Large Crowd Here Last Friday to Attend Opening of Swimming Pool

A large crowd of children and adults were in Crowell Friday last week for the formal opening of the Crowell Municipal Swimming Pool and the close-of-school picnic.

Outstanding Citizen Award

One of the highlights of the event was the presentation of a plaque to Mayor Hubert Brown, naming him the outstanding citizen of Foard County for 1955, in recognition of his outstanding work during the construction of the swimming pool, and his unselfish devotion to the improvement of Crowell and Foard County during the several years he has served as mayor. The presentation was made by Alton B. Bell, on behalf of the Crowell Booster Club who gave the award.

The close-of-school picnic was held from 11:30 to 12:30, followed by a 30-minute concert by the Crowell High School Band, under the direction of E. L. Rickard, director.

Following the band concert, Irving Fisch, president of the Booster Club, extended a welcome to all of the visitors and introduced George Self, who acted as master of ceremonies for the afternoon program.

Mr. Self introduced Jack Seale, member of the City Council, who gave some of the statistics concerning the swimming pool. He also paid tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Turner, who donated the lots where the pool is located, and the Cates Construction Co., who did the excavation work free.

Fire Insurance Commission Gives Recommendations to City for Reducing Fire Insurance Rates in Crowell

Several weeks ago an engineer from the Board of Insurance Commissioners in Austin visited with City officials here and at the same time examined local water department facilities and the fire department equipment.

In a letter received by Mayor Hubert Brown last week, Mark Wentz, commissioner, outlines what the engineer found deficient here. The letter follows:

"We thank you for the help given our engineer when he visited your city recently and have some recommendations for your future consideration.

At the water works pumping station we suggest that arrangements be made to enlarge the pumping station building and install a second 500 GPM pumping unit operating at a 150 foot head. We understand that you have such a pump on hand, and if it is installed a charge of 3 cents now in order in your key rate may be avoided.

At the present time, your ground storage reservoir capacity at the city pumping station is 60 per cent deficient in capacity.

Therefore, in order to eliminate another 3-cent charge in the key rate we recommend that you install a second tank of at least 100,000 gallons capacity on a 100-foot tower to the bottom of the tank to be fed by a main at least eight inches in size.

"We have prepared the enclosed map upon which we have indicated where additional mains and fire hydrants should be installed in the distribution system to avoid deficiency charges now appearing in your key rate analysis. We wish to call to your attention the fact that a 5-cent charge is now in order because the supply main from Margaret to Crowell is only six inches in size. This is too small, and the main should be replaced with an eight-inch main.

Fire Department Deficient

"For some time in the past your key rate has contained a charge for lack of drills in the fire department and the fact that attendance at drills is too small. There must be a fire department organization of 20 to 25 men. Drills shall be held twice each month for periods of two hours each and at least 17 men are to attend each drill. Drill meetings are to be devoted to training work only as business and social affairs must be held at other times. Your attention is directed to the enclosed letter regarding the Firemen's Training School. Credit for the school can be allowed when the penalty for lack of drills is removed from your key rate. Drill reports are to be submitted to this office each month to arrive by the fifth of the following month so that we can know the work is being carried out. We are sending the Chief a supply of blanks.

"To restore credit of 5 per cent for night watch service it is necessary that your city purchase a second Underwriters' Laboratories labeled watch clock for use in case of an emergency. Allowance of the credit is based on the fact that your city must have two clocks, so if you are interested in this item please proceed as outlined. Please send us the manufacturer's name and the Underwriters' label number on the new clock.

"If credit of 2 per cent is to be restored for an Arson Reward Ordinance, placards must be posted in six public buildings in wooden frames under glass. Please see that this is done, and send us a copy of one of the placards and a list of the buildings where they are posted.

"We trust that you will be able to give these matters some attention and careful thought and our cooperation."

Article on Latin America Mentions H. K. Edwards Jr.

An intensely interesting story, illustrated with pictures, in the March issue of the National Geographic Magazine, tells of "Men Who Measure the Earth," by Robert Leslie Conly of the magazine staff and John E. Fletcher, photographer. Geodetic surveyors from 18 New World Nations invade the trackless jungles and climb snow peaks to map Latin American countries.

In this article the following paragraphs concerned H. K. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Edwards of Crowell. They follow:

"The most extensive such area is the vast region of swamp and jungle where the Amazon River rises, including parts of Brazil, Bolivia, Peru, Colombia, Ecuador and Venezuela. In this most impenetrable land, tribes of Indians roam untouched by civilization, hunting game and each other with blowguns, spears, and arrows.

"The truth is," one cartographer remarked to me, "there's not much in there to map."

"But I found men who disagreed. In the depths of this jungle, sailing down the swirling Marañon River in a small boat one day, I came on what I thought at first must be a mirage. On a bend in the river stood a white mansion, mounted on barges made fast to shore. Inside was a living room fitted with chrome-and-plant furniture, comfortable bedrooms, hot and cold showers, fans and water coolers, and even a laundry room with automatic washers and dryers.

"This was a mobile base camp of Texas Petroleum Company prospecting a 25-million-acre concession granted to it by the Peruvian Government. Herbert Edwards, the engineer in charge, showed me the maps they were using. The concession was outlined in bold straight lines, but the rest of the topography was so vague that, as one of the oilmen said, 'You're never quite sure where you are.'

"To men like these, and others eager to develop the resources of this rich, untapped land, maps are all-important and urgently needed. Roads, railroads, oil pipelines, even adequate air transport, all require maps."

Wheat Harvest Halted Last Week Account of Rains Over County

Good rain fell over Foard last Friday night that cut 7 of an inch by the gage at the Crowell Bank. However, in other parts of the county the down-pour was considerably heavier, especially in the Margaret community and one-half inches was recorded at Margaret, 4 1/2 at the Roy Ayers place and 4 1/2 at G. M. Moore's place, east of Margaret. Loyd Fox reported 8 inches. This moisture stopped the wheat harvest. Then on Saturday night and Sunday morning, showers continued to fall which further delayed the harvest.

No damage to the wheat crop was reported, but it was not until Tuesday afternoon that combines were started again and trucks loaded with the golden grain began to roll into the elevators.

Over 500,000 Bushels

Five hundred and thirty-five thousand bushels of wheat had been delivered to the four elevators of the county up to Wednesday at noon, according to figures released Wednesday morning. With favorable weather conditions, the harvest is expected to be completed by the latter part of the week.

Local elevators were paying $1.90 per bushel for wheat Wednesday.

When the harvest is completed, it is expected that the 1956 crop will amount to 700,000 or 800,000 bushels.

Foard Farmers Are Planting Blue Panicum Grass

The following Foard County farmers and ranchers who are cooperating with the Lower Pease River Soil Conservation District have planted blue panicum grass recently: Henry and Lee Black, Clinton McLain, Marvin Myers, Leslie Thomas, Guy Morgan, H. R. Zeibig, Grady Halbert, C. C. Wisdom, W. F. Statser, Jack Welch, Floyd Borchardt, Byron Davis, Oran Ford, D. H. Scott and Lawrence Glover.

SENIOR WILL
by Doris Cates

The State of Texas :
County of Foard : Know all men by these presents: That we, the senior class of 56 of Foard County, Texas, being in poor health and of unsound and despairing mind and memory, having just been released from a 12 year sentence in an institution, do make and publish this, our last will and testament.

I, Floyd Bice, do hereby bequeath the secret of my success in CHS, my recipe for white lightning, to Glenn Carroll. Remember, only one to a customer if you want him to come back.
I, Dwayne Boren, leave my ability to copy from my girl and get away with it to Johnny Wehba, who I know will put it to good use.

I, Bobby Davis, will my esteemed title of "Man About Town" and wolfish ways to J. C.
McCoy, who I know is in dire need of it.

I, Gerald Denton, leave my Texas tradition of telling tall tales to Edward Howard. They're alleg to frail Edward Daniel. It is especially useful when mashing potatoes.

in hopes that he might be the successor to Gabby Hayes. A little glue in the saddle helps now and then.

most prized possession, my hot rod, to Joe Calvin. Breaking down or running out of gas at the right time are two of its more popular conveniences.

I, Bobby Hopkins, will my high scholastic record and superior knowledge concerning Einstein's theory of relativity and Shakespeare's classics to Billy Short.
I'm sure this will be greatly appreciated.

I, Dale Keith Jones, will my ability to make a dashing takeoff in my pickup to Johnny Kajs.

extensive collection of door knobs streamlined physique to Lowell Page. I suggest that you watch those calories.

that some of the "refinery" will rub off.

I, Joe Pruitt, leave my family tradition of "know how" to my baby brother, Henry Pruitt.

I, Jimmy Thaxton, do solemnly bequeath my Marlon Brando behavior to Nelson Abston, al-

Lava soap and Clorox to dingy Anna Marie Faske, who has been needing it for years.

May your year be as profitable as mine.

I, Norma Hall, will my skill at telling funny jokes, remember the traveling salesman, to comical Marketta Painter.

I, Geraldine Hrabal, leave my flock of guineas to Bettye Duncan. Watch it, Bettye, these adorable little fellows get under your skin.

I, Betty Jane Ingie, will my talent for slipping in past midnight to all the clumsy junior girls who'll probably need it.

I, Patsy Mechell, will my rhu-mba with the Latin beat to that Latin lover, Jimmy Williamson.

I, Donna Norris, leave my successful book on "How to Dye Your Hair" to all the unsatisfied junior girls. I've been using henna for years and no one has discovered it yet.

I, Wilma Faye Polk, leave my formula for getting my work done on time to Jimmy Williamson.

I, Dana Loy Roberts, will my beloved nickname of "Hattie

Fishing Improves After Shad Killed

Removing an estimated one hundred tons of shad from the Panhandle's Buffalo Lake has done the job—made the game fish hungry—according to reports to the chief aquatic biologist for the Game and Fish Commission.

A record 1800 pounds of the chemical rotenone was used to exterminate shad. Carp will be attacked later when they concentrate for spawning in the shallows.

R. H. Johnson, lake concessionaire, told Aquatic Biologist Leo Lewis of Wichita Falls that the first calm weather after the gigantic selective kill produced limit catches of crappie and some big bass.

LO! THE SHEEPISH MOTH

Your woolen sweater may be moth-proofed right "on the hoof" if tests at the Textile Research Institute prove successful. The idea is to treat the sheep with dieldrin, a petroleum chemical similar to DDT, which has been found extremely resistant to washing and dry cleaning. Thus the wool is permanently moth-proofed even before it leaves the sheep's back.

WILL WILSON

Will Wilson to Run for Attorney General

Supreme Court Justice Will Wilson has resigned his post on the State's highest tribunal to launch a fighting campaign for Attorney General of Texas. His resignation was made effective June 1.

"The most compelling call to duty for me today is to serve the people of Texas as their Attorney General," Wilson said.

With a career as Dallas' racket-busting district attorney, followed by six years on the Supreme Court, Wilson said he left the court "with reluctance." However he surprised few Capitol observers in responding to the challenge to serve as Texas' number one law enforcement officer.

"I have been asked why I am willing to leave the Supreme Court," Wilson commented. "Like the old cavalry general, I've always believed in riding straight for the sound of the guns.

"Certainly I know that I am deliberately turning my back on the security of a quiet harbor and certainly the course we will steer lies through troubled waters. But that's where the need is greatest.

"Texas' greatest need today is vigorous enforcement of our Texas laws. I believe I can serve Texas best in filling that need."

He added "I believe my record as two-time assistant attorney general, prosecuting district attorney and supreme court associate justice qualify me to do the job.

Wilson was elected to the Court in 1950 by a heavy majority. He is one of the youngest men ever to serve on the high bench. While district attorney he gained national recognition in stamping out organized crime in Dallas.

Selected by U. S. Attorney General J. Howard McGrath as one of the first district attorneys in the United States to speak before the Department of Justice's Conference on Organized Crime in Washington in 1950, Wilson was commended as one of the outstanding prosecutors of crime in the nation.

As assistant attorney general of Texas under Gerald Mann and Grover Sellers in 1941-42, Wilson successfully prosecuted cases involving millions of dollars for Texas school children.

Wilson served in World War II in combat throughout the South Pacific in army campaigns ranging from New Guinea to Luzon and was decorated for patrol activity behind enemy lines.

Married and the father of two children, he and Mrs. Wilson live in Austin.

able law to reduce production or increase markets. Last year more than 150,000 farms "disappeared," were sold or merged with other farms.

The Administration procedure was to keep the flexible program in operation and make direct government payments to farmers to offset lower income from marketing of farm products. That's how the $1.2 billion-a-year Soil Bank payment program was born.

It was the same program that the USDA had officially condemned in letters to congressmen five months earlier. The fact is the Soil Bank is mis-labeled. Its chief purpose is to reduce production and not soil conservation, and to compensate farmers in part for loss of income resulting from taking land out of cultivation.

Democratic leaders, on the other hand, took the view that there was nothing wrong with farming that higher prices and income wouldn't cure. They had a pretty good point, at that. They knew like would veto a high-support bill, and they figured to let him try and defend Benson's low support program in November.

Eisenhower, however, turned the tables in his veto message by ordering Benson to increase support prices for most of the basic crops and by again putting pressure on Congress to pass a Soil Bank bill. It was a maneuver that shifted the cat from his back to the Democrats.

The question on Capitol Hill became not so much whether the farm bill would solve the farm problem, but which party would get the credit for it if it did, or the blame if it did not.

Farm Housing Program Reactivated

Walter T. McKay, state director of Farmers Home Administration, announced this week that eligible farmers in Texas may obtain farm housing loans from the agency. Funds for the loans were recently made available by a supplemental appropriation.

Applications for these loans may be made immediately at any of the 135 county offices of the Farmers Home Administration in Texas, Mr. McKay said. Regulations for processing the loans have been distributed to all field offices.

Farm housing loans may be made for the construction and repair of farm houses and other farm buildings, including farmstead water supplies. Interest on the loans will be 4 per cent per year on the unpaid principal.

Rural Traffic Accident Summary for 1955 Released by D. P. S.

The Texas Department of Public Safety this week released its rural traffic accident summary report covering the complete 12 months of last year.

In a book, entitled "It's a Fact . . .", the State Safety Department gives a break down of the rural Texas traffic accident picture for 1955 in almost every conceivable category from the number of accidents by days of the week to the violations which are among the principle causative factors leading to accidents.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., Director of the DPS, pointed out that a new all-time high in the number of fatalities—both rural and urban—was recorded during 1955. The 2,547 persons who died in traffic mishaps was one more than the previous high set in 1951.

The booklet indicates that an additional 108,297 persons were injured in traffic accidents last year and the economic loss from an estimated total of 220,992 mishaps was a staggering $109,441,250.

Garrison emphasized, however,

THIS WEEK -In Washington

With Clinton Davidson

You have heard and read a lot about the Washington battle over farm legislation, and maybe you have wondered what all the delay and debate was about, anyway. The inside story can now be revealed.

There are two things to keep in mind when you try to unravel Washington thinking about farm legislation. First, there is genuine concern over the continued farm income decline. Second, this is a presidential election year.

Most congressmen, as well as the administration, had two objectives. First, to help ease the farm cost-price squeeze, and second to help their party get more votes in November. That was not always the order of importance, however.

Agriculture Secretary Ezra Benson had unshakable confidence in his flexible price support plan, adopted at his insistence two years ago. That plan, basically, was that whenever supplies of any commodity increased the price support level would be lowered.

President Eisenhower went along with Benson's determination to keep the flexible price law in operation. Their contention was that since, as they understood it, high, rigid supports had caused excessive production and reduced markets, therefore, lower, flexible supports would result in less production and larger markets.

But, it became evident that too many farmers were going broke, or being forced to seek jobs elsewhere, while waiting for the flex-

Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

The picnic and opening of the swimming pool last Friday was a large success and the Booster Club asked me to thank each of you who brought or sent sandwiches.

In the event that the laboratory analysis report shows your water to contain "coliform" organisms present you will need to treat your water supply as soon as possible to remove these organisms and make your water safe for drinking. If, however, you have any doubt about the water sample you sent in to be analyzed, then I would suggest you take another sample and send it in before treating your water. Perhaps you didn't burn the faucet properly or let the water run long enough before taking the sample. If the second sample comes back also labeled "coliform" organisms present, then call or come by my office for the bulletin on how to treat your water and make it safe for drinking.

Remember, I still have plenty of sterile bottles and you are welcome to use as many as you will use.

Our recipe this week is "Filled 3 in 1 cookies":

1 cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 4 eggs, 1 tsp. vanilla, 3 cups flour, 1 tsp. baking powder, 1 tsp. salt, 1/2 cup milk, 1 square baking chocolate, 1/2 cup shredded coconut, pitted dates, walnut or pecan halves, candied cherries.

Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and vanilla; beat until fluffy. Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Add flour to creamed mixture alternately with milk. Divide batter into three equal parts. To one part, add melted chocolate; to another part add shredded coconut; leave third part plain. Drop some dates, nutmeats and cherries into each batter and

SMOOTHING OIL WITH OIL

Modern gasoline and motor oil will be even further improved with the use of a new lubricant additive which is 100-per-cent oil-derived. The additive is said to yield greater gasoline mileage and increased horsepower by preventing oil from burning, and by controlling the accumulation of varnish, carbon, and sludge in automobile engines.

Calling Dr. Troubleshooter!

We're the doctor you need when your radio and TV set has the heaves or the hiccups. We have the remedy for all kinds of radio trouble and we specialize in curing noisy tubes. When your set has a relapse, don't try home-made remedies. Just put in an emergency call for us—M. D. (Mighty Dependable)—that's us!

We recommend TUNG-SOL Radio and TV Tubes

TELEVISION NEWS

Well, it always happens. Just as last week I told that all the new portable TVs couldn't be used for fringe reception, along comes one (I saw and inspected one last week) that's a nice TV set along with its lightness and portable features. It hasn't been officially announced yet, but it's a 14 inch model, manufactured by Philco, has all the noise immunity circuits so essential to reception here in Crowell, and will sell in the $125 range. It will weigh around 30 pounds, and it should be a nice "extra" TV for Crowell people. It will—of course—still be necessary to hook it up with a good antenna when you're this far away from stations.

Attention all TV owners with sets over three years old: Do you realize that—if you're still using your same original equipment picture tube — this summer is the ideal time to replace your picture tube with a new one? When you take that little vacation trip, why not leave your set with us and let us put in a brand new aluminized picture tube, along with all other tubes it might need? Big things are up just ahead in TV this year: Baseball, football, the political conventions—just to name a few. Don't take a chance on your set not being in top shape for all these shows. Have your set made like new THIS SUMMER!

Sincerely,
Marion Crowell.
