Chevrolet's 1949 Passenger Cars Go on Display Sat.

Chevrolet's 1949 passenger cars, completely restyled and possessing more mechanical improvements than any model within recent years go on display at Borchardt Chevrolet Co. showrooms here Saturday, January 22.

The automobile is the product of three years of engineering research and design development. Begun immediately after V-J Day, experimental work has included 1,068,000 miles of test driving over the roads of the General Motors Proving Ground and arid highways of the southwest.

The local showing will be held simultaneously with displays in other cities and is expected to draw one of the biggest crowds in the history of events of its kind.

"From inquiries at our offices and dealer showrooms, we know that literally millions are waiting to see the car," said T. H. Keating, general sales manager. "Chevrolet's solid reputation for value and reports of impressive new features have kindled a nationwide interest.

"We do not believe the public will be disappointed. While the car carries numerous comfort and convenience advances, it maintains our tradition of rugged, reliable transportation at the lowest possible cost."

Improvements in New Chevrolet Told in Detail

A product of three years' development work and more than a million miles of engineering research, the 1949 Chevrolet goes on display in dealer showrooms here Saturday.

The latest model has been completely restyled. It is lower, wider, and more distinctive than any previous series. Not only does the design introduce superior beauty to the lowest-priced ranks, but numerous body and chassis improvements promise to add to Chevrolet's reputation for comfort, safety and convenience.

Two series of cars, the Fleetline and Styleline, are included in the De Luxe treatment an option in most body types. De Luxe cars lay increased emphasis on the styling of fabrics, trim and appointments. The lineup shows:

Fleetline—Two and four door sedans. This design is distinguished by the extension of the roof line in an unbroken sweep to the rear. Known to the trade as a "fast back," the form achieved great popularity on the 1948 two-door Aerosedan.

Styleline—Two and four door sedans, sport coupe, three-passenger business coupe, convertible, wood and all-steel station wagons. Styleline sedans carry the "notch back." Here the curvature of the roof meets the rear deck at the body belt line.

In both styling and performance, the 1949 series continues the "big car" aspects that have always been traditional with Chevrolet. The design is fresh and substantial-looking without approaching the extreme. Greater comfort is reported demonstrable by "ruler and by ride." The rugged six-cylinder, valve-in-head engine remains fundamentally the same, but refinements will increase appreciably the car's handling ease and owner satisfaction.

"In the engineering of our most important model in several years, we considered first the qualities that have consistently given Chevrolet the leadership in the industry," said a company statement. "We did not make changes simply for the sake of change. Every innovation throughout the chassis and body was exhaustively tested and proved. We exercised great care to assure ourselves that each departure met Chevrolet standards.

The first impression of the new cars is one of smart styling, structural strength and generous dimensions. The entire passenger compartment has been moved forward, lengthened, broadened and lowered, affording a pleasing balance in proportions. Rearwardly the front fenders have been absorbed into the body, their vertical planes built flush with the doors. Crowns of the fenders have also been raised to fit more snugly into the hood and low, clean ensemble of the grille. To add grace and protect body surfaces, a partial rear fender has been retained.

From the passenger's standpoint perhaps the chief improvement in bodies is the immense increase in glass area. All windows have been deepened and widened. The windshield takes full advantage of broader bodies, curving inward at the narrowed pillars to improve sideway as well as forward vision. On comparable models the gain in visibility over 1948 has been as much as 30 per cent.

Besides its influence on over-all balance in design, repositioning of the passenger compartment claims still other benefits. Rear seat passengers are now cradled in the comfort zone between the front and rear axles. (Formerly passengers rode over the rear axle). Lowering of the compartment has reduced the center of gravity of the car, resulting in greater stability on curves and at higher speeds. Further, the lowered floor and wider doors permit easier entrance and exit by passenger.

Another important factor in better roadability is the adoption at the front and rear of direct double-acting shock absorbers, a type that proved itself in wartime service. Front suspension, which continues to feature the coil spring "Knee Action" Chevrolet pioneered 15 years ago, has been made sturdier.

A new steering geometry will be found significant by drivers. The master arm is now located in the center of the chassis front end, equalizing the effort of right and left turns. This type of steering, available previously only in higher-priced cars, reduces "wheel fight," any tendency of the car to "wander" and adds to tire life. The gearshift is new. Recent developments in shift linkage caused engineers to substitute the manual shift for the former vacuum-assisted mechanism. The lever remains on the steering column, but has been lengthened to equalize the effort of shifts.

Although the six-cylinder valve-in-head engine is basically unchanged, several refinements have enhanced smoothness and service accessibility. The carburetor is improved and contains a "fast-idle" device. The exhaust system has been "unitized" for improved sealing. A better hydraulic system and weight redistribution improves braking. Wheels are smaller and carry low-pressure tires.

The atmosphere of luxury in the 1949 Chevrolet interiors has been heightened by simplified seat construction, new fabrics and tasteful moldings, panelling and trim. Hardware is shaped close to the doors to prevent snagging of gar-

BOY! . . . Old Mother Nature certainly gave men a terrific beating. The ice storm broke stout wires as though they were strings and snapped sturdy poles as easily as match sticks. We had built strongly, but the excessive weight of ice was too much for even the best constructed lines.
Emergency crews of linemen hopped onto the job, and electric service was restored as rapidly as humanly possible.
Those linemen are great fellows. They don't like these storms any more than you do—but when needed, they pitch in and work day and night to get your service going again.
They, and all the rest of us at your service company, are sorry for interruptions of your electric service. We appreciate your patience and friendly understanding of our difficulties during the storm. Thanks and Thanks again.

NEW STUDENT

For the information of the frosh who have been casting sheep eyes toward that new blonde in the freshman class, her name is Margaret Daniel. She rides the bus every morning from Good Creek, where her dad is kept busy being a farmer.

This fair lassie was born in Ringling, Okla., on Oct. 31, 1933. She has blonde hair, brown eyes, and reaches the height of five feet, four inches. She comes to CHS from Ralls, Texas, where her favorite occupations were going with a certain Melvin Stewart and playing basketball. Her favorite type of music is western and her favorite song is "Green Light." Margaret's favorite food is just what you would guess, good ole country fried chicken. That just about sums up the story; we will conclude with a welcome to this latest addition to the student body of CHS.

HAS ANYBODY ELSE?

Hoped we could have more dances like the Christmas dance? Broken their new year resolutions? Decided to quit eating candy only to go in some place and see every good kind? Madding, isn't it? Thought the picture of the basketball team was on the "dreamy" side? Thought Jean Gamble and Jack Murphy would make a cute couple? Definitely decided that Tommie Meason and Butch Biggerstaff are adorable together? Wanted to shoot the inventor of report cards? Cotten mixed up in their classes since they changed their schedule? Wondered whether he would have enough credits to graduate or not? Thought Patsy Carroll is a swell kid? Regretted not studying for mid-term exams? Decided the sun will never shine again? Wished we had a high school annual? Thought we should have another assembly soon? Noticed the football jacket Faye Jones is wearing. Who have we seen that on before? Noticed how Myra Don melts when Rouse Todd is around? Wondered why Barbara White wants to be in the 4th period English I. Noticed the ring Ramona Hammonds is wearing?

CROWELL DEFEATS BURK

On Friday night, Jan. 14, the Burnburnett Bulldogs came to Crowell for a battle with a Wildcat. This game was a play-off of a cancelled game which was originally scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 11.

The two teams started about even with both teams sinking field goals early in the game. This was the only time the game was tied and after the first two points Crowell found the range and led the visitors at half time 20 to 11.

The second half was just about a duplicate of the first except that the scoring for both teams was lower; Crowell made 10 points in the last half compared to 11 for Burk as Crowell won 30-22.

Butch Biggerstaff was high point man for the Wildcats with 9 points. J. P. Bartley was runner-up with 7 points.

WILDCAT PURRS

Mid term tests are over, oh, happy thought. But when I think of what we have in store before the finals, I resolve to "do" and "be" better and not come so close to the gallows this time.

Turning my thoughts to happier things reminds me that I saw Billy Earl Lynch and Faye Jones over the week-end.

We hear Baxter Gentry is "robbing the cradle" with Rosemary Moss.

Seen riding' around Sunday afternoon were Tommie, Maurine and Myrtle with that red-haired Jimmy Raspberry.

Myrtle Bartley seems to be following in her sister's footsteps. It's none other than Billy Johnson from Thalia!

How does Jean Gamble's green dress go with Billy Bond's green Plymouth?

Rouse, Myra Don, F. L. and Maurine seemed to be having a little trouble Friday night at the graveyard at Thalia!

Everyone is saying Blackie White is Neva Potts' OAO now. It seems as if Maurine and F. L. frolicked in the snow.

James Weathers seems to have eyes for Gilliland now.

Couple of the Week: Dalton and Tommie.

Mary Jones has eyes for that casanova, George McNeese.

We'd like to welcome an old CHSite back to high school. She is none other than Gerald Eavenson.

FLASH—Peggy Eavenson got a sweetheart necklace and bracelet from her OAO in Wichita Falls.

Pat Rhodes seemed to be enjoying the "week-end"! What about this, Travis?

Some cute, lonely girls seen around town are Peggy Evans, Pat Rhodes and Betty Brock.

Why don't you take pity on us and help us out a little every week?

THE SPOTLIGHT'S ON

Always in levis and plaid shirt, Billy Bond can be seen strolling leisurely down the halls of CHS every day, well, nearly every day.

Billy was born near Margaret on November 29, 1931. He enjoys all sports, but when it comes to a favorite, it's basketball. His favorite food is fried chicken, but he'll turn this down any day to dance. "Green Light" heads his song list, and Cornel Wilde and Lana Turner are his favorite movie actors. It is hard for Billy to give us a pet peeve, but finally he decided conceited girls bothered him more than anything else.

This popular senior has brown curly hair, brown eyes and is 17 years old. He loves to say "doodlin'" and his secret ambition is to marry Jean Gamble and settle down.

We certainly do appreciate those little notes in Locker 29 every week—although they are few and far between. Anyway, come on, help us. Well, looks as if we'll have to sign off until next week. All of you little hep cats be good now, and don't get into any trouble. So Long.

Cat's Tail.

DON'T BE A SNOB, MOB

Anyone who has ever moved from a school where they knew everyone from the first graders to the seniors in high school can easily sympathize with new students. They realize how difficult it is to make friends in a new school when the students do not make an attempt at friendliness. It is bad enough when you have to leave all your old friends but when your attempts at friendship in the new place are met with cold stares and colder words, there is something within which seems to freeze up from the low temperatures. It is indeed a pity when a student with a warm, friendly nature turns into a person with a personality at permanent freezing temperature.

It is a vicious circle. The new student is treated in an unfriendly way; therefore he stops trying to be friendly and is branded a snob. But who is really the snob? Isn't it the old student who fell down on his duty to welcome newcomers? Perhaps the new student is used to doing things differently from the way we do in CHS. This is no reason for remarking, especially within the new student's hearing, about his seeming awkwardness. After all, what would you do in a new school? Your ways would probably seem as strange as theirs. From now on let's try to consider both sides of the question when we are tempted not to extend hospitality to new students.

MID-TERM GRADUATES

Two of our bright senior girls couldn't wait until spring, to graduate. They are Bertharene Hardage and Mrs. Loyd Shultz, Jackie Wesley, to you.

Jackie married this fall; she is going to be a homemaker, baking biscuits and cooking beans for her hard-working husband.

Bertharene Hardage hasn't hooked her man yet; so she is going to Hardin Simmons University, where she plans to work hard on a B.A. Bertharene is planning to take short hand, so that she can work this summer and next year. On the entrance examination she had to write a three-hundred word theme on her ideas and expectations of college. That's where English comes in handy, folks!

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Care of Linoleum—Proper care goes a long way toward prolonging the life of linoleum. Household specialists recommend a daily dusting, a weekly mopping with plain water, and a waxing every two weeks. They also say that soap-and-water scrubbing should be limited to two or three times a year.

Mixing Fruit or Nuts—To keep fruit or nuts from sinking to the bottom of cake batter, heat them for a few minutes and mix in a little flour before adding them to the batter. This way the nuts will be evenly distributed throughout the batter.

A shako is a certain kind of military hat.

Q. Can industry be required to give priority to the making of goods for the armed forces under the Selective Service Act of 1948?

A. Yes, if deemed necessary in the interest of national security.

VETERANS' QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. What kinds of business does this include?

A. Any individual, firm, company, association, corporation, or other form of business organization.

Q. Can a plant or other facility be converted to supply goods under the terms of the Selective Service law?

A. Yes, if the President, upon consulting and being advised by the National Security Resources Board, so determines.

Q. Can producers of steel in the U. S. be required to furnish steel to firms which need it for armed forces products?

A. Yes, Requirements will take precedence over all other orders and contracts. The government can take possession of plants if refusal is made. Responsible heads or heads of firms can be fined or imprisoned for failure to comply with requirements of the law.

Q. Is it possible for a veteran to complete his last two grades in elementary school under the G. I. Bill?

A. Yes.

Q. Will VA pay the traveling costs for my son who is in a VA hospital and who intends to visit home in the near future?

A. No. All travel while on leave from a VA hospital is at the expense of the veteran.
