Special Services To Be Held at Baptist Church

Monday night, April 12, will be special services at the First Baptist Church. The program will be conducted by the pastor, K. B. Moon. The morning service will be at 10 o'clock and evening worship at 8.

Grady Metcalf, who has been the special services evangelist for more than two weeks, will be the preacher. Mr. Baker, local music director, will have charge of the music, and Bro. Moon, "With leadership as this, we are confident of the very best preaching and music," the local pastor said.

Further commenting on the special services, Rev. Moon had this to say: "If there is any purpose to these special services will be to strengthen and encourage the Christians in our community. So, regardless of the way you may embrace, you are invited to come and enjoy with us the gospel as it is presented in song and story.

Another purpose of this effort is to tell the unsaved of the plan of salvation. If there are those who may read this and do not know Christ as your savior, or if you are confused as to the way about your relationship to Christ, then you are invited to attend with regularity. By so doing you might be led to an understanding of the greatest experience that can come to an individual—a right relationship to Jesus Christ."

New Insecticides for Grasshopper Control Get Results Quicker and Better, County Agent Reports

Chlordane or toxaphene will control grasshoppers much better than bran-sawdust bait, if used at the right time and in the right places. These new insecticides give a quicker kill and continue to kill longer than the standard bran bait. They are most effective when used on weeds along roadsides, fence rows, ditch banks, and pastures or waste land where the grasshoppers have hatched, according to Joe Burkett, County Agent.

Dosage to use—Chlordane and toxaphene may be used either as a spray or dust. Sprays in general are more effective than dusts and kill for a longer time. When applying sprays use 1 lb. of technical chlordane or 1 1/2 lbs. of technical toxaphene per acre. To spray one acre 50 to 100 gallons of spray will be needed, depending upon the type of spray machine used. The following dilutions should be used:

Chlordane — Use 1 quart 45 per cent emulsion or 2 lbs. 53 per cent wettable powder per 50 to 100 gallons water to spray one acre.

Toxaphene — Use 1 quart 55 per cent emulsion or 2 1/2 pounds 40 per cent wettable powder per 50 to 100 gallons water to spray one acre.

When using dusts apply 1 1/2 pounds of either technical toxaphene or chlordane per acre when grasshoppers are small. As grasshoppers grow larger the dosage must be increased for either toxaphene or chlordane. When grasshoppers are small use 15 lbs. per acre of either 10 per cent toxaphene or chlordane. When grasshoppers are larger increase the dosage to 18 or 20 pounds per acre, or use 10 pounds of 20 per cent toxaphene per acre.

Cove, is run by Marshall Brown, his wife and his assistant. These parts in the picture were played, respectively, by Lloyd Nolan, Jane Wyatt and James Gleason. The ranch was recreated in great detail at the Janss Ranch, 40 miles north of Hollywood.

The "Bad Boy" of the picture, based on a real person (whose name, naturally, is being kept anonymous), is played by Audie Murphy, the young war hero who has been officially credited with decommissioning 246 Germans, and is the most decorated soldier in U. S. history.

Before they started this picture, Audie and Nolan traveled to Copperas Cove to witness the ranch work. Following that, they were invited as guests to the Variety Clubs International's 1948 Humanitarian Dinner honoring Secretary of State George C. Marshall at Washington, D. C.

The story of "Bad Boy" is one of a youngster who proved almost too much for the Boys' Ranch and those who run it. This young tough had committed 62 felonies before they received court custody of him. One at the ranch, he continues to use it as a front to continue his criminal doings. It was not until Marshall Brown, director of the Boys' Ranch, discovered the reason for the boy's rebelliousness, that the subject of this true story could be brought around to reason.

There's no glamorizing of gun-totin' kids in "Bad Boy." It's on the raw side, this picture, but no more raw than the case history from which it was drawn.

Although Vernon is well-equipped with hotel and tourist court space, many residents are planning to open their homes to out-of-town guests to accommodate the crowds this year during rodeo week. Because of this, the Vernon Chamber of Commerce is requesting that early reservation be made by rodeo visitors so that the number of rooms needed in private homes may be determined.

Santa Rosa Round-Up Promises to Be Biggest in History

With prizes totalling $6,500, the 1949 Santa Rosa Round-Up and Livestock Show at Vernon, May 2-7, promises to attract the best performers and the largest crowd in history. Enlarged seating capacity and the addition of one of the finest sound systems available insures comfort for a record-breaking crowd during this year's performances of the all-professional championship rodeo at the all-weather grandstand south of Vernon.

This marks the fourth annual presentation of the Santa Rosa Round-up, initiated by E. Paul Waggoner, Vernon capitalist and rancher.

Buetler Brothers, professional rodeo producers of Elk City, Okla., will produce the rodeo, and they report that they have a splendid selection of stock, rough and tough, for the presentation. In connection with the Santa Rosa Round-Up, an official quarter horse show approved by the American Quarter Horse Association, will be held again this year. There will be judging in 17 classes.

Interested in the rodeo and on the board of directors of the Santa Rosa Round-Up Association are more than 70 business men, representing towns all over the State of Texas and parts of Oklahoma and New Mexico. E. Paul Waggoner is president of the association.

"Bad Boy" Film to Be at Rialto Next Week, April 20-21

Not many motion pictures are filmed with the exhibitors of 17,000 movie houses behind it, but that's true of the production of "Bad Boy," starring Lloyd Nolan, Jane Wyatt, Audie Murphy, Martha Vickers, James Gleason and Stanley Clements, was filmed with the cooperation of Variety Clubs International, and is a semi-documentary picture revealing part of the good work done for young hoodlums by Variety Club members throughout the nation.

More explicitly, "Bad Boy" deals with life on the Variety Clubs' Boys' Ranch at Copperas Cove, Texas, where they get the worst kids in the country from the courts and then try to find out what made them bad.

A 4,800-acre farm, Copperas

Cove, is run by Marshall Brown, his wife and his assistant. These parts in the picture were played, respectively, by Lloyd Nolan, Jane Wyatt and James Gleason. The ranch was recreated in great detail at the Janss Ranch, 40 miles north of Hollywood.

The "Bad Boy" of the picture, based on a real person (whose name, naturally, is being kept anonymous), is played by Audie Murphy, the young war hero who has been officially credited with decommissioning 246 Germans, and is the most decorated soldier in U. S. history.

Child Welfare Is Endorsed by Rev. E. R. McGregor

Rev. E. R. McGregor, pastor of the Margaret and Thalia Methodist Churches, writes the following article in connection with the setting aside of the month of April as Child Welfare month by the American Legion. Rev. McGregor writes on "The Christian Home."

"Jesus highly sanctified the home when he likened God to a father and spoke of his people as the children of God. Jesus also honored the home when he gathered his disciples around Him in a simulated family fashion. In his teaching on marriage and divorce, Jesus gave God's divine sanction on the family life. I suppose, if we should evaluate all the teachings of Jesus concerning the family life we would find that in his teachings, home is second only to the Kingdom of God.

"The home is the greatest of family ties. It is the basic structure of life. It is the basic institution of our civilization. And life and death empty their sustaining or destroying powers into the social, moral and political economies of the world. Destroy the home and you destroy civilization.

"There are homes of all sorts in America. Homes of gladness and of sadness, there are mansions and there are humble shacks, there are childless homes and homes where children play, pure homes where love abides and homes of bitterness, Christian homes and irreligious homes. But, regardless of the kind, every man loves his home. When our boys were on the battlefield, the greatest desire of their hearts was home and all that home might mean. And to most of these boys who traveled the wide world round, the sight which thrilled them most was the Statue of Liberty or the first glimpse of their native soil, for this meant home.

"Someone has rightly said, 'A church within a church, a republic within a world, is spelled with four letters, home, and be it ever so humble, there's no place like home.'

"The home is the greatest training station in the world. The examples which a child learns at home bear more weight than anything he may learn out of books or be taught by parent or teacher. The child is an imitator.

"We are greatly troubled to hear of juvenile delinquency and are told about the revolt of youth. But the youth are only following the paths that have been blazed for them by those who have gone before. It seems that it is high time that we quit pouring medicine in the open sore and get at the root of the trouble. Our children need Christian training in their homes.

"The home is the character builder and it should be setting the example both by precept and example. Our children need training in obedience, loyalty, honor, purity, truthfulness, unselfishness, responsibilities and in devotion to God.

"In short, we as parents, are stewards of the little life which God has placed in our hands. They are our most priceless possession. A little life is entrusted to our care, its inherited characteristics are ours and its destiny depends largely upon its environment. Further still, the destiny of nations is in the hands of mothers and fathers as they give guidance to their little ones. The statement is true which says, 'The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world.' To the parent I would say 'What will you do with that little bundle of heaven that God has given you for all your own?'

"Surely, surely, we would be good stewards of those little lives entrusted to us for safe-keeping in all lines."

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

(By Congressman Ed Gossett)

Washington, D. C., April 9, 1949—I greatly enjoyed my four day visit to Texas. It was a pleasure to see the magnificent fields of bluebonnets, which I had not seen for more than fifteen years.

The highlight of my trip was a week-end in Austin and invitations to address the Texas House and the Texas Senate. My address to the Texas Senate was upon invitation of Senator Bob Proffer, of Denton County, Senator George Moffett, of Hardeman County, and Charles Jones, of Fannin County. The courtesy of these distinguished State Senators, all of whom represent parts of the 13th Congressional District, was deeply appreciated by me.

On Thursday of this week the Judiciary Committee of the House, by a vote of 16 to 5, reported H. J. R. 2 by me, to abolish the Electoral College. This is known as the Gossett-Lodge Amendment. Incidentally, this subject has been adopted as the debate topic for 1949 by the National Association of High Schools, and will also be used as the debate subject in many college circles during the coming year.

Most all Congressmen are harassed by crack-pots who visit their offices demanding this, that or the other. This week former Congressman Ellsworth Buck, of New York, was shot three times by a man who was mad because the Congressman had voted against allowing his spurious claim against the government.

The Senate has just finished passing the ECA Bill, which authorizes 5 billion, 400 million dollars for the second year's operation of the Marshall Plan. The bill now comes up in the House for debate. Senator Taft, of Ohio, and Senator Russell, of Georgia, wanted to cut this authorization by 10 per cent. Their contention was based not only on the better conditions in Europe, but upon our ability to pay. Seems to me that such reduction should have been approved. In addition to the Marshall Plan the Administration will soon ask us to arm the so-called western democracies. To my mind the arming of western democracies should be fully explored before approved. If we can furnish guns to the French, the Italians and others we certainly ought to keep a monopoly on the manufacture of ammunition. I must confess I do not fully trust some of our so-called democratic friends.

The House Committee on Banking and Currency is now considering the Administration's housing bill. Representative Wolcott, Michigan, the Republican Chairman of such committee in the last Congress, estimates the Administration's housing bill would cost the taxpayers 19.3 billion dollars over a period of forty years. President Truman is asking that Congress authorize the building of 1,500,000 units of housing in the next seven years. Bear in mind, public housing is not government loans and financing as through FHA or through HOLC. Public housing means for the government to build and own such houses, renting them at low prices to so-called low income families.

The latest thing to be thrown into the laps of Congress is the Administration's new farm program. Secretary of Agriculture Brannan explained the new proposed program to a joint session of the House Committee on Agriculture and the Senate Committee on Agriculture. The Administration, through Secretary Brannan, now proposes to do away with the old parity formula and to substitute what is called a "fair income" farm program. Direct subsidies would be provided for the first time for meat, milk, butter fat, eggs, poultry, fruits and vegetables, which provide the major portion of farm income. Some non-perishable crops, such as corn, wheat, cotton and tobacco, would be supported through a system of loans and purchased somewhat as presently done. "Fair income" to the farmer would be calculated by taking an average of the first ten years of the previous 12 year period. For example, the goal for 1950 would be the average farm income from 1939 to 1948. For 1950 this would amount to 26.2 billion dollars, as compared with the farm income of 7.8 billion dollars in 1939. Furthermore, Secretary Brannan proposes to limit the amount of production for which any farmer could receive support. This would be designed to encourage small scale farming and to discourage large scale farming. The program is extremely complicated, and in some instances revolutionary. Some of it appears good, some of it bad. Most members of Congress have their fingers crossed concerning these proposals. The Secretary's new proposed farm program is in for long and extended debate and discussion.

Building Plans Can Be Secured at Office of Joe Burkett

Do you need any farm building or equipment plans? Are you looking for ideas on how to build a cattle feeder or a barbecue furnace? If so, check with Joe Burkett, county agent.

He has a 1949 model catalogue chock full of all kinds of plans for anything from houses to home-made machines. This new catalogue was compiled by W. S. Allen, extension agriculture buildings engineer of Texas A. & M. College. It also contains a listing of many supporting publications on any subject dealing with or about the farm.

First thing in the catalogue is a list of plans for homes of two to nine rooms. Next are plans for barns—general purpose, beef cattle, horse and mule or dairy barns. No fewer than 19 different 5 room house plans are listed. Also there are 10 different plans for 6-room houses. Twenty-one different general purpose barns and seven horse and mule barns are among those plans in the list.

But that's not all. There are plans for hog houses and equipment, poultry houses, cattle feeders, sheep barns, grain and hay storage, implement sheds, garages and shops, and other farm buildings and equipment that may be of interest to the Texas farmer. These plans and publications are listed in the new catalogue available to the farm and ranch people of Texas. They may be obtained free of charge by asking for them at the office of the county agent.

Outstanding Club Honor Bestowed on Mrs. R. L. Kincaid

In recognition of her many years of outstanding club work Mrs. R. L. Kincaid was honored at the Seventh District Convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs which met in Lubbock last week, by being granted a Life Membership in the Texas Federation.

This is a coveted honor given only to those who meet with the rigid requirements of club service, as laid down by the State Federation. Mrs. Kincaid, having fulfilled the many requirements as office holder and held district chairmanship and even state chairmanship through several administrations, was unanimously granted a Life Membership by the district committee headed by Mrs. Sam Seay of Amarillo.

Mrs. Kincaid's record was submitted to the seventh district Life Membership committee by the Columbian Club of Crowell, a club well versed in the knowledge of her outstanding abilities in leadership. It was through the Columbian Club's desire to secure district and state recognition on Mrs. Kincaid's excellent record that the move was made to have her name placed on the Life Membership roll. Mrs. Kincaid has been an active member of the Columbian Club since 1910 and her many club friends are delighted at the honor, most deserved, which has been bestowed upon her.

THE MONTH OF APRIL

The word April means to open, and it is an appropriate meaning because April is the month of opening buds, opening romances, budding romances, and mouths opening in great yawns of spring caused by spring fever. April's calendar is crowded with changes in nature. The mesquite trees change from gaunt, grey dryads into their spring clothing of chartreuse leaves and feathery white blossoms. Orchards of peach trees add the fragile beauty of their pink blossoms to the scene, and the hill sides and roadsides are covered with wild flowers.

April is also famous for its weather. The weather in this month changes more often than a woman changes her mind, if that is possible. There are days so cold they seem to have been delivered directly from the north pole and other days which seem to have been swooped from the equator. Another thing April is famous for is its showers — that bring the flowers.

Of course, a discussion of April would not be complete without mention of April Fool's day. This day can at least be traced back to 1760 and is also called All Fool's Day.

HOMEMAKERS WIN HONORS

Barbara White, Clara Jones, Neva Lou Potts and Eva Rae Geaslin are the students with highest points in Homemaking this year. The points were counted on the following basis: 29 points for first place in the style show, 18 points for second, 16 points for third and 14 points for fourth. Grades, degree work and club attendance also count.

These four girls will represent Crowell at the state meeting in Dallas May 6 and 7. Barbara White, who has the highest points, will be the voting delegate.

SOUTHERN PLANTATION THEME OF JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Community House amid a southern plantation setting on Friday night, April 8.

Everyone arrived early so the girls could admire the pretty dresses and the boys could admire the pretty girls. In their long, swirling skirts the girls really looked the part of Southern belles attending a banquet and ball at some Southern plantation in the deep South. Some girls even wore hoops in their skirts!

While everyone was conversing before the banquet, photographer Jimmy Ashford took the opportunity to obtain several pictures of small groups of guests.

Carrying out the theme of "A Southern Plantation" were tables arranged in a U shape. Directly behind the head table was a cardboard cut-out of a pickaninny. Spring flowers were used lavishly in the decorations. In every window were vases of lilies. Behind the flowers on the head table was a white candleholder in the shape of a reclining S. In the holder were six red candles. White linen covered the tables and down the middle of each were two narrow runners of red crepe paper. The two tables other than the head table were centered with bouquets of mixed spring flowers. The piano was covered with cotton balls with a Negro mammy doll sitting among the balls. Crepe paper streamers of pastel colors were draped across the ceiling, weaving about the suspended wagon wheels, and forming shades for the colored light bulbs. The kitchen was separated from the banquet hall by a curtain of green and white streamers.

The hosts, hostesses, and guests were seated at eight o'clock. Toastmaster Marion Bailey opened the ceremonies with an amusing anecdote. The first thing on the program was an unusual whistling act by Pete Yates. Miss Bobby Abston accompanied him at the piano while he whistled the "Rosary" and "Easter Parade."

Jimmy Johnson and his boys played a number next and then a trio of waitresses sang old southern songs. Montez Laquey read the senior paper, "Apple Blossom" and Julia Johnson reading the senior will.

After eating a delicious meal consisting of boiled ham, corn, blackeyed peas, candied sweet potatoes, Waldorf salad, rolls and butter, apple pie ala mode, and fruit punch, the crowd was ready for more entertainment. Just before dessert was served, Leon McNeese sang "Forever and Ever" and the chorus "Apple Blossom Wedding" and "Careless Hands."

The program concluded with an exhibition of boogie woogie dancing and torch songs.

NOTICE TO MILTON MAGEE

The Wildcat Staff was particularly pleased last week when they received a letter of appreciation from Milton Magee (class of '35).

We quote from Milton's letter: "It was either 1934 or 1935 that the Wildcat was born, and I have continued to read it so long as the names were familiar to me. Today I find only three names on the masthead which I recognize, namely: F. L. Ballard, Rouse Todd and Joline Lanier, but also today I've just finished reading one of the finest editions of the 'Wildcat'."

He continues, "Has any consideration to the giving of lines to those students who produce outstanding feature articles been given? It would seem to me that this would be a wonderful way to promote an interest in creative writing. There can be no doubt that the weakest link in the high school graduate's education is the use of the English language. Good speaking and writing of English is a fundamental requirement of an educated or successful individual in today's world."

The Wildcat Staff feels flattered indeed to have a graduate of '35 continue his interest in the column. This will be a boon to us to try to improve our editorials and news stories.

Some of the teachers remember how much Milton enjoyed chemistry when Walker Todd often let him conduct the class and can understand why the editorial on chemistry especially appealed to him.

Milton is a graduate of Texas A. & M. College and now has a responsible position with the John Deere Tractor Co. at Dubuque, Iowa.

SPORTS SPOTLIGHT

When a Body Meets a Body
 Cagily, crafty Marcus Mills whirled and threw a fast ball into an immovable object, Coach Whitaker's nose. Recently Coach Scott crashed into Jerry Culbertson, who stood "Gibraltar-like" on first base. As a result both were on crutches for several days.

After the incident, courageous Culbertson was heard to remark, "The big-footed oaf, why didn't he get out of my way?"

Weather Problem Solved
 The Girls' P. E. classes have no trouble with the weather now. Those who prefer volley ball go to the gym. Others go to the tennis courts. Have you noticed our new player, Mary Comer—looks like good material for next season.

Ow'd You Like to Spoon with Me?
 Mr. Erwin's little "Doak Walkers" have been busily engaged in spring practice. Led by Raymond Halenack (Little Holley), the boys have almost learned "Fair play." Sorry that Raymond had hard luck during last Monday's practice. Attacked by three boys, he came out with a fractured collar bone, although he was feinting and did not have the ball.

CROWELL LOSES COUPLE TO WICHITA FALLS

The Wildcat baseballers' hit a spring training slump as they lost two games to Wichita Falls during the week but still managed to win one from Vernon who was a victor over them earlier in the season.

The Wildcats outhit the Coyotes here on last Tuesday, but lost by a count of 4-3 with John Scott and Clifford (Punk) Ohr entangled in a pitching duel. The Wildcats got five hits off of Scott, two being by first baseman, Jon Coffey, who got a couple of triples and then stole home in the last inning. Clifford Ohr allowed only 4 hits but the Coyotes aided by 4 errors managed to count for 4 runs.

The Coyotes with the help of rain and cold managed to jump on the Wildcats for 14 runs before the game was called off at the end of the third at Wichita Falls Friday. Also a short right field aided the Coyotes, because most of them were right field batters.

HOMEMAKING I CLASS ENTERTAINS GUESTS

The Homemaking I Class entertained Don Wilkins, Charles Wishon, Marion Bailey, Bobby Hord, Joe Ray Setliff and Mrs. Moody Bursley for their aid in making the FHA style show a success. Dalton Biggerstaff was invited, but was unable to attend. The guests were served refreshments of iced tea and devil's food cake.

BLUEBONNET GIRL

Montez Laquey, junior from Truscott, has been chosen by the Legion Auxiliary to attend the Texas Girls' State for a week, where she will receive valuable training on how our government functions.

Montez was chosen with the help of the faculty, on scholarship, citizenship, and interest in all school activities.

ASHFORD'S SNAPPED SHUTTERS SINCE 1936

Telling people to "watch the birdie" is getting to be routine to Jimmie Ashford, unofficial CHS reporter.

He's been at it for over twelve years. When asked what caused his interest in photography, Jimmie said, "When Henry, my brother, was working for the Foard County News, there was no photographer in Crowell at the time. Mr. Klepper had to wait as long as three days for the return of films. For this reason Henry's interest grew of necessity. Jimmie soon became interested because of his brother.

Jimmie has owned twelve or fifteen cameras in all, but he has five at the present time — a Goodwin, Foth Derby, Band J Press and Senia.

No single picture that he has taken stands out in Jimmie's mind but he says cattle and calf shows are his favorite subjects.

Jimmie Ashford is well known in Crowell, having lived here all of his life until a few years ago when he moved to Quanah. Attending Crowell school twelve years, he graduated from CHS in 1927, when the grammar school and high school were both housed in the old building.

Jimmie recalls that Joe Ben Roberts, Marion Crowell, Inez Ivey, Gusta Davis, Gussie Todd and Raymond Burrow were in his class, their being about eighteen in all. He notices in making a comparison of high school then and now, "the students are allowed a great deal more freedom now."

Jimmie and Raymond Burrow played on the football team. He says that lots of times not more than twenty people attended a football game. The people attended baseball then as they do football now.

At the time Jimmie was playing football for CHS, the equipment was very poor. "Football was really rough in those days," he reminisces.

He now devotes all of his time to photography. Since his mother is an invalid, he has his studio in his home.

Mr. Ashford, turning philosopher, explained the duties of a photographer. "The theory of photography is to get the picture as fast and cheaply as possible." The best policy is simply to get the picture and the money for it."

WILDCAT PURRS

Hi, everyone. Well, here it is another blue Monday.

To start with, Floyd Oliver and Neva Potts were seen together Sunday night.

Mary Bergt was seen with Bobby Joe Rallsback Saturday night. Is this getting to be a steady?

Another new item is LaVerne Shultz, who was seen with Glenn "Buff" Gable Saturday night.

Ray Gable was seen with Myrtle Bartley Saturday night. (cute couple).

Something old: Julia and George.

Something new: Billy Johnson and Doris Jones.

Something borrowed: LaVerne Owens from Billy Joe Friday nite.

Something blue: Violet Rummel (James Bice wasn't at the banquet).

Joyzelle Thomson and Joe Ray Setliff are seen together quite a lot.

Rose Marie, Emily Kajs, Joyce Hinkle, Ruby Odle, Betty Harper, Peggy Evenson—there you are, boys—we named them—what more can we do?

Pat Rhodes and Ham Tamplen were seen making hay while the moon shone Sunday night. They were doing all right, too!

She's short—he's tall, she's cute—he's handsome, she's brown—he's black, she's lots of fun—he's plenty athletic—which all goes to make them a pair of Clifford Ohr and Sweetpea Owens.

Here's to a swell kid—we give you Leon McNeese.

Don Wilkins, the swain of CHS, has captured the love of his life at last—here's hoping it lasts.

Wake up girls, Jimmy Rasberry is on the loose.

J. P. Bartley is trying to get a return blow on Joline Lanier. Maybe we'll get to see another good fight.

Raymond Carter has a fluid drive car. You have to put the fluid in before it drives.

Camille Todd and Jimmie Franklin are a new couple seen around Friday after the banquet were Betty Lou, Peggy, LaVerne, Joline, Doris, Betty Fern, Tommie, Myrtle and Maurine.

THIS IS AMERICA

This is freedom—many religions, many races, living in harmony together. For freedom is more than a way of life. It is a state of spirit—and our richest asset.

Under freedom of religion, Americans attend more churches than any other nation. Under freedom of speech, we have more newspapers, more radio stations than any other country in the world. Under freedom of opportunity, our children attend more schools, have more chances to succeed in life.

We are only 7% of the world's people, living on 6% of the world's land. Yet, we who live in America have the highest standard of living the world has ever known.

Under freedom of enterprise—you may call it Democracy, or Capitalism—we make just about one-third of the world's goods, mostly for our own use. We drive three-fourths of the world's autos, use about half the world's electricity. Our homes are unrivaled for comfort and labor-saving devices. We eat more meat, buy more clothes, see more shows, own more insurance. We even save more money.

Yes, freedom pays—in the coin of tolerance and understanding, and in the coin of progress and prosperity.

their length. Spring flowers were used profusely in decoration. At the head table, a white candleholder in the form of a reclining S held red candles. Wagon wheels suspended from the ceiling were woven in and out with pastel paper ribbons and colored light bulbs were placed in these.

Waitresses were girls of the Sophomore class attired in red and white plantation dresses and with faces blacked. The Junior class mothers, Mrs. Dave Rhodes, Mrs. M. E. Wilkins, Mrs. Veatrice Brock and Mrs. C. S. Bartley, were responsible for the delightful plantation meal of baked ham, black eyed peas, candied yams, salad, pea ala mode and an iced drink.

Scott Whitaker, coach, is sponsor of the Junior class. The program, well-planned and entertaining throughout, was presided over by Marion Bailey, as toastmaster. The invocation was by Supt. Grady Graves. Pete Yates delighted the audience with two whistling numbers, "The Rosary" and "Easter Parade," being accompanied by Bobbie Abston.

Jimmy Johnson and His Boys played a number and a trio of the colored waitresses sang a medley of southern songs. The class prophecy was read by Montez Laquey and Julia Johnson delivered the Senior Class Will. Leon McNeese sang "Forever and Ever" and received several encores. A group of colored entertainers gave several songs and dances.

Miss Ruby L. Adams Weds Florida Man on Wed., April 6th

The Chapel of the Alamo Heights Presbyterian Church in San Antonio was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ruby L. Adams of Crowell to Sgt. Ralph G. Jordan of Donia, Fla., on Wednesday, April 6, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

The Rev. Hugh Robertson officiated at the double ring ceremony and Mrs. R. L. Nelson, accompanied by Mrs. F. G. Hood, sang the nuptial music.

Mrs. Riley Burion of Chicago, Ill., twin sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor. Sgt. Carl Carnadon of Gary, Ind., served as best man and Sgts. Edwin Dusek of North Judson, Ind., and James Stallings of Arkadelphia, Ark., were ushers and Sgt. William Harvey of Stockton, Calif., was candle lighter.

The bride wore a honey colored suit with brown accessories and carried a Bible topped with white gardenias. The traditional theme of wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue was carried out. Mrs. Burion wore a light brown suit with tan accessories and a peach camellia corsage. Mrs. Jordan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave D. Adams of Crowell. She is a graduate of Crowell High School and attended business college in Wichita Falls. She has been employed in Civil Service for the past six years at Frederick Army Air Field at Frederick, Okla., and is, at present, at Randolph Field, San Antonio, in the same capacity.

Sgt. Jordan graduate from Gordon Military College in Barnesville, Ga., before entering the armed forces. He is now stationed at Lockland Air Force Base in San Antonio.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goluska in San Antonio. The couple will reside at 238 W. Huisache, San Antonio, until the groom is discharged from the service in June. They then plan to make their home in Mobile, Ala., where Sgt. Jordan will enter Spring Hill College to study law.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: Mrs. D. D. Adams of Crowell; Mrs. Cecil Driver and daughter, Carria, of Quanah and Mrs. F. J. Burian of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Hill of Port Arthur, sister and brother-in-law of the groom and Miss Catherine Villaret and Mrs. P. G. Villaret of San Angelo.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

The Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the church on Monday, April 11, to continue its study on China. An informal discussion on China revealed many interesting facts. Mrs. W. L. Johnson brought the second lesson.

China has been a country with many disasters, famines, floods, earthquakes and wars. Today, we are continuing to rebuild China and it is hoped there will be a more peaceful brotherhood. China has suffered tremendously because of its unpreparedness for modern warfare. They are a people of much courage.

The war speeded the awakening of a new China. First of all, they were liberated from the threat of Japanese domination which had hung over them for a half century. New airways and railways brought East China to know West China. They even began to know their neighbors in Tibet. It has taken its place in the family of nations and is one of the Big Five.

Ten members were present at the meeting.

You will be safe at home plate on this one. Furthermore, we are safe in our recommendation to you for we know it will please.
