Crowell Man, 82, Leads Cub Scouts

Following story, written by Margaret Loner, staff writer of the Wichita Falls Record-News, the accompanying picture of Sandifer and his cubs, is taken from the issue of June 13 of Record-News:

Though he is 82 years old, C. P. Sandifer of Crowell hasn't been scouting because he hasn't had time yet.

He has devoted the last seven years of his spare time, and given up his time that wasn't really "spare" to Pack 49, a single cub scout unit in Crowell. He was the originator of the pack and has been its chief spark since then. In fact, the cubs scouted there insist if it weren't for Mr. Sandifer, "we wouldn't have a pack." A series of cubmasters have come and gone since the pack's charter was granted in 1940, many cubs reached college age and others other changes have taken place, but the same master presided over the successive groups in cubbing.

Godfather
Mr. Sandifer volunteered as godfather, he also took over the "godfather" to the town's pack. He immediately went to work on blueprints and specifications for an activity hall to be built on a lot which he had. The first meeting place was the basement of the First Baptist Church which was provided under a temporary arrangement to be used until "The Hut" was completed.

The building site provided by the city is approximately one-half acre, adjacent to Mr. Sandifer's residence, and after fencing the grounds and allocating a portion for building spot, ground, camp and activity area, the construction of the junction house was underway. Planning a cub program for 12 was a time-consuming task at first so the building installations seemed to go up haphazardly. The boys and their parents who were primarily concerned with meeting the first requirements in time to get their packs and fulfill all the duties expected of cubs in Northwest Texas Council

Efficient Quarters
The last stone was set and a designating the grounds as property of Cub Pack 49 of Crowell, Texas, properly placed, the cubs piled in to take over the months after they became "cubs." Their building boasts an assembly room, a work room and a store room. A covered porch on the east side is also the entrance, extends through the building is often during rainy weather as a place for outdoor activities, also used when its too warm for "getting everything

New Policy on Farm Market Roads to Permit Expansion

June 11. — The State Highway Commission today reported details of a new state-wide program to permit an expansion of present state operated Farm Market Road Program.

Mr. Greer explained that "under the new policy of the Highway Commission, if a county or road district desires additional Farm to Market Roads and is willing to furnish the right of way and 75 per cent of the actual construction cost, the State Highway Department will provide the engineering and 25 per cent of the construction cost from its funds, and will provide for the future maintenance of the road, which item alone generally equals the construction cost over a period of fifteen years."

Mr. Greer further pointed out that in the Commission policy it was necessary, due to the limited finances of the Department, that a ceiling of not more than $100,000 in construction costs in any one county in any one year be used to give state-wide distribution under this plan.

The C. I. O. and the A. F. of L. are preparing a program to raise money to defeat those members of Congress who supported the labor bill. The A. F. of L. is talking of a $5,000,000 fund to be used in the 1948 election.

C. P. SANDIFER AND HIS CUB SCOUTS

designed by Sandifer as a workshop, meeting place and a center for townpeople on several occasions through the generosity of the cubs and their master. During the summer months after the tornado, the Baptist Church members sought the use of the grounds for their annual revival meeting and were quickly granted permission. Since that time a few civic groups have used the activity area for outdoor get-togethers which were in the interest of promoting something better for the town.

Sandifer, although he is from 50 to 60 years older than the average cubmaster in the nation, has won the admiration and respect of the other cubmasters of the council and the professional staff as well for his enthusiastic direction and tireless efforts with the eager youngsters who each year enroll for cubbing.

Miss Evans Released from Red Cross Duties

Miss Margaret Evans, who has been at Antigua, British West Indies, for the past several months, has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Evans. She has been a Service Club hostess with the American Red Cross. Miss Evans has been released after three years of service with the Red Cross. She and her family, nineteen members, which included brothers and sisters and their husbands, wives and children, had a family reunion at the home of a sister, Mrs. E. L. Thomas, and family of Floydada, Sunday, June 8, the first time all had been together since before the war. Miss Evans and three brothers served in the U. S. service during the duration of the war.

The work of covering the church building with a new roof has just been completed and the installing of two large air conditioners is now in progress and will be finished this week. The air conditioners are being placed on top of the roof and the openings for the cool air to enter the building are being made in the ceiling above the choir stand.

The harvesting of Foard County's 1947 wheat crop is almost finished, according to reports from elevator men. However, there were several fields that had not been combined Wednesday, but it is probable that the harvest will be completed by the time this paper reaches its readers.

Reports received from the elevators at Crowell, Foard City and Margaret Wednesday afternoon, the yield in bushels at that time had reached 1,330,000, and it is estimated that the total yield for the county will be in the neighborhood of 1,350,000 to 1,400,000 when the harvest is completed.

Joe Burkett, county agent, estimates the acreage planted to wheat in the county this year to be around 85,000 acres. If these figures are correct the average yield per acre for the entire county will be approximately 15 bushels. Last year it was estimated to be from 10 to 12 bushels.

Since the heavy rains of last month ceased, the weather conditions have been ideal for the grain harvest. The hail storms and excessive rain did much damage to the crop, otherwise it would have been a record-breaking crop for abundant yield and fine quality. However, the quality was very good despite the unfavorable weather.

Brick Ranch House on Burnett Ranch Burns Last Friday

The large brick ranch house on the Burnett Ranch in the west part of the county was destroyed by fire of unknown origin Friday morning. The Crowell Fire Department went to the scene of the fire but arrived too late to be of any benefit. When the fire was discovered, it appeared that all of the inside of the building was burning.

The 14-room brick house was erected by the late Tom Burnett of Iowa Park in 1928 at an estimated cost of approximately $35,000. It was well furnished and contained many costly paintings. The only article rescued from the blaze was the saddle of Mr. Burkett, which was brought out by Charley Smith.

Mary Chandler, Negro cook for the ranch, cooked the first meal in the new building and the last one before it burned 19 years later.

HISTORY

The Battle of Gettysburg—July 2: The battle of Gettysburg, the major conflict of the war between the States, began at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, on July 1, 1863 and continued for three days. The Federal Army of eighty-two thousand men was commanded by General Meade and the Confederate Army of about seventy-three thousand men was commanded by General Lee.

Washington News

By Congressman Ed Gossett, 13 District of Texas.

Washington, D. C., June 14.—This has been an unusually busy week with me. Subcommittee No. 1, of the Judiciary Committee of the House, held hearings this week on H. J. R. 9, of which I am the author, proposing to abolish the electoral college system of selecting Presidents and substituting a direct vote in terms of electoral votes.

In other words, a number of us are advocating that the electoral college and electors be completely eliminated, and in voting for President one vote directly for the candidate. However, we would retain the electoral vote of the states, the state control over elections, and provide that the electoral vote be divided in exact ratio as the popular vote. In other words, if the Republican candidate gets one-third of the popular vote in Texas, he will get one-third of 23 electoral votes.

First, existing provisions as to the choosing of electors, the manner in which their votes are cast and counted, and the deciding of elections in the Congress is an open invitation to fraud and chicanery and unless changed will some day result in disaster.

Second, the electoral college confines and largely restricts national campaigns to a half dozen pivotal states.

Third, the electoral college greatly restricts the field of Presidential possibilities.

Fourth, the electoral college permits and invites irresponsible control and domination by small organized minority groups, within the large pivotal states. It aggravates and accentuates the upon Baltimore and Washington. The first contact of the opposing forces was at Seminary Ridge on the morning of July 1. During the next two days the tide of battle moved back and forth across the field. On the third day occurred the famous charge of the Pickett brigade upon Cemetery Ridge, the deciding factor of the battle. The Confederate batteries had concentrated their fire on the Ridge. The fire has been returned by the Federal battery. Suddenly the Federal batteries ceased firing. Construing this to mean that the Federal battery was out of ammunition Pickett was ordered to charge the Ridge. He moved out with five thousand men and was met with a withering fire which resulted in two-thirds of his command being killed and captured. This was the turning point of the battle. On the fourth day fighting ceased and Lee began his retreat.

building up and solidification with these states of religious, economic, and racial blocs.

5. Fifth, the electoral college deprives great masses of our best citizens of the educational benefits of national campaigns and lessens their concern in national affairs.

6. Sixth, the electoral college places unconscionable burdens and temptations upon a President elected by it.

The Subcommittee on Immigration of the House Judiciary Committee has been busy this week holding hearings on the Stratton Bill which seeks to admit to this Displaced Persons camps in Europe. It is proposed to admit these folks over and above the some 500,000 who come here annually under existing laws. I am bitterly opposed to this bill and will make a speech against it on the floor of the House this week.

During these hearings I made a remark about the millions in New York City who do not even speak the English language, referring to that metropolis as in fact a foreign community. New York newspapers have been patting me since. The editor of the national newspaper PM sent a wire inviting me to see New York at their expense and adding, "The record shows that in the city of New York only 4.5 of our people can be classified as illiterate as compared with 6.8 per cent who are illiterate in your own State of Texas. In New York State as a whole the illiteracy rate is 13.7 per cent as compared with 13.5 per cent in your birthplace, Louisiana. In all sincerity we hope you will accept our invitation so that you can talk to the people here

On the House floor this week the bitterest debate has been generated by the so-called Mann Bill which proposes to set up so-called "Voice of America" bureau in the State Department.

The more Mom depends on electric service, the less work is in her household. And how little electric service costs! A penny's worth a day will rescue Mom from the drudgery of dishwashing. A few more pennies will cook her meals. Electricity will help her wash and iron far less weekly than the cost of a bar of soap.

And when Mom balances her budget, she's bound to note that electricity is one of its smallest items. Actually, the average family now gets twice as much electricity for its money as it did about 20 years ago. This bargain comes to Mom—and to you, too—through the practical experience of your friends and neighbors in this company, under sound local business management.

Twenty years ago Chas. Lindbergh made his epic solo flight from Roosevelt Field, New York, to Bourget Field, Paris, in 33 hours and 29 minutes. Lindbergh, a 25 year old airmail pilot, had flown the Spirit of St. Louis to New York from the west coast in record time for a $25,000 prize. At the time he left the Roosevelt Field for his Paris flight two other planes were waiting for favorable weather to take off. Commander Richard E. Byrd and Clarence Chamberlain. When Lindbergh breezed in from the west he said he would go without any waste of time and began on his flight in the rain at 2 a. m., May 20, 1917. He had no radio and took with him only a minimum of emergency equipment. The world wide acclaim with which the feat was greeted caught the young flyer off balance and he had some difficult years adjusting himself to being a world figure. In the midst of it came the kidnapping and murder in 1929 of his eldest child. He married Ann Morrow, daughter of Senator Dwight Morrow. The Lindberghs live in Connecticut. They have five children.

Whooping Cough Now Prevalent in Texas

Austin—A statement released this week by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, indicates that the incidence of whooping cough in Texas is at present almost three times as high as the seven year median.

"Prevention and control of whooping cough, especially among infants and small children, may be accomplished through use of approved vaccine and convalescent serum," Dr. Cox asserted, "and it is important that such measures be taken to protect them. Neglecting to do so, and allowing the young child to suffer an attack of this disease, may seriously impair his future health."

The infectious agent or germ of whooping cough, is transmitted by droplets expelled in coughing, sneezing, or speaking," Dr. Cox said. "The discharges from the nose and throat are dangerous to susceptible persons; the need for early recognition and careful isolation of whooping cough is obvious."

The first sign of this disease is usually a dry cough, which persists day and night and tends to become increasingly severe. The disease is fully developed when vomiting of food and whooping accompany the paroxysm of cough. Dr. Cox stressed the fact that children who have whooping cough should not attend school and should be isolated so that they will not come in contact with other children until three weeks after the appearance of typical signs of the disease.

Veterans Administration processed over 800,000 applications for all types of benefits during February.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for June 22

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

THE TRAGIC END OF A NATION

Lesson Text—II Kings 25:1-12. Memory Selection—Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people.—Proverbs 14:34.

The end of the road? Down, down went Judah in its sinful refusal to keep God's Word, and ultimately came the final day of reckoning. It always does. The catastrophe which had long been approaching had arrived at last. The fall of a capital city, which carries with it the empire, is a world-shaking event. The fall of Rome shattered the world for a thousand years. The fall of Berlin and Tokyo are within the memory of all of us, and the results are seen in a disordered world.

The destruction of Jerusalem, which our lesson presents, was even more serious; for it was not only a national tragedy, but also one with deep religious significance.

The wicked king Jehoiakim was succeeded by his son Jehoiachin, a mere boy who reigned only three months. He gave way to Nebuchadnezzar, who appointed as his successor his uncle Zedekiah.

It is in the verses just preceding our lesson that we learn that Zedekiah turned against Babylon in an act of.

I. Rebellion (v. 1). Zedekiah ignored his oath of allegiance (II Chron. 36:13, for which he was condemned by Ezekiel as a traitor (Ezek. 17:13-18). Zedekiah has well been called the vanishing point in a diminishing line of kings. It was an evil thing he did (II Kings 24:19), and one which showed his conceit, vanity and rashness.

True it was that he only followed what he had learned from his predecessors, but that is never a good excuse for a man foolishly to turn against God's will. Observe that God was not just a disinterested spectator, and yet he had come to the place where he let Judah go down to its own awful doom. The worst thing that can happen to a man or a nation is to be let alone by God.

Zedekiah's act of folly quickly brought II. Retribution (vv. 2-10). Jeremiah urged Zedekiah to surrender (see Jer. 37, 38) in order to save Jerusalem and himself, but he refused, and the city was besieged.

The king's refusal to hear God's prophet and his turning to Egypt for help speak to us of the manner in which unrepentant sinners reject God's mercy and then seek help at the hopeless cisterns of this world (Jer. 2:13).

The king tried to flee, but was taken captive. Then came the siege of Jerusalem. For one and one-half years the enemy gradually closed in, while famine and distress grew apace in the city. Jeremiah went through this entire period sharing his people's trouble. The book of Lamentations is the record of this eyewitness.

Sin does its terrible work. Even as it can take a great city and turn it into a plague spot marked by cruelty, suffering and death, even so it can bring forth its inevitable and unspeakable results in the life of the individual who persists in resisting the voice of God.

Note also that the sin of Zedekiah brought quick judgment, not only on himself, but upon his innocent children (v. 7), and on many in the besieged city who were equally guiltless of wrongdoing. It is again a picture of what sin does today in the homes and communities of our nation.

III. Removal (vv. 11, 12). The fall of Jerusalem prepared the way for the closing scene of the immediate history of the nation as the people went into captivity. It also ended for the time being the history of the city that had once so proudly held a position of privilege and power, but was now brought down by its sin and rebellion against God.

We say rightly that history repeats itself. We see that any nation that lifts itself up in pride and forgets God will inevitably perish. We ask ourselves where our beloved country stands. As we consider its debauchery and drunkenness, its disregard of moral standards, its indifference to the things of God, we feel that instead of pointing a finger of scorn at Judah, we ought to be on our faces before God in penitence and shame.

Let us not assume that we hold a place of favor with God, which exempts us from the certainty of judgment. Israel was his chosen, and they still are, for his promises of ultimate blessing to them have never been withdrawn. But their sin brought certain punishment, and the same is true today not only of the nation but of the individual.

The Sunday School lessons will take up the history of Israel, again at this point in April, 1948, when we consider the captivity and the partial return of the people to their land.

Weekly SURPLUS NEWS WAA

A pre-Fourth of July offering for the benefit of World War II veterans will be made at the Red River Arsenal when 450 trailers, trucks, sedans and jeeps are put on the market by the War Assets Administration. Inspection of the vehicles may be made Friday, June 27, and Monday, June 30, with sales during July 1 and 2. Sales will be limited to one vehicle to a veteran, and order of purchase is to be determined by a drawing held at gate three of the arsenal at 9 a. m., July 1. Admission qualifications will be discharge papers or accepted proof of honorable World War II service. WAA location sales officials declared that veterans attending the sale will be able to inspect, complete purchase and drive their vehicle home before the holiday.

The Amvets want preservation of veterans rights in acquiring war surplus as aggressively opposed to those who want to scrap all priorities, according to Ray Sawyer, national Amvet commander who conferred at Grand Prairie with zone and regional War Assets Administration officials recently. After looking over the Grand Prairie WAA plant and visiting a veterans' sale in the warehouse, the Amvet chief said he was well pleased with reports on WAA's handling of surplus in Texas. "You're doing a good job. Don't let criticism get you down," he said on leaving.

Seven to eight million dollars worth of surplus government owned paints, clear and pigmented lacquers, enamels and related products are being offered at low fixed prices on a national sale through War Assets Administration. These products generally are best suited for use as production or maintenance finishes in the industrial field, it was said. Information on the paints and lacquers is available through the Customer Service Center of the Grand Prairie WAA office.

Wholesalers led all other groups of buyers of surplus property in the Southwest during May, purchasing 42.4 per cent of all goods sold, according to a monthly report analysis released by the Grand Prairie office of War Assets Administration. Total sales of government surplus for May more than doubled those of April in the area.

Five surplus army chapels at the Amarillo Army air field are being offered for use as shrines or for religious purposes through the War Assets Administration's regional office at Grand Prairie, Texas. They are placed on the market together with their "presently contained fixtures" subject to removal from the area. Priority purchasers have until July 3 to place bids and the general public until July 23.

A surplus item with the government but which was critical to the German war machine in the last months of the war is represented in bearings now offered through War Assets Administration until June 30. You will recall the effective work of the 8th Air Force bombers in placing the German bearings works out of commission. Customers Service Center of the Grand Prairie WAA office has made available ball, roller, tapered and anti-friction bearings.

Coal fired and natural gas ranges and baking ovens are among hardware items contained in a sealed bid lot sale by War Assets Administration until June 23. Information is available through Customer Service Center at the Grand Prairie WAA Office.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Old Iodine is Useless.—Iodine should not be used when it has been kept for any length of time. This is because the alcohol in which iodine is dissolved evaporates rapidly and the tincture thus becomes concentrated and the strength is increased. It is best to buy iodine in small quantities and to use it sparingly.

Convenient Garden Knee Pad.—A pad made of a bunch of newspapers is a great convenience to kneel on when setting out plants or weeding the garden. Sew together if desired.

Examine Backs of Pictures.—The backs of pictures should be examined from time to time. If there are any holes in the paper, fresh pieces should be pasted over them, or dust may get in.

Congress approved an appropriation of $500,000,000 for the construction of new airports and the modernization of existing fields. So far $45,000,000 has been used and 820 airport projects have been approved.

The state of Texas comprises one-twelfth the area of the nation.

How many of your New Year's you made in jest. Others represent a serious effort, such as a thrift

Search Being Made for Davy Crockett's Famous Long Rifle

Has "Betsey," Davy Crockett's famous Long Rifle, lost in the heroic defense of the Alamo, been found at last?

A complete description and photographs of an authentic Alamo rifle now restored to perfect working order is detailed in an article entitled "Wag! You Don't Know About The Long Rifle" in the July issue of Sports Afield.

The historic Texan weapon is one of the few known examples
made by Jacob Dickert, famous Pennsylvania Long Rifle maker whose name, misspelled as Decker-ard, Decheder, Deschert, Dickart and even DeCharr, is celebrated in many historical novels. According to the article, long rifles
made by Dickert, not only blazed from the Alamo, but at King's Mountain, at Vincennes, and Kaskaskia and accompanied Lewis and Clark into the Louisiana Territory.

The present owner of Dickert's
"Alamo rifle" is Colonel Walter Finney Sigmund, executive of Olin Industries, Inc., parent of Winchester and Western Cartridge Company, who relates its story from the time it was first picked up by a Mexican peon after the fall of the Alamo.

Under the command of Santa Anna's men, the peon made off with the rifle and later disposed of it to Colonel Frank W. Johnson, famous leader of the Texan revolutionary forces. Johnson subsequently presented the rifle to William Carr Lane, first mayor of St. Louis and later governor of New Mexico.
Lane passed the rifle on to William L. Ewing who was also a St. Louis mayor. Ewing next gave the rifle to the superintendent of his estate, who bequeathed
it to his nephew, Colonel Sieg-mund, a collector of historical firearms, who restored it to its original condition.

There is a possibility, the Sports Afield article relates, that Colonel Sigmund's Alamo rifle
may be Davy Crockett's "Betsey," but admits there is no positive proof. The rifle has an overall length of 60 inches, a barrel of 45 inches, and a bore of .55 ball-ber.

For twenty years the rifle was on exhibition at the Jefferson Memorial in St. Louis, and in 1936 it was shown in Dallas during the Texas Centennial. Today the Jefferson Memorial wants the rifle back as does the St. Louis Soldiers' Memorial. Other requests have come from the Dallas Historical Society and from the Alamo.

Texas may have the last word,
says Colonel Sigmund.

In "Margie's" Day Wolves Were Sheiks; Charleston Was Rage

The era of prosperity and boom
of eighteen years ago, claims Producer Walter Morosco, didn't present to adolescents the same problems they face today. This realization, the producer explained, came about when research specialists at Twentieth Century-Fox attempted to learn something of the mores
and manners of teen-agers
from Darryl F. Zanuck's presentation of "Margie," the sparkling Technicolor comedy-drama which plays at the Rialto Theatre Sunday and Monday, June 22 and 23.

What the research experts did find out was enough to fill a good sized anthology of humor; instead, Morosco, who produced the enchanting picture, put most of the results in "Margie," the hilarious story which concerns the romances, gaiety and tribulations experienced by flaming youth in the hctic twenties.

Most moviegoers will remember those happy days when everybody played a "uke," when sheiks were wolves in raccoon clothing and when skirts were as short as the way most of the girls wore their hair.

What happiness is, the Bible alone shows clearly and certainly, and points out the way that leads to the attainment of it.—
Coleridge.

Weekly Sermon

(By John H. Raymond, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

Success in Life

Would you like a simple formula for a successful life? God's Word has the answer, for we read in Joshua 1:8: "Then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success."

There is much confusion in the world today, for men have not taken God into their plans. With strikes in industry, unsettled conditions in many foreign lands, and fires of hate still breaking out from the past war men are being forced to look elsewhere than to themselves.

Man thought he had all the wisdom necessary to success and peace, but it has led only to chaos and confusion. This is understandable to the Christian for God through Jeremiah warns: "Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his riches; but let him that glorieth glory in this,
that he understandeth and knoweth me" (Jer. 9:23, 24).

There is in God's Word a simple, threefold way to a successful and peaceful life.

First, feeling God's peace. We must have peace in our hearts before we can have success in our lives. There is no peace for the wicked (Isa. 57:20). But God offers us peace as a free gift:
"Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God
through our Lord Jesus Christ"
(Rom. 5:1).

Second, finding God's favor.
From the Godward aspect, success in life is seeking out God's will and endeavoring to live in the center of it. The Bible tells us that Jesus came to do His Father's will. We should live so that we too can receive that commendation God gave His Son, of whom He said He was well pleased. Proverbs 3:4 admonishes us to find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

Third, fulfilling God's purpose.
This is the very acme of success.
God has a definite purpose for every life. We should never measure our success by any standard lower than the extent to which we have accomplished that for which our Lord redeemed us (Phil. 3:12).

With this threefold foundation
we find joy in obeying God's Word, find comfort in observing God's presence, and thus enter into the only truly successful life
—in Him.

Miss Gilliam Becomes Bride of Sweetwater Man Sunday Morning

In a pretty marriage ceremony in the Methodist parsonage Sunday morning, June 15, at 9 o'clock, Miss Lealy Gilliam became the bride of William Ralph Spradling of Sweetwater, with Rev. D. D. Denison, pastor of the church, officiating with the double ring rites.

Large ferns and baskets of pink Radiance roses formed an improvised altar before which the vows were taken.

Mrs. Denison sang, "Because" to her own accompaniment on the accordion.

The bride, the daughter of Mrs. O. O. Gilliam and the late Mr. Gilliam, of Foard City, wore a pearl gray suit with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. She observed the tradition of wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue. For the something borrowed, she carried an embroidered handkerchief belonging to her grandmother.

Mrs. Dale Jones was matron of honor to the bride and wore a beige suit with white accessories and with a gardenia corsage. Best man was Ernest Spradling of Sweetwater, brother of the groom. Following the marriage, a reception was held at the home of the bride's grandmother in Quana-nah, after which the couple left for a honeymoon trip to points in Colorado. They will, upon their return, be at home at 803 Bowie St., Sweetwater.

Mrs. Spradling is a 1942 graduate of Crowell High School and a 1946 graduate of Texas State College for Women at Denton. She was a member of the Aglaian Club and Pi Lambda Theta. She has taught public school music in Sweetwater for the past year. Mr. Spradling received his High School education at Huntington, West Va., where he was reared. He served two years in the United States Navy. At the present time he is employed at the Sweetwater Hospital.

Out-of-town relatives and friends present for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dunson and daughter, Lucille, of Chillicothe, Misses Margaret and Jane Gilliam of Quana, Miss Joyce Prichett and Bobby Roy and Dale Prichett of Quana. These were in addition to the immediate family members and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bruce of Crowell.

A host of relatives and friends were present for the wedding.

Rev. Edward Shopka, pastor of the church, read the vows for the double ring ceremony. The couple knelt at the altar which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The traditional music was played by L. A. Cummins and vocal selections were rendered by members of the choir.

Miss Pauline Richter was maid of honor and Johnny Jokel, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Little James Bujnosok, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bujnosok of Chillicothe, was ring bearer and little Miss Annie Marie Kubicek, niece of the bridegroom, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halencak of Crowell, was flower girl and carried a pretty bouquet of carnations.

The bride was gowned in a dress of white satin made with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her long veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

A reception dinner was held immediately following the wedding at the home of the bride's parents. About one hundred guests registered. Upon their return from a wedding trip the bride and groom will be at home in Electric where Mr. Kubicek is now employed.

While we subscribe in principle to the giving of aid to the countries of Europe who are in need, we think that it is also advisable that this country not go too far in the matter of depleting its own financial resources. We are going to be the power in the world as long as we are militarily and financially strong. If we go too far in the matter of giving and lending we are apt to wake up and find ourselves, like those whom we are helping, financially impotent. If we should reach this stage we are going to find out that there is no one to whom we can turn for help.
