Public School Week to Be Observed Here March 3-7

Governor Price Daniel has proclaimed the first week of March as "Public Schools Week in Texas" again this year. Most of the schools of the state observed this "Public School Week" last year.

The local school officials have arranged the following program for this year: The pastors of the various churches of the community have been requested to use high school students in their program on Sunday, March 2. The F. H. A. group of Crowell High School girls will prepare supper for the Crowell School Board on Monday evening. All patrons of the community are invited to visit the school from 6:30 o'clock until 8:00 o'clock on Tuesday evening. All officers of the local civic clubs are invited to eat lunch at the school cafeteria on Wednesday. They should notify the school if they can accept this invitation.

The 6-year-old children, along with their parents, are invited to a "get acquainted" program at the school on Thursday, March 6, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Members of the Crowell and Thalia Masonic Lodges and their wives are being invited to a dinner and program at the Crowell Masonic hall Monday evening, Feb. 24, at 7 o'clock. Hostesses for the affair are members of the Crowell Chapter, Order of Eastern Stars.

An interesting program is being planned, along with a fine meal, and all Masons of both lodges and their wives are urged to attend.

The Eastern Star ladies did not mail invitations to each Mason individually, but have asked that all Masons of the two lodges and their wives consider this newspaper notice a personal invitation for them to attend.

Heart Fund Drive Set for Sunday Feb. 23 at 6 P. M.

Members of the Sub-Junior Columbian and Sub-Junior Adolphian Clubs have assumed the responsibility of soliciting funds for the Heart Fund campaign, it was announced this week by Jack Welch, Heart Fund chairman for Foard County.

Since Sunday, February 23, was selected as Heart Fund Sunday over the nation, it was decided to make the solicitation late Sunday afternoon, beginning at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Welch stated that 40 per cent of the money collected will remain in the county and 60 per cent will be used by the national Heart organization.

Heart disease among Americans is the cause of 53 per cent of all deaths.

The chairman stated that the national and local program is 3-fold:

1. Research—prolonged, stubborn scientific study and experiment brings the answers to our doctors—bring needed knowledge in getting disease under control.

2. Education—this knowledge needs to be in the hands of our doctors and nurses and other health personnel. The Heart Association makes this knowledge available, through scientific sessions, publications, doctors and nurses teaching aids.

3. Community Service—An informed public is a public better armed to protect healthy hearts and to take care of the ones who need help.

The Wichita Falls Cardiac Clinic, located at Bethania Hospital, is a catheterization laboratory, where it is possible to diagnose heart ailments through the means of catheterization. This can be followed by the suggestion of proper treatment.

Heart Fund donations bought the equipment and maintain the laboratory for use of the people of this area.

The worthy cause should be aided by every resident of the county.

Second Play-Off Game to Be Played at Holiday Tonight

The Holiday High School boys basketball team was hotter than a firecracker here last Tuesday night in its 71 to 58 victory over the Crowell High School basketball team. The Eagles hit 53 per cent of their field goal attempts to Crowell's 34 per cent. They had a 15-point lead at halftime. Crowell narrowed the margin to 11 points at one time in the second half but still came out 13 points behind when the final whistle sounded.

These two teams play again at Holiday tonight (Thursday) in another play-off contest for the district championship. Holiday won the eastern half without a loss. Crowell nosed Chillicothe out in an extra game at Quanah last Saturday night to cinch the western half championship. In case Crowell wins tonight, the third and deciding game will be played on a neutral court Saturday night for the district championship. The winner will play Bridgeport for bi-district honors next week.

David Carpenter played his best game of the season and led in scoring with 20 points for Crowell. Merl Boyd and Van Hubbard scored 17 points each for the winners. The Eagles started out with an all-court press defense that completely panicked the Wildcats. However, the most outstanding exhibition of field goal shooting that Crowell has encountered this season was the real difference in the score. Most of Crowell's players were not able to score their usual number of field goals due to the close defense of the Holiday boys.

Jerry Bob Sellers, stellar Crowell forward, was able to score only three field goals. Gary Carpenter hit six and Fredrick Youree five. David Carpenter hit eight field goals and four free throws. Jimmy Rader, Harvey Smith and Ivan Cates were other Crowell boys playing in this contest.

Crowell Wildcats Take Western Half Title with 55-51 Win Over Chillicothe

The Crowell High School boys basketball team came through with a sensational 55 to 51 overtime victory at Quanah last Saturday night against the Chillicothe Eagles for the championship of the western half of District 1A-11. This game was played before a capacity crowd. These teams had split games in the regular district schedule play and the tie was broken on the Quanah neutral court.

The difference in the score was decided at the free toss line with Crowell scoring 13 out of 19 shots. The Eagles were able to score only five out of 14 gratis shots. George Metcalfe of Chillicothe was sensational in his field goal shots in the first half, scoring 18 points. He scored six during the last half. The Eagles were leading by three points at the intermission time. Crowell forged out ahead by three points at the beginning of the fourth quarter; however, Chillicothe was leading again one minute before the regular period was up. David Carpenter scored a basket for Crowell to tie the game up as the fourth quarter ended. Crowell scored three field goals to Chillicothe's two extra free shots in the extra three-minute period. Sophomore Fredrick Youree, starting his first game of the season for Crowell, came through with 13 points. Jerry Bob Sellers led in scoring for the Cats with 17 points. He made seven out of seven free throws. Center Gary Carpenter and guards Jimmy Rader and Harvey Smith also played a good game for Crowell.

This victory gave Crowell the right to play Holiday, champion of the eastern half, for the district championship.

THIS WEEK -In Washington

Washington is able to see just a hint of a bright future in the farm legislation deadline that Congress has blocked nearly all action by Congress for more than three years.

Farm income took another drop last year, down from $12.1 billion in 1956 to $11.9 billion in 1957. More than 300,000 farmers faced with rising costs and dwindling income, are out and moved to cities last year.

"We cannot afford to stand idly by and permit the decline in our agricultural resources and the impoverishment of 20 million citizens who depend upon farming for a living," Rep. Harold Cooley, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, told us.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson is equally emphatic that new farm legislation is urgently needed to "correct a situation that certainly is not improving." He is pressing Congress to make changes this year.

President Eisenhower has been promised that his 15-point revision of present farm laws will be given careful consideration by Congress. Most of it will be adopted, although key points have aroused adamant opposition.

The plunger of light in predictions of a dark future for farm legislation is agreement by both House and Senate agriculture committees to hold expensive hearings in hopes of developing an omnibus farm bill in time for action at this session of Congress.

Hopes for a major revision in price support and production control legislation rest on the still remote possibility that a compromise between conflict in Capitol Hill and USDA views can be reached. Neither side has offered to compromise, but both tell us they are prepared to make concessions.

Here, as Congress swings into the third month of farm debate, is how we size up the probable outcome on farm legislation at this session: The billion and a half dollar export subsidy-sales (P. L. 480) program requested by President Eisenhower will be extended for very appetizing.

Food demonstrations were given on Friday also by D'Lois Shultz and Patricia Pittillo. A delicious cabbage pimiento salad was prepared and served by D'Lois. This recipe is only one of the many uses for eggs. The omelet was served with apple jelly and biscuits made by other members of the homemaking class.

If anyone would like to obtain these recipes, the girls would be glad to give them to you.

Some Taxes Prevent Americans from Doing Their Best

long ago, a famous popular turned down offers to appear on television—at a fabulous price. The pay would have placed him in a higher tax bracket, costing him more in taxes than he has earned, says the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

and in sports usually turn out to be little winners by the time they go through the income tax wringer, the Chamber notes. Their plight has dramatized the injustice of tax rates which penalize success.

What most of us do not realize, though, is that an untold number of less publicized persons also stop short of full productivity, simply because unfair taxes take away incentive.

No one can say how many persons are discouraged from writing another book or play or turning out a new product which would create new jobs. The cumulative effect of all this, says the Chamber, is unbelievably bad for our economy.

Finally, there is no doubt a connection between tax rates which take away more than half a person's income, and tax evasion, the Chamber adds. People instinctively feel that except in war, or during grave national peril, Uncle Sam should be no more than an equal partner.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

We Can Learn From Russia About "Profit Motive" of Taxation

Ironic as it seems, it may be that the communists can teach capitalist America something about the "profit motive" after all, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

With the outpouring of news about Russia, many Americans, says the Chamber, have been surprised to learn that Soviet teachers, scientists, intellectuals, industrialists—the talented, creative persons—receive rich economic rewards.

Hard-headed as the communists are, they have never been so deceived by Marxists doctrine as to let it dictate their actual economic system. They understand what makes Sammy run. They move in the direction of offering more reward for greater merit.

Meanwhile, by way of our federal income tax system, with rates ranging up to 91 per cent on incomes of $200,000 and up, we move in the other direction, says the Chamber. The main drive of U. S. taxes, with their increasing penalties upon success, is away from individual achievement and toward a social leveling.

Perhaps it is we who have been deceived, the Chamber suggests. For it is we who have tried to level economic differences by steep and unjust tax rates which penalize the talented, creative citizen.

It should not take the Russians to teach us the value of giving the highest rewards to the best producers, the Chamber concludes.

MRS. MARY D. BROWN

All of our clubs need new members in the remaining 60 per cent to join their club. Often club members say, "Well, there is just no one else in our community." However, when they actually start a survey they find that there are others who might like to join if they were given a little encouragement.

Our recipe this week is:
Meat Loaf
1 pound ground meat, 1 can condensed vegetable soup, 1 egg, 3 cups cracker or dry bread crumbs, 1/2 cup butter or margarine.

Mix ground beef, vegetable soup and 1 cup crumbs. Mix remaining 2 cups crumbs and butter or margarine. Line 1 quart casserole with crumbs saving about 1/2 cup for top. Pack in meat mixture to fill pan and press remaining crumbs over top. Bake at 400 degrees F. for 1 hour. Invert over serving plate. Serves 6.

WHY NO JOBS — Viewing the soaring unemployment figures, Governor Daniel took more jobs at the GOP.

Loss of jobs reportedly increased more in the past month than at any time since World War II.

As far as Texas is concerned, said the governor, much of the blame can be laid to the Republican administration's ineffectiveness in controlling oil imports.

Competition of foreign oil, he asserted, has caused Texas production to slip steadily, bringing loss of jobs and revenue to the state. National farm policies also were criticized by the governor.

Texas Employment Commission says its January unemployment compensation payments hit $537,800, an increase of almost 70 per cent from last September.

MORE TAXES? — Governor Daniel has slightly and very cautiously amended his determinedly cheerful stand about possible need for new state taxes.

He still doesn't agree with Comptroller Robert S. Calvert's chilly predictions. These are for a $12,000,000 deficit by the end of this biennium (in 1959) and need for the next Legislature to scratch up $100,000,000 in new revenue.

Governor Daniel said he felt the state would just about break even by 1959. But he conceded that needs of a growing state might call for more money by then. He still favors a gas gathering tax, which he proposed last year, but emphasized he isn't recommending that or any other new tax for the time being.

LET'S FACE IT — It's a recession, all right, but a minor one. This is the answer Dr. John R. Stockton, one of the state's top business analysts, is giving many groups these days. Dr. Stockton is director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Ebbing of prosperity and fear of another depression have put the spotlight on BBR's studies. Dr. Stockton minces no words about there being a recession, but contends that the cures for this one are in plain sight. He cites increased federal spending and easier credit regulations.

A "minor" recession, says the BBR director, usually lasts about six to eight months.

RATE ORDER DELAYED — State Board of Insurance is re-studying an order that would cut in half the rate for insurance on people who get small loans.

Order brought a storm of protest from credit insurers who said the regulation would put them out of business. After a hearing, the Board postponed effective date of the order from March 1 to April 1.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has said he would head a drive to crack down on "loan sharks" if the Insurance Board would tighten up insurance regulations.

US TRUST PAYMENT FORESEEN — Partial repayment to investors in the bankrupt US Trust and Guaranty Co. may be possible within couple of months, Texas Supreme Court rules that all creditors must share alike in the distribution. Payment has been held up by a suit in which holders of "trust certificates" sought preference.

Depositors can make one last move by asking the court for a re-hearing. But unless the court completely reverses its view, this will be denied, making it possible for the state liquidator to begin paying out some $4,000,000 in recovered funds.

ANTI-GIFT LAW TOPPLES — The Attorney General has declared invalid a section of a new law prohibiting insurance company officials from making gifts to State Insurance Department employees.

His reason: the bill's caption or title did not mention the subject.

Home Demonstration Notes
MRS. MARY D. BROWN

All of our clubs need new members in the remaining 60 per cent to join their club. Often club members say, "Well, there is just no one else in our community." However, when they actually start a survey they find that there are others who might like to join if they were given a little encouragement.

Our recipe this week is:
1 pound ground meat, 1 can condensed vegetable soup, 1 egg, 3 cups cracker or dry bread crumbs, 1/2 cup butter or margarine.

Mix ground beef, vegetable soup and 1 cup crumbs. Mix remaining 2 cups crumbs and butter or margarine. Line 1 quart casserole with crumbs saving about 1/2 cup for top. Pack in meat mixture to fill pan and press remaining crumbs over top. Bake at 400 degrees F. for 1 hour. Invert over serving plate. Serves 6.

Texas' constitution requires that a bill's caption must state specifically what is in the bill. In this case, the caption did mention that Insurance Department employees could not accept gifts from industry people. But it did not say that industry people could not give them.

Each year a number of newly-passed laws are thrown out by the attorney general, or by courts, as being improperly written. Governor Daniel has suggested a bill-drafting division in the attorney general's department to help legislators avoid such errors.

HOUSE CLEANING — "I can't help but think that just about all of those rotten apples are out of the barrel," said State Insurance Liquidator J. D. Wheeler, in predicting that the period of insurance company failures might be over.

Our job with the insurance industry is like that of a traffic policeman, said State Insurance Board Chairman Penn Jackson. "If directors and stockholders will discharge their responsibilities, we will have less tickets to issue."

SHORT SNORTS — Robert E. Wallace has been appointed superintendent of the Abilene State School (for mentally retarded children) by the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools. Wallace, currently heading a similar institution in Illinois, will begin his new duties April 1. . . . Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has announced the annual conference on law enforcement to be held March 9-11 in Austin. Meeting of the District and County Attorneys Association of Texas has been set to coincide with the conference. . . . Prices paid for Texas farm products were relatively steady during the past month, reports the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Most marked change was in meat prices—up 42 per cent from a year ago, seven per cent from December. . . . More than 6,000 men of draft age registered last month, according to State Selective Service Headquarters. Law requires 18-year-old boys to register on their birthdays or five days thereafter. . . . All the various gimmicks and gadgets used in a radio, television or hi-fi set, if bought separately and assembled on a do-it-yourself basis, are not subject to the state sales tax on radio and television sets, ruled Atty. Gen. Will Wilson. Single exception is a "tuner" regarded as a radio set and, hence, taxable.

IDEA OF THE CENTURY

"The idea of the century comes from Bill France, founder and president of NASCAR, the National Association for Stock Cars, who journeyed to Washington at the close of the year to lay before The President's Committee for Traffic Safety a program for licensing automobile drivers as realistically as airplane pilots. . . . "Mr. France, whose goal is to make highway travel as safe as a ride on a merry-go-round," pointed out to The President's Committee the folly of testing drivers on quiet streets at 25 mph and expecting that this could qualify them for handling cars under present highway traffic conditions and at speeds of 40, 50, 60 and 70 mph."—Dunn, N. C. Record.

Our Ever-Improving Standard of Living Did Not "Just Happen"

By T. B. KLEPPER

Our ever-improving standard of living did not "just happen." New wealth is created only when mass sales follow the development of a new product. Low-cost production would not otherwise be possible.

For instance, five years ago, a manufacturer set out to develop a material which could be blended with cotton to produce a new and stronger fabric.

Four years later the material was perfected. Tests showed that it would double the wear life of cotton clothing, while increasing the cost only 20 per cent.

This was the first step toward new wealth. However, it did not mean actual wealth until the more economical fabric reached the consumer. The manufacturer found that clothing companies would not use the new product until consumer demand had been stimulated.

At this point, advertising became vital to the success of the new material. For it was only through advertising that public demand could be created. A general educational campaign on the value of the new goods was started.

However, the public did not receive benefits until local retail advertising finally began to sell shirts and trousers made from the fabric.

New wealth was actually created when local newspaper advertising caused farmers and carpenters to buy work-clothes which cost twice as long and which cost little more than they formerly paid.

The manufacturers, the sellers, and the consuming public all receive direct economic gain when advertising introduces a new and better product.

1958 Cotton Insect Control Guide Now Available Here

No cotton farmer has to be told about the reduction in profits that insects can cause. But luckily, cotton insects can be controlled economically by the use of the proper poisons at the right time.

Controlling damaging infestations of boll weevils, bollworms and other insects on cotton growing on fertile soils returns substantial profits even when a large number of applications is necessary for maximum yields. On upland soils where insect infestations do not last long, fewer applications may be needed.

Giving information and recommendations for the control of the various cotton insects is the theme of two leaflets recently released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service—L-218, "Texas Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects," and L-219, "Ways to Fight the Pink Bollworm in Texas."

L-218 deals with the more harmful cotton insects. It contains a chart giving the recommended controls and also general information including points on the safe handling of insecticides.

L-219 deals with the pink bollworm specifically. It tells about the habits and damage of the insect and gives special attention on the ways to fight it. Copies of the leaflets may be obtained from the county agent.

Avoid over-weight. It puts a needless work load on your heart and blood vessels, says the Texas Heart Association, sponsor of the 1958 Heart Fund.

The American Heart Association is the only national voluntary organization exclusively concerned with the development of research, education and community heart programs to fight the heart diseases.

First white men to set foot on Texas soil were Alvarez de Pineda and his followers in 1519.

Barbary Sheep Introduced in Palo Duro Area

One of the biggest game animals in Texas may become established in the Palo Duro Canyon of the Texas Panhandle if a recent experiment undertaken by Game and Fish Commission biologists is successful, according to Biologist A. S. Jackson in the January issue of Texas Game and Fish.

Thirty-one aoudad, or Barbary, sheep were introduced into the area last year, 1957. Since their release, the aoudads have split into small groups and have spread around the steep rocky walls and cliffs.

The game animals are native to the Atlas and Anti-Atlas mountains of North and Northwest Africa, range barriers between the Sahara Desert and the Mediterranean Sea. Arab reports say aoudads can last five or six days without water. They appear to have the agility of American mountain sheep or goats and a speed at least equal to mule deer.

The average live weight of the rams is said to be 200 to 250 pounds. Its body is barrel-shaped and its coat a tawny, rufous color. The aoudad's long, narrow head is topped with large, backward-curved horns.

The aoudad release in Texas follows an apparently successful wild aoudad introduction in a New Mexico area resembling Palo Duro Canyon. High hopes are held by the Game Commission biologists for their adaptation to Texas, and for future big game hunts in Palo Duro Canyon.

What would you do if all the traffic signs in Texas were suddenly removed?

That question was asked this week by J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, in an attempt to focus the public's attention on TSA's Signs of Life program.

"Traffic signs placed at carefully selected locations act as silent policemen to protect the public and help make traffic safely and efficiently," Musick said.

He stressed that in addition to urging the public to know and obey traffic signs, traffic officials, police and engineers make regular checks to see that the signs are in good condition. Sometimes, he reminded, the weather, vandalism or other conditions make the signs difficult to read.

"We urge motorists and pedestrians to learn the meaning of signs by their shape alone," the TSA manager said. "They should know their shapes and learn to use this knowledge instinctively in city traffic or on the highway."

Musick said that the over-all attack on traffic accidents is built around safety's original three E's—engineering, education and enforcement.

"First," he explained, "the engineers design and install aids for moving and controlling traffic. Then it's necessary to educate the public to utilize these aids

Policy of Awarding Defense Contracts Costing Million Extra

Uncle Sam's policy toward profits permitted defense contractors is costing the government millions of dollars by driving away the most efficient producers, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States asserts.

The difficulty, says the Chamber, lies in the terms of the Renegotiation Act.

Under this measure, profits permitted producers with defense contracts totalling $1 million or more are determined by the five-man Renegotiation Board—after the contractor has begun work. If the profit appears likely to be higher than the Board thinks wise, payment is reduced.

Renegotiation, the Chamber points out, is simply a tax without a rate. It is imposed entirely on the basis of the Board's judgment. It amounts to another excess profits tax, penalizing the lowest, low-price producer, and so driving him away from military procurement.

Conversely, the Chamber notes, the same policy encourages the small, less-efficient, higher-cost producer to seek defense contracts. The net result is not only a loss to taxpayers, but discouragement of larger firms able to finance major undertakings requiring top flight scientific know-how.

RE-TRAINING DELINQUENTS

(A distinguished Texas judge offers pointers on combating our rapidly increasing juvenile delinquency problem.)

By JUDGE SARAH T. HUGHES

Texas has three training schools—one for boys at Gatesville, one for white girls at Gainesville, and the third for colored girls at Crockett.

Several years ago a bold new policy was inaugurated looking toward restoring youthful offenders to a useful life in society.

First of all, the institutions now look different—the grounds are unfenced, the windows (except in the security units) without bars.

Improvement Results

The youngsters look different, too. Formerly they wore uniforms—today there is a wide variety of clothes. They used to march from building to building. Now there are no restrictions as they move around.

Vocational training is provided. For recreation there are movies, TV, radio. Discipline is enforced largely by taking away privileges and furloughs.

Escapes Decrease

Despite the freedom from the old restrictions, the number of escapes has decreased. There is greater satisfaction with the program, and since 1952 there have been no gang fights or hunger strikes, which formerly were pretty frequent.

The program at all three schools is designed, not merely to punish boys and girls, but mainly to rehabilitate them—to make them worthwhile citizens.

My article next week will tell how much too small our correction facilities are—so that delinquents get out too soon.

Policy of Awarding Defense Contracts Costing Million Extra

Uncle Sam's policy toward profits permitted defense contractors is costing the government millions of dollars by driving away the most efficient producers, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States asserts.

The difficulty, says the Chamber, lies in the terms of the Renegotiation Act.

Under this measure, profits permitted producers with defense contracts totalling $1 million or more are determined by the five-man Renegotiation Board—after the contractor has begun work. If the profit appears likely to be higher than the Board thinks wise, payment is reduced.

Renegotiation, the Chamber points out, is simply a tax without a rate. It is imposed entirely on the basis of the Board's judgment. It amounts to another excess profits tax, penalizing the lowest, low-price producer, and so driving him away from military procurement.

Conversely, the Chamber notes, the same policy encourages the small, less-efficient, higher-cost producer to seek defense contracts. The net result is not only a loss to taxpayers, but discouragement of larger firms able to finance major undertakings requiring top flight scientific know-how.

Fertilizing Fish Pond Increases Pounds of Fish; Reduces Moss

Applying fertilizer to the farm fish pond not only increases the amount of food in the water but also is one of the best practices for controlling submerged mosses in the pond, says Joe Burkett, County Agent.

The first application of fertilizer should be made immediately, he says. Since the pond water is usually deficient in the same nutrients as is the soil over which the water flows into the pond or tank, Burkett suggests the use of the same commercial mixture as is used for crops on the farm. An initial application of 100 pounds for each surface acre of water is suggested. This amount should cause a change in the color of the water. This is due to the development of a great amount of plankton which is used for food by the fish and organisms upon which fish feed.

Bloom is another term used to describe the water in a properly fertilized pond.

Burkett advises periodic checks of the pond to determine when additional fertilizer applications are needed. He says to submerge the arm into the water to elbow depth and if the thumb can be plainly seen, more fertilizer should be applied. Only the amount required to get the desired bloom should be applied and this may be about half of the first application.

Pond fertilization should not be stopped during the hot summer months. The fertilizer can cause a shortage of oxygen in the water, especially during the periods when the wind is not strong enough to cause wave action. Fish will die when their oxygen supply is depleted.

Finally, Burkett emphasizes that all of the fertilizer to be used during the year should not be applied at one time. Start now and make enough applications to maintain the desired bloom. The shading from the bloom will also control submerged mosses and make fishing and swimming in the pond more enjoyable.

Dundee Fish Hatchery to Be Re-Built

Bids for the rebuilding and enlargement of the Dundee fish hatchery near Wichita Falls will be sought immediately, according to Joe Marks, director of hatcheries of the Game and Fish Commission.

An appropriation of $200,000 was approved for the work.

Operation of the hatchery through the coming season will be maintained, and plans for the new work have been laid out so that there will be a minimum of interference with the current operations.

The Dundee hatchery was built originally in 1928 and consisted of 14 ponds. Various improvements and expansions were made through the years until today the hatchery has 50 ponds covering 35 acres.

Under the new program the entire hatchery will be almost completely rebuilt. New water lines will be established so that fish production can be materially increased.

creased. Some levees and concrete boxes will be provided.

Cost estimates have been broken down to cover approximately 4000 of earth work; $35,000 concrete; $10,000 ditch repair; $8,000 road work and $62,000 water and drain lines.

By keeping the hatchery in operation, it is estimated that completion will require from months to a year.

NOT MADE MUCH HEADWAY

"A change in political administration has not made much headway against the assault on privately-owned power and light companies nor socialized medicine, name two areas. Either one, if it were to accept the socialistic way would jeopardize other facets of the American way and require more controls rather than fewer controls."—Burlingame, Kansas Enterprise-Chronicle.

Our Weekly Sermon God's Sure Reward
Star No. 763 will soon take its rightful place in the display of stars of Chicago policemen killed on duty.
The badge was overlooked by the police commissioner of the Windy City when he recently had replicas made of the stars of all policemen slain on duty before 1905. Its absence was noted by John McDowell, 69, when he went to look at the display.
"My father's star is not there," said McDowell. His father, James McDowell Sr., had been killed Oct. 3, 1889, when he went to investigate a disturbance at a tavern. An old newspaper clipping and a search of police files verified that McDowell's father had indeed been a policeman slain in the line of duty and that his star should be included in the display.
"I never really knew my father," said McDowell. "But I would like to see his star up there—for what it represents."
How many deeds of self-sacrifice and love go unnoticed! And not only great deeds, but smaller ones too receive no recognition. Perhaps you have done worthy things unknown to others.
But God knows. And His reward is sure.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

The State Department of Health has been engaged for many years in the promotion of housing hygiene because of the direct relationship between insanitary housing conditions and the spread of communicable diseases.
The Urban Renewal and Slum Clearance Act of 1949 (amended in 1954) provided means for systematically attacking the problem. The 55th Texas Legislature provided the needed State legislation.
The State Department of Health was made the official planning agency by act of the Texas Legislature for city planning programs undertaken by cities with populations of less than 25,000 according to the 1950 census.
Since August, 1957 (the effective date) 18 Texas cities have applied for planning assistance under the urban planning assistance program. They are Texas City, Rosenberg, La Marque, Brownwood, Irving, McAllen, Victoria, Edinburg, Mesquite, Kleberg, Mission, Deer Park, Grand Prairie, Denton, Haltom City, Greenville, Richmond and Donna.

The total cost of the planning applied for is $501,456.50, over $242,000 of which will be Federal matching funds. The remainder of the planning funds will be raised by the cities.
All these cities had less than 25,000 population according to the 1950 census, which is one of the basic prerequisites under the program. However, seven of these cities—Texas City, Brownwood, Irving, McAllen, Victoria, Grand Prairie and Denton—have present populations in excess of this figure.
Indications are that there are other Texas cities now eligible on the basis of the 1950 census figure which will be ineligible for the planning assistance after 1960.
Cities contemplating participation in the program are Linden, Mineola, Quitman, and Panhandle, although they have initiated no active steps in that direction as yet. Other cities are working with a consultant, and their applications will be filed soon.
All cities with less than 25,000 population according to the 1950 census and who cannot financially bear the entire cost of planning are eligible to receive the aid offered by the matching funds. The grant may not exceed 50 per cent of the cost of the work for which they are made, local funds making up the remainder of the cost.

The apostle Paul wrote to first century persecuted Christians, "For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love which you showed for his sake in serving the saints" (Hebrews 6:10).
Yes, God notes good deeds. And He notes bad ones, too. "The sins of some men are conspicuous, pointing to judgment but the sins of others appear later. So also good deeds are conspicuous; and even when they are not, they cannot remain hidden" (I Timothy 5:24, 25).
The praise of men—even if it comes — is of little value. The praise of God is of infinite worth.

News From the Congress

by Frank Ikard, 13th Dis.

The President recently announced a program for the modernization including replacement or rehabilitation or expansion of many post office and Federal buildings. There can be little question but what there is a great need in many areas for new postal facilities. Not since 1938 have substantial public work funds been appropriated for new Federal buildings and post office buildings. During this period of twenty years our population has increased by forty million, and the volume of mail handled in our post offices has increased by 135 per cent. During this period also many communities have completely outgrown their present buildings, and it is not uncommon in some cities for people not even to be able to secure a mail box. As I see it, there are, however, two serious defects in this program. One is that any new buildings would be built in the areas where unemployment was most acute. Even though it would relieve the unemployment situation, it is probable that many of the cities and towns that need new postal facilities most would not be able to get them. Also, the program would be financed under a means similar to the present lease-purchase program which has not been successful, and over a period of time would materially increase the cost of the buildings.
The Administration's proposal is now being considered by committees both in the House and the Senate, but it is too early to tell what action Congress will take.
As we have pointed out heretofore, there can be little question but what one of the real contributing factors to our present depressed economic situation is our high rate of Federal taxation. Reasonable and responsible tax reduction that would restore some of the incentives to business and provide relief for individuals would be a real stimulant to our economy. It would not necessarily mean that the revenues of the Federal government would be greatly reduced.
On Monday, Feb. 17, the Committee on Ways and Means began hearings on legislation that would extend the Trade Agreements Act. During these hearings we will deal with the oil imports question which is so depressing to the whole economy of Texas. I am hopeful that we can work out a reasonable plan to regulate and control imports.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

On Monday, Feb. 17, members of the Foard City Women's Society of Christian Service met with Mrs. Virgil Johnson presenting the final chapter of the current study, "Cross and Crisis in Japan." She stressed the great strides in the phase of life which the Japanese people are making. Although 90,000,000 people live in the islands, equalling the area of Montana, and though food, adequate clothing and educational facilities are still greatly limited, none-the-less, there is a definite change in health, hope and ambition of even Mr. Average Japanese.

Both for her own survival, and for the health of the world during these next decades, Japan must be assisted along the way to reintegration in the world's life. The stake is not merely a political one; it is spiritual as well. "In all this," said Mrs. Johnson, "Christians of the West are deeply involved." She further stated that it is ours to help create, in our own lands, a "climate of sympathy" in which enlightened public policies for world reconciliation may have a chance.

Following a devotional taken from the Book of James by Mrs. Jack Welch, the meeting was dismissed with sentence prayers.

The program for the afternoon was led by Mrs. J. A. Marr. She gave a demonstration on better breakfasts. Biscuits she made were served to the guests with milk and coffee. The club met again in the Arthur Sandlin home Feb. 20, today.

Tax Man Sam Says

The Internal Revenue Service offices are having tax information days every Monday morning again this year in the North Texas offices between January 1 and April 15. Every year more taxpayers are learning that the best way to figure their tax is to spend time studying the tax instructions and figuring out for themselves just what they owe. Once upon a time a few taxpayers took all their checks and a tow sack full of receipts down to the Internal Revenue Service office and the tax people spent a lot of time adding up their income and deductions for them.

The Revenue folks decided, however, that it was the taxpayer's job to do his own accounting and that the tax folks should spend their time answering questions and showing the taxpayer where to put the figures instead of doing a whole lot of simple accounting for a few taxpayers. If you have any questions or need help in getting your income on your tax return, the tax folks will be glad to have you come in. If you need help in doing your adding and subtracting, you probably need to find a good tax practitioner to help you.
