WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

(By Congressman Ed Gossett)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1950—I was made very happy this week when the Senate by a vote of 64 to 27 passed the Gossett-Lodge Amendment to abolish the Electoral College. It is my hope to get this Resolution acted upon in the House within the next few weeks. If we secure a two-thirds vote in the House, the Amendment will then be submitted to the State Legislatures for action, and when, ratified by three-fourths of the State Legislatures, it will then become a part of the Constitution. In my opinion, it is one of the most badly needed reforms in our whole structure of government. Under the present system, the big cities of New York and Chicago largely control national politics.

A great many of my friends in Congress, both Democrats and Republicans, keep asking—"how will this Amendment affect our party?" The real question is, how will it affect our country?

Under it, elections will be fair, honest and accurate. One votes for whomever he pleases and his vote is counted. Any party that cannot survive under such a fair and democratic system, does not deserve to survive. Some of the Republican leaders who oppose the Amendment seem to me to be stupidly shortsighted. The Republican party at this time is a sectional party. It cannot survive as a sectional party. If and when this amendment becomes law, the Republican party can become a national party by writing a platform that will appeal to people throughout the nation.

Southern States will greatly benefit because they will no longer be kicked around by the Yankee politicians in both parties. For years, to our sorrow and embarrassment, the South has been used as a sort of whipping boy.

Today, the headlines in the Washington papers screamed of the British scientist giving H-bomb secrets to the Russians. In today's mail I got a letter from a very fine lady, deploring our President's decision to develop the H-bomb, said to be far more devastating than the Atom bomb. These things, of course, are terrible to contemplate. However, it has long been my conviction that we got into World War II, primarily because our enemies thought; first, they could bluff us; or, second, if they couldn't bluff us, they could whip us.

The town bully never started a fight with a fellow whom he knew he couldn't bluff or couldn't whip. No aggressor is going to attack us unless he thinks he can win.

A friend of mine who claims to be well-informed in the premises, says that Russia can now defeat America hands down—that they can practically wipe us out in thirty minutes. Our military experts disagree with this conclusion. The reply is that if Russia had this power, she would unquestionably use it. They feel that when Russia is confident of the ability to destroy America, she will turn the dogs loose.

Thus, it seems that our only hope of peace is to be so strong that no nation will dare attack us. It's too bad that certain "pinks" in our government have tried to betray us heretofore.

Most Congressmen have felt sure from the beginning that Mr. Hiss was unquestionably guilty. Incidentally, it was a Committee of Congress that developed the Hiss case. At the same time, the House Committee on Un-American Activities learned that a man named "White" who was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury under Morgenthau, was also a member of this gang of "pinks." "Mr. White's" name was not White. He was a Russian who had changed his name. He supposedly was the author of the "Morgenthau Plan" which many people think prolonged the war many months and made the re-building of a democratic Germany impossible. You will recall that the "Morgenthau Plan" announced months before the war was over, was that it was our intention to completely obliterate the German industries and reduce the German nation to agricultural peasants. Through our concessions to the Russians at Yalta and Potsdam, we permitted them to carry out such a policy in their part of Germany and we almost carried out such a policy in the Allied section of Germany. Now, we are bringing around, trying to build up a Communist aggression.

It's high time we stopped aiding Communism with one hand, while trying to fight Communism with the other hand. Certainly we should but Americans should be placed in positions of power or responsibility within this Government.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Johnson Wednesday morning for New Orleans, La., where they will sail on an eleven-day cruise to Havana, Cuba, Guatemala and Honduras, Central America.

C. H. S. Cagers Add Two More Victories to Record

The Crowell High School basketball team added two more victories to its record two weeks ago when it defeated the Wildcats 55 to 22 in a conference game here last Friday night, and took the measure of the Iowa Park Hawks here on Tuesday night to the tune of 45 to 30.

Jim Paul Norman, Crowell center, led in scoring against the Hawks with fifteen points. The Chillicothe boys did not play nearly as good ball here as they did at Chillicothe last week. However, the Cats were in top form.

The Crowell boys presented a poor exhibition of passing in the Iowa Park game Tuesday night, and they were missing lots of shots that should have been good. However, the Hawks were playing without the services of two of their regulars due to illness and the Cats had very little trouble winning the game by a fifteen point margin. Gordon Wood Bell, substitute center for Crowell, sparked the Crowell team out of its first quarter slump. Iowa Park was leading by four points at the beginning of the second quarter.

The Crowell girls continued with their winning ways by defeating both Chillicothe and Iowa Park in volleyball ball. They defeated Chillicothe 15 to 9, and 15 to 12. They won the first set against the Hawks 15 to 9, lost the second set 15 to 9, and came from behind to take the third set 16 to 14.

The Crowell B team defeated the Iowa Park B team in basketball by the lopsided score of 43 to 12. Bobby Jack Stinebaugh led in scoring in this game with thirteen points. The Crowell Freshman team, composed of Roy Whitley, Don Gobin, Ginger Johnson, Martin Langham and Billy Marlow, played about half of this game and made a good showing.

Crowell has its last game of the season at Seymour tomorrow night in both basketball and volleyball. The Crowell boys won their basketball game against Seymour earlier in the season, and the Crowell girls were defeated by the Seymour girls. Both of these contests are District 9-A conference games.

Mayor Proclaims Feb. 13-18 Heart Week in Crowell

Mayor Hubert C. Brown has issued a proclamation setting aside the week of Feb. 13 to 17 as Heart Week in cooperation with the campaign to combat the ravages of heart ailments throughout the nation.

Mayor Brown states that inasmuch as disease of the heart and blood vessels constitutes the nation's most important medical and public health problem in that it affects more persons than any other disease and leads all others as a cause of death and inasmuch as the week of Feb. 14 each year is being sponsored by the American Heart Association as American Heart Week he proclaims the week beginning Feb. 13, as Heart Week and calls upon schools, civic associations, churches, scientific bodies, business establishments and the people generally, to observe the week with proper activities.

Mrs. Mike Brown, Foard County Heart chairman, active in plans and work toward cooperation to the full extent of her committee in making the campaign a success in every way, has appointed Mrs. Crockett Fox and Mrs. Henry Borchardt to aid her in Crowell. Mrs. Sherman McBeath will direct the campaign in Thalia. Lee Black will serve as treasurer. Red hearts have been placed at various points throughout town and it is hoped that anyone who can help the great cause will in every way help.

The goal of the Association is the prevention of disability and death from heart and circulatory disease. Heart research always has and still is a primary necessity. Ninety per cent of all damaged hearts are the result of either rheumatic fever, high blood pressure or hardening of the arteries. What causes them, however, is still unknown. The need is for research and research takes money. The forward movement of the attack on heart disease must be hastened and through our efforts.

Austin Highlights

(By Senator George Moffett)

Austin, Texas, Feb. 6—Members of the Legislature have done some serious thinking in these early days of the thirty-day special session. Most of us are convinced that the people of Texas want suitable steps taken to care for the more than twenty-two thousand inmates of the state's eleemosynary institutions, which include state orphanages (both white and colored), state tubercular sanitariums, epileptic institutions, schools for the blind, deaf and feeble minded, as well as the large institutions for the adult mentally ill.

There are more than twenty of these institutions in Texas. Some of the buildings are more than seventy years old. Very little construction was done during the depression and almost none during the war period because of the scarcity of labor and materials. It is the state's plain duty to start a suitable building program to relieve crowded conditions in the above named institutions.

The Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools which supervises the above named institutions estimates that at least forty million dollars is needed for buildings and equipment. However, most members of the Legislature believe that this building program should be carried out over a period of years so that the cost will be spread out over a reasonable time.

The state's present financial shortage has been brought about partly because of a decrease in the demand for crude oil. In the fiscal year of 1946, the tax on crude oil alone brought thirty-seven million dollars into the state treasury. In 1949 it brought eighty-seven million dollars, a fifty-million dollar difference. In 1950, the revenue from the crude oil tax will be much less than in 1949 because of smaller demand for Texas crude oil. Foreign oil is being imported into our country in great quantities and nationwide conditions are such that not as much crude oil is being consumed as was the case one year ago.

These two factors (imports of crude oil and decreased consumption) will bring about a decrease in the state's revenues and are partly responsible for the necessity of raising new taxes. One proposed method of securing the needed revenue is to increase the tax on cigarettes a penny a package. Texas now collects three cents per package. All of our neighboring states now have at least a four cent tax on cigarettes and some have eight. In addition, there has been proposed a 10 per cent increase in the present rate of taxation upon oil, gas, sulphur, carbon black, automobile transfers, etc., to provide operating expenses for the eleemosynary institutions. These are substantially the Governor's recommendations.

I personally would appreciate an expression from you concerning the best course for the Legislature to take in solving this serious problem.

BRAINLESS LEAVES SCHOOL

George Brainless had turned his books in at school. He left the school house and got into his car. He was happy and care-free, no more algebra lessons to bring up, no more English to study, and no more history to read. Mrs. H. was an old battle ax and Mr. Z. a drip.

He stopped by the lumber yard to see Mr. Jones to get a job. "Sorry, a high school education is required," was Mr. Jones' answer.

"Well," thought George, "who wanted to work in a lumber yard anyway?"

George went down to the contractor's house. When he left, the answer was ringing in his ears, "Sorry, a high school education is required."

George went home to speak to his father about getting a job. His father told George that almost any job required at least a high school education. George did not feel so well now. He went to bed that night thinking about it.

Early the next day found George at school checking out his books. I passed by the office and heard the superintendent and George talking. "Well, George, didn't you find a job to suit you?" the superintendent asked.

"Yes, I found a job to suit me, but I didn't have the education to qualify for the job," replied George. He walked out of the office and went to history class with a new outlook.

BAND ELECTS SWEETHEART

With the echoes of the words, "Speech! Speech!" ringing in her ears, your wandering reporter found herself peeping in the auditorium from whence the sounds came. The view which greeted her eyes was the band class seated on the stage. But who was that gorgeous brunette who was standing before the class and from whom a speech was expected? Was she a movie star from Hollywood who was here to give the band members a word of encouragement in their music?

My curiosity overcame my timidity, and I soon found myself in the auditorium approaching the stage, so that I might get a better view of this gorgeous creature. Imagine my amazement when I found her to be one of my own friends, Mildred Tamplen!

But why was she making a speech? As she hesitated and blushed with embarrassment, I drew one of the band members aside and asked for an explanation. After a very hurried, whispered conversation, I found Mildred had been elected Band Sweetheart and was being presented to the band.

After the meeting, I interviewed Mildred. Even though she was thrilled over being band sweetheart, she seemed the same, sweet, modest girl. She told me her favorite food is fried chicken. She likes to sew and dislikes most of all conceited people. Her school wardrobe consists of many skirts and dresses of red. This is her favorite color. While listening to the strains of "I Can Dream, Can't I" she dreams about Montgomery Clift, her favorite actor. She thinks Olivia de Havilland is tops along with the movie, "Gone With the Wind."

The band plans to present their next sweetheart publicly at their next band concert.

AMONETT ELECTS ATHLETICS

Red-haired Coach Amonett paused in the American history lesson and turned to answer a question. "I've always liked sports," he said, "I guess that's my best reason for being a coach."

Partly because of his coaches and because he knew he could not participate in sports all of his life, he decided while he was in high school that he would like to be an athletic instructor.

Attending high school at Flo-mot, Texas, he played baseball, basketball, four years of football and went out for track.

At Texas Tech, he played right or left halfback in football for three years under the coaching of Pete Cauthon and Dale Morgan. It was these coaches and his high school coach, Leo Jack, that finally made him determined to be a coach.

After college, the Detroit Lions, a professional football team, claimed him for a season. It was then that he began his career as an athletics instructor. After coaching one year at Matador and one at Ralls, he accepted the position of coach in CHS. "Coach," in his one season, has proved himself to the school as not only a capable coach and teacher, but the high school students rate him as tops.

LIBRARY BOOKS FEATURE SPORTS STORIES

Are you interested in reading sports stories? If so, there are some very interesting books in the library. Some of them are "American Boy Sports" by Doubleday, "Esquire's First Sports Reader," by Barnes, "Best Sports Stories of 1944" by Marsh, "Teen-Age Sports Stories" by Owen.

Some of the baseball stories are the following: "America Through the Short Story" by Brawley, "Strikeout Story" by Bob Feller, "How to Make the Varsity" by Pasha, "Starting Pitcher" by Decker, "Fielder from Nowhere" by Scholz, "Highpockets" by Tunis, "Kid Comes Back" by Tunis.

The basketball stories are "How to Coach and Play Basketball" by Ruby. The football stories are "How to Make Varsity" by Pasha, "Knute Rockne, Man Builder" by Sahlde-reher, "Football Coach" by Sampson, "All Conference Tackle" by Jackson, "Goal to Go" by Scholz, "All American" by Tunis.

INQUIRING REPORTER

Who is your favorite sports hero? In a poll taken in Crowell High School last Monday, Doak Walker tops the list, our own Dick Todd rates second and coming in a close third is another SMU player, Kyle Rote.

You will notice that CHS's best liked sport, football, is revealed in the students' choice of their favorite sports hero.

The next three places are filled by a baseball player, another grid-iron man, and a golfer, in that order. They are Joe DiMaggio, Len Hart and Plucky Ben Hogan.

TERRIFIC TOP TEN

As I wandered down the hall during the third and fourth periods, I heard a noise that seemed to be a thousand woodpeckers at work. As I rounded the corner, I found that it was the typing class. Mr. Black is the teacher of this class, and his big job is to keep his eye on the look-out for students who erase.

After wandering around among the rows of typewriters, I strolled up to Mr. Black's desk to find out how his students are comparing to students of years passed. He stated that the typing class of '49 and '50 is the best he has ever taught. He couldn't be partial though, could he?

I inquired around about the lessons a student types, and I found that he types letters, legal papers, and speed tests. At the latter part of the year the student types for every department of a large firm that is called the National Company of Chicago, Illinois.

The ten highest students in the class according to lessons typed and speed are Bobbie Abston, Virginia McKown, E. W. Kidd, Mary Rader, Jimmy Cates, F. L. Ballard, Rozella Autry, Frankie Mabe, Mildred Tamplen and Betty Joyce Harper.

Ten students from Crowell are to be entered in the National typing contest and a fee of thirty-five cents paid. To get a credit in typing, a student must make 33 words per minute at the end of the year.

As I left the typing class, I thought of how fortunate we are to have such a fine typing department. Many students are able to walk out of typing class and into an office after their graduation.

BAND ENJOYS NEW HALL

During the fifth period on Monday, did anyone else miss the noises that usually emerge from the auditorium? As I entered the auditorium, I found that it was dark and gloomy on the stage where usually there are the forty-two members of the Crowell Wildcat Band sitting. What had happened? Had they been banished to some jungle island in the Pacific? Then suddenly I remembered. Today was the day they were playing in their band hall!

I strolled out to the building that is situated at the north end of the campus near the football field. I was greeted at the door by Miss Close who conducted me through. The upper wall and ceiling are of light blue with the lower part of the walls a darker blue. These colors are accented by the grey woodwork. While I was there, the band played "Thondara Over-ture." After being in the auditorium, they have to play much softer because of the smaller amount

WHAT sterling is to silver, the Fashion Academy of New York is to the world of fashion—the last word! And again for 1950, as for 1949, it has selected the Ford Car to receive its distinguished gold medal award as "Fashion Car of the Year." There is, we believe, no greater proof of the beauty of the '50 Ford. And there's no greater proof of its fine performance than a 10-minute "test drive." Your Ford Dealer will be glad to arrange it.

For those who don't know, the band hall is the Four Corner's school house. It was moved in before Christmas, and the last month has been spent painting and repairing.

Miss Close wants everyone to know that all students and parents are welcome to visit the band hall.

PROGRESS MADE ON ROUNDUP

The Wildcat staff received an interesting news item from the PE wire today (Pony Express, that is). The wire was slowed up by an encounter with a couple of mule trains, but the news came through by a fast rider. It was from the CHS students who are out on the now famous "Roundup" assignment.

This "Roundup" of CHS has been going on since September. The boss, Rondyn Self, has been working as hard as any of the "hands." The commission agents, sales managers, Don Wilkins and Joe Setliff, did a good job of raising expense money for the long trail drive to the publishers. In fact, they did such a good job that we shall have an 88 page account of this year's activities rather than a 68 page one.

The trail blazers, photographers, Betty Barker and Wayne Shultz, have worked with the boss and our commercial photographer, Jimmy Ashford, in obtaining interesting pictures. After battling wind and sand, the Boss and photographers are especially proud of the class officer pictures.

The rest of the Roundup Staff have been working faithfully; however their assignment is far from complete. The finishing touches will require patience and much skill.

As the Roundup nears completion, anxious dudes have been inquiring about the date of publication and contents.

It will be on the market the first of May and sales manager Jean Gamble will accept your bids, not to exceed four dollars.

What's her secret desire? To visit a dude ranch, one of the swanky ones.

SENIOR BOY OF THE WEEK

One of the efficient Roundup business managers is the object of this week's senior boy column.

Joe Ray Setliff is the name of the blue eyed, blonde object of our attentions. He likes to wear sports clothes and especially likes green. Third, fourth and sixth periods are his favorites. No, he doesn't have a study hall then; he has typing and geometry. In the gastronomy division, Joe Ray expresses a yen for crisp, golden fried chicken and tart, homemade cherry pie.

June Haver's singing of "Don't Cry, Joe" to the music of Xavier Cugat's band might not sound so good, but separately, these are his three musical likes.

Next year Joe Ray will attend either ACC or Texas Tech. Someday he wants to own his own business.

be played at Seymour.

WILDCAT PURRS

Have you met Perry, the wind, or Uncle Snow, or Aunt Lake, or even that Drip, the Rain? These interesting characters and many more are the product of the Soil Conservation theme that the students of CHS are writing to enter in the contest.

Jimmy Hall is wondering why Virginia can't glance in his way every once in a while.

Who has Don Gobin got his eyes set on?

We hear some of the teachers look forward to the week-ends. If you don't believe us, just ask Miss Turney or Miss Chesher.

Essie and Joe Bill were seen Saturday night. This could develop into a steady.

New romance has sprung in CHS, Jean Gamble and Jon Sanders.

Wonder if Norma Jean and Melba had a good time in Quannah Saturday night?

Seems as though Rosella Denton has her eye on a certain sophomore boy, namely Elwin Setliff.

Did anybody take the "dips" Saturday night other than Donna, Jean, Neil and Marcia?

Would anyone know whether Martin Langham has a girl friend or not? A little brunette named Lois Eavenson would like to know.

We hear Donna has received quite a few letters from El Paso since Lowell left.

It seems the younger generation is taking over where James left off. Seen at the ball game Saturday night were Kay Cribbs and Lindell McBeath.

Miss Turney gave V. A. Smith a part in a play that called for him to be dressed in a sarong. The night of the play came, and he dressed in a sari. After the play, feeling much embarrassment, he came up to Miss Turney and said, "All I can say is I sari I was sarong."

Billy Ray Latimer certainly does swoon when he sees Carolyn Bell? Wonder why?

Jamile and Margaret Caram have "hulled" them a good looking boy friend. Tell us more.

Helen Ribble and Jimmy Eversen are doing "okey."

Some cute freshman boys who have finally decided that being bashful doesn't pay are: Wannie Hall, Kenneth Hopkins, James Hall, James Hallmark, Antone Kajs and Billy Marlow.

Does anyone else wish Lewis Hunter would have another dance? Mary Ermine has eyes for Floyd Porter only.

Doyle McNeese seems to be getting alone just fine with new girls from Truscott.

Gene Paul Pogue seems to be quite interested in Mary Lou Woods.

Don Brown, His name is Brown. Need we say more.

Don't you think Billy B. Pruitt and Ruth MacRae would make a cute couple?

We wonder why Joyce Hinkle won't let us in on her secret heart flame?

Jimmy Woods think he and Geraldine Schmittou could get along fine.

Doyle Sparks and Pat Deedy were seen together Sunday night.

Lana Short is a cute freshman that is undated.

Is Allen Hinkle playing hard to get or do girls even interest him?

Duane Cates spends his time either in Vernon or dreaming he's in Vernon with a certain brunet.

Leonard Myers, we admit Eva Rae Geaslin is your size, but Donald Werley seems to have the same opinion.

There is a certain senior girl who wants to know how old Clinton Marlow is.

We certainly appreciated all the scandal we found in the locker this week.

Hey girls! Beware, Arthur Marlow is not bad looking. He is "dear" hunting, too.

SIDE SPLITTERS

"Dearest Mary Alice," wrote Jimmy Louis, "I could swim the mighty ocean for one glance from your lovely eyes. I could walk through a wall of flame for one touch of your little hand. I would leap the widest stream for a word from your lips. As always, Your Own Jimmy."

"P. S. I'll be over to see you tomorrow night, if it doesn't rain."

Mrs. Sloan: Really, H. L., your writing gets worse all the time.

H. L.: Well, Mrs. Sloan, if I wrote any better, you'd be finding fault with my spelling.

One atomic bomb reduced Hiroshima, a city of 350,000 population to shambles.

BANQUET PLANS IN PROGRESS

The Juniors met Friday at the first period to discuss plans for the Junior-Senior Banquet. No definite date was set, but the banquet will be the latter part of April on a Friday when there is no baseball game.

A theme has been chosen for the banquet, but as yet it is a secret to be revealed to the Seniors later. Finances for the banquet are being taken care of by the Juniors.

Judging from the progress made so far, the banquet should be one of the most decorative affairs of the year.

ABSENCES

Absences in high school for the past week for one day or more include the following: Robert Brock, Jamile Caram, Margaret Caram, John Diggs, Glen Jones, Marcia Kincaid, Montez Laquey, Billy E. Lynch, Arthur Marlow, Virginia McKown, Floyd Porter, Dee Powers, Doyle Sparks and Joe Williams. The following have been absent for only one-half day: Dowal Parks, Helen Ribble and James Weathers.

SENIOR GIRL OF THE WEEK

Sweet sixteen is the age of petite Joyce Hinkle. Born on Aug. 22, 1933, she has had ample time to make up her mind about the important things of life, and some things which are more frivolous. The important things include a desire to attend Draughon's and become a secretary. Perhaps this is why typing is Joyce's favorite subject.

The frivolous things she likes are chocolate ice cream, stories about teen agers, Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy, green, Gordon MacRae, summer, simple clothes, climbing hills, football (did someone say frivolous?), and Christmas—'cause then she gets to see Santa Claus.

BLACK AND GOLD VOLLEY BALL JACKETS DAZZLE EYES MONDAY

Meandering through the halls Monday, I heard shrieks of joy and felt the vibration of running feet. When I recovered from my shock, I followed the sounds to the office. I soon found the solution to the mystery; the CHS volleyball squad had received their long-awaited jackets.

I finally managed to see the jackets for 1950. They are of a wool felt material, carrying out the Crowell colors of black and gold. The body of the jackets are of solid black with a tiny gold trim on the pockets. The big gold "C" on the jackets is very outstanding bearing the letterman stripes. The sleeves are of solid gold with knit wool cuffs. The buttons are a dark old gold color.

We are now wondering what will happen to the "old" volleyball jackets? Will it be like the football boys, letting the "old flame" wear last year's jackets?

WEDDING BELLS RING IN CHS

Congratulations to Willy and Faye! CHS wishes them much happiness and success.

GYM JANES

The Chillicothe Eagles were again defeated by the Crowell Wildcats Friday in a home game. This was the second time the Eagles were defeated in one week by the Wildcats. Three sets were played, with the Wildcats accomplishing the victory by winning the first and last set.

Girls participating in the game were Violet Rummel, Myrtle Bartley, Joline Lanier, Laverne Owens, Betty Barker, Tommie Meason, Mary Matus and Joyzell Thomson.

Tuesday, Feb. 7, the Iowa Park Hawks come to Crowell for a non-conference practice game with the Wildcats.

Friday, February 10, will be the last game of the season and will

Stanolind Oil and Gas Co. Sets Safety Record During 1949

Tulsa, Okla., Jan. 25, 1950—Employees of Stanolind Oil and Gas Company set a new safety record during 1949, it was announced by Stanolind president, E. F. Bullard.

The 7,004 employees worked a total of 14,924,486 hours with only 48 lost-time accidents during the year. This resulted in an accident frequency rate of 3.22, as compared with the company's previous record low of 3.39, which was established in 1948. The frequency rate indicates the number of disabling injuries for each million man-hours of work.

While the number of man-hours worked by Stanolind employees has steadily increased in the last few years, thus presenting more

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I wish to correct or forestall any wrong conclusions that may be drawn from some statements made by my late brother, John Ford, during his last illness at the Foard County Hospital in Crowell. I have been told that in his delirium he stated he wanted to get out of the hospital—that his father died in the penitentiary, and he did not want to die in prison.

The true facts are that my father fought through the Civil War as a Confederate soldier and was captured by the Federal soldiers near the close of the war and was placed in the Federal prison at Little Rock, Ark., where he died later.

Faye Jones and Billy Earl Lynch Wed at Bride's Home

Miss Faye Jones and Billy Earl Lynch were married Saturday evening, February 4, in an impressive candlelight service performed at twilight in the home of the bride's parents in Thalia. Rev. H. N. Estes, pastor of the Thalia Baptist Church, directed the couple in the exchange of their marriage vows.

A low altar table holding runners of ivory and flanked by tall white tapers centered the altar space before double windows. On each side of this central arrangement were tall baskets of pink and white gladioli, fern and greenery and tall candelabra holding burning white tapers.

Little Misses Greta Jones of Childress and Donna Day of Rattan, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles. Miss Bobbie Abston of Crowell, pianist, played soft strains of "Always" while the candles were being lighted. She also played the traditional wedding march and accompanied Miss Myra Self of Thalia, who sang "Maybe It's Because," the couple's love song.

The bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a navy blue crepe dress with a white lace yoke and accessories of winter white. Her jewelry consisted of an heirloom cameo necklace belonging to a maternal grandmother, Mrs. Frank McNair, and a gold bracelet on which was a tiny heart and key, a gift of the groom. She carried out the tradition of wearing something old, new, borrowed and blue. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. T. B. Quillin of Vernon attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a grey crepe dress with green accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. Jack Lynch of Paducah attended his double cousin as best man.
