Will Wilson Making Vigorous Campaign

Austin, July 8 (Spl.) — Texas has seen much of Will Wilson for a long time. The Dallas County District Attorney, who is candidate for the Supreme Court, has campaigned vigorously in West and South Texas since he announced his candidacy in Austin the latter part of May. His plans include visits to East Texas and other sections of the state during his campaign tour.

"Justice is the only thing that a candidate for the Texas Supreme Court can promise voters," Wilson stated in addressing the Army and Navy Association in San Antonio Thursday. "I pledge, if elected, to add my efforts to those of the present court, toward this end."

Wilson, the only veteran in the race, returned from World War II service in the Southwest Pacific with a desire to enter public life. He was elected Dallas County District Attorney in a five-man race in 1946, and re-elected two years later by an overwhelming majority.

His drive in Dallas against organized crime has attracted national attention. Formerly president of the District and County Attorney's association of Texas, Wilson is now chairman of the Texas Bar Association's steering committee to modernize the State Penal Code.

It is the government policy to let off income tax evaders who confess their error before the government starts a check-up.

Farm Program Views Noted by McDonald

Veteran Commissioner of Agriculture, J. E. McDonald, has definite views on a national farm program.

He believes in a two-price system for marketing agricultural products—a full parity price for that portion allotted for consumption in the United States, this allotment to be made in units such as bales, bushels or pounds and not in acres—and the farmer left free to produce in excess of American needs for sale in foreign markets at world market prices.

McDonald believes that each commodity should finance its own program.

"Cotton should finance the cotton program," McDonald explained. "Wheat the wheat program, etc., making it unnecessary for Congress to appropriate funds out of the Federal treasury."

"This program would enable the American farmer to have purchasing power with which to live by American standards and, at the same time, place him in the best position to maintain and extend foreign markets for our agricultural products, which is so essential for full employment on the farm and in the factory."

"Any farm program that does not benefit other essential American groups as it does the farmer himself will fail and should fail," according to the Texas Commissioner of Agriculture.

George Sand said, "When tempted, yield at once, and save yourself the struggle."

NEW CHRYSLER TRAVELER

The Chrysler Traveler, new all-purpose vehicle now included in the Chrysler line. Fold-down rear seat quickly converts the new model from a comfortable 6-passenger sedan to a smart 3-passenger sports car or utility vehicle with spacious cargo area extending from rear of front seat into the luggage compartment. Additional cargo space is provided by luggage rack mounted on roof.

Traveler Added to Chrysler Line of Automobiles

The utility of a spacious cargo carrier and the smartness of a comfortable passenger sedan are combined in the new Traveler, just added to the Chrysler line.

The new model features a unique rear-seat arrangement that permits the rear passenger compartment to be combined with the luggage compartment, providing a large space for carrying cargo. Additional load space is provided by a luggage rack mounted on the roof of the vehicle.

The rear-seat cushion of the Chrysler Traveler is hinged so that it can turn up against the front-seat back. The back cushion of the rear seat is hinged at the bottom, so that it can be swung down on a level with the luggage compartment floor, extending the cargo area from the rear of the front seat to the trunk lid.

For greater convenience, two positions are provided to carry the spare tire and wheel. A storage well for the spare is located on the right of the luggage compartment and provision is also made to carry it in a vertical position next to the left rear door.

With its unusual utility features, the new vehicle is expected to be of particular usefulness to farmers, salesmen, merchants, and owners of small businesses who can quickly convert the car from a spacious cargo carrier for work to a comfortable 6-passenger, 4-

For Re-Election As Associate Justice of Civil Appeals Court

In another column of this issue appears the announcement of Judge W. N. Stokes for re-election as Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals of this supreme judicial district. The court is located at Amarillo. Judge Stokes is well known in this section of the state. He enjoyed a successful law practice at Vernon for a number of years. He was appointed by the Governor as District Judge of the Forty-sixth Judicial District, composed of Wilbarger, Hardeman and Foard counties, and served in that capacity for eight years when he was appointed by the Governor to his present position on the Court of Civil Appeals. He has been a member of that court during the last thirteen years, having been twice elected since his appointment by the Governor. In addition to his service as judge on the courts, he was appointed by the Governor in 1940 as a member of the Texas Civil Judicial Council and has served in that capacity for ten years in addition to his duties as a member of the appeals court. The duties of the Council are to make constant study of the laws and court system of the state and submit recommendations annually to the Governor, the Legislature and the Supreme Court as to such changes in the laws of the state as, in its judgment, should be made.

Nelson Seeks Place on Criminal Court

Former State Senator G. H. (Hobart) Nelson of Lubbock County is spending the last days before the July 22 primary campaigning in his native North East Texas for Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Nelson, who has been honored by the people of West Texas as county attorney, district attorney and state senator, was reared in Cass County. He was educated in the public schools of Cass County,

Ramsey Campaigns for Lieut. Governor

Ben Ramsey, former Secretary of State and candidate for lieutenant governor, is moving into the favorite's position in the race, the Lufkin Daily News said in an editorial.

As Ramsey completed another campaign swing in his whirl tour of the state, he reported although the news from the can battlefields had overshadowed interest in politics, he was encouraged by the pledges of support he was receiving across the state.

His most recent campaign carried Ramsey through a portion of East Texas, winding at his hometown, San Antonio. The editorial in the Lufkin Daily News endorsing Ramsey's candidacy for lieutenant governor in part.

"Ramsey served two terms as state senator from this district and his legislative accomplishments were many. Throughout his career he has stood for economic soundness in government, and against leftist experiments and wasteful spending."

"Following his retirement from the state Senate, the late Governor Beauford Jester gave Ramsey further honors by appointing him Secretary of State. He held office with customary capacity into the administration of Governor Allan Shivers, resigning post to enter the race for lieutenant governor."

The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid.— Psalms 27:1.

No individual makes so much that he does not have to do without some of the things he wants, or thinks he wants, if he is going to save any money. The saving of money is not of value merely from the fact that it permits the accumulation of a cash reserve, important though this is. Its chief value after all is in the discipline of self-denial, the saving of money requires a discipline that is not only of value to every individual, but is an important element in character building.

We recall in the stories of the Indians we used to read as a child, with what terror we regarded their custom of scalping their enemies and burning them at the stake. Surely such policies, we reasoned, branded them as savages devoid of any semblance of civilization, but since we have grown older we have heard a good many so-called civilized members of the white race, scalp, burn at the stake, hang, draw and quarter by means of gossip, their defenseless neighbors and acquaintances. Of the two, it seems the Indians are considerably less culpable.

General Motors and the United Auto Workers have signed a five year contract covering wages, working conditions and pensions. One interesting feature of the contract is that the workers receive a regular yearly advance during the life of the contract. This many believe, is evidence that this big corporation believes that business is going to continue to be good for the next five years at least.

Too often too much is expected of an advertisement. An advertisement cannot perform miracles. It works along certain well defined lines. It cannot create sales for a store that is poorly managed, poorly lighted and in which the merchandise is not well displayed, nor good merchandising practices followed. This is a modern age and people with money to spend like to spend it in a place that tries to keep up with the times and practices modern merchandising methods. For such a store a well prepared advertisement can and does create sales.

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

The revised Social Security bill is now before Congress. In round numbers it will bring ten billion additional persons under the Social Security coverage.

I do not believe the bill is as good as it could have been. There are a number of changes in it that could have been made. I am convinced enough to believe that I could have improved the bill if I could have gained a hearing with any member of the Ways and Means Committee. I tried to secure an opportunity to submit my suggestions but was unable to even secure an acknowledgement of my letters.

The experience has completely shattered the childlike Santa Claus faith that I once had in regard to this matter of writing members of Congress. It is the bunk. If you like to write letters and spend money to no purpose for postage it is a nice pastime but don't figure on anything else. The only exception is the Congressman from your own district and possibly your own state.

The new law is going to bring household help under the law. After the passage, if the housewife hires a woman to assist her in the home she must pay and remit to the Internal Revenue office the Social Security contribution to the fund. This must be done quarterly and at the end of the year a final report must be made. To do this will require a set of books that will make the mere matter of keeping a family budget look like child's play.

One suggestion on which I could get no hearing or consideration was that the housewife be permitted to buy Social Security stamps, one color for the employer's contribution, and another color for the employee's contribution. These would be pasted in a book provided the employees by the housewife, one color on one page and the other color on the opposite page. When the book became full the employee would mail it in to the Revenue Collector's office. The employee's Social Security account would be credited with the amount of the stamps in the book, no trouble, no bother, no irritating bookkeeping, no quarterly reports—so simple that any one could understand it.

I contend, and I am sure ten million housewives will agree with me, that this would be a much better and more satisfactory way of handling this matter. If the housewives are not ready to agree now, they will be within the first year, and will join in clamoring for such a plan. I could devote this whole column to the advantages of the plan but the outline given here is sufficient.

Because the returns from the Social Security Retirement pension are wholly inadequate for any standard of living I suggested that individuals be permitted to buy additional Social Security Retirement Pension bonds. These bonds would be payable only on Social Security retirement pension payments, and through them many could build their retirement pension above the point of a pauper's dole.

The committee couldn't see it and they, while they are going to be taken care of with an adequate pension at retirement age, were unwilling that the mass of people be allowed a similar privilege—even at no additional cost to the taxpayer or the Federal government.

No Sunday school teacher who prepares fifty-two lessons a year to teach a class, few of whom even as much as read the lesson through, and less than a fourth of whom attend class regularly, is never adequately rewarded in this life.

The meek may one day inherit the earth as we are reliably informed they will but it will only happen after the brazen and the greedy and the selfish have been removed from the earthly scene.

HISTORY

The National Cherry Festival, July 19—According to reports, Michigan raises half of all the cherries raised in the world and the region about Traverse City, on Great Traverse Bay, is the center of the cherry producing area. The history of the cherry production of Traverse Bay began in 1905, when a party by the name of B. J. Morgan, who a few years before had set out a cherry orchard sold his crop at a good price. Others followed his example and soon the whole area was set out to cherry orchards. The business grew so rapidly that the community inaugurated the National Cherry Festival in 1928. This event was so successful that it has been held every year since. The date corresponds with the ripening of the cherries. The festival lasts several days. The festival is preceded some weeks with a religious service. At 11 o'clock throughout the area, ministers perform the ceremony of "Blessing the Blossoms." Prayers are offered for a bountiful crop and favorable weather. When the cherries are about ready to be picked the Cherry Festival opens. An elaborate program is prepared with an address by the mayor and by the Queen of the Festival. The day is taken up with games and contests and parades, and exhibitions of various sorts. The second day begins with ceremonies attending the departure of the first train load of cherries for market. This is followed by games, contests, parades and other features. On the third day the Queen is crowned by the governor of the state. In the afternoon there is a floral parade, a Coast Guard drill, races and maneuvers at the airport with a Mummer's parade in the evening and after which everyone is invited to join in the costumed festivities that follow. The event closes with a brilliant fireworks display.

Texas Lions Clubs Launch Membership Development Program

Kerrville — An estimated 40,000 Lions, representing 600 Texas Lions Clubs, are now preparing to launch a membership development program for the Texas Lions League for Crippled Children.

League President Jack Wiech of Brownsville made the announcement Wednesday. He said membership development is another step towards his organization's ultimate plan for a $500,000 rehabilitation center for crippled children.

It will be known as the Melvin Jones Camp, in honor of the founder of the International Association of Lions Clubs, and will be built on a 504-acre tract of land deep in the heart of the Texas Hill Country, three miles southeast of here.

Wiech said the camp, tentatively scheduled for operation by the summer of 1951, will be the realization of a four-year dream on the part of Lions club members.

The idea for the Melvin Jones camp was conceived in the fall of 1946 but that idea "has grown beyond the fondest dreams of all preliminary planning," Wiech said Wednesday.

District and International officials studied the plan the following year, after some revisions had been made in the original plan.

In June 1948 a temporary Board of Control, composed of 17 members, was set up. From this group came an aggressive, concentrated program for state-wide participation.

A Board of Directors was selected in January, 1949, and three months later a charter was granted the group, under the name "Texas Lions League for Crippled Children Inc."

There are more than 22,000 crippled children registered for some type of post-hospital treatment or rehabilitation in Texas, Wiech said, and the League is "vitaly interested in their welfare."

He said the League "will maintain and conduct, without charge, the Melvin Jones camp where crippled children may receive supervised rehabilitation."

There are four classes of memberships available in the League, the president explained. They are Charter, Life, Active and Sustaining.

All Texas Lions became charter members of the League on March 12, 1949.

Any person or organization interested in the welfare of the state's crippled children are eligible for life membership by a contribution of $100 to the work of the League.

Wiech explained this class of membership will make it possible for communities, cities and organizations to support and maintain individual units at the camp.

Charter members of the League are also eligible to become active members, he added. A contribution of $10 will make the participant an active member.

By contributing $5 to the League's activities persons or groups will become sustaining members.

A TWO-WAY STREET

We cannot rehabilitate Europe, the East, or any other section of the world by simply pouring out dollars. True rehabilitation can be attained only by helping to place the needy nations on a sound and productive economic basis. That was the idea of General Marshall when, as Secretary of State, he made his famous speech at Harvard in which the basis of his plan was first laid down.

One of the major economic problems of the world is that our exports now far exceed our imports. Under these conditions, the gold and dollar credits of the nations flow inexorably toward our shores. And soon—as happened in England—the money just runs out, and new crises inevitably follow.

International trade is a two-way street. If we are to sell abroad without impoverishing our customers, we must buy from abroad. Something resembling an even balance of trade must be reached. This is, as everyone knows, an exceedingly difficult problem. The adjustments will be many and hard. But, in the long pull, it is the only salvation for those nations which look to us for leadership and assistance—even as it is the only way to cement the military alliance of the Western world. A country which is economically hungry cannot be strong militarily.

The Marshall Plan, and the related policies, will succeed or fail as we succeed or fail in offering a market for the products and resources of other nations even as they offer a market for ours. We will not long be able to sell if we do not buy. And, from the selfish point of view, a breakdown in international trade would have the most serious adverse effect on our own employment and production, and our economy as a whole.—Industrial News Review.

Under the new law eating places which serve also are required to tell customers. To fail to do so is a violation of the law and will subject the violator to a penalty if he is caught.

LEARNING HOW TO EAT

Collier's recently featured a series of articles called "Everyman's Meat: The Heart of An Industry." The gist of the first article was that man, after thousands of years, is finally learning how to eat properly, and that meat researchers are showing him.

New discoveries indicate that before long our life expectancy may rise to the amazing figure of 85. This is partly due to the elimination of killing diseases by miracleworking new drugs. It is also due, said the Collier's article, "to the fact that we are developing a diet that will maintain our health and well-being into old age."

"This is the age of protein, as 10 years ago we were in the age of the vitamin and a decade or so before that in the age of the calorie. Man, in other words, is learning . . . how to fuel the marvelous machine that is the human body; and in the forefront of teaching him is the meat industry."

Some of the new discoveries will seem revolutionary to many people. For instance, science has disproven the old idea that all meats are bad for small children. Research has proved that babies can utilize the nutrients in meats, and that in some cases even premature babies may be fed meats. The protein and other values that meats provide are necessary to the normal growth and development of the child.

DAMMING PROGRESS

Citizens all over the country are led to believe that only the Federal government has the means to develop power from the country's rivers. They do not know that the Interior Department is blocking practically every attempt by the private industry to harness waterpower.

Examples of this are found around the country. L. V. Sutton, president of the Carolina Power & Light Co., said the Interior Department has blocked work on a $30,000,000 project of the Virginia Power & Light Co., which had been approved by the state and Federal power commissions. The Pacific Gas & Electric Co. was held up developing power on a California river in the same manner. A New York utility which wanted to participate in the development of the St. Lawrence River was turned down cold long ago.

Before the government became involved in river development, private industry went ahead and harnessed the country's rivers. The Wisconsin Power & Light Co. financed the entire multi-purpose development of the Wisconsin River. The Utah Power & Light Co. accomplished similar development on the Bear River. Utilizing the great resources of the country's rivers is nothing new. Even the deserts in arid parts of the country were being irrigated by enterprising citizens before the government entered the field.

Regulated, heavilytaxed, investor-owned enterprise is eager to cooperate with the government in developing our waterpower to the limit. All that stands in the way is the socialist drive to make the government master of us all and arbiter of our destinies.—Industrial News Review.

VOTE FOR . . .
JESSE OWENS
FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

Governor Shivers appointed Jesse Owens District Judge of the 46th Judicial District to serve the unexpired term of the late Judge Welch. His appointment was recommended by most of the lawyers, who practice in this district, as well as by many other prominent citizens.

Judge Owens gave up a good law practice to accept the appointment and at the end of the present term he will have served as District Judge seventeen months. Has he served you well? If so, does he deserve longer time in this office?

Jesse Owens was elected County Judge of Foard County, Texas, two times and served in that capacity from 1923 to 1927.

He was elected District Attorney of this District two times and served in that office from 1937 to 1941.

He was an Assistant Attorney General of Texas during the Administration of the Honorable Gerald Mann and the Honorable Grover Sellers. He served as a trial lawyer in that office from January, 1943, to January, 1946.

He has been engaged in the practice of law continuously since January, 1927.

Jesse Owens will appreciate your vote and influence in the Democratic Primary to be held July 22, 1950.

Weekly Sermon

THE MASTER CRAFTSMAN by L. L. Macfarlane, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

Now that the two best known vacation months, July and August, are at hand, thought turn to the open road, tall majestic moun- tains, bright sunshine sparkling on clear water, a time of leisure when one can relax on fragrant grass and look up into the frosty stars at night. It is amazing how so much of a "successful" holiday depends upon sunny days and moonlight nights.

Vacation time should not only be a period of renewing physical vigor, but also of spiritual refreshment. This summer, when we find ourselves enjoying the sunshine remember the words: "The Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will be withheld from them that walk uprightly" (Ps. 84:11).

The stars that perpetually fascinate bring to mind the words of Christ, "I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star" (Rev. 22:16). As the morning star shines with particular brightness and beauty, so does Christ in all His strength and glory. All the stars, too in- numerable for us to count, are known by God. "He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names" (Ps. 147:4).

All the wonders of God's crea- tion bring to mind the words of the Psalmist when he said, "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man, that thou art mindful of him? And the son of man, that thou visitest him . . . The day is thine, the night also is thine; thou hast prepared the light and the sun. Thou hast set all the borders of the earth; thou hast made summer and winter . . . O Lord, God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honor and majesty. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain; who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters; who maketh the clouds his chariot; who walketh upon the wings of the wind . . . O Lord, how manifold are thy works! In wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches" (Ps. 8:3, 4; 74:16, 17; 104:1-3, 24).

Two Minute Sermon

(By Thomas Hastwell)

No Nation Is Greater Than its Homes: A Christian constituency is desirable in all forms of gov- ernment, but especially in a de- mocracy. The reason for this is that the leaders of a democracy are chosen by the people. It is important that not only the lead- ers come into office with high con- cepts of right and wrong, but that the people who elevate them to positions of honor and trust have those qualities of mind and con- science that will enable them to choose those in whose hands shall rest the responsibility of directing and shaping the destiny and the fortunes of this nation. This being true, how important it is that the leaders of a democracy, and their teaching shall be such that out of them will come men and women qualified by spirit and concept to rule, but what is just as important, qualified to choose whom their rulers shall be. We may build the greatest industrial empire that the world has ever seen. Our ships may plow the seven seas laden with the products of our skill and genius, our treasury may be burst- ing with gold, but unless we have back of it all a Christian people and Christian homes we shall not know the meaning of security.

College Station, June 5 — In practically all sections of the state, except the western areas, the boll weevil is a serious threat to this year's cotton crop. Dr. H. G. John- ston, head of the entomology de- partment of Texas A. & M. Col- lege, says the threat is the most serious in many years.

He says because of this serious threat from the boll weevil, farm- ers in north-central, eastern and northeastern areas should continue early season applications of inse- cticides. Normally this procedure

Miss Betty Williams of Crowell and Claud A. Kirby of Coleman Exchange Marriage Vows at Crowell Baptist Church Monday

The marriage of Miss Betty Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, and Claud A. Kirby of Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kirby, was solemnized in the First Baptist Church Monday evening, July 10, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Aubrey C. Haynes, pastor of the Crowell Methodist Church, officiated with the impressive double ring ceremony, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The church altar was beautifully decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli and greenery. Graduated wrought iron candelabra were also used. Triads of candles adorned the windows.

Ushers were Joe Howard Williams, brother of the bride, Don Wilkins, Marlon Gobin and Billy Abston, cousin of the bride, Don Wilkins and Marlon Gobin lighted the candles.

Miss Betty Barker served as pianist and accompanist for Mrs. Clark Hitt Jr., who sang "Because" and "Oh, Promise Me." As pre-nuptial music, Miss Barker played "The Indian Love Call." Soft strains of "Claire de Lune" were heard during the exchange of vows. The traditional wedding marches were used as processional and recessional.

Miss Martha Johnson was maid of honor and was attired in a blue taffeta dress. Bridesmaids were Miss Bobbie Abston, Miss Doris Cox, Mrs. Jim Tom Young of Ponder and Miss Audrey Lee Thompson of Odessa. They wore similar frocks of yellow taffeta, floor-length, high neck, small buttons down the front, and each wore matching mitts. Their bouquets were of pastel flowers arranged with blue tulle against a styrofoam heart.

Little Misses Jeanette Bolibruch and Beth Thompson, cousins of the bride, were flower girls and Edward White, also a cousin, was ring bearer. The little girls wore blue and yellow dresses, respectively, and strewed rose petals before the bride. The ring bearer carried the rings on a pillow.

Don Brown of Coleman served the groom as best man. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of imported nylon Chantilly lace over pink-blush satin. It was modeled with tiny rolled collar, long sleeves which came to a point over the hands, a basque waist pointed in front and back and with small satin-covered buttons down the front to the waist line and full-length full skirt. Her full-length veil of illusion fell from a coronet headpiece of seed pearls.

Her bridal bouquet was of white rosebuds and white satin streamers. She carried out the tradition of wearing something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue, also wearing a penny in her shoe. For something old, she wore a wedding band which had belonged to her great great grandmother on her father's side of the family.

The bride's mother wore an ensemble of navy sheer with black and white accessories.

Immediately following the marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby received the congratulations of friends in the foyer of the church. They left then for Coleman where they will make their home. Mr. Kirby is employed by Panhandle Wholesale and Retail Oil Co.

For going-away, the bride wore an aqua linen suit with navy and white accessories and a white carnation corsage. She is a graduate of Crowell High School and graduated from Decatur Baptist College in the past spring. Mr. Kirby graduated from Coleman High School and attended Decatur Baptist College for one year.

Out-of-town relatives and friends present for the wedding ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sikes and two sons and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones and 2 daughters of Coleman, the ladies being sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Minnie Williams, aunt of the bride, of Brownfield; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thompson and family of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Lega Richardson, Mrs. R. B. Tarter, Mrs. Charles Sims Jr. and Mrs. J. D. Carroll, all of Quanah.

ed "The Indian Love Call." Soft strains of "Claire de Lune" were heard during the exchange of vows. The traditional wedding marches were used as processional and recessional.

Pre-Nuptial Shower Honors Miss Deeb in Matador on June 29

Miss Mary Deeb, whose marriage to Ray Brown took place on Thursday, July 6, was complimented with a surprise pre-nuptial shower in the home of Mrs. Bob Martin of Matador on Thursday afternoon, June 29.

Hostesses were members of the Home Demonstration Council, composed of representatives of the seven Home Demonstration Clubs of Motley County. Miss Deeb was Home Demonstration Agent of Motley County.

Guests, who called between 4 and 6 o'clock, were registered by Mrs. Fred Simpson, member of the Roaring Springs Club, in a white-satin bride's book made by Mrs. W. A. Lewis of the same organization.

Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. John Green of the Roaring Springs club and Mrs. Harrison George of the Flomot club, both of whom poured punch. Others assisting with hospitality included Mrs. W. T. McGann of the Folley club, Mrs. Fred Bourland and Mrs. Wilson Barton of the Whiteflat club and Mrs. Eldon Reedy of the Toreador club.

The lace-covered table was centered with a wedding scene composed of a miniature bride and groom before a background of musical wedding bells which played during the afternoon. Encircling the arrangement which was on a reflector, was a wreath of pink and white rosebuds entwined with fern. The names of the couple were stamped in gold on white napkins. Cookies and frosted lime punch were served. Peach and white gladioli decorated the receiving rooms.

The honoree was presented a white carnation corsage and an electric toaster by the Council and in addition to individual gifts which she received, each of the seven clubs presented her with a gift. She had then resigned her position as Motley County Home Demonstration Agent and has been employed in the same capacity in Foard County.

On Sunday morning, June 25, at 8:30 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turney of Dublin honored their daughter, Beulah Grace, with an informal breakfast at their home, at which time they announced her engagement and approaching marriage to Herbert E. Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Sanders of Dublin.

The "T" shaped tables were laid with linen cloths with Irish lace runners centering each. The floral motif was a fourteen-inch wedding ring of silver tinsel set in a base of lovely pastel colored gladioli, asters and fern to which was attached a long streamer of white satin ribbon bearing the words, "Beulah Grace and Herbert, August 12," in gold letters.

The individual place cards bore miniature August calendars with red hearts marking the date of the wedding. The nuptials will take place in the First Baptist Church in Dublin.

Shower Saturday Honors Miss Betty Williams, Bride-Elect

From 4 until 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, July 8, Miss Betty Williams, then the bride-elect of Claud Kirby of Coleman, was honored with a lovely bridal shower held in the banquet room of the First Baptist Church. Hostesses for the occasion were Mesdames Glen Fox, J. B. Harlan, W. F. Stater, Glen Goodwin and Misses Doris Cox, Martha Johnson and Bobbie Abston.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Fox who presented them to the receiving line composed of Miss Williams and her mother, Mrs. Howard Williams. The guests were registered in the bride's book which was presided over by Mrs. Stater.

Mrs. Goodwin directed the guests to the refreshment table which featured the bride's chosen colors, blue and yellow. The beautiful cut-work cloth was underlaid with blue and a styrofoam heart outlined with Shasta daisies was placed in the center of the table. From the heart, blue ribbons extended across the table with the words, "Kirby-Betty" in gold letters. Candelabra holding tall white tapers flanked the central feature. The white napkins featured the words, "Betty and Kirby" in blue lettering.

Miss Cox poured punch which was served with dainty yellow cookies and mints by Miss Johnson. From the table the friends were asked to view the gifts which were presided over by Mrs. Harlan. Miss Abston provided incidental piano music during the afternoon.

Approximately 50 guests called during the receiving hours.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

Thirteen members of the Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service met on Monday, July 10, at 3 o'clock at the church with Mrs. Jack Welch, president, presiding. Following an opening hymn and prayer, Mrs. Welch gave the devotional based upon an article, "The only things you really possess are the things you give away."

An interesting discussion, based on the leaflet programs, was given by Mrs. Virgil Johnson. The subject matter dealt with the problems of the Jewish people. Eighty per cent of the Bible is a record of the Jewish race. The race itself, began with the miracle of Isaac's birth and throughout the history of the Jews, miracles have been instrumental in preserving the race.

Following the program, various items of business were discussed and Mrs. Grady Halbert dismissed the group with a prayer.

REBEKAH LODGE

Crowell Rebekah Lodge met for regular meeting on Friday, May 30, with Juanita Garrett, Noble Grand, in charge. There were thirty-four members present.

Lodge opened in regular form with officers' drill, flag ceremony, the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the singing of the national anthem. During the impressive candlelight service, the degree of Rebekah was conferred on one candidate by the local degree staff.

The meeting was concluded with the customary routine and a prayer by the chaplain.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostesses for the evening.

BIG JOBS, BIG RISKS IN OIL

Oil activities in the Gulf Coast tidelands have to date produced about $1 for every $10 invested. It costs much more to find and produce oil from steel platforms perched out in the Gulf of Mexico than in on-shore drilling. In addition, the movement of oil to land presents a special problem.

Tax levies made by State and local governments in Texas totaled an average of 25.7 cents per acre in 1949. An increase of 3.3 cents per acre or 15 per cent over the 1948 average in Texas. Indications are that the trend will likely continue upward on Texas farm and ranch real estate but at a slower rate.

IT DOES MAKE A DIFFERENCE WHO YOUR DISTRICT ATTORNEY IS!

Your support of Warren Pruitt for District Attorney means the election of a successful lawyer who, in asking for his first public office, has pledged:

1. An earnest effort to eliminate those influences that breed crime in the minds of our youth, feeling it is just as important to train youth from crime as it is to prosecute the hardened criminal.
2. Swift prosecution of law violators indicted by the grand jury.
3. Complete cooperation with law enforcement agencies.
4. To defend with equal zeal the rights of the innocent, but to prosecute every case according to its own merits, regardless of who the defendant is or what criminal lawyer represents him.

His friends hereby give him their unqualified recommendation and urge you to vote for him on July 22nd.
