BUILDING FUND TOPS $3,000

Mayor Henry Black, in reference to the building fund drive for an adult and youth center in Crowell, said Monday that "We are indeed grateful for the money that has been given to purchase the Premier Hotel for an adult and youth center. Everyone has been very interested in making it a success. Our goal is $4,000.00—the purchase and repair price; we have $3,000.00 of the $4,000.00 so we lack $940.00. We want every citizen to have a part in this drive. It is your club, and you have the ability to make it."

"The finance chairman, Leon Speer, with his co-workers, Mike Bird, Mayor Black, Andrew Calvin, Johnny Marr, Dick Todd, Jack Seale and Walter Ramsey, devoted one entire day of their time to procure the $3,000.00, and they have been unable to contact many of the citizens. If you have not been asked to donate, please make an effort to see any of the above mentioned men and give them a substantial donation.

It is hoped that each club in the county will see fit to make a monetary offering.

Mayor Black also said, "As principal of the high school and mayor of the City of Crowell, I so often hear the statement that we have nothing for our youth. Now is your chance to do something for the youth. We urge you to give.

Former residents are reminded that this would be a worthy cause for their donation as the hotel will make a very desirable place for the annual ex-students reunion.

Robert Kincaid of the Crowell State Bank has been appointed treasurer of the club by the financial committee.

A finance chairman has been appointed in each community, and a report will be given from them at a later date.

The following business firms and individuals have made donations to the community center: Johnny Marr, Mike Rosberry, Leslie Thomas, Merl Kincaid, Hartley Easley, Foster Davis, Irving Fisch, R. N. For many we've hunted, along with many another man, for excuses to delay cutting the lawn. None worked. But now comes science to the rescue. It's a wonderful, exciting age in which to live.'

The Crowell High School graduating class of 1960 made an outstanding record in college English the past year. Twenty-five of the thirty-five graduates attended college during the 1960-61 school year. Some of the colleges these students attended were West Texas State, T. C. U., Midwestern, Texas Technological, Tarleton State, Abilene Christian, Sul Ross, Mid-west Christian, Lubbock Christian and Big Spring Nursing School.

Undiscovered Diabetic Patients Estimated At from 1 to 2 Million

Various educated guesses as to the number of undiscovered diabetics in the United States place the figure somewhere between one and two million. Undoubtedly a fair proportion of them are Texans.

Diabetes is a systemic metabolic disease in which the body loses its ability to use sugar normally. It can develop at any age, but most new victims are 50 or older.

Normally, the gland called the pancreas produces a secretion called insulin which is released into the blood. In the presence of insulin, sugar in the blood is burned, especially by muscular activity.

Any excess of sugar in the presence of a normal amount of insulin is stored temporarily, mostly in the liver, and released into the blood stream as needed.

This is the normal pattern. But in a person suffering with diabetes the pancreas fails to produce sufficient insulin. And when starches are eaten and absorbed as sugar, the body is unable to control the sugar normally by storing it in the liver or to burn it efficiently in muscular exercise.

Result: the sugar content of blood increases abnormally.

Because a diabetic is unable to burn sugar efficiently for energy, he becomes weak and tired, hungry and undernourished.

When blood sugar gets too high, the kidneys—in an effort to lower it—removes some of the sugar by excreting it in urine. This makes the body dry and creates thirst.

Proof of the hereditary nature of diabetes is the fact that surveys of diabetic children show 80 per cent are from families with a history of diabetes. Recent studies have shown that both mothers and babies weighing 10-12 pounds at birth have a pronounced tendency to develop diabetes in later life.

Overeating and lack of muscular exercise tend to promote obesity which in turn create a tendency toward diabetes. It has been shown that 20 fat persons develop the disease for every thin one who does. Moral: don't overeat, don't get overweight, but do get plenty of exercise.

FARM BUREAU Insurance News!

The future, like the weather, is unpredictable. And it doesn't pay to gamble. An unforeseen tornado, hail storm, or fire can wipe out the savings of a lifetime. In an instant, you can see your home, outbuildings, barns, livestock, and crops disappear. Insurance can protect you from total loss; modest premiums protect you from these unforeseen hazards.

The Texas Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance Co. offers eligible farmers and ranchers Texas Standard Home Owners Policies, affording all risk coverage on your dwelling, plus theft and personal liability coverage.

This year, Farm Bureau is introducing its own crop hail policy, a new concept in crop hail insurance. No population count is used in claim settlements on cotton losses. All losses are adjusted on the basis of the actual damage of each plant, regardless of how thick your stand. Your Farm Bureau Company offers a complete insurance service to the farmers and ranchers of this area. SEE JACK WELCH IN CROWELL TODAY!

You can judge your own disposition toward diabetes. Are you overweight? Do you overeat? Is there diabetes in your family? Were you a "heavy" baby at birth? Do you have any of these symptoms: persistent hunger or thirst, loss of weight or strength, excessive urination? If so, you're a fair candidate for diabetes and ought to promptly consult your family physician. (A weekly service of the Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)

Misguided Do-Gooders

"Misguided do-gooders" frequently quote the Sixth Commandment, "Thou shalt not kill," to prove that capital punishment is wrong. This Commandment in the 20th chapter, verse 13, of Exodus has also been interpreted to mean "Thou shalt do no murder."

"Thou shalt do no murder," says the 21st chapter, verse 12, of the Bible. "He that smiteth a man, so he die, shall be surely put to death."—Wadesboro, N. C., Senger & Intelligencer.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin, Tex.—Store windows already are featuring school clothes, and mothers across Texas are budgeting money for new blue jeans and calico dresses.

But money with which to open the schools is not yet in sight.

No one seriously doubts that new taxes will be voted and new appropriations made before current appropriations run out August 31.

Gov. Price Daniel has asked the Legislature to provide $359,000,000 in new revenue to get the state out of the hole and cover future needs. Even in "good times," raising this much money is a staggering problem. It will mean passing taxes to which a good portion of the Legislature—and possibly the governor—are bitterly opposed.

It could not be done—except that in a few weeks those blue jean and calico-clad youngsters MUST WORK ON TAX — Senate's unenthusiastic attitude toward the House-passed tax bill may foreshadow another end-of-the-session deadlock between the two houses.

Even if all senators heartily approved the House bill, they would still have to expand it. State Comptroller Robert Calvert, whose word is final on revenue forecasts, estimates the House bill duration.

SPEAKERSHIP CHANGE REJECTED—House voted down a proposal by Rep. W. T. Dungan of McKinney to elect a speaker "by gentlemen's agreement" in November, 1962.

Dungan urged that newly-elected representatives meet two months before the session's opening and elect a speaker. This would give the winner time to select committees and be ready for business at the start of the session.

Objectors said that since this is not provided in the constitution, the results would not be binding. More likely, they said, that the two months interval would be spent in trying to change votes and get a different speaker elected when the House actually convened.

Long-range goal of the reform advocates is a constitutional amendment to allow advance election of the speaker.

Senate doesn't have this problem since the people elect the Lieutenant Governor to preside over the Upper House.

SPATE OF BILLS—Governor Daniel's broadening of the legislative call brought a hopper full of new proposals. Among them are measures that would:

1. Require public school children to take a standard state test in the basic subjects once every three years. (By Rep. Maco Stewart of Galveston and Rep. Dick Slack of Pecos.) Purpose is to focus more attention on academic quality.
2. Raise the present $28 a week maximum on unemployment compensation to $37 a week (By Rep. John A. Huebner Sr. of Bay City.)
3. Allow school districts, on petition of 5 per cent of the voters, to hold a referendum on whether to establish free public school kindergartens. (By Rep. Travis Peeler of Corpus Christi.)
4. Require a run-off in special elections to fill seats in Congress and the State Legislature (By Rep. Howard Green of Fort Worth). Such an election is due this year to fill the post vacated by the death of State Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio.
5. Levy fines from $100 to $500 for selling certain types of merchandise on Sunday. (By Reps. Tommy Shannon and George Richardson of Fort Worth).

Short Sacrs

Texas Highway Commission has authorized expenditure of $8,000,000 for purchase of right-of-way needed for construction of three interstate highways. Affected are Interstate 10 and Interstate 37 in San Antonio and Interstate 20 in Midland and Ector Counties.

State Selective Service Headquarters, feeling the first shock wave from the Berlin crisis, announced that 3,655 men would be called up for pre-induction exams in August. Last March the number called for exams was only 1,520. Aim is to increase the pool of potential draftees.

State Supreme Court announced that its docket was current and began its customary August-September recess.

Game Violators In June Arrests Pay High Price

Fishing without a license brought 235 arrests in the month of June, according to Capt. E. M. Spott, director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission.

In all, there were 331 arrests during the month, with $6,054.18 collected in fines and court costs. Hunting in a closed season brought 11 arrests, and hunting at night the same number. Another man was arrested for "telephoning" fish.

It was pointed out that a 1960-61 fishing license still is required for persons between the ages of 17 and 65, fishing with a winding device or fishing outside their home county. The 1961-62 licenses will become available late in August, to be effective September 1.

One violation that received widespread publicity last month was the arrest of three men at Cleveland, who paid a total of $380 for shooting a 10-pound fawn with a shotgun.

$89,000 Spent for Report on Behavior At Cocktail Parties

"Congressman James F. Easton of Montana says that $89,000 was spent by the Public Health Service during the past year in search and issuing a detailed report on people's behavior at cocktail parties. This should be valuable information which will go a long way in solving the troublesome problems which now confront the United States on every hand. Also, we imagine that Public Health staff members still in line in applying for this particular 'research' job." — Fort Worth, Tex., The Southern Conservative.

Federal Aid Must Be Followed by Federal Control

"When grants of federal funds are involved, federal control is inherent, and the U. S. Supreme Court has upheld in this principle. . . . It follows, as logical as night follows day, that federal aid to education must sooner or later be followed by federal control." — West Point, Mo. Times Leader.

Made by the makers of U.S. Money

Can you think of a safer way to save?

Nobody has ever invented a safer way to save than U.S. Savings Bonds. They're guaranteed by the United States of America. Their value can't decrease—it can only go up. At maturity you get 1/3 more than you paid for them. And Bonds are replaced if they're lost, stolen or destroyed.

What 63¢ a day will do Just 63¢ a day will buy an E Bond every month worth $25.00 at maturity. If you keep it up for forty months, you'll have a stack of Bonds worth $1,000 at maturity. Cost: only $750—in easy installments.

Some advantages to think about You can save automatically with the Payroll Savings Plan. This way you won't forget to save.

You now get 3% interest, to maturity. This new rate began June 1, 1959.

U.S. Savings Bonds Buy them where you work or bank

The U.S. Government does not pay for this advertising. The Treasury Department thanks you for your patriotic donation. The Advertising Council and Series E bonds now mature 14 months earlier than before—in 7 years, 9 months. Bonds bought before June 1, 1959, earn more, too—an extra 1/2% from then to maturity.

You can get your money, with interest, when you want it. Bonds are a reserve you can cash anytime at any bank. But it pays to keep them.

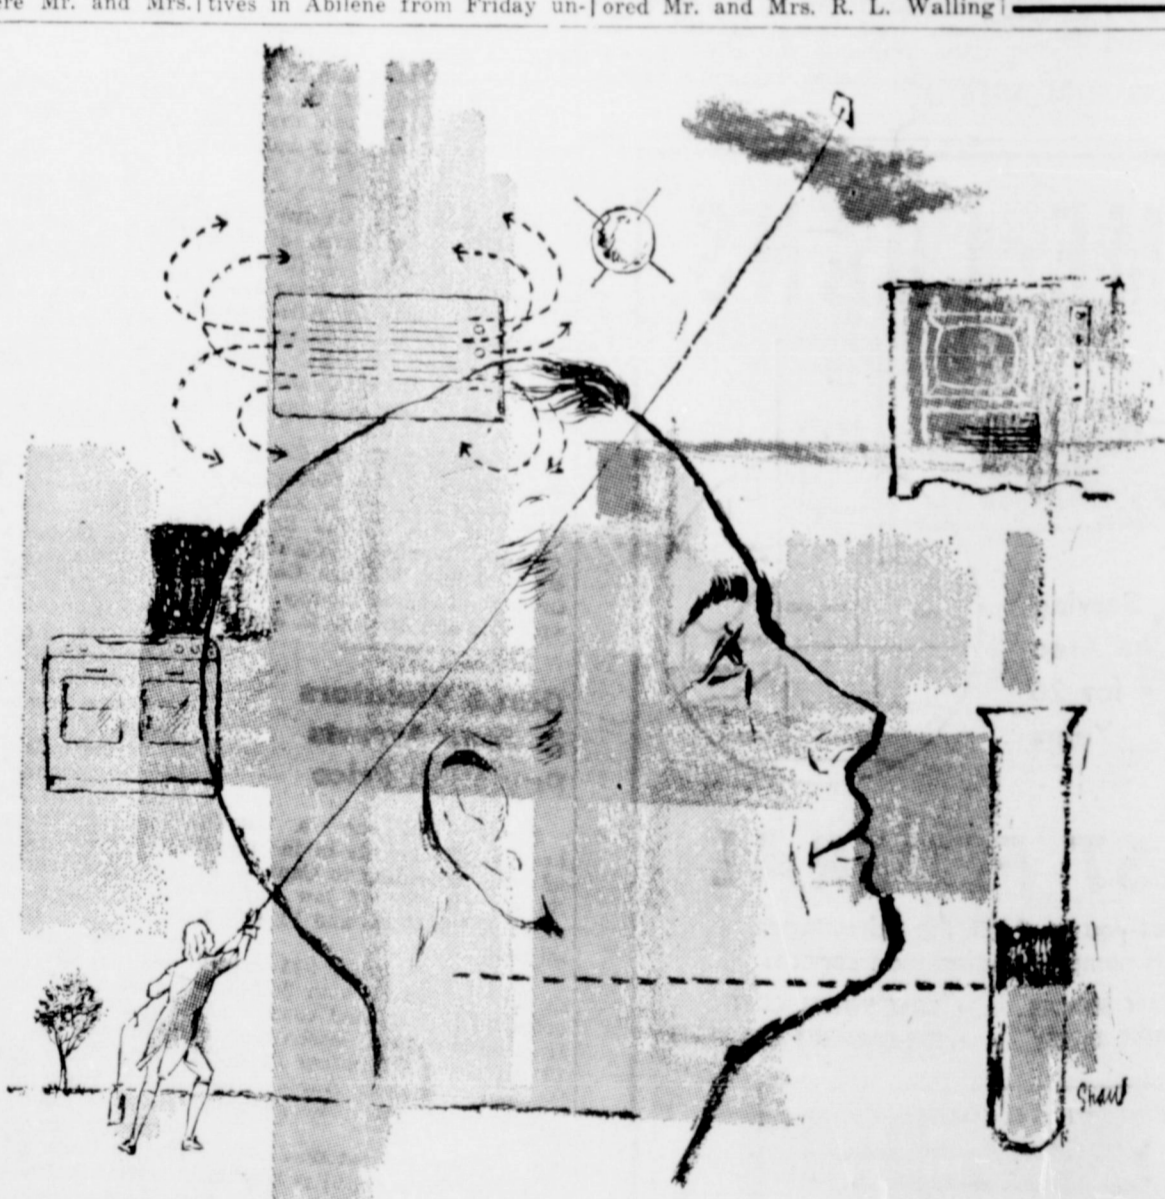

You save more than money. You help save the peace with every Bond you buy.

Here's how you can reach your savings goal with U.S. Savings Bonds in just 7 years, 9 months.

Table with columns: If you want about each week save, and rows for $2,500, $5,000, and $10,000.

Of Genius, Kites and Satellites...

One of the marvels of man is his capacity to invent, to create, and to build. Yet, genius in these fields is limited to a mere handful of the world's people. How to make the products of this creative and inventive genius available to all the people is a problem which faces every industrial nation. If a solution is not found... the nation will not prosper. The United States now enjoys one of the highest standards of living in the world because it has been able to spread the fruits of its genius into every corner of the nation. How was the problem solved? Largely, through advertising. Advertising takes the inventor's dream out of his shop and places it in your home. The automatic range... television... the ball point pen... all those things that make life easier and give us more time for progress. Without advertising to acquaint consumers with the availability of these products, and stimulate a desire for them, they would now be but a pile of material and tubes and wires and blueprints upon the inventor's bench. Benjamin Franklin's kite would have flown for nothing. Those of us who have neither the ability nor the time to build our own television sets... electric ranges or satellites... owe a debt of gratitude to advertising, and the many forms of wealth it provides us all.
