County-Wide Meeting School Officials and Teachers Held in Crowell Monday with State Representatives Present

A special meeting, called by County Superintendent Leslie Thomas, of all the superintendents, principals and teachers in the county, was held in the district court room Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of discussing evaluative criteria for elementary schools. Miss Edigar Ellen Wilson, State Director of Elementary Education, and J. C. Jernigan, Deputy State Superintendent, of the State Department of Education, were present for the meeting.

The need for evaluative criteria for elementary schools has long been recognized but it is only recently that a definite program for the development of such material has been inaugurated. High school criteria have not been entirely suitable for evaluating elementary schools, however, the programs should be so coordinated that evaluation can proceed on the basis of the school system as a whole.

Accordingly, Miss Wilson is making a series of visits over the state to discuss and to further development of the program. Miss Wilson, in her remarks, stated that the criteria which are ultimately developed should be simple, as brief as possible without jeopardizing scope, and usable in all sizes and types of elementary schools; that the criteria which are ultimately prepared should give definite and constructive suggestions as to the nature and direction of the improvements that might be undertaken. She called especial attention to the fact that the great value in elementary school criteria lies in preparation rather than in the end-product. Miss Wilson presented a simple, yet thorough and complete mode of inaugurating the program into the schools and asked that every teacher prepare a diary of an average pupil's day in school; in this connection, she asked that a teacher be thoroughly honest in preparation of the diary regardless of any reflection that might be cast thereby.

After Miss Wilson's remarks, an interesting panel discussion was held by J. C. Jernigan, Deputy State Superintendent, on Miss Wilson's topic and the essential characteristics of a good elementary school of today. Miss Cora Carter, Miss Frances Hill and Mrs. O. W. Davenport of the Crowell Schools; Mrs. John Toile of Riverside, Mrs. T. M. Moore of Thalia, and Miss Emma Belle Hunter of Margaret, constituted the members of this panel.

After the panel, an open house discussion on the subject was sought and many valuable suggestions were received.

County Superintendent Leslie Thomas made a short talk on the need of Evaluative Criteria and the necessity of co-operation in the ultimate preparation of the program.

Quannah High School Indians to Play Crowell Wildcats in a Non-Conference Football Game, at Crowell Tonight

The Quannah High School Indians play the Crowell Wildcats in football here tonight (Thursday), at 8:30. Quannah plays in the AA Conference, but the Crowell team defeated them last season by a 20 to 12 count and should be able to give them another good game this season. The Indians have sixteen lettermen on their squad, eight of which started their games last year. In their only game played this season, they defeated Paducah 25 to 0. Crowell has split in their two games, winning from Matador by a 27 to 7 count, and losing to Floydada last week at Floydada by a 7 to 0 score. There should be more rivalry in this game than any other non-conference game in which the Wildcats will participate.

Coach Graves plans on starting the same boys who were in the opening lineup last week at Floydada.

For the word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

As the war machine continues to draw more heavily upon the man power of this community it becomes more and more the duty of those who remain at home to keep the home fires burning that the community may not succumb unduly from the loss of business while the war lasts.

The federal grand jury at Chicago advised the Chicago Tribune and affiliated newspapers of violating the law in publishing certain war information which the War Department believed should not be released to the enemy.

Bottling companies are now saving tin cans and making bottle caps from the tin. It sounds like a sensible and thrifty idea.

The woman of tomorrow, after a turn in a defense plant, won't do the repair work about the household gadgets with a hairpin as her mother used to do.

OUR DUTY

U. S. Treasury Dept.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

As great as the response has been to the bond buying campaign, I do not believe that it has yet approached the point that it may reach if the people of this country are going to escape oppressive taxes in various forms.

The difficulty lies in the fact that there are too many people in this country who have not yet begun to make the sacrifices that they are going to have to make before this war is over.

In fact there is a great many people who have not changed, in any measure, their mode or standard of living from what it was in the pre-war days.

Sooner or later this plan is going to have to be changed. This war cannot be paid for out of the surplus of individuals. It can and will be paid for out of the sacrifice of individuals, and in no other way.

The press and the radio are doing a valiant job in bringing to the minds of people daily the necessity of buying bonds, of a systematic plan of purchase even though to do so it may be necessary to do without many things.

The obvious fact that should not escape any individual is the fact that the Treasury Department whose duty it is to secure the funds to carry on the war, will not be balked or thwarted by the failure of the people to buy bonds. If the necessary money cannot be raised by this means it will be raised by taxation.

In this connection it is well to remember that money collected from the individual in taxes will not come back to him, while the money invested in war bonds will come back in ten years increased by one-third.

In view of this fact it behooves every person to rally to the bond buying effort—buy bonds first and live out of what remains.

Another reason why every individual should respond to his very utmost to the appeal to buy bonds is that after this war is over, be it long or short, there is going to come the reconstruction, the gathering together of the loose ends, the tattered and battered fragments, for the purpose of making a new world.

The individual who has invested in War Bonds is going to have a surplus that will serve to cushion the blow of readjustment. He is going to be in a position to take advantage of opportunities that the reconstruction will bring, and because of his foresight, will be years ahead of the man, who, like the grasshopper, has sung and played the summer days away and finds himself in the end overtaken by the blasts of winter.

Army Wife Gets Aid

When she appeared in court six lawyers came forward with offers of assistance.

AGREED

Of course, there's no doubt about it, young lady. By promoting more milk for more children at a penny a day cost to them or their school, the Agricultural Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture brings immediate benefits to the farmer and serves, as well, the long time purpose of encouraging the milk-drinking habit.

New School Milk Program Started in Crowell Schools

Creating new outlets for the increased production of milk by the farmers of Foard County, is the chief purpose of the new school milk program which started operating in the Crowell schools on Sept. 14, David G. Guthrie Jr., Wichita Falls, Area Supervisor, Agricultural Marketing Administration, said this week.

Every child in the participating schools will be eligible to receive milk each day at a cost of one cent a half pint under the program. Money realized from this small charge will be used to help pay for processing, bottling and delivering the milk. The marketing administration of the Department of Agriculture will pay local farmers $2.75, the regular f.o.b. price paid by city plants for unprocessed milk to be sold for consumption as fluid milk.

School officials sponsoring the program locally will be responsible for contracting with producers and handlers and will serve the milk. Guthrie declared the program will be operated without discrimination against any child or group of children. "Parents may be assured their children will receive the same treatment as their neighbor's children. All of the children will get at least one-half pint of milk for the same small cost. The motto will be 'More Milk for More Children.'"

"Everyone knows children need plenty of milk if they are to grow into strong, healthy citizens. For this reason the school milk program is one of the wisest investments we can make in the future of America," Mr. Guthrie said.

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

Still the Strongest Force: I have heard the opinion expressed that mankind is wondering about from God and that the world is less Christian than it once was. I do not believe such to be the case. I believe that the world today, in spite of all of the evidence to the contrary, is better than it has been at any time in the past. Living today is vastly more complicated than it has been at any time in the history of the race. It requires a strong man and a strong woman to resist the many alluring temptations that this complicated age offers. In spite of this there has been no break down or surrender of a single vital principle. Wrong is wrong and right is right, the same as it was in Christ's day. In the place of a scattered recognition of this fact that once existed there has come a mass consciousness of the right that is making itself felt even in times like the present. This sense of right has risen like a mighty barrier before a mad man who has needlessly plunged a world into war. Though the world has buckled on its armor and has taken up the sword, it has done so to resist destruction of ideals for all mankind, that were brought to the world by Christ. As long as there is a will in the hearts of the majority of men to preserve these things, there is no danger of Christianity dying out in the world. It is still the world's strongest force.

Red Cross Accepts Messages for Men Reported Missing

Messages for men reported "missing in action" in the Far East but not yet listed as prisoners of war, now are being accepted by the Foard County Red Cross chapter, Geo. D. Self, chapter chairman said today. He pointed out, however, that no assurance of delivery can be given.

Mr. Self said the messages will be forwarded on the exchange ship "Gripsholm," expected to sail from New York shortly. They will be sent to the International Red Cross Committee's delegate in Japan, who will make every effort to see that they are delivered if the men are in Japanese prison camps. "This effort to communicate with missing men of the Armed Forces," Mr. Self said, "has been necessitated by the Japanese failure to supply complete lists of American prisoners of war."

"Friends and relatives wishing to contact men reported missing in action, but not yet officially reported by the enemy as Prisoners of War, should contact Mr. Self. They should be able to give complete information on the missing man, including names, number, rank, military unit and last known address. The message must be filed on Red Cross form 1616 and must be limited to 25 words." In order that the message may have the best possible chance of delivery, the Red Cross urges all relatives and friends of a missing man to combine their messages on one form, according to Mr. Self. "For prisoners officially reported by the Japanese," he pointed out, "regular letters may be sent through the Prisoners of War mail, on which information may be obtained at any postoffice. It is not necessary to use the Red Cross message form in these cases."

One War Week

A calendar of events on one war job in one recent week gives a graphic picture of how General Electric is working to meet wartime emergencies.

1. THURSDAY: An order was received at an eastern G-E factory for equipment needed by a U. S. warship near Australia. A special call went out.

2. THURSDAY NIGHT: As many workers as could be efficiently employed on the job worked all night, all day FRIDAY, assembling the equipment.

3. SATURDAY: Under police escort, the equipment was rushed to a nearby airport. Traveling by plane, it arrived in San Francisco on SUNDAY.

4. WEDNESDAY: A bombing plane landed the equipment at its Pacific destination—10,000 miles from the factory—six days after receipt of order.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

A WEEK of the WAR

All motorists in the non-rationed areas of the country were asked by Price Administrator Henderson to observe the same rules in using their cars that are enforced in the rationed Eastern area, as a means of conserving rubber tires until a national gasoline rationing plan can be put into effect.

The White House issued a chart prepared by the Society of Automotive Engineers showing that the normal life of a tire is doubled when the average driving speed is reduced from 40 to 20 miles an hour, or from 50 to 30 miles an hour.

The Baruch Rubber Committee recommended that motorists be curtailed to a general average of 5,000 miles a year. The committee also recommended a national speed limit of 35 miles an hour and compulsory periodic tire inspection.

The War Production Administration recommended that motorists be curtailed to a general average of 5,000 miles a year. The committee also recommended a national speed limit of 35 miles an hour and compulsory periodic tire inspection.

The War Front

Gen. MacArthur's Australian Headquarters reported Allied Forces have kept the Japanese thrust toward Port Moresby bottled in the towering Owen Stanley Mountains while Allied aircraft swept the seas surrounding the island, bombing enemy supply ships.

U. S. Army Headquarters in London reported American Flying Fortresses and Medium Bombers successfully bombed the Scheldt Shipyards at Rotterdam, railway yards at Utrecht, an airplane factory and the St. Omer Air-drome in Nazi-occupied France.

The White House announced that during July Army Chief of Staff Marshall, Chief of Naval Operations King and Special Adviser to the President, Hopkins, conferred with high British officials in London and at these conferences certain vital military decisions directed toward taking the offensive were made.

President Roosevelt told his press conference he did not think it would be necessary to call up 18 and 19-year olds before the first of next year because Army training facilities at present are only equal to the number of men being taken in, but he is discussing with the Army whether enacting legislation will be needed soon.

War Secretary Stimson announced the Air Transport Command will establish an experimental unit of 50 trained women aviators, the Women's Auxiliary Ferrying Squadron, to ferry smaller Army planes from factories to airfields.

The natural resource industries are giving the bulk of their energies to the enormous demands of war. But when the war is over, their contribution to peacetime living will be greater than ever.

Office of Defense Transportation Director Eastman announced "no special train or bus service, including charter bus service, to football games or other sports events will be permitted. At the same time I am directing that steps be taken by my office to prevent the overcrowding of regular trains serving areas in which such events are to be held."

The ODT ordered all operators of commercial rubber borne vehicles except motorcycles to carry and show a "Certificate of Necessity" in order to obtain gasoline, tires or parts after November 15.

War Production Chairman Nelson asked war workers to stop taking an extra day off and to refrain from "quackie" strikes over minor grievances because such absences slow production.

ited payment of "penalty double-time" pay for work on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, but permitted payment of double-time for the seventh consecutive day's work and of time-and-a-half for all overtime work after 40 hours a week.

WPB Chairman Nelson ordered a 48-hour work-week established in lumber camps and sawmills in the Pacific Northwest because log inventories are the lowest in five years.

The job the natural resource industries are doing on behalf of the war effort deserves nationwide recognition and admiration.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Winter flying jackets for both the Army and Navy Air Corps are regular equipment for our aviators. They cost from $12 to $18 and are made of horsehide leather lined with sheep shearing.

Purchase of one $18.75 War Bond, for which you receive $25 in 10 years, will pay for one of these jackets so necessary for our airmen flying at high altitudes and in northern climes. So you and your neighbors can do your bit by investing at least 10 percent of your salary every pay-day in War Bonds to help pay the cost of this equipment for intrepid American flyers. Join the parade, and help top the War Bond Quota in your county. U. S. Treasury Department

There are other things which we can do to help bring about victory besides buying bonds. We can drive our cars less and save tires for the army. We can cooperate with the government by making all the sacrifices. We can help in the defense factories and in many other ways. This is a war which shall be won by cooperation and by every citizen doing his part willingly.

Having a good aim in life is all right, but you must know when to pull the trigger to get the best results.

About the most discouraged person we've seen was the one who had written a long overdue letter, and then lost it before getting it mailed.

The argument goes merrily on between the air-power enthusiasts and those who think that the airplane, vital as it is, can't win a war alone.

Such persuasive friends of the plane as Major de Sevsky are convinced that if the United Nations could build and keep in operation enough planes, Germany and Japan could be literally obliterated from the skies—and that major land operations would thus be unnecessary. The fact that the airplane has not yet proved a decisive weapon means nothing in their opinion—because no nation has as yet been able to keep up their air attacks on the scale necessary.

The majority of military experts don't go as far as this. They argue that relatively few of the bombs dropped by planes ever hit important objectives, and that the damage done can, as a rule, be swiftly remedied. They point out that constant progress is being made in air defense—such as camouflage, anti-aircraft guns and fighter planes. They think that the airplane can do an all-important job in "softening up" an enemy and in disrupting his supply lines—but that it will be up to navies and armies to finish the job.

No one can say with certainty which side is right. In the meantime, the United Nations' high command continues to prepare for a grand-scale invasion of Europe. If that invasion is to succeed, they figure, at least a million superbly-equipped fighting men must be landed—and there must be another million in reserve. This, when it happens, will be the greatest military operation in history.

Indecision is one of your handicaps which you should endeavor to overcome. Learn to do your own thinking, for your nature is most lovable and you are a general favorite.

September 24, 25, 26, 27.—You have much natural ability and good business judgment, but you hesitate to trust your own judgment. You have strong religious inclinations and want to always do the right thing. You have some charming characteristics, take great pride in your home and family, and have many friends. You are a very pleasant person, always ready to accommodate, and do many kind acts.

And the International Program... separable from Local Well-being.

rationing of gasoline, recommended by the Baruch Army, is not proposed because there is a shortage of motor oil. On the contrary, there is an abundance of gasoline of all grades, and in the production of the oil companies are for storage facilities. Gasoline is to be imposed, and to save rubber—and to aid water transportation for other uses.

At present time, gasoline is rationed in 17 Eastern states, according to the balance of supply and demand. The average driver will be entitled to about 60 miles. Supplemental allowances are given to "taxi" drivers. Practically no driving will be eliminated for the duration.

Effects of this will be felt severely in the West. In the concentrated populations, the car has not been nearly so important as it is in the West, where distances are vast and cities are far between. Furthermore, public transportation has attained a higher state of development in the big-population areas, outside of the large cities, are simply not adequate for the load long been borne by private automobiles.

The restrictions on automobile will work a veritable revolution in this nation. West of the Appalachians, where distances are vast and interurban transportation is limited, no one can estimate the effect of the slow-down that will be the result of the motor car domination of living ever since the First World War. To millions of people, the family car is as necessary as food and shelter. During the twenties, there was an evening migration away from cities into suburbs. Men lived ten or twenty miles from their places of work. Just how these people will react to the new situation is to be cut to the heart of an unanswered question.

It seems impossible to just how well or badly the synthetic rubber program is making out. The oil industry is making a big bet on the manufacture of rubber from oil derivatives. The companies say that they can produce synthetic rubber which will give fair service if slowly. A start is being made to produce another kind of synthetic rubber from grain alcohol. However, there seems little question but that the program in general is moving too slowly—and is largely the fault of the government. No two high public officials have been able to agree on what should be done. As a result, it will probably be a long time before anything resembling an emergency supply of rubber is available for civilians.

in the next year, without transportation problems become acute. Tires are real-tying to wear out in volume, and more and more are going into dead storage because of rubber. This is going to be a serious problem in farm production in a critical year. Street car and bus companies are doing the best job for the most part, but simply haven't enough rubber to meet the need. Interurban transportation was abandoned long ago in many parts of the country, and the tracks were torn up. We in America depend almost entirely on the motor car for short-haul transport. So the lack of rubber remains our Number One domestic problem.

Methodist Church. We are taking this opportunity of expressing our appreciation to those co-operating with us in the recent revival meeting. The other churches of town very graciously dismissed many of their services to worship with us. I express the wishes of Brother and Sister Flowers in thanking you for the fine support given by many of our members in attending, the courtesies shown them while here, and the nice offering so willingly given at the close of the meeting. They spoke very highly of their fine, and comfortable home with Mrs. J. H. Shults, their meals at Mrs. Belle McKown's and the DeLuxe Cafe. There were many others who made their stay a pleasant one and we trust, beneficial to many people of Crowell.

Our services will resume their regular hours next Sunday but may we hope for renewed interest on the part of the membership. Now that the winter months are approaching upon us and Church attendance always has an increased attendance at this season of the year, we urge our delinquent members to renew their church vows and let their loyalty be an inspiration. Certainly the church has a place in the economy of life and in service to our "National Preparedness."

Christian Science Services. "Reality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 27. The Golden Text is: "Thou, O Lord, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation" (Lamentations 5:19).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life" (Proverbs 4:23).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "We must form perfect models in thought and look at them continually, or we shall never carve them out in grand and noble lives" (page 248).

Weekly Sermon. By the Rev. Harold L. Lundquist, D. D., Member of Faculty, Bible Institute, Chicago.

Our Personal Rights. "Personal liberty"—what endless misuse was made of that expression when men, seeking the right to refoed this country with intoxicating liquors, were attacking prohibition.

My liberty ends, as someone has well said, where yours begins. I have the personal liberty to swing my arms as far as the tips of your nose, but there my liberty ends. All of life must be built on that principle. For the Christian, there is an even higher measure of responsibility—his relationship to God, and his consequent heart-interest in the welfare of others.

1. The Way of Emptiness and Disappointment (Eccles. 2:1-4, 11, 11).

Physical pleasures do not satisfy. Men who have tasted life's distress and disappointment are prone to think that if they only had all the money they wanted, and an opportunity to partake of life's thrills, they would be happy. Solomon had everything. He deliberately set himself to prove the pleasures of this world. He planned to "enjoy" intoxicants—doing it "with wisdom." Note it, you who advocate the moderate use of alcohol (whatever that may be). Solomon found it to be only in vain emptiness (see Prov. 23:31, 32).

What is true of wine is also true of the attempt to satisfy oneself by the gratification of any physical appetite. Those who live for the pleasures of the flesh can reap only corruption (Gal. 6:8).

Solomon also sought real joy in labor, in accomplishing worthy ends. There is a satisfaction in work well done, but that joy is only lasting when the doing of the work is for the glory of God. The great Goethe, who set himself to enjoy art, science, and literature, came to his seventieth year to testify that he had "never had four weeks of genuine pleasure."

2. The Way of Victory, Peace, and True Joy (Rom. 6, 17-23; 14:21).

Thanks be to God, there is a way to find freedom from the sin and disappointment of life. It comes by personal allegiance to God. Clear thinking on spiritual matters recognizes that the one who boasts of his personal liberty, his freedom from God's control over his life, is in reality the slave of sin. On the other hand, the one who is a willing bond-slave of Jesus Christ is free. The way of victory and peace is to yield to God, even as the way of defeat and disappointment is to yield to sin. The first way leads to joy in this life, and eternal fellowship with God. The other way results in ultimate ghastly disillusionment in this life, and eternal spiritual death and separation from God.

The way of joy also comes by recognized responsibility for others. "None of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself" (Rom. 14:7). Yet that is the obvious assumption under which men live. The principle stated in Romans 14:21 should govern all of our actions. What would happen if every processed follower of Christ would thus evaluate his every personal habit?

Crowell PTA Will Observe Fathers' Night Tuesday

Judge C. Y. Welch of Quanah, district judge, will be the principal speaker at the Fathers' Night program of the Crowell PTA which will be held in the High School auditorium next Tuesday night, Sept. 29, at 8:15 o'clock. Special musical numbers will be a part of the program. A room full of parents present will be made and room awards will be made for the largest attendance. A separate award will be made in each division, primary, intermediate and high school.

A large attendance should be at this first meeting of the year's outline of work and every one, whether PTA members or not, is urged to attend.

County Federation Meets at Margaret

The Foard County Federation of Women's Clubs met Tuesday with the Margaret Home Demonstration Club at the Methodist Church in Margaret. Mrs. Jno. S. Ray was program leader for the day.

Mrs. H. Schindler, the president, was in charge of the business meeting which preceded the program. Plans were made to further the interests of the County Federation Library and the fact was brought out that, due to the low rate of postage on books, a book can be returned by those living in rural sections, for 1 1/2 cents. Mrs. F. C. Brooks was elected as secretary, after the resignation of Mrs. A. Y. Beverly had been received.

Mrs. Brooks gave the devotion, on "Burdens and Discipline," from the book, "Happiness Road," by Alice Hegan Rice. Mrs. Bax Middlebrook brought an interesting story of "Stalin." Mrs. Schindler talked on the subject, "Little Lady of Burma Road."

After a delicious covered dish lunch served at the noon hour, the program was resumed with "The Highlights of Australia," which was well given by Mrs. Herman Kincheole. She stated that a great many of the Australian cities were named for illustrious English people. Mrs. S. E. Tate discussed "New Zealand" as the closing talk. The program was concluded by a quiz on "Australia and New Zealand," conducted by Mrs. Ray.

Baptist W. M. U. Meets Monday

The ladies of the Baptist W. M. U. met in the home of Mrs. Frank Moore Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Audie Brown was in charge of an interesting lesson on Missions.

Refreshments of mince pie and coffee were served to eleven members and two visitors.

The W. M. U. will meet again on Sept. 28, in the home of Mrs. W. B. Fitzgerald at 10 a. m. for a covered dish luncheon and the State Mission week of prayer program.

Garden Club Holds Meeting Friday

The Crowell Garden Club met in a called meeting Friday afternoon, Sept. 18, at the Christian Church.

The club voted to omit the fall meetings and begin again with the January meeting. This action was taken because the club realizes the amount of work every one has in cleaning up after the storm and in the rebuilding of their homes. Inasmuch as it is evident that it will be impossible to do much fall planting, it was deemed advisable to wait until spring when the work of rebuilding will have been finished and more thought can be given to garden work, both local and civic.

Mrs. R. L. Kincaid is acting as president. Further notice of the next meeting will be given through The Foard County News.

Girl Scouts Have Court of Awards

The Girl Scouts of Crowell held a court of awards, by firelight, at the "Little House" Friday night at 7:45, after the group had attended church.

Four girls had completed the Tenderfoot test and received pins at this time. They were Betty Barker, Betty Brock, Doris Jean Roberts and Roniyn Self.

Those who had finished the requirements for a second class badge are Ruth Barker, Jo Favor, Sharon Sue Haney, Margye Martin, Doris Jean Roberts and De Alva Thomas.

Proficiency badges have been completed as follows: Betty Seale, the cook, bibliophile, housekeeper, first aid and swimmer; Jo Favor, the first aid, housekeeper, junior citizen and bibliophile; Ada Jane Magee, the swimmer and first aid; Sharon Sue Haney, the first aid, cook, housekeeper, swimmer and bibliophile; Larue Graver, the cook, first aid, junior citizen and bibliophile; De Alva Thomas, the swimmer; Margye Martin, the housekeeper, and Ruth Barker, the first aid.

Betty Seale, Jo Favor, Sharon Sue Haney and Ada Jane Magee told of some of the most interesting things that they did in earning the first aid, bibliophile, junior citizen, cook and swimmer badges.

The group sang several songs and then joined the songnight circle. Ada Jane Magee served as master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Games were played until a late hour and the girls, with Mrs. T. D. Roberts and Miss Frankie Kirkpatrick, spent the night and had breakfast at the "Little House."

B. & P. W. CLUB

The Business and Professional Women's Club enjoyed a dinner meeting at O'Connell's Lunch Room on September 17 with Mae Solomon, Lottie Russell and Sally Archer as hostesses.

A two-course meal was served on card tables and was literally "blitzed" with battle-ships, destroyers, aircraft carriers, submarines and "P-40's." The centerpiece for each table consisted of a circular reflector bordered with roses, and fern, in the center of which was a ship. The airplanes or "P-40's" comprised the place cards which were made of candy, chewing gum and life savers, with the names written on the wings.

Following the dinner course, games of "Bug" were played by the following: Maxine Lee Collins, Lillie Welch, Sally Archer, Inez Spencer, Alma Walker, Estelle Powers, Christine Tackett, Gussie Todd, Irene O'Connell, Gusta Davis, Louise Fisch, Mae Solomon, Blanche Hays, Hazel Harrison, Lottie Russell and Ura Orr.

The club is appreciative of favors used in arrangements for the occasion which were furnished by Mrs. Merl Kincaid and Mrs. G. M. Canup.

American Red Cross Cancels Charter of Neutral Ship to Carry Supplies to Military Prisoners in Japan

The Japanese refuse to allow any neutral vessel to cross the western Pacific to carry the American Red Cross to cancel the charter of the S. S. Karamagora, neutral Swedish ship originally chartered to carry supplies for American military prisoners and civilian internees held in Japan, occupied China, and the Philippines. Geo. Self, chairman of the Foard County Chapter of the Red Cross, has been advised.

The vessel has been released to the owners and the supplies unloaded to be held in San Francisco until other arrangements can be made. Mail and packages for identified prisoners in Japan have been transferred to the neutral exchange ship, the Gripsholm, Mr. Self said.

"It is expected that the Gripsholm will sail shortly with Japanese to be exchanged for American non-combatants at the neutral port of Lourenco Marques in Portuguese East Africa," Mr. Self declared, adding that mail and other supplies for prisoners of war also will be transferred to Japanese exchange ships and carried to Japan where Paravizini, International Red Cross Committee delegate, will supervise their distribution throughout the Far East.

"The supplies to be carried by the Gripsholm includes: 60,000 standard eleven-pound food parcels; 14,000,000 cigarettes; $35,000 worth of drugs and medical supplies; $95,000 worth of blankets and toilet articles, and large quantities of underwear, shoes and other articles, including prisoner of war relief supplies carried for the Army and Navy Departments," Mr. Self said he had been advised.

"The Gripsholm also will carry hundreds of messages for American men reported missing after the fall of Bataan and Corregidor, but whose names have not yet been reported by the Japanese to the International Red Cross Committee on official prisoner of war lists," Chairman Self reported.

"The Japanese government has agreed to accept and deliver this material in Manila and other regions where there are American prisoners," Self said.

Supplies sent by the American Red Cross on the first voyage of the Gripsholm from New York on June 18 already have been received in Yokohama by the International Red Cross Committee delegate. Included in the first shipment were 20,000 standard food parcels, $50,000 worth of drugs and medical supplies, 1,000,000 cigarettes, 10,000 tins of smoking tobacco, and large quantities of clothing and toilet articles supplied by the Army and Navy departments for their respective prisoners. Distribution to American prisoners of war and civilian internees in the Far East is being affected under the supervision of the International Red Cross Committee.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

A round table discussion highlighted the meeting of the West Side Home Demonstration Club at the home of Mrs. W. Scott on Wednesday, Sept. 23. Each member favored a different gadget as being the most useful. There was a good attendance of members and one visiting. The meeting will be an all day affair with Mrs. J. T. King.

Cookin' a Little Something for Japs

Prig. Gen. William O. Butler, head of the U. S. army air base in Alaska, is shown discussing future plans with Col. William O. Eason at an Alaskan air base. Colonel Eareckson was recently awarded Distinguished Service Cross. The big job ahead is to get the Japs out of the Aleutians.

Brief Bits of News From Here and There

Since the rationing of coffee is a certainty, it is interesting to note some of the substitutes for this beverage that has been employed by different countries and people in the past when conditions and circumstances cut short the supply. In sections parched grains of various kinds have been used as a coffee substitute. Dandelion stalks, dried and roasted have served. Wild roses and acorns dried and roasted have been also used as substitutes. In Belgium chicory is employed to make coffee go farther. In this country, in hard times, dried barley, rye, wheat and carrots have been reported. Another substitute was dried and roasted corn. Two parts of dried peas and one part of coffee served one neighborhood in a pinch. One woman mixed corn meal and sorghum into a dough, dried it, roasted and pulverized it. Hazelnuts, acorns and okra have in turn been tried. They serve as substitutes merely. Nothing has ever been found to take the place of coffee.

What it means to our Allies when an American freighter is sunk may be gained from a check up of the cargo that an average freighter carries. An average cargo consists of 6,000 barrels each of dried eggs and dried milk, 20,000 boxes of cheese, 14,600 cans of pork, 2,500 boxes of cured pork, 16,800 boxes of lard, 6,061 sacks of flour, and 26,111 cases of canned vegetables.

At the end of 1941 there were 29,393 automobile "grave yards" in the United States. These contained an estimated 918,000 junk cars.

According to a statement issued recently by the U. S. Navy, shipping losses to Murmansk, the Northern port of Russia, sometimes run as high as fifty per cent.

It will not be possible to hoard coffee as sugar was in some instances hoarded. Coffee will not keep without deterioration, even when sealed in air tight containers.

Last year railroad crossing accidents resulted in 1930 persons being killed and 4,885 injured. Strangely enough a good many crossing accidents resulted when people drove into the side of the trains.
