AT FORT LEWIS, WASH.

Cpl. Joe R. Spencer of Crowell has recently joined Company A of the 5th Engineering Combat Battalion at Fort Lewis, Washington. Cpl. Spencer enjoys the distinction of being the only enlisted man in the 5th who was with the organization when it was a regiment at Fort Belvoir, Va., several years ago. Cpl. 100,000 Americans were killed in accidents of various kinds last year.

Two Holidays for Crowell Schools Next Week-End

According to Superintendent Grady Graves, the Crowell Public Schools will observe two holidays next week for Thanksgiving, Thursday and Friday. This will give the students and faculty time to make an out-of-town visit if they so desire.

The State Department of Education requires 175 days of school each year, which gives five holidays throughout the term. As has been the custom for the last several years, Crowell will have in addition to the two Thanksgiving holidays, one extra day Christmas, and two spring holidays at Easter time.

There will also be an extra week of holidays during the Christmas season that will have to be made up next spring. The Christmas holidays will begin on Friday, December 24th, with school taking up on Monday, January 3. This plan will give two week-ends with the Christmas holidays.

Numbers Ready for Houses in Northwest, Northeast Sections

Russell Beverly, chairman of the C. of C. civic committee, has this to announce regarding the house numbers. The northwest section and the northeast section of Crowell have been assigned numbers. In the next few days the west part of the city will be allotted numbers and also the colored section.

All persons are asked to call for the assigned number for residences as soon as possible. These numbers can be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce office which is located in the Shirley-Youre Drug Store.

To Keep List of Houses for Rent

In the future the Chamber of Commerce will keep a "housing list" for the benefit of those who desire a place to live or a place for business. Anyone who has a place for rent is asked to turn over this information to the Chamber of Commerce as soon as possible.

Large Crowd Attends Barbecue in Foard City Community

A large crowd of people of the Foard City community and several from Crowell and Thalia participated in a community barbecue held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grady McLain in the Foard City community last Friday night with Grady McLain, Virgil Joanson, Grady Halbert, Roy Steele and Roy Ferguson furnishing elk meat and venison for the delicious barbecue which was served to about 100 people.

The ladies present furnished plenty of pies and cakes and other delicacies.

Big Wood fires kept the crowd comfortable.

Veterans News

Student veterans who acquire dependents or additional dependents while in training under the GI Bill should notify the Veterans Administration as soon as possible in order to qualify for increased subsistence allowance payments.

Notice of dependency change should be sent to the VA regional office in which the veteran's records are kept. The notice should be accompanied by legal evidence of the dependency, such as certified copies of public records of birth, baptism or marriage.

VA increases subsistence payments as of the date it is notified and not retroactively to the date the veteran actually acquired the dependent.

Veterans who have received benefits from the Veterans Administration and have been assigned "C" (claims) numbers should place certain public records in their case folders if they think their beneficiaries might be entitled to compensation and pension benefits after they die.

To establish claims for payments, veterans' widows, children and dependent parents must submit documents to VA as proof of dependency, age and relationship.

If necessary records were filed in the veteran's claims folder, his dependents would be spared the delays involved in obtaining them from other sources.

These include a certified copy of the public record of marriage; certified copies of previous marriages and copies of court records of divorce and annulment; copies of birth certificates of all children under 18, and a copy of the veteran's birth certificate. The veterans claim number should be written on all papers to insure positive and ready identification.

Santa Claus to Visit Crowell on Night of Dec. 3

Santa Claus is really coming to Crowell, and this is not one of Ripley's "believe it or not" items. The Kriss Kringle committee visited Santa Claus last week at his home at the North Pole and invited him to again visit the children of Foard County and the surrounding counties.

And old Santa stated that after the grand receptions he has received in Crowell in the past years he will be more than delighted to again come to the children of this section during the Christmas opening program. He will be here at 7 p. m., December 3rd, on the court house lawn, according to Hilton Crane, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Furthermore, he announced that he would bring presents for all the children in Foard County and the neighboring counties. Every boy and girl will get a gift from Santa Claus. He is so delighted with the children in these counties that he pledged to be back again during the week before Christmas.

He wants to surprise the children, so he said for them to watch for him every day in that week. Santa will be visiting each of the stores in Crowell, Mr. Crane said.

Any letters written to Santa Claus should be addressed to the Kriss Kringle, Crowell, Texas, and they in turn will send these letters by plane to Santa Claus Home, North Pole. Arrangements have been made with the McLain & Naylor Flying Service to carry the mail to Santa and he will give his answer to the Kriss Kringle.

Santa Claus will let the kiddies know next week if he will use his reindeers or fly to Crowell. He wants to fly, if he can, so that all the children may see him land at the Crowell airport. So, watch the Foard County News next week.

Mr. Crane said there will be a contest for the best decorated window or yard display in the residential sections of the City. The merchants are also putting on a contest for the best decorated business window. However, those who last year are not eligible for the prizes this year.

The merchants are planning to unveil some very beautiful windows on the night of the third of December. These business men are really going to make this a Christmas season to be long remembered and cherished by young and old. Their Christmas suggestions are worth waiting to see.

Remember kiddies, this is your season, your Santa Claus. He wants to see you in Crowell on the night of December 3rd, at 7 p. m.

Olney Cubs Will Oppose the Crowell Wildcats Here Tomorrow Night in Their Last 9-A Conference Game of Season

The Olney Cubs, district champions last year, will invade Crowell Wildcat's lair tomorrow night in what will probably be the last game of the season for each club. However, the winner of this game will have a chance for a tie for the district title. For this to happen, Holliday will have to lose to Burk Burnett in its game this week.

The Olney Cubs have looked exceptionally good in their last two games, defeating Archer City by two points and the Burk Burnett team by five touchdowns. The Wildcats were unable to win over the Archer City team and eked out a one-touchdown victory over the Burk team. Crowell defeated Seymour by one touchdown while Olney lost to that team by three points. Both clubs made the same showing against the Holliday Eagles. These two teams are as well matched as any two teams in district 9-A have been this season. Each has won five games and lost two in district play. The Crowell game with Olney was called off last year at Olney due to bad weather. Crowell defeated the Cubs by two touchdowns here two years ago.

Several of the Crowell players will probably be playing their last game for the black and gold. J. P. Bartley, Don Wilkins, Floyd Borchardt, Walter Caddell, Fred Glover, Leon McNeese and Thomas White are the Crowell linemen who finish their eligibility this season. Dutton Biggerstaff, Grover Yocham, Jerry Culbertson and Billy Joe Halenack are the Crowell backs who are not eligible next year.

This game has been moved up thirty minutes, making the starting time 7:30 instead of the usual 8 o'clock. The probably starting lineups are as follows:

Showing Social Security Card on New Job Essential

"Going to work on a new job without showing your social security card to the employer is as big a gamble as putting money in a bank without giving your name," says Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls social security office. "Your wages can't be posted to your old-age and survivors insurance account, just like your money can't be credited to your bank account. And the chances are that your Federal insurance account is more valuable than your bank account."

"Every three months," Tate said, "your employer must report your wages to the Social Security Administration to be posted to your Old-Age and Survivors Insurance account. He must show the number of your account in the same line with your name and the amount of wages he had paid to you. The number on your social security card is the number of your insurance account. If you don't show your card to your employer, he can't have your account number on his report. And you can't get credit for your wages."

"You want to be certain that all of your wages are posted to your account," Tate said, "because the retirement or survivors benefits that you and your family will collect is a percentage of the wages that have been entered into your account. The way to assure that all of your wages will be posted is to show your social security card to each employer at the time that he puts your name on his payroll."

ology will be indexed in a publication to be issued soon, Dr. J. T. Lonsdale, Bureau director, reports.

In the collection are two million samples from 25,000 Texas wells.

Publication of the index should make the oil well sample library of greater benefit to oil industry geologists, Dr. Lonsdale said. The collection is now located in the new Off-Campus Research Center, five miles north of Austin.

What goes on here?

REFEREE makes first down—or did he really just miss it? Field judge blocks out the nearest tackler—or was it clipping? If the officials call 'em—and play, too—what kind of a game is that?

You wouldn't stand for that sort of thing on a football field—but it is happening every day in the electric light and power business. Government not only regulates the electric companies—but is in competition with them at the same time!

The catch is that government sets up two different sets of rules. The government's electric agencies pay little or no interest on the money they borrow, and pay no Federal taxes—but electric companies do, and expect to. When government-in-the-power-business can't make ends meet—it gets a handout of tax money from the U. S. Treasury. Who foots the bill? American taxpayers—of which you are one.

If government can get into the light and power business this way—it can get into every other business the same way. In sixty-odd years, the self-supporting electric companies have built for America the most and the best electric service in the world. While costs of everything else are way up (including the costs of making and delivering electricity) electric service is still the best bargain in the American family's budget... it does so much, and yet it costs so little.

This is a good record for the thousands of people who work in power companies, and for the millions of people who invest savings in them.

Don't you think these men and women deserve a fair break?

The answer is yours to make, for government money is your money.

How's our railroad doing, young man?

"Is it making any money?" "What are they paying for fuel these days?" "Are you hauling much freight?" "Do you like your job?"

The little old lady is not a busybody — she is merely looking after one of her investments. She has some money in the Santa Fe. Maybe it's ten, maybe it's twenty, maybe it's fifty shares of Santa Fe stock. She is entitled to attend a stockholders' meeting. She can get on her feet and ask our board of directors questions just like the above. She can compliment those gentlemen for their management, or she can bang her umbrella on the table and tell them off. Alone, her few shares of stock can't do a lot. Alone, she couldn't elect a president of the United States. But stockholders just like her — housewives, teachers, merchants, salesmen, laborers — can tell us how to run the Santa Fe, and they do.

Alone, she couldn't elect a president of the United States. But stockholders just like her — housewives, teachers, merchants, salesmen, laborers — can tell us how to run the Santa Fe, and they do. (Actually 29,178 Santa Fe stockholders are women, most of them holding only a small number of shares each.) And that's the beauty of America — the voice of the people is the voice that runs things, whether it's operating a transcontinental railroad or putting a man in the White House. Isn't it a wonderful country where so many can own so much? That's "Free Enterprise."

Santa Fe stockholders, just as those of any railroad, know that American railroads must be permitted to earn at least 6% (many other industries earn more) on their investment in order to maintain sound and progressive operations and to continue to provide shippers and passengers with the finest in rail transportation.

Then Jesus said unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?—Luke 6:9.

Business analysts believe that the United States can continue at the present high level of prosperity for some time to come. They base their conclusions on high wages, increased population, a huge reservoir of unspent war time savings, new industries, unfilled demands for houses, autos, farm machinery, schools and highways. There never was a time when the people of the country needed so many things and had so much money to pay for them. As long as the need exists and the money holds out analysts believe business will be good.

Incidentally the production of these things that everyone needs will tend to keep business good and even make it better.

The trend toward industrial decentralization that had set in before the war continues. The movement will pick up more as production catches up with demand and allows time for the change. According to Business Week Magazine, last year of the 83 new branch plants opened up by six companies, only 29 were placed in large cities of more than 100,000 population. According to the National Industrial Conference Board, 148 companies which had 47 per cent of their pre-war plants in cities with more than 100,000 people now are locating two-thirds of their new plants in smaller cities and towns.

One may not be able to understand the fine points involved in the discussions and the diplomatic relations between the Western powers and Russia, but there is no misunderstanding the announcement that England has decided to return to full military strength in line with what the United States is doing. Being "prepared for any eventuality" is a very meaningful expression that most anyone can understand.

Small towns desiring to have industries locate in their midst will take heart in the announcement that today 39 per cent of all manufacturing plants and 45 per cent of all factory wage earners are in towns of less than 25,000 population. These percentages will grow larger as decentralization of industry increases.

Santa Claus will find his task of toy selection made more simple this year, according to reports issued recently by the Toy Manufacturers of the U. S. A. which states that over $300 million in toys will be produced this year, some $60 million more than last year.

Everyone admires the man who works hard and envies the man who seems to have little to do and at the same time gets along as well as his hard working neighbor.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

There is at work in this country a group of individuals, who, in my opinion, have been aptly termed underbrained internationalists, who are making a drive on Congress for the purpose of forcing its members to "open up" on immigration with the objective of practically no restrictions at all. If this group could have its way there would be no restrictions upon immigration whatsoever, neither as to the number who might be admitted nor as to the nations from which they might be drawn.

As an example of the extent to which these radicals would go I quote from one of their books, "Immigration and Population Policy," by Dr. R. Mukerjee, a Hindu student of population. The doctor states that the United States has an additional immigration "capacity" of 178 to 228 millions. "Vast arid areas in North America," the doctor says, "which are now settled by cattlemen can be brought under the plow and harvested, if Chinese and immigration from India is encouraged."

It is incomprehensible that any friend of this country should be connected with any movement to induce it to permit up to 228 million of the poorest unassimilable foreign element to come to this country to the extent that they would outnumber Americans two or three times to one.

Comments from William Vogt, chief of the Conservation Section Pan American Union, in his book, "Road to Survival," on the Dr. Mukerjee proposal: "In other words Australia, Brazil, the United States and Canada should open their doors to Moslems, Sikhs, Hindus, etc., to reduce the pressure in their own countries caused by untrammeled population. Our living standards must be dragged down to raise that of the backward billions of Asia."

If the proposition on its very face isn't sufficiently outrageous to fire the fighting blood of every loyal American here are some facts that will command the attention of every thinking man and woman in America:

Dr. Hugh H. Bennett, chief of U. S. Soil Conservation Service in his pamphlet, "Our American Land," says: "Too many American farmers are now working poor land that should be turned back to grass or woodland."

Prof. P. K. Whelpton, member of the Central Statistical Board says: "The United States is overpopulated now from the standpoint of per capita economic welfare."

According to Guy Irving Bullitt, editor of "Population Bulletin": "The United States is not supporting its present population on a permanent sustaining basis. It is digging deeper each year into its capital natural resources that should be preserved for our children and grandchildren. During its short history the United States has lost one-third of its top soil and four-fifths of its standing raw timber and many of its mineral resources are nearing depletion. Many well meaning Americans do not realize that practically the only thing that prevents our living level from sinking to that of the most destitute country in the Old World is our immigration restriction legislation and the power to enforce it."

Rheumatic Heart Disease Crippler, Killer of Children

Austin, Texas — Rheumatic heart disease, acrippler and killer of children, is one of the leading causes of death and disability among children and young adults in the age group 10 to 25 years.

No vaccine such as those that prevent typhoid, diphtheria, smallpox and whooping cough has as yet been developed for its prevention and control, but we do know some of the danger signals and with a physician's early diagnosis, some of the damaging results of this disease may be prevented.

Quoting Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, "in general, the early symptoms of rheumatic fever are pain and swelling in the joints of the knees, ankles, elbows or wrists. The pain is felt usually in one of these joints and spreads to the others. Often a child get irritable and cross without any apparent cause; he may cry easily and develop habits indicating nervousness. These symptoms may mean the beginning of an attack of rheumatic fever, and a physician should be consulted immediately."

Predisposing causes to this disease, which include frequent chilling, damp or over-crowded living quarters, poor diet, colds, an attack of scarlet fever or other infections caused by certain streptococcus germs, should be carefully avoided.

Protection against these predisposing causes may mean protection against rheumatic heart disease, and these safeguards should be observed: Have children examined

Examinations for Positions in Public Health Announced

Examinations will consist of an evaluation of training and experience and a written examination. Veterans preference will be allowed.

I am in favor of keeping this country and its standards of living for its people. It is our heritage. We should hold onto it and make it better if we can.

The chief danger in this country, it seems to me, is not located in the Kremlin in Moscow, Russia, but in the activities of the crackpots here at home.

"A Foreign Affair" to Be at Rialto

"A Foreign Affair," which will be shown at the Rialto on Wednesday, Nov. 24, is a laugh-and-love picture of riotous proportions. Produced by Charles Brackett, the Paramount comedy about life among the American occupation forces in post-war Berlin is highly original and entertaining.

Starring Jean Arthur, Marlene Dietrich and John Lund, it tells of an over-zealous Congressman, who arrives in Berlin with a committee to investigate the status of G. I. morale. Her suspicions aroused by the open fraternizing with frauleins, Jean pretends she is a German girl and learns that the glamorous ex-Nazi night club star, Miss Dietrich, is now under the protection of an American officer.

Backgrounds for the film were actually shot in Berlin and the sight of the bombed-out city is very interesting.

Reunion for U. of T. Students Set for Thanksgiving

Austin, Texas, Nov. 15 — Although Thanksgiving is not the traditional time for University of Texas ex-students to "break bread," a reunion of ex-students will be held during the Texas State Teachers Association Convention in Dallas.

The University of Texas will entertain ex-students and friends with an open house Friday, Nov. 26, from 4 to 6 p. m. in the Palm Garden of Hotel Adolphus. Dr. H. T. Manuel, chairman, said.

All ex-students attending the TSTA convention are invited to attend, Dr. Manuel emphasized.

New Officers for WTCC Named in the Following News Item

Abilene, Texas—A West Texas banker and a group of well-known business men will direct the activities of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for another year in what has been declared the most outstanding work program in the history of the organization.

John D. Mitchell, president of the First National Bank of Odessa, is the new president of WTCC. He formerly was a Lubbock banker and has been active in West Texas financial affairs for a number of years.

J. M. Willson, Floydada, owner of a dozen lumber yards on the plains, and a trustee of SMU and McMurry College and active in Boy Scout work, is first vice president. E. P. Bludworth, outdoors advertising man of Brownwood is second vice president and Frank Kelley, Colorado City oil land man, is third vice president. Ed S. Starn, Abilene candy manufacturer, was elected treasurer.

D. A. Bandeen was reelected to the general managership where he has been for 20 years, with a rising ovation to his long leadership in West Texas activities.

Principal activity of the organization for the ensuing year will be in its fight for protection of domestic water rights and attempt to increase water development in the area, according to the convention program.

At the annual meeting in Abilene, Monday, the WTCC directors authorized the creation of two strong groups. One is a Municipal Water Rights Committee, which will be made up of city officials in West Texas towns needing additional domestic water and to work for protection of existing water rights.

The other activity will be the formation of the Soil Conservation Enactment Committee which will be "composed of representative agriculturists, county judges and mayors of West Texas which committee shall be charged with the responsibility of assisting in the passage of the enabling act of the 51st Legislature, and in assisting the respective counties of West Texas in securing the maximum local benefits from the act."

This will be in support of the

THANKSGIVING

This year we Americans will celebrate Thanksgiving for the three hundred and twenty-seventh year.

We students each have many individual blessings which counteract our misfortunes. Collectively we can thank God for allowing us to live in a land where we have the right to make the phrase "all men are created equal" a reality, not merely a dream. We can give thanks for having the wonderful families we have, and although our homes may not be mansions, we are not living in one room huts or the cellar of a bombed house as many people are having to do today.

Thanksgiving is both a festive and a solemn occasion. The parties and family reunions are all part of the fun, but as we sit down to the table and grace is spoken, we modern young sophisticates do get a feeling of peace and awe that we are so fortunate.

many improvements over today's world. Foreign lands will not be distant lands from the viewpoint of time, nor should they be strange lands. We can become acquainted with these lands through books. Books are the keys which open the doors to knowledge.

Become familiar with books of different kinds so that your field of knowledge will broaden. Remember what you read and keep your reading up-to-date, so that you too may be ready for the World of Tomorrow.

LIBRARIANS LISTED HERE

The student body wishes to thank the librarians for their help. A special vote of thanks is extended to Mrs. F. A. Davis for her help as sponsor of the library. Rondyn Self is head librarian. Other librarians are Betty Barker, Dorothy Gamble, Anna Rae Owens, Joline Lanier, Elba Caddell, Betty Jo Smith, Violet Rummel, Betty Harper, Norma Matthews, Bertharene Hardage, Frankie Mabe, Faye Jones, Jean Gamble, Rozella Autry and Maurine Youree.

They have been very helpful by recommending books, searching patiently for a requested novel, cataloging and repairing books and finding information in the encyclopedia. Thanks again, girls, and we'll try to help you out by being a little more patient from now on.

PLASTIC MAGAZINE COVERS

It is the desire of every student to make his school better every year. This is done by adding equipment and activities to the school curriculum.

Recently plastic magazine covers were added to the library equipment. These covers come in different sizes and are made to protect the magazines. Magazines handled by several students a day do not last very long; so it was decided that these covers would be an excellent purchase. At a cost of five dollars per cover these were placed on the reading table. We have had these covers only a short time, but some students have badly mistreated them in this time. You can tell where one cover was torn by someone punching his thumb through the cover next to the binding.

Such actions as this do not make it encouraging for the ones who buy extra equipment for the school. When we are in high school we are supposed to be old enough to take on a few responsibilities. One of these is taking proper care of the things we use. Using this is an example of what not to do, let's try to care for our school equipment as it should be cared for. What would you think if someone tore a hole in your new football or volley ball jacket?

CHS ENJOYS BARBECUE

On November 13, the air at the football stadium was filled with the aroma of barbecue, and coffee. The members of the pep squad, football boys, and the parents were present. Everyone was waiting when all at once Coach called out, "Come and get it." To go with delicious meat, onions, pickles, potato salad were served. We thank the parents, who brought delicious cakes and pies. When Coach said, "Parents first," F. L. appeared and heaped his plate full. There were two huge pots of coffee which Coach Waitaker made that would float horses; however he had to make some more.

The lights went on about 6:30 and after the barbecue was over, the mothers discussed plans for a banquet in the future for the football boys. We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to Coach and the parents and "Doc" Borchardt who helped prepare the barbecue.

HOMEMAKING GIRLS ACT AS HOSTESSES

Delicious fragrance is always in the air around the Homemaking Department, but last Thursday there was more than usual. Six baked chickens, potatoes, dressing and gravy were the principal sources of all the good smells. Other things to eat were fruit salad, English peas, vegetable salad, and cranberry sauce. Sounds like Thanksgiving, doesn't it? And that's just what it was, a pre-Thanksgiving dinner.

Guests to this affair were mostly girls, but three hungry males were also present. They were Mr. Graves, Mr. Black and Billy Joe Halenack. Mr. Graves and Mr. Black managed to find excuses to visit the kitchen before lunch, but Billy Joe just had to wait.

The food was served buffet style in the dining room. The guests ate at card tables set up in the main room. Gay luncheon cloths and sparkling glasses filled with iced tea added an inviting note. The dessert of ice cream and cake was served by waitresses Mildred (Mickey) Tamplen and Myra Self.

FHA MEETING

Tuesday night, November 9, the local chapter of the Future Homemakers of America met in the Homemaking Department.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Clara Jones. Myra Don Self, secretary, read a letter which contained information about the adoption of a Homemaking Class in China.

After the business meeting the leader for the evening, Mildred Tamplen, took charge. The program for this year is to include the studies of each state. At this meeting Wyoming was the chosen state. Miss Frankie Kirkpatrick showed the class Kodachrome slides of Wyoming which she took while on her vacation this summer. The pictures were very interesting and the members greatly enjoyed the program.

Members were served refreshments of Cokes and sandwiches by hostesses Clara Jones, Martha Orr, Mary Chowning, Opal Browder and Rondyn Self.

SPEECH CLASS THANKS PATRONS

The 7th period Speech Class and the instructor, Mrs. Moody Bursey, wish to thank those who attended the performances of "Bend Down Sister." A special thanks to the teachers who helped by excusing students from other classes and helped with advertising.

The show was a financial success, and it is hoped that you will soon see more improvement on the stage in the auditorium.

EX-SENIOR HONORED AT DECATUR

News has been received at CHS that ex-Senior Mary Helen Payne of Decatur Baptist College, is to be crowned football queen at the game to be played between Decatur and Ranger.

PICKINS'

It seems that I have an average of two right and two wrong for the weeks I've guessed. Well, I kept it up this week. Olney beat Burk Burnett 33-0, and Seymour beat Valley View 20-13, (this was the first time Valley View has scored in district play this year) for the two I said would win. But Iowa Park beat Chillicothe 14-0 to foul me up, and Holiday went further by beating Archer City 13-0.

That's the way things shaped up this week-end. This may well be the last time yours truly will make any guesses, for this is Crowell's last week of football until next season. For some of the boys it's their last week of football—period. So, taking this into consideration, I'll take Crowell to defeat Olney 13-7. It would surely be nice if Burk Burnett would beat Holiday, but I can hardly see how. I'll take Holiday 27-0 winner and the district champion at the same time. Iowa Park may beat Archer City but I don't believe so; give me Archer City over them 14-7. Chillicothe should beat Valley View about 32 to 0.

That's all, folks. I'll see you next week for my final exit.

WHAT WOULD THE WORLD COME TO IF:

Mr. Black taught Home Ec?
 Clifford didn't ask Dorothy and Faye what time it was?
 Joline was a football player?
 Rondyn was a ballet dancer?
 Bobby Lax had a date with Ruth Mac Rae?
 Norma G. and Ramona H. weren't seen skating on Monday night in the Thalia gym?
 Clara Jones got a crew cut?
 Marion Bailey had a girl?
 Jenny Wehba had blond hair and blue eyes?
 Mr. Graves had long curls?
 Kenneth Adams knew his Spanish? (ditto for Rouse)
 Jimmy Raspberry didn't gaze at Helen Reithmayer in the first period study hall?
 Rose Marie went steady with Charlie Matus?
 Ray Gable wasn't true to Mary Ray?
 All the seniors were wearing their class rings?

 Letha Marlow went with Blackie White (pd. adv.).
 Virginia Railsback never talked about Danny Rich?
 Everyone wasn't looking forward to the Senior trip?

WILDCAT PURRS

Time marches on and new things happen. And what I mean "new" is Seen Saturday night were J. P. Bartley and Mary Alice and Billy Joe and "Sweet Pea."

Wonder who that cute freshman is that Lana Short is after? Mary Johnson and J. C. Thompson were seen making the rounds Sunday afternoon.

Peggy Pittillo and Kendrick Joy were making the rounds Sunday night. What's happened to Harold? Wonder what happened to Rouse and Edna and F. L. and Maurine Saturday night?

 We wish J. P. Bartley would make up his mind; so some of the girls of CHS would know how they stand!!
 Seen Friday night were Lenora and Marion Gobin. This is another steady.

Neva Lou Potts is still carrying the torch for J. C. Everson. A new couple of the week is Billy Johnson and Mary Bergt. Seen Sunday afternoon were Dorothy and J. C.

 Charles Wishon and Bobbie Acres were seen Thursday night. Double dating with them were

WHY NEW TELEPHONE RATES ARE NECESSARY AT CROWELL, TEXAS

NO BUSINESS CAN long survive and charge less for its products and service than it costs to furnish them.

GREATLY INCREASED COSTS of furnishing telephone service make it necessary for the telephone company to place new rates into effect at Crowell.

PRESENT RATES for telephone service were established prior to 1935. Since January 1, 1935, the telephone system at Crowell has grown from 302 telephones to more than 576. We are proud that in these thirteen years we have been able to expand and improve our service without increasing rates. But the pyramiding effect of increased costs of operation—higher wages, taxes, materials and equipment make new rates necessary despite the use of every possible economy consistent with sound business management.

EXPENSES ARE GREATER THAN INCOME

During and since the war, the demand for telephone service has been tremendous. While revenues have increased, the costs of furnishing service have increased much faster.

During 1947, we furnished service in Crowell at a loss of $336.79. Present trends show that the loss will be approximately $2080.00 in 1948.

The cost of almost everything that goes to make good telephone service—and almost everything is needed—has increased sharply since 1940.

For illustration:

Payroll (wages) our biggest expense, is away up. Seven general wage increases have been granted employees since 1940. The cost of telephone poles is up 110 per cent, lead-covered cables as much as 119 per cent.

NEW RATES ARE REASONABLE

The new rates are reasonable and are necessary to help pay the cost of furnishing telephone service. We do not seek big profits, only reasonable rates that will provide enough earnings to place the system on a sound financial basis, and which will enable us to expand and improve service.

ADEQUATE EARNINGS ARE ESSENTIAL

To carry out its expansion and improvement program, the company must spend many thousands of dollars for new plant and equipment. This money must come from the savings of people who want to invest in something that will bring them a reasonable regular return. A sound financial business with reasonable earnings is essential to attract new money necessary to expand and improve telephone service.

NEW RATES

The new schedule of rates for Crowell is given below. Federal taxes which apply are not included.

CLASS OF SERVICE	RATE PER MONTH
	WALL	DESK	HANDSET
BUSINESS:
Individual Line Service	$5.25	$5.50	$5.75
Two-Party Service	4.00	4.25	4.50
Extension Service	1.00	1.25	1.50
RESIDENCE:
Individual Line Service	3.00	3.25	3.50
Two-Party Service	2.50	2.75	3.00
Four-Party Service	2.00	2.25	2.50
Extension Service	.75	.75	.75
RURAL:
Business (Metallic)	3.50	3.50	3.50
Business (Grounded)	3.00	3.25	3.50
Residence (Metallic)	2.50	2.50	2.50
Residence (Grounded)	2.00	2.25	2.50

For residence telephone users the new rates represent an increase of one and two-thirds cents per day. The increase is from two and one-half to three and one-third cents per day for business telephones.

Compared with increases in prices for other things—food, clothing, automobiles and almost every other item in the family budget—the increase in telephone rates is moderate.

WORLD OF TOMORROW

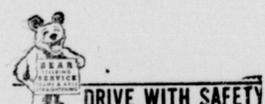

"A book report next Friday and I haven't read a line!" With this thought in mind many a CHS student has gone to the library window and asked for a "good short fiction book." With no more information than this, the librarian soon brings you three or four books to look over. You choose one, sign your name to the card, and start reading the book.

Perhaps you are one of those people who do this every time there is a book report to make. You read no books between one report and the next, thereby making your choice of books limited and yourself less interesting than you might be. Books in our library are divided into fiction, drama, non-fiction, and poetry. In every division one can find books which will add to his enjoyment of living.

Two Minute Sermon

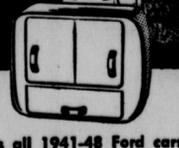

(By Thomas Hastwell)

Quit Taking Bread Pills: There are among my acquaintances two people whom I think of as enjoying poor health. They are forever telling of their aches and pains. They have, through the years, dwelt on their ailments and magnified them to the degree that they have convinced themselves that their ills are truly real and that they are very sick persons. It is my opinion that their trouble is ninety per cent self induced and developed. By dwelling upon their ailments and magnifying them in their minds and consciousness they have brought themselves finally to the stage of chronic illness. Their troubles, which previously really did not exist, have become real. I do not contend that all persons were made so by this process, but am convinced that many have been. I am convinced that had these persons assumed a feeling of positive well being by refusing to accept ill health, and living in a positive way—the way of health, they would not be where they are today. They would not be taking bread pills for imaginary relief from imaginary ills. I feel that God wants us to overcome these things, to live positive, joyous, happy lives by rising in our minds above physical handicaps and living in the sunshine of a different world.

JOKES

A thought provoking comment was recently made by a student attempting to cheer another up over a tough course.
 "Since I have no chance of passing the course, I might as well drop it," wailed the pessimist.

"Sure," came the reply, "and since you're going to die someday, why not commit suicide?"

 Bobby C.—A chew train.

 Joline: "Who was fighting?"
 J. P.: "Me and another fellow."

Weekly Sermon

CHANGED

by Cady McKenzie, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

How different life is when we are conscious of walls that are so thin that our neighbors can hear our conversations! A kind of automatic censorship keeps us from saying some things that we would say if the walls were thicker. After a while a change takes place without our knowing it. Because someone hears, we change our way of life.

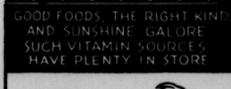

You say you needn't worry, your walls are thick? But even you don't live entirely alone, even in the inmost privacy of your thoughts. You do have a silent auditor who is listening in on your life: God. As the Psalmist declared, "O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. . . and art acquainted with all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether." (Ps. 139:1-4).

When we fully realize this great fact, how different we want our lives to be. We are only too aware that He finds sin and corruption in our hearts. But as "we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:9).

If we are God's children, having accepted His great salvation, our hearts' desire is that we may live acceptable to Him. He has provided even for this longing; for "we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord the Spirit" (II Cor. 3:18, R. V.). Thus as we live in the conscious presence of Christ and as we meditate on His Word, we are changed. No longer do we tremble to think of His complete knowledge of us, but we glory in His eternal love and care.

Columbian Club Observes Its 39th Anniversary

Beauty and interest keynoted the meeting of the Columbian Club on November 10 when Mesdames M. O'Connell and R. L. Kincaid were hostesses at the home of Mrs. O'Connell. The occasion was the 39th anniversary of the organization of the club and was to especially honor the three charter members who are still in the club, Mesdames T. L. Hughston, S. T. Crews and W. L. Thurston. At a short business meeting, it was reported that the club had planted fifty tulip bulbs in the City Park, the bulbs being a gift from Mrs. Van Browning. Mrs. M. N. Kenner reported the sending of a box of "little things" to the club's neighbor club in the Philippines. Mrs. C. R. Ferguson was leader of the program on Education. Mrs. N. J. Roberts discussed "The Lady We Can't Afford to Forget" who proved to be the Statue of Liberty, situated on Bedloe Island in New York harbor. The statue was a gift from France on the 100th anniversary of the freedom and independence of America. Mrs. Jeff Hardin discussed the spirit of America as shown forth on the holidays, as July 4th and Labor Day. She presented beautiful pictures from the Holiday magazine showing American life—picnic gatherings, industrial scenes, "home on the range" and farms of the middle west.

a lovely arrangement of white carnations, the club flower, and huckleberry. At one end, the tea service was placed and at the other a beautiful birthday cake bearing 39 candles and the dates, 1909-1948. The three charter members were presented with white carnation corsages and invited to light the candles of faith, hope and love. Two of the youngest members, Mesdames Kenneth Halbert and Jack Welch, blew out the candles with good wishes for all. Mrs. Hughston poured the tea and Mrs. Crews cut the beautiful gold and white cake while Mrs. Thurston served the plates. The Columbian Club met for its first meeting on Nov. 10, 1909, in the home of Mrs. Thurston and there have been regular meetings with few lapses since that time.

Mrs. M. M. Welch, president, opened the business session which was followed by an interesting program on "Trees and Wild Birds" with Mrs. Hines Clark as leader. Roll call was answered with the name of a Foard County wild flower. Mrs. Clark gave an enlightening talk of the Forest Trees of Texas. The leader then introduced Mrs. George Catline whose subject was "Interesting Trees of Other States." She was followed by Mrs. Glen Goodwin who talked on "Wild Birds and Their Need for Our Protection." The refreshment hour, with Mesdames J. H. Shults, Ray Duckworth and Jeff Hardin as hostesses, was enjoyed by the thirty-three members present. Mrs. Henry Earl Thomson was voted into membership in the club.

many interesting facts about Korea, a country hungry for freedom, political as well as religious, but a country whose pleas have long been falling upon the world's deafened ears. "The World Federation of Methodist Women" was the subject discussed by Mrs. Virgil Johnson, who told also the interesting story of Helen Kiduk Kim, president of Ewha College in Korea. Mrs. Johnson talked of Japan's religious problem, stating that Japan is eager and even hungry for the word of Christ. Mrs. W. L. Johnson dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. Percy Ferguson of Slaton gave an excellent talk on "Where Are Your Children Most of the Day?" She discussed the shortage of teachers in the United States and the inefficiency of many teachers. She presented the problem of war babies and stated that eight million war babies entered the schools of America, not only causing a crowded condition in the schools but as bringing outstanding problems on account of their peculiar surroundings and teachings. She prefaced her remarks with the statement that our children spend one-third of their time for twelve years in school and that the teachers during the formative years have a wonderful opportunity for developing the character and shaping the future of the child. Every care should be exercised in choosing teachers and preparing them for the position they hold. At the social hour, the hostesses invited the guests to a beautifully appointed tea table in the dining room. The table was centered with

Miss Magee Honored by Mrs. Jack Sauls in Pre-Nuptial Party

Mrs. Jack Sauls entertained at a bridge party at her home Saturday afternoon as a compliment to Miss Ada Jane Magee, whose marriage to Jim Franks of Lubbock will take place Sunday, Nov. 21. The entertaining rooms were attractively decorated with arrangements of pyracantha berries. The score pads were wedding invitations with the score inside. The place cards were miniature ring boxes made of a marshmallow shaped into a box with a mint ring placed within. The name was found on the little price tag attached to the box. High score prize, a box of four silver salad forks, was given to Mrs. Gordon Bell, who in turn presented it to the honoree. The guest prize given to Miss Magee by the hostess was two bowls matching a Franciscan Pottery set started for her. A delightful dessert course was served to Miss Magee, Miss Polly Allis, Miss Edna Dorado, Kansas. Mrs. J. M. Hill Jr., Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Weldon Johnson, Mrs. Nelson Oliphant, Mrs. Ray Shirley, Mrs. James Weiss, Mrs. J. B. Rasberry Jr., Mrs. Marvin Myers, Mrs. Henry Borchardt and Mrs. Gordon Bell.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

The Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the church Monday afternoon, Nov. 15, for a leaflet program. Mrs. Virgil Johnson presided over the business session which was opened by the group singing of "R-inbow With the Rain." Mrs. Luther Marlow led in prayer. The devotional, based on Matthew 6, was ably discussed by Mrs. Allison Denton who concluded by having all present repeat the Lord's Prayer. Concluding the study, Mrs. Marlow summed up the book, "On Our Own Doorstep" by giving the gist of Christian endeavor in the countries under discussion. "The climatic conditions in Hawaii are ideal the year round," said Mrs. Hughston McLain in her discussion of the Islands from the historical, social and religious points of view. She made her talk more vivid by showing a collection of snapshots taken by her husband while in the service and stationed at Hawaii. Mrs. Kenneth Halbert told
