MAMMOTH HIGHWAY PROJECT UNDER WAY

United States Has Most Gigantic Program of Any Nation in World

Washington, June 18.—The United States is undertaking the most gigantic highway improvement policy of any country in the world, according to Thomas H. McDonald, chief of the bureau of Public Roads, and the people are urged to plan now the financing of highways for the future, which would place highway transportation on a firm foundation.

The bureau estimates that of the $600,000,000 spent for highways last year, 33 per cent was Federal aid and motor vehicle revenue, the remainder coming directly or will eventually come from State and local taxes. It is believed that a very considerable readjustment of the source of revenues must be made so that a larger percentage will be paid by the road user and less out of State or local taxes.

"We are starting out to construct a system of highways such as no nation ever constructed before," says the bureau's statement. "The nearest approach to it is found in France and Germany, and the area of neither is as large as Texas. This great undertaking is being entered into because highways are not a luxury, but furnish a real service, and have become a national necessity. For such an undertaking to be successful financing to care for maintenance, reconstruction and new construction should be planned for a long period of years in advance."

Toll Bridge on Highway Bought by Motley County

A letter received by George Self, local Vice President of the F. F. F. Highway Association, from Secretary Hopkins of Floydada, states that the toll bridge across Pease River in Motley County has been bought by that county has made a free bridge. This bridge has been owned by a private concern which has been collecting a toll of $1.00 for each automobile that crossed since its construction. This is in the F. F. F. Highway and it is said that it has been an annoying thing to tourists.

The purchase of the bridge by Motley County will be a big boost to the F. F. F. Highway. This, together with the fact that Motley County is taking a great interest in the building of its portion of the highway, entitles that county to much commendation. The information we have is that this was the only toll bridge on the F. F. F. Highway, and since this has been opened up and the entire line free to the public without toll charges it will mean the turning of more traffic over the route.

School May Take Care of Unders

Data is being sought by the school board relative to taking care of those who are under age likely to seek admission into the school this fall. And in order to ascertain the number to be sent, cards will be sent out in a few days asking for information which parents must supply in order that the school board may know how to care in the matter.

It is easily understood why this information is necessary and why it should be given as early as possible. There are enough pupils to justify the employment of another teacher, in addition to the employment of a teacher some work will be necessary providing of a room, etc.

Every parent will get a card, and whether or not you intend to send a child, let that fact be known. There will be placed on this a limit, so that the matter will not drag. The time to make provision for the unders is now. It can not be done a month from now. When you get the card sit down and fill it out and mail to the secretary of the school board.

On Tour of the West

B. Graham and family of Marbet left last week for an automobile tour of West Texas and New Mexico. They first went to El Paso and from there were going to Roswell, N. M. They expect to be away for several weeks. Frank Kirkman is accompanying Mr. Graham's mail route out to Margaret.

Mrs. W. B. Tysinger, who was here last week from Electra visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Calvin, returned home Monday accompanied by Miss Leta Burt.

JUDGE W. G. GROSS ANNOUNCES FOR DIST. JUDGE

Judge W. G. Gross of Childress County was here Monday in the interest of his candidacy for District Judge of the 46th Judicial District, and authorized the News to place his name before the voters.

Judge Gross was reared in Grayson County, Texas, and graduated from the Law Department of the Texas University when he was only 20 years of age. He came to Vernon early in life and remained there for one year, then moved to Childress where he has resided for 34 years. He has served as County Judge of Childress County for 12 years, and during that time had only four cases reversed by the higher courts.

Judge Gross believes in an economical administration of government in all its different branches from the highest to the lowest. He believes that district court should expedite business with all speed consistent with law and justice and he is absolutely fair and impartial in the trial of cases. He is not governed nor influenced by any extraneous force or favors.

He refers you to any honorable, fair minded citizen of Childress County as to his official integrity, ability and stability. He will be governed, if elected, wholly by the statutes, principles of equity and equitable jurisprudence, his oath of office and his conscience.

School Bonds Sold

An offer of $10,000 with accrued interest was made by J. L. Arlitt, dealer of municipal securities of Austin, Monday on the $10,000 Crowell school bond issue, and the board accepted the proposition and is now closing the deal with the execution of the proper papers.

This is by far the best, offer the board has ever had on these bonds and since it appears certain that the State could not handle them for a couple of years yet, and since the money was badly needed on the bonds to pay off the notes at the local banks and stop payment of their rate of interest which is heavier than the bonds bear, and also because of the further fact that $10,000 worth of bonds payable in 40 years is of a denomination rather small to appeal to bond buyers, the board considered this offer a good one.

All Over Texas

Deputy Sheriff O'Neal of Vernon has resigned his office as deputy following a raid made by Federal officials who dug up some liquor stored in O'Neal's barn, according to the Vernon Times. Sheriff Ish says he and O'Neal made a raid the day before and found a still and some liquor and stored the liquor in O'Neal's barn and put the bootlegger in jail.

According to figures submitted by R. E. Yantis, Statistician of the Department of Agriculture, the cotton acreage this year is 112 per cent. Since the acreage is much less in the Eastern counties than formerly the increased acreage is bound to be in the West, which is to say that this country will produce the money crop of Texas this year.

The farmers of the sandy belt of Oklahoma just north of Gainesville have adopted a new plan to kill boll weevils. They saturate tow sacks with crude oil, attach them to their cultivators and allow them to drag over the cotton planted as the cotton is cultivated.

Jack L. Walker, a Dallas man, has invented a means of photographing the voice which will be combined with the movies as a means of making them more real. The invention is in a crude state, but the principle is said to be of a nature to make the proposition one of practical value.

The little town of McLean is reported to have voted $74,000 worth of bonds for water, light, power and street improvements. The town that does not improve will soon find itself a back number.

Waxahachie has a citizen 92 years of age who walks from his farm five miles away to town and back, thinking nothing of it as a task for one of his age.

The first load of wheat sold in Seymour last week brought a premium, selling at $2.00 per bushel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beverly and Mrs. L. A. Beverly and son, Fred Allan, went to Wichita Falls Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Beverly returned home Tuesday.

QUANAH COUPLE AGREE TO SUICIDE

Woman Is Shot Dead While Man Sends Bullet Through His Own Body

According to a report given by the Quanah Tribune-Chief of June 30, a tragedy occurred six miles south of that city Tuesday morning, the result of a suicide pact between a man whose name was Joe Graham and a woman named Lillie Bidwell. The first paragraph quotes Sheriff Gober, and the story follows:

"Sunday Graham came to Quanah to try and find a man who he said had beaten him out of eight hundred dollars. This morning he went to the Central Garage and hired a new Essex touring car, and engaged Russ Ayers as chauffeur to drive himself and the Bidwell woman into the country. At about the Forrestburg school house Graham told Ayers to get out, and Ayers got out. Then Graham drove the car to the place where the shooting occurred. Young Gravely was working in the field near the road, and Graham called to him, handed him two watches and some money which he told him to send to Quanah. Gravely instead put them in the mail box near the car. Graham then drew a 25 automatic pistol and fired one shot into the left breast of the Bidwell woman. She told him to fire again as the first shot would not kill her, and he did so; then he turned the gun on himself and fired one shot into his left lung."

Sheriff Gober said that when he arrived at the scene, Graham told him of the suicide pact as above set out. The sheriff took the woman from the car. He says she was splendidly dressed, as if for an important occasion. Graham, too, was well dressed. The sheriff says Graham did his breathing through the hole made by the bullet in his lung; that the hole was as large as any he ever had seen made by a 44 calibre shot.

The two wounds in the woman's breast were about two inches apart, one over the heart, the other nearer to the center of the body. Sheriff Gober carried Graham into the Gravely house where Dr. Frizzell did what he could to staunch the blood flow, and he was then brought to Quanah in the same car he had hired for the suicide trip.

When the car with Graham reached Quanah and stopped at Dr. Frizzell's office, a stretcher was brought out and Graham placed on it and taken up stairs to the surgeon's office. Graham directed how the men lifting him out should handle him, and urged them not to raise his feet too high as it hurt him.

Graham was one of the Quanah boys who went over in the 90th Division. He was gassed while in France, and has been rated as not any too sound in his head since he came back. He was taken to the sanitarium and it was stated that his condition is exceedingly precarious.

The Bidwell woman is a daughter of Sam Bidwell, former chief of police of Altus, Okla. She and Graham were about the same age, twenty-five years, it is stated.

Business Change

Willie Wheeler has made a deal whereby the station which has been operated as the Magnolia Motor Supply Co., Harry Schlagal being proprietor, will be operated by Mr. Wheeler. He is now in charge and will handle the business as did Mr. Schlagal, with the addition of his own line of Texhoma products.

Superintendent Campbell Here

R. C. Campbell, new superintendent of the Crowell public schools, arrived last week from Smithville. Mr. Campbell came ahead of his family and is putting matters in condition looking to their arrival. His car of household goods arrived Sunday. For the present the Campbell family will occupy the old sanitarium building owned by Dr. Kincaid.

Mr. Campbell will be engaged in putting things in shape, during the summer months, for the next school year.

Rayland Child Dies

Grady Duncan German, son of L. T. German, died at his home at Rayland Thursday of last week. The little child was 20 months old and was a grandson of Dr. German. The body was buried in Vernon Friday.

FINAL PLEA MADE FOR ORIENT ROAD

Receiver Says Property Will Be Sold As Junk Unless Help Comes

Wichita, Kan., June 17.—Declaring that the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway must be offered for sale as junk by July 1 unless financial assistance is obtained, William T. Kemper of Kansas City, Mo., receiver, today appealed to employees of the road to accept voluntarily a reduction in wages. His appeal was made at a conference attended by representatives and State officials of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Mr. Kemper said the Orient had sustained a deficit of $450,000 for the first five months of this year and has a remaining bank credit of only $46,000. He declared he would be more than glad to sell the road to another company if employees could be guaranteed their seniority rights, but no company would buy on such condition.

Try to Save Road

Mr. Kemper told the conferees he and other officials of the Orient had done everything they could to save the road from financial ruin, but are now at the end of their endeavors. He told how efforts to interest English capital at first promised success, but later failed. The receiver said he and Clifford Histed, general counsel for the Orient, had given their services for five years without compensation.

Mr. Kemper gave a brief history of the Orient, in which he said the road, if completed, would be 1,687 miles in length, extending from Kansas to Topolobampo, Mexico, on the Gulf of California, but which is now in three sections with a total of 737 miles completed. Wichita is the northern terminus.

The receiver declared the territory traversed by the Orient in Kansas, Oklahoma and part of Texas is the best portions of those States, and that if the road could be completed it would be one of the greatest railroad systems in the country. Completion of the road is remote if not improbable, Kemper said.

Governors Speak

Governor H. J. Allen of Kansas spoke briefly. He said he could think of no more dreary tragedy than the abandoning of the Orient Railroad. He promised that Kansas officially would do all it could to help the road.

Governor J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma, the next speaker, said: "This is an unusual occasion when the men from the offices of a great railroad and the men from the trains and yards and shops meet around a table as you have done here today to talk in an intimate way about the problems in which not only you, but many others, are interested. I am convinced that if there were more such conferences there would be less industrial trouble and fewer strikes."

Governor Robertson said the State of Oklahoma recently reduced taxes on the Orient $2,000 a mile and would do all possible to keep it going.

Allison Mayfield, president of the Texas Railroad Commission and representative of Governor Neff, who was not able to attend the conference, declared abandoning the Orient meant much to Texas and said his State was ready to help keep the road in operation. He urged the employees to look at the matter from all angles and said he believed if all concerned would do this it would be possible to pull the road through.

Sunday School Class Picnic

The picnic given last Friday afternoon by members of the young men's class of the Methodist Sunday School at Sloan Springs was attended by more than sixty people, who declared the occasion to be a very enjoyable and successful one.

This occasion was the result of a membership campaign recently put on by the class, the losing side to give a banquet or picnic, and the weather being warm it was decided that the picnic would suit the season of the year better than a banquet.

The lunch consisted of sandwiches, pickles and olives, ice tea and brick ice cream.

Many new members were added to the class roll during the campaign and much interest is being manifested in the upbuilding of the class.

T. L. Hughton is the efficient teacher and he feels greatly encouraged by the large crowds of young men that are now in attendance.

MEDICAL ASS'N. HELD MONTHLY MEETING HERE

The Hardeman-Cottle County Medical Society, comprising the counties of Cottle, Foard, Hardeman and Motley, held its regular monthly meeting in Crowell Thursday afternoon of last week.

There was a good attendance, several of the physicians being accompanied by their wives. A good program and interesting discussions were had, and after the regular business of the meeting had been finished, the society was entertained at a dinner given by the local physicians of Crowell. The next meeting will be held at Matador July 13th.

Those who attended were Drs. Frizzell, Jones, Horton and Conley from Quanah, Trawick from Matador, Hughes from Roaring Springs, and Stover from Truscott. The ladies present were Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Stover and two daughters and Miss Trawick. Our local physicians were out en masse, Drs. Hill, Hart, Kincaid and Clark.

CHRISTIAN LOYALTY SUBJECT OF SERMON

"And the King's servants said unto the king, Behold they servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord, the king, shall choose." This scripture is found in the 15th chapter and 15th verse of II Samuel, and was used as a text by the pastor of the Methodist church last Sunday morning.

A review of the entire 15th chapter will give the reader an understanding of the circumstances and conditions under which these words were spoken by the loyal subjects of David, the king, who was being pressed by Absalom, who had sought to wrest the Israelitish kingdom from him.

The speaker briefly called attention to the chequered life of David, with its vicissitudes, but stated that none had brought to him darker hours than these, the result of a long and well laid plot by Absalom to gain supremacy in the hearts of the people that he himself might become their king.

But when David reviewed his own life and took stock of himself he saw his own sins, and instead of trying to meet Absalom's intrigue with similar schemes of his own admitted his sins and placed himself in the attitude of allowing God to have his way with him.

Here we find a great lesson. Every man faces ordeals in life sooner or later. David's attitude at this time furnishes a worthy example in that he confesses his shortcomings and seeks God's will in guiding his future actions. If that is not the great secret to the broader success of life there is no place to look for it. This was the redeeming feature of David's life. Like all men, he sinned, but unlike many he repented and sought forgiveness and guidance for the future. Men trust too much to themselves exclusively. Too few men are willing to admit their mistakes and try to correct them. This is true with the church members and the result is that they continue in the church conscious of the presence of sin in their lives, which injures the progress of that great institution. One could see in the pastor's sermon the truth that loyalty to church depended to a large extent upon mutual love among members and an interest in each other's spiritual welfare. It also justifies the conclusion that leaders can not hope to enlist the loyal support of followers if the leaders themselves presume to be above the power of sin.

The pastor dwelt upon the beauty of a loyalty to Christ like that of loyalty to country. It is commendable for men to be loyal to country, but it is infinitely more important that they be loyal to that one whose providence has favored us with a country with all its blessings and privileges. Again, Christian loyalty, means belief in the teachings of the Bible. No one can be loyal and at the same time teach and advocate doctrines foreign to the recognized and accepted truths upon which the Christian religion is founded. The speaker emphasized the need of staying with the Bible and observing its teachings. Attention was directed to one particular in which its teachings are not observed, and which is one of the dangerous practices of today, that of Sabbath desecration. This is shown in baseball playing, fishing, and other similar indulgences, in direct violation to the injunction to keep the Sabbath holy.

J. B. Harrison came over last Sunday afternoon from Paducah and was accompanied home by his wife and children who had been here for a week visiting relatives.

SENATOR CULBERSON EXPLAINS POSITION

In Letter to Lubbock Man Tells Why He Favored 19th Amendment

In answer to a letter from George L. Beatty of Lubbock making inquiry of Senator Chas. A. Culberson as to why he did not oppose the 19th amendment, since he had opposed the 18th, Senator Culberson replies as follows: Dear Mr. Beatty:

In due course I received your letter inquiring why, as I opposed the 18th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States as an invasion of the observed rights of the States, I did not, for the same reason, oppose the 19th Amendment.

Replying at the first opportunity, I beg to advise you that I regard the natural and inherent rights of women as citizens as paramount to any other consideration in determining this question.

Accordingly, I favored the submission of the 19th Amendment, extending the right of suffrage to women, upon the broad ground, among other things, that women, being subject to taxation in every state, are of right entitled to full and complete citizenship and should therefore enjoy equal political rights with men.

Twenty-two states had already conferred complete or partial suffrage upon women. Texas among the number, and there was every justification for voting to make the law uniform in all the states by submitting a Federal Amendment on the subject.

When the important part played by the women of America in the World War is considered, no one can justly question the wisdom of giving them a full share in the political life of the Nation.

Truly your friend,
(Signed) C. A. CULBERSON.

SCHOLASTICS SLIGHTLY LOWER THAN LAST YEAR

According to the enumeration of scholastics recently completed, the county has 1066 as against 1077 last year, showing a decrease of 10. For the Crowell Independent District there are 482 as against 504 last year, a decrease of 22, making a total decrease of 32 for the county.

This decrease finds possible explanation in the fact that we have fewer transients than when the 1921 scholastics were enumerated. Then, too, it is not certain that some mistakes have been made, either last year or this. No one thinks for a moment that our population is becoming smaller, especially in Crowell, where the greater decrease is shown, and where an empty house can scarcely be found for rent.

DEMOCRATIC TEST WILL BE REQUIRED

"I am a white Democrat and will support the nominees of my party in the general election."

The above is the only pledge voters will be required to take in voting in the coming primary July 22, according to the committee's ruling Monday.

There will be 41 names of state and national candidates on the ticket, 7 names of district candidates and 22 for county and precinct offices, making in all 70 names.

Wheat Testing High

The News has received only a few reports from the wheat that is being threshed, but so far most of them show a high grade. T. L. Hughton loaded out some wheat at Quanah Wednesday that tested from 60 to 61. We understand that Jim Bell is threshing wheat that is testing 60, while Arthur Bell is threshing some that was cut rather green that is testing very high.

It is too early yet to form an idea as to the yield or quality generally.

Has Good Peach Crop

J. R. Coffman of Rayland brought the News some samples of his orchard Saturday, which were possibly a little finer than those shown by Carl Zeibig. He has not a big crop of the summer peaches but says he will have quite a lot on the fall. The orchard of 120 trees are fairly well loaded.

Gordon Bell returned Saturday from Baylor University where he finished his Freshman year in that institution. Gordon made an excellent record in both his literary work and in athletics.

They said they had representatives in the community. After the letter was read and commented on they turned and silently passed down the aisle to where one of their number stood just inside of the door, and all passed out into the darkness where they entered their cars and slowly wended their way through town.

FREIGHT CUT TO SAVE TEXAS MILLIONS

Austin, June 17.—Texas freight shippers will save approximately $12,000,000 a year on intrastate traffic by the action of the Texas Railroad Commission in ordering a general horizontal reduction in freight rates of 10 per cent, effective July 1, according to the official order of the commission issued Saturday. The order provides that all existing freight rates and charges, with certain exceptions, including charges for switching and other accessorial service and all other charges applicable to the transportation of freight traffic between points in this State, which were increased under the general advance effective Aug. 2, 1920, or March 18, 1921, "be and are hereby ordered reduced to the extent that they may respectively include not more than 21.5 per cent increase over the rates in effect immediately prior to Aug. 26, 1920."

The reductions will not affect existing rates on grain, grain products, seed and hay, cotton seed, cotton seed cake and meal and articles taking same rates, crude and fuel petroleum, sugar in straight car-loads, unshelled peanuts, stone, sand and gravel. Rates on these commodities have already been reduced by the commission.

It is also ordered by the commission that existing rates on certain agricultural products, carloads, which were made effective on Jan. 1, 1922, though the application of the 10 per cent reduction then made, shall not be affected by the reduction, except that the expiration date of June 30, 1922, now carried in connection with such rates, as well as the increased rates published to take effect July 1, 1922, are cancelled.

All reservations for hotel rooms during the five days of the convention will be made through the forty-eight Legion state adjutants, who will forward the reservations to the hotels and housing committee of the convention.

Some of the most famous hostilities in the South are a party to the agreements for reduction in rates. Included in the list are the Grunewald, St. Charles, De Soto, Lafayette, Montelone, Bienville and Planters. Legion officials obtained assurances from all hotel managers that all rooms, excluding those occupied by permanent guests, will be turned over to the convention visitors.

KLAN IS CALLED COLD-BLOODED FINANCIAL ORDER

"Bob Henry tells you the Ku Klux Klan is a great religious organization, bringing more people into the Protestant churches than any other agency. I tell you it is a cold-blooded financial and political organization," M. M. Crane declared at a mass meeting of the Citizens' League of Liberty in the Majestic Theater in Dallas Tuesday night.

"Until the last few months nobody in Texas ever heard of my friend Bob in the role of an evangelist. I say to you that when a man has so much religion that he hates the other man's religion, then he has none.

"The political organization has slipped a cog in its eliminating machinery. While the North Texas Klans were endorsing Earle Mayfield for the Senate, the South Texas Klans were endorsing Bob." Crane declared the first thing the Klan seeks to do when it organizes is to obligate law-enforcing officials. "In Dallas they got the sheriff, the constable, the district attorney and others, but the district attorney has lately resigned from the organization, declaring it to be an impediment to justice. The assistant chief of police also repudiated the order and we are going to elect him sheriff of Dallas County. I am glad to say, so far as can be ascertained, the Klan was unable to obligate any of the district judges in Dallas County."

Time to Fight

Crane asserted the Klan is a direct assault upon the integrity of the Constitution and Bill of Rights, and asserted: "It is time for every man to have the moral courage to come out in the open and fight this insidious organization." — Quannah Tribune-Chief.

Also carry Pure Hog Lard, the kind your mother used to make during hog-killing time. Come in for a fresh tender steak of beef or pork for dinner, or maybe it's pure hog sausage you want. Crowell, Texas, June 23, 1922

The fate of the Orient seems to be uncertain. Some might say that it is certain to be junked. Should it be forced to suspend it will give a heavy setback to a big territory for many years to come. The Orient is a very much needed line and was on a self-sustaining basis when the Government took the roads over during the war and diverted traffic over other lines. The Orient's former business has never been re-established. It would be only a matter of justice that Uncle Sam help put it back on its feet, and 99 per cent of the people of Texas would be glad it would do it, even though they reside in distant portions of the State. Some nearby neighbors would like to see the Orient go out because they think it would mean an increase of business for their town.

At Crowell Theatre This Week

Friday night, June 23rd—"White Eagle," by Ruth Roland. Three reels of condensed feature—"Baby Marie Osborn," world's most remarkable child star; "A Daughter of the West," with Sunshine Sammy. "Aseops Fables" comedy. Admission 15c and 25c. Saturday matinee 3:00 p. m.—There will be a good program, a paramount picture, "Chickens." Two reels of Buster Keaton comedy, "The Boat."

The same program at 8:45 at night. Admission 15c and 25c.

Jim Ferguson speaks here tonight at 8:00 o'clock. Crowell is not a Ferguson town, neither is Foard County a Ferguson county, but courtesy would say that the people ought to give him a respectable hearing. Most of the people of Foard County one time voted for Ferguson for Governor of Texas, and he is the same Ferguson today that he was then. Come out and hear him. It is democratic to give any man an opportunity to show where he stands on public questions.

A man is not big or little because of what he does, but because of what he is. His actions are the outward manifestation of what is within. These are only the mirror which reflects the inner man. Any man may become big in heart by a thorough mastery of self and by giving the will proper direction. It's the indulgent person that grows little. It's the self-denying that grows into a bigger person.

Sterling P. Strong is fearful that the brewery interests will succeed in getting the Ku Klux Klan to indorse some candidate for the Senate who is an anti. The logical man for the Klan to support is R. L. Henry. An endorsement of his candidacy could not hurt the candidate but it would be death to the Klan, which would be a good thing.

Good will is one of the big ends of keen advertising. It's a business builder which the great advertisers never lose sight of. Price quoting is good, but the building of a sentiment in favor of a firm aside from the price quoting is the most durable foundation for business success.

The empty grave case of B. J. Cochran of Stonewall County is bobbing up again. But it's Cochran's nature, it seems, to rise.

QUANAH HUNTS WATER

L. Noland has moved to Quanah and has been employed by the city to find water, if that precious liquid can be procured in the country adjacent to Quanah. If not, Quanah may have to come to Crowell for water. Quanah's present supply is entirely inadequate for her needs and one effort to get an additional supply before Mr. Noland took the matter in hand failed utterly. He is now trying to locate water about 8 miles northwest of Quanah near Red River.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which gripped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

Theford's

Get a package from your druggist today—Ask for and insist upon Theford's—the only genuine. Get it today.

30 x 3 1/2 - $10.90

WHEN you look at a 30 x 3 1/2 USCO at $10.90 think back for a minute as far as you can remember USCO.

Since last fall when USCO established the $10.90 price range they have recognized it as a value beyond any possible comparison.

The truth is that men have always found USCO an outstanding money's worth no matter what its price.

A still greater money's worth than even USCO itself had reached before.

Today at $10.90 USCO maintains its established standard of quality.

RATHER STARTLING TO STOCKHOLDERS

The Victor Refining Co. is being sued by the City National Bank of Commerce of Wichita Falls and others for claims aggregating $120,000. As this company was organized under a deed of trust, and never has been incorporated, all the stockholders are liable under a partnership agreement, and are partners in these suits. The Victor Refining Co. owns assets said to be worth $40,000, but is utterly insolvent. As a number of people hereabouts are stockholders in this company, which was organized and promoted by Odie Foster, a former school teacher, the outcome of this suit is looked for with much interest. Should the higher courts hold these stockholders liable for the full amount owed, people owning stock in any wildcat companies, in financial straits, had better transfer their stock in time to somebody who is execution proof.—Quanah Tribune—Chief.

BREAKING UP BROODY HENS

By F. W. Kazmeier, Poultry Husbandman, A. & M. College of Texas

At this time of the year, among the breeds like Rhode Island Reds, Orpingtons, Rocks, Wyandotes and the large and medium weight breeds, many of the old hens and some of the young hens show signs of broodiness. The older the hens the more broody they become. The large breeds also have this characteristic more developed than the small breeds like the Leghorns. The Leghorns and other small breeds are considered non-setters, but even among these when they get old many show signs of broodiness.

In happy days past—the saying originated that it is time to "break up" the broody hens. The methods proceeded or used would clearly indicate that the procedure has been properly named. Many people even today actually "break up" broody hens.

Many old and impractical ways have been suggested, but I shall endeavor to name only a few. Some people have put alarm clocks under the hens; others have tied red neckties around the hen's neck; still others have put them in a sack and tied the sack to the clothes line and reel; some put rocks under the hen; some duck them into a barrel full of rain water; some others put the broody hen into a merry-go-round—some few try to starve the hen; all, as you see, real methods of breaking up setting hens.

The best way of breaking up broody hens is by giving them care and feed that will start them to laying again. It is not so important to break them as broody hens as it is to start them to laying again.

The easiest way to break up a broody hen is to put her in a box that has a slat bottom and hang the box up so that it will swing. This gives a good circulation of air under the hen which has a tendency to keep them cool. While a hen is broody, her temperature is several degrees higher than at other times. Be sure and give her plenty of feed and water, also milk and green food while in the prison. If she is taken from the nest the first night she attempts to set, and put into the slat bottom swinging prison, she will be completely broken up in two days, and they should be laying again in very few days. Cruel and abusive treatment may stop her from laying for several months.

Broody hens, if allowed to remain in the nest will ruin dollars worth of eggs, not to say anything about the fact that they are not producing.

In breaking up broody hens, it is important to confine them in the broody coop the very first night she wants to remain on the nest. If they are showed to remain for several days it takes so much more time to break them up and start them to laying again.

In the spring and summer months it is advisable to place the broody coop outside in the open, because there is more to attract the hen's attention, and it is cooler. These conditions tend to break up broodiness.

Indications of Broodiness

When a hen becomes broody she remains on the nest longer when laying, she leaves a few soft, downy feathers in the nest. When approached while she is on the nest, she begins to cluck, ruffle her feathers, and peck at the intruder. If left on the nest, soon most of the feathers on her breast drop off.

Female water fowls when broody, give a warning hiss as the male is likely to do at any time when molested.

Among the ducks, the Pekin and Indian Runner are mostly non-setters. In geese, turkeys, and the common kind of poultry, broodiness is general.

As a rule, increased egg production is accompanied by decreased broodiness. (Copyrighted 1922, F. W. Kazmeier)

"IN A BAD WAY"

Many a Crowell Reader Will Feel Grateful for This Information

If your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; If urinary troubles set in; Perhaps your kidneys are "in a bad way."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. Local evidence proves their merit. Ask your neighbor!

W. B. Wheeler, machinist, Crowell, says: "Before I started using Doan's Kidney Pills my kidneys were in bad shape. My back ached most of the time and my kidneys seemed inflamed and acted too freely at night. I had to get up two or three times to pass the kidney secretions which were filled with sediment, the color of brick dust. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and started using them. It took only three boxes of Doan's to cure me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wheeler had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

CALOMEL MAY TURN ON YOU NEXT TIME

Next Dose You Take May Salivate and Start World of Trouble

Calomel is mercury; quicksilver. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

Pipe! Pipe! Pipe work and fittings, bathtub, lavatory and everything in the plumbing line. See or phone T. L. Hayes.

Methodist Church Notice

Sunday School at 10 o'clock, M. S. Henry, Supt. Our Sunday School is growing. Some of the classes have more than doubled their membership in the last few weeks, and they have done this because the teacher and members of the class have done personal work. Now what one class can do, any class can do. It's only a question of whether you have interest enough in the work to do it. I believe you have. Suppose we adopt this for our slogan, "Double the Membership by Oct. 1st." We dare you to try it; we double dog dare you to try it. Now we know you won't take that.

Preaching at 11 A. M. and 8:30 P. M. Subject for the morning hour, "Sin in the Camp and Its Results." For the evening hour the subject will be "The Deceitfulness of Riches." Come to church Sunday morning. We promise you a cool place and a warm time.

W. M. MURRELL, Pastor.

A Surprise Birthday Party for Sunday School Teacher

The June meeting of the T. E. L. Class was held in the home of Mrs. Hub Speck with Mrs. Speck and Mrs. McGonagle, hostesses.

Mrs. T. N. Bell led the devotion, making a timely talk. The business session proved very interesting, after which the teacher gave a talk, her subject being "Looking Forward."

The class had prepared a surprise for Mrs. Billington, this being her birthday, and she was the recipient of many nice gifts by class members, and she accepted them as love gifts from true friends, but could not express her feelings for throat and eyes were full.

The punch served after business and plates passed after the party were the most delicious of the season. The class believes Mesdames Speck and McGonagle cannot be excelled for planning and carrying out a worthwhile program.

We meet in July with Mrs. J. W. Allison, Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Bert Self, hostesses.

They Took Exceptions

The article appearing in the News last week under the head, "Beware of Fakers," was taken seriously by Messrs. Bledsoe, Hill and Hill, who are selling Bibles in this county. The News made no reference to these men in the article, but they thought they had been done great injury by it. As evidence that they are not fakers they submitted recommendations, one from the vice-president of the Farmers & Mechanics Bank of Childress and the other from the Durant National Bank of Durant, Okla., testifying as to their honesty. It is not for the News to say that they are or not honest. That is a matter left to the purchasers of the Bibles, but the News does say that it is a one-sided proposition that a man must give his note for a Bible without a scratch of a receipt or anything to show that a business transaction has been made. But if it suits the buyer to do that it suits the News, but when this paper turns loose a note which is equivalent to cold cash it is going to think it has something in hand to show for it.

It is understood that these men are delivering the Bibles this week which they sold and for which they took notes.
