CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, to the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 85

The water has dried and run off so that some of our people can plow, but a new calamity has fallen on this community. An army of flies has come all at once and they are eating up the stock. Several of our farmers had to stop plowing on account of the flies biting the stock.

We never saw finer cotton and there will be plenty to gather regardless of the worms. It is well to try to arrange the price of picking but we can't see how it can be done. A graduated price to be governed by the price of cotton would be the best arrangement.

September 1st is at hand and we have heard nothing about our school teachers. Our trustees are all threshers and they may be able to thresh out some very soon.

Our village blacksmith has retired and a new man is needed at the garage to do the smithing work.

Considerable work is being done on the old gin and we hope it may do good work, but past experiences make us suspicious.

The sheriff came to town the other day and "pulled" some boys for stealing melons. The boys say they didn't know it was unlawful to steal melons. It is time for people to find out that melons and chickens and many other things are private property, and it is expensive to have to raise these things for our neighbors.

SLOWING UP OF BUSINESS

SAID TO BE HEALTHY SIGN
Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Some business men fail to realize that a slowing up of business is sometimes a healthful sign, according to the monthly review of the Fourth Federal Reserve Bank, issued here today.

"The future looks brighter now than ever," says the statement. "Industry has slowed up generally, though in spots capacity operations are still being maintained. Labor is more plentiful than at any time during the last five years and individual productivity is on the increase."

EARLY COMPLETION OF ORIENT SOUGHT

Austin, Aug. 29.—A strong effort is to be made by the citizens of Sonora, Sutton County, to obtain the early completion and operation of the branch line of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railway from San Angelo to Sonora, a distance of seventy miles.

The importance of the completion of the branch line was recently explained to Allison Mayfield, chairman of the state railroad commission, who has interested himself in the proposition, by Judge James Cornell, district judge at Sonora, who was here and is representing the citizens of that community. Judge Cornell stated the people of his county urgently desired rail connection with San Angelo.

R. D. Parker, chief engineer of the railroad commission, has gone to make an investigation of the grading from San Angelo to Sonora and estimate the cost of completing the extension, which will be sent to the interstate commerce commission, according to Mr. Mayfield, with a request for a loan of approximately a million dollars to help finance the project.

In the event it is found the branch cannot be operated by the Orient an effort will be made to have it operated by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, which now operates to San Angelo, or if necessary it will be urged the line be operated independently.

Crowell, Texas, September 3, 1920

Recent rains in Wilbarger are said to have caused from $5,000 to $10,000 damage to roads. The month of August shows a record rainfall for all of the West.

West Texas farm products continue to attract attention where they are being exhibited by J. C. Wells of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. These exhibits are now being shown in Illinois.

The National campaign may possibly assume likeness to the one just ended in Texas. Mr. Cox has had much to say about a huge Republican campaign fund with which they expected to buy the presidency, if possible, and now Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican committee, accuses the liquor interests of New Jersey as urging Cox's election in order to kill prohibition.

Sugar is reported to have dropped 5 1/2 cents per pound recently in New Orleans and is now being sold to the wholesale men at 17c. A decline of about six cents has already been reflected in the retail price here, the lowest figure reached being 27c. We should soon get sugar in Crowell at about 22c. There has been an enormous sugar crop this year, too big in fact to permit speculators to manipulate the market.

According to the latest report of the primary election last Saturday, Neff has defeated Bailey by about 75,000 votes. For Lieutenant-Governor Davidson won over Johnson by nearly 25,000. The election of Mr. Neff ends what is said to have been the hottest political campaign ever waged in Texas. But the unpleasant thing about it is that on both sides the campaign was conducted on a descending scale.

Rev. J. M. Fuller of Linden, Texas, was here the first of the week visiting Rev. J. H. Hamblen, the two having spent their younger days together.

Miss Mattie Givens left yesterday for Plainview to make her home. She will be employed in the store managed by her brother-in-law, S. C. Auld, in that city.

The Littlefield District today offers opportunities for a home or investment. Fertile lands, low prices and easy terms.—Davis & Summerour, Vernon, Texas.

J. W. Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beverly and Marion Hughston returned Monday night from an auto trip to Farwell. They report crops fine in that country.

Sam Russell and Jim Bell left Wednesday afternoon for Amarillo to attend the Shrine ceremonial and institution ceremonies of Khiva Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S.

L. D. Phillips leaves today for a week's outing in Childress county. Mr. Phillips says this is the first outing he has had in many years. He can not recall the last.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hughston, Mrs. S. O. Woods and T. M. Beverly spent Tuesday in Quanah. Mr. Hughston has bought a home and will remove to that city about the 15th.

W. C. Golden was in Wednesday from the Foard City community. Mr. Golden is handling the J. R. Watkins line of goods for this county and placed an ad with us, which appears in this issue.

Those who want express or baggage hauled call me at Bruce & Wallace Barber Shop.—T. T. Kaykendall. 20

J. E. Eldridge and daughter, Miss Hattie, expect to leave Sunday for Plano where they will visit relatives for a few days before going to Denton where the young lady will enter the C. I. A.

"Aunt" Bettie Thompson returned this week from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Puryear, at Taylor, Texas. She was accompanied to Taylor by her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Norwood, of Vernon.

J. E. Bray reports the sale of 160 acres of land by J. S. Smith of near Margaret to Ferguson Bros., the consideration being $12,000. Also 160 by H. G. Price to A. L. Walling, the consideration being $12,800.

Ray Pyle and his wife returned last week from a visit with Mr. Pyle's parents at Bay City. E. W. Pyle returned with them and will be here until Christmas. They report a great amount of rain in that country which has injured the cotton crop very much.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Meason left yesterday for Big Sandy. Their son, Millard, will move into the house vacated by them. Millard has bought "Uncle" Bill Wheeler's horse and wagon and will deliver the mail and express to town.

Hamp Carter and wife returned the first of the week from Springdale, Ark., where they had gone on a prospecting trip. Hamp is well pleased with the country but he says Mrs. Carter has not decided to break loose from Foard County.

Counts Ray, Julian Wright, Walford Thompson and Allan Sanders returned Tuesday from a prospecting trip to New Mexico. They went as far as Fort Sumner, forty miles west of Clovis, but found no land they considered worth filing on.

RECORDS WRITTEN ON WOOD

Laws So Recorded Were Rather for Preservation Than With Idea of General Circulation.

Ionian culture was different in its form from any development of later times, and most difficult to understand, having been addressed to the ears and not to the eyes, writes Mary Mills Patrick in the National Geographic Magazine. The sixth century B. C. was an age without free distribution of written records, and the beginnings of libraries were mostly collections of wooden tablets.

Some of the great men of the latter part of this period each wrote a book, but it was a laborious task. Herodotus of Ephesus was one of those who wrote a book which was kept for safety in the temple of Diana at Ephesus. A book was not a thing to be lightly regarded, and the process of writing was so difficult that it was far easier to remember what one had written than to decipher it from a book.

Greek writing was hard to read because neither the words nor the sentences were divided from each other, and the lines ran both from right to left and from left to right. Solon and Pittakos wrote their laws on wooden tablets. However, they did not write them for general circulation, but rather to preserve the laws they had promulgated.

RUGS MADE TO APPEAR OLD

Ingenious Method by Which "Genuine Antiques" Are Furnished to Supply the Demand.

How "genuine antique rugs" are manufactured and prepared for European and American markets is told by an American who visited Bagdad. The shopping streets seem like tunnels. They are arched overhead with brick to keep out the heat; thus they run, like subways, up and down the bazaar quarter. Through those long, stifling, faintly lighted tunnels throngs the eternal crowd of men, mules and camels.

Often one will see a fine rug lying flat in the fifth of a narrow street, ground beneath the tramp of man and beast, but there is method in this. Foreigners make oriental rugs, bright and new, in Persia, and sell them through Bagdad. Since an "old rug" is worth more, wily brokers have hit on this way to make a new rug look old.

This world has troubles enough of its own. That's why it always has hearty greeting for the man with a smile.

It's pretty hard to smile when you are down and out. The man with money in the bank can easily look pleasant and grin. Success comes to the cheerful man. It turns a cold shoulder to the "grouch."

TO HOLD COTTON

The cotton market is going down, the cause being that cotton is being sold at the decline. Immediate steps should be taken by the growers, to stop the decline and advance the price.

We note in the press that merchants are not placing orders for cloth, and for this reason that mills are refusing to buy cotton, which accounts for a declining market.

If the farmers continue to sell cotton on the decline, how can they expect those gambling in the price on the exchanges, to bet it higher than the farmers are willing to take for cotton? So long as they are willing to sell cotton at a decline, how can the mills be expected to buy cotton, or the merchants to buy cloth? Would you buy an article this week which you expected would be cheaper next week? Those picking cotton have it in their power to advance the price and save themselves from undue loss. Why not do it? Why lose $75 to $100 per bale on their cotton, and make it that much harder for the central and northern belt farmers to advance the market?

Those now picking are the only ones who can offer resistance to a decline, or encourage a decline. They are the only ones who can offer encouragement to the bulls to bet the price up or to the bears to bet it down. Which will they do? It is up to them. It is in their power to name the price of their cotton. No one will offer more or bet the price higher, for any article, than the party having it for sale is willing to take for it. This is as true of cotton as anything else. The only way to hold up or maintain price, is to refuse to sell for less. To do this with cotton, those to whom the farmers are in debt, should mobilize their credit and influence behind the farmer, and aid and encourage him not to sell on a declining market, or at a price that is not profitable.

Since every man has a different guess as to what a profitable price is, the State Agricultural Department has farmers in all sections of the State keeping record of cost of production. In this way the average cost, based upon the estimated yield per acre by the government, September 1st is found, and to cost a reasonable profit is added. This will be given out at the State Farmers Institute meeting to be held in Austin September 5th, 9th and 10th. It is a

WHICH SCHOOL?

Within the next few weeks the young people of the country will be required to select the school for their educational training for the incoming year.

Much depends upon this decision. The public schools are badly congested, the colleges are filled to capacity and the loss of a few months means much to young men and women. Young people need the personal touch of their teachers and this is impossible where the schools are crowded.

We offer the services of the Holcomb Training School to a considerable public. Our courses embrace College, College Preparatory, Bookkeeping, Machine Bookkeeping, Banking, Corporation, Secretarial, Stenography, Typewriting, Ad Writing, and Salesmanship.

Our buildings are new and our equipment is modern in every respect. Our courses are among the strongest given in any similar school in the country, while our faculty consists of eight professionally trained instructors. We have secured the services of a French lady who will be in charge of our language department. This is a rare opportunity for the study of French, Italian, etc.

We have a few nice rooms to let to out of town young ladies at very reasonable rates. Night school will be conducted along with the regular work beginning September 6th.

FORMER DISTRICT ATTORNEY TESTIFIES FOR OKLAHOMA IN BOUNDARY DISPUTE

Vernon, Aug. 30.—Former United States Attorney General T. W. Gregory, at present representing the State of Texas in the Texas-Oklahoma boundary dispute, accompanied by Attorney General S. P. Freeling of Oklahoma, Federal Commissioner Frederick S. Tylor and a corps of court representatives and stenographers, were here this week taking evidence in regard to the establishment of a point in Red River as a boundary dividing line between Texas and Oklahoma.

Mayor Harry Mason, former district attorney, was the main witness. It was brought out from him that when acting attorney in 1912, Constable Charles Holoway was killed by two offenders in the bed of Red river in Wilbarger county. The murderers were tried in Texas because of the fact that the killing took place south of the middle of Red river bed.

HERE AND THERE

Donley County's melon crop is reported to be the greatest ever in that county and those who have grown them for the market are shipping them out in car lots.

An auto was struck by a locomotive near Memphis last week, the two occupants being thrown from the car and clear of the track, both sustaining severe injuries.

Bootleggers with 20 gallons of whiskey were captured near Olney last week. They were hauling the "fire water" in a covered wagon coming from Breckenridge.

Quanah is reported to have had 5 1/2 inches of rainfall week before last. No such rainfall records have ever been made in West Texas as have been made recently.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce estimates that between 5,000 and 6,000 cotton pickers will be needed in West Texas to help save the cotton crop. It is estimated that cotton acreage has been increased 25 per cent.

FERRIN BACK IN IOWA

Marion, Iowa, Aug. 27, 1920.

Editor of News and Friends:

While in the heart of Montana we did not wish to return to our Southland home without a personal glimpse of Uncle Sam's wildest parks. While enroute to Glacier Park we had a 7 hours stop at Great Falls, one of Montana's best cities, situated on the banks of the Missouri river, which, at this point, was a clear and swift running stream that none would think of calling "The Big Muddy."

After a stroll in the city streets and parks we visited the great smelters of the Anaconda Copper Co., where we saw a stream of pure liquid copper almost clear as water coming from the great furnaces and running into molds, the copper bars taken from these molds weighing about three hundred pounds. The molds when being filled were carried upon a huge revolving platform. In another portion of the plant the copper was being spun into wire. The smokestack from these smelters is 509 feet high, one of the highest in the world. Free passes are issued during a portion of the day but one must sign paper, freeing company of any responsibility in case of injury.

Glacier Park Hotel is a mammoth structure and a thing of beauty. The spacious lobby has 22 logs three feet in diameter some ten feet apart that support the main roof. They are fifty or more feet in length extending from basement floor up three other stories and capped with large logs that support the roof. The decorations throughout are also on a grand scale. Many Glacier Hotel, somewhat different in style, is also grand and unique. At the time we were there 350 guests, 135 waiters and clerks, the rooms well furnished, clean, comfortable beds and best of meals. A large per cent of the guests were from the large cities.

There are many lovely places for campers and also furnished rooms for rent, aside from the many hotels. As yet all travel beyond Many Glacier Hotel is on foot or horseback, but over good trails. There were women 60 years old who were making 18 to 20 miles a day on foot. Anyone who thinks of going to this park should practice hiking and the women should have low heel booties and unionalls, as most of them, both young and old, do have. The wonders of this park are the many colored eroded mountain peaks or walls towering almost perpendicular 3,000 to 5,000 feet above the many clear lakes. The clear swift running streams, often with seventy times seven beautiful falls. The many glaciers, some of which are easy to reach, and the forest trees.

It is 8 miles from the hotel to Iceberg Lake and when one reaches it he can go no farther in that direction, as upon three sides of this lake, which is about half a mile in extent either way, the colored walls that no human spider could scale, rise at least 3,000 feet. In this great cove the snows of winter accumulate in such quantity that massive chunks of ice-like snow fall into the lake all through the summer season. Some of these have their crest many feet above the water level. It was at this lake we first met two young women whose homes are at Rhinelander, Wis., one a teacher of nature studies, the other a professor in a law school. They were making the trip from home to the western coast on foot, getting meals on the way but camping out carrying all told less than 40 pounds each of luggage, using their hats for drinking cups. One carried a speedometer that then tallied over 1,100 miles, their average when hiking was fair, 30 miles per day. As they were near the Yellowstone Park two women in a single-seated auto offered them a chance to ride on the running boards of the auto. This they accepted and in this manner went through Yellowstone and to Glacier Park, a distance of some 300 miles. They were enjoying the trip, had been in perfect health, although out in rude camp some rainy nights.

We have seen mountains in many states but nowhere else have we looked upon so many peaks that seemed almost to touch each other. Then two peaks with only a narrow gorge between one may have the rock strata almost horizontal, the other at very steep angle.

Our trip in this park was more than 100 miles in auto bus, 18 miles of launch ride on a lovely lake between towering mountain walls with ever varying scenery and not less than 30 miles of hiking all on the east side of the park and most of this was double track sight seeing.

With best wishes to all friends, north, east, south and west and to the editors of the papers who have kindly published our letters, many thanks and best wishes.

H. M. FERRIN.

Tire Treads Improved 25%

The latest Miller triumph is a super-grade tread. It exceeds the best rival treads today by an average of 25 per cent. This has been proved, under careful watch, by many road comparisons.

The Miller Tire mileage is the talk of the day. But these new-grade treads outwear the balance of the tire.

Not one Miller Tire, built with this new tread, has ever come back with the tread gone.

These treads do not vary. Every day the Miller tread stock is vulcanized and tested in the laboratory. It must prove up to these new standards before a tread is made.

Miller Cord Tires, in the factory tests, now average 15,000 miles. Miller Fabrics from 8,000 to 9,000 miles. And these factory tests are extreme.

Watch your mileage on one Miller Tire. Compare it with any other and it will win you. You owe that to yourself in view of Miller records.

FROM THE SALVATION ARMY

Fort Worth, Texas, August 28.—Every county in northwest Texas will be represented by three or more delegates at the state convention of the Salvation Army advisory boards which will be held in the First Baptist church on Friday September 10. Already more than 150 acceptances have been received by Ben E. Keith, president of the state advisory board.

Mayor W. D. Davis will make the address of welcome and the principal addresses will be delivered by Mrs. Commissioner Thomas Estill of Chicago, who is in command of the western territory of the Salvation Army, and Brigadier Fletcher Agnew who is responsible for the 1920 home service program of the Salvation Army.

Lieutenant Colonel George Wood, chief divisional officer of the Salvation Army in the southwest will talk of the work of the army in Texas, Oklahoma, Western Louisiana and Southwestern Arkansas, all of which is under his jurisdiction. Other prominent Salvation Army officers will be present at the convention which will last throughout the day.

The reports of each county as shown in the confidential studies now being compiled by the county advisory boards will be presented at the convention and a program of service outlined that will be carried out faithfully by the various boards in co-operation with the Salvation Army.

The county advisory boards in Texas represent a constituency of more than 1,000 of the leading men and women in this state who are devoting a considerable portion of their time in an effort to alleviate social distress in the communities in which they reside.

Already all of these boards are functioning in perfect order and it is believed by Colonel Wood that as a result of the experience gained at the convention, the advisory boards will be able to render even better service than at present.

Discussion of the needs of the state as applicable to the Salvation Army will form an important feature of the convention and the business and professional experience of the men comprising the state and county boards will be at the service of the Salvation Army in this respect.

THE T. E. L. CLASS

The T. E. L. Class of the Baptist church met in regular monthly business and social meeting Thursday, Aug. 26, with Mrs. Graham the class secretary. The home was beautifully decorated in class colors, Nile green and white. Mrs. T. N. Bell led the devotional, reading and commenting in a very pleasing manner on the 14th chapter of Mark, after which business was disposed of in regular order. Mrs. Graham surprised the president by presenting to her in her trite way, two bunches of sweet peas. The first, fresh from the garden, were pinned on her shoulder, the second written on a card showing some of the things she is doing such as push, plan, persevere, pray, preside, etc.

Cards with appropriate words were given all the officers reminding them of neverfailing duties.

Mrs. Billington gave us a very fine talk on "who organize" and "why organize." Bible quotations and readings were given to complete the program. Delicious punch, sandwiches and iced coffee were served to the delight of all present.

There were 12 class members and five visitors in attendance. The class will meet next month with Mrs. Bert Self.—Reporter.

Friendship.

The loftiest test of friendship—understood as companionship—is the power to do without it. And in this world of external confusions and separations, there is often such need. We do not yield the friendship, but must forego the companionship. Then comes the proof of our capacity for sacrifice, our loyalty to the Highest of all. We turn our faces from each other, but never our hearts, and walk our opposite ways. Gradually the heavens widen and deepen above us; we find ourselves breathing new, yet strangely familiar atmospheres, sweet with the breath of the old affection; we see ourselves—each sees the other—met once more in a Presence which has never forsaken us—the presence of one who puts his cross into the hands of all holiest friendship, saying "Conquer by this." There is no danger of losing love, here or hereafter, if it is only real; for love is the one indestructible element in the universe.—Lucy Larcom.

Many Species of Asters.

About 120 different species of asters are native in the United States, and 54 of these are found in north-eastern America. All but a dozen are purple or blue and even botanists find it requires patient study to distinguish their many species. The New England aster is the most striking of the group. It has a stout, hardy stem, sometimes eight feet high, and large violet-purple and sometimes pluish flowers, and is found in the swamps in late summer. Great Britain claims only one native aster. Many American species are cultivated in English gardens under the name of Michaelmas daisies. The Swiss species is the beautiful purple aster which is found in such quantities along the New England highways in the autumn, and which, with the golden-rod, makes a radiant display of purple and gold.

Unconscious Humor.

The teacher of a third-year class during a test in written English requested each pupil to write an original sentence containing the word "character." After much thought one little girl evolved the following: "All the teachers on the third floor have a good character," which, doubtless, true, sounded rather hard on the teachers of the other floors.

In another school one of the teachers occasionally appears wearing one of the modern straight-necked gowns confined at the waist by a heavy sliken cord with large tassels. One of the boys, writing upon the subject "Our School," referred to his teacher in flattering terms, but being unversed in the artistic as to pigment, finished his paper with the remark, "But sometimes she comes to school wearing her bathrobe."

W. L. Ricks has bought a home in Vernon and moved his family to that city this week. Mr. Ricks says he is moving to Vernon because he thinks it is a good town. He don't expect to be there much himself for a year or at least until he gets his crop gathered and wheat sowed. We regret to lose this excellent family which has been living here since the early days.
