Santa Fe Indian Village CHICAGO RAILROAD FAI

You'll think you are really on an Indian reservation in the Southwest-when you visit the Santa Fe Village at the Chicago Railroad Fair this summer (opening July 20).

You'll see Navajos, Apaches, Hopis, Zunis, San Juans and Jemez-125 colorful Indians living in pueblos, hogans and wickiups.

You'll watch ceremonial dances seldom seen away from the reservations, and see Medicine Men make their famous sand paintings and destroy them every day at sundown.

Indian craftsmen weave rugs, make moccasins, baskets and jewelry. In fact, in the Village you actually see a faithful portrayal of costumes, ceremonies and living quarters of Southwestern tribes. Their way of life today is noticeably unchanged from that of their ancestors who inhabited the Southwest years before Columbus discovered America.

Bring your Camera! $1,280.00 in cash prizes Santa Fe Indian Village Photo Contest

85 cash prizes will be awarded for the best blackand-white and Kodachrome pictures. Ask for contest rules when you visit the Santa Fe Indian Village.

See the big display of railroad equipment

New streamlined cars, and Diesel and steam locomotives of the Santa Fe, are a part of the huge displays of railroad equipment at the Chicago Railroad Fair. Another outstanding form ing feature is the great outdoor pageant, Wheels A-Rolling, which dramatizes 100 years of transportation.

Let your local agent give you folders about the Railroad Fair and tell you how easy it is to visit Chicago via Santa Fe

HE LIVES!

P. R. Newell, Director, Moody Bible Institute Correspondence School, Chicago.

It is astounding how many Christians speak of our Lord Jesus Christ in prayer or testimony as having "died for our sins," with no reference whatsoever to his triumphant resurrection. One wonders if their concept of the risen Redeemer is thus dwarfed by imperfert knowledge of the implications of his victory over death.

It is blessedly true that we have bearing her name, we must know been "reconciled to God by the Naomi, her mother- death of his Son" (Rom. 5:10). in-law — woman of but it is also true—and much more important—that "being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life." For, blessed be his name, sacrifice in service he "ever liveth to make intercession for us.

Read the early chapters of Acts. Notice the theme of each message, boldly proclaimed in the for Sunday's lessons, power of the Holy Spirit: "Whom with Psalms 28:69 God hath raised up, having loosed as the devotional the pangs of death" (2:24), "This Jesus hath God raised up" (2:32) = 'Whom God raised from the dead" (4:10).
