Crowell Wildcats Eliminated from State Race by 6-0 Loss to Henrietta Bearcats

The Crowell High School football team lost a heart-breaking 6-0 bi-district football game to the Henrietta Bearcats at Wichita Falls last Saturday night. The game was just as close as it had been predicted. However, the high-scoring aggregations certainly handicapped by the field. This made Crowell's defense look good on the two thirds and four yards to their own territory. The Bearcats' touchdown came three plays deep in the second period. Henrietta took possession after a Crowell punt rolled dead on the Crowell 43. A five-yard penalty against Crowell and Donald Moore's fourth-quarter plunge ended the first quarter action.

The two Moore boys picked up three and four yards to the 27. Then Donald Moore took a direct handoff from quarterback Paul Howell, and behind excellent blocking ran around his own right end for the only score of the contest.

Crowell roundly outplayed the Henrietta boys throughout the last half. Their most serious threat in scoring was stopped by a 15-yard penalty on Henrietta's twelve.

Halfback Gerald Bradford, who gained 58 yards in the last half, was the best ground gainer for the losers. Fullback Ray Thomson made some good gains on trap plays up the middle during the big drive that almost scored for the Wildcats. Princess Gidney picked up several nice runs, but the muddy field kept his usual good passing from clicking. He connected for only one out of nine. Roy Don Payne, who has always been a threat on Crowell's running plays, was held fairly low in yardage.

The Wichita Falls paper mentioned the following Crowell boys on defense: Billy Everson, David Carpenter, Harvey Smith, Ivan Cates, Tom Crowell, Dale Rettig, Jerry Pittillo and R. H. McCoy. This is the lowest score that Henrietta has been held to in two years.

Donald Ray Moore, Henrietta's all-state candidate, did an excellent job running from his halfback position. He cracked out 127 yards in 25 carries to pace Henrietta's offense. Their best linemen were Keith Borgman, 190-lb. tackle, Jerry Bell, Dwight Walker, Phil Green and Jerry Gee.

This ended the high school football careers for the following Crowell seniors: Princess Gidney, Roy Don Payne and Ray Thomson in the backfield, and Billy Everson, Dale Rettig, Jerry Pittillo and Harvey Smith in the line. Louis Rettig, senior end, was unable to play in this game due to illness.

Heavy Snow Falls Here Last Friday

A heavy snow fell over this area Thursday night and Friday, and had measured over 5 inches by mid-morning Friday. The snow was extremely wet, and clung to trees and wires over town, making a very beautiful sight.

The added moisture was definitely not needed here now, as ungathered cotton continues to stand in the fields, and wheat fields remain unplanted on many Foard County farms.

A low of 27 was recorded here early Saturday morning.

Surplus Commodity Distribution Dates Announced as December 10 and 11

Mrs. Mattie L. Carroll, authorized representative of the Surplus Commodity Distribution Program within Foard County, has announced that the first distribution of surplus commodities will be made at her office in the southwest corner of the courthouse on December 10 and 11, beginning at 9 a. m. each day.

Distribution will be made in alphabetical order in the following manner: On Tuesday, December 10, commodities will be distributed to those recipients eligible to receive commodities whose surnames begin with the letters A through K; on Wednesday, Dec. 11, commodities will be issued to those whose surnames begin with the letters L through Z; the difference in distribution dates has been rendered necessary by reason of the large case load within the county as all eligible recipients could not be served on one day. Mrs. Carroll reports that 137 families, consisting of 500 persons, have been certified as being eligible to receive commodities under such program.

Reports from the district office indicate that flour, meal, rice, dry milk and cheese will constitute the first distribution of commodities within the county.

Recipients are urged to be present on the correct day to receive commodities as these will be the only days during the month upon which such commodities will be issued and failure to appear on such day will preclude receipt of the commodities by otherwise eligible recipients.

"When Does Advertising Cost Too Much?" Is Hard Question to Answer

By T. B. KLEPPER

When does advertising cost too much? No business can find a ready answer to this question. But often a very large advertising expenditure proves to be inexpensive in terms of results.

For instance, last spring a Chicago department store spent $10,000 for newspaper space to promote a one-day sale. Yet, at the close of business, total sales for the day exceeded $2 million. So judged in terms of results, the large advertising investment was small indeed.

At times an advertiser may find it profitable to spend a great deal to reach only a handful of potential customers. A Southern community spent $12,000 in national newspapers in an effort to attract a new industry to town. Only one "sale" was made.

Expensive advertising? No, because the single prospect located a multi-million dollar electrical appliance plant in the community. Each payday the advertising investment is more than recovered.

Cotton Growers to Vote December 10

Cotton growers will make an important decision on Tuesday, December 10, Ray Hysinger, chairman of the Foard County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminds farmers.

On that day, growers will vote in a referendum to decide whether marketing quotas will be in effect for their 1958 upland cotton crop. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1957 will be eligible to vote in the referendum.

"If at least two-thirds of the growers voting approve the quotas," Mr. Hysinger explains, "marketing quotas will be in effect (Continued on page 4)"

Temperature and Humidity Recording Device Installed Here

A temperature and relative humidity recording device was installed by the United States Weather Bureau back of the News office last week. The device maintains a 24-hour record of the temperature and relative humidity. A glance at the graph on which the temperature and humidity is recorded will tell the lowest and highest temperature recorded and also the time at which the low or high occurred.

The instrument was installed by H. T. Pankert, a member of the U. S. Weather Bureau at Fort Worth. The Bureau is installing these recording machines all over this part of Texas, and is part of the Bureau's intensified study of tornadoes. The Weather Bureau will use these graphs in a continued effort to track and study tornadoes. The machine will be operated from February through September for the Weather Bureau; however, the News will also use the information during the winter months as an accurate record of temperatures here.

Several improvements have been started on the physical plant during these holidays. One new stove has been installed in the auditorium, a flag pole is in the making, and the grounds are being leveled around the school house. THE IDEA OF THANKSGIVING

In comparison with today's prosperity, the Pilgrims who celebrated the first Thanksgiving in 1621, had very little for which to be thankful. They had just suffered a severe winter in which more than half of the population had died. They had reaped one modest harvest, and supplies from England were badly needed.

Yet four wild turkeys were killed, and the fifty remaining colonists and neighboring Indians shared a Thanksgiving feast. Why?

They looked on the good side of the situation. The long winter was over. Though the first harvest was small, it furnished grain for the families and for a larger second harvest. The colonists had produced something necessary in their lives.

The first Thanksgiving would not have been complete, either without the Indians. Not only did it prove that the colonists and Indians were on friendly terms, but it expressed gratitude paid to the Indians for teaching the colonists how to sow their crops.

With this in mind, look at today's Thanksgiving; a holiday and a big meal; a day off to do your Christmas shopping. Thanksgiving's main idea is being lost in the rush beginning the Christmas season.

Today our heated homes and cars keep us comfortable through the coldest winters. Today's crops cover hundreds of acres, planted and harvested by machinery. We are given security from invasion by competent armed forces.

If the Pilgrims could give thanks to God when only half of them had survived the winter, why can't we, with so many blessings, be truly thankful on this one day set aside as Thanksgiving Day!

SCHOOL RECEIVES NEW FLAGS

The Student Body of Crowell High School certainly appreciates the nice new American flag that the Cogdell family has donated to our school. This flag belonged to the late W. A. Cogdell, who was a veteran of the Spanish-American War. The flag is 5 feet by 9 feet in size and will be hoisted on the school flag pole on special occasions. Mr. Cogdell was head of the Crowell Public Schools at one time.

Mrs. E. A. Dunagan donated an American flag to the Crowell school last year in memory of her late husband.

COACHES AND TEAM EXPRESS APPRECIATION

Coaches Amonett, Erwin and Taylor and the members of the ball team wish to express their appreciation to the many people who worked "behind the scenes" with little or no recognition but whose efforts were largely responsible for this having been a successful ball season.

Before practice began, it was the business men who bought advertisements which made possible the schedule programs published and displayed over town. Before each daily practice game, Patty McGinnis spent much time arranging for rides home for those boys who lived in the country, and the busy housewives as well as the business men and women so willingly responded.

Before a home game, it was Mr. Andrews and Mr. Roark who came early to take care of the Oh, too bad, yes, we are sad. We're washed up, we're through. Yes—Friday was the end of the football trend, but we're not too terribly blue.

For basketball is here; let's support the team with a cheer. And watch them win district, too.

I AM THANKFUL THAT—

ticket sales, and Mr. Black, Mr. Myers and Mr. Allen Taylor who were at the gate to admit the crowds. Also on hand early were the Boy Scouts who acted as usherers to seat the crowd. From the time the boys entered the field until the final whistle blew, it was Marion Crowell, sponsored by various business firms, who announced every detail of the game.

As the game got underway, it was Jerry Bob Sellers, Jimmy Weaver, Jimmy Rader, J. W. Golden or Henry Fiske who carried the chain. Marcus Mills served as time keeper, the doctors administered to those who were injured; the managers, Dale Johnson and Larry Ferguson, helped in many ways, and Mr. Hitt made films of the plays. Without the unceasing efforts of the cheer leaders, the band, directed by Mr. Hesse, and the entire student body, no game could have been successful.

For the away-from-home games, special thanks go to Mr. Taylor, Mr. King and Mr. Fox who drove the buses, and to those who served as sponsors for the student buses.

For the bi-district game, it was the Booster Club that printed badges and distributed them to the students and town fans. They also sponsored the closing of the business houses at an early hour so that those who wished could attend the game.

Our appreciation also goes to all other people who have in any way made our season a good one. Without faithful fans, we could not have won—so "thank you," every one.

SPEECH CLASS PRESENTS PROGRAM

The "Adventures of Tom Sawyer" was presented by Mrs. Bursey's Speech Class last week. Sally Dixon was the announcer. Tom Sawyer was played by Fredrick Youree; Aunt Polly by Linda Johnson; Huck Finn by Tom's friend, Huck Finn. The part of Tom's new girl friend was played by Jo Frances Long; Judy Borchardt was his old girl friend. Others in the cast were as follows: Larry Ferguson, the handyman; Ronnie Owens, Wanda Moore, Aros Moore, Monte Churchill and Charlotte Sledge.

The student body had such a hilarious time that we want to say to Mrs. Bursey and her Speech Class, "Let's have another play very soon."

Note: The speech class would like to award Fredrick Youree the Purple Heart—or some such—for his bravery in the line of duty. He had a broken shoulder but took part in the play—even had a skirmish with Monte Churchill. It's a wonder he didn't break the other shoulder, too.

ATTEND SPEECH CLINIC

Seven speech students with Mr. and Mrs. Moody Bursey attended High School Activities Day at Tech Saturday, Nov. 23.

A clinic for declamations, debate, extemporaneous speech and drama was conducted by the speech department at Tech with high school students of the West Texas area participating.

An afternoon session on stage make-up and sets was given by college students and proved to be the high point of the day. Those students making the trip were: Miles Welch, Mike Whitten, Louis Sprague, Delton Brown, Bill Taylor, Patricia Prosser, Sue Bursey.

BAND BEATS

Well, marching season is over. It's a relief not to have to tramp around in that cold weather.

We hope everyone at Wichita Falls Saturday night enjoyed the space ship ride.

Everyone that saw the talent show Tuesday night got a big treat, and all of you that missed it should be ashamed. Crowell should have more things like that.

The band is making plans for its annual Christmas party. Mr. Hesse really has some good ideas. We can hardly wait!

SENIOR BOY OF THE WEEK

This week, our senior boy is Robert Wheeler. Bob, as he is sometimes called, is 5'5" tall, has brown hair, and brown eyes.

His favorite subject is Algebra II. He considers all of the others as his hardest subjects.

Robert's favorite participating sport is basketball, but football tops his list as his best game to watch. His favorite hobby is hunting, with fishing running a close second.

A plate of fried chicken followed by a dessert of ice cream is considered by Bob to be his favorite meal.

Popular is Robert's favorite type of music. When asked about his pet peeve, he cautiously replied that it is school teachers.

Robert is undecided about his future. However, there is a possibility that he may attend a business college. We wish the best to you, Robert, no matter what may come your way.

CAT SCRATCHES

Snow, snow, snow! Gosh, I love to play in the snow! Rolling, and tumbling back and forth through the thick blanket of soft, white, cool mass is fun.

Believe it or not, that was the first snow I had ever seen. Maybe that sounds funny to you, but when I came from, we had warm weather all year around.

When I woke up Thursday morning, I jumped briskly out of bed, stretched my paws, shook my fur, and yawned. Then I looked out the window—and what on earth? Everything had turned white overnight! I thought at first the whole earth had turned white headed, like a person when he gets old! I had to investigate! Quickly I rushed to the door and stepped outside on the porch. First I sniffed at it, but there was no smell. Then—I put my nose to it—I jumped back—it was cold! Brrr! I almost froze my little pink nose clean off! Then I found out where it came from. It started falling from the sky. It was so very light. Some of it fell on my nose and fur. When I touched it, it just disappeared. I ran back into the house and found me a pan—then I filled the pan full of the white flakes. I thought I could observe them better in my nice warm house. I was in for a great shock—for when I looked at the pan of "stuff," it had turned to water! Well, after a bit of wondering and wondering, I learned that the "white stuff" was snow!

At school, everyone was throwing it at each other—having all sorts of fun. So I joined in the fun too! I rolled and jumped—gee, I wish it would snow more often! Achee! My gracious, I must have caught a cold. Oh, it couldn't have been from playing in that cold snow! Could it?

So long, Tabby.

TATTLE TALE

Seen Saturday night were Don and Battie Lou.

Charlotte and Ronald are back together again. Good luck, kids.

Why are so many people making trips to Margaret? Could it be because of a certain girl?

What happened to Ted and Carolyn Monday night? The Tattle Tale knows.

Seen at the ball game Saturday night were Sonny-Lizzy, Billy-Jerry, Eddie-Jeanie, Butch-Patty, Jimmy-Jana, Kerry-Shirley, Noel-Prunnie, Ginger-J. M., Margie-Duane.

The two triangles of the week are Kay Johnson, Bobby Barker, Boob Carpenter; and Lillie, Pee Wee and Joyce.

Whom has Carolyn A. been making eyes at in history class? Say, whom did Lou Ann have a date with Wednesday night? It couldn't have been Jimmy New,

SENIOR BOY OF THE WEEK

This week, our senior boy is Robert Wheeler. Bob, as he is sometimes called, is 5'5" tall, has brown hair, and brown eyes.

His favorite subject is Algebra II. He considers all of the others as his hardest subjects.

Robert's favorite participating sport is basketball, but football tops his list as his best game to watch. His favorite hobby is hunting, with fishing running a close second.

A plate of fried chicken followed by a dessert of ice cream is considered by Bob to be his favorite meal.

Popular is Robert's favorite type of music. When asked about his pet peeve, he cautiously replied that it is school teachers.

Robert is undecided about his future. However, there is a possibility that he may attend a business college. We wish the best to you, Robert, no matter what may come your way.

CAT SCRATCHES

Snow, snow, snow! Gosh, I love to play in the snow! Rolling, and tumbling back and forth through the thick blanket of soft, white, cool mass is fun.

Believe it or not, that was the first snow I had ever seen. Maybe that sounds funny to you, but when I came from, we had warm weather all year around.

When I woke up Thursday morning, I jumped briskly out of bed, stretched my paws, shook my fur, and yawned. Then I looked out the window—and what on earth? Everything had turned white overnight! I thought at first the whole earth had turned white headed, like a person when he gets old! I had to investigate! Quickly I rushed to the door and stepped outside on the porch. First I sniffed at it, but there was no smell. Then—I put my nose to it—I jumped back—it was cold! Brrr! I almost froze my little pink nose clean off! Then I found out where it came from. It started falling from the sky. It was so very light. Some of it fell on my nose and fur. When I touched it, it just disappeared. I ran back into the house and found me a pan—then I filled the pan full of the white flakes. I thought I could observe them better in my nice warm house. I was in for a great shock—for when I looked at the pan of "stuff," it had turned to water! Well, after a bit of wondering and wondering, I learned that the "white stuff" was snow!

At school, everyone was throwing it at each other—having all sorts of fun. So I joined in the fun too! I rolled and jumped—gee, I wish it would snow more often! Achee! My gracious, I must have caught a cold. Oh, it couldn't have been from playing in that cold snow! Could it?

So long, Tabby.

TATTLE TALE

Seen Saturday night were Don and Battie Lou.

Charlotte and Ronald are back together again. Good luck, kids.

Why are so many people making trips to Margaret? Could it be because of a certain girl?

What happened to Ted and Carolyn Monday night? The Tattle Tale knows.

Seen at the ball game Saturday night were Sonny-Lizzy, Billy-Jerry, Eddie-Jeanie, Butch-Patty, Jimmy-Jana, Kerry-Shirley, Noel-Prunnie, Ginger-J. M., Margie-Duane.

The two triangles of the week are Kay Johnson, Bobby Barker, Boob Carpenter; and Lillie, Pee Wee and Joyce.

Whom has Carolyn A. been making eyes at in history class? Say, whom did Lou Ann have a date with Wednesday night? It couldn't have been Jimmy New,

UNMERRY-GO-ROUND

Houston, Texas. — Susy Power, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Power, promising to be a fine housekeeper one day. She doesn't like dirt of any kind.
The other day Susy remarked proudly to her mother that "the dirty kitties are going round and round."
Mrs. Power let the remark sink in, then gasped and headed for the washing machine. Perfectly forlornly through the glass panes were four wet and frightened kittens, who had indeed been "round and round"—through the full cycle!
Mrs. Power hauled the animal out. "Fortunately, the machine was set for lukewarm," she said. "The kittens weren't hurt, they certainly were clean!"

Why use two when one will do?

You'll do better to protect your motor with this one all-weather oil than to change from heavy oil to light oil according to the season.

Users of Trop-Artic® All-Weather Motor Oil never have to worry about using different grades of oil at different seasons of the year. TROP-ARTIC is a light oil and heavy oil in one (grades 10W through 30). Furthermore, it lubricates and protects your motor far better than any of the old-fashioned "single grade" oils.

The reason is that TROP-ARTIC never gets too thick or too thin. In a cold engine it flows quickly for easy starting. In a hot engine it retains the "body" necessary to prevent wear. It reduces friction to save you gasoline. It keeps your engine clean. Compared to old-fashioned oils it can even double engine life. Row Brush Control Is Good for Winter Farm Job
Burkett, County Agent, says that an ax, a hand-sprayer, 2, 4, 5-H chemical and diesel oil are all the equipment and materials needed to kill fence row brush.
Mix one pound of the 2, 4, 5-T liquid chemical in six gallons of diesel oil and pour the chemical solution in the handsprayer. On trees less than five inches in diameter, apply the solution to the lower 12 inches of the tree trunk allowing it to run down the bark channels to the crown. Chemical solution around the crown prevents re-sprouting.
On trees more than five inches in diameter, a frill should be made near the ground line with the ax. Apply enough solution in the frill to make it bubble out of the cuts. If the tree is cut off, apply the solution to the freshly cut stump allowing it to run down to the crown.
A thorough application of the chemical solution is necessary for best results, advises Burkett. "But don't apply the solution during a high wind," he warns. The cost of killing a five inch tree is about two cents.

POSSUM PLAYER
Raymondville, Tex.—A Lubbock man who claimed himself dead to avoid a fine was fined $36.10 by Judge Hubert Wright after pleading guilty to a worthless check charge.
County Attorney Edna Cisneros mailed a registered letter to the man accusing him of the offense. The letter was returned unopened and a note on the back said the addressee had been killed in an automobile accident.
One thing went wrong. The man, himself, had written the note and the writing matched perfectly with the handwriting on the bogus check.

DESCRIBES LABOR UNIONS
Donald R. Riechberg, one of the country's most distinguished labor lawyers and once a leading figure in President Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal, describes present-day labor unions in these words: "not weak, altruistic organizations of servants of the common good, but . . . strong, selfish, ambitious aggregations of men seeking to dominate the business and politics of the nation for private profit."

Early Mailing of Christmas Packages Assures Safe Arrival
Postmaster Alva Spencer said this week, "Early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts is the biggest single factor in getting all of the mail delivered before Christmas."
The postmaster urged special care in preparing gift packages for the mails. Make sure that all addresses are legible and complete. "If you have any articles of unusual size or bulk, better check with the post office before attempting to mail them," the postmaster warns. The limits on size and weight of packages varies, depending on where you mail your package.
When wrapping gifts for mailing, it is always better to use corrugated cartons, especially where there are a number of various sized objects in the shipment. Use plenty of wadded tissue or newspaper for extra protection against shock, and securely wrap each package or carton in heavy paper, and then tie it with strong cord. Be sure to include an extra label with your return address and the recipients address inside the carton or package before it is wrapped.
Another good idea is to place a piece of transparent cellophane tape over the address portion of the label on your package to prevent defacing in transit, and always make sure to include the recipient's full name, street address, city, zone and state.
"Remember these three rules," the Postmaster said, "Wrap securely, address correctly, and mail early."
Forms 1500-A and 1500-B are supplied without charge for your convenience in labeling the mail, "All for Local Delivery" or "All for Out of Town Delivery."

GENTLE REMINDER
Bay City, Tex.—A fond father, picking his son up at the football field, noted he was more tired than usual and asked if he had had a rough day.
The son replied that he had forgotten his basket and that he had to run 1,600 yards as some sort of penalty.
Dad thought this was a good idea and would indelibly impress the youngster.
"Well, after running that many yards, I'll bet you won't forget that basket again," he said.
"That reminds me, Dad, take me back to the gym quick—I forgot my basket."

WE GIVE GUNN BROS. STAMPS!

by VERN SANFORD

I shot four deer on opening day this year. All four were legal size bucks. All weighed in excess of 100 pounds before they were dressed.

A game warden stood by and watched me as I leveled down on these four fine bucks. And I have the evidence to prove I got 'em, too.

I shot them with a camera. I can recommend it for the thousands of Texans who like to get out in the open and don't feel they can afford to buy a deer license, or who don't want to kill a deer.

In company with three other outdoors writers, we went to the Kerr Wildlife Management Area, some 30 miles southwest of Kerrville.

There were 30 hunters there, with guns. They had been the lucky ones whose names were drawn for a public hunt this year. The Game & Fish Commission authorized the issuance of some 590 of these permits. More than 7,000 persons applied for them. Which means that more than 6,000 were disappointed not to get in on the free hunt.

That is a tremendous difference, simply true, but right now the state simply does not own enough land to provide free hunts for everyone. For that matter it never will. Such procedure would be entirely impractical.

State operated areas were not bought for hunting anyway. They were purchased to study management practices. Well trained and efficient biologists put in long hours studying what deer eat.

Tops in Luxury CHEVROLET INTRODUCES IMPALA

Chevrolet offers in its 1958 Bel Air series two Impala models, named after and strongly reminiscent of a "dream car" in the GM Motorama. This is the Impala sport coupe, distinctively styled from any angle, and setting a new standard for interior luxury in the low-price field. A new engine, new frame and two new suspension systems are but a few of the many chassis advances. Impalas are grouped with the Bel Airs, one of four new series of Chevrolets this year.

such equipment all the rabbits should be shot through the left eye. Any good rabbit hunter would count a body shot the same as a miss.

Of course, back in the early days there wasn't much fear of tularemia, or rabbit fever. By using care in handling a rabbit, however, there is no danger. Also, if a rabbit has the energy to run it isn't a sick rabbit.

Those Little Bass

Have you been out to a lake lately to see how fast the young bass are growing?

For several months we've been watching these little fellows. They come in close to docks and chase the little minnows and forage for other food.

The little rascals, spawned this spring, already have reached legal size. This applies both to black and white bass. In about two more months most of them will be from 10 to 12 inches long.

All of which means that you'd better have your equipment ready for next spring's fishing. It's bound to be good.

Old English Lures

One of the most ingenious fellows we've run across lately is Doug English at Corpus Christi. For several years Doug has been making Old English lures, which have been very fine for coastal fishing.

Then he started out with other ideas, also in the plastic line. Now he turns out beautiful and efficient fish stringers, life preservers, and even ornaments for earrings, all from his plastic material. In addition he makes those plug shaped the clasps which men wear with cowboy shirts.

Incidentally, it's reported that his plugs are just as good for fresh water fishing as for salt water fishing.

Heately Introduces Water Bill in Special Legislative Session

Rep. W. S. Heately of Paducah said this week he is still hopeful that the Legislature will authorize Texas farmers and ranchers to use their own rain water for irrigation purposes.

Heately, chairman of the House State Affairs Committee, is strongly supporting legislation to remove the present restrictions, which he contends are unfair to the rural areas.

Under the present law landowners may build dams on their property and collect up to 200 acre-feet of water without a permit from the State Board of Water Engineers. It may be used, however, only for stock water. Heately and others are seeking to make it available for other useful purposes, including irrigation.

"The Governor has been asked, by concurrent resolution, to submit this subject for consideration at this second called session," Heately explained. "The sponsors of the bill, including myself, are hopeful that he will do so, although he opposed including this measure as an amendment to the water bill we passed at the first called session."

"The water bill that was passed does little more than appropriate another million dollars to the Water Board and direct it to set up an additional department for water conservation planning," Heately said. The 200 acre-foot bill would be of considerably more practical value to the farmers and ranchers, he believes.

A lobby control bill was also passed at the first called session. This bill, as finally passed, was similar to the one Heately drew up during the regular session but which did not receive final action then.

Heately represents the 82nd District, consisting of Cottle, Foard, Hardeman and Wilbarger Counties.

Young Billstein, a polio victim, is a patient at the Foundation for the third time since the onset of his polio attack in May 1956. Safety Council Launches Christmas Safety Campaign

If the nation's drivers continue to "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents," Americans may have one of its safest and happiest Christmases, the National Safety Council said this week.

In launching its annual Christmas safety campaign, the Council said the traffic trend is encouraging—but it also warned that highway accidents and deaths reach their peak at Christmas time.

During the first nine months of this year, traffic deaths dropped 3 per cent from the same period for the previous year—a saving of 800 lives.

"If drivers can maintain this rate of improvement, more than 1,000 lives can be saved on the highway in 1957," the Council said.

The success of the "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents" campaign in its first year has led the Council to extend it through 1958. The purpose of the campaign is to encourage public officials to step up the attack on traffic accidents and to stimulate acceptance of personal responsibility for safety.

Speed is a large factor in yuletide accidents, the Council said. It increases the chances of an accident, and it also decreases the chances of drivers and passengers coming out alive if an accident occurs.

To determine a safe speed, the Council said, drivers must take into consideration:

1. Weather and visibility. Fog, rain, snow or darkness are caution signs that should be heeded.
2. Mechanical factors. Engine power, ability to hold the road, and efficiency of all mechanical parts have a definite bearing on selection of a safe speed.
3. Physical factors. Whether a road is rough, smooth, hilly, flat, curving or straight are considerations that should influence speed.
4. Personal factors. The driver's physical and mental condition and the speed at which he can safely control his car are important.
5. Traffic conditions. Drivers should adapt their speed to the traffic they meet. A safe speed on a country road can be unsafe on a city street.

on all farms growing upland cotton in 1958, penalties will apply on "excess" cotton, and price supports to those growers who comply with their cotton acreage allotments will be available at the full level of effective supports. Under current legislation, this support will be between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, the minimum level within this range depending upon the supply situation at the time the determination is made.

"If more than one-third of the growers disapprove quotas, there will be no marketing quotas or penalties, and price supports to eligible growers (who comply with their allotments) will be available at 50 per cent of parity.

"In either case, acreage allotments will continue in effect for the 1958 cotton crop as a means of determining eligibility for price support."

The chairman pointed out that legislation directs the Secretary of Agriculture to proclaim marketing quotas for the next upland cotton crop when the cotton supply exceeds normal. Quotas are not put into operation, however, unless they are approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum on the question.

Quail Season Opens December 1st with Excellent Prospects

Quail hunters will find the best crop of birds in years when the season opens in Texas Dec. 1, according to E. A. Spratt, director of Law Enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. He says reports from wardens throughout the state indicate not only a heavy hatch, but an unusually large survival.

This applies to practically every section of the state. There was an ample food crop during the summer and fall months, affording plenty of seed for the birds.

More than 28,000 bobwhites and 8,500 cottontail quail were released by the State Hatchery at Tyler this year, through clubs in different parts of the state. These, with the heavy hatch of native birds, are responsible for the big crop.

The bag limit is 12 in one day or not more than 36 in one week or in possession.

Magazine Has Picture Story of Deer Fight

White-tailed deer fights are seldom seen by man, and even more rarely captured on film. One such movie sequence, made by the Texas Game and Fish Commission in its film, "Hill Country," is described in the November issue of "Texas Game and Fish," the official magazine of the Commission.

The movie has been shown to more than 63,000 Texans since its release.

The story of the fight and filming is told in "60 Seconds of Fury," by Theron D. Carroll, biologist, with accompanying pictures from the movie sequence by Lon Fitzgerald, official photographer.

The two men had waited three days in the Hill Country for something unusual they could record in their movie. The movie cameras had been focused for a turkey scene to be taken in the late afternoon, but a six-point buck challenged an eight-pointer on the wildlife stage just as the turkeys came by. The entire fight took less than a minute.

Kenny Foundation Head Explains Rehabilitation, Research Goals

Minneapolis, Minn.—Gradual expansion of a program that originally was concerned primarily with poliomyelitis to one that includes treatment and rehabilitation of victims of other neuromuscular disorders characterizes the work of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny foundation today.

KLINE

This expansion has resulted, too, in growth in medical and research programs, according to Marvin L. Kline, national executive director of the foundation. Doctors in various specialties have been added to medical staffs of Kenny treatment centers, and its medical committees have been enlarged to include scientists, professors and department heads of a number of leading universities throughout the United States and Canada, he added.

"The Kenny foundation's primary objectives include direct treatment and care for persons suffering from poliomyelitis and other neuromuscular diseases and disorders, without regard to race, age, sex, color or creed," Kline declared.

"Training of registered nurses and physical therapists to become Kenny Therapists continues at our international training center in Minneapolis, and we have greatly increased the tempo of research into pello and other neuromuscular disabilities through grants to leading medical schools and hospitals and through provision of fellowships to individual doctors and scientists. Fostering of medical seminars and short courses continues as a major activity of the Kenny foundation."

Kline explained that the over-all program of providing direct patient treatment and rehabilitation is made possible through funds contributed during the foundation's annual nationwide public appeal.

"The Kenny foundation is highly dependent upon generous contributions from the public which benefits from this work, because of its wide demand in terms of highly-trained personnel and its many medical activities and research projects as well as the treatment and medical care it provides at no charge," Kline declared.

by VERN SANFORD, Mgr. Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex. — Legislative machinery is not built for speed. This was demonstrated as Texas lawmakers moved into their third week of work on a bill designed to prevent occupation of schools by federal troops.

A multi-hour filibuster by Sen. Henry B. Gonzales bogged down proceedings in the upper chamber. House members marked time to wait for Senate action. This apparently was to allow the House committee to consider both the Senate and House proposals before reporting.

Earlier, both House and Senate committees heard a number of religious and educational leaders speak against the bill. Protestors said, in effect, that the measure would be detrimental to the school system and would encourage violence.

Legislative proponents retorted the witnesses seemed "more interested in cramming social dogma down our throats than in educating our children."

A suit filed by U. S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell the day before the left office seeks to establish the tidelands boundaries of Gulf Coastal states (including Texas) at three miles out.

Texas claims tidelands 10 1/2 miles out by virtue of its 110-year-old annexation agreement with the U. S. A law passed by Congress in 1953 requires the federal government to respect the states' "historic boundaries."

Gov. Price Daniel called on the Legislature to protest to President Eisenhower concerning Brownell's action, Daniel, who co-sponsored the 1953 tidelands bill, read a letter from the President which said, in effect, that he would continue to honor Texas' claim.

House immediately passed a resolution in keeping with the governor's request.

Daniel said that Brownell "added insult to injury" by asking in his suit that Texas be required to pay to the federal government money received from leases on tidelands beyond a three mile limit. This would amount to more than $26,000,000 which the state has salted away in the public school fund.

House also passed a resolution asking Congress to call a constitutional convention. Purpose would be to draft amendments limiting the power of the federal government where it infringes on state powers.

LAKE STUDY PROMISED — Governor Daniel promised advocates of free use of rural lakes that they will have their inning.

A number of legislators from rural areas have tried during the special sessions to change the law which limits water in small (200 acre feet or less) farm ponds to livestock and domestic use. Freedom to use the water for irrigation is sought.

Present law requires a special permit from the State Water Board to gain irrigation privileges. Farmers say getting such permits is complicated and too expensive.

But spokesmen for cities and downstream users vigorously oppose a change. They fear wholesale irrigation would dry up the streams leaving no water for them.

Governor Daniel said he would not submit this issue for the special session.

INSURANCE QUIZ — Senate investigating committee continued to put Insurance Department employees on the carpet to determine how well that agency is carrying out its functions.

Asst. Comm. Paul Connor took full responsibility for a three-months delay in action on a critical report concerning Preferred Life of Dallas. It was handled as quickly as possible "under the circumstances," said Connor. He pointed out the department was in a period of reorganization at the time and that it received hundreds of such reports.

T. W. Goad, for 17 years a department examiner, testified that examiners' morale was at an all-time low. He attributed this to (1) legislative cutting of examiners' per diem pay and (2) hostility from companies which feel state charges for an examination are too high.

COST OF CRIME — Board of Corrections adopted a 1958 budget of $4,045,720 to take care of the all-time-high state prison population.

However, only $1,025,829 of this comes from tax money. The rest is earned by the various farming and manufacturing enterprises operated by inmates.

Number behind bars has climbed to an average of 9,726 this year compared to 4,987 in 1947.

MORE MONEY FOR TEXAS — Texans have been getting richer faster than the average U. S. citizens in the past 27 years.

University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports Texas average income increased 447 per cent from 1929-57. U. S. average increased 279 per cent.

But there's a less rosy side. Last year Texas per capita income still hadn't caught up with the national average. It was $1,686 compared to $1,940.

Also, drought and farm depression have slowed Texas' rate of increase in incomes. However, said the Bureau report, some improvement in the farm incomes is expected this year.

RURAL ROADS SUPPORTED — Governor Daniel had more words of encouragement for farmers at the Texas Farm Bureau convention.

"There'll be no let-up on the building of rural roads during this administration," he told delegates. Bureau delegates were concerned with recent suggestions that the farm-to-market system is getting a disproportionate share of road money and should be curtailed.

HIGH FLYER

Amarillo, Tex.—A high flying bantam hen became a mother, but had to call for help to round up her four chickens.

Clucking madly, she ran round and round the trunk of a high spruce tree, while her chicks cheeped far above in a bird's nest. The mother hen was so excited she had forgotten the route she had taken up so many times during the hatching period.

Without the help of their owner, Mrs. G. R. Ross, the family might never have been reunited. Mrs. Ross climbed a six-foot ladder to reach the chickens, and handed them over to the mother.

Mrs. Ross said the hen had been hatching the eggs in the repossessed sparrow's nest, although there were the most modern facilities all around for more conventional hatching.

He also has been convicted in a federal court of using the mails to defraud a school district. . . . Sputnik means "we will do what we have been doing, except a little more of it," says State Civil Defense Director William L. McGill. Texas will stress preparing emergency governments to function in the event of disaster.

More than 50,000 Texas families are now receiving food from the government's surplus stocks, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Much of it goes to children via the school lunch program.

POPULATION INCREASING

World population is now increasing at the rate of 47 million a year, and the rate may soon reach 75 million.

MAYBE IT'S NO JOKE

Seminole, Tex.—Blame this on "Cousin" Hal Blymiller of Radio Seminole, KSML.

The last half of the Seminole Hobbs football game was played during a driving rain storm, of which Seminole does often see.

The rain came in sheets of water splashed off the press box where Hal was broadcasting the game. When the press box opened, rain poured in, with the announcer's equipment.

When a tackler dropped a ball carrier on the field, there came the words: "The player is drowned on the 20-yard line."

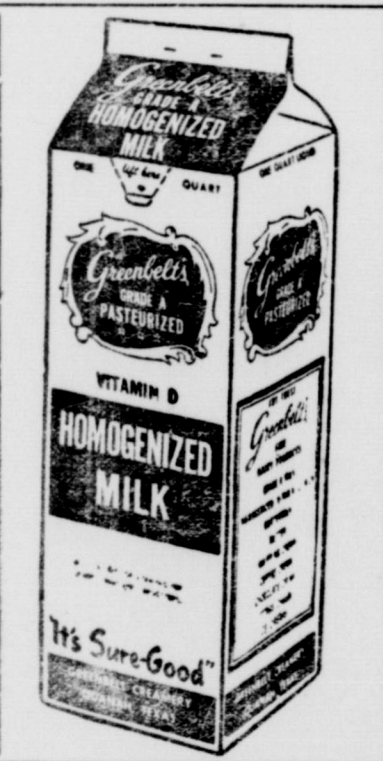

Oh, well, sometimes they all their tangle tongued up.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner
Asian influenza vaccine is now so plentiful that doctors and druggists can obtain it at will in almost any quantity, exactly as they obtain any other drug product. This means that you can now be vaccinated at your own discretion, regardless of your age, job or physical condition. In the early days of the influenza epidemic, vaccine was so scarce—even though six drug manufacturers were commissioned to produce it and worked 24-hour shifts at the task—that available supplies had to be distributed to states according to population, with populous states getting the lion's share. Today, however, reports coming from state health departments and from manufacturers indicate that supplies are catching up with demand, so that controls on allocations to states are no longer necessary. By lifting controls—which have been voluntary from the beginning—manufacturers will be free to ship more vaccine into states where demand is still high, instead of attempting to send equitable shares to each state. In some communities throughout the nation, including many in Texas, enough vaccine is on hand to permit vaccination of the general public without regard to priority needs. Former priority groups included pregnant women, very young children and oldersters, and people with chronic ailments such as heart trouble. Well over 40 million units of vaccine has been cleared for release to the nation to date. Heretofore, Texas has received approximately five per cent of the amount released for civilian use, since this state has 5.2 per cent of the national population. Vaccination is still the only reliable means of preventing influenza, despite a flood of advertisements proclaiming the curative or preventive powers of other products. Incidentally, two federal agencies have announced their intention of taking prompt action against anyone making false or misleading claims that their products are effective in preventing or treating influenza. Just because a wave of influenza has passed through your community and you escape don't make the mistake of thinking you don't need a vaccination. Flu sometimes makes a re-entrance, and there is a strong possibility that those it missed the first time will be hit the second. Vaccination is especially important for older age groups in which chronic diseases are much more common, and to a lesser extent among pregnant women. Serious complications often follow influenza attacks in these groups. The fact that winter is fast approaching lends a note of urgency to vaccinations. had as guests Sunday her brothers, Merle and Wilbur Eden, of Vernon. UNDER-INSURED view of Sylvia Porter, business and financial analyst, overwhelming percentage of homes are under-insured. She writes that a home that cost $8,000 in 1937 would cost $50,000 today, and that a house erected just before the war could not be duplicated for $100,000 now. An investment job that could be made for $5,000 in 1946 would be worth $27,000 at the present time.

Laboratory Testing Makes Airline Travel More Comfortable

There's a smoke-filled room at a West Coast laboratory and not a single politician around. All this puffing of cigarettes and pipe tobacco is aimed at insuring the flying comfort of passengers in America's new air conditioned and pressurized transport aircraft. Engineers found that cabin pressure regulators and valves collect tiny smoke particles which, in time, could cause an air conditioning system to freeze, making the cabin stuffy and uncomfortable. The altitude laboratory simulates in one day all the smoke airline passengers will puff in 10 years. The pressure regulator or valve is placed in the altitude chamber to simulate flight conditions. Outside the chamber, pipe tobacco is burned at the rate of one pound every four minutes. The smoke is ducted through one end of the chamber, through the regulator or valve, and drawn out the other end by a vacuum pump. After the unit has undergone this 30-hour test, it is then checked. Technicians find that tiny particles on the units would ordinarily hamper their function except for one reason. Engineers make allowances in tolerances for the tar particles. In addition, a filter is installed on all control elements of the systems which block harmful tobacco

UNITS OF GOVERNMENT

Neil MacNeil, writing in National Review, says that "We have in the U. S. 116,743 units of government, almost all of which levy taxes of one sort or another." He goes on to say that there are "116 taxes on a suit of clothes, 151 taxes on a loaf of bread, and around 100 on an egg. The tax-gatherer takes so much, now, that he can't leave anything untouched."

Isn't it about time somebody said a few words in defense of the rights of the majority in this country?

We have been so intent upon protecting minorities that we sometimes forget that the majority also has rights and is equally entitled to protection against violation of those rights by the minority.

We operate under a system of majority rule, but a preponderance of our laws are designed to protect minorities from aggression by the majority. It has been said that we are a nation in which the majority rules in favor of the minority.

Certainly, in no other nation in the world are the rights of minority groups so amply protected as in the United States. That is a basic principle of our Constitution and Bill of Rights, and none of us would vote to change it.

That, naturally, raises the question of definition of majority. Is it the majority of a city, a county, a State or the Nation? In what matters does the majority of the Nation have the right to over-ride the majority of a State?

The rule by majority is a firmly established democratic principle, but we should recognize that it also has its limitations and dangers when carried to extremes. It can create resentments that endanger democratic government.

One of the finest traits of our American Character, I think, is that we almost invariably root for the under-dog, for the little man against the big man, for little business against big business. Sometimes, however, we don't bother to find out which is right and which is wrong.

It has always been that way from the time the first settlers came to this country because they were persecuted minority groups in their homeland. They built a nation and government dedicated to providing maximum protection for minorities.

This country is composed of many minorities—racial, nation of origin, political and religious groups, and occupations. It is only when many of those combine that they constitute a majority.

Communists are a minority group in this country. About the only restriction we place on them is that they not teach or openly advocate the overthrow of the government by force or violence. But all of us know that is their primary objective.

Our laws and our courts give them full protection. The argument is that so long as communists are such a small minority they are no great threat to our republican form of government. Aren't we just a bit naive?

This, however, suits the communists just fine. They know from experience that there are certain advantages in being a minority in this country. They have demonstrated in other countries that it is possible for the minority to rule the majority.

When they gain control, they have no consideration for the rights of the majority. Already a few communists impose their dictatorial rule by force over almost half of the people of the world.

Even in Russia fewer than 5 per cent of the people belong to the communist party. A few men rule the country by force and terror. In China the percentage of communists is even smaller. The rights of the majority are taken away.

The people of Poland, Hungary, Rumania, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, and East Germany have found that when the communists gain control there is no easy return to democracy. Freedom is valued most highly in those nations where it is denied the people.

Isn't it about time we begin to give more consideration to the protection of the rights of the majority in this country?

December Plentiful Foods Featuring Holiday Favorites

Plenty of most of the traditional holiday foods insure homemakers that there will be no shortages when their shopping begins for the foods normally used during the holiday season.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture's December plentiful foods list for the Southwest shows broiling and frying chickens are feature items, while turkey and pork are other protein suggestions. Supplies are large on these main course favorites.

The old favorite, cranberries, will be abundant in December as will apples and winter pears. Adequate supplies of oranges and grapefruit should also be available, says the report issued by John J. Slaughter, southwest food distribution chief.

December plentiful vegetables include peas, canned and frozen, and dry blackeye peas. Pinto beans, too, are on the list.

Dates, almonds and filberts complete the December plentiful listings.

Foods Specialists Give Hints on Cooking Wild Game Meats

Game meats, like domestic meats, are at their best when properly dressed and cooked, reminds extension foods and nutrition specialists. The family judges meat chiefly by tenderness and flavor.

Natural tenderness of any meat is influenced by the kind of animal, age, finish or fatness, and cut. Tenderness as served depends upon natural tenderness and method of cooking.

Carcasses of larger game animals are cut in much the same manner as beef carcasses and cuts are cooked by the same methods that are used for beef of a similar grade. As with beef, the loin cuts are most tender. Roasts and steaks from the loin can usually be cooked satisfactorily by dry heat. Moist heat is considered more satisfactory for the other cuts.

The loin will give the best roasts and steaks (sirloin or porterhouse). Chuck and rump are good for pot roasts and ground meat. The round will make good steaks unless the animal is particularly tough. In this case, it can be ground or used as swiss steak. If the leg is small it may be roasted all in one piece in the manner of a leg of lamb. Shank, neck, flank and spareribs can be best used for soups, stews and ground meat.

Venison is a rather dry meat. Addition of suet, butter, or bacon fat when roasting, broiling or frying will improve this condition. The characteristic venison flavor is concentrated largely in the fat. The removal of the bulk of fat will make it less "gamey." Spices and herbs help to bring out its good flavor.

Cotton Growers to Vote on Quotas

Cotton producers of the nation will vote on December 10 to determine whether or not marketing quotas will be in effect on their 1958 crop. According to R. G. Shrauner, chairman, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, this will be the twelfth time that growers have registered their choice on this question.

Marketing quotas have been in effect for the last four crops. Last December, 92.4 per cent of the farmers voting approved quotas for the 1957 cotton crop. Two-thirds of the voters must favor quotas too, if they are to remain effective. The first referendum was held in 1938.

Under legislative provisions, the Secretary of Agriculture must proclaim a national marketing quota and a national acreage allotment for upland cotton whenever he finds that the total supply exceeds the normal supply. The total supply of upland cotton for the 1957-58 marketing year is estimated at 23.6 million running bales and the normal supply, that is needed for domestic uses, for exports and a 30 per cent carry-over reserve, is estimated at 17.6 million bales. Thus, the prospective total supply exceeds the normal supply by about 5.6 million bales, and quotas for the 1958 crop of upland cotton had to be proclaimed.

Marketing quotas, point out Shrauner, operate through acreage allotments. A grower who exceeds the cotton acreage allotment for his farm, under a cotton marketing quota program will be subject to a marketing quota penalty of 50 per cent of parity on the farm's excess production. Growers who do not exceed their cotton allotments may market free of penalty all of the 1958 cotton production from their farms.

Shrauner said growers could get detailed information on the referendum by visiting the ASC office in their county.
