TEEN-TORIAL

THANK YOU, MISTER WASHINGTON

Thank you, Mister Washington, for lending the charm of antiquity to our modern United States. You are as valuable an antique as we treasure.

Thank you for teaching modern boys and girls to tell the truth. Truth in America is exemplified by hatchets, cherries and your name, "George Washington."

Thank you for being the "Father of our Country" — our first President. Someone had to be first, and it probably wasn't easy, either.

Thank you, too, for being a model of perfection in manners and neatness of dress. Your code of rules, though not always observed today, is admired, remembered, and published still.

Thank you, Mister Washington, for having a birthday. But for this, you would not have existed, and we could not remember you. Happy Birthday, Mister Washington!

ESSE'S MESSES

Halo, everybody. Halo. This is like a surgeon calling for a scalpel he doesn't have. This angel has some battered horns and is trying to get a trade-in allowance on them.

Speaking of angels, Eva Marie Saint is a Hollywood angel who leads her bosses around by the nose according to Peer J. Oppenheimer in the Feb. 17 issue of Family Weekly. How would you like to be such a golden-haired "bossy" angel, girls?

I've heard everything now. In order to straighten out "angels with horns" like the writer, Mrs. Frances Dodge, a 48 year old Maine woman, is a professional spanker. Her fee is a dollar, more or less, according to the victim's attitude.

Coach Amonett, I know it will thrill you to know that your responsibility has been lightened considerably by two Fresno State College history professors. They say that only the following 13 dates are important for high school students to learn: 1492, 1519, 1607, 1619, 1763, 1776, 1789, 1828, 1861, 1898, 1914, 1929 and 1941. Moreover, some of these are Mrs. Davis' responsibility in the first place.

Incidentally, Princess Margaret is "real gone" on rock and roll. She even took off her shoes at the movie, "The Girl Can't Help

It," and wiggled her toes in time to the music. Of course, some ush-erette happened to see it, tell the newspapers, and now I'm "blabbing," too.

And in the meantime, that world renowned (not renounced) professor of chemistry, James Allen Welch (the Jaw) gave a lab exam Monday, Feb. 18, a few minutes after I wrote this, and I probably failed. I tried to study in those last few minutes, and that's why I'm signing off now. So long!

COLLEGE CAPERS COME TO CROWELL

Howard Payne College of Brownwood really entertained the student body last Friday morning in the auditorium.

Miss St. Clair, who introduced the participants, impressed everyone with her charm and humor.

Featured on the program were a vocalist, pianist, pantomime actor and the "world's greatest yo-yo champion," whose "line" was as dependable as the yo-yo line on which he depended to present his tricks. Also of interest was a young twirler who twirled in the dark with colored lights to accent her act and who has held her own TV twirling program. Though one of the gifted youngsters was a transfer from A&M, we at Crowell were perfectly satisfied to give Howard Payne the credit for a fine program. Come back to see us again sometime! Soon!

"ANNUAL AWE"

You keep hearing about us, and you wonder "when will the finished product ever get here?"

We of the staff keep working, and we wonder, "when will we ever finish the product so it can get here?"

Time marches on, and so does the annual staff. The march is something more complicated than "Skip to My Lou," and as a result, each member works patiently, and the sponsor and editor in chief, Mrs. Doyle Kenner and Nelson (Butch) Abston — contrary to common belief about most sponsors and editors — and as busy as bees.

So it goes, 'round the clock, round the calendar — the annual working and waiting — for the annual P. S. It should be here sometime this summer.

MARKETTA'S MUMBLINGS

Marketta wasn't at school Monday, so it became the lot of your editor to fill in — or at least try. At the present, Marketta's whereabouts is a mystery. Personally I have a dark suspicion that Marketta found out that Mr. Welch planned to give a chemistry test Monday and "skipped the country." After taking the test, I don't blame her.

All the seniors managed to look "bright eyed and bushy tailed" Saturday. Thanks to the merchants the senior trip now looks nearer.

Weren't the Howard Payne students great? Lucky Nelda Kay and J. C. got to have Cokes with them after the show. That's one of the pleasanter duties of our Student Council and Senior Class presidents. Speaking of Nelda and J. C., they've done a fine job this year and now is as good a time as any to say "thanks."

LaVoy Rummel was so tired of explaining that she offered us real live money to print an explanation telling why her right hand is bandaged, so here is a paid advertisement — LaVoy Rummel slammed a car door on her hand Saturday, Feb. 16. It hurt!

Yea, Wildcats! Even though Monday won Saturday, it was a good game and we're proud of you.

In addition to winning honors — James Choate placed sixth in the state — Mr. Rickard, James, Betty McKown and Robert Fish had a wonderful time at the All-State Band meeting in Dallas.

Judging by the number of Valentine boxes of candy which proud girls received, there will probably be some reducing done around CHS.

CHS is a busy place these days

—rehearsals are underway for the one act play and variety in review, and plans are being made for the football banquet.

Isn't rain wonderful! It's so nice and wet!

Well, that's all until next week, when Marketta will be back — I hope.

SENIORS EARN MONEY

All the seniors — up bright and early Saturday — wish to thank the merchants for letting us work.

The following is a list of those who worked and the places they were employed:

Karen Hall, Magee's Toggery; Ruth Hinkle, Archer's Variety; Anna Marie Fiske, Womack's; DeAnna Ferguson, Spencer & Olin; LaVoy Rummel, DeLuxe Cafe; Marilyn Stone, Shirley-Youre; Marketta Painter, Crowell State Bank; Nelda Kay Brooks, Brooks Auto; Roma Jan Spikes, Ferguson Drug; Janis Crowell, Foard County Hospital; Billy Shultz, Cicero Smith Lbr. Co.; Henry Pruitt, Borchardt's Service Station; Nelson Abston, D & B Grocery; Lowell Page, Texas Natural Gas; Jack Wishon, Phillips 66; Johnny Webba, Webba's Cash Grocery; Edward Howard, Welcome Food Store; J. C. McCoy, Crowell Radio and TV; Jimmy Williamson, Bird's; Aldon Garrett, Magnolia Service Station; Joe Calvin, Calvin Welding Shop; Johnny Kajs, Thomas Parts; Glen Carroll, Claudius Carroll.

Thanks again to the merchants for letting us work. It was an interesting and profitable experience for us.

CHS LIBRARY

The library club met Friday morning to discuss the ordering of their TALA pins.

A price list has been placed on the bulletin board, and all of the librarians are urged to consult the list to help them to decide which pin they prefer. Please, make your decision before Monday, Feb. 25.

BAND NEWS AND VIEWS

James Choate, trombone, placed sixth chair in the trombone section of the All-State Concert Band in Dallas last week. After three days of extensive rehearsals, the 145 member organization presented a concert in Dallas Fair Park auditorium. The all-state symphony orchestra and the all-state chorus also participated in the concert.

Members of the Dream Weavers, local high school stage band presented its first public performance of the year last Tuesday at Paducah. The 40 minute assembly program marked the first time a local organization has ever presented an assembly out of town. The swing and jazz music played was enjoyed by all. Three special acts were also included in the program. These were a record pantomime by Pat Prosser, vocals by Janie Bowers and Aldon Garrett, and a comedy routine by Charlie (Spider) Bell. Members of the stage band include: Judy Borchardt, piano; Margie Rasberry, drums; Robert Fish, bass; trumpets, George Morgan, Eugene Davis and Gary Griffith; trombones, James Choate, Charlie Bell and Gordon Fish; saxophones, Betty Davis, Jerry Fairchild, Sandra Campbell, Gayle Taylor and Linda Caddell. The stage band will perform several numbers on Variety in Review next week.

Variety in Review, scheduled for Friday night, March 1, at 8 in the High School auditorium, will be a tremendous success. The special acts are shaping up nicely with several comedy routines, dance acts, and songs being featured. A nine member girls act will feature a dance routine, "Ballin' the Jack." Charlie Bell will give his interpretation of "Phonetics of Punctuation," a comedy routine of national fame. Aldon Garrett and Lowell Page will again serve as co-MCs with plenty of rags and jokes for all. The twirlers will present an ensemble of precision twirling. Janie Bowers, Aldon Garrett, Charlotte Sledge and Marketta Painter will furnish vocals. Pat Prosser is again featured in a record pantomime. Roxiann Adkins and Lowell Page will figure in a comedy skit while another group not yet disclosed will present still another "special." The newly organized stage band will play several numbers, and the Wildcat Band will present a group of numbers also. Don't forget the date, March 1, Friday night, at 8. Tickets are on sale now—35c for students and 75c for adults. Members of band have tickets.

SPORTS SPOTLIGHT

In the spotlight the past ball game was the champion Monday which was played at Crowell on Saturday night.

It was tough luck for Crowell. The Wildcats, underdogs of the first half, came back the second half to outscore the Moguls in a 6-4 deadlock and utilize the 3-minute overtime period. After the whistle blew, the Moguls came up with a quick point lead, and likewise the cats chopped it down. The Moguls gained three points, and the ball, and came out the winners.

Boys that looked especially well were Sledge and Rader, balling and shooting; Rettig and Smith, rebounding; and Carand and Sellers, defensive work. Carand was the big gun for Crowell, 27 points.

Next up in the limelight Sports Spotlight—Track.

STEPS FROM BEYOND

Steps from Beyond, a melodrama by Jay Reid Gould, officially launched Tuesday, Feb. 12, when Mrs. Bursey tamed the cast and their with an informal supper at home. The first session of practice followed the meal.

The Interscholastic contest will be presented in Paducah.

Overweights Hogs, Market Weaker

No other practice has a more consistent record for weakening the hog market than does the marketing of overweight hogs. Such a practice, says Joe Burkett, county agent, not only results in lower market prices but feeding hogs to weights over 200 pounds is not efficient feeding. Hogs, continues the agent, best utilize their feed in reaching the 200 pound level. It's expensive to put on the extra pounds because heavy hogs eat more feed per pound of gain. Too, the overall size cuts produced are usually less than consumers refuse to buy, thus forcing such pork to points in the bargain counter.

Market prices, points out Burkett, are an expression of supply and demand — not just the total supply but the kind of supply and the kind of demand. The average consumer will eat 80 pounds of pork per year but doesn't want much of it in the form of salt pork from heavy hogs. There is a world of difference between the cuts from three 200 pound hogs as contrasted with those from two 300 pound animals. The tonnage is the same but the consumers see distinct differences in the cuts and since they prefer the

Lights Needed in the Poultry House

Laying flocks need at least 13 hours of good light every day if high egg production is to be maintained. Joe Burkett, county agent, says research has shown that the effect of light which enters through the hen's eye and is carried to the pituitary gland stimulates the production of the hormones which activate the egg producing process and keeps the rate of lay high.

Since the light rays to be effective must hit the eyes of the birds, Burkett says it is important that lights be placed so the entire house is well lighted especially over the feeders and waterers.

He suggests that clear 60 watt bulbs set six feet above the floor and 14 feet apart be used. A clean 12-inch shallow reflector used with each bulb will help give better light distribution. The use of an automatic timing switch is also suggested for these can be easily set to take care of the changing daylight hours. Too, Burkett points out that lights are needed on cloudy days. A light intensity of at least one foot candle power at the hen's eye level is recommended as the minimum requirement for laying hens.

Burkett says that some poultrymen use both morning and evening light periods to maintain the 13-

Tax-Man Sam Sez:

Most of us are not surprised when the tax folks tell us one of the most common errors that we make in our tax returns is failing to add and subtract right. They say that most of us add in favor of ourselves instead of in favor of Uncle Sam. Most of us would save ourselves time and trouble by checking our tax returns before we mail them. The government has lots of adding machines and they check the tax return carefully and usually send a bill for the mistake.

State Capitol NEWS

Austin, Tex. — Gov. Price Daniel's proposed reorganization of the Insurance Department provides a brand new "big issue" for the Legislature.

been confirmed by the Senate. Daniel said he made his decision "long before" the recent insolvency proceedings against ICT Insurance Co. of Dallas.

Industry groups, nevertheless, were taken by surprise. Most were unable to decide immediately whether to oppose, endorse or take a "hands off" attitude.

ALLRED RETURNED — Rene Allred is back on the job as attorney in the Insurance Department liquidation division.

Water Program Goes Forward — Both House and Senate constitutional amendments committees have okayed the $200,000,000 Water Development Fund.

LOCAL LEGISLATION FOUGHT — Local vs. state control battles have assumed almost the proportions of the more usual state vs. federal government controversy.

At least a half-dozen bills now before the Texas Legislature are being opposed on the grounds that they represent unwarranted legislative interference in local matters.

House constitutional amendments committee voted down a proposal by Rep. John Crosthwait of Dallas to allow the Legislature to pass bills applying to specific counties. It would do away with local self-government, said opponents.

Several bills which firemen and policemen seek better hours and pay are being labeled "legislative dictation" by the League of Municipalities.

Two bills to give the State Highway Department greater powers to condemn land for right-of-way met similar protests. "Too much power," said Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas. "They'll take your court house and anything else they want." Senate Jurisprudence Committee approved them anyway.

OIL IMPORTS HIT — President Eisenhower was asked to take "immediate steps to curb

Last week I attended a training meeting in Vernon on Pattern Fitting held by Miss Reba M. Boyles, Clothing Specialist. foreign oil imports" in a resolution passed by the State Senate. Resolution was proposed by Senators Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo and William Fly of Victoria.

Railroad Commission Chairman Olin Culberson quickly congratulated the Senate. "That's always been the fly in the buttermilk," said Culberson, "those excessive imports."

PAY BILLS ADVANCE — Plans to give teachers and lawmakers better pay are moving forward in both Houses of the Legislature. House members approved, 115 to 29, a proposed constitutional amendment providing for annual sessions of the Legislature and $4,800 annual salaries for members. Original proposal was for $7,500 a year.

No one appeared to oppose the Senate Education Committee's unanimous vote for a bill to give teachers a $399 a year boost.

BUSY PANELS — Other Legislative committee action brought: 1. Protests against Sen. George Moffett's proposal for a study on diverting lease and bonus income from school lands from the permanent to available school fund. "A foot in the door" would be fatal, said opponents. Resolution went to probable subcommittee grave.

2. An appeal from National Democratic Committeeman Byron Skelton for Rep. Tony Koriath's bill to require voters to register by party preference 30 days before each primary. Sent to subcommittee for one week.

3. Tentative plans by the House Committee on State Hospitals and Special Schools to visit the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation near Livingston the latter part of this week. Administration of the reservation has been in a state of confusion, resulting in resignations, audits, law-searching and a committee suggestion that they "give it back to the Indians."

4. Rejection by a Senate committee of a bill to strike the word, "knowingly," from law forbidding sale of liquor to minors. Proponents contended liquor sellers used it as a loophole. Opponents said it would make dealers liable for innocent mistakes.

COLUMBIAN CLUB

An outstanding program was rendered at the home of Mrs. S. T. Crews on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 13, when the Columbian Club held its annual Fine Arts program. Mrs. Crews had the program in charge and was also hostess.

The home was artistically decorated with red carnations, symbolic of Valentine, the gift of relatives.

The program was opened with an inspirational devotional given by Mrs. R. J. Thomas, who based her thoughts on the painting, "Christ, Have Mercy on Us," in which both picture and story portrayed the mercy of Christ. Mrs. Otis Gafford displayed three of her own paintings, "The Cowboy's Prayer," "The Old Chuck Wagon" and "The Head of Christ." She gave a vivid description of each painting.

Mrs. J. R. Beverly played a piano solo, "Fifth Nocturn, Op. 52," which she executed beautifully. Mrs. Grady Halbert read, in her inimitable way, "Main Street" and "Home."

Mrs. Abb Dunn and Mrs. Bob Thomas added to the program two duets, "Sundown" and "Moonlight and Roses." They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Paul Shirley. The next number was a ballet dance artistically done by Miss Hollis Halbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Halbert. She was also accompanied by Mrs. Shirley. Mrs. John S. Ray played a beautiful piano solo, "Largo." The excellent program was brought to a close by the group singing "Texas, My Texas," which was led by Mrs. C. W. Thompson.

Auto Owners Urged to Buy Inspection Stickers Early

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, prevailed upon Texas automobile owners to "do their shopping early" this year in an effort to reduce the last minute rush for inspection stickers at the close of the 1957 motor vehicle inspection period. The deadline is April 15.

On information received from George W. Busby, chief of the Department's Motor Vehicle Inspection Division, the state police director said only one-third of the state's four million vehicle owners have obtained their 1957 inspection stickers to date. He urged motorists to have their cars and trucks inspected now, as a means of saving time for themselves and to avoid a last minute congestion at inspection stations throughout Texas.

Last year, as was true in most preceding years, vehicles over-crowded inspection stations during the last week of the inspection period. More than a million automobiles were caught in the last minute rush, resulting in a loss of even more millions of manhours for the owners of those vehicles. Garrison called upon the motoring public to adopt a "shop early" policy in this year's inspection program as a means of saving time and to afford better convenience for the vehicle owners involved.

Sauce for the Goose

A proposed amendment to the Tennessee Valley Authority Act would permit TVA, under certain circumstances, to "perform engineering and construction work and other services."

This has led to a strong protest by the National Society of Professional Engineers. The Society's president states that the language of the proposal would, apparently, "permit TVA to furnish engineering and design services in connection with the design and construction of a generating... facility for anyone." That, he goes on, would constitute "unwarranted interference with the normal functions and operations of private consulting engineers." He urges that the proposal be dropped in "faithful adherence to the principles of non-interference by the federal government into private professional pursuits."

feeling of private engineers confronted with the possibility of government competition. But a protest would have been made ago, and directed against whole socialist philosophy. TVA stands for. The germ was produced TVA. The germ was planted at Muscle Shoals. From modest beginning, it has fed on a rich diet of tax subsidies and tax exemptions. It has an absolute monopoly. A vital service in a huge area, the process, it has swallowed paying private enterprise.

The engineers, and even else, should realize that if proper for the government to provide one commercial service, electric power, there is no reason why it should not provide any other service or commodity.
