Little League Holds Meeting to Organize

On Wednesday, February 3, the Foard County Little League had its first meeting of the current year, with J. T. Hughton, treasurer, presiding. This was an organizational meeting and the following officers were elected for the 1960 season:

Uncle of Local Woman Killed in Oklahoma

Body of Wilbur Howard, 48-year old farmer of the Corinth community near Eldorado, Okla., who had been missing since Tuesday morning, was found by a large group of volunteer searchers near Eldorado at 3 p. m. last Thursday.

Funeral Services for Mr. Howard, an uncle of Mrs. Tom Polk of Crowell, were held Saturday at Eldorado. Mr. and Mrs. Polk attended the services.

Searchers found Howard's body beneath a tractor where he had been filling in a ditch early Tuesday morning. He apparently was using a tractor, which overturned and crushed his chest, to pull out another tractor which had become stuck in the mud of a ditch he was filling in a field about seven miles northeast of Eldorado.

Howard resided on another nearby farm in the Corinth community where he has lived for many years. He is survived by his wife and four daughters.

Little League Holds Meeting to Organize

Materials procurement chairman, Mike Bird, will see that all the boys have proper uniforms and playing equipment.

W. F. Statter, field maintenance chairman, will start soon to make field ready, building a pitcher's mound, and other necessary improvements.

From reports received at the meeting, the same establishments will for the second year be the team sponsors: Rotary Club, Farmers Co-Op. Elevator, Foard County Mill, and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Sickness kept some of the last year's team managers from being present, but it was the belief of those present that the same managers would serve again this year: Billy Joe Halenack, Charles Barsey, Braves; Marcus Mills and Bud Myers, Yankees; Gordon Bell and Herbert Fish, Cardinals; and William Simmons, Vet manager.

Foard County Little League for the 1960 season will again comply with the rules and regulations as set forth by Little League Baseball, Inc.

vital importance to the American people. Congress will have to determine if adequate provision is being made to provide new weapons—and maintain old ones—in the face of an ever-present threat from Soviet Russia. We should not allow ourselves to be lulled into complacency by sporadic friendly overtures by the Communists.

News From the Congress
by Frank Ikard, 13th Dis.

The tempo of Congress' activities is stepping up as we approach mid-February. Committees of the House of Representatives are spending long hours formulating legislation for presentation to the full body, and at the same time issues of national importance are taking shape here which will undoubtedly emerge full blown in the election campaigns this fall.

Our preparedness is related to another topic which could develop into one of the major issues of this fall's election campaigns. This deals with our nation's economic policies, the management of the staggering public debt, and spending in general. All these factors are closely tied in with what is apparently an economic race with Russia and should be examined to provide for our greatest possible growth.

For example, the Committee on Ways and Means, of which I am a member, last week concluded a series of public hearings on the subject of cooperative taxation. This is a complicated topic in which the committee must consider its responsibilities toward maintaining the cooperatives' valuable contributions to agriculture while at the same time making sure that tax laws are fair to all taxpayers.

23 Million Readers

According to the N. W. Ayer & Son, director, the weekly newspapers of this country now have a circulation of nearly 23,000,000, as against 17,254,668 in 1949.

In other committees of the House, important legislation also is in progress. The House Committee on Banking and Currency, for instance, is considering a bill which will promote the construction of middle- and low-income housing. The Committee on Science and Astronautics is hearing a series of witnesses from the Department of Defense and the Armed Forces in an examination of our military space and missile programs. The Appropriations Committee is examining the President's budget for the 1961 fiscal year and will soon begin reporting out its decisions on various parts of the budget.

These few brief examples, perhaps, will provide an illustration of the scope of the work confronting Congress during this session. They also suggest the broader issues with which voters will be confronted this fall. The latter subjects—defense and spending—well could be the most important. Our nation's defense is rightfully the subject of examination by the Congress, since it is a matter of

American Dollar Worth Less Than at Any Time in History

The American dollar is worth less today than at any time in history; less than when the Constitution was adopted, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States reports.

In this 20th century, within the lifetime of many persons still working, the purchasing power of the dollar has dropped from 100 cents to less than 29 cents. The value of savings and pensions and insurance has dropped accordingly.

This is how inflation destroys the rewards of hard work and thrift.

This is how prices have been pushed up.

This is one reason that taxes keep going up.

This is a fact of life that should be thoroughly understood by every American.

The chief cause of inflation is not hard to identify, the National Chamber points out. It is excessive, deficit spending by the federal government.

To check this type of spending, the Chamber is calling on Congress, this session, to keep the highway program on a pay-as-you-go basis; to oppose inflationary increases in the minimum wage;

Shipbuilding got off to an early start in New England. World Book Encyclopedia says the first ship built by English colonists in America was launched on the Kennebec River in Maine in 1607.

JOIN THE DOOR COUNT ON 3 CRIPPLERS

A Marching Mother will ring your doorbell one evening this month. Please answer.

She is one of the two million New March of Dimes volunteers seeking information on the health of the nation and support for the fight against birth defects, arthritis and polio—three crippling ailments that affect one out of every four American families.

She is counting on you to help define the problem of crippling in our community.

She is counting on you to help prevent crippling diseases with your contribution to the New March of Dimes.

Sen. Johnson Leads Dimes Drive

Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, of Texas, adds his contribution to the 1960 New March of Dimes in Washington, with Mary Beth Pyron, two-year-old national poster girl for the campaign at his side. Mary Beth was born with birth defects. New March of Dimes funds are battling not only birth defects but also polio and arthritis.

Greek city-state on the plains of Olympia. Gradually, all the Greek city-states joined in the Olympics. Other contests, such as jumping, discus throwing and chariot racing were added.

As the city-states declined, athletes from other lands began to participate in the games.

In about A. D. 60, the Roman emperor Nero entered the contests. One of the purposes of the games was to glorify the individual, his skill and his sportsmanship. But Nero was a poor athlete and by competing he lowered the standards.

The games deteriorated and by A. D. 394 they had become so corrupt that Emperor Theodosius abolished them.

Centuries passed, while earthquakes and floods buried the plain under 20 feet of gravel and soil.

When excavators found the ruins of the ancient stadium in 1878, interest in the games was revived. In 1896 eight nations took part in the first Olympics of the modern age.

Tax Man Sam Sez . . .

In country towns everybody knows the Postmaster is Uncle Sam. (He just doesn't wear whiskers and striped pants.) Most country postmasters carry tax forms to take care of uncle's business. In the big cities, however, taxpayers went to the Internal Revenue office, wrote a letter, or called on the phone to get the returns. Our city cousins have been happy to find a tax table in the postal sub-station this year. Maybe the tax forms business has gone suburbia. Our country post offices have carried income tax forms during the filing season for years.

Juvenile Delinquency

The New York Mirror sent an investigator to a camp where convicted juvenile delinquents live and work out their terms. Interviews with these boys produced three steps which, according to them, would have kept them out of trouble: 1. Firm and fair discipline regarding habits, hours, and friends. 2. A happy home of which they are a respected part, and into which they can proudly bring their friends. 3. Instruction in how to make a living and get along with other people—that is, preparation for the basic economic relationships of adult life.

Everybody got into the act of making macaroni. The Chinese are believed to have invented it . . . the Germans supposedly introduced it into Europe . . . and now the U. S. has the largest macaroni industry in the world, according to World Book Encyclopedia.

Guide Available for Determining Useful Life of Farm Property

Every taxpayer owning depreciable property used in his trade or business is faced with the problem of determining the useful life of each asset.

There is no standard life of farm property, says Bob Cherry, extension farm management specialist. Useful life in each case must stand on its own merits. For example, a barbed wire fence with untreated posts on the Gulf Coast might do well to last 10 years, whereas the same fence in the Trans-Pecos area may last 30 years.

"Useful life" means useful life to the taxpayer, the specialist explains. An automobile might be charged off in three years by one taxpayer with heavy usage, while his neighbor's vehicle of the same kind and model will last for six years because of light usage.

Factors to be considered in determining useful life include the amount of use, age when acquired, policy as to repairs and upkeep, climate, and operating conditions. For example, dusty operating conditions would be a prime consideration in the useful life of a tractor.

As a guide, the Internal Revenue Service has published average useful life figures for property in the United States in Bulletin "F." It is a guide only, Cherry notes, and has no official status for validating specific cases. The guide can be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C.

This bulletin should prove very useful to persons engaged in farming and ranching. The local county agent has a list which gives estimated life of many items found

STEP OUT IN IT

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road—No other car in the low-priced three can match the borne-on-the-wind sensation you get from a ride in the 1960 Chevrolet. But that's not surprising when you consider to what lengths Chevy has gone to provide for your comfort at no extra cost to you. As you drive, count the ways Chevrolet has been thoughtful!

- Supple Full Coil suspension—Coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension can. Taking the punch out of rough roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.
- Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts further insulate you from the road.
- Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.
- Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all series but one.
- Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to minimize twisting and squeaks.
- Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.
- Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.
- Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.
- Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.
- Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels.
- Wide choice of power teams—Choose from 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itchiest driving foot—more than any other car.
