Funeral Services for J. R. Merriman to Be Held Today

Funeral services for J. R. Merriman, 93, will be held at 3 p. m. Thursday from the First Christian Church with the minister, R. C. McCord, officiating. Burial will be in the Crowell cemetery directed by Womack Funeral Home.

Mr. Merriman, a retired farmer of the Foard City community, died unexpectedly at his home shortly after noon Tuesday.

Mr. Merriman was born Jan. 31, 1871, in Waynesboro, Tenn., a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harris Merriman. He was married to the former Miss Lillie Mulry Dec. 24, 1907, in Roysse City, Texas.

The couple moved to the Foard City community in 1920 and had resided there since that time. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Dec. 24, 1963.

Survivors include his wife; one son, Charles E. Merriman of Crowell; one daughter, Mrs. C. N. Barker of Crowell; one brother, Homer Merriman of Waynesboro, Tenn.; and two sisters, Mrs. Fred Moore of Waynesboro and Mrs. H. C. Boyd of Bristol, Tenn.

Funeral services are pending at Womack Funeral Home. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Betty Stinnett of Crowell, and a son, Jimmy Harper of Dallas.

1964 Feed Grain Sign-Up Begins February 10th

Participation in the 1964 feed grain program will be entirely voluntary, as in earlier years, according to Ray Hysinger, chairman. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee. Only those growers who take part in the program, however, will be eligible for price support on the three feed grains: corn, barley, and grain sorghum.

Producers on farms which grew any of these grains in either 1959 or 1960, or in both years will have the opportunity to sign up in the program beginning Feb. 10 through March 27.

The grower who diverts as many acres as he signs up to divert—at least 20 per cent of his farm's total feed grain base—and carries out other provisions of the program will earn a payment for acreage diversion and will become eligible for the feed grain price support loan and payment. Since the payments vary by crops, the diversion payment will be based on the kind of crop acreage diverted; the price support payment will be based on the kind of feed grain planted.

The acreage diverted from production of the feed grains is to be devoted to an approved conservation use, and this acreage is in addition to the conservation-use base acreage for the farm. Payments will average higher this year, and the maximum diversion is higher. A new provision in the 1964 program limits the diversion payment to no more than 20 per cent of the fair market value of the land diverted in 1964.

Boys Basketball Team Loses to Chillicothe Eagles

The Crowell High School basketball teams broke even in their games with Chillicothe here Tuesday night. The Crowell girls won by the score of 46 to 37, and the boys lost an overtime game 49 to 47. This was the final game of the season for both of Crowell's teams. The boys broke even for the season with eight won and eight lost. They also broke even in conference games and came in one behind Paducah for the western half championship. Paducah and Munday defeated them by the margins of four points and two points, respectively, last week.

The Crowell girls had very little trouble winning in this last contest of the season. They finished third in district play. They were unable to win any of their non-conference games, but lost several by a narrow margin.

March 2-6 Set as Public Schools Week in Texas

The State Board of Education and Governor John Connally have proclaimed the week of March 2-6 as Public School Week for the State of Texas. "The object of Public Schools Week is to attract as many of the local parents and patrons as possible to your school, where you will have an opportunity to present to them any problems you may have and they will be able to become better acquainted with you, your teachers, your school. It is our desire to awaken the local citizens to their responsibility of full support of their local schools and rededicate them to this opportunity and privilege."

Supt. Grady Graves states the "local school system is now making preparation for the observation of this Public School Week. The school is for our children and they are the most precious possessions that we have. Our community and country will be in their hands someday, and it should be our concern to see to it that they are properly trained to meet this obligation."

Two of the main events of that week will be: 1. A special visitation night on March 3rd; and 2. A visitation period for the pre-school group on Thursday, March 4.

With concerted efforts being put out here this week to sign up donors, the semi-annual visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile will be made here Friday, Feb. 7, at the Community Center. Hours for giving blood will be from 12 noon until 6 p. m.

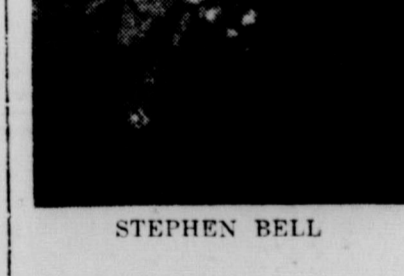

Mrs. Audrey Collins, hospital technician, said Monday that the county has used 64 more pints of blood than have been donated since the county entered the program in February, 1962.

From 80 to 85 pints are needed Friday to pay back what Foard Countians have already used, and to establish a small surplus in the area bank.

Any person is eligible to give blood between the ages of 18 and 59 and can pass the physical check-up. (Written permission of a parent is required for unmarried persons under 21.) Before you are allowed to donate, doctors and trained nurses will check your temperature, pulse, hemoglobin, blood pressure, and medical history. Blood can be donated at 8-week intervals, but no more often than five times a year.

Three New Vehicles

Three new vehicles were registered here last week: Jan. 29, Humble Oil & Refining Co., 1964 Chevrolet 4-door; Jan. 30, R. C. Rogers, 1963 Ford 4-door; Jan. 30, Kenneth Halbert, 1964 Ford 4-door.

On High Honor Roll

The name of Karen Shirley was inadvertently omitted from the high honor roll for the last six weeks.

What is generally called the "finest rain in over a year" fell here this week. The rain began falling Monday afternoon following a morning of light mist, and by Tuesday morning, had measured a total of 2.22 inches by the government gauge. Then, early Wednesday morning, a wet snow, which melted as it fell, began falling, and it was still snowing as the News went to press.

This 2 inches plus was preceded by .75 inch which fell Wednesday night of last week. This brings over 3 inches of rain to Foard County in less than a week, which is considerably more than the average rainfall here for both January and February. The county received a total of 1.29 inches in January and February of last year.

The moisture has brightened prospects for the wheat crop, will do immeasurable good to pastures and aided some in filling stock tanks. All of the rain fell slowly, however, and most of it soaked into the ground, with not much run-off.

The wheat fields of the county look completely different from their usual appearance this time of year. Most of the fields which are green normally, look as if nothing was planted on them. The wheat came up late, and with the cold weather in December, the crop has almost failed to grow enough to be seen.

The rain was reported as being general over the county, and with some warm weather, the wheat should begin to "come out of it."

County Has Used 64 Pints More Than Have Been Donated

Poll Tax Payments Reach 828 Before Deadline Friday

A last-minute rush of payments last week brought the total number of poll taxes paid in Foard County up to 828 by the end of the tax-paying period last Friday afternoon.

This is the most poll taxes that have been paid in the county since the last presidential election year of 1960 when a total of 918 were paid.

A large amount of interest in the school bond election set for Saturday, Feb. 15, also influenced a number of poll tax payments.

In 1958 there were 759 poll taxes paid; in 1959, 465; in 1960, 918; in 1961, 500; in 1962, 526; in 1963, 593 and 828 in 1964.

Youth's Stake in Conservation

The American youth must be awakened to the fact that one of the major problems facing the world today is that of proper conservation of resources. Youth must constantly be reminded that today the success of the nation may be measured in terms of the success of its conservation practices.

When America was first settled and the population was sparse, people had the idea that resources were limitless. The past five or six decades have proved this to be a false idea, yet there are still those who are not aware of this. In our complex society of modern times, it is easy for a person, born and reared in a large metropolitan area, to lose complete sight of his dependence upon the soil and its products. Even in Crowell, a small town directly dependent upon agriculture for its economy, it might surprise some to know how many people are not the least aware of their own stake in conserving natural resources. Conservation is a battle—a battle against ignorance, complacency, indifference, and selfishness. It is a never-ending fight against the shortsightedness of those who would look no further than to the next crop, the next year, or the next decade. This is not a battle for the weak, it is a battle for the strong. It is a challenge to be met with perseverance, with fortitude, and with victory as the only prize. In this fight, as in any other, if the army is to progress intelligently and efficiently it must have an objective. The stake is high: to save the soil is the answer to the way to save the nation.—Gamble McCarty.

February Is Here Again

February, the shortest month of the year, is here again. It is known throughout the United States for groundhog day, Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays, Valentine's day, but only in a few places, one of which is Crowell, is it known as Soil Conservation Essay Contest Month! This year the subject for the contest, sponsored by the Fort Worth Press, is "Youth's Stake in Conservation." The junior and senior students of Crowell High School are encouraged by the local Agricultural Soil Conservation committee to enter the contest. The winning state contestant will receive a $200 cash award. Ten from each of the five areas in the state will receive medals and recognition at area banquets. Again we are keeping our fingers crossed, hoping that we will keep up our long record of winning at least one of the ten area awards or perhaps the state award as we did in 1957.

La Fiesta de Espanol

What's behind the "red door" is an expression that has come to suggest something unexpected. This might well refer to what the members of the Spanish Club and their sponsor, Mr. Black, experienced on Monday night, Jan. 27, when they stepped from a world of reality through the doors of the home of one of the members, Mike Manard, and found themselves in another world—a world with the Spanish atmosphere. Bright colored blankets, hats, plaques, fans, and even an occasional burro were in evidence throughout the living room, den, and kitchen. A large Spanish basket and a big sombrero were the containers for two large table arrangements made of native bear grass and berries. Through the spires of grass, red lights glowed brightly. Lanterns and old-fashioned lamps burning red candles lent a further Spanish accent as did the quartet tables, each covered with a bright red cloth, centered with a yellow candle arrangement in a brightly colored wicker container. The napkins were green with a Spanish design outlined in black. The delicious food of enchiladas, Spanish rice, red beans—some boiled, some fried—tossed salad, fried tortillas, and ice cream were prepared and served by Senoras Villarreal, who made the delicious Spanish dishes, Marion Crowell, Leo Cates, Glen Goodwin, Vera Manard.

After the meal, Mr. Black kept the group in hilarious laughter as he directed a series of games. The new president of the club, Steve Kralicic, and the new vice president, Toye McCurley, and all the members wish to say "gracias" to those who made the affair an evening of enjoyment.

Seniors Have Blast

Last Thursday night, the home of Bert Ekern was the scene of a "swinging" senior class party. The main event was a "dancing class" held by Jo Wynn Ekern and Beverly Thompson to teach the others present to do the "Arizona." Also on the agenda were "eight ball" predictions, card games, and delicious refreshments. The seniors wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ekern for the use of their home and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Garrett and Mrs. Elton Carroll for chaperoning the event.

Crowell Drops Two Ball Games

On Tuesday night, Jan. 28, on the home court of Paducah, the Crowell Wildcats lost their first conference game by a score of 42-38. Dan Mike Bird was high scorer for the Wildcats with 15 points. Ken Ferguson was second with 11 points. In the girls' games, Paducah won 68-18. Lynda Whitley was high scorer with 7 points. Then on Friday night, the Monday Moguls stopped Crowell again with a 50-47 victory. This put Crowell with a 3-2 record in conference play. Ken Ferguson was high scorer with 21 points. Monday won the girls' game by a score of 70-45. Evelyn Faske was high scorer with 25 points.

New Books of the Month

Without question, "Fire in the Ashes" is one of the best books written about Europe and America's status in Europe. Theodore White writes from intimate knowledge of the persons and events described to him by European leaders. Here is the story of the European Union; of the North Atlantic Alliance; of Russian blunders that, of themselves, stopped the surge of communism in Europe even before Stalin's death; and, now, the nature of Russia's new challenge in the world. This is not a book for experts only. It is an expert's book for everybody. Does the name Charles Van Doren ring a bell in your mind? At one time, Charles Van Doren was believed to be one of the smartest men in the world—until the famous television show, "The $64,000 Question," was proved to be rigged. Charles Van Doren's intellectual curiosity, wide-ranging knowledge and perceptive humor are here in full measure. "Letters to Mother," offers us a new view of a company of fascinating men and women; explorers and travelers, poets and philosophers, soldiers and statesmen, storytellers and revolutionaries, churchmen and musicians. You will never forget the letters they wrote to their mothers. In the sweet and bitter pages of "Letters to Mother," you'll find letters by Harry Truman, Franklin Roosevelt, Florence Nightingale, Helen Keller, Luther Burbank, Henry Adams, and many more.

Representative of College Speaks

Ralph Flesher, representative of Hardin Simmons, talked with the senior class Monday afternoon. He discussed things of interest to any senior planning to continue his education after high school days. He gave information about scholarships, tuition, available loan fees, job opportunities, etc., in both state and church supported schools. His advice was sound advice for college bound students.

Miscellaneous: Quotable Quotes

Superiority of Democracy over Communism Shown

Pointing out that the American owner-manager-operator type of farming has produced the most bountiful food supply ever known to man and that it has likewise made the efficiency of U. S. agriculture the envy of all the world, the National Grange declares, "More than any other single segment of the American economy, this type of agriculture has demonstrated the superiority of democracy over communism."

Go Anywhere

Commenting on the ability of petroleum pipelines to go virtually anywhere, "Oil Facts," notes that a single system in Pennsylvania "crosses seven rivers, one canal, 145 streams, 550 roads, 65 railroad tracks—and the Allegheny Mountains."

Falcon proves it's America's toughest compact in the rugged Monte Carlo Rallye!

Four Falcons started from Oslo, four from Paris, on routes calculated to be equal in difficulty and length. Weather conditions varied from clear, bitter cold through freezing fog to blinding snow—and the time schedules made no provision for delays. Here a Falcon swirls through a sudden snow shower, testing traction in a practice run.

Falcon entered two classes in Europe's 2,700-mile winter ordeal—won them both and finished 2nd overall out of 299 cars. That's durability!

In the Rallye's five special Alpine sections, Falcon was first overall in four, tied for first in one. That's roadability!

In the Rallye's final test around the Monte Carlo racing course, Falcons were first and second. That's maneuverability!

MONTE CARLO—The 33rd Monte Carlo Rallye started with 299 cars. Some 2,700 miles and 3½ days later, only 163 were still in the rally when the field struggled into Monaco—but they included all eight of the specially equipped Falcons that originally started! This eight-out-of-eight record was perhaps more remarkable than the fact that, despite a handicap formula that favored the smallest cars, a Falcon captured second place overall. One car can have luck... but eight have to have total performance. Because the Rallye samples every variety of weather and road conditions the continent can provide, and because it winds up on the most remote byways in the French Maritime Alps, it is a supreme test of all the car's abilities. Falcon steering had to be flawless on glare ice above a 1,000-foot drop. Those fabulous V-8's had to run like dynamos.

The final results in the Monte Carlo Rallye gave Falcon 2nd place overall, 1st in Class 8 of the Touring category, 1st and 2nd in Class 5 of the much tougher Grand Touring category, 1st and 2nd in the final three-lap test on the Monte Carlo circuit. The best finish by a Valiant was 88th overall. Falcon gained invaluable experience in how to build a car better, make it tougher, sharpen up its total performance. That's the real reason Ford is interested in open competition—and why Ford-built cars have got so much more to show drivers. Drive one and see; it won't have six lights, or a horn you can hear for four miles in stormy weather, or the other special rally equipment—but it'll sure surprise you!

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!

We the taxpayers and qualified voters of Crowell Independent School District are being asked, requested and urged to give the School Board authority and power to issue the bonds, pursuant to the authority of Article 2784E-1, V. A. T. C. S., as amended, and annually LEVY and COLLECT taxes, sufficient to pay the principal and interest as same becomes due. If per chance we should lose the valuation on our oil producing property and real estate values decrease before these bonds are paid off—what would happen? IS THIS WHAT YOU WANT? I VOTE NO.

I do favor a more reasonable bond issue to do the NECESSARY building and repairs that is REALLY and HONESTLY NEEDED. DO YOU?

Dun & Bradstreet Mails Requests to 51 Foard Businesses

This week, A. J. Hemphill, district manager of the Fort Worth office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., announced statement requests were mailed to 51 businesses in Foard County. He said figures obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for January, 1964.

Mr. Hemphill noted that each January business concerns in all parts of the United States are asked by Dun & Bradstreet for copies of their financial statements. This year requests are being sent to nearly three million business concerns—the corner grocery store worth a few thousand dollars as well as to businesses worth millions.

The Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book lists those manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit but it does not include some of the service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers and real estate brokers. Therefore, the figures for total business in the United States would be higher than the three million quoted above.

During the past year, Mr. Hemphill added, 35 changes were made in the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book listings of Foard County businesses, including 10 names added, 10 names deleted, and 15 changes in the ratings of continuing businesses. The changes occurring in Foard County are about even with the rest of the country where a change of business significance is counted about every five seconds.

When the owner or officer of a business enterprise, or his accountant, fills in and mails his financial statement to Dun & Bradstreet, it becomes a part of the credit report of his business and a factor in determining the credit rating of his business. Mailing the statement rather than waiting for the Dun & Bradstreet reporter's call means a concern's important suppliers will quickly have the latest facts on which to make credit and sales decisions. When the Dun & Bradstreet reporter receives a business man's financial statement in advance of his periodic call, he can make a more detailed analysis of the financial condition of the business and discuss its operation more intelligently.

Back of each listing of a business in the Reference Book is a Dun & Bradstreet credit report. The report includes the following: a record of how the business is paying its bills; a history of the business (who owns it, who runs it, and how long it has been operating); a description of what the business does and how it does it; a financial section which usually includes the latest financial statement.

While credit reports are primarily used by business men who want to evaluate the credit risk of a business before shipping or selling, insurance underwriters, bankers, and other professionals also use reports.

'Progress' Being Made

"There is a good indication of the 'progress' being made in extending government supervision and attempts at control over the agricultural industry of the U. S. This is a fact to ponder: While the number of farms and farm workers in the U. S. has dwindled considerably since 1935, the Department of Agriculture has jumped up the number of its employees by quite a margin. Back in 1935 the Department hired one employee for 80 farms while at present there is one person engaged for every 28 farms in the U. S. Fewer farms but more folks on the payroll! That seems to be a familiar pattern in Washington."—Worcester, N. Y., Times & Monitor.

Nation Built on Strong Spiritual Base
 "Our nation was built and has been maintained on a strong spiritual base. Many of our forebears came here for freedom to worship as they pleased. Now after nearly 200 years of that freedom, the Supreme Court apparently feels the right not to worship is more important. Encouraged by the Supreme Court, the American Civil Liberties Union now seeks to bar students from a mandatory Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag unless the phrase "Under God" is removed. . . . An attack has been made against the singing of the hymn "America" at school-opening exercises. Bills have been introduced in Congress to remove our motto from coins and currency. All these simply carry the Supreme Court's decision to its logical conclusions."—Towanda, Pa., Review.

TO THE VOTERS AND CITIZENS OF FOARD AND KNOX COUNTIES REGARDING THE CROWELL INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT BOND ELECTION:

I have always had the fullest confidence in the majority of our citizens when you have been asked to vote bond issues to give this community better roads, better schools, a hospital, and public buildings of all kinds, WHEN YOU HAVE HAD SUFFICIENT FACTS AND TIME TO GIVE IT DUE CONSIDERATION. You have always been fair and progressive with our needs.

To present to the voters a $500,000.00 bond issue plus an interest figure of around $380,000.00 to be paid over the years with so little detailed information—on such short notice—does not give you, the taxpayer, a fair chance to make a reasonable decision.

You should have more time.

Over fifty names were recorded in the bride's book. Additional guests included the groom and his grandfather, Ignac Zacek, Rev. Dennis White and Dave Shultz.

County Federation

New officers elected for the Foard County Federation of Women's Clubs at last Friday's meeting were Mrs. Jack W. Brown, president; and Mrs. Glyndon Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. J. M. Chowning, president of the Columbian Club, was leader. Mrs. A. L. Daniel spoke on "What you would find in the market basket of a good club woman" as follows: "a gift package of ideas and inspiration, a large box of cooperation, a gallon of enthusiasm, a wrapping assortment of tact, a box of compromise, a spoon of understanding for mending and a can of the "oil of patience."

Mrs. Chowning led a round-table discussion of "why am I a club woman." Response on the part of members was unusually interesting. The program ended with a short memorial to "club women who have gone before." Those mentioned were Mrs. R. L. Kincaid, Mrs. Mark Henry, Mrs. T. L. Hughston and Mrs. Sam T. Crews.

Punch was poured by Mrs. Marion Crowell and Mrs. Gerald Knox from a beautifully decorated tea table.

From the News . . .

THIRTY YEARS AGO

News items below were taken from the Thursday, Feb. 8, 1934, issue of The Foard County News:
With 608 pupils actually enrolled in the Crowell Schools at the present time, the local school enrollment is the heaviest that it has been in many years.

W. E. Franklin will complete work in Crowell this week on the "Census of American Business" that he is taking in Foard County. This is one of the government's C. W. A. projects.

I. T. Graves, who is now serving his seventh year as superintendent of the Crowell school system, was re-elected for two more years at a meeting of the board of trustees Monday night.

Ralph Flesher, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flesher, was operated on Saturday evening for the removal of the appendix and is reported as doing nicely.

Eleven men under the direction of C. C. Ribble started work Wednesday morning in setting out trees along Highway 28 from Crowell to the Wilbarger County line.

Grading work on the road in Foard County's new oil field in the western part of the county will be completed this week, according to R. D. Oswalt Jr., who is supervising this work.

A total of 1,495 poll tax receipts were issued for 1934 from the office of the Foard County tax collector.

Work on the sanitary survey for Foard County will be completed this week, according to J. C. Root, supervisor of sanitary projects in connection with Foard County C. W. A. sanitary work. All desiring a sanitary unit who have not yet made application in this respect, are urged to do so at once since this work will be discontinued within a short time if interest in it does not continue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Edwards and Grady Halbert visited relatives and friends in Clarendon Sunday.

A number of rabbit drives are being planned over the county. Citizens of the Vivian and Black communities have announced that they are contemplating drives, however, no dates for them have yet been announced. The drive at Black was originally planned for next week, but has been postponed due to the fact that a number of these arranging it are jurors for the February term of court.

Joe Ward of this city has accepted a position with the Chaney Chevrolet Co. of Quanah as service manager of the mechanical department and will move with his family to Quanah Saturday of next week.

Three giant teeth, each weighing over 12 pounds, a hip joint, a joint to a foot, a bone about 25 feet in length, and other bones of giant proportions were uncovered last week about 14 miles west of Crowell by the crew grading the new oil field road.

Progress for Nation or Race Made Up of Individual Successes

"Too often forgotten in the emphasis on collective protests is that progress for a nation or for a race is made up of individual successes—persons who work diligently to develop an innate talent, to acquire a marketable skill, to overcome handicaps . . . So, in spite of all the loud protestations heard and read about by the so-called do-gooder and one-world planner, progress is still a step by step process. Only when individuals advance in a community can a group take another step forward."—Rosholt, S. D., Review.

It's Amazing

"It is amazing that there are still millions of Americans who are proud of working, proud of a job well done, proud of using their intelligence and who spurn the welfare graft. Indeed, those under 30 years old can remember nothing but the welfare state."—St. Clair, Mo., Chronicle.
