Freedom of the Press

What is it? It is the reporter, jotting down facts. It is the correspondent, gathering news of the small community. It is the editor, sifting wheat from chaff. It is the writer, expressing himself clearly. It is skilled artisans of the mechanical departments, helping to "get out the paper." It is the free American men and women devoted to the task of keeping America free by keeping America informed.

Freedom of the press stands as one of the great interpreters between the government and the people. To all of us it is a sacred trust. It is a trust that is not to be fettered in any way. It is a trust that is not to be handed over to any one man or group of men. It is a trust that is not to be used as a weapon of attack or defense. It is a trust that is not to be used to create a false picture of reality. It is a trust that is not to be used to create a false picture of reality. It is a trust that is not to be used to create a false picture of reality.

Freedom of the press is a freedom that is not to be taken for granted. It is a freedom that is not to be taken for granted. It is a freedom that is not to be taken for granted. ## Youth Council Elects Officers for New Year

At a special meeting of the Youth Council last Wednesday, officers were elected. V. A. Smith was elected president; Marcia Kincaid vice president; Virginia Tamplin, secretary and treasurer; Jean Hughston, parliamentarian; and Billy Bell, reporter.

Plans were discussed for a "Go to Sunday School" campaign which will start Oct. 14 and run through Nov. 4. The purpose is to get adults as well as teen-agers and children to Sunday School for those four Sundays. The Council feels that going to Sunday School will then become a habit; and will re-emphasize the religious element in the home. The president appointed a committee for the Sunday School project.

Other future projects were outlined, and included a health and dental clinic, safety program and Christmas toys for the underprivileged. More details about these projects will be discussed later.

Iowa Park Hawks of Class 2A and Crowell Wildcats of Class 1A Meet Tomorrow Night at Wildcat Stadium

The Iowa Park Hawks come to Crowell this Friday night with the best record that a Hawk club has boasted at this time of the season in several years. They have victories over Archer City, Holliday and Henrietta. Their only loss was to Neocoma early in the season. They have scored over one hundred points to their opponents' thirty. The Hawks are playing in 2A company this year and it would give the Wildcats quite a bit of prestige to take this final non-district contest of their schedule.

The Crowell boys are smarting from a lopsided defeat that the Quannah Indians handed them last week. They had been flying high up to this point with victories over Munday, Paducah and Matador. They had some mighty hard luck in allowing the Quannah club to run the large score and the local fans should show their confidence in the local team by backing them in this contest.

This will be Crowell's last home game until October 26 at which time the Archer City Wildcats come here. The probable starting lineups for this game that will be played at Wildcat Stadium Friday night, October 5, at 8 o'clock, are as follows:

No. Crowell	Wt.	Position	Wt.	Iowa Park	No.

Quannah Indians Beat Wildcats 40-13 Last Friday Night

The Crowell High School football team took a good shellacking from the 2A Quannah Indians at Quannah last Friday night during the first half but came back to outplay and outscore the highly rated Indians during the last half of the game. The final score was 40 to 13 in favor of Quannah. However, the Wildcats led in first downs 9 to 5.

The Wildcats had just about everything happen to them that could happen to allow the heavy Indian squad to run up the large score. Crowell received the opening kickoff and through an oversight of the officials in the game, Quannah was allowed to use twelve men against the Wildcats on their first six defensive plays. This prevented Jim Paul Norman, kicker for Crowell, from getting his first kick away and gave Quannah the ball deep in Crowell territory. After the Wildcats had held the Indians to one yard gain in three tries, John McCrary, Quannah passer, heaved one to Jack Cromartie, right end, for the Indians that was good for a touchdown. A Crowell defensive back was ready to knock this pass down when he lost his balance and fell down. Bill Medlen kicked the extra point.

The Wildcats received the next kickoff and started a march that carried down to Quannah's thirty-five yard line at which point Francis Strader, an alert Quannah back, intercepted one of Don Gobin's passes and ran sixty-five yards for Quannah's second touchdown. Medlen again kicked the extra point to give the Indians a 14 to 0 lead at the end of the first quarter. The Crowell team had doubled the Indians in yardage gained up to this point.

The Wildcats fumbled on their own thirty-two yard line and a fifteen yard roughing penalty against them set the next Indian score up. Bill Medlen, big 180-pound fullback for the Indians, carried the last nine yards and a Quannah score. He also kicked the extra point to make it 21 to 0.

Norman's attempted kick was blocked near Crowell's goal line to give the Indians their chance for the fourth touchdown. Bobby Williams, best ground gainer of the evening, scored for Quannah on a five yard run. Medlen's kick was good to make the halftime score 28 to 0.

Crowell cashed in on a Quannah fumble in the third quarter. Gobin passed to Jim Paul Norman that netted twenty-five yards to set up the score. Ginger Johnson ran the last six yards to give Crowell its first score of the game. DuWayne Elliott failed to kick the extra point to leave the score 28 to 6.

Quannah came roaring back to drive for another score in the third quarter when Williams ran forty-one yards and a touchdown. Medlen missed his first extra point of the evening to make the count 34 to 6 for Quannah at the end of the third quarter.

Two nice pass plays gave Crowell its last touchdown. Gobin to Norman was good for eight yards and a hand-off from Gobin to Coy Payne, who in turn, passed to Norman for twenty-five yards and a score. Elliott kicked the extra point to make it 34 to 13.

Another Crowell fumble in the last minute of the game gave Quannah the ball on Crowell's two-yard line. Williams scored his third touchdown of the evening to make the final count 40 to 13.

The score does not tell the proper story of this contest. The Wildcats, outweighed fifteen pounds to the man, made an interesting game during the last half. However, Bill Medlen and Bobby Williams for Quannah were the outstanding players on the field.

The Wildcats will play another 2A opponent, Iowa Park, here this week. These two clubs have identical records thus far this season and there should not be a favorite in the prediction of the winner.

Employers Report Social Security Only Once a Year

If you work for yourself and are planning to include your own name on the quarterly social security tax return you file for your employees—don't. So says Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls social security office.

Tate says that many self-employed businessmen who were brought under social security as self-employed people by the 1950 amendments are under the impression that they should report their own income in the same way they report the wages paid to their employees. That isn't correct. Self-employed people report their own net earnings for social security purposes only once a year, at the end of the year when they make their own individual income tax returns.

Self-employment earnings (except earnings from operating a farm and from certain professions) are covered by the law and must be reported if they are $400 or more in a year. A form for making the annual report and figuring the tax, which is 2 and one-fourth per cent, will be included with individual income tax forms. The special form, which self-employed people must file for the first time with their income tax returns early in 1952, will be used to give them social security credit for the first $3,600 of their self-employment income for 1951.

High School Band Wins Honors in T-O Fair Contests

The Crowell Senior High School band won high honors in the band contests conducted by the Texas-Oklahoma Fair in Iowa Park last week.

The band brought home a beautiful trophy won in the marching contest. Marcia Kincaid, drum major of the band, won first prize in the twirling contest in which five bands participated and her performance was the most outstanding of all.

Frances Kincaid won third place in the twirling contest, giving the Crowell band the lead in two out of three places in the twirling contest.

The Senior High School band gave an excellent performance in both band playing and marching at the football game in Quannah last Friday night, at which time it gave a repeat performance of "Moonlight and Roses" during the half-time.

This coming Friday night is a big home game between the Iowa Park Hawks and the Crowell Wildcats and the band is working hard on preparing a new performance for the half-time.

Last Saturday afternoon the Band Mothers Club had a very successful pastry sale to help raise funds for the extra necessary needs of the band.

The Junior band members are progressing far ahead of any expectations. Walter B. Harris, director, has reported.

Re-Modeling of W. T. U. Building Here Completed

Re-modeling, moving partitions and re-decorating of the West Texas Utilities Co.'s building has been completed by Charlie Speller of Abilene, building maintenance man for the company. The work extended over a period of several weeks during the summer.

Two rooms on the east of the building were cut off for office and storage space for the West Texas Ice Co.

In moving partitions the office has been moved farther back and the entire front of the building will be used for the display of electrical equipment and sales floor. A room has also been set aside for a work room for the repair men.

All refrigerating equipment has been taken out of the building and the space will be used for storage. The cooling tower and ammonia condenser at the rear of the building has been removed and the ground levelled off and gravelled.

The new arrangement adds much to the beauty and efficiency of the local utilities company plant, and Jack Seale, manager, is anxious for patrons to pay them a visit.

Capitalists at play!
-- the American Way!

Capitalists?
Why, yes. Fishermen and fiddlers, bridge players and ball players... all kinds of Americans, in fact, are Capitalists... because most Americans are owners of the electric light and power companies!
It's like this: several million people—from every walk of life—are direct owners of these companies' securities. And some 75,000,000 are indirect owners—through their life insurance and savings bank accounts! You see, when banks and insurance companies accept your money, they must invest it wisely. That's why so much of it goes into business-managed electric companies like the West Texas Utilities Company.
It's fair and fitting, isn't it, that the companies that serve nearly everybody are owned by nearly everybody?

Free Press Spreads Light on Darkness of Ignorance

"Your newspaper lights the way of freedom." That is the theme which has been chosen for the 1951 observance of National Newspaper Week.

The choice is a fine one, for the slogan has far-reaching implications. First of all, it suggests that where there is no light there is darkness. In this case the darkness is ignorance, "a light," someone has said, "without moon or stars."

The National Newspaper Week theme presumes the right to pierce that darkness with the light of information and it presumes at the same time the right to keep that light burning in face of all odds.

For free man has a right to know. If there is a right to know, there must be a right to tell.

The men who made this nation considered the right to tell so important that they wrote it into the No. 1 Amendment to our Federal Constitution: "Congress shall make no law . . . abridging freedom of speech and freedom of the press."

But the right to tell is more than a privilege, it is a duty. Elijah Lovejoy, abolitionist editor at Alton, Ill., believed in his right to carry the lamp of the free press and he knew his duty to light it and keep it burning. Three times mobs destroyed his printing presses. While he was protecting his fourth press, Lovejoy was shot to death.

Don Mellett, the Canton, Ohio, publisher, kept the spotlight of publicity focused on the racketeers in his community until they ambushed him and shot him at his own doorstep.

Racketeers, international or smalltime, know the power of the press. That is why they must control that power, why they must black out the light of public information if they are to attain and maintain a grip on the people.

That is why half the population of the world is under some form of censorship today.

That is why Gen. George C. Marshall, ex-Secretary of Defense, said "Americans should keep constantly in mind that no people have lost their liberties so long as their press remained free."

That is why in the interest of world understanding—and hence in the interest of peace—our nation seeks actively to spread throughout the world the freedom of the people to learn the truth.

A free press—a free people. "Your newspaper lights the way of freedom."

The vital truth of that message is the one thing National Newspaper Week has to sell.

What Is A Newspaper?

A newspaper is many things. It is a record of history. It is a forum. It is a market place. It is a voice. It is a guardian. It is, above all, an institution devoted to the best interests of the community.

It is a servant of the people. Its goal—the public be served.

RED YOUTH RANG UP MILLION FREE ADMISSIONS

The "ideological fire power" of Hollywood has been underlined recently in a delayed report received from the U. S. High Commissioner's Office in Berlin to the effect that during the Red Youth Festival 183 West Berlin theaters registered more than a million free admissions by East Germans and other Festival delegates who deserted the Moscow sponsored activities to see movies produced in the free world.

Thousands who could not be accommodated at the theaters attended screenings provided by a mobile unit which toured the area during the Festival period. Pictures made available by American distributors embraced "The Green Years," "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes," "Miracle on 34th Street," "Johnny Belinda," "Red River," "The Bells of St. Mary's," "City Lights," "Robin Hood," "The Window" and "In Old Oklahoma."

The report from the High Commissioner's office to Marc M. Spiegel, MFAA representative in Germany, noted that "once again the U. S. film industry has made a major contribution in the fight against Communism."

THE WOUNDED NEED BLOOD

Reserve supplies of whole blood and plasma have been exhausted in taking care of the wounded in Korea and General of the Army George C. Marshall calls upon the people of the country to donate blood in order that a quota of 300,000 pints a month can be had to meet needs until next June.

The present rate of blood donations dwindled to 36,000 pints in July. This the army leaders assert, is not sufficient to guarantee an adequate supply. Medical men point to the astonishing recovery of ninety-eight out of every one hundred wounded in Korea and attribute much of the great record to the use of blood and plasma.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley declares that the armed forces will contribute one-half of the blood required and Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, speaking from Japan, urges the home front to continue to support the blood-giving program. He points out that when the tide of battle is in our favor, casualties are naturally less but adds that this does not mean that blood is no longer needed.

Gen. Ridgway stresses the fact that many of our men, recovering from wounds, need daily transfusions. "It is our duty," he solemnly declares, "to see that their names will not appear on any subsequent list of 'died of wounds' for the lack of blood needed to restore them to health."

The human race might as well recognize the fact that, on this globe, we were not meant to be immortal.

The decision as to war or peace will be made by the rulers of Russia, not by the armament of the free nations.

ALL THREE SHOULD BE CONSIDERED WHEN YOU CHOOSE YOUR BANK

PAST HISTORY of your bank is important because age brings seasoned judgment, broad perspective and intimate knowledge of the background of business situations.

PRESENT FACILITIES of your bank are important because they are the gauge of your bank's ability to serve you efficiently. Our bank offers a complete banking service, which is modern to the minute and in tune with Crowell.

FUTURE of your banking connection is important to the man or business that looks ahead, because a strong bank can prove of vital value in helping an individual or enterprise succeed.

TOO MUCH ATTENTION

Let's go back a week or so. Has the reader forgotten the dire prophecies of what the Russians would do to the San Francisco Conference which met to sign the treaty negotiated with Japan?

Of course, none of the predictions came about. All that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Gromyko could do was to talk and, after all, talk is not always a dangerous weapon.

The treaty proceedings came off on schedule, without any sensational event. All of which makes the various predictions look rather foolish and adds to the suspicion that the newspaper and radio people give entirely too much attention to the Russians.

EXPLAINS WEST POINT DEAL

In a letter to the alumni of West Point, Major General Frederick A. Irving, Superintendent of the Academy, gives a detailed report of the cheating scandal which recently rocked the Army's military institution.

The General asserts that the cheating was carried on by an organized ring which mushroomed from a small group in 1949 to one of ninety by last March "due primarily to spread among football players, their roommates and close associates."

The General says the ring was broken when two cadets reported to April to their honor representatives that they had been "invited" to join the ring. General Irving points out that a few cases are still under investigation but that the number of cadets involved approximated ninety. Moreover, he assured the graduates of the Academy that the honor code would be maintained, pointing out that there existed a "strong attitude" on the part of 2,400 cadets who did not cheat.

"BLOODIEST AND HEAVIEST"

Governor Thomas E. Dewey, after an extended trip throughout the Pacific, including Korea, comes back to report that, in the Eighth Army, "we have the greatest fighting group in the world today."

Mr. Dewey says that our troops are "battle-hard and battle-wise" and that they are "beating the guerrillas at their own game."

Passing on to the general results of the fighting in that area, the Governor of New York declares that the "North Koreans and the Chinese Communists have taken the bloodiest and heaviest mass defeat in the history of the world."

The testimony of Mr. Dewey is interesting and important because he is not an official of the present administration. He has no reason to magnify the results accomplished by our fighting men.

The political experts can tell you, more than a year ahead of the 1952 elections, just how it will turn out and why.

CONGRESS WILL LISTEN TO PROTESTS

The people of the United States may wonder why a Congress, which practically forced an elaborate system of economic controls upon the Administration last fall, when there was no readiness to use them, is now apparently bent on legislation which will seriously diminish the power of the Government to meet the present inflationary threat.

The explanation, in the words of one observer, is that last year, Congress was being flooded with demands from home that something be done to end the prevailing wave of inflation. This fear was somewhat psychological, but, nevertheless, the "special interests" found Congress in no mood to respond to their arguments.

Today, when the inflation threat is much more imminent than it was last fall, there is no demand from the public to exert pressure upon Congress, despite the frantic appeals of Administration leaders for the passage of effective legislation.

The consequence is that, unless the people make their wishes known, the members of Congress will probably continue their common place acquiescence in the demands of individuals and groups, who place their profits above the interest of the country, as a whole.

A spiritual life service for the women of the W. S. C. S. will be held in Childress on Friday, Oct. 5. A good program is planned.

Present Day Car Achievements to Be Revealed at Chrysler Exhibit at Fair

Animated evidence of much of the engineering behind the modern passenger car will be available for public inspection at a special exhibit opening at the Automobile Building of the State Fair of Texas on Saturday, October 6, 1951, and running through Sunday, October 21.

More than 250,000 people inspected this unusual exhibit when it was displayed in New York City, Boston and Pittsburgh during the past few months. During that time the exhibit was visited by numerous engineering, technical school, and engineering college and university groups.

Comprised of more than seventy fascinating and moving models and demonstrations, the Chrysler Corporation's "New Worlds in Engineering" show will demonstrate to the public what is behind the development of Chrysler Corporation vehicles—what makes them safer, more dependable and more comfortable.

A representative of the Chrysler Design Department will actually work on preliminary sketches for a new vehicle at the exhibit. Close to her will be a study of fabrics and possible chrome substitutes which must be considered for a future car.

Getting into the engineering which is being done presently, there is a model showing how engine experimental work starts with a single cylinder machine. Visitors will actually be able to see how combustion heat, for instance, is measured.

They also will see a cut-away model of the newest and most powerful automobile engine now being offered in the United States. Delivering 180 horsepower and with a type of combustion chamber never before offered on volume produced American passenger cars, it is setting new standards of performance and efficiency throughout the country.

In the same room with this engine exhibit will be an operating cut-away model of the world's only completely electric window lift which has opened and closed one hundred thousand times without failure. Also shown is a moving exhibit showing first the outside and then the inside in full scale of a modern automobile. In one corner there is a demonstration in which water is splashed all over the modern engine with-out any noticeable effect on its operation.

Power steering—the new miracle way to steer—gets double attention. Not only can the visitor see actual cut-away models and demonstrations of what power steering is, but there is a full-sized automobile in the exhibit equipped with this device. Visitors can quickly feel how the heaviest car can be turned even at a standstill with only the slight pressure of one finger.

Departing a little from the regular automotive field, there is also a demonstration of the very latest development in railroad car and truck riding ease. This is achieved through the design of new types of springing and balancing worked out by Chrysler engineers. Tests have shown that railroad cars using this new equipment have demonstrated increased endurance and dependability, reduced wear and lower maintenance costs.

To fire the imagination of the visitor there is a panel demonstrating an electron microscope which can produce magnifications up to 100,000 to one. By use of this device, the actual structure of many kinds of materials can be studied in minute detail. For instance, the diameter of the head of an ordinary pin under this microscope, if all of it could be seen at one time, would be eleven yards longer than a regulation football field.

The exhibit will be open to the public from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., daily until the fair closes.

Crusade for Freedom, Texas Cruis-ers Chairman Lt. Gen. Preston A. Weathered said this week.

The freedom drive passed its halfway mark this week. It is scheduled to have an extended run until October 15.

The program to quieten the Soviet menace seeks to enroll 862,500 freedom loving Texans to "combat Communism and send more messages of truth and hope to millions trapped behind the Iron Curtain."

Signers are asked to back up their signature with contributions to support Radio Free Europe, a network of Crusade-operated radio stations sprinkled along Red controlled countries.

RFE stations blast lies and propaganda of the Kremlin and send freedom's truth and peace to enslaved peoples everywhere. Stations also expose plots of the Reds.

Fire Insurance Rates in Texas Reduced Effective October 1

Texans will save an estimated $2,303,000 on their fire insurance during the next year under new rates which become effective October 1.

Fire Insurance Commissioner Paul H. Brown said that rates have been reduced on more than a score of types of buildings. Dwelling owners will pay up to 16 per cent less for their fire insurance unless they live in homes which are not near fire hydrants and other municipal fire protection.

Owners of mercantile buildings also will enjoy savings in insurance rates ranging from 8 to as much as 16 and two-thirds per cent, depending on the type of construction. Schools and some types of churches also were among the classes granted lower rates, Brown said.

Rate reductions were granted on the basis of the premiums earned by the insurance companies during the last five years as against the losses paid during the same period.

"The difference between what an insurance company collects in premiums and pays out in losses is not all profit," the Fire Insurance Commissioner said. "Out of this money, the company must pay salaries of its personnel, its office expense, field supervisors, agency commissions and buy the forms, surveys and inspection reports it uses. It also must pay its loss adjustment expense and taxes."

The new reduction in fire rates follows a general trend toward lower insurance costs during the last several years. Last year, fire insurance reductions in Texas amounted to $1,881,000, Brown said.

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer

Austin—Because of the economic losses they cause to industry and commerce and the annoyance they create in homes, rats have been considered a serious menace to mankind since long before their role as vectors of disease was understood. Today at least six diseases which are transmitted to man from the rat are known to medical science, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. These diseases include the dread plague, typhus, trichinosis, a form of jaundice, tapeworm, and food poisoning. The whole history of the role rats play in the transmission of disease remains as yet unknown.

"It is necessary to public health," Dr. Cox said, "that a continuous rat control program be maintained in every urban and rural area throughout Texas. This is of especial importance on farms where rats may flourish by feeding on grain and other farm products.

The doctor pointed out that rats, like other living things, require food and shelter if they are to propagate and increase in number. Destroying their shelter and breeding places includes the employing of ratproof design in buildings, the use of ratproof materials in construction, employing ratproof methods of construction and installation, and providing for periodic inspection of buildings to insure permanent safety. This program will force the rat out into the open where its destruction may be accomplished.

Of equal importance is the control measure is the elimination of all food supplies. This consists of storing all foods in ratproof buildings or in rat-proof containers, the proper storage and disposal of garbage, and careful feeding of stock to prevent waste feed from being picked up by the rats.

By observing these control measures, the community will benefit not only in the eradication of a nuisance and economic menace but in improved health conditions and the prevention of rat-borne diseases.

THE COACH SPEAKS

The game of football is made up primarily of two main fundamentals, blocking and tackling. And yet, the average fan pays little attention to these, and spends most of his time watching the ball carrier.

Of course, a fast, shifty ball carrier is important, but the most valuable men on the team, in the coach's estimation, are the men who clear the way for these ball carriers with good blocking, and hold the other team back with good tackling.

Did you, as a fan, ever stop to think that each play must start with a perfectly passed ball from center? Our center will pass the ball back 40 or 50 times per game, and very seldom make a bad pass.

Each play calls for eleven men to block, fake, or carry the ball to a certain position in the defense. Our team uses from 30 to 50 plays. No "dummy" can belong to a good football team.

Besides those things, the player must remember a set of rules that fill the whole book. Next time you watch the Wildcats in action, keep your eye on the block, tackles, fakes and passers, and learn about these rules. You'll find the game much more interesting, and you'll appreciate these Wildcats more than ever; I do.

Coach Thayne Amonett.

DEFENSE IN FOOTBALL

Half of the football game is defense. Therefore a lot of time is given to the defensive formations. I wish to acquaint you with a few of these formations.

The most commonly used is the 6-2-2-1 defense. This gives you six men on the line of scrimmage, two line backers, two half backs, and a safety. For goal line play the 7-2-2 is very popular. This gives you seven men on the line, two line backers, and two halfbacks. By having seven men on the line it makes the blocking of the offensive team a little more difficult.

The 5-3-2-1 defense is well liked by the coach for pass defense. This gives you five men on the line, but it gives you an extra man in the backfield to guard against passes.

The pass defense may be a man to man affair, or we may assign our defensive men to a particular zone. The man in this zone is responsible for any pass thrown in this area. This is the pass defense used by the Wildcats.

CHS'S 1951-52 CHEER LEADERS

The pep squad with its capable cheer leaders, Maurine Youree, Virginia Tamplen, Carolyn Bell and Jean Hughtson, deserve a vote of thanks for their good work this year. The fine way that they have conducted our pep rallies is certainly commendable. The student body likes the new yell.

At the games their yells resound over the field. Someone heard an outsider remark, "We think girls do an excellent job the first half of the game, but we wish they would stay together the last half." What about it, girls?

NEW GYM STOVES ARRIVE

The new Renzor fan type heaters have been installed in the gym to replace those smokey, inadequate, and outmoded objects that heretofore attempted to heat the gymnasium in the cold winter months.

The new heaters are the latest thing in suspended gas heaters. Each one is equipped with a thermostat to regulate the temperature to the required level and keep it there automatically.

Since the gym was cleaned and repainted during the summer months, it no longer shows scuffed marks of kicking feet or the smoked walls caused by the old stoves. So let's all try to keep our shiny new gym bright and clean.

BAND WINS HONORS AT FAIR

The Crowell Wildcat Band journeyed to Iowa Park Wednesday and there entered the Class B band contest which highlighted the afternoon of the Texas-Oklahoma Fair's day of the 1951 show.

The buses left from the Wildcat Band Hall at 1 p. m. and arrived in Iowa Park at 3:30, an hour before they were scheduled to make their first performance.

The first band of the five-band parade stepped off from the Iowa Park High School about 4:30, marched down main street and then to the fair grounds, where the contest immediately got underway.

Each band, under its respective director, played two numbers for the entertainment of a very large crowd which assembled on the bleachers opposite the "stage."

Following the band performances was the twirling contest, and representing Crowell were drum majorettes, Marcia Kincaid and Frances Kincaid.

Presentation of awards followed immediately with Iowa Park walking off with first prizes in both marching and concert, and C. L. Vaughan was awarded first place in the band directors' awards.

Other band winners were marching, Henrietta, second; and Crowell, third.

Concert, Holliday, 2nd, and Burk Burnett, third. Twirling, Marcia Kincaid, first; Johnnie Munnert, Henrietta, second; and Frances Kincaid, third.

After all contests were over, the band members thoroughly enjoyed the pleasures of the fair and put their free-guest tickets for the rides to the best of use.

The buses, driven by Allen Taylor and George Fox left the fair grounds for home at 8.

According to fair officials, the bands can boast a record-smashing attendance of 33,200 persons Wednesday afternoon, almost 2,000 above the same night a year ago.

A&M STUDENTS TO PRACTICE TEACHING AT CROWELL

Several agriculture students will be sent from Texas A&M to gain experience in teaching in Mr. Myers' VA class.

A boy will be sent for each class. Some will come this fall and the rest later in the spring. They will remain two or three weeks and will assume all of Mr. Myers' duties including his ticket selling at ball games.

These boys will be under our VA instructor's supervision and will gain valuable experience in teaching. The fact that Crowell has been chosen is, we feel sure, a well deserved compliment to Mr. Myers.

DEAR EDITOR

Last week the following letter was received by Henry Black from Miss Eudora Hawkins who recently was a visiting speaker at assembly:

"Abilene, Tex., Sept. 14, 1951— I came back through Crowell on the afternoon after our assembly. On the far outskirts of town a police car had stopped a carful of teenagers, and I was sick at heart. I do so want the boys and girls of Crowell to be law abiding citizens, and I felt that the things I had said that morning must have fallen on deaf ears. Before I got into town, I waited for and stopped Mr. Petty to ask who the boys were. It was not a Crowell car, he told me. They were from Abilene, more's the pity, but I was overjoyed that they were not from Crowell.

"Mr. Petty told me there has not been a traffic accident in Crowell since he has been there, and he bragged about the way the young people drive. He said he is very proud of them.

"The next time you have an assembly period, won't you please tell them for me that I am proud of them, too, and that I hope they will keep up such a fine record? They were a wonderfully fine bunch to talk to, and I hope great things of them."

MEMORY LANE TAKES MARY ALICE BACK TO WONDERFUL 1951 VACATION

Want to take a trip with Mary Alice Werley down memory lane this week? Not too far back, just last summer, the setting is New York City at the ranch home of her uncle, Cecil Werley, who lives near historic Williamsburg.

Mary Alice traveled to her destination by way of her uncle's trim motor six passenger plane. Since he had promised her mother that she would not become homesick, he took her home four week ends, not counting the trip to and from. Can you imagine in six weeks time travelling an estimated 19,000 miles!

During this time she visited Astoria Park, Juniper Valley Park, Cliffside Park, Soundview Park and Eda Seaplane Park, where she enjoyed picnics, boat rides, tennis, skating, horseback riding and miniature golf and swimming.

She visited Englewood Cliffs, where she looked down on beautiful Skyline Drive. At Flushing Bay Mary fed the elephants peanuts at the big Barnum and Bailey Circus.

She attended shows and visited Harlem, Little China and other interesting places too numerous to mention.

Mary Alice says, "He not only took me but seven more of my friends."

We say, "Here's to more uncles of the Mary Alice type."

OKLAHOMA, ACC. AND PHARMACY APPEAR IN ELWIN'S CRYSTAL BALL

This is your life, Elwin Setliff, senior of Crowell High School. You were born December 17, 1933, in Eldorado, Okla. Most of your younger life was spent in Eldorado and Tulsa, Okla. When you were in the fifth grade, you moved to Crowell and entered Crowell Elementary School.

In 1947 you entered Crowell High School, graduating from the intermediate department with the highest honors of the boys. During the first part of your freshman year you were christened with the nickname "Elmo."

In your senior year you became one of the typists for the Wildcat and evenly divided your spare moments typing for the Wildcat, helping Mr. Black and working for Mac's Food Market. You like to work because of the money proposition.

Sitting down for lunch you enjoy chicken fried steak with all the accessories. Your favorite pastime is the opera house laughing with Bud Abbott and Lou Costello. The remaining ambition of your senior year is enjoying the sunshine, swimming, and recreation on the senior trip to Galveston.

Your future includes four years at Abilene Christian College (unless you are transferred to the Korean War College), where your major is determined to fall on pharmacy.

VOLLEYBALL, NELSON, AND HOUSEKEEPING COMPRISE MARY'S FORTUNE

In one of the small delapidated wagons of a gypsy caravan there was an old fortune-teller, who told us of the girl who had just left. Her name? Mary Bergt. She said that Mary is a pretty, poised, and reserved senior who plays on the volleyball team.

The description of her was very exact. Five feet two inches tall, brown hair, and blue eyes. As the gypsy went on she related that Mary's favorites include Home Economics, starting either Robert Mitchum or Jane Russell, and fried chicken. When the gypsy looked further into the crystal ball she told us that Mary is a member of FHA and pep squad.

While in a trance she told us of Mary's future. After graduation she will marry Vance Nelson and settle down to be a good housekeeper for the rest of her life.

SENIORS LEAD IN ANNUAL SALES

Jimmy Woods, senior class representative, won the $500 contest sponsored by the annual staff. He sold annuals to 55 per cent of his class. The sophomore representative ran a very close race. Jean Whitby sold 54 per cent.

Billye Bell from the freshman class, sold 48 per cent and Don Brown came in last with a sell of 42 per cent for the juniors.

We'd like to congratulate all representatives for doing a "hang up" job. They sold 103 annuals in one week. This shows excellent salesmanship.

You can still buy your annual from your class representative, but on Nov. 1, the annual sale closes. If you plan to buy one, please don't forget to do so before it's too late!

ENTER SNAPSHOT CONTEST

Have you an unusual snapshot you'd like to enter in the Snapshot Contest sponsored by the annual staff? Yep, the staff is wanting to give away $3.00 to the person who takes the most unusual picture pertaining in any way to the school. Your snapshot will appear in the annual on the snapshot page. You may enter as many pictures as you like.

Turn your pictures in to the photographers, Norma Jones or Mary Cooper, before Dec. 1.

Remember, the contest ends December 1. Start taking your pictures now!

SPORTSMANSHIP IN THE HIGHEST DEGREE

The Crowell student body wishes to express its appreciation for the cordial invitation to be Quannah's guest Friday night at the Quannah-Crowell football game.

Not only was our school invited to come to their pep rally at the school auditorium Friday afternoon and then to the Wigwom, their teen-age canteen, following the game were equally as cordial.

Enclosed in the letter was the Quannah High School Student Council's "Sportsmanship Code," which recognized that friendliness, respect, cooperation, cheerfulness and fairness are basic traits of acceptable standards of conduct.

We thank you, Quannah, for your invitation.

QUANAH NOSES CROWELL BY NARROW MARGIN 40-13

Crowell was defeated for the first time of the season last Friday night.

Although Crowell got a lot of bad breaks, they fought the whole game. The first half Indians led 28-0. Later in half Crowell played heads

Silly Man

The woman motorist was trying to navigate a traffic jam. She tried to back and knock a pedestrian. Then she tried to drive over to the curb and into a hydrant. A policeman came up.
 "Way, lady, let's see your license," he demanded.
 "Don't be silly," she granted, "I'd give me a license?"

"Guys and Dolls" to Show at State Fair of Texas October 6-21

Dallas—"Guys and Dolls," the fabulous musical that already has won all of Broadway's major awards for 1950-51, is "out for" the box office record set by "South Pacific" during the 1950 State Fair of Texas. "Guys and Dolls," the 1951 State Fair Auditorium attraction for State Fair visitors, already, through advance ticket sales, is threatening to topple the national box office record set by its predecessor during the State Fair run.
 In New York, the musical based on Damon Runyan's "The Idyll of Sarah Brown" walked away with the New York Drama Critics Award, Antoinette Perry Award, Aegis Theatre Club Award, Outer Circle Critics Award and Show of the Month Award.
 The national company will visit the Texas State Fair for 24 performances, Oct. 6-21, will make the musical's only Southwest stop at Dallas. It previously has been seen only in San Francisco and Los Angeles. From Dallas the company goes to Chicago. Starring in the touring company are Allan Jones, Jeanne Bal, Julie Oshins, Pamela Britton and "Slapsie Maxie" Rosenbloom.
 Tickets are still available for all performances which will be nightly and with matinees on Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays. Prices, including tax and admission to the Fair Grounds, are $4.00, 4.30, $4.00, $2.80, $2.20, and $1.30. The box office is 1203 Elm St., Dallas.

Health Letter

Texas State Department of Health, Austin, Texas, Geo. W. Cox, M. D., State Health Officer.
 Austin, Texas—"Recent outbreaks of food poisoning show very strikingly the need for special care in handling and refrigerating any food that must be prepared some time in advance of serving," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.
 "Prevention of food poisoning requires clean food handled as little as possible and consumed while it is fresh. Foods prepared hours before serving, and allowed to stand at warm temperatures become good culture media for bacteria. Cooked products of a perishable nature are readily subject to decomposition, and must be kept well refrigerated.
 "Most food poisoning is caused by infection by certain types of bacteria which grow rapidly under favorable conditions, such as high temperature and high humidity. The infection may come from dirty hands, utensils, flies, rodents, contaminated water, infected food materials and in some cases in certain types of bacteria, which are rapidly spread and not necessarily associated with filthy conditions.
 Persons with pet fawn deer are advised to release them before the fall hunting season.
