Wildcats Lose to Newcastle 40 to 0 in Conference Game at Newcastle Last Friday Night

Newcastle High School football defeated the Crowell Wildcats 40 to 0 in a conference game at Newcastle last Friday night. Newcastle was undefeated in the conference, having won all four games. However, the Crowell Wildcats have won beyond Newcastle's line five times in the game, but failed to cross the payline. One of these drives was the three-yard line and the seven-yard line. Newcastle's J. B. Hill of Newcastle had the following about Crowell's team: "It is the best that I have seen this year and in my opinion the boys played the best football I have ever seen."

Adelphi Club Announces Winners Essay Contest

Armistice Day assembly held Monday morning in school auditorium, Mrs. J. W. Bradford, chairman of the Youth Council for the Adelphi Club, announced the winners of the "Freedom with Youth" essay contest. This contest was held on Friday and August this past year. The contest was held between the ages of 12 and 18. The Crowell Schools, which entered the contest, won on a project that could be done in Crowell, and that was for youth, but with youth in mind. Judges were Mrs. Leslie Thomas, Henrie McAdams, Mrs. Earl Manard and Mrs. McAdams.

C. H. S. Dramatic Club to Present Two Plays Tuesday Night

Crowell High School Dramatic Club will present two one-act comedies in the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, Nov. 20, at 8:15 o'clock. First of these will be "The Twelve Pound Look," produced by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York. This play is a sophisticated comedy depicting the domestic life of one "upper crust" Englishman. The cast of characters includes Sir Harry Sims, the Englishman, played by John Diggs; Lady Sims, played by Marcia Kincaid; Kate, played by Betty Bartley; and Tombs, played by Jimmy Wood. The scene is the "den" of Sir Harry's house in Mayfair, England.

Grammar School Carnival November 8 Successful Event

The Crowell Grammar School Carnival, which was held in the hall and auditorium of the high school building on Thursday evening, Nov. 8, proved to be successful even though the original plans to have it outdoors had to be changed. The contest for the crowning of the king and queen was won by the seventh grades, and Aldon Garrett and Patricia Todd were crowned. The total amount taken in from the different booths and events was $429.53.

High School Band to Crown Queen Next Friday Night

The Crowell Wildcat Senior Band will crown its queen on Friday night of this week during the half at the home football game between Crowell and Henrietta. Marcia Kincaid is the band queen and she will be crowned by the band manager, A. L. McGinnis Jr. Miss Sue Meason will act as majorette during the crowning ceremonies. The two little crown bearers will be Mary Ann Myers and Sally Jean Dixon from the junior band. The throne bearer will be Billy Max Edgin, also from the junior band.

Subscriber for 53 Years Signs Up Again

91st Birthday of Mrs. Sarah Pruitt Celebrated Nov. 10

Ladies of the Margaret community honored Mrs. Sarah Pruitt with a surprise birthday shower Saturday, Nov. 10, at 4 p. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Roden. It was the anniversary of her 91st birthday. Mrs. Pruitt, who has been bedfast for almost three years, moved to Tennessee with her family from Tennessee in 1911, and has been a resident of that community since that time. Although she is bedfast, she is cheerful and appreciates every kindness shown her.

The honoree received many lovely and useful gifts. Refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. O. C. Allen, Mrs. W. R. McCurley, Mrs. C. T. Bradford, Mrs. W. F. Bradford and Jo Nelle, Mrs. Rowlene Choate, Mrs. Jewell Russell, Mrs. G. C. Wesley, Mrs. R. E. Choate, Mrs. Joe Orr, Mrs. G. M. Sikes, Mrs. Daisy Thompson and Miss Helen Russell, Mrs. Cora Barnett, Sandra and James Choate, Mrs. W. A. Dunn and Bobby Bond, Mrs. Jim Owens, Mrs. Ray Hy-singer, Cotton Owens, O. C. Allen, J. W. Bradford, Clara Mae Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Elliott, Mrs. Bax Middlebrook, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Owens, Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Lane, Mrs. A. L. McGinnis, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hugh Shultz, Mrs. James J. Choate, Mrs. C. R. Roden, Mrs. Henry Faske and children, Tom Anderson, Bax Middlebrook, Lida Bledsoe and Mrs. George Pruitt and children.

First Baptist Church Wins Youth Award

In the "Go to Sunday School Campaign," sponsored by the Crowell Youth Council, the First Baptist Church had the greatest percentage of increase for October, 1951. V. A. Smith, president of the Youth Council, presented the plaque to Nell Johnson, who is the representative of the Baptist Church on the Council, at an Armistice Day assembly program held Monday.

Crowell Wildcats and Henrietta Bearcats Close Football Season with Conference Game Here Friday Night

The Henrietta Bearcats play the Crowell High School football team here in a 1A-9 conference game tomorrow (Friday) night at 8:00 o'clock. This is the last game of the season for both teams. The contest has no bearing on this year's District race but it should be a good indication on next year's favorite to cop the conference championship as each club loses only four boys off of their entire squad and only two of these are starters, in each case.

Very little is known about the Henrietta team as this is the first time in history that these schools have ever opposed one another in football. Their team is composed of large boys who were inexperienced at the beginning of the season. They were defeated by Holiday 18 to 12 last Friday night.

Crowell Colored School to Start Next Monday

According to Supt. Grady Graves, the Negro School will start again next Monday, Nov. 19. This School has been turned out since October 4th so the children could help harvest the cotton crop and the contractors could build the addition on the school house. This school term started about the middle of August to make it possible for this harvest period. Part of the days missed will have to be made up on Saturdays to enable the children to get the required 175 days of instruction.

Clothing and Toy Drive to Start Saturday at 10 A. M.

The new addition on the building is about finished and should be ready for occupancy when school is taken up again after the Christmas holidays. The two local Negro church houses will continue to be used until the building is finished.

Mrs. H. D. Lawson, Rayland Pioneer, Dies Thursday

Funeral services for Mrs. H. D. Lawson, 75, pioneer resident of the Rayland community, were held at 2:30 p. m. last Friday at the Henderson Funeral Home Chapel in Vernon with Rev. Pat Patterson, pastor of the Baptist Church in Rayland, and Rev. W. V. O'Kelly, Methodist minister, conducting the services. Burial was in the Thalia Cemetery in charge of Henderson Funeral Home.

Funeral Held in Vernon with Burial in Thalia Cemetery

Mrs. Lawson passed away at the family home near Rayland last Thursday following an illness of one year. She had been critically ill for the past three weeks.
Pall bearers were J. L. Gobin, Emmett Martin, Harold Crisp, Fred Schwarz, T. F. Lambert Jr. and Roy Hofmann.
Mary Valeria Blankinship was born on July 3, 1876, in Bradley County, Tenn. She was married to H. D. Lawson on Dec. 29, 1896, in Tennessee. Twelve children were born to this couple, six of whom survive. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson came to Texas from Tennessee in 1909 and lived in the Tolbert community in Wilbarger County until moving to Rayland in 1912. They had lived on the same farm, one mile west of Rayland, since coming to that community.
Mrs. Lawson was converted in early life and joined the Baptist Church. She lived a consistent Christian life, was a good wife and mother, and was a kind and considerate friend and neighbor.
Survivors include her husband; three sons, Tom and Carl of Rayland, and Walter of Vernon; three daughters, Mrs. Robert Sharp and Mrs. George Thompson of Stockton, Calif., and Miss Frances Lawson of Rayland; ten grandchildren and three great grandchildren; one brother, J. W. Blankinship, of Hollister, Mo.
All of the children were at their mother's bedside at the time of death.
In addition to the children who live outside the community attending the funeral was Mrs. Lillian B. Vail, another relative of Higgins, Texas.

Texas Motorists to Be Responsible in Case of Accidents

Austin—Texas motorists who become involved in traffic accidents in other states and motorists from other states who become involved in accidents in Texas are most likely to find that the long arm of the new Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Law has followed them right to the scene of their misfortune, Public Safety Director Homer Garrison Jr., pointed out this week.

As explained by Director Garrison, here is how it will operate when the law becomes effective in Texas on January 1:

Assume that a Texas motorist is driving his automobile in another state having a similar security type safety responsibility law and is involved in an accident that results in death or injury to a person or property damage to any one person in excess of $100. He will be required, under the laws of that state, to furnish proof of his ability to meet damage claims either through insurance or by depositing sufficient security to cover the apparent damage he caused.

Should the Texas motorist fail to do this, the authorities of the other state will suspend his privileges to own or operate a motor vehicle in that state and will send a certified copy of its suspension order to the Texas Department of Public Safety. If the circumstances in the other state would have resulted in suspension in Texas, his motoring privileges will also be suspended in Texas. They will remain suspended until he has satisfied the law of the other state to the same extent that he would be required to satisfy the Texas law.

In the same manner, the new Texas law applies to non-resident motorists who are involved in accidents in this state, resulting in death or injury to a person, or property damage to any one person in excess of $100. Non-residents who fail to meet the requirements of the Texas law will have their privileges suspended in this state and also in their home state if the circumstances would have called for similar action there.

"When you understand that 10 per cent of the traffic accidents in most states are caused by out-of-state drivers," Director Garrison said, "you will appreciate the importance of this provision in our law. It means that a visiting motorist will no longer be able to skip out of responsibility for his damages by crossing the state line. If he does, he will find the administrator of his own state's safety responsibility law waiting for him with a suspension order. I think this alone will do much to promote greater safety on our highways."

Since 34 other states have enacted safety responsibility laws similar to the one that soon will become effective in Texas, the area where motorists are not subject to these modern statutes has been considerably narrowed. While the safety responsibility law in a few of these states does not include this reciprocal provision, they are rapidly adding it. In addition, traffic accident experts predict that most of the 13 states that have failed to enact these statutes will do so within the next two years.

TOUGHEST PROBLEM

Retailers face some tough problems these days. And the current squeeze on their always modest profits is just about the worst.

When Congress renewed the price control law, it added some amendments which, it was believed, would allow retailers and all other businesses concerned to keep their pre-Korea profit margins, and to pass on the many increases in costs over which they have no control. But these amendments lacked clarity of language and, according to OPS, they apply only to manufacturers and processors, and to new retailing regulations but not to the old ones. Thus, OPS contends, retailers can be forced to absorb many price increases.

This puts the retailer in an impossible situation. His pre-Korea profit margin was the result of years of competition in a free market. It is, for the most part, the smallest profit that will permit of good service and progressive store operation. It averages only a few cents out of each sales dollar the consumer spends and is sometimes less. If it were eliminated entirely, leaving the retailer no profit at all, the difference to the consumer would hardly be noticeable. Worst of all, if OPS is determined to follow a policy of "profit control"—and there are plenty of indications in this direction—the whole economy of the country will be threatened. That certainly was never the intent of Congress. That policy comes straight out of the socialist ideology. It would disrupt industry and trade—and undermine the economic strength of the nation, perhaps irreparably.—Industrial News Review.

INVESTMENT MIRACLES

According to a New York Times editorial, it looks as if American business will set a new record for capital investment—which means new plants and other physical equipment to produce all manner of goods and services—this year. The total may reach $25,000,000,000. The former record, set in 1948, was $19,200,000,000.

The Times observed that our business leaders can well be proud of this accomplishment. Then the paper said, "It is for the community at large, however, to realize that this feat is based on a framework of laws which makes it possible for business to accumulate capital through retained profits or to borrow capital from others who are attracted by the hope of gain. Confiscatory corporate tax laws, ceilings on profits made with an eye to political rather than economic advantage, and similar moves are the surest ways of guaranteeing that such investment miracles will not be repeated in the future."

That $25,000,000,000 of new capital investment means more jobs and opportunity for our people, more sources of tax revenue for all levels of government, more production of the necessities and luxuries, and more and better living and working standards. It is a prime example of the vigor, strength and drive of what we call the American system. The main duty of every citizen is to keep that system alive—both in his own interest and the interest of the nation as a whole.—Industrial News Review.

Remove Mildew from Textiles

Mildew spots are enemies to clothing and household textiles, but they can be removed if proper measures are taken. Mrs. Mary D. Brown, Acting County Home Demonstration Agent, urges housewives to remove mildew spots as soon as they are discovered. If allowed to remain on the fabric, she says, the mold growth will weaken and rot the material.

First, take the article outdoors and brush to remove excess surface growth. This will prevent the scattering of mold spores around the house. Sun and air the article thoroughly. Then wash with soap and water, rinse well, and dry in the sun. If any stain remains, moisten with lemon juice and salt and spread in the sun to bleach. Rinse thoroughly and dry. Use care in following this treatment on colored goods.

Sodium perborate is another safe bleach Mrs. Brown recommends for washable cloth. Sponge the mildew spot with a solution of one tablespoon sodium perborate to a pint of lukewarm water, or sprinkle the powder directly on the dampened stain. Let stand for a minute or two, then rinse well and dry.

Mildew stains that have been on cotton, linen, or rayon for some time can be removed by dipping the cloth in Javelle water or other chlorine bleach for no longer than one minute. Follow by rinsing thoroughly. Never use chlorine bleach on silk or wool.

UNENDING REFRAIN

"The unending refrain of the Department of the Interior is that private power cannot do the defense job; consequently the government will have to step in and develop public power," said the Charlotte, North Carolina, Observer in a recent editorial.

"But private power can do the job if it is given a fair chance. It is proving it every day by the new generating plants it is opening. Invariably it gets those plants built more quickly than the government ever built a plant."

The Observer then cited some examples of new private power development in its region and continued, "All over the country other power companies are doing the same thing, but the Department of the Interior keeps saying that they can't do what they obviously are doing. Public power, says that Department, is the only answer."

"Yet, in the very midst of this Federal outcry for more power, the Controlled Materials Plan went into effect and so snarled up materials for the private power companies that they may have to stop work on 30 new plants now under construction."

"Maybe it is just another example of bureaucratic bungling. It may be just another case in which the government's right hand does not know what its left hand is doing."

"If it was somebody's mistake, it ought to be corrected at once."

On top of that, various government power agencies are clamoring for tremendous appropriations for building power lines which would simply duplicate the existing lines of private utilities—and so would represent a callous waste of vast amounts of the critical materials, to say nothing of money and manpower. If the government honestly wants more defense power, it will do everything possible to see that the utility industry, with its magnificent record of service in peace and war, gets the materials it must have to build ahead of our needs.

NEW VET DIVIDEND

The Veterans Administration has announced that it is about one-third through paying this year's "G. I. Insurance" dividend and is now in the process of planning to pay another dividend next year. A total of 2,854,114 checks had gone out to National Service Life Insurance policy holders through August 21, totalling $235,313,449.21. The entire payment will amount to about $685,000,000 on about 8,000,000 policy holders. This year's dividend will be the last "special" one and from now on "regular" dividends will be paid each year.

SQUARE PUMPKIN

Praetoria, South Africa — Because round pumpkins are so bulky and, therefore, hard to market, a Transvaal farmer decided to do something about it. He hopes to achieve a neat, four-cornered pumpkin by putting a square, wooden box cover over it before it is fully grown and molding it into a cube.

Jet fighters carrying bombs were launched from carriers for the first time in April 1951.

Complete Soil Conservation Survey Now Under Way

Eight teams of state and federal agricultural specialists are now at work on the most inclusive soil conservation survey ever undertaken in the three river basins under study by the Arkansas-White-Red Basins Inter-Agency Committee, John A. Short, Department of Agriculture member, announced this week.

The information they are gathering will be used in sizing up the basic questions of how big the soil conservation job is, who should do it and how long it will take to get the "basic protective" job done.

The teams, all specialists from state agricultural colleges and federal workers who have had long experience in the localities where they are working, are listing the needed conservation practices needed and plotting the number of acres that should be protected by each practice, an extremely detailed task. These figures will be added up to show the sectional importance of the various practices, and to give estimates of cost, data that will be needed by the Inter-Agency Committee in the formulation of an overall plan of soil and water conservation and development.

One of the important points to be considered by the Committee is the effects of the recommended land treatment measures on other phases of the broad plan. In the latter stages of the study all phases will be adjusted and fitted into a single plan balanced to create the greatest overall benefits. The final report on the 180,000,000 acre area is due for completion in mid 1954; however, the soil conservation inventory and many other preliminary steps will be completed before that time.

In summing up the benefits of the soil conservation, Mr. Short asserted, "When complete conservation measures are applied to the land, water falling on that land will drain off slowly and leave the few inches of life-giving topsoil at home where it belongs. When erosion is stopped there will be clearer streams, less silting in our reservoirs, less flooding, more fish, better water supplies for every use. It means that when we save soil we save water too—and both items are moving higher on the premium list each year."

"Soil conservation is everybody's job," he said. "The farmer has the primary duty but merits the encouragement and help of every citizen."

"Already some clear indications are coming out of the conservation study which aims finally at recommending ways of getting necessary soil saving measures on the land before we lose much more of our productive soils," Mr. Short continued. "Most important is evidence that if we are to get even the 'basic protective' practices put on during the next two decades we will need to step up the rate we're going now by about three times. Turned around, this means that even though we have been making some real progress that can be seen, we still seem to be losing one acre of good soil while we are saving another."

"The general picture is clear—we need to do more conservation work faster," Mr. Short declared. "However, this does not mean that our detailed study is being conducted merely to corroborate preconceptions. We are out to find the facts and to use the facts as we find them."

One of the agricultural teams is assigned to each of the basin states of Louisiana, Missouri, Arkansas, Texas, Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Wichita Falls Opens Membership Drive for Symphony Orchestra

Wichita Falls, Nov. 5 (Spl.)—The Wichita Falls Symphony Orchestra Society will open its annual membership enrollment Monday, Nov. 5, with a view to enrolling 3,500 members in this and nearby communities. President Harley Goble says plans are nearing completion for probably the most satisfying programs in its history.

Under Conductor Frederic Balazs, brilliant young Hungarian-American conductor - composer-violinist, rehearsals already are well-advanced for the first concert, dated for Dec. 3 at the Memorial Auditorium in Wichita Falls. It will be a straight orchestral concert for the full ensemble, including Wagner's "Lohengrin" prelude; Beethoven's Fifth Symphony; Ferde Grofe's "Grand Canyon Suite"; and a new overture by Paul Schwartz, a contemporary Ohio composer.

Other concerts are dated for Jan. 28, March 24 and May 12.

WHO'S RIGHT?

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. — Adolph Wulff, 80, telephoned police to send an ambulance to get a dying man. When asked, "Who is dying?" Wulff replied, "I am," gave his address and hung up. Less than two hours later, Wulff died of a heart attack in an ambulance on the way to the hospital, although the policeman, who answered his call, said Wulff appeared in perfect health when he arrived. Wulff insisted, "I know when I'm going to die."

VISIT ENDS IN STAY

Pearisburg, Va.—On his way home after visiting his son, Albert, in a hospital here, James Hardy Williams, 69, was struck by an automobile and returned to the same hospital with a broken leg and other injuries.

Star's Borrowed Baby Stirs Tempest

NEW YORK—Buxom actress Jane Russell fondles Thomas Kavanagh, 15-month-old English baby she's taking care of, heedless of the furor the case created. She brought the baby, son of poor London parents, to U. S. to give it a "better chance." Now parliament members are protesting against "exporting" of British babies.

STARTED IN AN OIL WELL

Do you happen to own a transparent raincoat? Or a set of non-breakable icebox dishes? Or washable bathroom curtains? Or a lightweight, bright-colored garden hose? Did you ever notice the wrapper that surrounds the frozen vegetables you buy at the store?

These — along with thousands of other equally commonplace articles — may have started in an oil well. They were converted into their present form by the science called petro-chemistry, which takes petroleum hydrocarbons and utterly transforms them.

This particular branch of chemistry is very new, and it is enormously complex. It deals in the abstruse world of atoms and molecules. And so far, great as the progress has been, only the surface has been touched. As an article in a magazine published by one leading oil company put it, the "phenomenal progress of petrochemistry has been achieved in the few recent years by what might be called the traditional methods of chemistry, involving the rearrangement of atoms to make strange new molecules. Ahead lies the wide-open, fabulous field of nuclear chemistry, which plays with the atoms themselves. Already the star-gazers among chemists are looking in that direction."

Petrochemistry demonstrates that crude oil is an extraordinary commodity. The processes of science can make it perform services and produce useful articles which are almost unlimited in scope and number. And all of this is the result of research, both within the oil industry itself and in the industries which produce chemical synthetics and other chemical products. The result is better living for the people.

The American oil industry spends $100,000,000 a year on research. That is an enormously profitable investment for the whole nation.

IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST

President Truman has been most critical of certain aspects of the recently-passed price control law. He has specifically denounced amendments which require ceiling price increases sufficient to compensate for higher costs and legalizing pre-Korea profit margins on new orders. Apparently the President and advisors wish to force producers and distributors to absorb all or part of increases over which they obviously have no control.

It is a good thing for the country that Congress, in this case, refused to follow White House recommendations. Today we need greater production all along the line—both to supply mounting military and civilian needs, and as a weapon against inflation. We need a retail distribution system which can keep up with the expansion in our productive facilities, and which will give the consumer the best and most economical service. But we would have none of these things if the law directly or indirectly made it impossible for the store or the factory to earn a reasonable profit. No man does his best when fair rewards are denied to him. He simply moves with the tide and takes as few risks as possible.

No one defends excessive profits. As a matter of fact, competition is the public's best and surest protection against that—if one business tries to charge too much for something, another business will sell a similar article for less and get the trade. And, in those few cases where excessive profits may be earned, the tax collector is right on hand to take most of it. The amendments that Congress wrote into the price control law are clearly in the national interest.

Texas Top Ranking 4-H'ers

TRIPS to the 30th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago were given four Lone Star State club members for their outstanding records in the 1951 National 4-H Canning, Field Crops, Garden and Girls' Record programs. The state winners and brief outlines of their records follow:

Better methods of doing everyday homemaking skills proved to be a challenge to Patsy Harris, 16, of Plainview. Her selection as state winner in the 4-H Girls' Record program proves that this versatile young miss is a first-rate housekeeper and manager. Patsy has been in club work seven years and has completed 30 projects, among which are poultry, clothing, canning and home improvement. Her record shows 59 garments made, 2,588 jars of food canned, 630 chickens raised, as well as meal preparation and gardening. One of her favorite projects was the refinishing and upholstering of six pieces of furniture for her bedroom. She is active in all community activities, speaking before groups and on the local radio station and gives generously of her musical talents throughout the county. Montgomery Ward provided Patsy's trip award.

Growing a garden has served a three-fold purpose for Joyce Weber, 16, of Victoria, state winner in the 4-H Garden program. Joyce has supplied the family with a variety of fresh vegetables, reduced the cash outlay for food, at the same time promoting relaxation and good health. Her trip award was presented by Allis-Chalmers. During the four years she has carried gardening she has raised 3,265 pounds of food, canning 887 jars of it. She has also been in clothing for the seven years of her 4-H Club work and taught crafts not only to club girls but to adults as well. Mrs. Fonda Graham, county agent, says that Joyce is known throughout her community as a gracious hostess and for her winning smile.

For making an outstanding record in her food preservation project Virgie McCarley, 18, of Quitman, was named State champion in the 4-H Canning Achievement program. Experimenting with new ideas, she has broadened her knowledge of better homemaking methods through her 4-H art. Home canning also has made it easy to follow the nutrition yardstick and keep the budget low. During seven years in club work, she has canned 471 quarts of food; also made 95 garments, improved 24 bedroom articles, and carried a landscaping project for five years. Two years ago she entered East Texas State Teachers College but still carries 4-H demonstrations on canning and clothing and continues active in church work. Kerr Glass furnished funds for Virgie's trip to Chicago.

Utilizing improved field crop methods has earned state honors for Ray Riley, 16, of Hart, in the 4-H Field Crops program. Long hours and much effort went into learning good farm practices and expert use of farm machinery, but the increase per acre production of food, feed and fibre crops has more than compensated. Seven years in 4-H work, and much individual research and experiment, particularly in the field of seed selection, has brought Ray the title of the youngest licensed certified seed breeder in the State. He has completed 56 projects, is an outstanding leader and has trained judging teams for the last three years. A total of 230 acres in field crops has yielded him an average of $83 an acre. International Harvester provided Ray's Chicago trip award.

All of these activities are conducted under the direction of the Extension Service of the State Agricultural College and USDA cooperating.

Oscar Hudlow and sister, Mrs. Ione Wilkins, are here this week visiting their grandfather, L. D. Phillips.

M. F. Crowell closed a deal last week for the purchase of the J. F. Ross farm south of town.

CRASHES IN ALASKA CAUSE CONCERN

Something of a mystery could be developed out of the action of the Navy in grounding one of its patrol bomber squadrons in Alaska, following three crashes that, so far, have been unexplained and are not believed to have been due to structural weakness of the aircraft.

The accidents are described as "baffling" and "distressing." The long-range, four-motored planes patrol waters leading to Siberia where, it is reported, the Russians have massed thousands of planes. Moreover, nine other planes, in addition to the Navy aircraft, have crashed or disappeared in a period

Texas Farm Bureau Federation to Meet in Houston Nov. 19-21

Program arrangements have been completed for the eighteenth annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation to be held in Houston, November 19-20, 21. It has been announced by J. Walter Hammond, Federation president. Outstanding speakers of national prominence who will address the meeting include Allan B. Kline, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation; U. S. Congressman W. R. (Bob) Poage, vice chairman of the House Agriculture Committee; Mrs. Raymond Sayre, president of the Associated Women of A. F. B. F.; Dr. W. G. Kammlade, Director of Extension, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, and others.

More than a thousand farm and ranch men and women from 200 Texas counties will be in attendance, Hammond said. Voting delegates from the grassroots organizations will officially approve the resolutions that will govern the policies of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation for the coming year.

Monday, November 19, will be devoted to open hearings on resolutions and special commodity conferences and committee meetings. The program that evening will give recognition to counties that have made outstanding achievements in membership. The convention proper will get underway on Tuesday morning.

Crowell Invited to Have Special Day at Fat Stock Show

Crowell has been invited to have a special "day" at the 1952 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. The invitation is conveyed in a letter from President Manager W. R. Wate of the Fort Worth exposition (Jan. 25 through Feb. 3) to the Chamber of Commerce. The letter declares: "Because of the fine help which your city gave, the 1951 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show was a record-breaker in many ways.

"The purpose of this letter is to say 'Thank you,' to tell you we are hard at work on plans to make the show coming up the best one yet; and to extend a special invitation to your city to have a 'day' designated in your honor.

"By having a 'day' and bringing your band and naming a Cowgirl Sweetheart, your city will reap wide publicity and your citizens will have more fun by coming in a delegation, thereby making a real impact on the throngs, with your hatbands and badges publicizing your own rodeo, fair or other civic enterprise.

"The Stock Show is your show. It has been helping advance the great livestock industry of the Southwest (so important to the prosperity of all of us) since 1896. We're counting on your help and cooperation."

SEW-N-SEW CLUB

The Sew-N-Sew Club of Foard City met Thursday, Nov. 9, in the community house. Mrs. Wilson of Thalia gave a cosmetics demonstration.

The hostess for the occasion was Mrs. Clarence Garrett, who served Cokes, peanuts and cakes to the members and Mrs. Wilson.

WEST SIDE H. D. CLUB

The West Side Home Demonstration Club met Nov. 13 in the home of Mrs. Henry Edgin.

Mrs. Edgin showed how to make tufted rugs. She emphasized that the tufts must be sewed to the canvas with a crossed stitch.

Mrs. Ray Brown demonstrated making hooked rugs. She suggested that a person make a rug which would fit into that person's home. The rug pattern should harmonize with the walls. The rug size should fit the size of the room, the furniture and the space it is to cover.

Mrs. Brown had several types of hooking needles so each person present experimented to find the type she preferred.

Present were the following: guests, Mesdames Chastain of Sandoz, Texas, Jack Lyons and Ray Brown; members, Mesdames R. J. Roberts, M. O'Connell, Oscar Gentry, C. R. Bryson, J. L. Kincheloe, Roy Cooper, E. A. Dunagan, G. H. Kincheloe and the hostess, Mrs. Edgin.

The next meeting will be Nov. 27 with Mrs. C. R. Bryson.

THE GREATEST VIRTUE— "A GRATEFUL HEART"

With the single exception of the Fourth of July, Thanksgiving is the only holiday observed throughout the United States from Maine to California that is strictly American. It is American to the core, even to the two chief articles of the Thanksgiving dinner, turkey and pumpkin pie. Both were long unknown to Europeans; they are native to America.

The first day of Thanksgiving was observed in 1621 when Governor Bradford, the first governor of the colony of Massachusetts, insisted that thanks should be given for a meager harvest.

A vision of what that first Thanksgiving Day must have been like in the little colony of Plymouth, Mass., over 300 years ago, is very vivid to us even now. Gov. Bradford sent out on that day a little company of men in quest of game and they soon returned bending under the weight of wild turkeys and other fowl. The women immediately set to work preparing the fowl and delicious combinations of pie and sauce made from the wild cranberry that grew in abundance at the edge of the clearing.

Next day the silence was broken by the sound of a great cannon and a solemn procession made its way to the meeting house. Elder Brewster conducted the services from a huge Bible. The guests of honor were the Indians, who that day sat down with their white friends to a meal the likes of which had not been tasted in many a day, because of the recent severe drought. The one day of song and making merry, of prayer and thanksgiving to their Creator, who had been more than generous with his bountiful blessings, lengthened into three. And during the years that followed, special days were set aside for similar celebrations.

Mrs. Sarah J. Hale of Philadelphia, however, was actually the one responsible for the now firmly established holiday. Despite how essential it seemed to set aside at least one day annually for thanksgiving and the harvest festivals, not to mention the historic background, had it not been for Mrs. Hale, Thanksgiving day might not have been continued.

Year after year she wrote letters to the governors of all the states and territories suggesting that the last Thursday in November might be set aside for Thanksgiving. At last President Lincoln gratified her wish and appointed November 6 as the day. Since then, with only one exception, the presidents have recommended the last Thursday of November for Thanksgiving observance. During this Thanksgiving month, let's all have a more grateful heart, for it was in one of his orations that Cicero said, "The grateful heart is not only the greatest virtue but the parent of all the others."

YOUTH COUNCIL PRESENTS AWARDS IN SPECIAL ARMISTICE ASSEMBLY

On Monday morning, November 12, the student body assembled in the auditorium to commemorate Armistice Day. After the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," V. A. Smith, master of ceremonies, led the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

This was followed by "Onward Christian Soldiers" and the presentation of a plaque to the Baptist Church as an award for winning first place in the "Go to Sunday School Contest."

Next, V. A. introduced Mrs. Ray Shirley, who presented the awards to the winners in the essay contest. First prize of $25 went to Eva Rae Geaslin, second prize of $10 was won by Norma Jones, third prize was taken by Clara Jones. Bertha Johnson received honorable mention.

A movie, "The Fleet That Came to Stay," the story of the last great sea battle of World War II, was shown to the students before they returned to classes.

DISTRICT I AREA IV F. H. A. MEETING HELD

The following members of the F. H. A., accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Kenner, went to Seymour on November 10 for a district meeting: Mary Bergt, Virginia Tamplen, Joyce Ribble, Thelma Sharber, Betty Bartley, Maurine Youree, Frances Kincaid, Sue Meason and Billy Bell.

After registration, the all-day program of the Texas Association District I Area IV meeting began with several popular numbers by the Seymour Band.

Virginia Tamplen represented Crowell by giving the invocation. The area mother, Mrs. John Neal, greeted the group.

Knox City presented a variety show consisting of songs and skits, and Graham brought a talented soloist. The Hamlen chapter presented a pantomime. Anson, Rule, Merkel, Tuscola, Stamford, Albany and Seymour gave F. H. A. Week on Parade. This series was very entertaining.

Teen-age problems were discussed by a panel consisting of two high school girls, two high school boys, one mother, a teacher, and a Presbyterian minister. Such subjects as going steady, dating older boys, and out-of-town dates were discussed by the panel members.

Mary Bergt acted as voting delegate from Crowell. One of the things they decided on was to have a summer camp at Buffalo Lake at Abilene.

The meeting adjourned to meet next November at Abilene.

PLANS BEING MADE BY HOMEMAKING II

If you happen to come into the Home Economics kitchen the third or fourth period Nov. 28, you will probably hear something like this, "Mrs. Kenner, do you think this pie looks all right?" "How many degrees Fahrenheit is this dressing supposed to be cooked?" Yes, you have guessed it. The girls in third and fourth period classes are going to prepare a Thanksgiving luncheon, and each girl plans to invite a friend as her guest.

After quite a bit of looking and planning, the girls found a centerpiece which they thought was very clever. This centerpiece will be a huge turkey made from a grapefruit set among autumn leaves, English walnuts, Brazil nuts and almonds. The turkey is made in this manner: three wooden shewers are inserted in a grapefruit for legs and firm stand. With a paring knife, cut four rows of deep slits for fanned-out tail. Insert thick leaves with stem ends cut to points for tail feathers, placing smallest leaves in front, longest in back, and trim tips with scissors. Make two deep slits at acute angles on sides for wings; insert two leaves in each without trimming tip. Cut gash for head and wattle. Make head of shelled almonds with pin inserted in bottom to hold it in place. Eyes are two black-headed pins snipped short with pliers. Use coxcomb or pimento for wattle. Cut scallops, bending them outward, to represent breast and feathers.

When the question came up as to what we would have for plate favors, the girls found one that they thought would be very appropriate. It is an orange dressed like a pilgrim.

For the eyes they will insert two cloves in the orange. Shallow cuts on two sides of a triangle are made for the nose. After bending it, the result is a flap outward. Next, make a smiling mouth out of the skin of the orange. The neck for the orange to rest on is a strip of white cardboard, with edges glued together to make a ring. The collar and cap are cut from white bond paper and wool yarn is used for the hair.

Now for the last, but certainly not the least, comes the menu planned for the Thanksgiving luncheon. The menu consists of baked chicken and dressing, English peas in a nest of mashed potatoes, a cranberry turkey served on a pineapple slice, hot rolls and butter, iced tea, and cherry pie. This menu certainly sounds delicious; therefore, if one of the girls invites you to this luncheon, it will be a wise thing to accept the invitation.

SMITH'S ADVICE TO LOVELORN

Dear V. A., I am having gurl trubl, my girl, George Ann, is giving me fits, she flirts with other boys all the time and when I flirt with somebody, she alwaz gits mad. I am very hartsic, plez give me some good advice and I will apreshate it very much.

Yours hartsic,
Buddy Caddell.

Dear Hartsic,
Don't despair, this happens in every romance. This could mean that she isn't as fond of you as she was, but you are lucky to have a mutual friend who is so popular.

V. A.

Dear Mr. Smith,
There is a cute Junior boy that I would like to go with very much. Although I have gone with him once, he seems to be the bashful type and hasn't asked me again. He is the "Most Handsome Boy" in school, but he is not conceited. Do you think I should continue to admire him?

Desperate, C. V. M.

Dear Desperate,
Isn't it terrible to be affected with such emotion for a person? Your problem is to meet him accidentally and charm him into dating you again. Have you tried accidentally dropping your handkerchief or tripping him? Remember, be brave.

V. A.

Dear V. A., I am terribly unhappy. I go with a boy who is real skinny, but I'm very fat. He keeps flirting with other girls and I know it is because I'm so fat. I can't take reducing exercises because of rheumatism, and I refuse to go on a diet because I like to eat too well. Please tell me a way to get a good figure so I can keep my boyfriend.

A very sad fat girl.
Dear Fat Girl,
You're the problem concerning many girls. You could induce your boyfriend into eating too much so that he would be fat also. Have you tried, or no, I don't think you would wear one. Why don't you explain that you're really not fat, but only need to be a few inches

LANA'S AMBITION IS TO FIND GOOD PAYING JOB AFTER GRADUATION

If you hear a merry laugh and see a petite senior wearing a skirt and sweater, you'll know it's Lana Short.

This 5' 2" green eyed, strawberry blonde, from Thalia, was born December 31, 1934, the oldest daughter in her family.

Her favorite doings include baseball games because, so she says, she knows more about it and movies starring June Allison and Gordon McRae. She also likes a meal consisting of fried chicken and more fried chicken.

After graduation next spring, Lana plans to find a job which pays lots of money and leaves her plenty of time to indulge in her favorite pastime, sitting in an easy chair, reading, and listening to popular music.

SPORTS REVIEW

Although the Wildcats were unsuccessful in their encounter with Newcastle's fine eleven last Friday night, the charges of Coaches Amoneet and Erwin stand an excellent chance of taking the Bearcats of Henrietta when they play host to them tomorrow night in Wildcat Stadium. By clipping the opposing eleven, our team will end the season with a respectable seven win and three loss record. With only a little luck this record could have been better. Nevertheless, the CHSites have played excellent football and have improved very much since early season when sports authorities picked the Cats to win four games and lose six.

Four boys will be playing their last game on the local gridiron for CHS Friday night. They are: Robert Brock, Leon Pechacek, Coy Payne and Roy Merl Whitley. These boys have played a lot of football this year, and both they and the entire Wildcat team should be commended for their fine spirit and determination. We all know these boys are really going to be out for those Bearcats.

We can show our support and loyalty to those fighting Wildcats when they draw the curtain on the 1951 football season by attending the Friday night game.

8—THE FOARD COUNTY NEWS

Crowell, Texas, Nov. 18, 1951

taller. V. A.
Dear Mr. Smith,
I am very much in love with a girl, but she just ignores me. Please try to help me by advising me what to do.

An affectionate lover.
Dear Affectionate,
Have you tried showering her with lavish gifts? You could invite her to ride around and perhaps take her to a few nite spots within the city limits.

If your father strikes oil and you acquire a chartrusse Cadillac convertible, this will help you a lot if your friend is normal.

V. A.
NORMA'S NONSENSE
Hi! Seems as if this past week has had more than its share of activities, doesn't it? Everything from red flags to cops and spending the night in jail at Olney—almost. Mrs. Sloan and Miss Kirkpatrick, band, and pep squad theme song, "I'm Standing on the Inside Looking Out."

Truscott was invaded Friday night by Tarleton boys. V. A. is looking for a double-leash for two "poodles" of CHS. The "poodles" are?? Why Wanda and Rosemary, of course—I thought I'd never be a juvenile delinquent — Carolyn Ann George Ann.

Volleyball training has started and no more candy, Cokes, or Ahem! No more late hours, either girls!!

Gordon Graves seems to like Vernon and also what's in it Reason—Carolyn Haney.
Sue Meason and Glynndon Johnson have called it quits. I believe Coleman Self is the lucky guy now.
Leon is still looking for his teeth.
Nita June Carroll and Nancy Hallmark are interested in the same boy. May the best gal win.

Notice!
There will be a dance at the Community House Friday night after the football game in honor of the band and the football boys. Come one, come all. Sponsored by the pep squad.
Joy Sparks has found a new fly-bro from "Yankee" land. The Driver's Education class I wonder if they are going to get their car in 1952 or 1953.
An old romance revived from last year, Floyd and Mary Cooper Good luck, kids!!!

You—and the SCRAP METAL EMERGENCY

ANSWERS every farmer should have to questions about scrap iron and steel

- Q. Why is iron and steel scrap a matter of importance to farmers?
A. Steel for our Country's defense program and civilian economy is being produced at the highest annual rate ever . . . and this will be greatly increased in 1952. Farm machinery and equipment needs must come from this over-all supply. As steel production increases the need for scrap increases.
- Q. How does scrap figure in the production of steel?
A. One pound of scrap is needed to make two pounds of steel.
- Q. Is scrap getting scarce?
A. Yes, the supply of scrap at the steel mills and foundries is not increasing fast enough to meet the needs of expanding steel production. Yet, there are millions of tons of idle iron and steel scrap, in small amounts, on farms throughout the country.
- Q. What if the needed scrap isn't obtained?
A. That will mean a serious loss of steel production . . . fewer products will be made of steel. It will mean more shortages of civilian products. Defense needs come first.
- Q. Why not use pig iron instead of scrap?
A. Every ton of scrap conserves approximately 2 tons of iron ore, 1 ton of coal, nearly 1/2 ton of limestone and many other vital natural resources—to say nothing of transportation facilities. Besides, there are not enough blast furnaces to produce the iron needed to maintain production.
- Q. How can more scrap be furnished?
A. By everybody pitching in—as we always do in every emergency—and searching out all possible sources of scrap. Manufacturers of all kinds of products are conducting scrap drives. Old ships are being salvaged . . . scrap is being obtained from countless sources including farms.
- Q. What is farm scrap?
A. It is any worn out, obsolete, unrepairable equipment, tools or other objects made of metal. It may be resting and rusting in fence corners, in the fields, the barnyard or the tool shed.
- Q. What should be done with farm scrap?
A. See that every bit of scrap gets to the scrap dealer located nearest to you. He will break it up into sizes used by the steel mills and foundries. He'll classify the metals then ship the scrap in carload lots. If you do not know the name of your local scrap dealer, consult your local implement dealer for this information.
- Q. What else can I do about farm scrap?
A. Support the scrap drive organized in your locality. Work with your local Scrap Mobilization Committee in getting the scrap started back to the steel mills and foundries through the local scrap dealer.

Weekly Sermon

PLAYING CHURCH
from Moody Bible Institute, Chicago
One is concerned at the lethargy of most Christian people. They go through some motions Sunday after Sunday, with the enthusiasm of an absent-minded fourth grader during his daily calisthenics session.
My children occasionally play church. They line up chairs, as many as they can muster, and then put a few dolls here and there to make up the "congregation." There are always vacant seats. They have all of the parts of the service.
These children, if asked what they are doing, guilelessly exclaim,
"We are playing church." But the adults who "play church" put on a show that is not funny! They leave the seats empty, while the preacher declares that "there is no other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." But they are not concerned. The ushers pass the offering plates, and the people put in whatever happens to be handy.
When the time for the offering came in one church, a little girl noticed a rather buxom lady fidgeting over her handbag in search of a small coin. Failing in this,
the woman closed her purse and folded her hands, intending to appear in an attitude of worship while the plate passed in front of her.
The little girl, who had brought in Texas to have a headquarters her envelope from home realized the seriousness of the situation—that someone should be at church without an offering. So the little tyke pushed her envelope into the woman's hands with the words,
"You put this in and I'll hide under the bench."
What would happen if everybody who names the name of Christ would quit playing at the job of being a Christian and begin to mean business for Him! Gone would be the little jealousies, Gone would be the type of Christianity reserved for "Sundays only." Gone would be the inconsistent business methods on the part of those who really know Him.
Gone would be the careless admissions that all those not already saved are already lost. The admissions would be there, but they would not be careless. There would be those who would be ready to go to the last lost person with the gospel—in person, or in the person of whom they would support by prayer and gifts and other forms of help.
It is time that those who know
Christ quit fooling around at being Christians. It is time that they stopped "playing church."

WHO SETS THE PRICE?

When you buy one or more shares of corporation stock through a brokerage house, who sets the price you must pay?
The answer to that is very simple, but a great many people have not had the opportunity to learn it. The fact is that you and all the other buyers and sellers of the stock involved decide the price—and no other individual or institution has anything to do with it.
Actually, the price of a stock represents the most the buyer is willing to pay for it and the least an owner will sell it for. That means that the buying and selling of stocks follows the pattern of the buying and selling of real estate, farm products, and practically all other forms of property. A stock market is, in effect, an auction house, and like all auctions it is governed by the sound old law of supply and demand.
When the demand for a stock is greater than the amount offered for sale, the price generally rises.
When the amount offered for sale is greater than the demand, the price generally goes down. And that is the reason why stock prices may vary from day to day and year to year.
There has been a very significant increase in the general public's interest in stock ownership.
No longer is it true that the big investor keeps the brokerage houses and the exchanges going.
People of moderate means, with average sorts of jobs, now constitute the great majority of the nation's 15,000,000 or more owners of industrial stocks. These people are the real capitalists of today. — Industrial News Review.

ATOMIC COSTS

The United States has spent $4,900,000,000 on atomic experiments so far and the Atomic Energy Commissions has another $1-400,000,000 in appropriated, but unexpended funds. It has asked Congress for $1,200,000,000 more for the current fiscal year.
Did you know that four Americans, who do not expect it, die every hour on our highways?

"You'll love Electric Cooking!"

It's so fast, cool, and economical... and no fumes or soot to mar your kitchen!"

What could be cleaner than cooking with heat from an electric wire? Constant, even, accurately controlled heat... no combustion, no matches, fumes or soot to soil pans, kitchen walls and curtains... that's electric cooking! New quick-speed heating units, which send heat directly into cooking vessels, and ovens scientifically insulated on six sides keep kitchens cool. Economical, too, electric cooking helps stretch kitchen budgets. But that's just part of the story. Your Electric Appliance Dealer will be glad to demonstrate the many, many other advantages of electric cooking.

Miss Sharon Haney and Ronald B. Baehr United in Marriage in Double Ring Ceremony Saturday Evening

Miss Sharon Haney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Haney of Crowell, became the bride of Ronald B. Baehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Baehr of Parlier, Calif., in a beautiful wedding in the First Methodist Church of Crowell Saturday evening, Nov. 10, with Rev. W. B. Fitzgerald, pastor of the Thalia Baptist Church and a former pastor of the Crowell church, directing the impressive double ring nuptial vows.

As a pre-nuptial musical background, Mrs. E. C. Willingham of Quanah, played a number of organ selections, and also accompanied for Luther Thurman of Wichita Falls who sang "Because of You." Mrs. Leon Speer played accompaniment for John Rasor, an uncle of the bride, who sang "Through the Years." Mrs. Willingham played the wedding march and also "The Indian Love Call" throughout the ceremony.

The church was simply but beautifully decorated with candles interspersed in greenery around the chancel and tall baskets of mums, glads, stock and greenery formed the altar before which the wedding party stood for the vows. Candelights were ushers Howard Bell and Dan Bentley while William Winsor and Alden Lenz of Wichita Falls also served as ushers. Best man was Sgt. Ernest Uruhart of Wichita Falls.

Triads of candles were in each window. Matron of honor was Mrs. Howard Bell and bride's matrons were Mrs. J. W. Raine, Mrs. Dan Bentley and Mrs. J. H. Gillespie with Miss Rosemary Cates as bridesmaid. The attendants to the bride wore identical dresses of toast net over taffeta, each with a halo and a short veil of the toast net.

They carried identical bouquets of bronze mums with toast net and golden brown satin ribbon, with the exception of the matron of honor whose flowers were the same but with olive green satin ribbon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white Onondaga Negresco faille, modeled with a basque which came to a point in the front and with wide pleats in the back, a high neckline, rolled collar, long, tight-fitting sleeves, coming to a point over her hands. The bodice was finished in front with tiny self-covered buttons, as were the sleeves.

Her veil of illusion was fingertip length and fastened to a cascade of illusion and satin bands. She carried a white hybrid Cattleya orchid with a shower of stephanotis and nylon velvet tubing on a white satin-covered Bible, which was the gift of G. C. Morris, uncle of the bride, when she was eight years of age. She carried a white lace handkerchief, the gift of an aunt, Mrs. John W. Tabor, of Dallas. She carried out the traditional wearing of something old, borrowed and blue. The something old was a ring belonging to the grandmother of her matron of honor, Mrs. G. M. Canup.

Mrs. Haney, the bride's mother, wore a brown silk bengaline with brown cloche and a corsage of Talisman roses. Her grandmother, Mrs. T. M. Haney of Vernon, wore black with a white carnation corsage.

For going away, Mrs. Baehr wore a Rothmoor suit of navy blue gabardine with which she wore winter white accessories. After a short wedding trip, Cpl. and Mrs. Baehr will reside at 900 Georgia, Apt. F, Amarillo, where Cpl. Baehr is stationed with the U. S. Air Force.

The bride was an honor graduate of Crowell High School. She attended Texas Christian University in Fort Worth and Texas Technological College in Lubbock, where she was a member of Las Chaparras Society. For the past year, she has been an employee of the City National Bank of Wichita Falls.

Cpl. Baehr is a graduate of the high school at Parlier, Calif., and has been in the service for some time.

Reception
For the reception which followed the marriage, Mrs. W. B. Johnson and Mrs. Merl Kincaid were hostesses at the home of the former.

Bert Ekern met the door and presented the guests to Mrs. Johnson who invited them to the bride's book over which Mrs. Bert Ekern and Mrs. W. M. Murrell of Abilene presided.

They were then presented to the receiving line which consisted by Mrs. T. S. Haney, the bride and groom, and all her attendants. Guests were then directed to the dining room where the table, cov-

Bridal Shower Honors Mrs. Jimmy Johnson Saturday Afternoon

Mrs. Jimmie Johnson, whose marriage was an event of several weeks ago, was honored with a lovely bridal shower given at the Adolphian Club House Saturday afternoon, Nov. 10, by Miss Jenny Wehba, Miss Helen Russell, Mrs. Veatrice Brock, Mrs. A. B. Owens, Mrs. Daisy Thompson, Mrs. C. S. Bartley, Mrs. Travis Vecera and Mrs. Joe Roper.

Mrs. Roper was at the door and presented the guests as they entered to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Lanier, Mrs. J. H. Lanier Jr., Mrs. O'Neal Johnson and Mrs. C. C. Wheeler. Mrs. Travis Vecera presided over the bride's book where each guest registered.

In the dining room where the table was exceptionally attractive, Miss Wehba poured tea and Mrs. Brock served.

Miss Betty Sue Bartley provided piano music during the party hours.

Miss Russell presided in the gift room where the pretty gifts to bride and groom were on display, from which room the guests left.

Breakfast in Honor of Miss Sharon Haney Given Saturday

Another compliment to Miss Sharon Haney, whose marriage to Ronald B. Baehr, took place Saturday evening, was a breakfast given on Saturday morning by Mrs. Jack Seale and Mrs. I. Fisch at the home of Mrs. Seale. The decorations consisted of a doll bride in the center of the table, favors consisting of little china cooling doves.

A two-course breakfast was served to the honor guest and Mesdames Virginia Rose Raine, Marjorie Bentley, Ruth Bell, De Alva Gillespie, Wilma Lenz, Marjorie Winsor, Kathleen Campbell and Miss Rosemary Cates.

Morning Coffee Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. Fred Youree, Mrs. Jack Roberts Jr. and Mrs. Foster Davis entertained with a coffee and grocery shower honoring Miss Sharon Haney, bride-elect of Ronald Baehr, on Friday morning in the home of Mrs. Youree. Coffee was served from a table covered with a white embroidered pineapple linen cloth. A lovely and unique arrangement of huckleberry and white mums around a gilded cage containing a couple of love birds at one end of the table balanced the quaint antique china coffee pot at the other end. Antique china appointments were used in all the serving. An arrangement of white mums, white carnations and lemon leaves in a low white bowl was used on the buffet.

Aunts of the bride, Mrs. G. C. Morris of Vernon, Mrs. Beech Barton of Kilgore and Mrs. John Rasor Sr. of Crowell alternately poured coffee, which was served with pastry snails, bite-sized hot tuna tarts, miniature blueberry muffins, and also an assortment of hot tid-bits.

A grocery cart filled with groceries was delivered by John Thomas Rasor Jr., a cousin of the bride, attired in white. Each guest was asked to write her favorite recipe or household hint before taking her departure.

Rehearsal Buffet Supper Compliments Bride and Groom Elect

Mrs. J. R. Beverly, Mrs. Alton Bell, Mrs. Gordon Bell and Mrs. Leon Speer complimented Miss Sharon Haney and Ronald Baehr, bride and groom elect, with a buffet supper preceding their rehearsal on Friday evening. The rehearsal for their wedding on Saturday followed.

The dining table, covered with a white linen cut-work cloth was centered with a beautiful arrangement of white flowers in a sterling bowl, surrounded by pearls. The bride and groom-elect exchanged gifts and Miss Haney presented gifts to her attendants, following the delicious meal. All appointments of the party were in silver and china. Quartet tables, each following the general decorative theme, were placed in the reception rooms for the meal. Each table was centered with a lighted candle surrounded by pearls and tiny white flowers.

The following were present for the occasion: Miss Haney, Mr. Baehr, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Raine, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bentley, Miss Rosemary Cates, Ernest Uruhart, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Winsor, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lenz, Mr. and Mrs. John Rasor, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Willingham, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Haney, Gordon Bell, Leon Speer, J. R. Beverly and Alton Bell.

VISITORS HONORED

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Simmons and Mrs. Bob Weathers honored their son and daughter, Sgt. First Class and Mrs. Roy Lee Weathers and daughters, Alma and Druclia, with a supper in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Simmons last Thursday night.

Guests present for the supper were as follows: Jim Marlow and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Marlow and children of Thalia, Luke Marlow and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ferguson of Foard City, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Naron and family and Mr. and Mrs. Daurice Ray Naron and children of Quanah, Ruth Bentley of McKinney, and Dallas Marlow, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marlow, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons and children, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Pierce and children.

Sgt. Weathers and family left Sunday for Westover Field, Mass., where they will fly to Teheran, Iran, for an indefinite stay.
