Our beloved English teacher, Mrs. Lewis Sloan, narrated an original skit, "The Newlyweds," econd on our program, in which he was contemplating suicide because of her husband's "affair" with the "other woman."

Throughout the program several olos and quartets rendered some quite enjoyable numbers. CHS crooner, Jimmy Everson, sang Anytime" and "I'm Yours" causng the freshmen girls' hearts to lutter. Jo Ann Fox displayed her "I Went to Your Wedding" and "You Belong to Me." A quartet composed of Virginia Tamplen, Mary Lou Woods, Jo Ann Fox and Jackie Rasberry turned Andrews Sisters on "Beautiful Brown Eyes" and "That Lucky Old Sun." A musical skit, the ever popu-lar "Frankie and Johnny" was presented by Sue Meason as Frankie, Frances Kincaid as Johnny, Billye McCoy as Nellie Bly, and Dorothy Gamble in the dual role of bartender, cop, undertaker and taxi driver. Throughout the entire program, picy comments and news flashes y V. A. Smith "kept the ball lling.

The last presentation was Ray Antony's All Stars consisting of Billy Abston at the piano, Jim Norman sliding the trombone. limmy Everson on the clarinet, Ginger Johnson on the saxophone, and Raymond Halencak beating the drums. This group dramatically "rendered" "Dixie" and "South" and a solo was crooned by Billy Abston to the tune of "A Kiss to Build a Dream On."

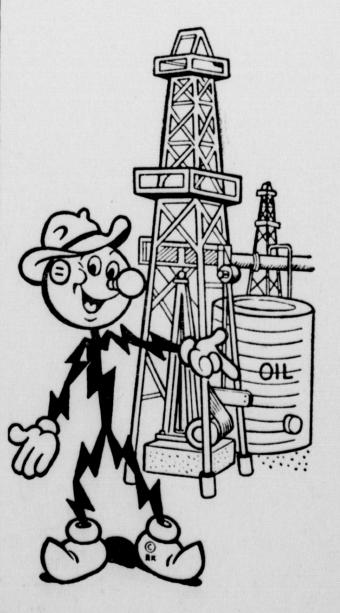

With this quite original band number, the program was con-cluded to the sorrow of all. A common cry was "Let's have one again real soon."

"Basic sweet dough and variations" was the demonstration given by Mrs. Ray Brown, agent. She made a Swedish tea ring and cinnamon rolls that were delicious. She gave several variations that could be used also. "You may make other variations too. It all depends on what you like most,' she remarked.

Those present for the meeting were: Mesdames Ray Brown, R. E. Moore, Monroe Karcher, Frank Ward, Sam Kuehn, Louis Keisch-nick and daughter, Linda, Ben Harking Groups Moore and the Hopkins, Grover Moore and the hostess.

The club has really been missing those who have been absent lately and hope that they will soon be able to attend again.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

The Foard City W. S. C. S. met at the church Monday, Oct. 13. "Must Jesus Bear the Cross was sung as the opening Alone' hymn followed with prayer by Mrs. Grady Halbert. Minutes were read and approved. "Miners in the Church" was the title of an in-teresting article brought by Mrs. Roy Fergeson. She told of how the union had raised the standard of living for the coal miners.

Mrs. Jack Welch brought the 3rd and 4th chapters of the book, "These Rights We Hold." The third chapter was entitled "Free-ing the Mind." Mrs. Welch stated though our colleges are secular they were founded on religion. The fourth chapter was on "Industrial Freedom." The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Blake Mc-
