Teen-Torial
TODAY IS THE DAY!

Everyone loves a holiday, and teenagers are always looking forward to a "day off from school," so perhaps we are a little too "future minded."

Do you ever stop to think that you have almost forgotten a very important day in your anxiety to greet a "special" day?

The day I mean is "today"—and "every day." We can't skip school every day, we can't exchange gifts every day, and we can't celebrate every day, although we can let each day be a celebrated one in each of our lives.

When school is in session, let's get all we can out of it. When it's time to eat, let's eat; when it's time to work, let's work; when it's time to sleep, let's get our money's worth out of "sleepy time," and let's really live every day every moment of "every day."

Rachel declared that she wasn't very good, but she looked like an fun, but it's up to us to enjoy the other days, too. Remember—today is the day at hand—let's enjoy it!

WHY IT HAPPENS THE WAY IT DOES

"Now, why wasn't my article in the Wildcat?" asks some reporter, and "Why wasn't there more to read in the Wildcat?" asks some student reader or some interested town person.

"Oh well," perhaps they think, "the staff was too busy this week to write much." Now maybe they were about half right for—as most readers do not know—there is no time available for the staff to meet with the sponsor to plan the news. So really it does—just happen—the best that it can—and if there could be a period set aside for work on the paper—no doubt it would be better organized and would perhaps contain fewer errors. But there isn't a time that it can be carefully planned or checked—so you'll just have to be understanding and overlook errors—but what I really started out to say was in regard to the number of articles that appears each week. It's like this—we, the staff—have accepted the gracious offer of The Foard County News to print our material, but sometimes because of extra county news, or extra pages of advertisements, or some other material that must be printed, there is not much space left for the high school news. In that case articles must be "whacked off a little" or left out entirely until more space is available. So bear in mind that what you find each week is the best that could be printed under the circumstances that govern that week's publication.

Hats off to our local paper for giving us as much space as it does.

CHS HAS A COOKING GENIUS

"Rachel Rodriguez really knows how to make tacos," said the girls after the lab lesson in the freshman class Tuesday. Everyone tried to roll out the tortillas as deftly, thin and round as Rachel rolled them, but each will have to practice more to be able to do that.

Rachel declared that she wasn't very good, but she looked like an expert to the girls. Anyway, the tacos were delicious.

STUDENTS ENJOY DEVOTIONALS

Under the sponsorship of the Student Council, at 9 o'clock each Monday a short devotional is given over the loud speaker system. The vice president of each class is responsible for a devotional from his class every fourth week.

The first of these devotionals was given by Lowell Page representing the Student Council. Students participating the following weeks were Janis Crowell, senior; Gordon Cates, junior; Joyce Howard, sophomore; and Thomas Crowell, freshman.

Everyone feels that these devotionals help to start the week off right and to make CHS an even better place to go to school.

HALF-TIME FRIDAY NIGHT

For the final performance of the 1956 football season by the Crowell Wildcat Band, the band executed a repeat performance of the contest maneuvers in which they were rated in Division I at the University Interscholastic League Region XIV marching contest held in Wichita Falls on Sept. 13. The band performed the required contest maneuvers on which all bands are judged at the regional marching contests.

Thus the Wildcat Band concludes another successful year on the drill field. The band loses only one student via the graduation route this year, the drum major, Miss Nelda Brooks. However, Nelda will indeed be missed very much as she has always been sincere in her work and has given much time and effort to the important position she has held in the band. She will, of course, be replaced next year, but she will not be forgotten as being one of the best drum majors of the Wildcat Band has ever had.

SPORTS SPOTLIGHT

The Crowell Wildcats ended the 1956 football season with a 33-7 loss to the Munday Moguls, thus making their won-loss record 3 to 7. The single touchdown in this final game was made on a pass from Gidney to Bradford.

The Friday night game saw 4 seniors making their final tribute to football in CHS. Playing in their final game for Crowell were Edward Howard and Joe Calvin. Leading yells for her last time as a CHS cheerleader was Roma Jan Spikes, and directing the half time performances of the band for her last time was Nelda Brooks, drum major.

So it is, seniors come and go, but football goes on forever.

SENTIMENTAL SECTION

Well, our football season has ended, and thus ends our "spicy football reports" by a really wonderful sports reporter, Mr. Lowell Page.

We'd like to say "Thanks, Lowell" for keeping us posted on victories as well as for thinking of something to say when no one was in a mood to say anything.

We know that Lowell will be "up and at 'em" again for all the other sports events, but since football is a "highlight" of the high school, we just had to say "thanks" for giving us some interesting literature. We've really enjoyed reading it.

STUDENTS ENJOY SATURDAY "SPREE"

"Hi ho, and away we went!" Saturday morning at 5:30 a. m. after finally arousing some football game sleepy heads.

"Destination Lubbock," said Mrs. Moody Bursey and her three companions, Pat Prosser, Dianne Sledge and Sandra Choate, all of whom attended an Area Speech Meet held in the Aggie Memorial auditorium and the Student Union building on the campus of Tech.

The group enjoyed watching college and high school participants in their presentations of debate, poetry reading, extemporaneous speaking, and a story, "The Circus," by William Saroyan dramatized without the use of props.

Bruce Roach, head of the speech and drama department of the Interscholastic League, gave some very interesting speeches for all the events and at the very delicious dining.

Each event was followed by critiques of the presentations.

The Crowellites left Lubbock early enough to arrive home by 6 o'clock. Sleepyheads could meet 6:30 engagements and everyone had a really good time.

GEORGE'S GAGS

Jimmy: "How far is it to the nearest town?"
 Native: "Nigh on to five miles as the crow flies."
 Jimmy: "Well, how far is it if the crow has to walk and carry an empty gasoline can?"

Many a live wire would be a dead one if it weren't for connections.

If you don't like the jokes we use, you ought to see those we refuse.

LAST PEP RALLY IS SUCCESS

Last Friday was a melancholy day in that our last pep rally was held for the football season of 1956.

The students, cheerleaders, band, twirlers, and teachers all cooperated to make our last one of the very best. The band was especially good in its presentation of "South" and "Hot Teddy."

Carolyn Monkres, unable to help lead the cheers, took a seat of honor on the stage, and her position was very ably filled by Judy Vaughn. The students stood down front, and thus the yelling was concentrated to an appreciably deafening roar.

The highlight of all was the presentation of a lovely mum corsage to the pep squad sponsor, Mrs. E. C. King.

Our last pep rally will be an occasion for us to remember always.

"THEME SONG" MATERIAL FOUND IN LIBRARY

This week in particular, and most weeks in general, find English students combing the library for material to put in their themes.

This week sophomores and seniors are keeping Mrs. King and her librarians busy.

In the "theme song" which is usually the "bluest of the blues," sung by modern music fans, the "kids" find our library of utmost value. Here's where a library really counts for grades.

Book reports, oral reports, or a "wild ride" to the library to look up a word for "Henry"—all show how very useful our library is. Then, too, for "pure reading enjoyment"—use your library.

KEYHOLE KAPERS

We're back again with all the nauseating scandal we could find! It seems that Judy Johnson is eyeing Tom Crowell. We think that they would make a very cute couple.

Say, does anyone know Jim Henry's full name?

James, you better watch Nelda. We hear that she has been getting along pretty well with the Quanah boys.

Sanders, Sandra, says that being in the hospital is almost nice! We hear that Dee came from Vernon, Donald from Lockett, and nine Crowell boys were visiting her all at one time. What most of the girls are wondering—how does she do it?

Dale Johnson, who is this girl called Mary Lynn?

Don't you people think that Jimmy Williamson and Mary Ann Myers make a cute couple?

Today I was walking down the hall and what do you think I saw?—Roxie Adkins wearing a football jacket! Now I think we all realize that she didn't play football, so where in the world could she have found a jacket like that so quickly? Does Ray Thomson know anything about this?

Don't get excited! The only reason Jana isn't wearing a football jacket is because it's in the cleaners.

Has anyone noticed the ring around Peggy Ann's finger? When that ring gets in the sunlight, one can't tell whether the sun or the ring is putting forth the light.

Congratulations to you both, Glen and Peggy.

Jeanie, who is this boy you are going with steady? Nobody even knows his name. Are you trying to keep the rest of the girls away?

Larry Mayberry and Barbara Goodwin really "lived" it up Saturday night, we hear.

Where was everyone Saturday night? The canteen looked like a mortuary. Let's drag out and make that thing a success!

Beverly - Johnny, Patty - Butch and Roma - Bill were seen at the Plaza Sunday night.

R. H. McCoy is really coming up in this world. Has everyone seen the black and white 56 Ford he is driving? It's really cool!

Shirley had a ball over the week end. Jimmy was home. They sure are a nice looking couple, aren't they?

Roxie - Ray and Janis - Lowell were at the Plaza Saturday night. They really had a good time.

Beverly, who is this boy you were having such a good time with at the canteen last Tuesday night? He couldn't have been from Chillicothe, could he?

Louise, did you and Bill Griffith have fun last Wednesday night?

Has everyone seen "Teen Age Rebel?" We hear that it is a good show. Ha! Ha!

Jana - Larry, Jerry - Roy Don have been eating a lot of meals together lately, so we hear. It seems that they eat together and then watch Elvis.

Did anyone get cold Friday night? If you went to the football game, you certainly did!

Johnny Kajs had a car load Saturday night. He had 13 kids in the car with him. A little bit crowded, wasn't it?

Prunie, you really have a pretty house! Has everyone seen it? It's the new one and the pretty one just outside of town. Well, anyway, it's only five miles outside of town.

Why doesn't Noel ever go with the women? We guess he just doesn't like them!

Well, this week is six weeks test week. We hope everyone has studied harder than we. See you all next week, we hope.

CLASSROOM TEACHERS ASSOCIATION MEETS

Last week, Nov. 11-17, was "American Education Week in the public schools."

Several members of the local Classroom Teachers Association, and several of the laity were guests of the Vernon Classroom Teachers Association and their Texas State Teachers Association unit in observance of education week.

The program was held on Monday evening, Nov. 12 in Wilbarger Memorial Auditorium. The featured speaker was Mrs. Billie Davis who spoke on the subject, "I Was a Hobo Kid." Mrs. Davis is dear to the hearts of public school teachers the nation over, her struggle for an education having come to national attention through her "Saturday Evening Post" article, which was reprinted in the Readers Digest.

Mrs. Davis currently combines lecturing with writing and acting as a Sunday school field representative for the Assembly God church.

MY TRIP TO CHICAGO
 by DeAnna Fergeson

I cannot describe the feeling I felt when I was told that I was one of the delegates to represent Texas at the National Federation of Homemakers of America convention held July 2-6 in Chicago. I was made even happier learning that Mrs. Doyle Keenan was to attend as an advisor.

We left on the Santa Fe train all night, we arrived in "Windy City" about 11 o'clock Monday morning. We were to expect almost any kind of weather. It was misty all the time there. We stayed at the rad Hilton, the world's largest.

EYES ON HISTORY

Persons have been concerned with the cure of eyes almost since the dawn of time. The Code of Hammurabi (2250 B. C.) had these pertinent comments on eye care: "If a man destroy the eye of another man, they shall destroy his eye." And, "if a physician open an abscess (in the eye) of a man with a bronze lancet and destroy the man's eye, they shall cut off his fingers."

Vance Barker and Miss Corine Edwards Marry in Dallas

Miss Corine Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards of Hot Springs, Ark., and Vance Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barker, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Memorial Assembly of God Church in Dallas.

Rev. W. D. Brooks, former pastor of the Crowell Assembly of God Church, read the wedding vows at the altar which was flanked on either side with tall baskets of pink gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white embroidered antique taffeta, with shoulder-length veil held in place with a crown of pearls. She wore a pearl necklace, gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of white carnations on a white tulle.

Miss Marjorie Edwards, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a pink embroidered taffeta dress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Also in attendance as bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Edwards, sister of the bride, who wore a green taffeta dress and Miss Fay Murphy, who wore gold taffeta. Karl Wayne Thomson served as best man. Ushers were Edgar McElhannon of Okmulgee, Okla., and J. L. Keye of Lake Province, La.

Miss Vera Higgins of Tulsa, Okla., sang "Because" and "Whither Thou Goest" preceding the ceremony. Miss Doris Godwin played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Higgins.

The bride's mother wore black with a white corsage. The groom's mother was similarly attired.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the community house by the C. A. group of the church. Mrs. Doris Mae Cunningham greeted the guests and Mrs. Karl Wayne Thomson presided at the bride's table. Mrs. Doris Godwin served the beautiful 5-tiered cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Miss Paula Woods poured punch from a crystal service.

The bride and groom will make their home in Waxahachie where he is attending Southwestern Bible Institute preparing for the ministry.

CO-LABORERS' CLASS

On Friday afternoon, Nov. 16, the Co-Laborers' Class of the Methodist Sunday School met in the home of Mrs. Hubert Brown for their monthly social meeting. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Brown were Mrs. S. S. Bell and Mrs. Geneva Potts.

Mrs. Will Jones was lesson leader and talked on the Syro-Phoenician Woman and Mrs. Henry Ross, an assistant leader, spoke on Salome. "Praise Him, Praise Him" and "Take the Name of Jesus with You" were sung with Mrs. Paul Shirley playing piano accompaniment, and Mrs. C. W. Thompson leading.

Mrs. Allen Sanders, president of the class, conducted the business meeting, at which activity plans were discussed.

The hostesses served a delicious salad plate at the close of the meeting.

GAMBLEVILLE H. D. CLUB

Christmas decorations that can be made at home were displayed to members of the Gambleville Home Demonstration Club meeting in the home of Mrs. Clarence Garrett on Nov. 16. Mrs. Cecil Carroll was program leader.

Among the designs shown were miniature wreaths, ropes for greenery, Christmas candles, paper angel choir and felt cut-outs. Any of these decorations can be made inexpensively.

Mrs. Garratt, president, conducted the business program. The group voted against having a family social in November. Mrs. Glendon Russell will be hostess for the Christmas party next month. Names of secret pals will be revealed at the social.

Members will be informed when the Christmas cards arrive. Mrs. V. A. Johnson drew the hostess gift.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Johnson, Glenn Jones and Jim Kennedy, visitors, and to the members present.

B. & P. W. CLUB

The Crowell Business and Professional Women's Club met last Thursday night for a Thanksgiving dinner in the Down Town Bible Class room. The table was artistically decorated with arrangements of seasonal fruits, vegetables, berries and leaves. The menu consisted of soup, turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce, candied potatoes, peas, rolls and coffee.

Thelma Lois Lemons entertained with incidental piano selections and a recording written by her aunt and herself.

THALIA H. D. CLUB

Nine members of the Thalia H. D. Club met in the school lunch room Thursday, Nov. 15 with Mrs. Morris McCarty, vice president in charge of the business meeting. Plans were made for a Christmas party with Mrs. H. W. Gray as hostess in the basement of the Methodist Church on Dec. 14. Mrs. W. A. Johnson and Mrs. Roy Shultz gave an interesting demonstration on unusual Christmas decorations. The hostess, Mrs. Chapman, served pops and cookies to the group.

At the conclusion of the program, Sally Archer, who was hostess, invited the club to go to her new home for dessert of pumpkin pie, whipped cream and coffee. An additional feature was a tour of the Archer's new and beautiful home.

TO MARRY DEC. 21

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Gordon are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Louise, to Bud Hammonds of Thalia. Mr. Hammonds is the son of Mrs. Lillian Kelly of Floydada and Gus Hammonds of Thalia.

Miss Gordon is a junior in Crowell High School and Mr. Hammonds is a 1955 graduate of the Crowell High School.

The marriage is scheduled to take place on Dec. 21.

Home Demonstration Notes

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

I'm sure you will all agree that our achievement day this year was one of the very best we've ever had. Certainly you are all to be congratulated on your excellent educational exhibits and your many fine displays of handwork, decoration, etc.

Those of us who took part in the "swap shop" had a fine time and we're sorry more of you didn't join us. I ended up with 13 cup towels, a dozen eggs, a vase, a ring mold, a jar of chowchow, and a jar of jelly. Think maybe I'll take up "swapping" as a sideline since I did so well Saturday.

Saturday night Mrs. Raymon Rasberry and Ginger Rasberry and I went to Vernon for the Gold Star award banquet. We met Mr. and Mrs. Jack Welch, Don Welch, Jackie Hickman, Janet Rasberry and Mr. Burkett over there. The banquet was very nice. State Senator George Moffett was the principal speaker. Gold Star Awards were presented to the girls by Miss Gladys Martin, state H. D. agent, and Miss Fern Hodge, district agent. W. I. Glass, State Agent, and J. G. Simmons, district agent, presented the Gold Star awards to the boys.

4-H boys and girls may receive many medals given by many companies, but Gold Star award is the only one given by the Texas Extension Service and is considered the over-all county award. Ginger Rasberry and Don Welch are certainly to be congratulated on receiving this award.

Do you have turkeys? Did you know you can make lovely feather trees from turkey feathers for Christmas decorations. To begin, wash and dry the soiled feathers. It's easy to put them in a pillow case or bag, close it tightly, and drop it in the automatic washer. If necessary, the feathers may be bleached for whiteness and for uniform tinting results. You may want to experiment coloring the feathers with various tints, but first check the manufacturer's tinting directions for your specific washer.

To make the base for the tree use a sharp paring knife and cut a circular plastic foam base about 6 inches in diameter (salad plate size) using a light sawing motion. Then make the plastic foam trunk 15 inches high and 2 inches thick at the base, narrowing it from the base to the top. Use round tooth-picks and glue to attach the trunk to the base.

Now the fun begins... watching the feather tree become a delicate beauty. It takes just a few minutes to tuck the feathers, one by one, into the trunk. Place larger feathers near the base and work upward.

Everyone will have suggestions for finishing touches. Brush glue lightly on the feathers and add tiny bows, glitter, or Christmas tree balls.

They're so light weight they dress up the tree without bending the feathers. Put the tree on the mantle or coffee table... or make it the center of attraction at a buffet get-together.

ADELPHIAN CLUB

The Adelphean Club met Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 14, at the club house.

Mrs. Earl Manard was program chairman for the afternoon meeting. The theme of the program was "Abundant Living Through Religion." Mrs. W. B. Johnson presented a timely devotional entitled "Thanksgiving." Mrs. Manard reviewed a recent article written by Dr. Norman V. Peale, entitled "My Favorite People."

Dr. Peale's hobby is meeting new personalities.

Mrs. Grady Graves was hostess for the afternoon meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend a sincere thank you to all our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness, cards, food, floral offerings and other expressions of sympathy at the time of our recent sorrow. We also want to thank Dr. Kralicke and the hospital staff. We will always remember these kindnesses. May God bless each and every one of our prayers.

Jim and Dorothy Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Erwin, Cindy and Bill, Mrs. Gordon Gribble, Mrs. Verona Felpea, Mrs. M. G. Brock.
