Age Assistance Checks Given to 131 Persons in County

Between August 1 and August 31 persons in Foard County received $3,237.00 in old age assistance checks which averaged $23.76 per check. Miss Opal Thomas, field agent, State Department of Public Welfare in Foard County, Area Office here Tuesday. Due to the fact that each payment averaged less than $23.00 the recommended amount. According to Thomas, the number on the list of persons receiving an increase in payments in July, 1945, as there were 16 persons receiving an average of $23.12 with no increase in the payments. In counties of Area 27, 4,687 persons received $111,379.00, an average of $23.76 per check, averaging $22.00 were given three needy blind recipients in 1946, for a total of $153.00, while in July, 1945, checks averaging $20.60 were given to needy blind persons for a total of $153.00, it was announced. To dependent children was to three families, totaling $12.96 for a total of $38.88 in 1946, as compared with 1945, figures of five families totaling seven children receiving a total of $96.00. This decrease in average payments is due to a 25 per cent cut in aid to dependent children as a result of limited constitutional amendment aid to dependent children which became effective in 1945, increased the basic amount from $16.00 to $18.00 for the first child and permitted payment of $12.00 for each additional child, instead of a maximum of $24.00 for any family; however, additional aid for meeting the increase was not provided, Miss Thomas said.

Oil and Gas Development Covers All of Texas

Oil and gas development covers all of Texas, a map prepared by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association shows. Every one of Texas' 254 counties now produces or has produced oil or gas, or has land under lease for oil and gas exploration, the map reveals. Nearly 54,000,000 (million) acres, or virtually one-third of the State's total land area, are now leased to Texas oil and gas operators. Last year their lease farmers, ranchers and other landowners totalled $215,000,000, providing a large "extra crop" for Texas agriculturalists. Since 1919 such payments have aggregated more than two billion dollars, or an extra cash bonus for nearly one-seventh of the value of all Texas agricultural crops during this period, the association reported. Oil and gas are now produced in approximately 1,100 different fields in 166 counties scattered through Texas, while an additional 17 counties formerly produced. The 71 other counties are now being actively explored for oil and gas, with land under lease for drilling.

Throughout the war years, the price of the paper remained the same although conditions justified a raise. Now, increases in newsprint paper, wages, materials, services—in fact, everything that goes into the making of a daily newspaper, have forced an increase in price. Now is the time for all those who want to subscribe for the Star-Telegram to bring or send their subscriptions to the News office.

AGRICULTURE in County

(Joe E. Burkett, County Agent)

LEGUMES FOR SOIL IMPROVEMENT

"Soil fertility is the foundation of profitable farming and nothing should be left undone to make the soil more fertile."

This is a statement from E. A. Miller, agronomist of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service. Mr. Miller points out evidence to show that it will pay you to plant fertilizer and inoculated winter legumes to improve your soil.

For example, at the Nacogdoches and Tyler Experiment Substations, cotton that followed fertilized and inoculated hairy vetch produced over 100 pounds more lint cotton per acre than did cotton without benefit of the vetch. At College Station says Mr. Miller, the yield of cotton was increased on an average of 59 pounds of lint per acre by the use of vetch which was fertilized and inoculated.

The yield was increased only five pounds per acre where the vetch was not fertilized. This is evidence that vetch must be fertilized for best results. In fertilizing, use 200 pounds of 20 per cent superphosphate, or its equivalent, for sandy loam soil. For light, sandy soils or old fields, apply about 300 pounds of a 0-14-7 mixed fertilizer per acre.

With legume planting time again reminds you to make arrangements for seed, fertilizer and inoculation well ahead of time. The experiments and demonstrations that have been carried on in Texas have shown us evidence of soil improvement that we can't afford to ignore.

BUY LAND CAREFULLY

If you are thinking of buying farm land this year, it's important to consider carefully just what that land will earn over a long period of time.

In spite of the fact that farm real estate prices are so high that they have almost reached the famous 1920 inflationary mark, people are buying and selling farms pretty fast these days. And there are a lot of heavy debts piling up in many places, too.

Student Nurses Are Needed to Relieve Nurse Shortage

The average person generally thinks as little as possible about hospitals—or illness—until he suddenly finds himself occupying a hospital bed.

We usually are too prone to take our hospital, as well as our other community bulwarks such as the church and school, as something that always is there in quiet efficiency in time of need.

But in a very few years, unless more student nurses are enrolled immediately, the hospital won't be there in all its strength.

Only three-fourths as many beds now are being manned in the nation—at a time when the need actually has been the greatest in hospital history because of the increases in population and the influx of returned war wounded.

The reason? Lack of nurses.

Skilled nurses heretofore have been fairly much in the category of hospitals in the mind of the general public. Their quiet efficiency too was more or less taken for granted by a busy public.

Texas has two-score highly-accredited schools of nursing. Normally these schools enroll at least 1,500 students annually.

This year, unless enrollments increase mightily within a few weeks, the enrollment will be at the pitifully low figure of 300 students. This averages only about one girl from each county in the state.

The reason for the startling decline isn't too apparent. School facilities, from educational, recreational and living conditions, never were equal to the highly-skilled and highly-paid nurses in better repute after World War II.

But the students aren't coming and nursing, hospital and the medical professions warn that the "closed bed" rate is due for even further increase with results to the health of every community in the state.

Texas can, and should, do better. Any hospital can advance interested prospective students to the nearest nursing school and entrance requirements.

Tire manufacturers say that by the end of 1946 or early 1947 tire customers will have to find any size and type of tire they want.

Rip Van Wrinkle wakes up to a bargain!

What day is it? I mean, what year is it? My word, I've been asleep 15 years!

Yesir, I see lots of changes since 1931, but women's hats are as silly as ever! and the high cost of living is enough to send me back to sleep for another 15 years!

Gosh, look at all the new electric gadgets! When I dozed off back in the Thirties, we had electric lights and an iron and a vacuum cleaner at our house! Now we've got a refrigerator, a couple of radios (my last one was a crystal set), clocks, toaster, washer—why, everything you touch has a switch on it!

It's funny, too, with all those gadgets perking away, my electric bill isn't much more than it was 15 years ago, while everything else has gone up a lot!

(Yes, Rip Van Winkle, you're getting twice as much electricity for your money today as you did 15 years ago. It took increased usage plus plenty of skill and planning—under sound business management—to make electricity the bargain it is right now!)

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

A weakness of the democratic form of government is that the tenure in office of those elected to administer the government depends not so much upon the statesmanship and the wisdom with which government is administered as it does upon the extent to which those elected to administer the government subscribe to the demands and wishes of their constituents and the pressure groups for their temporary desires.

A wise and good parent gives to his child the things that are best for the child as they pertain to the child's life and its preparation for adulthood and the formation of sound character. In the doing of this it often becomes necessary to deny the child many of the things it wants, and thinks it should have, and in their place to require that it do many things that it does not want to do.

To be specific, the parent who yields to the child's every demand for candy, ice cream and cake and show tickets and never seeks to teach self-denial and thrift, never teaches it by giving it work, the value of thrift, and is indifferent about its attendance at school, its obedience to parental authority and its assuming the duties and responsibilities that belong to it as a member of the family, is not a good parent.

In the same measure a government that pampers its citizens or any portion of it by granting demands for larger pay, change for goods, will and prolonged tenure in office of its elected officials is not the best kind of government, either for itself or its citizens.

An example in point I think, is the unemployment compensation law. There are others but this will serve to illustrate what I mean.

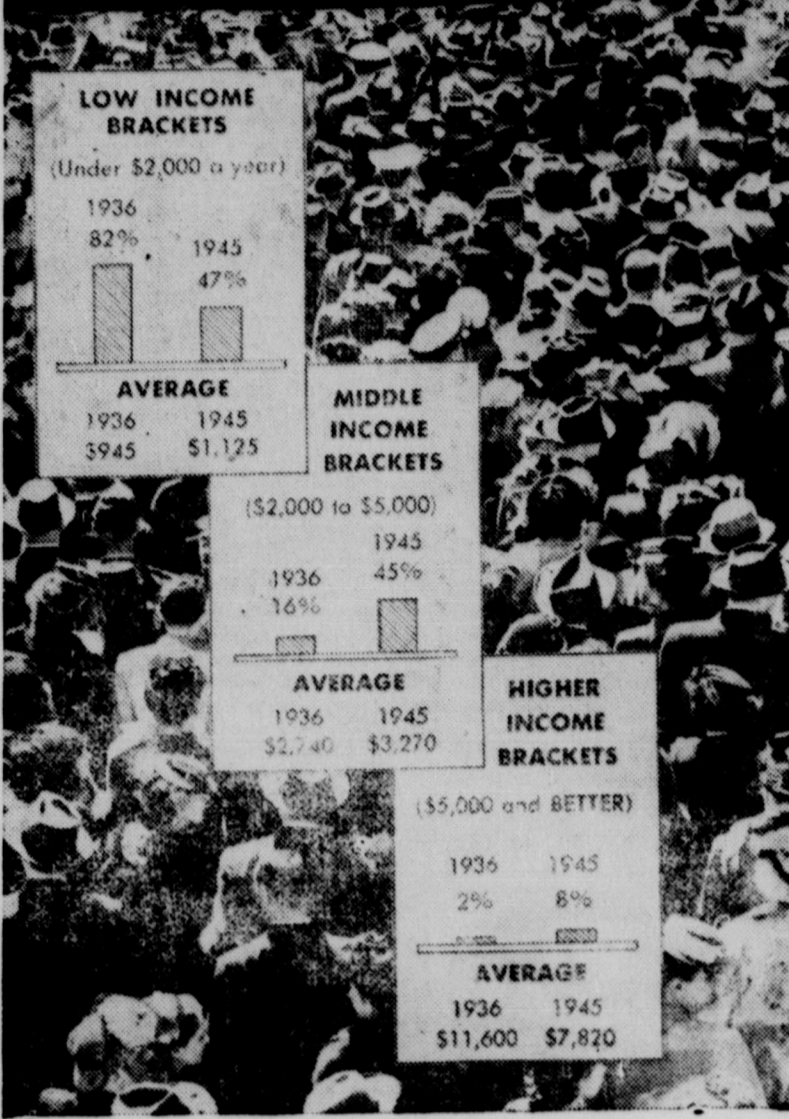

The unemployment compensation law was passed to help men and women in times of need—to tide them over a period of enforced unemployment until a new job or position could be secured.

Operated in such a manner the law would be desirable and humanitarian legislation. In its practical application, however, it has wandered far afield from its original purpose and design.

It is my opinion that the abuse of the unemployment compensation law has done more to hinder reconversion than any other single factor. It has done this, not because it is a bad law, but because too many people have chosen to take advantage of its weaknesses and have played the game of something for nothing for all it is worth—draining out the last nickel of compensation possible while jobs waited and clamored for them.

Two things are necessary if the condition is to be corrected. Lawmakers are going to have to have the courage to make the obviously necessary changes in the law, and also there must come an awakening of the moral sense on the part of the public.

Attending the Meetings

One of the difficulties in maintaining public organizations is that of inducing people to attend their meetings. Some people say they can not lead public movements, they can't make good speeches, and they do not feel able to take the principal responsibility for community projects.

The Friendly Folks

Many folks seem to be just overflowing with friendliness. They perform many acts which show their warm and genial manner. They are sympathetic and helpful to those who have had misfortune. They greet the world with smiles, and the world enjoys them and they make a great many friends.

They are very cordial to newcomers to the town, and make them feel at home. They often go out of their way to show courtesy to new people, to invite them to join local organizations, and take an active part in the community life. They seem naturally to want to be friends to everyone.

The National Geographic Society which has just completed the first post-war mapping of the United States, announces that the atomic project put two new names on America's map: Oak Ridge grew from 75 to 75,000; Richland, Washington, from 700 to 15,000. Our big job now is to see to it that atomic bombs don't reverse the process.

Smoking Breaks Down Quality of Cooked Fat

To get the best use from fat in cooking as well as to save it for use again, heed the "no smoking" rule.

When fat is overheated and reaches the smoking point, it starts to break down chemically and three unfortunate things happen. The flavor of the fat and of the food cooked in it is damaged. Food fried in smoking fat is not easily digestible. And finally, fat that has reached the smoking point will turn rancid more quickly than fat which has not smoked if saved for use again.

To prevent fat from smoking, keep heat low when melting fat for sauce or pan-frying. Cook meat at moderate temperature which is best for the protein as well as the fat. Remember that fats vary in the amount of heat they can stand. Butter, oleo, margarine, drippings and olive oil all tend to smoke quickly.

Sturdier, longer bearing tomato plants have been produced by grafting tomato plants on Jimson weed roots. The new plant was produced by Charles C. Newman of Clemson, S. C., a college professor. Newman has been producing tomatoes on grafted plants for fifty years. He states that plants so grafted resist disease and bear tomatoes prolifically until frost.

His recipe: Plant tomato and jimson seed early in January. Transplant to three inch pots when the third leaf forms. At the time of grafting the jimson stems should be thumb size and the tomato plants stems the size of a pencil. Cut off the jimson weed four inches and the tomato two inches above ground. Trim all but the top leaves. Insert tomato spear into the notched jimson stem and bind with cloth for ten days. When transplanted the point of grafting should be three inches above the ground. When the grafted plant is eight inches tall Newman prunes the top leaves to encourage

Used Car Buyers Warned to Secure Proof of Ownership

Austin, Sept. 5.—Buyers of used cars were warned Thursday to secure from the seller acceptable proof of ownership as the State Highway Department moved toward wiping out traffic in stolen and mortgaged motor vehicles in Texas.

"All County Tax Collectors have now received instructions to hold the line in requiring proof of ownership on all applications for vehicle titles," E. J. Amey, Director of Motor Vehicle Registration announced. Applications for Texas titles are made through local Tax Collectors under the present law.

"Properly assigned certificate of title from any of the thirty States having a title law similar to Texas is the best evidence of ownership. The purchaser should insist upon receiving a release of any lien recorded on a Texas title or a title issued by another state," Amey stated.

Outlining minimum acceptable ownership proof of vehicles brought into Texas from any of the seventeen non-title States, which includes Louisiana, Amey announced, "We will accept a 1945 license receipt from Louisiana or other non-title State and the current receipt if both are in the name of the person applying for the Texas title."

"Bills of Sale showing all changes in ownership must supplement such 1945 license receipt, if applicant for a Texas title is not the same person in whose name the receipt is issued," he added.

Strict enforcement of the Texas title law was endorsed at a recent meeting of car dealers, enforcement officers, tax collectors and representatives of finance and insurance companies. The meeting had been called to determine if present requirements for title were meeting with the approval of all concerned.

"Numerous stolen and mortgaged cars bearing license plates from non-title States have been sold in Texas," Amey stated. "Purchasers of such vehicles are unable to obtain valid titles in Texas and the vehicles are subject to seizure by their lawful owners."

The National Automobile Theft Bureau has estimated that the current requirements of the Highway Department have reduced sales of stolen cars in Texas by half.

branching near the graft. The professor has experimented with grafting five different plants upon jimson roots.

Improving the Back Yard

The space behind the house in American towns is usually called the back yard. That is a prosaic sort of name, and in some cases it does not seem to merit anything better. Some back yards are very poorly kept, and a sort of dump, heap where refuse is allowed to gather. Sometimes there are fences and little buildings that are not well kept up.

Many people, however, refer to the space behind their houses as the garden. It merits that name, for the place is kept in attractive condition, refuse is not dumped there, and flowers or vegetables are grown. Such a space is a source of great pleasure to the family. Some people in summer take a good many of their meals out in such a garden, and they enjoy the spot with its flowers and grass. Their home thereby becomes more attractive, and they love it.

PROTEINS IMPORTANT

Proteins, the formative substances of life, are essential for growth, maintenance and building resistance to disease. All meat furnishes complete high-quality proteins, containing the essential amino acids. Food proteins, we know, are broken down during digestion into their constituent amino acids to be rebuilt into such proteins as are found in muscles, organs, blood, nerves, etc. The total variety of proteins numbers many hundreds. This fact occasioned the remark by Liebig (1803-1873) that protein is a food of which a child must have too much in order to have enough. Care should be given especially to provide fully adequate amounts of protein in the diet because of

Some Rayons Easy Materials To Sew

Novices in the art of sewing sometimes meet early discouragement because they choose the wrong fabrics with which to do their learning. Although rayons have developed a reputation, at least to some extent, of being difficult materials to sew, this isn't necessarily true.

True, the sheer ones that slip and slide and the loosely woven ones that fray cause trouble for the inexperienced, but some rayons—particularly spun rayons—are as easy to sew as cottons would be.

The construction of the cloth, rather than the kind of fiber from which it was made, determines the ease with which it can be sewed.

Beginners should look for firm waves, little stretch and medium-weight fabrics when buying rayons. A heavy, bulky fabric is probably as difficult to handle as are the sheer ones. If the material has a rough texture or a small all-over pattern, a beginner's irregular machine stitching is less likely to show. However, large designs that require matching should be avoided, for this kind of cloth involves extremely accurate cutting and careful matching at the seam lines.

EVER ONWARD

"My idea is this: Ever Onward: If God had intended that man should go backward, he would have given him an eye in the back of his head."—Victor Hugo.
 Ever Onward. Did you ever think of those two words? They stand for high ideals, and common courtesy.
 Most important of these is courtesy which should be shown at all times.
 The new students could use a kind word, or only a smile, and do worlds of good. It isn't hard to be courteous. Instead of boasting and strutting, just be yourself. It will help others and your feelings a hundred per cent.
 Let's keep up our high ideals and fellowship that CHS is known for by being friendly, by being courteous, and most of all, just by being you.

LET'S PLAY BALL

"Up, up, over!" Don't worry, kids. It isn't Superman on the loose again. It's our terrific volleyball team, those "slick chicks" with the teamwork and quick thinking, who held our banners high in last year's games.
 Wouldn't you like to be one? Then why not take gym? That exercise will really help you. You have probably noticed that by the way last year's team looked. "Huba, Huba."
 Gym is the most informal period in school. Everyone gets to know everyone else (new scholars take notice). The teachers there are really swell. If you have a test or get "snowed under" with studies, you can get permission to go to study hall.
 You can gain a lot of self-confidence while playing, too, so right this way to sign up for gym class.

OFFICERS, SPONSORS AND CLASS MOTHERS ELECTED FOR CLASSES OF '46-'47

To start the school year off right the different classes of Crowell High School elected their officers, sponsors and class mothers for the new school term.
 First, in room 103 during the first period Tuesday evening the dignified Seniors had a class meeting to elect class officers, class mothers, and to discuss other class business. The Senior rings were also discussed. They will be received as soon as possible.
 The officers elected, which compose several fine looking girl officers are: Sharon Haneey, president; Kathleen Eddy, vice president; Ruth Barker, secretary; Janet Roark, treasurer; Jo Ann Meason, reporter.
 Class mothers elected were Mrs. W. P. Thompson, Mrs. T. S. Haneey, Mrs. D. L. Campbell, Mrs. R. N. Barker, Mrs. J. L. Brock, and Mrs. J. G. Cooper.
 Now as the Juniors of 1947 hurriedly gathered in the History room the questions of who they should elect class officers hung heavy over the heads of the junior class. Mr. Leo Purvis was quickly elected as the class sponsor. After much debating the following officers were elected: Bob Edwards, president; Garland Denton, vice president; J. Thomas Tamplin, secretary; J. Thomas Tamplin, reporter.
 The following mothers were elected: Mrs. Howard Williams, Mrs. Howard Dunn, Mrs. Roy Ayers, Mrs. H. K. Edwards, Mrs. Bill Bond and Mrs. Brock.
 On September 3, the Sophomores, too, had a class meeting in the auditorium to elect officers. Officers elected were: Rex S. Whitten, president; Peggy Evens, vice president; Vera Lee, secretary; Ray Gable, treasurer; Peggy Pitillo, reporter, and Mrs. Manard, sponsor. The class mothers have not been chosen yet.
 In the study was found the last, but not least, Freshmen, who were having a class meeting, too.
 The officers elected were: Rouse Todd (Smookey), president; E. W. Kidd (Shorty), vice president; Betty Lou Brock, secretary-treasurer; James Weatherers, reporter; Marvin Myers, sponsor.
 The class mothers for the Freshmen Class have not been chosen.

WELCOME, NEW TEACHERS

New members of the faculty include Mrs. W. F. Stutzer, who teaches the fourth grade, and Mrs. Cecil Carroll, who teaches writing and spelling in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.
 Mrs. Stutzer received her B. E. degree at Howard Payne College in Brownwood, where she was a member of the Jacket Club, Howard Payne choir, Alpha Chi, and Who's Who. Mrs. Stutzer's aversion is naughty children. (We can understand that). Before coming to Crowell, Mrs. Stutzer taught school at Millington High School, Millington, Tennessee.
 Mrs. Carroll attended Abilene Christian College at Abilene and Texas Tech at Lubbock. Also being interested in school activities, she was a member of Press staff, Foreign Language Club, and D. F. D. sorority. Mrs. Carroll's aversion is people who pop their zurn in one's face, and it would be convenient to add at this point that her first impression of Crowell's school was very favorable.
 It would seem that students at Crowell are not "zurn poppers". Mrs. Carroll taught school at Ozona, Post and Crosbyton, Texas.

KENNER'S GIRLS COMPLETE PROJECT

During August about 27 girls of CHS finished summer projects and were given a one-half credit toward graduation, according to the home-making teacher, Mrs. Kenner. The projects were all outstanding but Frances Ford's and Enelle Kajs will be sent to Mrs. Armstrong, supervisor at Canyon, Texas.

PEP SQUAD ORGANIZED

Crowell High was in an uproar Wednesday at noon with the try-outs for cheer leaders of the pep squad for the coming year.
 The four girls elected were Ruth Barker, Sharon Haneey, Kathleen Eddy, and Janet Roark. Mrs. Lewis Sloan was chosen sponsor. We expect to have the largest and loudest pep squad Crowell has ever heard of seen.

WILDCATS HAVE FIRST PRACTICE SESSION SEPT. 2

The Crowell Wildcats had their first real practice session Monday, Sept. 2, 1946.
 In a short meeting before practice Larry Wood and Kendrick Joy were elected co-captains for the coming year.
 The Wildcats have nine lettermen back this year, seven of whom were regulars last year.

WILDCATS SCRIMMAGE MUNDAY

The 1946 edition of the Crowell Wildcats were defeated by a narrow margin last Friday by the Munday Moguls.
 The score was 13 to 7 in favor of Munday. Moguls scored first on a pass which was carried over by Spann, left end. Spann also was the receiver for the last touchdown pass.
 The Wildcats' score was made by Laquey on a double reverse around left end. Joy carried over for the extra point.
 Brock, Mitchell, Wood and Tamplin showed up well for the Wildcats and Spann was probably the outstanding player for the Moguls.
 The purpose of the game was to "iron out the wrinkles" in the team and show the boys the mistakes they were making. This scrimmage should help the Wildcats very much and prepare them for the rough schedule ahead.
 The Wildcats also had a game with Munday "B" team and defeated them by a score of 6-0. The tally was made by R. E. Ballard on a run around left end.
 The Wildcats will travel to Floydada Friday for a game with the Whirlwinds.

WILDCAT PURRS

Greetings, all you happy people.
 Now that school has started, the busy Wildcat Purr can once more be heard at CHS.
 Nominees for the steadiest couple of the week, M. W. and Jo Ann.
 It seems that J. C. Autry is making eyes at Myrtle Bartley.
 Does anyone know if Clara Jones went to the party at Truscott Saturday night with Clifford Orr?
 It looks as if Presley Thomson is paying quite a bit of attention to Betty Brock. Could it be serious? Could be!
 Who is this we've seen Peggy Evens with? We didn't catch his Collins.
 Have you noticed all the cute name but his initials were Pete boys around CHS without a steady? This includes Joe Mason, C. D. Campbell, Ed Thomas and R. E. Johnson.
 Who were the cute boys with Booty and Sharon Saturday night? That Jo Ann Nichols gets around these days?
 What is J. P. Bartley doing now that Grover Yocham is back? Come on Betty, who is it?
 Kathleen and Larry Campbell had a happy gleam in their eyes Saturday night. He's going off (to Tech) soon.
 Those cute Freshman girls,

LESSON

Lesson for September 15

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:17; Proverbs 11:23, 24; Luke 12:13-21. MEMORY SELECTION—He that trusteth in his riches shall fall; but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.—Proverbs 11:28.

JESUS AND COVETOUSNESS

The Ten Commandments, the study of which we conclude today (the remaining lessons of the quarter deal with other laws), have been revealed to us as being characterized by their brevity, their comprehensive touch with all of life, and fidelity to the right. But they are also unique and different from all other laws in that they reach into the inner recesses of a man's heart, a realm where only God can judge and act.

This last commandment (against covetousness) emphasizes that point. It does not expressly require or forbid any act, but deals with the motive of man's action. Man can judge another man's acts, but he cannot judge his motives, desires or thoughts. God must do that.

But man can, by the grace of God, control his motives; and hence we have this commandment and its interpretation.

I. Covetousness—What It Is (Exod. 20:17).

To covet does not mean just to desire, but to have an unrestrained desire for that which we ought not to have or which by right belongs to another.

It shows itself in our day in a more general way—an inordinate desire for possessions in general. There too man loses himself. It may be a surprise to many to learn that coveting, or desiring what belongs to another, is a sin. It has become one of the "respectable sins" accepted in the best circles and practices by many church people.

As a matter of fact, this sin underlies all the other sins against which the commandments speak. He who has a love for money and an evil desire to have his neighbor's possessions will hate, lie, steal, cheat, kill. In fact, as Dr. G. Campbell Morgan says, "The whole realm of human interrelations is disorganized and broken up by the dishonoring of the tenth commandment."

II. Covetousness—What It Does (Prov. 11:23, 24; Luke 12:13-21).

1. It Makes a Man Stingy (Prov. 11:23, 24). The righteous man seeks that which is good and he knows nothing of the close-fisted stinginess which withholds from God and man. Sometimes to economize is to lose, and to be liberal is to gain—especially in the things of God.

2. It Makes a Man Envious (Luke 12:13-15). Noting the ability of Jesus in dealing with the other, this man thought to divert the Lord from his real ministry to the souls of men to the settling of social problems—all because he was greedy.

3. It Makes a Man Selfish (Luke 12:16, 17). The one who was known to his friends as the "rich man" (v. 16) was known to God as a "fool" (v. 20), because having more than he could use he hoarded it for himself. One wonders what he had to say for himself when that very night he was called into the presence of God to give an account of his stewardship (v. 20). If you are similarly situated and have the same attitude, what will you say in that day?

4. It Makes a Man Proud (Luke 12:18). All around him were the hungry. He needed no barns, for there were the empty hands of the needy; but money had made him hard and proud. He would build bigger barns, perhaps the biggest in that community. People would marvel at his prosperity and he would live long to enjoy it. But it did not work out that way, for, alas, it is true of covetousness that—

5. It Makes a Man Foolish (Luke 12:19-21). The man who reckons without God is sure to come to grief. Leaving him out of num amounts and percentages of such fees allowed to be retained by each county under the laws in effect on January 1, 1945; and negating any interpretation of this amendment as authorizing the pledging of the State's credit for any purpose.

"Each voter shall strike out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting FOR or AGAINST said proposed amendment."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution for Amendments thereto.

Section 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury of the state, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

"Section 7-a. Subject to legislative appropriation, allocation and direction, all net revenues derived from the taxes, except gross production and ad valorem taxes, levied on motor fuels and lubricants and motor vehicles registration fees shall be used for the sole purpose of acquiring rights-of-way, constructing, maintaining, and policing such public roadways, and for the administration of such laws as may be prescribed by the Legislature pertaining to the supervision of traffic and safety on such roads; and for the payment of the principal and interest on county and road district bonds or warrants voted or issued prior to January 2, 1939, and declared eligible prior to January 2, 1945, for payment out of the County and Road District Highway Fund under existing law; provided, however, that one-fourth (1/4) of such net revenue from the motor fuel tax shall be allocated to the Available School Fund; and, provided, however, that the net revenue derived by counties from motor vehicle registration fees shall never be less than the maximum amounts allowed to be retained by each County and the percentage of such net revenue retained by each County under the laws in effect on January 1, 1945. Mrs. W. Hammonds Named Honor Guest at Lovely Shower

Mrs. Weldon Hammonds, who was Miss Iva Ruth Gafford before her recent marriage, was honored Thursday evening at the Adelpian Club House when Mesdames C. R. Seale, Daurice Ray Naron, Bob Whitaker and Sam Russell and Misses Yvonne McLain and Faye Griffin entertained with a delightful miscellaneous bridal shower.

Miss Griffin received the guests at the door and presented them to the honor guest; her mother, Mrs. C. E. Gafford, and the groom's mother, Mrs. L. H. Hammonds, of Thalia. Mrs. Naron presided over the bride's book where the guests registered before being seated for an informal program. Mrs. Woodrow Lemons played incidental music during the assembling of the guests and also during the serving hour. She accompanied Mrs. R. E. Jones, who sang two numbers, "Let the Rest of the World Go By" and "Always." Mrs. Moody Bursey gave several appropriate readings.

In the dining room, Mrs. Seale poured frosted punch in a pretty shade of pink from the attractive table, lace covered, and with a central arrangement of pink asters surrounded by fern and placed on a reflector. Miss McLain, Mrs. Whitaker and Mrs. Russell served the punch with delectable tiny sandwiches and cookies. Pink napkins, with the bride and groom's names cornering them, were used and tiny rice bags were plate favors.

The many lovely wedding gifts from friends of the couple were arranged in a rear room where Mrs. Whitaker presided.

Morning Coffee to Compliment Mrs. Mike Rasberry Given

Mrs. W. E. Johnson was hostess to a group of friends at her home on Thursday morning, September 5, with a morning coffee, to compliment Mrs. Mike Rasberry, a recent bride.

The affair was informal with a short program being given. Mrs. H. N. Ekers read "Happy Marriage" and Mrs. Leon Sneezer played favorite old love songs. The hostess presented Mrs. Rasberry with a kitchen window plant instead of a corsage and the guest prize was a set of plastic Madeira place mats.

Guests for the pleasing occasion were Mrs. Rasberry and her mother, Mrs. Paul Shirley, Misses Jean Orr, Mary Edwards, Nancy Anderson, Ada Jane Magee, and Valeria Mae Owens, and Mesdames W. D. Studvin, Herman Sandlin, Weldon Hammonds, Daurice Ray Naron, H. N. Ekers, A. Y. Olds, Mike Bird and Leon Speer. Garden flowers were used in decoration of the house.

Shower Given to Honor Mrs. R. C. Brackeen Tuesday

Mrs. R. C. Brackeen of Slaton, the former Miss Mildred Bradford, was named honoree at a lovely miscellaneous shower on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Luther Tamplen. Hostesses for the affair were Mesdames Tamplen, Colonel Murphy, Roy Ayers and Miss Frances Ann Ayers.

The pretty bride's book was placed on a table covered with a silk Japanese cloth which was brought from Japan by Ray Tamplen. Miss Ayers presided over the bride's book.

The lace covered dining table was centered with an arrangement of rose-colored crepe myrtle on a reflector and a Japanese girl oddly placed in the center of the reflector.

Miss Ayers played several piano selections, "Clair de Lune" by Debussy and "Love's Benediction" composed by Paul Goetze of Vernon.

Mrs. Brackeen was given a ball of yarn which when wound led the honoree through several rooms and into a bedroom where a beautiful array of gifts were displayed.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served to a large number of friends and relatives.

B&PW Club Meets Thursday Evening

The Business and Professional Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Inez Spencer on Thursday evening, September 5. Roll call was answered with current event notes.

Mrs. Ha Borchardt gave a parliamentary drill, also read the constitution and by-laws. Miss Mayme Lee Collins gave an article "Take My Word for It."

Mrs. R. L. Kincaid was the guest speaker for the program and spoke on "Pottery." In connection with a splendid talk, Mrs. Kincaid had a display of pottery she has secured from various places.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

On Monday, September 9, members of the Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the home of Mrs. Jack Welch. Mrs. W. L. Johnson presided over the business meeting and three new members were added to the roll.

Opening the program with a devotional concerning Jesus' healing on the Sabbath, Mrs. Jack Welch brought out the attitude of the Pharisees and spoke at length of their blindness to the wonderful opportunity they had to know the living Christ.

Mrs. Grady Halbert gave an article on "Evangelism, a Strategy of Peace." She brought out the fact that Jesus always had an inward peace in time of trouble. Why did He have this serenity? Four reasons—Because of His close communion with God through prayer; His dominating purpose in life—The Son of man came to minister; He was willing to break with old traditions in order to meet the need of suffering humanity and the fact that He lived what he professed. She emphasized the importance of observing a daily quiet time and of responding in some way, however small, to all opportunities to serve.

"Methodists in the Country," a story of a quiet island off the coast of South Carolina, was told by Mrs. Virgil Johnson. She revealed the backward way of life these islanders lead, their superstitions, poverty, ignorance; yet they are striving to better themselves and need help. Contrasting with the aforementioned people, the farmers of the high plateau land of Tennessee have similar problems and needs. A committee from Scarritt College has organized a rural center among these people, a timely project for the government has begun an intensive improvement program and the Rural Center has broken down many social barriers, organized several Women's Societies, held short term rural schools and the Plateau problem is no longer a problem but an example for backward communities the world over.

Sixteen members and two visitors, Mrs. Delmar McBeath of Thalia and Mrs. J. W. Mills of Jackboro, were present. Mrs. Welch served delicious refreshments during the social hour, following which surprise gifts of two life memberships were made; a baby life to Ben Kenton Barker and a Life membership to Mrs. W. L. Johnson, the president.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

On Wednesday, September 4th, Mrs. Hines Clark and Mrs. T. L. Hughtson were hostesses to the members of the Columbian Club at the initial meeting of the club for the year 1946-47, at the home of Mrs. Clark. Greetings were exchanged by those present.

Mrs. J. T. Carter, chairman of the year book committee, made a report of the work of that committee and the book they have produced during the summer months. The course of study for the year concerns "Government, that of the home, the town, the state and the nation. A vote of thanks was extended the committee. Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Chas. Wishon.

Roll call was responded to with the Year's Outlook. Mrs. S. T. Crews, leader of the program, with the subject, "The American Home" talked on "An Eternal Anchor."

Mrs. Charlie Thompson read a poem entitled, "My Riches." Mrs. R. L. Kincaid reviewed an article, "Education Begins in the Home."

Mrs. Grady Halbert, club president, highlighted the program with her address which was titled, "The Supreme Art." She gave homemaking as her idea of the supreme art and made many helpful ideas of other phases of a woman's outlook. She also gave hints concerning the work of the club for the coming year and some suggestions for progress during the year of club work.

The hostesses served a delightful salad plate to those present.

Children Need Good Nourishing Food to Do Well in School

Austin.—Discussing the food requirements of a child enjoying maximum health, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has stressed the importance of a well-rounded diet and stated that a healthy and well-nourished child enjoys life and does well in school because he is physically fit.

Dr. Cox stated further that when a child is in good health, his appetite is good, elimination is regular and sleep is sound and untroubled, all of which contributes to his progress in school.

"A child's appearance can usually help parents to judge the state of his nutrition. A well-nourished child has good skin color and there is a moderate padding of fat over the bones and muscles of the arms, legs and body. Muscles are well developed and strong. Teeth are good and the gums are firm and light pink," Dr. Cox said.

The State Health Officer stated that a delicate, hard-to-please appetite or a tired feeling after a little exertion indicates possible malnutrition or the beginning of an illness, and the child should be seen by the family physician.

Required as a diet for the preschool child and those of school age, Dr. Cox listed milk, fruit, vegetables, eggs, meat, fish or cheese, cereal and bread and added that cod liver oil and other vitamin preparations may be useful in winter and early spring, but they should always be prescribed by the family physician.

Many Texans Get Living from Oil Industry in State

Dallas.—Nearly 900,000 Texans get their living directly from the petroleum industry, figures just compiled by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association show.

This huge Texas petroleum family, scattered throughout the State, is made up of 211,225 workers who with their dependents total 887,145 Texans. The wage-earners of this group last year received $560,000,000 in wages and salaries, or virtually 39c of every dollar spent by the Texas petroleum industry.

The figures are included in the 1946 edition of "Important Facts About Texas Oil and Gas," just published by the association, the research and service organization of Texas oil and gas operators.

Texas farmers, ranchers and other land owners received $215,000,000 last year in oil and gas lease and royalty payments, the booklet shows. State and local tax collectors took $95,502,000, much of which went for salaries of teachers, public officials and their employees while $65,000,000 was paid the Federal government, for a total 1945 tax bill of $160,502,000. This did not include gasoline taxes paid by the motoring public on the industry's principal product.

The Texas petroleum industry paid out a total of $946,536,000 last year for wages and salaries, lease and royalty payments, State and local taxes, contract drilling and geophysical prospecting, most of which went directly to Texans. These expenditures represent 65c of every dollar spent by the industry.

"This is by no means all the money expended by the Texas petroleum industry which benefits the State and all its people," Fred W. Shield, association president, pointed out. "Just as those who work for the railroads and shipping concerns and the banks receive a substantial share of their incomes from expenditures of the petroleum industry, so many thousands of men and women in other lines of business also attribute part of their incomes to petroleum. When the purchases of this industry's employees in their own communities are considered, it is readily seen that there is hardly any business in Texas which does not in one way or another receive income from oil and gas. The huge payroll and other expenditures create a tremendous buying power for the necessities of life which benefits practically every line of business in almost every community in the State."

"All told, the State and its people are the direct beneficiaries of a major share of the $1,449,719,000 (billion) expended in 1945 by Texas' largest industry. A relatively small share of the money which is spent for goods and services goes out of our State."

No industry engaged in the production of merchandise for shipment in inter-state commerce may pay any employee less than a minimum wage even through the payment of such minimum wage causes the industry to operate at a loss.

McMurry College to Open Fall Term on September 16th

Abilene, Sept. 9.—McMurry College will open on September 16, instead of September 9, Dr. Harold G. Cooke, president, announced today, giving as the reason for the postponement the need for additional time to complete housing facilities for students this fall, mainly veterans.

"By the later date, we will have accommodations for most of our veterans who are married, and all of the single students who have made application so far.

"Nearby homes have opened their rooms to college students, and we will be able to place many of the students there, at least until the new dormitories are completed," Dr. Cooke said.

"We have no closed our enrollments as yet, but students should check, either by a personal visit or by letter, if facilities are available," he added, "and we will make every effort to see that no one who seeks college training this fall will be turned away."

POISON CUTWORMS

Cutworms chop down early plants in the garden, while slugs may continue to do damage over a long period of time, especially when the weather stays damp or rainy. A poison bait may be used to control both of these pests, and later in the season, may also be used for grasshoppers. For a poison bran mash, mix six pounds of bran or cornmeal, four ounces of Paris green, one pint of molasses and two quarts of water. Mix first the bran and Paris green. Stir the molasses into the water, then combine it with the bran and poison mixture to make
