Agent Tells How to Sew a Plaid Dress

Fall cottons have blossomed out in plaids of beautiful colors and designs. Mrs. Mary D. Brown, Acting County Home Demonstration Agent, points out that before plaids are bought they should be considered in relation to the pattern if the finished garment is to have that smart look. For plaids, choose a pattern of simple design with few seams. It is also well to study the pattern in relation to the slant of edges to be matched. Mrs. Brown says the larger the plaids the more material must be allowed for matching and that fewer pieces and joinings mean less waste of fabric. Remember that in unbalanced plaid, with up and down and/or right and left designs, all pieces must be laid in the same direction and yardage must be allowed accordingly. There is a choice between fabrics of printed plaid and woven plaids. The agent advised that printed plaids are off grain and that it is impossible to match the grain and the plaid. A professional look cannot be achieved in the finished garment unless the plaids match, so think twice before buying a printed fabric. Plaids emphasize the figure. Mrs. Brown says that women and girls with similar figures avoid plaids and satisfied with very small ones. Alexander Graham Bell was patented.

A wedding on horseback united Miss Mary Edna Norman and G. B. (Slim) Durham at 9 p. m., Friday, August 29, in the rodeo arena at Pioneer Park in Roaring Springs.

The novelty double ring ceremony took place during an intermission of the 29th annual reunion of the Motley County Old Settlers Association.

Miss Norman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Norman of Crowell, is a graduate of Texas Tech. Durham is the son of A. A. Durham of Lubbock.

The ceremony, providing an unusual and colorful climax to the night's program of the rodeo, got underway when Durham, Rev. Marvin Brotherton, pastor of the Matador Methodist Church, who performed the ceremony, and Motley County Sheriff John Stotts, best man, rode into the arena first.

Members of the Matador Quadrille, a square dancing group on horseback, entered and formed an aisle through which the bride; her father, H. C. Norman of Crowell; and the maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Traweck, rode to meet them.

The bride was wearing white riding trousers, western shirt, white hat, boots and tie. The groom was wearing a grey riding costume, with a white carnation.

The wedding was the highlight of the reunion which was organized in 1923 under the shade of the cottonwood trees at the springs.

Mrs. Durham is the granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill. She was reared in Crowell, graduating from Crowell High School. She is also a recent graduate of Texas Technological College at Lubbock where she was a member of DFD sorority, a social club. She is a member of the Matador Quadrille, and is now teaching in the Turkey school.

Mr. and Mrs. Durham will make their home on a ranch near Matador.

Home Demonstration Notes

MARY DEEB BROWN

As you know our demonstration this month is on accessories for your living room. I hope every hostess will remember to remove all her vases, ash trays, pictures, and figurines from her living room before I come for this demonstration.

The Foard City Club women have held their upholstery school this week and did five lovely chairs. Mrs. Callaway, Mrs. Cox, and Mrs. Johnson did an excellent job of teaching the rest of their club members how to upholster.

Pears will be plentiful on the market soon and can be fixed many attractive ways. Here is a recipe for Crusty Pears and Lemon Spice Sauce which you might enjoy.

After this social period, club members assembled in Mrs. Fox's living room. Mrs. M. N. Kenner was leader and members responded well with a short summary of their summer activities. Mrs. D. R. Magee, president, extended greetings to the club and welcomed the new members. The meeting was adjourned with members being imbued with a new enthusiasm for the next club year.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

Members of the Adelpian Club met for their first meeting of the year in the newly-decorated club house on Wednesday, September 3. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Ray Shirley and Miss Florence Black.

Mrs. F. B. Flesher served as leader for the afternoon's study on Public Affairs. She introduced the club president, Mrs. W. B. Johnson, who brought a most challenging address. Mrs. Johnson told of the need for informed women voters, emphasizing again and again that the club women of America should use their privilege of voting intelligently.

Continuing the program, Mrs. L. E. Archer spoke bringing "A geographical and historical survey of Austria." She presented many interesting historical incidents, as well as a view of present day political and economic conditions in that country.

At the close of the study hour, the hostesses served a delicious ice course to thirty-three members.

Next meeting time will be on the evening of Sept. 23 when the club will observe Gentlemen's Evening with a covered dish dinner. Hostesses for this affair will be Mrs. Dwight Campbell, Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Jack Turner and Mrs. Virgil Johnson. Mrs. M. S. Henry will serve as leader for the evening's entertainment.

FOARD CITY H. D. CLUB

"Why throw away your worn chairs or divans? It is much more economical to repair and re-upholster your good furniture than it is to replace the pieces at present day prices," stated Mrs. Tom Callaway to the Foard City Home Demonstration Club at an all-day meeting at the recreation room Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Callaway, four chairs were torn down and are being rebuilt from new springs to new coverings. The group will work on the chairs again at an all-day meeting at the recreation room soon. Because of the nature of the day's program, Mrs. Callaway gave but a few of the highlights of her visit as a delegate to the State Home Demonstration Club convention at Kingsville, and will give a detailed account of the trip later.

The marketing chairman, Mrs. J. M. Barker, was given a co-operative order for pecans and vanilla. The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 16, at the recreation room. The subject, "Accessories for Your Living Room" will be in charge of Mrs. Mary Brown, the agent.

Visitors present were Mrs. Fred Borchardt and Mrs. Allison Denton. Members were Mesdames W. M. Cox, Tom Callaway, J. M. Barker, Virgil Johnson, Laura son, Floyd Borchardt Sr., Halbert, Frank Welch, Jack and Fred Traweck.
