Cities in Southwest to Participate in 1950 State Fair

Numerous cities throughout the Southwest will tout their own horns by active participation in the 1950 State Fair of Texas Mid-Century Exposition, Oct. 7-22, James H. Stewart, executive vice president and general manager, has announced.

The list of cities requesting special days and facilities for programs is growing daily, Stewart said. Chambers of Commerce and businessmen's groups have become increasingly aware of the promotional possibilities for communities at the greatest state fair on earth, with an annual attendance of more than 2,000,000, he said.

High school bands will provide a musical boost for the old home town by playing concerts on the fairgrounds and marching in the great "Parade of the Decades," which will be a nightly feature of the 1950 State Fair.

Typical of plans being made by cities are those of San Angelo. The West Texas city has asked that Wednesday, Oct. 11, be designated as San Angelo Day, to coincide with Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Day, San Angelo, of course, is the hub of the sheep and goat ranching country.

City and Chamber of Commerce officials expect a large delegation from San Angelo to visit the Fair, traveling on a special Santa Fe train. Blocks of tickets to two major State Fair attractions — "South Pacific" and "Ice Cycles" — have been reserved by the group.

A huge East Texas Day Tuesday, Oct. 17, will embrace all East Texas communities from Dallas to the eastern boundary of the state and from the Red River as far south as Houston. The day is sponsored by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Employment in this country is at the highest level since the record month of July, 1948. The Census Bureau reports the total number employed as 61,482,000.

Safety in the Home Stressed by Agent

More farm accidents occur in the home than in any other single place on the farm and about the most dangerous room in the house is the kitchen. There are many reasons why accidents happen in the kitchen, says Mrs. Mary D. Brown, acting County Home Demonstration Agent, but few out-rank carelessness and household disorder.

Poor connections on the gas stove; overheating or using kerosene in coal or wood ranges, gas escaping when a boiling pot has extinguished a flame, pots and pans containing hot food or water upset by children, using worn-out equipment especially electrical appliances, matches not placed out of the children's reach and accidents that often happen to the homemaker while frying foods in deep fat—these are common causes of kitchen accidents.

Mrs. Brown says that a well-kept kitchen, one that is provided with plenty of cabinet and storage space, is most likely to be a safe room. However, carelessness can nullify the features of even the best planned and constructed kitchens. One gas explosion or a fire caused from hot grease removes the kitchen and often times the housewife from further safety troubles.

The stairs and steps both inside and outside the home seem to have been made especially for creating accidents by falling since so many home accidents happen there. It is dangerous under any circumstances to walk on stairs with both arms loaded and it is doubly so when the stairs or steps are cluttered. Stairway treads should all be the same width and risers the same height, says Mrs. Brown, and the treads should not be polished.

The stairway is no place to store the broom, mop nor the children's toys. Scatter rugs should never be placed at the bottom nor the top landings of the stairway. Loose or frayed runners are extremely dangerous. Cellar steps are usually poorly lighted and also catch more of the items that are just temporarily set there until they can be moved into the cellar. These are the items that cause many of the serious home accidents. They are not moved until someone gets hurt.

Protection from fire hazards, orderliness, timely repairing, using tools and equipment as they were intended to be used, disposing of worn out appliances and the use of common sense will greatly reduce the number of home accidents, says Mrs. Brown.

The new Sears Roebuck catalog shows prices on 42 per cent of more than 2200 items listed as unchanged, 27 per cent are down slightly, and 31 per cent up moderately. Prices put out by this firm are looked upon as a reliable guide.

The loops that are woven into a towel determine its absorbency. The loops should be reasonably close together and fairly long. The heavy towels are more absorbent because there is more yarn to absorb water.

To the Voters of Commissioners' Precinct No. 2:

I am grateful for your support in behalf of my candidacy for Commissioner in the July 22nd primary. I am asking again for your support in the August 26th primary.

I believe in economy in government, in community cooperation, courtesy in office, and, if I should be the people's choice, I will endeavor to do that.

What is there about some people that they will doubt the things they read in their newspaper, where the truth of every article is carefully checked, but will believe implicitly every rumor and every whisper of idle gossip.

According to the Associated Press 783 persons were killed in the United States during the 4th of July holiday extending from 6 o'clock Friday evening to the close of the holiday season midnight. Tuesday, 482 of these were due to highway accidents and 178 were drowning fatalities. Strangely enough no one was reported killed in fireworks misadventures. The results indicate mere safety instructions aren't getting the job done on the highways, just as it didn't get it done with the fireworks. It was only when fireworks were restricted by law that this fertile source of accidents and deaths was eliminated. Is it going to be necessary to restrict speed or to make more severe the tests that govern the issuance of drivers' licenses?

The developments in the Korean skirmish are already beginning to make the pronouncements and opinions of those high in military circles who were supposed to know, look ridiculous. Incidentally the opinions of some who were pushed aside as unimportant are already shown up to have been the wisest course. It simply goes to show that when it comes to predicting things military, the value of an opinion doesn't depend upon whether the author of the opinion is big or little. It depends wholly upon the worth and wisdom of the opinion.

We hereby firmly deny Russia's charge that this country dropped any of its potato bugs on East Germany. An examination of the insects by Russia will disclose that they are in reality Communists and a check up shows we have as many of these insects in this country as we had before the alleged dropping event.

What We Think

(By Frank Dixon)

To me the most amazing thing in connection with the invasion of South Korea by the Russian vandals from the north was the complete unpreparedness of this country for what has long been regarded as inevitable.

The War Department, or whoever looks after such things, was caught completely by surprise. It did not have a single piece of suitable equipment that it could draw upon in an emergency anywhere in that part of the world. It must have been known that if and when such an attack was made it would be spearheaded by tanks and yet this country didn't have a single tank within two weeks of the place. Not only that, it has long been felt that the spot was a powder keg and that any day Russia might move this pawn of North Korea forward on the check-board of political and military strategy.

Not only that we had in possession or under our control, Japan, at which point General MacArthur was stationed and which provided a logical military depot for such equipment in the event of such disturbances. Yet as far as the news reports have revealed, there are no tanks in Japan or artillery with sufficient fire power to stop tanks.

The disturbing thing about it is that what was true in Korea is no doubt true in every front that we are presuming to defend. While it is not reasonable to assume that we can have an effective force on all the fronts because of the lack of man power and equipment it does seem that this front might well have been policed from bases in Japan which were equipped to the point where they could at least render police action. The situation must be a revealing one to Russia. She must have been surprised that her puppets met with no more resistance than they did and especially that we knew so little about what was going on in Korea as we did.

The situation is surprising to the people of this country that our intelligence service knew no more about what was going on in Korea than the proprietor of a small hamburger shop in the smallest village in this country. It raises the question: Is our intelligence service as weak, as inept on all fronts as it is at this point?

It seems to me rather in the nature of an indictment of our War Department that two weeks after the outbreak of hostilities we are sending infantrymen into Korea against tank divisions who are not only supplied with tanks but who do not even have ground firepower capable of stopping a tank. We have criticized Chiang Kai-Shek for his exhibition of futility. It seems to me that we can no longer do that.

In my opinion our State Department and our War Department and whoever has charge of such things, lags considerably behind our soldiers and our military forces. Our soldiers won World

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. 2, FOARD COUNTY, TEXAS:

It is true that I did not pay my poll tax nor that of my wife this year, however, if you will recall last October, the first month for paying taxes, it was impossible to pay poll taxes at that time. The constitutional amendment to eliminate the poll tax was to be voted on in November. At that time the tax collector could not accept poll taxes because he could not issue a receipt. I paid my property tax at this time knowing that I did not pay my poll tax. In December I paid other taxes on property I had afterwards acquired and registered a truck and fully intended to pay my poll tax and that of my wife and told the deputy of my intention but through inadvertence it was overlooked and my poll tax was not paid nor was I charged for it. I blame only myself for this omission as I should have checked to have made certain.

I am thirty years old and got my first free vote in 1941. I entered the service in 1942 and was discharged in Nov., 1945, and the first year after returning home I received a free vote as a service man. Since that time I have paid a poll tax for myself and my wife each year until this year.

My only purpose in telling you all of this is simply to let you know that I have always paid my property taxes, and my poll tax and that my failure to do so this year was simply an oversight and not deliberately done.

Woman's work is never done!

WOMAN'S WORK IS NEVER DONE—that's not just idle talk. The average housewife works 63 hours a week. And she performs 70 different tasks in one day's work, which is proof positive (if anybody needs it!) that housekeeping is a rugged job!

Of course, today's housewife has many electric helpers to lend a hand and take much heavy work out of housework. But even the finest appliances need something else—low-cost, dependable electric service to give them life and usefulness.

That's why it's a compliment that West Texas housewives take electric service for granted. You flip a switch and know your electric helpers are ready.

You can take its economy for granted, too. For your electric service is just about the smallest item in your family budget. It costs less than a pack of cigarettes a day, yet it helps you sew, cook, clean, wash and iron, guards your health, cools your home, heats water, entertains you. What else gives you so much living value—at such little cost?

I have congratulated Judge Thomas. As we all know, the office of County Judge is the chief administrative office of our county, and the holder of this office should have our constructive support. I commend Judge Thomas on the programs as outlined in his recent campaign, which include: 1. Addition to and improvement of present hospital facilities. 2. Construction of farm-to-market roads in our county, and particularly pleasing to all of us, is his promise of economy in government. Sincerely yours, Alton B. Bell.

A thorough soaking at intervals of a week or ten days is far better than a daily shallow watering for flowers, trees, shrubs and the vegetable garden during hot dry weather.

Mrs. Ann Poling, 609 Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron, and Niacin, smiles as she pours herself another cup of coffee. Mrs. Poling says life lately is like it used to be years ago. "That is, of course, since I've been taking HADACOL." She can't get over what a difference HADACOL has made in her outlook on life.

Mrs. Poling says: "Three months ago a good friend of mine told me about HADACOL—she knew how much stomach distress I have had. Any type of food that was fried or that had acid in it I just couldn't eat. It affected my sleep, too. In fact, I couldn't have been in a worse condition. When I ate what I wanted to I felt miserable and when I didn't eat these things—I didn't have a proper diet and still felt bad. Then, when I started taking HADACOL, I felt better immediately. I've got a bottle in the house now—and will continue to keep HADACOL from now on. I have told many folks about HADACOL—and they all thank me for telling them about HADACOL. They all have gotten wonderful results from HADACOL like I have. Now I eat anything I want and get a good night's sleep. I can't praise HADACOL enough."

HADACOL Can Help You, Too! . . . as it has helped thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron and Niacin. Yes, even hundreds of doctors have recommended HADACOL to their patients. The HADACOL formula is so effective for stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, and a general run-down condition caused by such deficiencies.

Make Up Your Mind . . . to give HADACOL a chance to help you, as it has helped countless thousands of others. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you your money will be refunded.

Junior Livestock Program at State Fair, October 17-21

The most constructive Junior Livestock program in the history of the State Fair of Texas will be carried out during the Fair's Mid-Century Exposition, Oct. 7-22. Ray W. Wilson, livestock department manager, has announced. Junior Livestock Shows, Oct. 17-21, will reflect the progress being made in Texas in the production of quality market steers, lambs and hogs by 4-H Club members and Future Farmers of America, Wilson said.

Due to wide interest in the Junior program by these young farmers and ranchers, more than 200 Texas counties are expected to be represented. The youthful stockmen will compete for $11,250 in premiums.

A Junior Commercial Steer Show will be a newcomer to the Junior Livestock list. It has been added to encourage more Future Farmers and 4-H Club members to take part in a practical beef production program in Texas. The program has placed emphasis on economy in feeding out top market grade steers through the use of home-grown feeds.

Highlighting this year's Junior Livestock features will be the All-American Junior Jersey Exhibition. Young Jersey exhibitors from across the nation will compete for $5000 in premiums. Judging will be Tuesday, Oct. 17, in the Grandstand Tent Arena.

Future Farmer and 4-H teams from more than 30 states will compete in the Junior Judging contest, Monday, Oct. 16. They will judge dairy cattle in open competition, Wilson said.

Premiums and awards will be presented to Junior Jersey winners during the All-American Junior Jersey Awards Banquet in the Grand Ballroom of the Adolphus Hotel. The banquet will be sponsored by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, he explained.

Grand finale of the Junior Livestock program will be the Junior Auction Sale, Saturday, Oct. 21, when top quality steers, pigs and lambs will be sold by the young exhibitors. John W. Carpenter, general chairman of the Auction Sale advisory committee, and L. H. True, chairman of the Auction committee, expect the most successful sale in history.

RAIL SHIPMENTS

Austin, July 20 — Rail shipments of eggs from Texas stations amounted to 286 carloads in May as compared with 105 in April and 180 in May 1949, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Two carloads of chickens and 5 carloads of turkeys were shipped from Texas stations during May.

The port side of a boat is the left side, as one faces from stern to bow.

THE QUESTION IS ANSWERED

If any question remained in anyone's mind as to the need for the strictest possible economy in government, the grim march of recent events must have answered it.

This country is now committed to a policy of active resistance to communist aggression. It is a policy which has the full approval of the leaders of both political parties and of the nation at large. It is a policy whose cost no one can as yet estimate. At best, it seems inevitable that our expenditures for military and related purposes will rise materially.

In the light of this, how can further waste and unnecessary domestic spending be countenanced? In a world struggle for survival, there is no room for the welfare state, for government pampering of the individual — or for the spending of our tax money for any purpose which can be accomplished by private enterprise.

Government has its hands full, and more, with desperately difficult tasks which only government can handle. At this time, of all times, it must keep to its proper constitutional duties. — Industrial News Review.

Good planning and close figuring may keep Texas farmers on the black side of the ledger this year but the need for sound farming and business-like management is increasing by the hour.

Weekly Sermon

LEARNING FROM OTHERS

by L. L. Macfarlane, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

An old saying goes, "We profit by the mistakes of others," and to this could be added, "and encouraged by the experience of others."

There isn't a lovelier or more heartening story in the Bible than the book of Ruth. Here we see God's hand of providential care for His own.

When Naomi came back to Bethlehem after years of living in the foreign land of Moab, she returned without her husband and two sons, who had died away from their homeland. Both sons had married Moabite women, Orpah and Ruth. After the death of their husbands, both women decided to journey to Bethlehem with their mother-in-law, Naomi. Part way there, however, Orpah turned back toward Moab; but Ruth remained steadfast and continued on. We see here Ruth's determination to leave all of her heathen background and to make her dwelling with the God who worshipped the one true God. She says to Naomi, "Whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge; thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God."

When the two arrived at their destination, "all the city was moved about them, and they said, 'Is this Naomi?'" Grief and trouble had probably made such marks upon her countenance that former acquaintances scarcely recognized her. But the words of the psalmist are true: "Many are the afflictions of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him out of them all" (Ps. 34:19). This was the case with Naomi and Ruth. God so guided in their lives that their sorrows were erased by joy, their physical wants were provided, and through Ruth's marriage to Boaz, God honored both Naomi and Ruth by giving Ruth a son, Obed through whose line David, and eventually Christ Himself, came into the world. It doesn't matter how difficult circumstances may appear to a Christian at the moment, his life is in God's hands, "and we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose" (Rom. 8:28).

Work Conference on Safety Education to Be Held at Austin

A. W. Breeland, President of the Texas Safety Association, announced recently that a Work Conference on Safety Education will be held during the second summer term at the University of Texas. Breeland said, "Safety education, being a relatively new subject as well as a very popular one demands a continuous revision of materials and teaching techniques in order that the children of Texas may receive the fullest benefit of safety education and driver education as taught in our schools throughout the state."

Some twenty-five teachers from all over Texas will arrive in Austin this week to combine their efforts and experience in revising the State Department of Education bulletins on Safety Education and Driver Education and to make advanced studies in problems relating to safe living.

The workshop, directed by Dr. D. K. Brace, Chairman, Department of Physical and Health Education, the University of Texas, is a joint undertaking of the University of Texas, the Texas Education Agency, and the Texas Safety Association. The underwriting of this workshop is one of the major activities of the year for the School and College Division of the Texas Safety Association.

Other participating organizations will be the Texas Department of Public Safety, the Texas Highway Department, the Texas Motor Transportation Association, the American Red Cross, and the Texas Insurance Commission.

Some 4000 forest fires occur each year in the national forests of the United States, half of which are started by campers.

Former Foard County Resident Weds in Silvertown

Miss Joy Riethmayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Riethmayer, of Silvertown, formerly of Foard County, became the bride of Clifton Stodghill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stodghill of Silvertown, on Saturday, July 8, in Clovis, N. M.

The single ring ceremony was performed in the home of Rev. Thomas A. Ruper, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Clovis, with Rev. Raper officiating. The couple was attended by Mrs. Calvin Stanfill of Clovis, a cousin of the bride. Mrs. Stanfill wore a brown and white printed silk street length dress with which she wore brown accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride wore a Norman original street length dress of rose lace and georgette over taffeta with navy accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a purple orchid and orchid ribbon streamers. She wore the traditional "something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue," and for extra good luck, she wore two pennies in her shoe, one bearing the date of her birth and the other bearing the date of the groom's birth.

The groom graduated from Silvertown High School in 1948 and the bride graduated in 1950. Mrs.

While an amused Joel McCrea and Ellen Drew look on, medicine showman Charles Kemper mysteriously transfers a coin from his hat into the nose of little Dean Stockwell's nose. Mrs. Amonett Is Honored with Bridal Shower Wednesday

Mrs. Thayne Amonett, formerly Miss Maxine Johnson, was complimented with a lovely bridal shower given at the Adolphian Club House Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Harriett Griffith, Mrs. D. R. Magee, Mrs. Grady Graves, Mrs. Herbert Edwards and Mrs. Jack Seale as joint hostesses.

The reception rooms were beautifully decorated with arrangements of dahlias in various colors. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Griffith and introduced to Mrs. Amonett and to her mother, Mrs. G. W. Johnson.

Mrs. Seale presided at the pretty bride's book where each guest registered. They passed into the dining room where the dining table was the feature of attraction. It was laid with a lovely satin damask cloth and centered with a floating arrangement of terra cotta dahlias. White, cream and beige dahlias in similar containers flanked the central bouquet. White tapers around the punch bowl illuminated the whole. Football trophies further added to the attractiveness. Dahlias ornamented the buffet.

Frosted punch and dainty cookies and mints were served by Mesdames Crews Cooper of Crowell and Bill Long of Post, sisters of the bride. Little Miss Ruth Ann Long, niece of the honoree, also
