F. D. R., Churchill, Plan Final Victory

With the trumpets of the great Allied victory in Tunisia still reverberating around the world, Winston Churchill, Great Britain's prime minister, and President Franklin D. Roosevelt, met once more in Washington to further plan the "unconditional surrender" mapped out for the enemy. This was the first meeting of the two leaders since the historic conference at Casablanca. Shown at left is the President, and, at right, Winston Churchill, with his inevitable black cigar.

Various Means Will Be Used to Meet Labor Situation

At a meeting of the Foard County Victory council advisory committee Monday the labor situation was carefully considered. This committee consists of the following members: Mrs. T. W. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ray, Mrs. F. W. Tate, Homer Zeibig, Clintey McLain, Joe Orr, Howard Bursley, Leslie McAdams, R. H. Cooper, Virgil Johnson and Mack Edens, with the county and home demonstration agents as advisory members.

The chairman of this group and the County Victory Council is Homer Zeibig, and vice chairman, Mrs. T. W. Cooper; secretary, D. P. Eaton, assisted by Miss Elizabeth Elliott. Eight members of the Victory Council were present Monday.

The committee made a detailed study of the recently passed Farm Labor Law which has placed the securing and placing of farm labor upon the A. & M. Extension Service.

The purpose of the meeting of this committee was to determine just how the program should be handled in the county and whether the Victory Council should offer its services for carrying out this program.

The following conclusions were arrived at: That proper publicity be given to the program through the press, group contacts, and by sending a letter to every farm home in the county. That the various community and neighborhood leaders be called together in the various communities of the county and the program explained to them, that some one of them act as a contact representative in each of the neighborhoods in the county, through whom the labor needs and surplus labor of the producers could be relayed to the county office, and in turn, back through them to the farmers and ranchers.

That complete files of the labor needs of the farmers and any available help be kept in the county extension office. In other words, the county agent's office will act as a labor clearance office to assist the farmer to satisfy his labor needs and to secure available needed help.

The committee also encourages and proposed "Use a Boy" movement and train town boys in helpful tasks on the farm for current and future needs. It also urged the co-operative use of all farm machinery, trucks and the exchange of labor between farmers to the end that this year's crops may be planted, cultivated and harvested.

Opinion was also expressed that farms this year will have to be operated with what labor that is available here in the county, as there is now no evidence of an available supply outside the county. It is believed that the job can and will be done, and that the farmers of the county have so determined.

According to the office of War Information, over 50,000 members of the armed forces are being moved over railroads in the United States in official troop movements each day. This does not include those riding trains on furlough.

age of cigarettes. Burks was reared in Foard County but has been away for some time.

Small Investors in Texas Surpass in Buying War Bonds

Texas' man in the street paced the entire nation in the purchase of war bonds in the Second War Loan drive.

Frank Scofield, State War Bond Administrator, disclosed Monday that bond sales to individuals, partnerships and personal trust accounts nearly doubled the fixed quota.

Sales to small investors totaled 199 per cent in the 11th Federal Reserve District which comprises all of Texas and parts of Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona. Texas has 254 of the 311 counties making up this district.

The district had a goal of $400,000,000 for all bond sales in the war loan drive. It handed Uncle Sam a cool $572,451,600 to make it hot for the Axis in translation of bonds to armament and ammunition. This means the goal was oversubscribed by 43 per cent.

Banks, institutions and governmental departments invested heavily in the war loan drive, but the individual investor—the man in the street—emerges as a great factor in its success, the No. 1 Bond Salesman declared.

"This shows beyond a doubt that the average man has wholeheartedly accepted his responsibility in the people's war," Scofield added.

"Uncle Sam needs everybody in this all-out war. He called for that help and he got it. The average man has rolled up a victory of his own on the home front."

The Atlanta Federal Reserve bond sales to individual investors, District ranked next to Texas in attaining a goal of 189 per cent. The Minneapolis district was third and Kansas City fourth.

Brig. Gen. Theodore Roosevelt makes his way through a slit trench, somewhere in North Africa. The general and his son were both cited for gallantry by the war department.

Valuation Raise Made on Property in Foard County

Notices from the Commissioners' Court have gone forth to all landowners in the county advising of a raise in taxable valuations of fifteen per cent. This, very naturally, has been rendered necessary by virtue of increased cost of operation during war time and also due to the actual increase in valuation of all properties. If conditions were normal, no necessity would exist for an increase in valuation, however, it cannot be denied that that operation expenditures with reference to all phases of county administration, and, especially, road maintenance, is essentially higher than that of a year ago. It will be remembered that during the depression valuations were greatly reduced.

The court desires all to understand that this affects all landowners equally; there is no discrimination with reference thereto of any kind, character or description; further, it is believed that such increase in valuation will not necessarily mean any material increase in taxation, for, in all probability, a reduction of the tax rate can be made because certain funds will have on hand sufficient balances to justify lower levies thereon.

Any person is privileged to appear before the board, however, it is not compulsory to appear.

Important Pressure Cooker Rationing Announcement

"There will be only 150,000 pressure canners manufactured by all factories in 1943. Thus far we do not know what Texas' share will be of the 150,000, but it is estimated that one or ten thousand will be made available this year in Texas. We have no information on sealers or water bath canners being made," Miss Elizabeth Elliott, home demonstration agent, announced this week.

In order to conserve vital materials, the War Production Board has requested that all of these canners be similar in the following respects: The complete canner is to be made of steel; the coating and the body covered with vitreous enamel; the capacity is ordinarily termed the 7-quart size (holding 7 glass quart jars or 14 No. 2 tin cans). A limited number of commercial size steel retorts will be produced which will not be rationed but will likely be controlled by WPB orders.

Administration and Authority Since the supply will not meet the demand for both rural and urban residents, pressure cookers will be rationed. It is suggested that if at all possible you share the use of your cooker with relatives and friends. This can be another of your contributions to help win the war. County Farm Rationing committees of the U. S. D. A. War Boards will be responsible for the pressure cooker rationing program. They will have the assistance of a county advisory committee composed of three women familiar with rural and urban needs for cookers. This committee will be announced later.

Advisory committee to Farm Rationing Committee on Pressure Cooker rationing: Mrs. Floyd Borchardt, Foard City; Mrs. T. W. Cooper, Vivian; Mrs. John S. Ray, Riverside; Mrs. G. M. Canup, Crowell; Mrs. Tom Russell, Crowell.

In addition, a county consultant committee consisting of the County Home Demonstration agent, the FSA Home Management Supervisor, and a Vocational Home Economics teacher will act as consultants and assist the County Farm Rationing committee in determining the eligibility of applicants but the Rationing committee will be responsible for final determinations and the issuance of purchase certificates.

Procedure for applying for pressure cookers and eligibility terms:

Application for pressure cookers may be made at the County Home Demonstration Agent's office, which is located in the basement of the court house. This is in agreement with the County Farm Rationing Committee of the USDA War Board.

In determining the eligibility of applicants for cookers the following items will be considered:

1. Maximum use of cookers—approximately 750 quarts, or the equivalent, during a 12-month period, for a 7-quart cooker; other sizes in proportion.

2. Applicants may be residents of rural or urban areas as use of cookers is not limited to farm families.

3. Applicants may be (a) individual families engaged in large quantity canning, (b) neighborhood pools, consisting of an applicant who has obtained the agreement of several neighbors to

Best of Care

Mrs. Mellie House to Be Manager of Rialto Theatre on June 1st

Mrs. Mellie House will take over the management of the Rialto Theatre on June 1 to take the place of Dwight Moody, who has tendered his resignation effective on that date. Mrs. House, who has been serving as cashier since Dec. 1, is familiar with the operation of the theatre business. The fact that she has had wide experience with public relations makes her specially well equipped to assume the responsibility as manager of this type of business. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gorrell and has been reared in Crowell.

Other employees of the theatre, Cecil Parkhill, projectionist in the booth, and Billy Gene Whitley, door boy and popcorn machine attendant, will continue their services with the theatre. Miss Margaret Woods has been employed as cashier. Mr. Moody came to Crowell in January, 1935, and was employed as projectionist for L. F. Campbell, owner of the theatre at that time. When Mr. Campbell sold the theatre to H. S. Leon in October of 1936, Mr. Moody became manager of the show, a position he has filled with credit to himself and the ownership of the Lion Theatres since that time. He has been interested and active in all civic progress of the town. He has been a consistent member of the Crowell Rotary Club since he became manager of the theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Moody and two daughters, Barbara Lee and Betty Sue, will leave Monday for Tulsa where they will make their home.

Farmers Elevator Adding New Space for 35,000 Bushels

Construction work has been underway for several weeks at the grain elevator of the Farmers Elevator Association and when the work is completed will give this elevator storage space for 35,000 more bushels of grain. The new addition is 30 feet by 40 feet, 42 feet high and consists of 12 bins attached to the north side of the elevator built two years ago, and when finished will give the farmers association storage space for 57,000 bushels in the Crowell elevator.

The new bins will be completed by the time they are needed in taking care of the present crop. The Farmers Elevator Association lost one elevator when the tornado struck Crowell last year.

Hard Rain and Wind Storm Hits Crowell Early This Morning

A hard rain, accompanied by high wind and vivid lightning, struck Crowell this morning at 3 o'clock and flooded the streets, lasting for about one hour. Some hail fell, but it is not known whether or not any damage was done to the wheat week amounted to 85 of an inch, according to the Government rain gauge at the Crowell State Bank.

It Will Be 'Cooler'

Fear of cooling off in the "cooler" fills the face of eight-year-old Eddie Conlan as he looks up into the imposing figure of the law. A temperature of 85 in New York prompted Eddie to cool off in the East river, but alas, the law put an end to that cooling thought.

B and C Gasoline Rationing Books Must Be Renewed by May 31

There are only three days left for holders of B and C gasoline rationing books to make application for renewal. These books now in possession of consumers will expire on May 31st and it is important that application for renewal be made before the month is out, and Merl Kincaid, chairman of the gasoline panel, urges everybody to attend to this matter now.

Application blanks can be secured at the office of the local rationing board.

PINEAPPLE FOR CANNING

For the past few years, home demonstration clubs in the state have bargained co-operatively for pineapples by the truckloads at a price which made canning of pineapple at home a real saving. The market committees of the various home demonstration clubs of Foard County will begin taking orders for pineapple immediately. Anyone desiring pineapples, whether a home demonstration club member or not, should see one of the following women and give her the desired number.

Gambleville, Mrs. Milburn Carroll, Mrs. Willie Garrett or Mrs. J. C. Prosser; Foard City, Mrs. A. L. Davis, Mrs. G. M. Canup or Mrs. Grady Halbert; Margaret, Mrs. Bax Middlebrook or Mrs. Silas Moore, Margaret or Mrs. Green Sikes, Crowell; Riverside, Mrs. Roy Ayers, Crowell; Vivian, Mrs. Oscar Fish, Mrs. T. W. Cooper or Miss Myrtle Fish, all Swearingin; West Side, Mrs. W. L. Scott or Mrs. Oscar Gentry, Crowell.

Information will be given later when and where the pineapple may be bought in Crowell and the price. A local merchant will handle the fruit. Each person will be responsible for getting the pineapples when they arrive and they are to be paid for them. Only those who have turned in an order to a market committee member prior to the placing of the co-operative order for the county will be permitted to buy them when they arrive. Orders will be taken through June 5.

Mrs. House, who has been serving as cashier since Dec. 1, is familiar with the operation of the theatre business. The fact that she has had wide experience with public relations makes her specially well equipped to assume the responsibility as manager of this type of business. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gorrill and has been reared in Crowell.

Other employees of the theatre, Cecil Parkhill, projectionist in the booth, and Billy Gene Whitley, door boy and popcorn machine attendant, will continue their services with the theatre. Miss Margaret Woods has been employed as cashier.

Mr. Moody came to Crowell in January, 1938, and was employed as projectionist for L. F. Campbell, owner of the theatre at that time. When Mr. Campbell sold the theatre to H. S. Leon in October of 1936, Mr. Moody became manager of the show, a position he has filled with credit to himself and the ownership of the Leon Theatres since that time. He has been interested and active in all civic progress of the town. He has been a consistent member of the Crowell Rotary Club since he became manager of the theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Moody and two daughters, Barbara Lee and Betty Sue, will leave Monday for Tulsa where they will make their home.

Senator George Moffett Makes Address to 1943 Graduates of C. H. S. in Commencement Exercises Friday Night

Thirty-nine young ladies and young men received high school diplomas last Friday evening at the High School auditorium in commencement exercises, which brought to a close the 1942-43 term of school.

Hon. George Moffett gave an inspiring, challenging address to the members of the class and the relatives and friends present for the program. A quartet with Misses Marjorie Brock, Evelyn Jean Scales, Betty Jo Zeibig and Mrs. Arnold Smith, sang, "To Spring" with Mrs. Arnold Rucker playing their piano accompaniment.

Miss Mary Evelyn Edwards was the valedictorian and Lowell Campbell was salutatorian while four others were named as receiving scholastic honors by attaining more than an average of 90: Wanda Ketchersid, Glenn Randolph, Rita Callaway and Dovey Barker. In the presentation of the diplomas, Supt. Graves made an excellent talk to the class members.

Farmers Elevator Adding New Space for 35,000 Bushels

Construction work has been underway for several weeks at the grain elevator of the Farmers Elevator Association and when the work is completed will give this elevator storage space for 35,000 more bushels of grain. The new addition is 30 feet by 40 feet, 42 feet high and consists of 12 bins attached to the north side of the elevator built two years ago, and when finished will give the farmers association storage space for 57,000 bushels in the Crowell elevator.

The new bins will be completed by the time they are needed in taking care of the present crop. The Farmers Elevator Association lost one elevator when the tornado struck Crowell last year.

Hard Rain and Wind Storm Hits Crowell Early This Morning

A hard rain, accompanied by high wind and vivid lightning, struck Crowell this morning at 3 o'clock and flooded the streets, lasting for about one hour. The cloud came from the northwest and passed over to the southeast. Some hail fell, but it is not known whether or not any damage was done to the wheat.

Precipitation last week amounted to .85 of an inch, according to the Government rain gauge at the Crowell State Bank.

ROTARY CLUB

C. E. Baker, field executive for this district of the Boy Scouts of America, was a visitor at the Wednesday meeting of the Crowell Rotary Club. The program was in charge of T. B. Klepper and consisted of a talk on world conditions by W. F. Kirkpatrick. Mr. Baker also made a short talk in the interest of Boy Scout work.

President John Rasor announced at the conclusion of the program that Dwight Moody, popular manager of the Rialto Theatre and a faithful and useful member of the club for many years, had resigned his position and would leave the city soon, and expressed regret that the club was losing Mr. Moody as a member. Mr. Moody responded in words of appreciation of what the club had meant to him and said the ideals of Rotary would always be an inspiration to him.

It Will Be 'Cooler'

For the past few years, home demonstration clubs in the state have bargained co-operatively for pineapple by the truckload at a price which made canning of pineapple at home a real saving. The market committees of the various home demonstration clubs of Foard County will begin taking orders for pineapple immediately. Anyone desiring pineapples, whether a home demonstration club member or not, should see one of the following women and give her the desired number.

Gambleville, Mrs. Milburn Carroll, Mrs. Willie Garrett or Mrs. J. C. Prosser; Foard City, Mrs. A. L. Davis, Mrs. G. M. Canup or Mrs. Grady Halbert; Margaret, Mrs. Bax Middlebrook or Mrs. Silas Moore; Margaret or Mrs. Green Sikes, Crowell; Riverside, Mrs. Roy Ayers, Crowell; Vivian, Mrs. Oscar Fish, Mrs. T. W. Cooper or Miss Myrtle Fish, all Swearingin; West Side, Mrs. W. L. Scott or Mrs. Oscar Gentry, Crowell.

Information will be given later when and where the pineapple may be bought in Crowell and the price. A local merchant will handle the fruit. Each person will be responsible for getting the pineapples when they arrive and they are to be paid for then. Only those who have turned in an order to a market committee member prior to the placing of the co-operative order for the county will be permitted to buy them when they arrive. Orders will be taken through June 5.

Is this a case of SWELLED HEAD?

NON SEMPER EASUNT QUAE VIDENTUR, is the answer. Or in plain English: Things are not always what they seem. And this seems to be really a case of a small hat rather than a swelled head.

Now, when you want to pick an oil for your motor, one that will serve you well and save your motor and your money, here are facts, in plain English, to help you choose with confidence.

Phillips produces a variety of oils because cars, motorists, and pocketbooks vary. But if you are the kind of careful car owner who wants our best oil, you need have no question. Phillips frankly tells you that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... among all the oils we offer to average motorists.

It is always good sense to use good oil. But now it is plainly more important than ever. So be safe and saving. Ask for Phillips 66 Motor Oil when replacing winter-worn lubricant, or when making the recommended every-two-months oil change.

O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of His praise to be heard—Psalm 66:8.

The fellow who used to worry about which side his bread was buttered on has quit worrying. It isn't buttered on either side. He used all his points on beef-steak.

According to Emily Post who keeps up on such things, it is proper when invited to dinner to send the hostess flowers. We suppose flowers are always acceptable, but our guess is that the hostess would appreciate with the acceptance of the invitation, a few red and blue stamps.

STATE PRESS

With tear-dimmed eyes and saddened hearts, the editors of this paper, along with thousands of other friends, have read of the passing of a beloved friend, an outstanding newspaper figure, a scholar and a noble man, Dr. J. J. Taylor, familiarly known to Texans as "State Press."

Co-incident with the passing of Dr. Taylor, is the passing of "State Press" the column which has, for more than half a century, been a tradition with the Dallas News, and the first page to be read by many friends of the paper and of the man who wrote the column. The Dallas News realizes that there is no one else living who can take the place of J. J. Taylor in its own heart and affections and in the hearts and affections of its readers so that Texas institution "State Press" is stilled with its writer.

State Press Association meetings will never be the same, because of the passing of one of its most prominent members. A man, friendly always, with a bit of philosophy interwoven with his, even casual, conversation, he knew everybody and everybody knew him. He wouldn't have hurt the feelings of any man, woman or child, yet, he could advocate good, wholesome principles with humorous quips which could be interpreted by all. He lived by the Golden Rule and his life shone from his every message.

A friend of the country newspaper, his loss will be keenly felt by many an obscure editor, who, behind his desk, has been inspired by this good man to "keep on keeping on." Mere words say nothing in this case, so with bowed heads, we wish to pay tribute to J. J. Taylor, Texas "State Press" whose voice is stilled forever but whose spirit will live on—forever.

HISTORY

Birthday of Jefferson Davis—June 3. The anniversary of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy, was made a legal holiday in Florida in 1891 and was first formally observed in 1892. Eight other states soon followed the example of Florida. Davis was born in Christian (now Todd) County, Kentucky, on June 3, 1808. Upon his graduation from West Point in 1828 he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army. He spent seven years in the army posts in Wisconsin and Illinois. While stationed at Fort Crawford, Wisconsin, he met and married Taylor's daughter, against her father's will. On February 26, 1845, he was elected to the national House of Representatives. He resigned from Congress in 1846 and accepted command of a regiment known as the Mississippi Rifles. He withdrew from the army in 1847 and Mississippi sent him to the United States Senate. He resigned from the Senate in 1851 to run for governor of Mississippi but was defeated. Franklin Pierce made him Secretary of War in 1853. At the close of his term as Secretary of War he was again sent to the Senate in Mississippi and resigned from a second time in '861 when the Southern states decided to secede from the Union. His state immediately made him commander of its troops but a convention of seceding states elected him President of the Confederacy. When Richmond was taken he fled and was captured at Irwinville, Ga., on May 10, 1865, by Federal Cavalry. He was imprisoned at Fortress Monroe for two years, but was never brought to trial. He spent the remaining years of his life on the estate of Beauvoir on the Gulf of Mexico, where he died December 6, 1889.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

The biggest problem before the nation today, outside the war itself, is the matter of the strike of the coal miners ordered by John Lewis. This action constitutes the biggest piece of news, not because of the strike itself, but because of its implications and possible consequences. Simmered down to its fundamentals John Lewis says that the miners are not getting enough money to maintain their standard of living. There are also a number of other matters, such as mine practices, and terms, that are being brought into the case as side or incidental issues. John Lewis has refused to meet with the War Labor Board because he, John Lewis, says it is prejudiced. This notwithstanding the fact that one-half of the board is made up of local members.

Lewis also refuses to abide by the "Little Steel" formula, an arm set up by the board for the purpose of making equitable adjustments and putting a brake on inflation and rising prices.

In effect, Lewis has said that he must have everything he asks for or he will not play ball. He will call off the mine workers and the mining of coal will cease altogether in this country.

Once the formula for wage increases is cast aside, the tide of inflation will sweep the country with a devastating effect. The same right that will grant to Lewis his demands will give to every other worker and group of workers the right for similar increases. It will mean the end of price control in this country and a severe set-back on the home front. It will mean that the battle against inflation is lost.

The administration may be at fault. It may not have acted as promptly and completely as it should. There might be some merit to some of Lewis' demands, that we do not know. That no one knows. The thing we do know is that we are at war, fighting for our way of life, the very way of life that permits Lewis to exist at all in this nation. We know that many workers are bending every effort of mind, and muscle, and will, to produce for their country in her hour of need. Many of these are working long hours and are making no more than an existence wage. They have put personal desires and personal wishes aside and, like good soldiers and patriots are standing valiantly, courageously, patriotically behind the boys on the battlefields of the world, and their country. They are forgetting self in the effort to save the thing which John Lewis in his blind obsession to hold in so little regard—our liberty and our way of life.

There is no doubt in the minds of everyone that this administration, that nation would have been fair to the miners. It would not permit them to starve or even go undernourished if their case was properly and fairly presented. I do not believe that the coal strike should have been called. I do not believe that this is any time for any individual to use any power he may possess to attempt to enforce his will upon his country, in its hour of its extremity. I have the feeling that this liberty for which we are fighting is big enough and broad enough to serve the need of every group and every individual in this nation. I do not believe that this is any time to plunge a knife into its back while it bares its breast to the machine guns of the enemy in front. This, Lewis has done.

There is no doubt in the minds of everyone that this administration, that nation would have been fair to the miners. It would not permit them to starve or even go undernourished if their case was properly and fairly presented. I do not believe that the coal strike should have been called. I do not believe that this is any time for any individual to use any power he may possess to attempt to enforce his will upon his country, in its hour of its extremity. Every Person Needs Protection Against Typhoid Fever

Austin.—"If you have not been vaccinated against typhoid fever within the last two or three years, go to your doctor and secure protection at once," Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises prospective campers, Boy and Girl Scouts, and other summer vacationists as the out-of-door season approaches. "Typhoid fever," he continued, "is unnecessary and preventable. Every case is due either to community negligence or to the ignorance or carelessness of some individual. There would be no deaths from typhoid if every person were protected by typhoid 'shots.'"

Some of the most serious and far reaching outbreaks of the disease have been caused by drinking milk or eating foods that have been handled by carriers. A typhoid carrier is a person who has had typhoid at some time and who even after recovery carries the germs of the disease in the urine and the discharges from the intestinal tract. Carriers who are careless in their personal habits are likely to infect any food they handle with unwashed hands.

Dr. Cox explained that typhoid germs are picked up and spread from person to person by water, milk, flies, fingers, food. Every

Recruiting Party for WAVES Will Be in Wichita Falls

A recruiting party for WAVES and SPARS will be in Wichita Falls four or five days, beginning May 26, it was announced by Lieutenant Gus Cook, Officer-in-Charge of the Dallas Office of Naval Officer Procurement. Ensign Betty O. MacKemer and Irma V. Shields, attached to the Dallas WAVES Office, will be in charge, and will be accompanied by Yeoman third class, Claire Elizabeth Blodgett, who recently was assigned to duty in the Dallas WAVES office after completing a course at the Naval Training School for Yeomen in Stillwater, Okla. A fourth member of the party will be Yeoman third class, H. D. Sartin, USNR. The party will be headquartered at the Navy Recruiting Station, 309 Post Office Building, Wichita Falls, Texas.

The WAVES Representatives will be glad to make a private appointment with any young woman from 20 to 36. Lieutenant Cook said, "The WAVES will answer any questions about rates of pay, uniforms, training schools and types of service offered. We especially are glad to have an enlisted WAVE accompanying the party. Yeoman Blodgett only recently completed training school herself and knows the answers to many questions about how the Navy is schooling young women for future assignment."

Ensign MacKemer recently made a tour of West Texas, but this is the first trip for Ensign Shields, who graduated May 4 from the WAVES school for Officer Candidates at Northampton, Mass.

The party will come to Wichita Falls from four days of recruiting work in Fort Worth. Lieutenant Cook said he hoped that interested women would take advantage of this opportunity to contact Ensigns MacKemer and Shields.

All interviews will be strictly private and confidential, and evening appointments will be available if applicants will contact the Wichita Falls Navy Recruiting Station by phone or letter stating evening and hour desired for appointment.

Men Who Contemplate Military Service Needed in Seabees

The United States Navy's Construction Battalions, the Seabees, who "build and fight for victory," offer excellent opportunities for men with experience in virtually all trades and all types of construction work.

In seeking these tradesmen, the Seabees want plumbers, auto lubrication men, blacksmiths, bulldozer operators, carpenters, concrete workers, crane operators, divers, draftsmen, mechanics, electricians, engine operators, pile-driver foremen, pipefitters, pipelayers, steel workers, welders, sheet metal workers, shovel operators, draftsmen, drillers, gas and Diesel repairmen, telephone and switchboard men, water tenders, wharf builders, hatchmen, wenchmen, wire splicers, and many others.

If you have experience in one of these trades, we strongly urge you to visit your Navy recruiting station in Wichita Falls and learn of the opportunities awaiting you as a member of the fighting Navy construction units.

Those accepted for the Seabees through either voluntary enlistment (those 38 through 50 years of age) or through voluntary induction (18 to 38) have an opportunity to qualify for any one of 84 construction trade jobs and the higher pay grades that go with them. The army engineers also offer opportunities for construction men.

Unskilled men over 38 and through 50 years of age are offered ratings up to firemen first class, while skilled workers in this age bracket may be qualified for higher ratings—up to chief petty officer.

If you are 18 to 50 years of age and have construction experience, now is the time to visit a Navy recruiting station and get the facts!

OUR WHEAT HARVEST

We are very anxious to give the best of service in saving our wheat crop, and as quickly as possible. We want to co-operate with our customers to the very best advantage and do all we can every day in every way to handle the crop efficiently.

Labor is going to be short, and hard to secure. We will not be able to have a night and day crew this time, so we have decided to open our elevators at Crowell, Foard City and Margaret at 7 a. m. and close at 10 p. m. So our weighers will quit weighing wheat at 10 p. m. each day, but all loads of wheat weighed on the yards will be unloaded.

The Government, for loans, will not accept any wheat above 14 per cent moisture content. So we cannot and will not accept any truck loads of wheat above 14 per cent moisture content, at Crowell, Foard City or Margaret.

Any loads of wheat brought to our elevators at Crowell, Foard City or Margaret above 14 per cent moisture content will not be unloaded.

Bring in your samples, around two quarts of wheat, and we can tell by running through our moisture machines, as to moisture content.

Our elevators and equipment are at your service, and let's all work together for the good of everyone.

AGRICULTURE

(D. F. Eaton, County Agent.)

The Use A Boy Movement We find we have available several fine young men here in town between the ages of twelve and eighteen years who are perfectly willing and able to do their part in the war effort by helping out on Foard County farms.

They are perfectly willing to go out on the farm and fit into the program out there under the direction and guidance of the operator of the farm.

He sees no reason why he should not soon be able with a little training to do many of the tasks about the farm and finally to do some of the more exacting work.

Remember all of us were once untrained and inexperienced lads and that what we know we gained by actual experience insofar as most farm and home work is concerned, and that the best place to train is by actually doing the work out there on the farm.

Most any average sized farm that is short handed can use an energetic boy about the home and farm with mutual benefit both to the boy and the farm.

Just remember that these boys are just like any rural boy and have similar aims and ambitions and that the boys you train now will be available for similar work for several years yet before entering the army should the war continue.

Adequate Production

One good indication that the farmer can meet the situation on the production line when it becomes a war necessity has just come to our attention.

In the case of pigs and broiler and fryer poultry. In the case of pigs they asked for a five per cent increase and got a fifteen per cent production and a similar situation prevails with meat poultry producers.

However the bottleneck seems to be from the feed stand point and it now seems necessary to gauge the number to be fed to the prospective available feed supply.

However, on this morning's radio we were informed that there is a probability of a shortage of eggs and that this commodity might have to be rationed. So we may expect most anything under present disturbed and ever changing conditions. The scene changes almost from day to day.

Wheat Harvest Approaching

With open weather for a few weeks the grain harvest will begin in earnest. On the whole the crop is far better than could have been anticipated some three months ago. There has been sufficient rain and favorable weather to fill and mature the heads with a plump full grain.

The farmers tell me they have their crews formed and their runs planned and that there will be sufficient labor and machinery on the whole to harvest the crop with reasonable weather.

Although the stand in some cases is thin there seems to be little damage from smut or rust.

They also express the hope that they may get the grain harvested and hauled to market in a dry condition.

Excessive moisture can cause a lot of damage so they plan to give the grain time to dry before harvesting and marketing.

Most of them have planted the more popular varieties which show good milling and will make flour of good baking qualities. Also the crop is exceptionally free from weeds and undesirable mixtures of other grains and grasses.

The elevator people say there is ample storage space for the new crop which indicated the old grain is moving into trade channels.

Wheat Problems

It looks now like we are going to have plenty of wheat problems on the coming crop. With storage space limited, perhaps car shortages, Government regulations, and labor short and at a premium, we don't know whether to start or stop, begin or end, stand up or sit down.

We are going to do our dead level best to take care of our part of the crop the best way possible, and if things don't work out the best for all of us, we just can't help it.

STORAGE

We have made trips to Dallas, Fort Worth, and other terminals, and all we get from the "Big Shots" is "IFS," "MAY-BESOEES" and "PERHAPS." They tell us we have a little space now, and we hope to have some shipping orders later, and, if so, we will be able to make you a definite commitment later, but not a bushel just now for sure.

We do know we have five elevators empty, and have room for 150,000 bushels of wheat. We have definite commitments for 87,000 bushels of this space and when the other 63,000 bushels is spoken for, we will have to depend on the terminals, and we will then be in the "Maybeso" class.

Last year we shipped 450,000 bushels of wheat, and succeeded in getting it all in the loan, and we hope to do as well this year. We are lined up with one of the larger terminal elevators, and they will do all they can for us, but their space might be prorated, so we would only have so much, should this happen.

DIVIDENDS

We paid on around 150,000 bushels of wheat in our Crowell elevator one and two and three cents per bushel this past season. We call this a dividend, because we made our own market, regardless of the general market price. There never was a time during the year, except a week or two, that we could sell wheat in lots, and get our full storage charges. We paid the price in order to have room for the new crop, and our elevators are now practically empty.

On wheat stored in our Crowell elevator, we expect every year, where it is all possible, to make a market of our own and pay you something for your Government Loan wheat.

Wheat problems are with us and you can depend on us to do our best to help you solve them.

WEEK of the WAR
 While American land forces are sweeping back the Japanese from Attu Island for a fight on the neck of Holtz Bay, American air forces roared through the skies to deliver crashing blows to the Japanese. The battle progressed stubbornly with two American columns forcing their way across the island from the north and south. American casualties were comparatively light up to the time two columns joined on the ridge for the attack on the main Japanese positions in the Bay area.
 Stimson also announced that several new U. S. Air Force units have been formed to combat against the Japanese in the Pacific. At a conference the Secretary of War announced that the American air force stepped up not only in individual raids, but also in large numbers of the American fighter planes the Thunderbolt, are now engaged in almost daily sorties. The Thunderbolt—a powerful all-weather fighter—was proved highly satisfactory in combat.
 The not results of the co-ordinated use of air power in the Pacific campaign was summarized last week. According to the announcement, in the 6 days and 3 days of the African campaign the USAAF and the Army destroyed 2,000 enemy planes while losing 770 of their own. In the first 11 days of May the score was 300 Axis planes downed against 49 allied planes lost—a ratio of 6 to 1.
 On May 7, the announcement said, the enemy's air strength was almost at the mercy of the Allies, with the Axis losing approximately 11 planes for every one the Allies lost. May 7 saw the Tunis and Bizerte fell to the British First Army and the Second Army Corps. On May 8, allied planes flew 2,000 sorties, an average of almost 200 per hour for the 24 hours. (A single flight by one plane against a record of plane against the enemy, it is, relates to the Air Force's contribution to the victorious North African campaign culminating in the capture of Cape Bon. Mediterranean Air Command, Major Arthur Tedder, provided the Tunisian campaign the first all-weather demonstration of the "mass" of an aerial strike employing all its capacity in an integrated pattern.

division of U. S. air power into the strategic force, the tactical force, the reconnaissance wing, the coastal force, the troop carrier command, the training command, and the air service command.

The strategic air force cut the enemy's lines of supply and communication, which began in Italy and led through Sicily to Tunis and Bizerte. Composed of heavy bombers, medium bombers, and long-range fighters, it struck continuously at Axis shipping, ports, harbors, bases, and other points from which the Axis might dispatch reinforcements of men and material.

The tactical air force, operating in close co-operation with its allied ground troops, armored forces, fortifications, airfields—Targets in the area of actual fighting or in the support of a battle at sea.

To the troop carrier command went the job of operating scheduled courier planes to transport military personnel, mail and supplies throughout the entire allied-held northwest African coastline, the aerial protection of our convoys and the handling of anti-submarine operations. The job of the training command was to give all newly arrived combat crews training for the operations

Crowell Methodist Church
 We are grateful for the good attendance at church last Sunday. A deep interest is manifested on the part of a great number, however, there are some who might "wind-up" their religious nature a bit to great advantage. Dr. W. M. Pearce, district superintendent, is with us next Sunday evening for the Quarterly Conference. The services will be held at 8 p. m. Some were a bit late last Sunday because of the uncertainty of time. This hour early by the sun but plenty late by the clock.
 We have a department for men in our Sunday School. Not for effeminate adults of the male sex, but men who have respect for life; men who want to find the best there is for themselves and pass it on to others; men who appreciate America and that for which it stands. To every man who feels thus about life, and not in some other Sunday School class, we urge you to meet with us next Sunday, 9:45 a. m., north door of basement, Methodist Church. The discussions by our teacher are as fine as can be found throughout our church. We urge you men to give him your hearty support by attending regularly.

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The power of God brings deliverance to the captive. No power can withstand divine Love" (page 224).

You Can't Depend on Isolated Hydro-Electric Power, Eh, Mr. Goebbels?

Allied bombers this last week hit Herr Goebbels in one of his most vulnerable spots. Bombs—and mines—rained upon two of Hitler's biggest dams, knocking out hydro-electric plants which provided power for much of Nazi-land's wartime industry.
 "Rail and Highway Bridges and Power Plants Swept Away and Whole Industrial Centers Wrecked" read the newspaper headline.
 Of course, crafty Herr Goebbels wouldn't actually post the sign seen above: "This war industry closed for lack of electric power." But that, in fact, had already happened, even before the latest bombing raid on Nazi hydro plants. Power shortages have hampered German factories. With all their other substitutes, the Nazis haven't yet been able to invent an ersatz electricity!
 West Texas—and all America—is more fortunate. There's no power shortage here! And we're not dependent on hydro-power... which, as the Germans have learned, is vulnerable to enemy airmen while at the same time constituting a man-made flood menace.
 Transmission lines are so linked together that power is automatically switched from one region to another in event of mishap. It's the most dependable system the world has ever known.
 While Goebbels posts his "Closed" signs, free American men and women—permitted to plan, invent and create in the democratic way—are building the weapons of war which hasten the day of Victory... posting another sort of sign: Danger, Adolf—Americans at Work!

Shower Honors Recent Bride at Adelpian Club House

With Mrs. Lee J. Stout named as honor guest, Miss Mary Evelyn Edwards and Miss Iva Ruth Gafford and Mrs. Wilmer Studyvin were hostesses at a pretty bridal shower at the Adelpian Club House on Tuesday afternoon.

The reception rooms were attractively decorated with cut flowers, sweet peas predominating. Mrs. Studyvin greeted the guests as they arrived and they were introduced to the receiving line which was composed of the honor guest, her mother, Mrs. Grover Owens, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Bob Whittaker. Each wore a corsage of sweet peas.

Miss Gafford presided at the guest register. The guests were directed to the dining room where Miss Mary Davidson poured punch from a beautifully decorated table with a lace cover and arrangements of sweet peas surrounding the punch bowl. Mrs. James Sandlin and Mrs. R. J. Owens served in the dining room, also. They are sister and sister-in-law of the bride.

Miss Edwards invited the guests into the gift room where the lovely miscellaneous gifts were arranged. Recordings were played throughout the receiving hours.

WESLEYAN GUILD

The Wesleyan Guild of the Methodist Church has been studying the life and letters of Paul for the past two months. Under the leadership of Miss Mary Ragland Thompson, Mrs. M. S. Henry, Thelma White, and Lottie Russell, the Guild members feel that the time has been very profitably spent.

A few of the many things that these leaders and their helpers have brought from time to time are that Paul wrote at least thirteen of the New Testament Books, and fourteen, if Paul was the au-

Wedding of Local Couple Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flesher have announced the marriage of their daughter, Lois Evelyn, to Wilmer D. Studyvin, which took place in Frederick, Okla., on Sept. 27, 1942.

Mrs. Studyvin has been reared in Crowell and is a member of this year's graduating class. She is popular with the younger set.

Mr. Studyvin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Studyvin and received his education in Electra, graduating from Electra High School with the class of 1941. He is now in the U. S. service with the Coast Guards and is stationed at Horn Island, Miss. He returned in his base Saturday following a two weeks' furlough. Mrs. Studyvin will remain here.

Author of Hebrews. These books written by Paul are as follows: First and Second Thessalonians, written about A. D. 52 or 53; Galatians, about A. D. 56; First and Second Corinthians, A. D. 57; Romans, A. D. 58; Colossians, Ephesians, Philippians, and I Pallemon A. D. 62-63, while Paul was in prison at Rome; First Timothy, A. D. 65; Titus, A. D. 67 or 68; Paul, originally called Saul, was a native of Tarsus, a city of Cilicia, and was of Jewish descent, of the tribe of Benjamin. From his father he inherited the rights of Roman citizenship. His conversion took place A. D. 36 while he was on the road to Damascus to persecute the Christians. From Antioch he started on his three missionary journeys. On his last journey to Jerusalem he was made prisoner; sent to Caesarea for two years; appeared before Festus and King Agrippa; appealed to Caesar; went to Rome and was kept for two years, but turned his prison into a pulpit, preaching to his distant congregation in the Epistles previously mentioned. Ancient tradition is unanimous as to his martyrdom in Rome; and the reputed place on the Via Ostia where he was executed by the sword, is still shown.

Mrs. Gordon Bell Hostess at Luncheon for Mary Edwards

To honor Miss Mary Evelyn Edwards upon her graduation from Crowell High School, Mrs. Gordon Bell was hostess to a few of Miss Edwards' friends on last Thursday with a pretty luncheon at her home.

Using a color plan of blue and yellow, the table was attractively decorated with arrangements of spring flowers. A basket filled with the flowers centered the table.

Guests for the luncheon were Miss Edwards, Miss Virginia Thomas, Miss Marjorie Young, Miss Evelyn Jean Seales, Miss Margye Davidson and Miss Maxine Johnson.

B. & P. W. CLUB

The members of the B. & P. W. Club enjoyed an informal dinner meeting last Thursday evening with Alma Walker, Ila Borchardt and Bertha Womack as hostesses.

Appointments of red roses decorated the long dinner tables with Hershey bars designating individual plates.

Ila Borchardt conducted a "Be-lated Easter Bonnet Parade," which contributed much hilarity to the occasion. Participating in the event were: Mayme Lee Collins, Bevy Brooks, Gusta Davis, Ura Orr and Gussie Todd.

An interesting and educational "Art Exhibit" was offered by Bertha Womack. For having identified the greatest number of subjects Irene O'Connell was presented with a very timely prize—a war ration book holder.

In conclusion, the names of secret pals were revealed and names drawn for the next six months.

Those present were: Lottie Russell, Mayme Lee Collins, Elizabeth Elliott, Gussie Todd, Flossie Thomas, Mae Solomon, Inez Spencer, Ura Orr.

FOARD COUNTY COUNCIL

Mrs. Lonnie Scott gave a treasury report at the County Council held Saturday at 2:30 in the office of the home demonstrator.

The Council president selected Mrs. S. E. Tate, Mrs. Milburn Carroll and Mrs. Lonnie Scott as a committee to sponsor a show in June.

The Foard County Council members plan to purchase a thermometer to test pressure cookers. The various clubs are trying to get pineapple to can but no reports were made.

D. F. Eaton gave an interesting discussion as to how farm labor would be handled in the county and that he would lend assistance to any one who desired it but that he would need the co-operation of everyone.

National budget director Harold Smith announced recently that he had ordered the elimination of more than 41,000 employees from thirty-four non-war government agencies and that 20,000 were ordered let out of one department alone. The speculation is that the dismissal will not be permitted by the administration. The surplus help will, if anything is done at all, be transferred to other departments.

Your Horoscope

May 24, 25, 26, 27.—You are very fond of pleasure and are devoted to sports and amusements. You are extreme in your likes and dislikes and change easily from friend to foe. At times you are very impractical. You are apt to criticize the undesirable traits of others, when such traits may be deep-rooted in your own nature. You have some close friends, but could have more.

May 28, 29, 30.—Your tastes are domestic. You love your home, children and kindred. You love praise and flattery, which is not always good for you as you are very conceited. You have a high regard for people of wealth, and like to mix with them. Nothing is too good for you or your children. You want them to be well dressed, and at times spend money lavishly on them and yourself, although you are rather close in money matters.

GAMBLEVILLE H. D. CLUB

"Hobbies and Why We Have Hobbies" was the topic of discussion when the Gambleville Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Edward Brock on May 28 with four members and Miss Elizabeth Elliott present.

Mrs. Milburn Carroll said, "Let your hobby add personality to your home by refinishing old pieces of furniture with a bit of paint and time." Miss Elliott gave a demonstration on refinishing floors and furniture.

Information on pressure cookers was also given by Miss Elliott. A food preservation school will be held at the Gambleville school house on June 14 and everyone in the community is invited to attend. The County Federation will be held at Riverside on May 28.

The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Willie Garrett on June 1, at 2:30 o'clock.

One item of common use which was quickly affected by the war was the paint brush. The better grade of paint brushes are made from the bristles of hogs from Northern China. These are no longer available. As a consequence all bristle brushes have a much shorter bristle. Many substitutes are being tried, among them fibre and horse hair. To date nothing has been discovered from which as good a brush can be made from the long hog bristles.

PLANNING ISN'T NEW

THE way a lot of people are talking these days, you'd think planning is something new.

But anybody who's ever run a farm or a factory knows that if you don't plan, you can't get the most out of what you have to work with.

To plan properly, the farmer has to know about crops, soils, seasons, tools, and stock, and the man operating a factory has to know about machines, markets, science, and engineering.

Yet for all this specialized knowledge which each of these activities requires, the managers of both farm and factory have much in common in their planning. They have the same problems—to mention a few—of employment and taxes, of costs and a fair profit, of setting aside reserves for a "rainy day."

And they have the same objective in their planning—to do everything they can for their country today, and, tomorrow, to make a fair living through greater service to their fellow Americans. General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
