Roosevelt Lauds War Services Of Scouts on "Uncle Sam's Team"

WRITING of the "many evidences of the practical value of Scout training", President Franklin D. Roosevelt assures each of the nation's 1,570,962 Boy Scouts, Cubs and their leaders a place on "Uncle Sam's team to help us win the war."

"As one who has been interested in Scouting over many years it has been most heartening to have so many evidences of the practical values of Scout training as we organize our armed forces for the task ahead of us. We must remember that next to active military service itself, there is no higher opportunity for serving our country than helping youth to carry on in their efforts to make themselves physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight, and prepared to help their country to the full in time of war, as well as in time of peace."

President Roosevelt

"THE record of Scout service to our country during the past critical year," he wrote, "fully justifies the confidence which I expressed in my message to you on February eighth of last year. Much more will be asked of the Boy Scout as we go forward with our program to preserve our liberty and to bring peace on earth through complete victory over our enemies. I have full confidence that the Boy Scouts will effectively meet every request made of them. Each and every Scout has reason to feel proud of the part he has as a member of Uncle Sam's team to help us win the war."

"ALTHOUGH we are at war and the immediate emergency situation dominates the life of the nation, the American people should continue to be on the alert to meet their responsibilities to our youth. We must make sure that those volunteer agencies which are supplementing the church, the home and the school by providing programs that will help equip the present generation to cope with life problems in the difficult days ahead, are maintained to their maximum capacity and effectiveness."

COMMON-SENSE JUSTICE NEEDED

Retail merchandising has fought aggressively and successfully in an effort to hold prices to the lowest possible levels consistent with the times. It voluntarily put into effect "price control" measures of its own devising long before the OPA was established. In many instances, merchants reduced their already modest profits in order to keep from increasing the price of goods to the consumer. In practically all instances, retailing did everything in its power to increase efficiency and reduce overhead—and the consumer reaped the benefit of the savings made.

This is a matter of record—and consumer groups, press associations and ranking government officials have publicly praised it. For that reason, it is to be hoped that the OPA will act with common-sense justice in enforcing its price control regulations. It would be a national calamity if OPA inspectors attempted to "crack down" with vengeance on merchants, in the hope of making exaggerated headlines. There can be no excuse for merchants who deliberately violate the law—and they should be hauled into court and tried. But the merchant who makes honest mistakes is in a very different category from the profiteer. According to authorities on merchandising, it is likely that a careful check would show that practically every store in the nation is "guilty" of some minor violation of the rules. And the reason for that is simple—the price control rules are very complicated, and thousands of retailers haven't yet had time to put them into effect with 100 per cent accuracy.

The job of the OPA at this time should be to aid retailing—to point out mistakes, to make clear interpretations of the regulations, and to help merchants conform. Then legal action should be taken against merchants who are obviously trying to "beat the law." That is the wise policy.—Industrial News-Service.

Texas Ranked Second in Observing National Hospital Day

Observance of National Hospital Day in Texas was one of the most successful in the United States this year according to the report made to the War Conference of the American Hospital Association in session this week in St. Louis.

State Chairman W. R. McBee put into effect a Hospital Day program which was participated in by every hospital in Texas which held special open house programs to demonstrate to the public the work which Texas hospitals are doing during the war time emergency.

By studying the past some one has said you can tell pretty much what the future will be. This would be true any normal year, but this is not a normal year.

HISTORY

Navy—October 27: Navy Day is the anniversary of two important events in the history of the United States. It is the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, twenty-sixth president of the United States and also the anniversary of the report of a special committee of the Continental Congress in 1775 in favor of buying merchant ships as the foundation of an American Navy.

AN IMPORTANT OMISSION

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

Everywhere one goes these days one hears the expression that not much interest is being taken in politics.

Various reasons are given for it. Perhaps the one most commonly accepted is that the war has taken people's minds off such things and they no longer take the interest in politics they took in times of peace.

I believe this is true. Whether consciously or not, many in their subconscious minds are worrying about the war. There is scarcely a home that has not been touched by it.

Another reason for the lack of interest in politics is the fact that many men and women representing the younger and more active elements of each community have gone to work in defense plants, and being far removed from local community life, and surrounded with a new and active and interesting life, have more or less lost contact with matters in the home community.

This is true all over the nation. As a result in the primary elections the country over about 18 per cent of the voters have been able to choose the nominees of both major parties. In those cases in which there were spirited contests between two candidates less than one-half of the voters chose the nominees.

This is an unfortunate situation in a democracy such as ours where the chief safeguard of our government lies in the interest and the alertness of the voter to select the best leadership possible at all times.

More now than at any time in the past, I think, should the most careful attention be paid to the type of men who are going to represent us in Congress. These, more than any others, are going to be in a position to affect our progress and our welfare, both while the war is in progress, and in the peace that is to follow.

In my opinion there has never been a time in the history of the country when wise, clear thinking, competent leadership was more needed than it is now. It is not enough that a man be sincere. Along with being sincere he must have the vision, the capacity, the ability to see ahead. He must be capable of submerging his own individual prejudices and looking at the situations that present themselves in a far sighted, open minded, nonpartisan manner.

I think, too often, men excuse their error by saying that they are sincere in what they are doing. We should not forget that it is possible to commit serious errors and great blunders in a spirit of complete sincerity. Being sincere is not, and should not be, an alibi for good government, for open mindedness, and clear thinking.

It is the sacred obligation of those at home to vote—an obligation that no good citizen will shirk in times like these. It is also the obligation to know, as far as humanly possible to know, the qualifications of those seeking places in Congress. To do less is to fail those who have been sent out to defend this liberty—to hold in small regard the things for which our boys and men are giving their lives—our liberty.

Items below were taken in whole or in part from the issue of The News of Oct. 25, 1912:

The Orient is expected to reach Fort Stockton by Oct. 30, according to a half page ad telling of the big round trip excursion to that city for $10, given by the Orient Townsite Co. Ft. Stockton was pictured in this ad as the magic city of the Southwest, the next big railroad division, with thousands of dollars being expended, and an urgent appeal to those with money to get in on the ground floor.

From Gamble Items—The people of the community were very much alarmed the other day, when they saw a dense smoke coming from toward Crowell. Everybody thought surely the train was coming right down the big road. But the situation was soon cleared up when Hiram Gray was seen coming reared back on his cotton frames puffing a "Turkey Red."

Economic Highlights

National and International Problems Inseparable from Local Welfare.

In the view of many writers, one of the obstacles to the swift and efficient prosecution of the war is what might be termed the "Washington mentality." It is an insidious form of disease which seems to strike a great many government workers, both the important and the obscure. The symptoms are an ever-expanding bureaucracy which is bound lock, stock and barrel in miles of red tape.

In a recent column, Dorothy Thompson touched on this trouble. "In Washington," she wrote, "the facts of life are the government itself. Therefore all the struggles of life occur inside the government. In a normal city there is a constant interplay of interests, and one meets, day by day, industrialists, artists, officials, teachers, physicians, and all sorts and conditions of men, so that there is a constant correction and adaptation of one viewpoint to another viewpoint. In Washington, since there is no normal intercourse, the world enters in the form of lobbyists—ambassadors from groups in the nation to the capital. And eventually the domestic life of the nation becomes as complicated as foreign policy."

In Washington, in short, thousands of people are continually striving for political or economic power of some sort. The big men in the government—the President, his cabinet, the heads of major departments—are surrounded by "yes" men who are seeking to curry favor in high places. As a result, many of the big men become super-sensitive to criticism. They lose touch with the country. Often they are tremendously overworked, and their energies are devoted to routine matters which could and should be done by underlings. There is a tremendous waste of time and effort in making decisions on matters of major policy.

The Presbyterians report the largest membership in the 236 years history of the church in this country. The 8,674 churches recorded 2,040,492 communicants. Contributions by the churches totaled $44,758,104, the largest amount since 1933.

The lack of cohesion in the seat of our government has been shown many times. It has become a commonplace for top officials to make opposed declarations on the same subject. The rubber problem is the prime example of that—practically everyone in Washington has had his say about it, and the result has been a vast and needless confusion in the public mind. Selective Service policy is still another example. Every few days a new dictum is handed down—and very often it is greatly at variance with the one which preceded it. General Hershey says one thing, the state draft directors say another, some spokesmen for the Manpower Commission or the War Labor Board say still another—and then the local draft boards, which are laws unto themselves, go blithely ahead and do what they please.

According to capital veterans, some of the ablest men in the country have gone to Washington—and unconsciously become victims of the "Washington mentality." As the old proverb has it, they can't see the forest because of the trees. They too are entangled in red tape, and they tend to regard criticism as a sort of treason. And in the meantime, the bureaucracy grows bigger and better entrenched, and the wheels move slower and slower.

Dorothy Thompson believes that the answer, in part, is to "decentralize our bureaucracy—decentralize it to the point where once a clear policy has been laid down, decisions can be made all over the country and far away from Washington." Still another essential is to free responsible officials of routine paper work so that they can lay down clear policies. And a third essential is to stick to policies once they are made—and to keep third-string officials from bedeviling the public with confused and contradictory statements.

Any major change in Washington must be made by the President himself. The most important bureaus are under the control of the Executive branch, rather than Congress. He makes all the important appointments of personnel, and he has the power to clean house whenever he wants to, and as thoroughly as he wants to. All agree that among the many men he has brought to Washington, there are numerous top rate ones. But it is felt that in many cases these men have not been given sufficient authority to adequately perform their jobs. And in many other cases these men have unconsciously tended to become complacent, and they need shaking up.

said Assistant Secretary of the Navy Board, recently. "And should damn well understand it," Lieutenant General Somers struck a similar note when he said: "If we continue to lose a little while longer, it will be late to save ourselves, America and civilization."

Anyone who will take the trouble to compare a world map of today with a world map of 1914 will agree with those authorities. The United Nations are in danger of becoming the "August" part of the world's most vital natural resources. All the Axis nations in quantity is oil—and we have not yet made the Middle East which possesses gigantic and fully-developed oil resources, safe from Hitler.

For that reason, it can no longer be truly said that "time works with the Allies." Time, instead, is running short. So the fact that war production in August was 10 per cent behind the first-of-the-month forecasts (according to Donald Nelson) takes on a more serious significance. Those forecasts were admittedly very high. But they must be met, no matter how tough the job is.

Rent-Saving Amendment to Be Voted On in General Election, November 3

An economy measure for Texas, to stop the state's paying out over $100,000 a year for office rent in Austin, will be before the voters in the Nov. 3 general election, it was pointed out in a joint statement of Sen. George Meffert of Chillicothe and Rep. Herbert F. Brawner of Joshua.

Adoption of a constitutional amendment to apply the present rent payments to construction of a state office building, and permanently ending this huge outlay for rent, will achieve this purpose, the legislators declared.

Sen. Meffert and Rep. Brawner are co-authors of the amendment which appears on the general election ballot as amendment No. 5. They pointed out that both the house and senate gave it virtually unanimous approval, in submitting it for a vote of the people.

The proposed state office building will not be started, they stressed, until after the war, when building materials are available without interfering with the war effort.

The amendment permits the state to pay for the building entirely out of money it is now spending for rent. Further, it makes the short-term bond issue to finance the building eligible for investment of the state permanent school fund, which means that the state would pay itself all the interest on the bond issue. The measure is favored by the state educational authorities who have charge of safely investing the permanent school fund.

When the amendment has been adopted, its sponsors outlined, and when war conditions permit, the legislature will pass an enabling act to carry out its purposes. This will direct the board of control to erect a suitable structure. It would authorize the board of education to invest permanent school funds in the bond issues — which is limited to $2,000,000 — and it will provide that the present state appropriations for rent be put into the fund for paying off the short-term bonds. Then, when the bonds are paid off, the state will own the structure, and the payment of the huge annual rent costs will be ended permanently.

The state now rents office space in Austin in more than a dozen office and business buildings. It also rents a considerable number of old residences, and even an abandoned funeral parlor. It is now trying to use the basement of

Enlistment Drives By Navy Recruiters Will Be Intensified

With Congress on the verge of enacting legislation which will see 18 and 19-year-old boys drafted, possibly by December 1, Navy recruiters will intensify enlistment drives in the Wichita Falls territory during the coming weeks.

"Opportunities to learn and follow in the Navy fifty different trades are waiting for eligible young men, many of whom already have taken advantage of the Navy trade schools and have been given naval ratings," Jack C. Hamrick, recruiter in charge of the Wichita Falls office, said this week.

His itinerary during the next few weeks calls for visits to Seymour on Wednesday, Vernon on Thursday, and nearby towns as the demand arises. Anyone seeking information about enlistment in the Navy is urged to contact him in the town of nearest convenience.

Besides enlistments leading to trade school training, the Navy is offering three special programs to young men now in universities or with university degrees. A commission awaits these young men who successfully qualify, and who may be interviewed November 7 by traveling recruiters at Hardin Junior College in Wichita Falls.

Skilled construction workmen, including pipefitters, pipelayers, riggers, shovel operators, mechanics, and electricians, are vitally needed at the present time to fill vacancies in the ranks of Seabees, overseas construction battalions, Mr. Hamrick emphasized. An interviewing officer will be in Dallas October 26, 27 and 28, to determine qualifications of applicants and assign ratings, after which enlistees will be placed on inactive duty.

Also being sought are officers' cooks, officers' stewards, and mess attendants, who are being given ratings without delay.

to be awarded to all army personnel killed or wounded by enemy action, according to the war Department. The award will be made posthumously to relatives of military or civilian personnel who met death while serving in any capacity with the army. It will also be given to all wounded while serving in the army provided the wounds require medical attention. In the past the award has been made to those who apply for it, but now it is automatic. The Purple Heart was authorized by George Washington August 7, 1782, during the Revolution. The decoration was revived by the War Department February 22, 1832. It is in the form of a gold heart with a gold silhouette of Washington in the center. This is mounted on a background of purple enamel. The medal is suspended from a purple ribbon which is edged in white.

The most serious aspect of the war at the present time is the lack of nurses. Young women are being urged to take nurses training.

The army has called for 45 million pounds of the new pack apple butter.

As a solution for the farm help question in agricultural sections it has been suggested that stores in small towns open but one-half day. The other half day to be spent in harvesting crops.

ROTARY CLUB
Visitors at the Wednesday meeting of the Crowell Rotary Club were Rotarian Johnnie Jones of Quanah, J. O. Cure of Gilliland, Jim Polk, Boy Scout field executive of Childress, Mrs. Claude Brooks and Mrs. T. B. Klepper.

T. B. Klepper was in charge of the program which consisted of an interesting review of the book, "Caribbean Conspiracy," by Brenda Conrad, given by Mrs. Brooks.

the capitol for work of some of its departments with a serious loss in efficiency.

The supreme court and court of criminal appeals are now in the capitol. Many of their archives and records are stored, with other important state documents, in the capitol basement which has been pointed out by every recent legislature as a serious fire hazard. For several years, the Texas State Bar association and the Texas Bar have labored continuously to secure adequate and suitable housing for the appellate courts. The bar now has a committee co-operating with state authorities, in the effort to work out housing of state courts, departments and agencies, so that the courts will have better facilities for their work.

The state already has dedicated a vacant half-block of land adjoining the capitol grounds, as the site for a building. This was done when the legislature tried to secure construction of a small building merely to house the courts, but the plan was expanded by the legislature also to provide for the departments now paying rent and to save the enormous outlay of money paid out as rent. No purchase of land for a site is involved.

No objection so far has been heard from any source to this economy measure, its sponsors reported. They urged that Texas voters be familiar with the benefits which will arise from adoption of the state office building amendment, and not permit indifference to defeat the proposal.

MY DAY IN CHS (By A Student)

The bell rings—everyone scurries to the classes, hoping that the teacher won't notice he was late and make him go and get a permit. The First Period—Miss Patterson tells how to borrow money at the bank—successfully or how to bathe a baby. Second Period—Mrs. Graves rushes in and tells Albert Bird to wear shoes to school tomorrow—because his boots make too much noise; or she tells DeWitt Cauthan to quit smiling and go on to the pencil sharpener. Third Period—Miss Thompson explains the formula of a problem while Paul Vecera, Booty Bird, Bill Owens and "Killer" White discuss the football plays. Fourth Period—Back to Mrs. Graves and her interpretation of "Jim Blue-so." The bell rings and a mad dash is made for the front door and lunch. Fifth Period—Mrs. Manard keeps a very orderly and quiet Study Hall. Sixth Period—Mrs. Sloan comes in just in time to catch Lee J. Stout, Booty Bird, Jean Scales and Betty Owens eating tomatoes out of the garden. Seventh Period—English! That is enough said. Eighth Period—Another "Manard Study Hall" or go to the typing room. At last the bell rings, and everyone knocks everyone else down trying to get out. No more school until about nine thirty in the morning. Hot Diggety Dog!

BERLIN OR BUST

The first period English II class has announced the organization of a very worthy patriotic club which meets every Wednesday morning. The name chosen for the club was "Berlin or Bust." The class has figured up how much money has been invested in the government and the results are something to be proud of.

Through the school, our class bought $44.75, but the total investment of the class as a whole since the war bonds went on sale is $590. The grand total being $634.75 since the outbreak of the war. As we buy these stamps and bonds, we try to remember that we are not giving our money away, but investing it instead. Do your best along this line for Victory's sake!

HOME ECONOMICS III CLASS BOMBS TOKYO

The Home Ec. III Class dropped another bomb on Tokyo this week by buying $1.75 worth of defense stamps. The class has been 100 per cent in the buying of stamps and bonds since the first of school, and they plan to keep their record.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: This letter may be a little different from other "Letters to the Editor," but I feel that it is as important. I am asking the age-old question of "Why can't people (some people) take a joke?" I believe the students of Crowell High School could (and will) co-operate a little more with the staff of the Wildcat, if they are able to take a joke. After all, it is all in fun and believe me, everyone likes someone that can take a joke. I am talking to every student in CHS and not to one particular one and I mean no offense—it is just a word of advice. Yours truly, A Student.

Dear Editor: I have come to the conclusion that we need more supplies in the kitchen of the Home Economics Department. We need more stoves, more dishes, better linens, more silverware, more tables, more cooking utensils, and more money. The stoves we have are good ones, but there are only three, while there are at least twenty girls trying to use them. Money is needed for the arranging of the meals. Most important of all is the lack of interest. Some of the girls show no concern and appear to be disinterested. Without our excellent teacher, there would be no Home Making Department at all.

Yours truly, Mentie Brisco.

Personalities of CHS

Several resemblances of noted characters have been found in CHS. They are: Jimmie Durante—Billy Bruce. Zazu Pitts—Mentie E. Brisco. Jean Davis—Marraret Davis. Clark Gable—Booty Bird. Humphrey Bogart—John Calvin Carter. Brenda and Cobina—Betty Zeibig and Wanda Ketchersid. Mickey Rooney—John Thomas Rator. Ann Rutherford—Betty Johnson. Abbott and Costello—Alton Reeder Griffin and Stanley Russell. Alan Ladd (star of "This Gun for Hire")—Lee J. Stout. Betty Davis—Jean Scales. Scarlet O'Hara—Jo Favor. Betty Field—Rita Callaway. THE TRANSMO PEEKER

Flash! W. P. Hord again. This time it is Mary Evelyn Edwards. Wotta man! "Something new has been added" for further information ask Dorothy Hall. It seems that Craig Sandlin's motto is: "Lov'em all." Come on now, Craig, isn't there one certain girl? Has everyone noticed the forlorn look on Evelyn Flesher's face? Well, the reason is that a certain boy left for the Coast Guard Wednesday. Buck up, Evelyn, he'll be back!

We wonder why Jane Roark left the typing room so abruptly Friday afternoon. Better be careful, Jane. Personal to Ann Favor: "I hear you got home all right Friday night. Did you get your feet muddy—or did you have to walk?"—Gaylon Parris. Still very little news in Lock-er 44! Come on, kids, help us! Hardy Sanders seemed to be doing "all right" for himself Saturday night. Well, Kathleen is "all right" don't you think?

We have been hearing quite a lot about Frances Ford and Weldon Harris. We wonder, could this be serious? What's the matter, Helen? Who was the Thalia girl that Weldon Young was with Sunday afternoon?

Joan Gentry has Paul Vecera's ring—or did you know? Kenneth Archer went with Jane Roark Friday night—interesting. Wonder why Polly Davis does not have Harvey Crosoe's ring anymore? Do you suppose her present flame caught on?

We wonder who Kenneth Archer was with at the stadium the other night? It couldn't have been Betty Zeibig—or could it? Say, what about Tech? We wish Z. D. Shaw would tell who "it" is—Billie Morrison or Virginia Mabe.

John Bradford and Patsy Ketchersid have really got it bad—what happened, Raymond? It seems that Joe Ed Gillespie has stepped into Weldon Young's shoes. It seems that Joe Ed is really creating a stir among the girls.

Saturday night: Gaylon Parris and Ann Favor; John Calvin Carter and Betty Johnson! We wonder if Betty Zeibig is still true to Truman Taylor? Confidentially, we think she is!

We just wonder why "Cotton" McNeese don't give some of "Le Crowell girls a break and pay just a little attention to some of them. Come on, Cotton, give us a break.

Bill Owens seems to have it pretty bad over Ruth Diggs. This makes the third Saturday night he has gone with her in a row. Well, Margaret, don't just sit there—do something! We hear that J. E. Darman really writes the "mushy" letters. Take for instance, the one found in Study Hall Tuesday morning. J. E., be careful where you leave your letters.

Miss Ferguson: "For the present, we give up, but... when we do find out, well... poor you!" Good glory! The test grades just came in (There will be a short permission while we try and bring the Transmo Peeker out of his faint). No luck so, until next week.

So long—and be good! The Transmo Peeker. (Signed by his Assistant—The Open Window.)

JOKES

Coach Graves: What's the matter, Trilby? I. T. Graves: My wife and I had words, but I never got to use mine.

Betty: After he kissed you three times, then what? Ann: Well, then he started to get sentimental.

Who was that lady I saw you outwit last night? Eva: Lewis, look at the cake I made all by myself.

Lewis: Who helped you lift it out of the oven? Bill O. was sitting in English chewing gum and had his feet in the aisle. Mrs. Sloan saw him and said: "Bill, take that gum out of your mouth and put your feet in."

Definitions: Oil: A nobleman of Europe. Born: A place to keep cows. Form: A place where people plant and harvest crops.

Epistle: A thing gangsters use when robbing a place. Bachelor: A man who never made the same mistake once. Old Maid: A girl who said: "No," once too often.

The years a woman takes off her age are not lost; she adds them on to the ages of other women.

Coach (after a lengthy discussion of an algebra problem): "So we find that X equals 0. John Carter: Wow, all that work for nothing."

THE GOOP

I'm the Goop who boos at all athletic events. Knowing no other way to express myself, I show my ignorance by booing. If I were the only one that booed, it would not sound so disgusting; but when I start booing every Goop and Goopette in the crowd joins in. The teachers tell me it's wrong. I have even read that every time I boo I am reflecting on the sportsmanship of my school loyalty. I have continued time after time to boo and tell the world that I am only a Goop! American English.

LET'S WIN DISTRICT, WILDCATS

(By Texas Kid) Oh, your poor Wildcats! I guess you know you have to play the Seymour Panthers Friday night. They tell me they have a good team, but don't be down hearted, boys, I am going to predict you to beat them.

This year Seymour is not a conference game. If the Wildcats win this district, they will more than likely play the Stamford Bulldogs. They defeated the Panthers a fairly large score at the first of the Bulldog season.

Wildcats, let's beat the Panthers—and the rest of the teams in this district—and play the Bulldogs—and chew their ears off.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

When the Marines get their service pack, there is included therein a bright shiny new shovel cased in a muslin carrier. The shovel costs 63 cents and the carrier 39 cents, or $1.07 for the ensemble.

These trenching shovels are used by the Marines around camp, digging trenches, setting up barbed wire entanglements and in many other ways. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps every pay day can readily equip our forces with these necessary implements for warfare. Invest at least ten percent of your income every pay day. Buy War Bonds and Stamps from your bank, your postoffice and at retail stores.

Next year farmers of upper Michigan will be asked to plant 50,000 acres of milkweed. The loss from its pods, which is six times as buoyant as cork, is used to replace kopak, formerly imported from Java, in life packets.

The Treasury's goal for the sale of War Bonds is a billion dollars a month. In July the sales totaled $900,900,000.

It's a Long Way to Base Hospital

Australian soldiers who were wounded while battling Japanese in Guinea's rugged Owen Stanley mountain country have a six-day head start before reaching the base hospital. All suffer from shot wounds. The Nips, who were once only 72 miles from Moresby, have been driven over the mountains.

MOUNTAINS OF SCRAP WILL SAVE THOUSANDS OF LIVES!

Stockpiles like this are needed all over the country so that our Government can plan our armament program—and our mills and plants can deliver the fighting metal!

Get in on the drive that starts today. Get the unused metal out of your cellar, your attic, your garage, your place of business. Without this scrap the Nation's steel mills must shut down, for all new steel is 50% scrap, and the mills have not enough for even 30 days more.

And one more thing. Help to stop the story — spread by innocents and ill-wishers alike — that there is lots of scrap already on hand. They point to junk yards, auto graveyards, and salvage depots that have not been cleaned out, as proof that there is no shortage. Kill this talk before it kills our boys!

In spite of the terrible lack of scrap, here is why you may still find full junk yards and scrap depots — and why they must be kept that way!

- All scrap must be sorted, stripped, and broken up by scrap dealers before it can be used. Their yards are full because they are busy — preparing your scrap for the mills as fast as they possibly can!
- Auto graveyards strip autos, keep the usable parts and junk the rest — turning out 450,000 tons of scrap in a typical month. Each must scrap within 60 days as many cars as he buys — that is the law!
- Scrap collections sometimes have to stay around because the dealers can't handle them all immediately. Even if they could, the mills could not store it all. The local salvage depot is a stockpile — where your scrap is available for instant use as soon as it's needed. And it will be needed!

Remember if these places become empty, the mills shut down — and we lose the war!

So get out your scrap and help your neighbors with theirs. It's the greatest single contribution you can make right now to win the war!

WHOSE BOY WILL DIE BECAUSE YOU FAILED?

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

The Temper of Steel; I read... yesterday an advertisement by the...
United Steel Company. In the... advertisement was recited among... the other accomplishments of this... great organization the production... of a certain type of steel used in... cutting tools. This particular... steel was able to hold its own...
keen cutting edge as it shaped... other forms of steel, even though...
it became red hot in the process...
Its production has made possible... great things in industry. I thought... as I read this. Here is a piece of... steel made from the same ore...
from which soft and ductile iron is... made. In the manufacture of it...
however, something is put into it...
that gives it a stamina and a... strength to stand up against any... strain or stress to which it may be subjected—and because of it...

many things have been created... which otherwise could not have... been made. How like steel is hu... man life. Put into human life... the training and discipline and... principles of Christ and it stands...
up against any strain the outside... world can put upon it. As long... as young people are sheltered by... family roof they are safe because... of its protection, but when they...
leave the shelter of the home cir... cle and get out into the world and...
meet the trials that life always...
brings they must then rely upon... the Christian training they have... received in the home. This is what... the temper is to the steel. The... training received in the Christian... home provides the temper to the... soul.

Man has now conquered almost... everything dangerous in nature...
...except human nature.

MONEY RETURNED
Money expended for life insurance always comes back... tenfold. Not a penny wasted. A life insurance policy, if... properly attended to, does not wear out and leave nothing... but the worthless remains. It does not grow shoddy and un... couth. It does not run down and get out of repair. It does... not require constant repairing. All it needs is to be kept in... force, by regular payments, and it is better after 10 or 20... years than it was the day it was purchased. It increases in... value with the years, while all other gifts you can give perish... with using.

IT'S ALL YOURS
...and the Japanazis Have Nothing Like It!
You: And, pray tell, what is it we have that the Japanazis have nothing like—and is censored?
Reddy: It WAS a road map of Uncle Sam's electric power. It DID show how high voltage transmission lines criss-cross the country—carrying power to busy war plants and to 27 million homes. It's censored as to location of cities and plants because we're glad to cooperate in concealing information that might aid the enemy.
You: What else can you tell me about it?
Reddy: This: It's the greatest electric system in the world. No other nation has anything like it. The famous British "grid system" could be dropped into one small section. It carries more power than all the Axis countries combined.
You: And how did we obtain it?
Reddy: This nation-wide transmission net work was put together in peacetime to serve you and all Americans. It was built with the savings of the people it serves... individual citizens, churches, colleges, sav... ings banks, insurance companies, all of whom invested their savings in sound electric securities. It is operated under the American system of free enterprise by men and women trained and experienced in good business management. Their success depends on bringing the greatest service to the greatest number of homes at the lowest possible cost.
You: H-u-u-m-m. Quite different from the Nazi system. Under the Japanazis, and their system of political management and state slavery, the individual, or his institutions, is nothing. Only bureaucrats and political favorites have anything to hope for.
Reddy: Yes. And in the long run, that won't win wars! Here in West Texas... in this whole country... everybody has a personal stake in Victory—and in preserving the American way of living which has made us the strongest nation on earth!

Shower Compliments Mrs. Clyde Eddy Friday Afternoon

With Mrs. Clyde Eddy, a recent bride, named as honor guest, the home of Mrs. Clint White was the scene of a lovely miscellaneous shower last Friday afternoon when Mrs. White, Mrs. Nelson Oliphant, and Misses Wilma Jo Lovelady and Juanita Brown were hostesses.

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. White and presented to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Eddy, the honoree; Mrs. Virginia Stinson, her mother; Mrs. Joe Eddy, the mother of the groom; Mrs. V. R. Snow, sister of the bride; and Mrs. H. A. Stinson, the bride's grandmother.

Mrs. Oliphant presided at the pretty bride's book where the guests were invited to register. From the register, Miss Mary Evelyn Edwards directed them to the dining room where the table was attractively laid with a lace cloth and for decoration, the punch bowl was surrounded with a wreath of greens and small flowers all placed on a reflector. The miniature bridal couple stood immediately in front of the pretty arrangement. Misses Lovelady, Betty Owens and Margie Davidson were in the dining room and served the punch and small sandwiches.

Miss Mary Helen Carroll invited the guests to the gift room, where Miss Juanita Brown assisted in entertaining, while the guests admired the many beautiful gifts from friends of the bride and groom.

The entire reception suite was lavishly decorated with colorful cut flowers of the season. Miss Virginia Thomas played piano selections throughout the afternoon.

FOARD CITY H. D. CLUB

On Oct. 20, at the home of Mrs. Lee Lefevre, members of the Foard City Home Demonstration Club and one guest, Mrs. R. B. Lilly, had an all-day meeting. Following a delicious lunch, featuring dishes using dairy products, the regular business session was opened with the group repeating in unison, the club prayer and answering roll call with a favorite scripture verse.

One of the chief topics of interest was the making and outfitting of soldier kits. The quota for the club is 25 and several have already been asked for.

Election of officers was in order at this meeting and the following officers were chosen for 1943: Mrs. Doc Borchardt, president; Mrs. Glen Shook, vice president; Mrs. A. L. Davis, secretary-treasurer; the reporter will be appointed by the new president.

At the next meeting to be held at the club house, Miss Elizabeth Elliott will give a demonstration on points for determining quality of dairy products.

No Red Cross Drive This Year: Present Funds Are Being Spent on War Services of Various Kinds

How the Red Cross is spending its $70,500,000 contributed during the organization's recent war fund, on war services was explained today by Geo. D. Self, chairman of the Foard County Red Cross chapter.

The generosity of the American people, who gave over $20,000,000 more than was originally asked during the organization's first war fund drive in World War II, made it unnecessary for the Red Cross to appeal for more funds before next March. Mr. Self said, adding that the Red Cross would not conduct its regular Roll Call this fall.

Basing his statements upon the organization's most recent report, "Since Pearl Harbor," Chairman Self said that more than half of the money is being used for direct services to the armed forces. The Red Cross, he pointed out, is responsible, under its Congressional Charter, "to act in matters of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States and their Army and Navy." The Red Cross, he said, is the "official welfare agency for the men in service—the only civilian welfare agency serving the armed forces wherever stationed." Added to that responsibility is an expanding program of recreation for servicemen in the United States and at foreign bases.

"Over the desks of the Red Cross field directors, serving wherever our troops are stationed, are poured the troubled stories of worried men in uniform," he declared. "It is the field director's job to help solve the natural human problems which arise in transition from civilian to military life. This vital service in the preservation of morale is on-

Retail Grocers May Obtain Bulletin on New Ceiling Prices

Grocers and all merchants handling food at retail may now obtain a printed bulletin explaining how to apply the new Office of Price Administration formula for determining the new legal ceiling prices. C. R. Seale, Chairman of the Foard County War Price and Rationing Board, reported today.

"Beginning October 15," Mr. Seale explained, "all food retailers were allowed to apply this formula in pricing eleven groups of foods where present mark-ups may be abnormally low."

He added that the period for making adjustments under this new formula expires at midnight, Dec. 31, 1942, so it is important that all food merchants obtain copies of this Food Retailers' Bulletin No. 2 as quickly as possible and familiarize themselves with its provisions.

It is optional to apply the new formula to breakfast cereals, rice, coffee, sugar, canned vegetables, canned fish, cooking and salad oils, hydrogenated shortening and other shortenings. However, it is mandatory to figure the new ceilings on lard and dried fruits.

Mr. Seale said retail food merchants may obtain copies of this Food Retailers' Bulletin No. 2 by calling at the Foard County War Price and Rationing Board.

Farm Transportation Committee for County Organized This Week

A County Farm Transportation Committee has been elected and organized for Foard County. The members are Grady Halbert, chairman, John S. Ray, Ernest Breedlove, R. N. Barker and Earl Steele. The purpose of the committee is to aid agriculture and the farmers in solving the problems of transportation of farm products.

Instructions from the office of Defense Transportation in Detroit, Mich., are that after Nov. 15, no truck, trailer, pickup, nor any other vehicle engaged in the hauling of farm commodities any time during the year, will be permitted to operate without a "Certificate of Necessity."

"The AAA office and Farm Transportation Committee will aid all those affected in executing an application for this certificate. October 22, 23 and 24, are the days designated throughout the United States for making these applications. Every person in the county who owns and operates one of the above described vehicles that is engaged in the hauling of any farm products during the year, is requested to call at the Foard County AAA office on one of these days for executing the application.

ly accomplished with the aid of well-organized Red Cross chapters back home. There are more than 3,700 chapters covering practically every county of America.

More than 440,000 men in the armed forces asked for and received counsel and assistance, through this important home link, in the past year—an increase of 600 per cent over the previous year.

In the large camps of the country, he continued, there are 56 Red Cross Administration buildings from which this service is rendered but in every camp, every base, every air station, this service is always available to our service men.

In addition, here at home, there are 70 hospital recreation buildings erected in hospital areas by the Army and staffed and operated by the Red Cross. Recreation programs are provided and highly trained medical case workers in hospitals, at home and abroad are provided by the Red Cross to aid the patients.

"As American troops arrived on foreign soil early in the year," he said, "it became quickly evident that not only must the Red Cross play its customary role of recreation host to hospitalized men but must serve the social needs of able-bodied men as well. In a dozen locations where troops are based abroad, the Red Cross has established extremely popular recreation centers. Overseas Servicemen's Clubs now are established in Iceland, England, Scotland, Northern Ireland, Australia and New Caledonia."

Chapter activity of the Red Cross in the interest of the serviceman is manifest in many other ways, Mr. Self said.

To co-ordinate the efforts of groups in communities near military or naval stations in utilizing resources for the comfort and recreation of servicemen, the Red Cross has inaugurated a new service, the Camp and Hospital Service Council, he said. Working through the field directors at the camps and in co-operation with fraternal service and church organizations in the communities, the Councils carry out such projects as furnishing dayrooms for able-bodied men, providing comforts for convalescents and a number of other services. The Councils had increased from 19 on December 7 to 80 in July, with 804 chapters participating in pooling their resources in behalf of adjacent posts and naval bases.

Mr. Self described, as "a vivid picture of readiness for the program," the surgical dressings program of the chapter as viewed before and after Pearl Harbor.

"The Army and Navy," he said, "had requisitioned supplies based on anticipated needs, 'should war come'; 75 per cent of the allotment was ready on December 7 and the rest delivered shortly thereafter, a grand total of 45,648,500 dressings. A new program of even greater production is in full swing. Since Pearl Harbor, chapter production corps workers have made 1,184,445 knitted articles for the armed forces as well as hundreds of thousands of personal kits."

One of the most colorful services of the Red Cross—and one which has proved among the most valuable to service men—is the Blood Donor Service. Recently, this Red Cross service was awarded the Army-Navy "E" for excellence. Through its 18 centers, the Red Cross delivered 81,493 more units of processed blood plasma that was requested by the Army and Navy by June 30. The armed forces have requested an additional 2,500,000 pints of blood before July 1, 1943, and the 18 original centers have increased their quotas. Since centers must be located near processing laboratories, many persons in communities not having centers are unable "to give a pint." However, contributions made by the millions of Americans during the last war fund are paying for the processing, which costs approximately $3 per unit, he added.

Further breakdown of the Red Cross dollar shows that 10 per cent is being used for civilian emergencies; 25 per cent for pre-pandemic-civilian training and stockpiles, and 15 per cent is earmarked for chapter use.

"The reason for this particular report is to give those millions of Americans who contributed their money to our last war fund a clearer conception of how their dollars are working for Victory. As you know, the Red Cross will not conduct another financial campaign until next March. It has long been the policy of the American National Red Cross not to participate in joint fund raising drives, because of its charter obligations. As President Roosevelt recently wrote: 'The character of the Red Cross and its responsibilities are such that the national interests will best be served if the Red Cross maintains direct contact with the people for the membership and support necessary for its work at home and abroad.'"

Bulletins on Ceiling Prices on Clothing Are Available

Merchants who sell clothing were advised today by C. R. Seale, chairman of the Foard County War Price and Rationing Board that his office now has a quantity of pamphlets explaining how to set ceiling prices for men's and boys' tailored garments and staple work clothing.

"A quantity of these pamphlets is now available for any merchant who will come by the office," Seale said, "and the pamphlets are in a very clear and concise manner. One of these pamphlets deals with men's tailored garments such as suits with short pants, suits with knicker or golf pants, suits with long pants, and suits with coats, sack coats, including those made in the manner commonly used for coats, separate topscoats and overcoats.

The other pamphlet deals with Maximum Price Regulation No. 208, governing the price of staple work clothing such as overalls, overall jackets, work shirts or dungarees, work pants and work breeches, and work clothing materials as well as carded yarn, shirting chambray and covers, finished jeans, moleskins and trawls.
