STEPS TOWARD DEMOCRACY

"Of the students, by the students and for the students." This is the motto of CHS. Scholastic Magazine defines a democratic school as a school whose policies and operations are the concern of those who support, manage, and profit from it. In such a school, no one group—patrons, educators nor students—has certain responsibilities. Each group has certain responsibilities.

"We listen to the minority, but the majority rules," says Mr. Graves. If you have a problem or feel the need of some change in our school, there is no better way to solve it than to discuss it with Mr. Graves or Mr. Black who are always willing listeners to any student problems.

People judge you; maybe they shouldn't, but they do and through you they judge your home, your school and your community. They are smart too, for instance they have enough sense to know that you are a vital part of each of these groups, and that your effort or lack of effort is present in the finished whole, that you help to make it, whatever it may be.

So if there is something you don't like about CHS, if there is something you want changed, and all you have the energy to do about it is knock, go ahead and knock, but be careful, don't knock yourself out.

THE SENIOR STAND

The final nail has been driven by Mr. Myers' VA boys on the new senior stand located near the west side of the grandstand. The stand is 14 by 20 feet and opens on three sides. This permanent stand will make it more convenient for all seniors in the coming years. It saves time and hard work by having a place to store the supplies between football games. It also provides a shelter for the hard-working seniors.

We would like to thank Mr. Myers and his VA boys for the time and work on the stand. Also the seniors thank the Cameron Lumber Co. for their cooperation and special prices on the lumber for the stand. The seniors graduating in the class of 1948 and class of 1949 have made this stand possible.

LIBRARY INFORMATION

CHS students and teachers are becoming "library conscious" this year. This is a feather in the school's cap as we are reminded of our regular librarian and the improvement in our library this year. It is pride that the school librarian feels when she knows that she has helped some boy or girl in his or her work.

Many new books, too numerous to name, have been received in the last few days. We have books about science experiments, horses, football, baseball, hockey, travels, teen-age manners, the Arctic, the United Nations, money and fun. There are picture books of trees, flowers, zoos, snakes and Texas. Some of the things our new books can help you with are: devotional, parliamentary procedure, parties and games, plays, programs, choosing your vocation, cooking and hobbies. From these even the least book-minded student will probably find something to interest him.

Please consider that each of the books must be thoughtfully ordered, opened, accessioned, stamped, cards typed and posted in. The hardest work is to catalogue each book correctly. There must be an author card, title card, shelf list card, and one subject card. Then the book must be lettered on the back before it is ready for the shelves. This all takes time, but no effort is spared to keep the library in tip-top shape.

Our new librarian must be on her toes, for we heard a teacher remark, "Just imagine, Mrs. Taylor culled out an article that she considered would be helpful to my department and sent it to me; she's going to be a lot of help."

CROWELL WILDCAT BAND

The 1949 Crowell Wildcat Band made its first appearance Friday night at the Holiday Eagle field. They were wearing their new military type uniforms consisting of double breasted jackets with gold and black shoulder braid. They made their appearance on the field at the half, led by Violet Rummel, who took the place of Jerry Cuiherston drum major, followed by Tommie Meason and Virginia Mc-

Known, majorettes, and the rest of the band, Don Brisco played a trumpet solo followed by the step off with the band playing "Thunder." While the H and E for Holiday Eagles was formed, they played "Washington and Lee Swing." While the C and W were formed for Crowell Wildcats, they played "Grand Ole Wildcats." The band marched off the field, having aroused the cheers of the Crowell fans and the admiration of everyone on their first performance in their new uniforms.

If a "Guess Who" description quiz about CHS were given, one of them might go like this:

She was born in Crowell on November 12, 1932, and has lived here all her life. She is now a junior in high school.

This dark haired junior has been on the Wildcat staff for three years. Two years of this time she was the Homemaker reporter. For three years she has been active in the Junior Adelpian Club having been the president for two years. Other activities include the volleyball team, and being a cheer leader for three years.

She likes riding horses and rodeos. Her favorite sport is swimming, and she likes pastel colors and world history, but she has no special boy whom she likes. She'll attend college at TCU in Fort Worth. Her name? Why it is Betty Barker.

This red-haired girl hails from Margaret, Texas. She is sixteen years of age and is a senior in Ole CHS. Digging into her skeleton closet we found many dark and musty secrets. Her name for one is none other than LaVerne Owens. Her favorite studies are typing and bookkeeping. She is very active in sports which include horseback riding and volleyball and has made the main string in volleyball for the past year and the B string her sophomore year. Her likes consist of friend chicken, rodeos, and Billy Joe Hancock. She has been on the Wildcat staff for one year as an industrious typist.

Her ambition is to go to college at Texas University and major in business administration and minor in music.

Two seniors were called out

We Invite—

into the hall the fifth period Monday. Wondering what was going to happen to them, they slowly followed us into the typing room. Upon seeing us take out pencil and paper they dared to ask what was happening, and were very relieved to learn that they were only being interviewed.

The first to volunteer information was our blonde co-captain Rouse Todd. After speculation and finally a glance at his driver's license, Rouse eventually decided that he was born on December 30, 1931.

Rouse's favorite sport is football, and he likes to watch baseball. He lettered in football his sophomore year, and has been co-captain the last two years. He was freshman class president, joke editor his sophomore year, junior class reporter, and this year is a typist.

Rouse's favorite holiday is Christmas, because of Santa Claus. He likes to eat fried chicken and listen to popular music. His favorite song is "You're Breaking My Heart." Rouse's favorite books are detective stories and that high brow literature called funny books. His favorite subject is Spanish, but he was unable to take it this year. Rouse's ambition is to get out of high school without studying.

He told us that his pet peeve is girls, but we'd like to know why he is so often seen with Myra Don if that is true.

Since F. L. Ballard had time to think about the subject he quickly told us that he was born June 13, 1932.

F. L. also likes football and to watch baseball. He has lettered in football for two years, and was co-captain last year, and is on the A team this year. F. L. was president of the junior class last year, has been on the Wildcat staff for two years, having been the joke editor his junior year and sports editor this year.

F. L. likes red, must be because of Maurine's pixie glasses. He likes the Easter holidays because they come at such a good time. F. L. likes to eat chicken and fried steak while he listens to "You're Breaking My Heart," or semi-classical music. He likes parties, preferably the dancing kind, and a crowd at the party that is just large enough to have a good time.

F. L.'s favorite author is James Fenimore Cooper, his favorite type of book is the historical novel, and his ambition is to do everything and to do it well. In order to fulfill this large-scale ambition, he will attend college at either S. M. U. or Hardin-Simmons University.

Hailing from Thalia way, this seventeen year old senior with merry green eyes likes many things. His hobby is collecting guns and so, quite naturally, he likes to hunt. His name? Billy Johnson. Didn't you know?

Just sit Billy down to a big chicken dinner, with a pretty girl to keep him company, and Tommy Duncan's "Gambling Polka Dot Blues" providing the background music and you will make a very happy boy.

Other sports Billy likes are football and basketball; his dislikes are spinach and baseball.

This is Billy's first year to work on the Wildcat. He is a typist. The subject Billy likes best is typing; his average was 45 words per minute. Billy entered the interscholastic league typing contest at Olney last year. He was one of the CHS typists who received a certificate.

Billy has been in the V. A. Club for three years. Next fall he plans to attend Texas Tech where he will major in agriculture. Upon graduation from Tech, he will return to Thalia to put his "book learning" to work on a farm.

Out of hundreds of contestants in the Texas Farm and Home Egg Laying Contest ending July 31, sponsored by the Texas Poultry Council and conducted by the Poultry Extension Service at A & M College, laying flocks fed on the Red Chain Feeding Program finished in the first eight places... and in 11th and 15th places.

This again confirms leadership of Red Chain Feeds.

Red Chain Egg Mash is properly balanced for both body maintenance and top egg production. That's why feeders who want high production in contest competition, or for greater profits, choose Red Chain. They know they can depend on Red Chain Quality.

The 1949-50 contest begins October 1, 1949. Start your flock on Red Chain Feed not later than December 1, 1949.

It is reliably reported that the government has already launched into a program of deficit spending for the next two or three years and perhaps longer. It is predicted that the deficit spending may reach from three to five billion for this year. Deficit spending means spending more money than is being taken in. The first week in August when the deficit spending started the government was forced to borrow 200 million dollars to meet its bills.

NEW RAILROAD BALLASTER

A mechanically operated, power track ballaster has been developed for railroad use. It is capable of covering up to one mile a day, compared with 1,500 feet a day by use of conventional power hand tampers and a double crew. The ballaster is self-propelled. A gasoline motor lifts a cross-head member which spans the length of railroad tie and carries 32 tamping shoes. These shoes are dropped on the ballast with a pile-driver action, at the same time working the ballast under the ties.

He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not; one thing I do know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.—John 9:25.

Independent oil producers in this country are aroused over the danger to their industry in the importation of crude oil into this country. They are afraid that imported oil will heat down the market to an unprofitable point. The big operators are not disturbed because they all have a finger in the imported oil. They own the wells and the oil barges in which it is transported. The independent producers are asking that importation be limited to 5 per cent of the domestic demand in any three months period.

About the silliest thing that has been attempted for some time is the effort to make people tolerant by law and force. A good example of this is to be found in the annals of the Spanish Inquisition where, as drastic as it was, it failed to succeed.

Some of the wheat farmers are rebelling because the government is cutting down on the number of acres they may put out to wheat this fall. Wheat farmers and others who come under the Agriculture Department's program should remember that if the government is going to guarantee the price of wheat or any other commodity it must of necessity have a right to attempt to control the amount of that commodity produced. Unlimited production at a guaranteed price is fundamentally an uneconomic and unsound practice. The producer should be willing to meet the government half way and cooperate in the program.

People are funny. We put down expensive hard wood floors in our houses, wax and polish them, and then proceed to completely cover them with carpets and rugs. We buy automobiles with expensive upholstered seats and forthwith proceed to cover them with seat covers which are more pleasant to ride upon and which completely cover every bit of the upholstery. What a local man wants to know, is why spend the money for fine floors and then completely cover them up. Also if the seat cover is better to ride on than the mohair upholstery, why not the finish cars with it when they are built? It sounds sensible but we don't know the answer.

It must be admitted that socialized medicine provided the English people by her Socialist-Labor government is bringing a lot of "free" services to the people of England. It will continue to do so just as long as they can get enough money from the United States to help finance the plan.

The fact that the car driver who struck down and killed Miss Margaret Mitchell on the streets of Atlanta, Ga., had previously been picked up twenty-two times for traffic violations, suggests the thought that any persons as incapable of driving as was this driver, if released often enough by the law enforcement authorities, will eventually kill someone.

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

The other morning I read with a shock, of the death of Miss Margaret Mitchell of Atlanta, Ga., author of "Gone with The Wind." Miss Mitchell, the news report stated, had been struck down a few days before by a drunken driver. In an effort to escape the death car, Miss Mitchell, who had started across the street, ran back to the sidewalk where she was struck down.

I was amazed a day or two later to learn that the driver, whom the police reported was drunk at the time he struck Miss Mitchell, had been arrested on twenty-two previous occasions for traffic violations.

In my opinion the drunken driver is not alone responsible for the murder of Miss Mitchell.

Three groups of persons are equally responsible. First, the drunken driver is responsible. Second, the officers of the law who would arrest a car driver for twenty-two traffic violations and still permit him to retain his driver's license, are responsible. Third, the people of Atlanta and every other community that permits persons to drive cars who are in no sense capable of driving, are responsible.

Just how it could happen that the officers of any community would for a single moment even think of permitting a man to drive a car who had against him a record of twenty-two traffic violations, is beyond the thinking of any normal person. If the laws of Georgia do not make provision for the cancellation of the licenses of such drivers they should be amended as quickly as possible. If the ordinances of the city of Atlanta offer no protection to the citizens in this particular, new ordinances should be passed. In fact the officials of the city are derelict in their duty if they do not at once pass them.

Because of the criminal indifference of the people of this whole country, the indifference of the people of the state of Georgia and the indifference of the people of Atlanta, a useful life has been snuffed out by a careless, heedless, drunken driver.

With twenty-two known traffic violations on record against him and no doubt as many more that have not been entered on the police records he was still permitted to drive a car on the streets of the city, a daily menace to every person on the streets. Even the most elemental reasoning would have told the most elemental mind that, left to run wild, the day would sooner or later come when this incompetent driver would kill or frightfully mangle and maim some one.

Now that it has happened the whole country is loud in its condemnation of the conditions and the persons who permitted such a condition to continue to this inevitable end. As long as persons incapable of driving are criminally permitted to retain their driver's licenses the people of this country are going to face the same fate that was Miss Mitchell's every time they venture out on the streets and highways of this country.

It is high time something be done in a nation-wide way.

HEARTFIRE WOOD

The woodpile for fireplace use may well contain both split and whole round logs and both soft and hard wood. Split wood kindles faster than round logs so is the choice for starting the fire. The round logs may be added later to keep the fire going steadily. Soft woods from cone-bearing trees like pine in general make a quicker, hotter fire than hard woods, but hard woods have the advantage of burning longer. A combination of the two, therefore, makes a successful fire. The woods that give the most heat for their weight are hickory, oak, beech, sweet birch, hard maple, rock elm, locust and longleaf pine.

The rates were increased 15 per cent in the New York City area and 20 per cent in the rest of the state. A survey of 87,000 drivers in the state outside of New York City showed that 14.4 per cent of the drivers were under 25. ORIGIN OF "BUFFALO BILL"

The famous Western scout and Indian fighter, William F. Cody, surnamed the picturesque nick - name of "Buffalo Bill" as a result of his contract to supply buffalo meat for the construction of the Kansas Pacific (now part of the Union Pacific railroad.) They needed 12 buffaloes a day, and he took the job for $500 a month.
Trains crossing the western plains in pioneer days were frequently delayed by "thundering herds of buffaloes." In October, 1872, P.
T. Barnum, traveling to Denver over the Kansas Pacific with two friends, reported "seeing many thousands of wild buffalo—our train sometimes being stopped to let them pass."

Transportation was safer last year than at any time in the past ten years, the National Safety Council says. The combined death rate for passenger automobiles, taxis, buses, trucks and air liners was 1.8 deaths for 100 million passenger miles. A passenger carried represents one passenger carried one mile. The railroads had the lowest death rate, 0.13 per 100 million passenger miles. Buses were second, with a rate of 0.18.
The airplane rate was 1.3 and the rate for passenger automobiles
and taxis 2.1.

LOOPHOLES in the Law

By WILL WILSON

Past President, Texas District and County Attorneys Association

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of short case histories, all taken from court records, showing how legal loopholes often enable criminals to escape punishment in Texas. Will Wilson, of Dallas, is chairman of a special steering committee of the State Bar, which is working for revision of the antiquated Criminal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure in order to eliminate these loopholes.)

Burglar Joe admitted that he broke into a store operated by Mrs. Fred Smith in Prairie Hill, Texas. He confessed that on September 27, 1941, he broke in the back door of the store building, entered and stole several articles of merchandise.

Since there was no doubt of Joe's guilt, he was convicted and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. But on appeal the verdict was reversed.

At the trial Mrs. Smith testified that she was the wife of Fred Smith and that she lived with him at Prairie Hill, where they operated a store. The indictment pointed out that the store, at the time of the burglary, was under the control and ownership of Mrs. Smith.

The reversal was solely on a technicality involving ownership of the store. Although Mrs. Smith was operator of the store, it was community property belonging jointly to her and Mr. Smith. In the eyes of the law the husband was the owner. The indictment charging Joe should have alleged that the husband, instead of the wife, was the owner of the property.

If the State Bar is successful in its efforts to bring about revision of Texas' criminal statutes, such loopholes in the law can be closed. Under the present system too many criminals escape justice, even when there is no doubt of their guilt, breeding disrespect for the law and subjecting good citizens to constant threats from law-breakers.

Weekly Sermon

Secret of a Great Man

by E. E. Fletcher, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

It is said that General Eisenhower and a recent governor of Illinois once met and commented about their identical first names.
"Ike" was reported to have asked, "for whom are you named?"
"I was named for an uncle, Dwight H. Gerber," said Green.
"And how about you?"
"I was named for Dwight L.
Moody, the evangelist," answered Eisenhower. "My mother admired his work and thought it might inspire me to be a leader."

Just how many people have been similarly influenced is hard to say, but it probably still numbers in the thousands. Dwight L. Moody was the sixth child in a family of nine, born in 1837 and raised by his impoverished, widowed mother. His grammar was poor, his formal education was slight, his social graces awkward. Yet by some miracle he became the man described in a standard encyclopedia last year as "the greatest single influence for religion in nineteenth century America."

What was the secret behind Moody's success. Over and over again biographers have sought the Church of Christ (West Side)

"For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of service." (Under law of Moses.)
"How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him?"

Miss Marjorie Ruth Barker and Howard Bell Married in Candlelight Ceremony at Baptist Church Saturday Evening

Miss Marjorie Ruth Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Barker, became the bride Saturday evening of Howard Keith Bell, son of Fred Bell of Crowell and Mrs. Sam Roth of Chicago, Ill. Rev. N. B. Moon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated with the impressive double ring ceremony in the beautifully decorated auditorium of the church.

The altar was formed of tall baskets of white gladioli and tiers of graduated candelabra in wrought iron, holding tall white tapers which served as illumination during the exchange of vows. Over a greenery entwined archway at the rear, sat two white doves. The family pews were marked by candles and ribbon bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a wedding gown of white slipper satin with a round yoke of imported lace, long sleeves coming to a point at the hand, of the lace material, covered buttons of satin down the yoke and on the sleeves. The yoke of the dress was outlined with a design of seed pearls. The full skirt fell into a cathedral train. Her two-tiered veil of illusion was attached to a coronet of illusion and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with a cascade of satin ribbon and stephanotis.

The wedding music was provided by Mrs. A. L. Rucker, pianist, and Miss Sharon Haney, vocalist. As a pre-nuptial background, Mrs. Rucker played "Indian Love Call" and accompanied Miss Haney who sang "Always" and "Through the Years." She also played the wedding march and the recessional.

Miss Haney was maid of honor to the bride and wore a frock of American Beauty taffeta, modeled with a cowl neck, tight bodice and full skirt. Her flowers harmonized with the dress and she wore flowers of the same choice in her hair.

Misses Betty Barker, sister of the bride, Betty Seale, Nancy Spiller of Junction and Catherine Davis of Haskell were bridesmaids. Their dresses were fashioned after the same pattern as the maid of honor's and Misses Barker and Seale wore rose taffeta while Miss Spiller and Miss Davis wore aqua. Their skirts were worn over hoops. Misses Barker and Seale carried colonial bouquets of aqua carnations with the same flowers in their hair and Misses Spiller and Davis' bouquets were of pink carnations with the same flowers forming the hair dress.

Little Miss Judy Barker, sister of the bride, served as flower girl, and was dressed in aqua taffeta with pink carnations in her hair and strewed rose petals before the bride. M. L. Speer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Speer, was train-bearer.

At the close of the ceremony, the couple knelt at the prayer bench for the prayer and as Miss Haney sang "The Lord's Prayer," Fred Linn of Chicago, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man, Joe Seales and Alton Reeder Griffin were ushers and candlelighters.

Mrs. Barker, mother of the bride, wore a taupe ensemble with brown accessories and a camellia corsage while Mrs. Roth, mother of the groom, was attired in a dark blue dress with black accessories and a camellia corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker, parents of the bride, entertained at a reception following the marriage, at the Adelpian Clubhouse. Guests were received at the door by Mrs. C. V. Barker and presented to the receiving line, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Sam Roth, the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linn, Fred Bell, Mrs. Leon Speer and the members of the wedding party.

Mrs. J. H. Gillespie presided at the bride's book and Mrs. Otto Davenport showed guests into the dining room where the satin damask covered table was centered with the pretty three-tiered wedding cake which was decorated in rose and aqua, the prevailing colors of the wedding. The cake set on a maline base and the miniature bride and groom stood under a tiny wedding bell. Huckleberry entwined with baby mums with feverfew tied in the love knots of white ribbon festooned the table. Mrs. T. S. Haney cut the cake and Mrs. A. E. Barker poured punch. Misses Betty Barker and Betty Seale assisted in serving.

Other members of the house party included Mrs. C. G. Graves and Mrs. John White. White flowers further adorned the reception rooms. One hundred and five guests registered. For going-away, Mrs. Bell wore a suit of beige gabardine with dark brown accessories. Her corsage was white orchids. The couple left for a short wedding trip to San Antonio and other Texas points. They will, upon their return, establish residence in Crowell, where Mr. Bell is employed at Wm. Cameron Lumber Co.

Both bride and groom are Crowell High School graduates. Mrs. Bell attended Texas Christian University at Fort Worth and a business college in Dallas and is now employed as bookkeeper at the Farmers' Gin. Mr. Bell attended Decatur Baptist College and Baylor University. He served in the U. S. Navy for two years. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Sam Roth and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linn and son, Howard, of Chicago, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Dan Campbell of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Favor of Quanah, Phil Shultz of Houston, Furd Halsell of Lubbock, Richard Stripling of Levelland, and Jacques Donnell of Breckenridge.

ZONE MEETING AT THALIA
The zone meeting of the Woman's Societies of the Methodist Churches will be held in the Thalia Methodist Church on Thursday, Oct. 8, beginning at 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Raymond Bell, president, urges the attendance of all the women in the zone. A splendid program has been planned and a covered dish luncheon will be served at the noon hour.

Coke Party Honors Recent Bride and Bride-Elect Friday

Mrs. Gordon Bell named as joint honorees at a Coke party given at her home on Friday afternoon, Mrs. J. T. Hughston, a recent bride, and Miss Ruth Barker, the bride-elect of Howard Bell, whose marriage was an event of Saturday evening.

Additional honor guests were Mrs. Sam Roth of Chicago, Ill., mother of the groom-elect, Miss Catherine Davis of Haskell, Mrs. Q. D. Williams of Truscott, Miss Martha Hampton of Vernon, Miss Sharon Haney and Miss Betty Barker.

Served with the Cokes were dainty sandwiches and cookies, miniature mugs filled with cocktail nuts and with a wedding symbol tied on the handle, were used as plate favors.

The tiny napkins held a bride and groom, symbolic of the wedding theme.

Rehearsal Dinner Honors Miss Barker and Howard Bell

To honor Miss Ruth Barker and Howard Bell who were married on Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Speer were host and hostess at the rehearsal dinner given in the Speer home on Friday evening, Sept. 23.

Places were marked at lovely appointed tables which were centered with arrangements of dark red carnations. The bride's table held a larger arrangement of the same flowers. A satin ribbon of the same color of the flowers, extended the length of the bride's table and was inscribed "Ruth Howard." Candles in crystal holders provided illumination for the dinner.

A lovely two-course dinner was served buffet style. At the bride's table, the bride and groom-elect were seated, as were Misses Sharon Haney, Betty Barker and Nancy Spiller of Junction, Alton Reeder Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linn of Chicago, Ill., sister and brother-in-law of Mr. Bell.

At quartet tables the following guests were seated: Rev. N. B. Moon, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Barker, Mrs. Sam Roth of Chicago, mother of the groom, Mrs. A. L. Rucker, Leon Speer, Joe Seales, Miss Betty Seale, Miss Catherine Davis of Haskell and Richard Stripling of Levelland. Following the dinner, the bride and groom-elect exchanged gifts and presented their attendants with appropriate gifts. Mr. Bell gave his fiancée a pearl necklace, while she presented him with silver tie pin and cuff links. She gave her bridesmaids bracelets and her maid attendants were presented cuff links and the best man was given a tie clasp and cuff links, by the groom-elect.

HENRY CIRCLE MEETS

The Henry Circle of the Methodist W. S. C. S. met on Monday, Sept. 26, in the home of Mrs. M. S. Henry, the sponsor.

In presenting the devotional, Mrs. Henry used the parable of the talents from Matthew 25: 14-30 as a reminder to each one that the talents one had must be used or they will be lost.

"Japan Begins Again" is the missionary unit of study for the quarter and Mrs. Henry Borchardt gave a review of the first half of the book. The second half of the book will be reviewed at the next regular circle meeting.

Two new members were present, Mrs. Winston Simmonds and Mrs. Earl Manard. Several presents brought gifts for the box which is to be sent to the Bethlehem Center.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

On Wednesday, Sept. 21, Mrs. C. W. Thompson and Mrs. T. B. Klepper were hostesses to the Columbian Club at the home of Mrs. Thompson.

Twenty-six members enjoyed the meeting which was one of unusual interest. In the business meeting which preceded the program, Mrs. S. T. Crews, as chairman of the piano committee, reported that the new piano, which the club had purchased in conjunction with the School Board, had been placed in the High School auditorium and was now in use and was found to be satisfactory both in quality and appearance.

The old piano was a gift of the Columbian Club about 35 years ago. Sponsoring music in the school has also called for phonograph records and prizes.

The main feature of the meeting was a lecture by Miss Eudora Hawkins of the West Texas Utilities Co., who was introduced by Mrs. J. T. Carter, program leader. Miss Hawkins showed three films, two of them being "Our America" and "Going Places."

Miss Hawkins is a convincing speaker and aroused interest in her listeners concerning their responsibilities as American citizens. She is welcomed as a return speaker.

The hostesses served a delicious salad plate to the members and guests present. Mrs. R. L. Leonard of Memphis, Tenn., was an out-of-town guest, as well as Miss Hawkins, Mrs. Hines Clark and Mrs. T. L. Hughston will be hostesses for the next meeting which will be at the home of Mrs. Hines Clark on October 5th.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

The Adelpian Club held its first regular meeting of the club year on Wednesday, September 21, at the Club house with Mrs. E. C. King and Miss Florence Black as hostesses.

"The American Home" is the course of study for the year. Mrs. W. B. Tysinger as leader introduced Mrs. Hubert Brown who reviewed the book, "Natchez on the Mississippi" by Harnett Thomas Kane. She told something of the history and the families of some of the famous mansions of the southern states. Mrs. Brown, who made the Natchez Pilgrimage last spring, also brought highlights of her trip.

In keeping with the program theme, Mrs. Crockett Fox sang Jerome Kern's "Ole Man River" being accompanied by Mrs. William Riels.

Refreshments were served to twenty-seven members and one guest, Mrs. Joe W. Beverly of San Antonio.

There are nearly 180,000,000 acres in the 152 national forests in the United States.

Noah's Ark was built of gopher wood.
