October 1 to 8, Set Aside As Nat'l. Newspaper Week

October 1-8, 1946, has been set aside as National Newspaper Week. It is most fitting that a time be set aside for the newspaper to remind the public of the services which it is constantly performing for the benefit of the community, says W. G. Chandler, president, American Newspaper Publishers Association.

"Too many people accept their daily newspaper and the benefits it brings in the way of information, ardent support of community projects, campaigns for better government, and efforts to improve the general welfare as they accept all of the other vital necessities of life—taking it for granted that these things belong to them as a right, without a realization of the fact that free people have such rights mainly by virtue of their constant defense by the newspaper.

"The slogan of National Newspaper Week in 1946 is 'A Free Press—Voice of Freedom, Guardian of Liberty.' No other single instrument is so aptly named.

"World War II might well have been avoided had all the peoples of the world had the newspaper as a 'Voice of Freedom, Guardian of Liberty.' World War III may be prevented through that self-same means."

The Crowell High School football team lost its first conference game of the season last Friday night here when it came out on the little end of a 12 to 0 score with the Holliday Eagles. The Wildcats were playing without John Frank Mitchell, fullback, and with several other regulars crippled to the extent that they were not up to par. However, the Eagles should be given credit for having played a good game.

First Conference Football Game Lost to Holliday

The first half was played on even terms with neither team being able to score. The Wildcats did take the opening kickoff on a nice return by Ray Black and drove down to Holliday's twenty yard line before losing the ball on downs. Holliday was not able to penetrate Crowell's territory in the first half.

In about the middle of the third quarter, Crowell got off a short punt to give Holliday the ball on Crowell's thirty yard line. On the first play from scrimmage after this bad kick, Ferguson, quarterback for Holliday, threw a nice long pass to Mahler, right end for the Eagles, that resulted in a touchdown. The kick was wide to leave the score 6 to 0 at the end of the third quarter.

The fourth quarter gave the Eagles another score when Alford, fleet halfback for Holliday, came around on a reverse play to pick up thirty-seven yards and place the ball on the five yard line. Wayne Young, 170 pound fullback for the Eagles, drove the ball on over for another Holliday touchdown. The extra point was again no good to leave the final score 12 to 0. With R. L. Ballard, substitute quarterback, and Kendrick Joy, playing right halfback, alternating with the ball carrying assignments, the Crowell boys drove for forty yards down to Holliday's twenty-five yard line late in the game before losing the ball on an intercepted pass. Crowell's line did some splendid blocking in this late drive.

The Wildcats go to Iowa Park tonight, (Thursday), for their second conference game. Coach Louis Purvis will probably make a few changes in the lineup for this game, to try to produce a scoring combination.

Iowa Park, Olney and Burkburnett will be playing their first conference games this week. The feature games of the week will be Seymour at Archer City, and Olney at Holliday on Friday night.

Implement Dealers Move Into New Building on Square

The Foard County Implement Co. moved to its new building on the southeast corner of the square this week. The building, which is 75 by 50 feet, was recently completed by O. D. Reid of Knox, City and constructed of concrete blocks and stuccoed on the outside. It was erected on the front fifty feet of three twenty-five foot lots and is the old location of Borchardt Chevrolet Co.

The implement company, dealers in tractors and farm machinery for Minneapolis-Moline, is owned by Jack Turner of Crowell, who is the local manager, and L. V. Anderson of Paducah.

The front of the new building has been partitioned off for the business office and show rooms and the back part will be used for repair work and servicing of tractors.

The brick building which formerly occupied these lots was owned by Ferguson Bros. and was blown down when the tornado struck Crowell April 28, 1942. It was built in 1928 and the foundation and the concrete floor which covered the entire area of the three lots remained in good condition, which made the construction of the new building much easier and less expensive.

New Equipment for Fire Department Has Been Received

The Crowell Volunteer Fire Department has received the smoke mask and first aid kit purchased from the firemen's fund, it was announced this week by Fire Chief Leon Speer. This money was raised from the softball tournament sponsored by the Fire Department this summer.

The firemen have bought white coveralls with Crowell Fire Department on the back, also from the softball tournament money, but they have not been received yet.

Another important announcement is the fact that firemen are insured by the City. Any fireman missing three meetings is dropped from the Department's active roll. If they have had five years service, they are placed on the honorary list, but are not covered with insurance.

None but active members are permitted to ride the fire truck to a fire or drill, as others are not insured, thus leaving the City responsible in case of an accident.

Below is a list of the active firemen who are insured and permitted to ride the truck:

Leon Speer, Orville White, Ernest Breedlove, Johnny Gamble, Ike Wilson, Herman Kincheloe, Clyde Langford, Sam Russell, Paul Gobin, Ernest Weaver, Bob Whitaker, A. A. Howell, D. L. Owens and R. Trammell.

There are a few vacancies in the Department and anyone interested in joining, may contact any of the above members.

HISTORY

Hallowe'en—October 31: It is said that many of the mystic rites and practices from which the practices of present day Hallowe'en originated or sprung had their origin among the Druids centuries before the Christian era. The name Hallowe'en, however, however, is of Christian origin and refers to the eve of All Hallow's or All Saints' Day which falls on November 1. Among the Druids Hallowe'en was the eve of the festival of Saman, the lord of death who assembled at that time the souls of the wicked that during the year had been condemned to inhabit the bodies of animals and decide what form they should take during the next year and in the bodies of what animals they would enter. The Jack 'o' lantern is supposed to have originated in Ireland. According to the story a stingy man named Jack was barred from heaven because of his stinginess and forbidden to enter hell because of his practical jokes upon the devil. His punishment was that he was condemned to walk the earth with his lantern until Judgment Day. The practice of putting rings and other objects in cakes originated in Ireland. It has many variations. One version consists of a ring, a thimble and a small doll in a cake. The one who received the ring would marry within a year, the one who received the doll would have a child and the one who received the thimble would never marry. There were scores of such beliefs and customs most of which had to do with the successful or the unsuccessful outcome of affairs of lovers. When the early settlers came to America they brought with them the Hallowe'en customs of their homeland. Out of the many observances and practices dating back many years have come the practices and the legends of the day. The chief difference being that in the modernized observance of the day the young people who observe Hallowe'en do so in a mood of frolic and sport and attach none of the former meanings to the various practices.

A newspaper columnist describes Russia's idea of "One World" as follows: United States and Britain out of Europe; United States out of China; Representative government out in the United States.

Admiration for Age

A large number of persons of quite advanced age often win admiration for the activity they maintain in some of their elderly years. They are often said to be "well preserved." People ask how they have managed to keep active at the time of life when many are in poor health or incapable of any considerable exertion.

One way by which many persons prolong life is by avoidance of worry and anxiety. They have a calm philosophy that does not anticipate trouble before it comes. It has faith that if misfortunes really happen, they will somehow be able to meet them and adjust themselves to whatever may occur.

The habit of being satisfied with whatever situation in life people have been able to attain, tends to prolong life. It is a help to accept conditions cheerfully and not fret unduly because one does not have some satisfaction that has proved to be out of reach.

It helps to keep people young and energetic, if they are able to have a resource that helps them do things that younger people do. Those who play some game well keep young. The older men and women who have kept playing golf, for instance, have a source of health and pleasure that is very helpful if they are careful not to overdo it. Any of the less strenuous pastimes that call for some physical activity help many old

Weekly Sermon

By the Rev. Will H. Houghton, D. D., President, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

As For My House Do you ever become impatient with your children? They seem so irresponsible in spiritual things, so slow in accepting your standards of separation and your attitude toward the world.

When you are thus troubled, turn the flashlight away from your children and upon your own heart. See how slight has been your own spiritual development, and confess that some of your victories in the realm of worldliness are not through conviction but through prejudice. Yes, and through the restraints and constraints of some Christian circle with which you are identified.

Do we misquote the notable saying of Joshua and make it read, "As for my house, it will serve the Lord?" It is because we have forgotten the preceding, "As for me and my house."

Do we determine stricter things for our household than we determine for ourselves? Oh, there are many uncomfortable questions in this realm! Is our concern to prove a point or to improve a character, to win an argument or to win a life?

Children are not born full grown; neither are spiritual children. Do not demand that spiritual babes shall eat meat. See to it that they have good milk for growth. And withal, make sure of your own growth.

If you do any resolving concerning your children . . . make sure it includes yourself. "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Josh. 24:15).

folks to enjoy life and get useful exercise. Whether people should retire from active work when they reach an advanced age, is a debatable question. Many of them have passed the time when they can take an active part, and they are entitled to their rest and to many happy years. Many are still able to work, and enjoy doing so. Anyway the people like and admire their old folks, and the good cheer and spirit they show in their declining years.

If during the war some one would have told us that a full year after the war we would still be rationing sugar we would not have believed them. It is taking us longer to convert to peace needs than it took us to convert to war needs.

The world cannot stand another war. But we must face realities. No country which values liberty and independence can neglect its security and defenses until a world organization can take over the job of preserving world peace.—General Eisenhower.

Lack of Time

When people are asked to serve on some committee or do some organization work in the community, the excuse is often made that they have no time for such activity. In many cases they are justified in giving this excuse, as their days and nights are full of many duties, to their families or in their daily work. Many are already doing so many things that they cannot be expected to take on any more responsibilities.

Perhaps a good many could squeeze out the time to do more of this public work. If they did, they would have a sense of pride in their fine service. They would be honored by their associates, and make a great many friends. It is a great satisfaction to feel that one is doing useful things for his home town.

Mrs. Mary Ragland Thompson left Sunday night for Denver, Denver, Colo., where she will study Library work at the University of Denver. She was accompanied as far as Quanah by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thompson.

Dear Editor:
 Why is it that at every auditorium program there are some people that continually disturb the rest of the audience?

When there are entertainers visiting CHS, it looks as if they should be treated with due respect and courtesy. It is these people who can either make or break the reputation of a courteous student body in CHS. These people will either say that CHS has the most courteous student body or the most discourteous of any school.

If a student plans to go to the different programs given in the auditorium, he should go because he is interested, not just to get out of a class, because if a person is not interested in a program he will surely talk or in some other way disturb. It shows a lack of respect for a person to go to a program and not be polite.

When true friends meet, there is a hearty "Hello there" and a friendly smile. A chat leaves each, in parting, feeling that something has been reassured by this chat and that something is the knowledge that each has a friend he can have fun with, or tell his troubles to.

Crowell is a town of friendly people. It's High School is a high school of teen-agers who, in having parents who are friends with everyone, have derived the friendly attitude and realize what an asset this attitude is.

Take Thoreau and Emerson for example, each believed in the same things, enjoyed doing the same things. Each lived for the happiness he could get from life, and each believed that friendship and happiness go hand in hand; that the happiness he got out of life was the friends he made in life.

It has been said, "Friendship is Golden." One who does not believe this statement has never been anyone's true friend, nor is he qualified to be anyone's true friend.

It is said that the most enduring friendships are made in high school. Remember, "Having a friend is being a friend."

LOCAL SCHOOL TO ENTER ADELPHIAN ART CONTEST

Ever since you were three, you probably showed your artistic nature by marking up your mother's wall paper or scribbling on one of her favorite books or magazines. Well, you now have a chance to show what you really can do. The Adelpian Club is sponsoring a contest for the primary, elementary, and high school grades.

The elementary and primary are to use crayon only for the drawing. The high school may have a choice of map colors, pencil, water colors or pen and ink. Nine by twelve inch drawing paper is to be used and the name of the person is to be written on the back.

I suppose by now you are wondering what you will get for the drawing, well, it isn't a free pass to the show or any thing like that, but it is two dollars which will help you to see several shows or you can spend it as you please. Entering the contest to win is the idea, but the main purpose of the contest is to help create more interest in art!

THE WILDCATS POINT WITH PRIDE

Romeo of the campus, C. D. Campbell, spends time percolating (Ya Man).

This dark, brown haired, green eyed Romeo has a very original, unique, and uncommon pastime. It is, whistling at the female sex. (Hubba, hubba). His favorite sport is football. On Saturdays he dons his hunting clothes and is loaded for dove. This young man is a member of the "National Theatrical Dramatic Honor Society of America." On leaving CHS he plans to be in "good old Texas U." His football record, as well as his scholastic record, is very good. He plays center and lettered last year. His hobby is flying, he has nine and one-half hours to his credit, and he got his license on May 9 at the age of sixteen. His one love, besides girls, is for his dogs.

Listen, girls, he's unattached!

F. H. A. CLUB

The Home Economics department elected new officers for the school year: Betty Sims, president; Jimmie Swan, vice president; Martha Johnson, secretary; Mary Johnson, treasurer; Jo Ann Nichols, sergeant-at-arms; Tommie Meason, reporter; Vera Lee and Patsy Fox, song leaders; Doris Cox, parliamentarian; Lora Abston, pianist.

Martha Johnson was the lucky delegate who went to the Chillicothe district F. H. A. meeting. The meeting was called to order at ten thirty. Crowell, Quanah, North Side, Chillicothe, Canyon, Childress and Plainview were some of the schools represented. Martha saw Chillicothe Home Economics room. It was not as large as ours, but had two electric stoves and a refrigerator. She said it was very pretty.

The club has a new paper called the "Newsletter" that is published each month. This paper lists each school's home economics activities.

They have six points in the club. These points are improving ourselves, co-operating with the school, developing our programs, serving our community, state and nation, and making our homes better places to live in.

Highlights of the program include a tap dance by two girls and a tea. The next meeting will be held at Chillicothe the third week in March.

In Martha's own words, "It was a lot of fun. All of us had an enjoyable and benefitting day."

CHS FASHIONS

Walking down the halls of CHS is almost like turning the pages of "Mademoiselle." I am speaking of the cute outfits worn by the CHS girls.

Everywhere I look I see belts, belts, and more belts. Montez Laquey has a gold studded red leather girdle (or belt) and Booty has a wide, wide brown leather girdle which shows off her waist. Janet Roark wears a wide black patent leather belt which is really pretty.

On the small (? ?) and dainty feet of the girls on our campus I found the old favorite brown moccasins. Occasionally you might find a pair of dashing red moccasins, like Ann Payne's, or two-toned brown and white ones, like Virginia Bell's, but most of the girls wear brown moccasins.

At this time of the year, girls have a way of talking about sweaters, and wearing them, too. Some of those sweaters are Fay Jones' reindeer sweater, La Verne Owens' yellow pullover, Ina Mae Hardin's white sweater, and Joan Nichols' navy pullover.

As for jewelry, Indian bracelets and rings seem to be most popular. Have you noticed Mary Jones' and Joline Lanier's bracelets?

DASHING FOOTBALL STARS OF CHS PRACTICE IN "MODEL A"

Two gentlemen of CHS were driving down a street Friday afternoon when all of a sudden the back end of a car loomed up in front of them. It was either the car or the curb—so they chose the curb. With much maneuvering they managed to turn the steering wheel and hit the curb. Flop! the car, being very spirited despite its old age—turned over on its back leaving both boys seeing stars. The two boys, finding that nothing was seriously wrong, played football in spite of being rather shaken up.

When asked about the experience J. L. said, "Always have good brakes or you'll have to say, 'move over, curb, we can't.'" Don remarked, "Whew."

WILDCATS DROP CONFERENCE OPENER

The Crowell Wildcats were defeated in a hard-fought game Friday night by the Holiday Eagles 12 to 0.

This was the first conference game of the season for both teams and was the first time the Eagles have ever defeated the Wildcats.

The Wildcats could never seem to click except late in the fourth quarter. However, several long drives were made by the Wildcats but were never turned into scores.

Holiday's victory was sparked by Young, Alford and Ayers. Young turned in some nice runs and Ayers was key man for the Eagles on defense.

The Wildcats were hampered by injuries, but despite this fact they turned in a hard-fought game.

The Wildcats will travel to Iowa Park, Thursday, Oct. 3, 1946, for the second conference game of the Geraldine Davis had a good time in those "Oklahoma Hills" (Oklahoma City). Did Bobbie Brock, Martha Johnson, Doris Cox and Betty Lou Brock have fun over the week end?

Peeping around the corners: We see Peggy Evans and Pete, Joann, Yvonne and some Thalia boys, Sharon and Joe, Janet and Larry, Booty and Carlos, Jo Ann and (you know who) Ed.
 Couple of the week: K. Joy and Maggie Everson.

SIDE SPLITTERS

Betty Fern: All my life I've been saving my kisses for a man like Grover.
 Rouse: Well, get ready to lose your life savings.

A Kiss

A kiss is a peculiar proposition. Of no use to one but of absolute bliss for two. The small boy gets it for nothing, the young man has to ask for it, and the old man has to buy it. The baby's right, the lover's privilege and the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl—faith; to a married woman—hope; to an old maid—charity.

Mouse: Gosh, Don, that was a terrible accident you and Brock had Friday night. Did it hurt you?

Don: No, but Doctor Clark said if it had been anyone else, it would have caused concussion of the brain.

The popular name of the B-29 war plane is the Superfortress.

Family Reunions

Family reunions have for many years been an interesting feature of summer and the early fall weeks. Some families take special pains to keep up the tie created by their blood relation. They have family associations, and occasionally some meeting to which relatives come from quite a distance to renew these ties.

It is a pleasant thing for people to meet those with whom they have a common ancestry. Their conversations and addresses recall the history of the family. The achievements of members of the family are told, and honor paid to many relatives who have done remarkable things.

People exchange reminiscences of their past, and recall the relatives of former generations whom they once knew but who have passed on. Stories of the life of former days are told by the older people, and the young folks are glad to make new friends and realize that they have a valuable asset in these family ties.

Home Town Thoughts

The enthusiasm for keeping nice and attractive home places should not wane as the year advances. The autumn months are an excellent time for home place improvements.

The people who adorn and beautify their home places set an example to their neighbors. When one place is improved, people living nearby are also likely to do things to make their homes more attractive.

Many business concerns will testify that when they drop their advertising, their sales fall off.

Good roads are vital to the welfare of Texas farmers. . . . Our organization is in full accord with the amendment.—J. Walter Hammond, President, Texas Farm Bureau Federation.

Monument to Humanity: In a neighboring town to the one in which I live, there were two men.
 Both of them were well to do.
 Both of them had been successful
 in business and had accumulated a gratifying savings account. One of the men entered into a contract with a monument dealer to erect for him a monument costing in the neighborhood of forty thousand dollars. The monument attracted considerable attention in the country town cemetery where it overshadowed all the other less pretentious markers. Its owner used to drive out to the cemetery,
 park his car near the monument
 where he would sit and listen to the comments made by the visitors who came from some distance to see the sight. The other man arranged for a small unpretentious marker on his family lot and contributed ten thousand dollars to the local hospital fund for the building and equipping of a community hospital. The two men I think represent two types to be found in every town. Unfortunately too many like the first invest their money in cold marble instead of putting it into the things that mean more to human beings. The gift to the hospital fund was the better of the two. It will be a living monument in the hearts of men and women when the marble monstrosity has crumbled with the erosion of time and the community shall have forgotten who
 and what its builder was.

Three sets of American Presidents have had the same last

Non-Athletic Young Folks
 Some parents say they wish their boys and girls had more ability for playing athletic games.
 They may ask what they can do to help these youngsters take a more active part in these sports.
 Probably some youngsters are deterred from participating in such sports by the knowledge that they cannot play them well, and the fear of getting laughed at for poor playing. They should get over that feeling, and be satisfied
 in case they make a blunder,
 to laugh it off and not mind it if they are a little awkward. If they keep trying and practicing at every possible chance, they may yet
 make good players and get happiness and interesting contacts out of these sports.

PAUL'S BACKGROUND AND EARLY LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:39; 22:3, 27, 28; 26:4, 8; Philippians 3:5, 6.
 MEMORY SELECTION—Remember
 how thy Creator in the days of thy youth
 —Ecclesiastes 12

God works through men. When we study his work we study the lives of men—all types of men—
 but all yielded to him, and used by him.

Paul stands out as one of the most influential characters in all history. His life and letters, which we are to study the next three months, have had a tremendous effect on the human race. Especially is this true of his position and influence in the Christian church.

Under God he was the one who carried the gospel to the Gentile world, and then began the great missionary program of the church,
 which goes on to this very day.
 His writings are the steady and extensive foundation of much of our study and teaching of Christian doctrine.

I. Birthplace (Acts 21:39).
 The place of a man's birth has a definite influence on his personality and usefulness. Tarsus, where Paul was born, was one of the most cosmopolitan cities in the world of that day. It was a Roman province, where men proudly held their citizenship in the great empire. Greek, the language of world culture, was spoken there.

Tarsus was a great educational and university center. It was in a rich and fertile area. It was at the head of navigation on the river Cydnus and on a great Roman highway. It was the capital of the province.

II. Education (Acts 22:3).
 After his early training in the home and under rabbis in Tarsus,
 he went to Jerusalem to study in what was probably the best equipped Hebrew college of that day,
 under one of the greatest teachers, Gamaliel.

Somewhere in his rearing he was taught a trade, for every Jewish boy learned to support himself with his own hands (see Acts 18:3).

He was instructed in the Word of God, and had a consuming zeal for religious things. Until he was converted, it counted against Christianity, but afterward it became a flaming fire to spread the truth in all the world.

His combined zeal and knowledge made him a man of truly broad mind and tolerant spirit (Acts 5:35-39).

III. Citizenship (Acts 22:27, 28).
 The mighty power and prestige
 of Rome stood behind every Roman citizen. Paul used his citizenship for protection. It helped him in his service for the Lord. Its prestige was used for God's glory.

It is a good sign when a man is proud of his national background,
 and it speaks well for the nation to which he belongs. But Paul came (as every Christian does) to know and appreciate a higher citizenship.

IV. Religion (Acts 26:4, 5).
 Though a free-born Roman citizen, Paul was a Jew, and loyal to the religion of his people. He was a member of the strictest sect,
 the Pharisees, in which his family had held membership for generations.

He lived consistently in the ob-

 zation, "Direct Action."

servance of the laws and customs of his religious faith, and none
 could point to any flaw in his doctrine or failure in his life.

When he became a follower of Christ, there was no ground on which anyone could dismiss as the outbreak of a new viewpoint on the part of a renegade Jew.

It is to a man's credit that he faithfully lives up to the beliefs of the religion he professes. The result of such sincerity will be conversion, if he, like Paul, meets Christ and honestly faces the question of loyalty to him.

V. Race (Phil. 3:5, 6).
 Paul counted it to be an honor to be known as a Hebrew and gloried in the fact that he was born, trained and lived within the racial
 as well as religious circle.

No one need ever be ashamed of his race, although he may be ashamed of things which members of his race have done. But there are even more things of which to be proud, and a man may add to the standing of his race by living his own life in cleanness of character and nobility of purpose. It is never a commendable thing to be ashamed of the race of one's fathers.

We must remember, however,
 that all the things in which Paul gloried, he found to be but refuse when he compared them with Christ (see Phil. 3:7, 8).

Everything worthwhile in a man's life God can glorify and use. But none of them, no matter how precious they may seem to be,
 compares with fellowship with and service for the Lord.

Veterans News

The Veterans Administration
 is still grappling with the problem of getting nurses although it offers salaries and other benefits well above private scales. Miss Dorothy MacLeod, Chief Nurse
 in the Dallas Branch Office of VA, said this week.

VA hospitals in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, are short 400 nurses, Miss MacLeod said.
 In some hospitals, notably the huge installation at Temple, Texas, formerly operated by the Army, VA has had to restrict the entrance of patients, she added.

Appealing especially to former nurses in the armed forces, Miss MacLeod said: "Thousands of the younger boys and men of World War II, so well cared for by Army and Navy nurses, are now in VA hospitals. They still need your help."

Salaries for VA nurses range
 from $2,645 to $5,905 per year,
 Miss MacLeod said. In addition,
 VA offers retirement pensions, recreational facilities and other benefits under a new Department of Medicine and Surgery.

VA is now planning a program
 of training that will be attractive to younger nurses just coming out of schools, Miss MacLeod said.

Application forms for amputee
 veterans to use in obtaining cars
 at government expense are expected to be available from VA offices in the Dallas Branch Area
 in about two weeks, VA announceed this week.

VA is responsible for administering the new $30,000,000 program enacted by Congress to provide automobiles or other conveniences for disabled veterans of World War II who are "entitled to compensation for the loss, or loss of use, of one or both legs
 at or above the ankle."

Veterans who think they are entitled to receive cars can obtain the necessary forms and information from VA contact representatives in all larger communities.

James Erwin Will Wed Miss Myers on October 12th

The engagement and approaching marriage of James Erwin, son of Mrs. Kelly Erwin, and Miss Shirley Myers of Monahans, was told in the Monahans paper last week. The story follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hurd have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of Mrs. Hurd's sister, Miss Shirley Myers to James Erwin, son of Mrs. Kelly Erwin, of Crowell. Mr. Erwin is a nephew of Mrs. Rollins T. Harris of this city.

The engagement was announced at a tea given Tuesday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock in the Hurd home at 403 Lang Avenue. Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Hurd were co-hostesses. The marriage will take place here Saturday, October 12th, at the Presbyterian Church at 7 o'clock in the evening.

At the tea the date of the approaching marriage was announced with plate favors of miniature bride's bouquets with tiny cards tied on the white, satin ribbon streamers with the words, "Shirley and James, October 12th." Delightful refreshments were served.

Mrs. L. M. Scroggins presided over the bride's book. Mrs. David Hubler and Mrs. Allen D. Forsythe presided over the tea service. A beautiful cut-work cloth was used on the tea table which was centered with an arrangement of rose colored dahlias. Tall white tapers in crystal holders flanked the centerpiece. Late summer flowers decorated the entertaining rooms for the occasion.

The bride-to-be, who moved to Monahans with the Hurds ten years ago, is a graduate of Monahans High School and attended Sul Ross College. She was employed at the Pyote Army Air Base during the war and is now in the employ of the Sullivan-Willis Motor Company here. She is an active worker in the Presbyterian Church and Sunday School and a popular member of Monahans younger set.

Mr. Erwin is a graduate of Crowell High School and attended Texas A. & M. and Draughn's Business College in Wichita Falls prior to entering the Navy. He was in the Navy for six years and served in the Pacific War Theatre during the war. Moving to Monahans in February, he accepted a position as accountant in the law offices of his uncle, Rollins T. Harris.

VIVIAN H. D. CLUB

"Fruit plate combination" was a very interesting demonstration given by Miss Elizabeth Elliott, County Home Demonstration Agent, to the Vivian Home Demonstration Club which met with Mrs. Clyde Bowley on Tuesday, Sept. 24, in an all-day meeting. Cottage cheese or avocados are good meat substitutes and can be added to the fruit plate combination to make a well-balanced meal. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Ed Sell, president; Mrs. T. W. Cooper, vice president; Mrs. E. T. Evans, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. W. O. Fish, reporter; Mrs. Arthur Sandlin, council delegate, and Mrs. Clyde Bowley, alternate. Mrs. J. W. Carroll, Misses Dolores Gylbert and Elizabeth Elliott were visitors. The club will meet with Mrs. Oscar Nelson, a former member, on Thursday, October 10.

Miss Wanda Liles Married to Jack D. Kellett Sept. 21

He joined the Army Air Corps also in 1940, and went overseas with the 48th Material Squadron, 27th Bomber Group. At the meeting of the Board of Seventh District of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs which was held in Canyon on Friday, September 27th, Mrs. M. S. Henry was named to life membership on the Board.

This award and honor is given strictly on a meritorious basis and it was in appreciation of the outstanding leadership of Mrs. Henry and the length of her service that she was awarded such honor. She was endorsed by the Foard County Federation, the Adelpian Club and the Columbian Club of Crowell. She was a charter member of each of these clubs.

Mrs. Mark Henry was president of the First District at the time the Seventh District was formed and has served continuously as a member of the state or district board since that time, 1919-1921. Mrs. Henry has helped to organize federated clubs throughout the southern part of the district as well as in Foard County. She has assisted in the organization of every federated club in Foard County. She was awarded the State Pioneer Club Woman's medal in 1940.

ADVENTUROUS? GO CLIMB AN ALP! . . . But you won't have to go to Switzerland to do a spot of Alpinism. Mountaineers from all parts of the United States and Canada do it in the Canadian Rockies, and they say the thrills are worth all the efforts. The Bugaboo glacier in the Purcell range of British Columbia is tougher than many Swiss Alps and unmatched in grandeur. Here is Maj. Rex Gibson, one of Canada's ace Alpinists, chopping footholds.

THEY WANT LIGHT . . . When Pittsburgh prepared for a "blackout" due to power strike, the young citizens joined in the protests of their elders. Left to right: Larry O'Connor, 2; Judy Toluslak, 3, and Marilyn Jordan, 2. The strike lasted only 45 minutes, when it was brought to an end by an injunction. These youngsters don't seem to be worried about it, despite the wording of their signs. They had enough of "blackouts" during the earlier days of the war.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

The West Side Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. W. A. Cogdell, on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 25. With Mrs. Henry Ross, president, conducting the business session, the club women read in unison, the club collect and followed by the club prayer.

Mrs. J. C. Prosser talked on "Aids for Sewing;" Mrs. Herman Kincheloe on "Do and Don'ts in Clothing;" Mrs. Henry Ross on "What's Your Color Type?" and Mrs. Charlie Bryson on "Pin Cushions."

Youth and Sports

Boys and girls who have a taste for athletic sports, and ability to play them well, possess an asset that is very important to them. It is a means by which they get very healthful exercise. Their activity gives them good appetite for their meals, they eat heartily and almost always digest their food well. They are fine looking young folks, and they impress people by their vitality and energy.

The sports also are a great help in winning friends. Close ties are formed in these games. Those who have contended together against rival teams, are drawn together by a powerful bond. The love for these sports should not lead anyone to be careless about study. It should help study, by giving young people strong bodies that are capable of good mental and physical work. This physical development will be a great help when they go out into the world, and have to meet its strains.

Young Children May Suffer from Winter Illnesses

Austin.—Young children may suffer as much from winter illnesses as they do from those commonly known as "summer complaints," in the opinion of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, and his advice to parents as the winter season approaches is to guard babies and young children against these winter health hazards.

Influenza, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, and asthma are included among those diseases which may be dangerous winter illnesses among young children since they affect the respiratory or breathing system. Such disease as pneumonia may develop from a neglected cold, they may follow as an after-effect of measles or whooping cough, or they may occur suddenly and with very little warning. These diseases of the respiratory system are more prevalent in winter than in summer and are much more difficult to combat than digestive ailments such as summer complaint.

"These winter diseases are particularly dangerous to babies and young children," Dr. Cox stated. "Nearly all of them are spread through the secretions from the nose and mouth. Children not in vigorous health are naturally more susceptible to these complaints and the first line of defense," Dr. Cox cautioned, "is to strengthen the powers of resistance against disease; the second is to keep them under medical supervision and the third is to make sure they avoid contact with others who have coughs, colds, or fevers."

It was Will Rogers who said "Everything is funny as long as it is happening to somebody else."

Home Town Thoughts

If a town seems to stagnate it is really in danger of being behind, since so many of its citizens are making real progress. A chain is said to be as strong as its weakest link, and a neighborhood is injured if a house in it is kept in a poor condition. If the home folks do not back up and boost home town, who outside the community will do it for them? It is estimated that there are 750,000 alcoholic addicts in the United States.
