped the scales of Pacific naval power in our favor. After Pearl Harbor, the Japanese fleet was supreme in the Pacific. Japan also had air supremacy. Now American war vessels which were damaged at Pearl Harbor are back in service, new ships have been sent to join the fleet, and our air power has been tremendously increased. Our production capacity is many times that of Japan in all fields. The Mikado, in brief, doesn't look as big and tough as he once did.

When we finally take the offensive in the Pacific, we may expect hard going for a considerable time. It is obvious that Japan has developed the mandated islands, as well as her own islands, to a very high degree so far as military power is concerned. She may have literally hundreds of air, naval and submarine bases and her plan has been to create a ring of steel about her own part of the Pacific. It will be a real job to destroy these positions—and we can't do it overnight. We must expect losses as well as victories. But no one with any knowledge of American war production and American fighting spirit can doubt that the job will be done. The United Nations' commanders will not be satisfied with a partial victory this time. They intend to take the war straight to Berlin and Tokyo, and give the Axis powers a full taste of the kind of treatment dealt out to the countries they have subjugated.

For sheer unnecessary cruelty,

Army Steps-Up The Glider Program

Major Perry C. Euchner, Army Recruiting and Induction Officer at Abilene, Texas, released today a War Department radiogram of June 9 which is of vital interest to young men from 18 to 36 who wish to become pioneers in one of the most fascinating branches of the Army service.

To qualify now for Glider Pilot Training, a man no longer needs to have had previous Aviation Cadet training of any kind. He only must meet the following qualifications:

Physical—Pass a Class 2 flying examination by a Flight Surgeon. (Eye requirements 20-40 correctable to 20-20 by glasses.) Mental—Pass the Army General Classification Test with a score of 110, or pass the current Aviation Cadet Mental Screening Test with a minimum score of 65, (as against a score of 80 required to qualify for Aviation Cadet.)

Major Euchner quotes the following verbatim from the War Department radiogram.

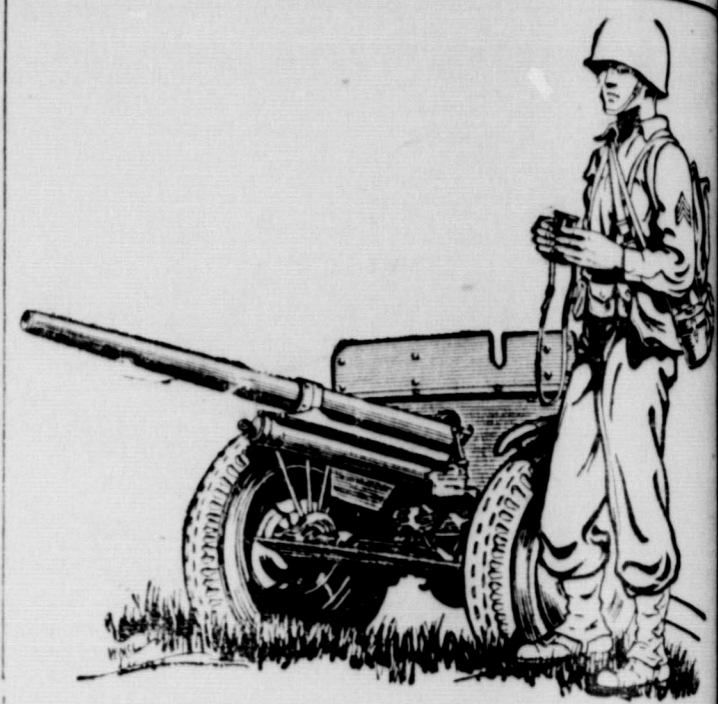

"Glider Pilot applicants will be informed that training course includes flying light plane, and a limited number of selected graduates in each class will receive commissions as Second Lieutenants, Army of the United States, and other graduates will be appointed Staff Sergeants on flying status."

A quota of 200 has been assigned to the Eighth Corps Area to be completed June 22. Additional quotas will probably be assigned later. But all men who are interested in being pioneers of the Axis leaders can bear comparison with the blood-loving conquerors of antiquity.

Additional evidence has been produced to completely substantiate Anthony Eden's almost unbelievable report of what the Japs did in Hongkong. Wanton murder, torture and rape are apparently a definite part of Japanese policy.

In Europe, Hitler is pursuing a similar course. When "crimes" are committed against the Germans in occupied countries, no particular effort is made to find and punish the guilty. Instead, scores and hundreds of innocent people are summarily executed. And the Nazis usually pick victims who have qualities of leadership—in order to further their policy of turning those countries into slave states whose function for all time will be to produce British laborers for the New Order. Cold, planned barbarism is part and parcel of the Axis' design for world conquest.—Industrial News Review.

YOU GUESSED WRONG! HE'S IN THE INFANTRY—modern warfare infantrymen fight with other arms than the traditional rifle. This soldier operates a 37-millimeter gun and among his comrades on foot are mechanics, cyclists, telephone operators, ski troopers, "walkie-talkie" radio men, parachute troops and airborne infantry. Off to each file of infantry troops, mounted in a speeding armored car or crouched behind his well-concealed weapon at a road junction is the 37-millimeter gunner. Primarily, in modern warfare, he has one target: enemy tanks and armored vehicles. His first shot must be a direct hit for armored vehicles travel at a high rate of speed and a miss means precious seconds lost.

in this new service should get in touch at once with their local Recruiting and Induction station.

PEN THE ROOSTERS

College Station, June 15.—After the hatching season ends, pen up the roosters, or sell them, or can them. Otherwise, says George P. McCarthy, poultry husbandman of the A. & M. College Extension Service, a $15,000,000 loss may result from production of fertile eggs during the summer. That sum would buy a lot of machine guns or cannon, but even more serious is the loss of food stocks it represents.

Realizing this, County Agricultural Agent John Moosberg arranged a "Rooster Day" through the Shelby County USDA war war board, and Mayor Y. W. Rogers of Center made it official with a proclamation which requests that:

"There shall not be heard a cock's crow within the corporate limits of the City of Center during the 150 day period beginning the morning of May 9, 1942, except such cock bird be confined in a pen or yard individually with one or more of his kind, that the owner of his kind should not permit the sale of the female of the species, or may or may not be wearing which may reach the kitchen pantries of our city."

Clean litter, especially in helps to decrease the number soiled eggs. If possible, use at least one nest for every five gather eggs at least twice a day in a wire basket, which air to circulate around them. Many farm families have had iceless refrigerators for eggs to check evaporation and reduce internal temperature. kept in this refrigerator for county extension agents, safe, if any, deterioration in quality when marketed twice

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 21.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord
by wisdom hath founded the earth;
by understanding hath he established the heavens" (Proverbs 3:19).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited; I am the Lord; and there is none else" (Isaiah 45:18).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirit, God, has created all in and of Himself. Spirit is the only substance, the invisible and indivisible infinite God. Things spiritual and eternal are substantial. Things material and temporal are insubstantial" (page 335).

The Four Dimensions of God's Love

Text: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—John 3:16
(cf. Eph. 3:17-19).

These 25 words perhaps say more than any other group of words of equal length. They epitomize the entire gospel of salvation. They state the fourfold essence of God's love.

First, the breadth of God's love:
"God so loved the world." His love extends to the whole world, to every creature. It is as broad as the dimension of the world and as the extent of time. It is both limitless and infinite in its breadth. God's love reaches to the uttermost.

Second, the length of His love:
"That he gave his only begotten Son." God's love is so comprehensive and far-reaching that He sent His Son into this world, that His love might be made known.
And His own deity, His own person. His own heavenly pleasure did not stop the Son from giving Himself for a suffering, sinful, accursed world.

Third, the depth of His love:
"That whosoever believeth on him should not perish." Into the deepest depth of sin, shame, and suffering God's love took His beloved Son. No sin is so black, no sinner so desperate, no one so deep in the mire and filth of sin that God's love through Christ cannot reach that sinner in his sin. O the depth of His love!

Fourth, the height of God's love: "But have everlasting life." Yes, this love will carry the simplest child, the foulest sinner, the weakest Christian, any one who fully trusts His Son, into the highest glory of eternity. The redeemed shall be lifted into the very presence of God Himself, there to have life eternal. O what love God has bestowed upon us that we should become His children and be saved unto His glory!

"The inside fact is that a number of Congressional statesmen have privately demanded that the drastic tire restrictions be lifted for them so that they can get tires for campaigning purposes."
—Drew Pearson and Robert S.
Allen.

meet the requirements of total war in what is believed to be the most critical period of the war.

Campaign to Clear Debts Launched by Texas Baptists

Dallas, June 15.—The Baptist General Convention of Texas plans to be debt-free by October 31, 1942. Dr. W. W. Melton, Dallas, executive secretary, said this week as he announced a debt-paying campaign for the denomination in Texas.

The Convention now owes $421,000 on which it is paying $10,000 per month principal. A few years ago the amount owed was approximately $2,000,000. These amounts do not include debts of Baptist institutions in the state.

Authorized by the executive board of the Convention to launch the debt-paying campaign, Dr. Melton expressed the belief that now is the best time to "pay up" because of uncertainties in connection with the present world situation. Being debt-free, he said, would save Texas Baptists $16,000 annually in interest.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

Concluding its year's study, the Columbian Club met with Mrs. Hines Clark, president, on the afternoon of May 28. Only ten members were present to hear the delegate's report on the National Federation of Women's Clubs which met in Fort Worth the week beginning April 26.

Mrs. R. L. Kincaid gave a descriptive account of the first three days before she was called home by news of the tornado. Mrs. Whitehurst, national president, extended her sympathy and regret for the storm sufferers; and Mrs. Kincaid stated that the president was a very gracious lady, as natural and unassuming as "a neighbor across the back yard fence."

Asked for a report by the district Defense chairman, a count was taken of the War Savings Bonds and Stamps bought by the club members, and it was announced that over twenty thousand dollars worth had been purchased by members present with an undetermined amount by those absent from the meeting.

Dues for the coming year were paid and further year book material discussed. The present year book committee with Mrs. John S. Ray, chairman, and Mrs. Chas. Thompson and Mrs. Grady Halbert, assistants, has charge of the year book plans for the coming year.

After Mrs. H. Schindler, treasurer, had given a report on the treasury, the Columbian Club was adjourned until September.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

These huge 60-ton heavy tanks cost $120,000, and America's automotive and locomotive plants are turning them out on a never-ending assembly line. Our army uses light tanks, weighing 14 tons, and medium tanks of 28 tons also, but we favor the medium tank over the other two.

These heavy tanks are needed for certain phases of modern warfare, and with their thick armor and heavy-gauge guns they are almost unstopable. They are considered superior in gun power, in maneuverability and in the power of their huge tractor motors to Axis tanks. Americans everywhere are helping to pay for these monsters of war through their purchase of War Bonds. Invest at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day.

West Texas C. of C. Working for Passage of Humphrey Bill

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce this week is organizing its 150 Public Affairs committees to again work for passage of the Humphrey bill for reducing state governmental costs by modernizing and streamlining the state's administrative machinery. A news letter signed by President J. Thos. Davis and J. D. Hamlin, chairman of the WTCC's public expenditure committee, has gone out asking for renewals of endorsements given by more than 100 organizations in 1940 and carried to the 47th legislature.

The campaign will be pointed at passage by the 48th legislature of the fiscal control bill by Rep. Joe Humphrey, of Abilene, emphasizing the need for economy.

Further, it would insure the permanence of Baptist work, should a post-war depression hit this country.

The Baptist Brotherhood of Texas, with R. A. Springer, Dallas, state secretary, and Judge E. S. Cummings, Abilene, Brotherhood Convention state president, is taking the debt-paying campaign as its principal objective for the remainder of this Convention year.

bodying the WTCC plan. The bill was offered at the last session and passed the house by a large majority vote but died in the senate. It set up machinery for centralizing financial control and management in the governor, a governor's cabinet and the legislature. It created a department of finance and control with budget, purchasing and personnel divisions. It vested pre-auditing functions in the comptroller and gave the legislature control over post-auditing.

Rep. Humphrey said he will introduce his bill on the first day of the session opening next January. He asserted that "there is no better time than during a war period to modernize our administrative organization for more efficiency and economy." WTCC officials said the Public Affairs committees will at once start contacting their own legislators, laying the program before them and soliciting support for Humphrey's bill.

IMPORTANT NOTICE To the General Public

The W. R. WOMACK BURIAL ASSOCIATION is growing steadily. We now have more than 1,000 paid members. Every death claim has been paid. Enough money is on deposit to pay several $150.00 claims. The Association is growing daily.

We want to have five hundred new members by December first. Make yourself a committee of one to invite your friends and relatives to become members now.

To state facts, and refute some wilful and malicious lies by an agent for another close-by Burial Association, The W. R. Womack Burial Association states:

- First: That it has not sold out to any one;
- Second: That The W. R. Womack Funeral Home did not close up after the storm, but is open and going strong, regardless of statements made by above mentioned agent and association;
- Third: That the Funeral Home does not do any (not all of our embalming) for we have two licensed embalmers and three licensed funeral directors;
- Fourth: We have by law $150.00 on deposit at Austin—and not $7,000, as claimed by above mentioned agent.

Yours respectfully,
By W. R. WOMACK, President,
The W. R. Womack Burial Association,
Crowell, Texas
