Silver Tea at Methodist Church

Friday afternoon, January 26, Mesdames Tom Ferguson, J. J. Brown and Jim Bell were hostesses at the Methodist church at which time they gave a silver tea for the benefit of the missionary society.

When we arrived in the basement of the church we realized that preparation had been made for us by kind and willing hands. The seats were arranged in a square, permitting a pleasant and congenial grouping of guests. After an exchange of social greetings and dropping the silver in the bowl in center of the room, music was furnished for the afternoon by Mrs. Paul Shirley, with piano solo by Jewell Brown. A reading was given by Georgia Ribble. Then we were given a contest of "What our grandmothers missed," which gave us a review of the many modern conveniences for lightening the housewife's daily labors for which we should be duly thankful.

A delightful course was served to the guests in the parlor of the church, and after thanking the hostesses for a most enjoyable time we departed hoping that some one had received an inspiration and we would be permitted to come to another such occasion soon.—Reporter.

Buying and Shipping of Baby Chicks

By F. W. Kazmeier, Poultry Expert, Universal Mills, Fort Worth, Texas. (All Rights Reserved)

In the springtime many people develop the chicken fever, and when they do their thoughts naturally follow the possibility of raising baby chicks. This is no doubt the most fascinating part of the poultry business. We believe that the best way of getting a start is by buying baby chicks from some reliable hatchery. In Texas we find many people that are every day realizing that the purchasing of baby chicks is one of the most satisfactory ways of getting a start in the poultry business. It is not only the cheapest but also the quickest way. For these reasons the baby chick business in Texas is growing by leaps and bounds. Today several million baby chicks are shipped through the mails every year. The business is still only in its infancy, but it is growing rapidly, and will soon be a great industry.

It is true that the shipping of baby chicks is a comparatively new business. For this reason many people still are of the opinion that the little chicks are too delicate and weak to stand shipment very well. This is a very wrong impression, because it is a fact that the baby chick will actually stand safely than eggs-for-hatching. There is no question about this statement. From experience, we have found baby chicks to ship much better than eggs. The baby chick seems to be able to stand the handling and conditions in transit better than the egg.

Public Gradually Being Educated

At the present time the public as a whole are of the opinion that baby chicks cannot be shipped safely. This is incorrect information. It has actually been proven that baby chicks ship better than eggs-for-hatching. Every shipment of baby chicks is an advertisement and demonstration in the community it is shipped into. There are thousands of people that in the future will buy baby chicks instead of eggs-for-hatching. The American people as a rule fall for convenience. For that reason the baby chick business has a great future as soon as it becomes more widely known that the baby chicks can safely be shipped any distance they can travel in 48 hours. Many chicks have been shipped 3000 miles and more and arrived in fine shape. We know of one baby chick shipper that the past year shipped over 100,000 baby chicks with less than a 2 per cent loss.

J. H. Self & Sons

Quality Baby Chicks

The regrettable part of the baby chicks is that since the popularity of shipping baby chicks many unscrupulous dealers and hatchers have made their appearance. This is only like every other business, in which case some unscrupulous always take advantage to cash in at the public's expense. It stands to reason that cheap chicks must come from cheap stock and eggs and be produced the cheapest way. Those selling ten cent chicks and cheaper cannot be producing quality chicks and remain in business. When every one knows that it takes almost two eggs to make a chick, and that the cost of operation, fuel, labor, boxes, parcel post charges, interest on the investment, etc., must be considered, and that the cheap chick producers must make up the difference somewhere, and that generally is in the eggs. Some hatcheries that are producing so-called cheap chicks make a practice of buying common market eggs and trust to culling the off-colored chicks at hatching time so they will not look so bad on arrival, only later to develop into regular scrub or mixed chickens. This injures the baby chick business to a great extent.

In buying chicks for foundation stock, it pays to buy the best you can get. It always pays to start where the other fellow left off. This you cannot do by buying cheap chicks or cheap eggs and will most certainly develop into cheap hens and males. Cheap stock is a money losing proposition. Cheap chicks as a rule are not hatched properly and hence will not do as well as large numbers will die. Cheap chicks eat just as much and cost as much to raise as quality chicks. It pays to buy the very best. It is a money losing business to buy cheap chicks. There is no question but that this is true.

Cheap Chickens Are Expensive

It is human nature to buy cheap stuff and for that reason many people buy cheap baby chicks. They do not stop to consider the fact that cheap chicks are cheap and will only develop into cheap mature stock. We can illustrate that better in this way: One hundred dollars invested in baby chicks will return more net profit if invested in 400 chicks from well-bred breeding stock, than invested in 1000 chicks of unknown and inferior parent breeding stock. You might raise twice as many, which we doubt, which at best would require a greater expenditure for feed, labor and all

KIMSEY & KLEPPER, Owners and Publishers

Crowell, Texas, February 2, 1923

Trouble is not half so apt to come if you don't worry over it.

Most men boss themselves until they get married. Then they have help.

If German marks keep going down they will soon be too worthless to bale.

The pessimist never expects things to be done which he knows ought to be and never has a plausible suggestion as to how they should be done.

The fellow who does not have some other young guy to stand up with him when he is married avoids the sting of the newspaper's speaking of the other one as the "best man."

Easy success at anything is not worth much. It's the mastering of difficult problems that makes it appreciated.

The rains have come in time to save the wheat crop and now all lines of business should begin to pick up. West Texas sometimes tries one's patience with its protracted drouths, but he who waits receives a reward.

Bring your poultry to the show Monday and Tuesday. Compare with the other fellow and if he has better stuff than you take some of it home with you. Dispose of the rest next year you'll have what the other fellow wants.

There are 600 farms in Foard County. Suppose each possessed 150 laying hens. The revenue would be at least 25c for every dozen of eggs and the aggregate should be 3,000 dozen daily, or $750. Foard County can easily become Texas' banner poultry county if the industry is given the proper attention.

Crowell at one time had a well organized bunch of boy scouts. It was a fine thing for the boys. It gave them training and discipline that nothing else could do. Here lies an opportunity for some enthusiastic leader who would like to do a work among the boys that would be a blessing to them.

Perhaps each of us can point out something that is wrong with the town. Every fault ought to be corrected, but how is it going to be done? Suppose we start correcting them in our own lives and see what effect it will have on the town. Faulty towns are made so by people finding faults with the other fellow. They are improved by our finding them at our own door.

Accustomed boosting of the klan activities in the columns of a number of Texas country sheets was conspicuously absent last week. Glad to note this. The order will find thriving on the publicity it must now get from all quarters a rather difficult proposition. The time is about here when one will not print the word "klan" without politely asking the pardon of the reader.

Promoter Powell, who is to build a railroad from Tucumcari to Fort Worth is now under fire by towns that want to know whether he is representing the Frisco or the Santa Fe. The man has been traveling over the country for some time, and he and his party have been spending too much money getting up data not to have a big company behind them. Powell meanwhile is keeping confidentially mum.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

It may be that he represents neither the Santa Fe nor the Frisco. He would get enthusiastic support if he would announce that he represents one of these companies. As it is many people are waiting for Mr. Powell to do the boosting until they know what he has to offer them. We shall be glad to know that some strong company is behind the project and that it will be built as first announced by Mr. Powell.

Talk about intolerance! We don't burn people any longer for differing with us in their religious beliefs but

In good society a discussion of politics and religion is still tabu because it is likely to bring on a row at any time. Discussing these two subjects, especially religion, may make people mad but they hardly ever convince anyone. The funny part of it is that among the worst proselytizers and nuisances are the so-called freethinkers, who are if anything more intolerant of the opinions of their neighbors than any. Why can't people let one another alone? There are several roads leading to Heaven, and that each mortal should select the way that suits him best. If he does not believe there is a Heaven, his wanderings become aimless, and he should be an object of pity.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

We accept almost wholly the above paragraph, but should like to have pointed out the "several roads leading to Heaven."

Five-Year-Old Child Scalded to Death

Plainview, Texas, Jan. 28.—Roger Jones, 5-year-old child, was scalded to death Saturday when he fell into a pot of boiling water being used in connection with hog killing at the farm home of his father, Ellis Jones, living near Olton.

Roger and other children were playing tag when the boy stumbled and fell backward into the pot. He was pulled out, but not until he had been badly burned. He was taken to a hospital in Plainview, thirty miles away, where he died soon afterward.

The child's father and farm hands sustained painful burns in removing him from the boiling water.

Wichita Woman Convicted of Murder

Wichita Falls, Texas, Jan. 28.—Mrs. Ida Bell, charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of G. A. DeMoss at Electra on Sept. 27 last, was found guilty by a jury in the Tarrant County Court here at noon Sunday. The case had been in the hands of the jury since 6:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. She was sentenced to serve five years in the State penitentiary.

Mrs. Bell is the first woman to be convicted on a charge of murder in Wichita County.

Mrs. Bell was charged with having shot and killed DeMoss on the porch of the Electra Hotel, and in the trial, which began last Thursday morning, the State contended that jealousy had prompted the killing. The defense was that she shot in self-defense. Mrs. Bell testified that DeMoss had attacked her in her room a few nights before the killing and that he had threatened to kill her.

EARLY DAYS OF RAILROADING

Vallandigham Writes of Some of the Primitive Methods of New Means of Transportation.

Edward Noble Vallandigham, in his book, "Delaware and the Eastern Shore," gives an interesting sidelight on railroading in 1833. In a chapter dealing with transportation between the Delaware river and the Chesapeake bay, he says, according to the Indianapolis News: "Steamboats soon replaced the sailing packets, but it was not until 1833, after years of legislation in both states, that the New Castle & Frenchtown railroad, traces of which still show in green bits of embankment, improved the land route. A primitive locomotive engine, imported from England, was with difficulty tinkered into going order to draw tiny coaches on the rails of strap iron, pegged to wooden sleepers, which in turn were pegged to stones set deep in the ground. The speed of ten miles an hour was held to be perilous. Baskets hoisted on tall poles notified the line ahead that the train was coming. From time to time train hands, detecting a rail with end turned up where a spike had loosened, got down and secured the threatening 'snake head.' According to the original charter the rate for passengers was 3 cents a mile, a tariff later raised to 10 cents because the cost of building and maintaining the line had been underestimated. Each passenger could carry 100 pounds of baggage free of charge."

Scourge Known as "Black Death." The name "Black Death" was given to the epidemic that devastated Asia and Europe in the Fourteenth century. It was so called from the black spots that appeared upon the skin at the time of death, and was probably a highly malignant form of typhus fever. The scourge ravaged China in 1333-1347 and carried off 13,000,000 of its inhabitants, and 24,000,000 in other parts of Asia.

The Black Death first appeared in Europe in 1342, but it was not until August, 1348, that it reached England. In London 100,000 persons died of it, and in Norwich over 60,000. It is estimated that the victims of this one visitation numbered from one-third to one-half of the entire population of England, which, at that time was about 5,000,000. The Black Death reappeared in Europe in 1360, 1373 and 1382. It is said to have carried off in all its visitations more than 30,000,000 Europeans.

Lee Highway to Be Marked

Lee Highway Association has arranged with Rand McNally Company, Chicago, for the marking of Lee Highway between Washington, D. C., and San Diego, Cal. This will be the first southern transcontinental to be sign-posted.

The marking design is in the form of a shield on which the name Lee is displayed, the shield being that of the coat-of-arms of the Lee family. The colors are blue and gray. The United Daughters of the Confederacy of Columbus, Mississippi, in strewing the graves of the Confederates with flowers decorated the graves of the Union soldiers also. This inspired one of the classic poems of the English language, "The Blue and the Gray." Lee Highway Association is contributing to the national unity in that all its work is conducted on a national basis.

Arrangements have been completed, also, for the placing of permanent markers, these being of reinforced concrete, the posts being nine feet in length, over six feet being above ground. The marker on the post is the same design as the pole marking. It is of concrete, the colors being fast colors produced by mixing of the pigment with marble dust.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Awbrey, the latter part of last week for their home in Bowie after two weeks' visit with the latter's sister, Mrs. Barn Martin, who lives on Peace River. The two families visited Mrs. and Mrs. C. E. Anderson and family at Gasoline, Texas, a few days last week.

Frank Cates and family are here from New Mexico, having arrived about a week ago. They will be here for a few days. Frank says his country has been very dry. They have had one of the warmest winters in the history of that country, according to stories told by old timers.

H. K. Edwards and B. W. Self left Wednesday for Dallas and St. Louis markets to buy their spring merchandise. They went in cars to Mineral Wells and were accompanied to that place by Mrs. Edwards and small son and Mrs. J. C. Self who will stay in Mineral Wells for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Womack went to Quannah with their little son, Stanley, to consult Dr. Hanna relative to his hearing. They had discovered recently that he was hard of hearing. According to the doctor's diagnosis of the child's trouble his hearing has become effected on account of colds, but it is thought that treatment at this time and removal of his adenoid later will correct the trouble.

We refer to our Poultry Show February 5th and 6th. This show will be an agreeable surprise to every one who sees it.

The Poultry business in Foard County is a lot bigger than most people realize, and rightfully so.

Many a good farmwife around Crowell has made more from the poultry on the place than the old man has on the whole farm.

You Will Want Your Fordson Tractor Early

Everything points to the greatest shortage of Ford products this year that has ever existed.

Never before has the demand been so great.

You will want a Fordson Tractor early—here is one product you cannot wait for—when the weather opens up you will need it.

You will want it for plowing, seeding, cultivating—and all your other work. Already it has proved the greatest help to profitable farming that has ever been offered to you. And at $395 f. o. b. Detroit, the price is so low that you lose money every day you are without a Fordson. To get delivery you must order early.

There are no reserve stocks among our dealers—our production capacity great as it is, will not enable us to build up a reserve.

It must be a case of "first come, first served" and the only way in which you can protect yourself is to list your order with a Ford dealer immediately.

By taking advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery, you will be assured of having your Fordson when you need it.

Resolutions

Whereas: The executive board of the Foard County Farm Bureau and Cotton Association realizes its great loss due to the death of our County President, James B. Rasberry, who was always willing to do more than his part of the work and expense in the service for others, who was always fair and considerate, and could be relied upon for good sound judgment and counsel, and at the time of his death he was engaged upon an errand for others trying to better agricultural conditions, when perhaps, physically, he was unable to attend to business and do justice to himself, which only tends to reveal that unselfish character which he had and which we had all learned to love and admire.

Therefore Be It Resolved: That we extend our sincerest sympathy to his bereaved family and relatives.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be mailed to each of the relatives, also to the Farm Bureau News and the Foard County News.

Adopted by Executive Committee of the Foard County Farm Bureau and Cotton Association at Crowell, Texas, this 25th day of January, 1923.

Making Men of Boys

When General Baden-Powell started the Boy Scout movement he was quietly ridiculed by many incredulous people.

Today he is regarded as a benefactor of the human race.

Every one knows that you can take a weakling, put him in the army and keep him there for a few years, and he will come out a reasonably strong and healthy man. It is the rigid and systematic military training that does it.

The training accorded the Boy Scouts is much along the lines of that pursued in the army, with sufficient variation to appeal to the juvenile mind.

FINDS ANCIENT "PIPE SHRINE"

Dr. Fewkes Uncovers Ceremonial Temple on the Plains of Colorado.

FILLED WITH TOBACCO PIPES

What Were Supposed to Be Mounds Are Found to Be in Reality Mouldering Heaps of Fallen Houses and Temples.

Washington.—Dr. J. Walter Fewkes, chief of the bureau of American ethnology, Smithsonian institution, who returned recently from archaeological field work on the Mesa Verde national park, Colorado, reports the unexpected unearthing of a prehistoric ruin to which he has given the name "Pipe Shrine House." The name is the result of a large number of tobacco pipes found scattered in a circular shrine just as they had been thrown there during ceremonial rites untold centuries ago.

Mesa Verde park was reserved from settlement some years ago by congress on account of the numerous cliff dwellings in its vicinity, but later it was discovered that there were as many pueblos on the open top of the mesa as in the cliffs. These have fared badly and are now reduced to mounds without walls above ground.

Find Ancient Building.

For some years Doctor Fewkes has been active in unearthing and clearing out these souvenirs, and it has been through his efforts, mainly, that the ruins have been preserved. Unearthing several of the mounds that were taken to be natural formations, it was found that they were in reality the mouldering heaps of fallen houses and temples.

Last May Doctor Fewkes undertook excavation of a mound in the neighborhood of what is known to many motor tourists as Mummy lake. The results of his excavations were interesting.

Out of the mound emerged a rectangular building, 70 feet square and one story high, accurately oriented to the cardinal points of the compass, with a circular tower formerly 15 to 20 feet high, like a church steeple, midway in the western wall. This tower is supposed to have been for observation, and, as it is very important for an agricultural people to determine the seasons of the year, it was probably by watching the sun as it rose or set that they determined the time for planting.

A Ceremonial Lodge.

In the middle of this building was found a circular room 20 feet deep and about the same in diameter, in which were found more than a dozen clay pipes, numerous stone knives, pottery, idols and other objects. Pipes of this kind never have been found on the Mesa Verde, and as all indications point to the belief that after the rite of smoking they were thrown into the shrine, the ruins were called Pipe Shrine house.

A few feet south of the building which was not a habitation, but specialized for ceremonies, there is a square room or shrine dedicated to the mountain lion, a stone image of which was found surrounded by water-worn and other strangely formed stones. A similar shrine is found on the northeast corner of Pipe Shrine house, in which, among other objects, was a small iron meteorite and a slab of stone on which is depicted a symbol of the sun.

The cemeteries of the pueblos of the Mesa Verde are situated near their southeast corner, and, while the burials in them have as a rule been removed by vandals, several interments were found near Pipe Shrine house. One of these was left without moving a single bone and an inclosure with a weather-proof roof was erected over it, so that a visitor can view a skeleton more than 500 years old with food bowls and other pieces of pottery just as they were when left by relatives.

This is said to be the first time car has been taken to preserve for inspection a pre-Columbian skeleton of an Indian in his own cemetery.

Stock tubs, barrels, cisterns, flues and all kinds of tin and pipe work.—T. L. Hayes.

At the Methodist Church

Rev. W. H. Terry, Sunday School Field Secretary for the Northwest Texas Conference, is coming to spend a week with us beginning the 19th of February. He will review with us at the evening hours of the week days, the first unit of the Teachers' Training Course, "The Pupil." The books have been ordered and will be here by Sunday. On Sunday he will give us two public sermon-lectures on the general subject of "The Sunday School as a Field for Religious Education."

Had another good day Sunday. We are always glad to see you at the church. Come again. The pastor will preach both morning and evening. We will hold a session of the church conference at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I hope every member of the church will be there.

Our prayer meetings are growing in interest and attendance. Next Wednesday evening we will have for our subject, "Some Notable Prayer Meetings," some of which will be given from the Bible and some from our own experience. If you were ever in a really great prayermeeting, come and tell us about it. A message and a welcome awaits you at the Methodist church.

This is the Stove Polish YOU Should Use

It's different from others because more care is taken in the making and the materials used are of higher grade.

Black Silk Stove Polish

Makes a brilliant, silky polish that does not rub off or dust off, and the shine lasts four times as long as ordinary stove polish. Used on sample stoves and sold by hardware and grocery dealers.

All we ask is a trial. Use on your cook stove, your parlor stove or range. If you don't find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. Insist on Black Silk Stove Polish. Made in liquid or paste—no quality.

Black Silk Stove Polish Works Starting, Shining

Use Black Silk Air-Drying Iron Remover on grates, registers, stove-tops—Prevents rusting. Use Black Silk Metal Polish for silver, metal or brass. It has no equal for metal maintenance.

Buying and Shipping Baby Chicks

other expenses. The difference could be illustrated in another way, and that is that the high grade chicks would develop into pullets that would average 140 eggs or better per pullet per year. From the low grade chicks the pullets would average to lay only about half as many or about 70 eggs per hen per year. The result of the $100.00 investment would stand something as follows: In the case of the 400 quality chicks you would raise about 320, of these you would have about 150 pullets capable of producing at least 140 eggs or better each in a year. In the case of the 1000 cheap chicks of low grade and unknown parentage you would raise about 800, of these you would have about 300 to 350 pullets, capable of producing 70 eggs per pullet in a year. The 350 pullets would consume more than twice as much feed as the 150 high grade pullets and lay only about 24,500 eggs, while the 150 pullets averaging 140 eggs would produce almost as many eggs or about 21,000 eggs, at about one-half the cost. In the final wind-up the cheap pullets would actually be losing money for the owner, while the high grade pullets would be returning a profit of about 50 per cent to the owner.

Chicks Are Easily Shipped

Many people are afraid to invest in baby chicks because they fear that they cannot be shipped safely. This is very rapidly being proven to be untrue. More and more baby chicks are being shipped each year. Baby chicks or day old chicks as they are often called travel much better than eggs-for-hatching. Their occasional "peep-peep" appears to be a pass word or appeal to the mail clerks and express handlers.

Baby chicks can safely be shipped in even the closet weather. Thousands are shipped each year in Texas during the months of January and February. In fact it is more satisfactory to ship in cold weather than in very hot weather. We can pack chicks so they can keep warm, but it is a problem to pack them so they will not get over-heated in very hot weather. The secret of shipping baby chicks successfully is first to hatch them right, and next to pack them. It takes an expert to do both successfully.

They can be shipped any distance they can travel in 48 hours by express, or train, or auto truck. This is because of the fact that the chicks should not be fed the first 48 hours due to the fact that the last thing a chick does before emerging from the shell is to absorb the entire yolk or yellow into its abdomen, which nourishes the chick completely the first two or three days. Chicks should never be fed during transit.

The chicks are shipped in heavy card board boxes properly ventilated. In these boxes they keep sufficiently warm in the coldest weather. Packed in these low boxes they create enough animal heat in the boxes to keep warm. A little litter is placed on the bottom of the boxes to give the little fellows a foot hold and also to keep them warm.

How Shipped

It has been found that shipping chicks by parcel post is more satisfactory than shipping by express. Where the chicks are shipped by parcel post they are delivered to the very door by the rural carriers in perfect condition. Shipping by parcel post is also the cheapest and perhaps the quickest, or at least is the quickest to get delivered after reaching the destination, especially in the case of shipping to a destination in the country. Chicks shipped by parcel post of course, travel outside the mail bag. They may also be shipped insured. Insuring them does not guarantee live delivery, but it does guarantee safe delivery of the package. If package is damaged you can collect damage, also if package is lost. If package arrives in good shape and the chicks are dead the postal department will refund nothing. All it guarantees to do is to deliver the package or container in good condition. For this reason we advise buying baby chicks from producers that protect the buyer by guaranteeing 100 per cent full count and live delivery.

The Early Chicks Most Profitable

In this article we have not the space to stress the importance of early chicks. It is a fact that early chicks are worth three or four late hatched chicks. Early chicks come from the best layers. They are healthier and stronger, easier to raise, develop into the best layers, and the surplus cockers can be sold profitably as broilers. It pays to raise early chicks. Get a lot of them out in January, February and March.

Baby chicks hatched under the most favorable conditions, by the best of machines and expert operators most certainly are stronger and easier to raise than eggs shipped many miles, placed in a cheap machine and operated by an inexperienced person, more of an experiment than as experience. A chick properly hatched is more than half raised.

Another Kind of Club

The entrance of women into politics has had a beneficial effect upon the country, but it has not gone far enough.

Going to the polls and voting at election time does not constitute the entire duty of the woman in politics. Her first and prime object should be the selection of the best people available in the primaries, in order that the candidates may be of such calibre and standing that the people will be assured competent and honest officials, regardless of which party wins. There is no better way of doing this than by forming women's clubs for the investigation and discussion of the merits of the various people who seek a place on the party ticket.

The past record and history of every person who seeks public office should be carefully scrutinized, and we know of no one who is better fitted to pass judgment upon a man's past than are the women who have benefited or suffered from his acts. Women invariably judge a man from the standpoint of right and wrong and justice. Too many men are content to consider only that of policy and political expediency.

IF SICK, BILIOUS! START YOUR LIVER

Don't Take Calomel! "Dodson's Liver Tone" Acts Better and Doesn't Gripe, Salivate or Make You Sick—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Read Guarantee

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

LAST OF RINGGOLD CAVALRY

Adam Wickerham, aged ninety-one, of Monongahela, Pa., is the only survivor of the original Ringgold cavalry battalion, the first volunteer mounted troops mustered into the United States service at the opening of the Civil war. The famous troop was mustered in on June 6, 1861, ten days ahead of any other cavalry unit in the country. Before entering the United States service it was known as the Ringgold cavalry, then it became Company A, Twenty-second Volunteer Pennsylvania cavalry. Mr. Wickerham's grandson, Lt. Harold Wickerham of Company A, One Hundred and Tenth United States Infantry, received the D. S. C. for bravery on the battlefields of France. He died after returning home as the result of overseas service.

TABBY ROUTED BY BASS NOTE

Cat Failing to Appreciate Sermon Takes Refuge in Organ and Interrupts Good Discourse.

Danville, Pa.—Rev. A. E. Mackle of St. Paul's M. E. church was delivering a mighty good sermon. He was working toward the climax. The subject was, "The Least in the Kingdom." "And, brothers and sisters, I say unto you—" he thundered, but what he had to say unto the brethren was drowned by an unholy M-E-O-W that seemed to issue from the pipe organ. Rev. Mr. Mackle paused, mopped his brow, then proceeded. A few minutes later, just as the parson was getting warmed up, the howl was heard again. Then the reverend speaker announced: "Either that cat must go or I shall dismiss the congregation." The threat had no effect. But the organist had better effect when she sonned the deepest bass note of the organ. It was fortissimo all right. The organist put all the wind at her command in that note.

With a frightened howl a cat scampered out of the organ and jumped through the nearest window. "And, my brothers and sisters, I say unto you—" Rev. Mr. Mackle went on.

ENGLISH LADS FLOCK TO ETON

College Raises Requirements but Has Record Waiting List—Enter Names When Born.

London.—Eton college will open this year with 1,139 pupils, the largest number which has been allowed to attend at one time. Last term 1,124 pupils were enrolled, which is nearly double the number allowed in pre-war days.

During the last ten years the numbers applying for admittance to Eton have been so great that the faculty took steps to increase the entrance requirements and the cost of tuition, but these measures failed to bring about the desired results. The college still has a long waiting list of applicants. The practice is to enter a boy as soon as he is born, to make sure of his gaining admittance at the qualifying age.

BIRTHS DROP OFF IN GERMANY

Figures for First Quarter of 1922 Show Decrease; Death Rate is Higher.

Berlin.—The number of marriages and births in Germany for the first quarter of 1922 show a large decrease over the same period for 1921.

According to statistics just issued, the number of marriages during these three months was 8.4 per thousand persons, as against 10.4 for last year. The number of births was 25.6, as compared to 27.7, and the number of deaths was 18.5, as against 15.6 in 1921.

The corresponding quarter for the year 1913 showed marriages were 8.2, births 28.8 and deaths 16.8.

Sawed Off Limb He Sat On, but Will Recover

According to a report on file at police headquarters in Detroit, Mich., the man who climbed out on the limb of a tree and sawed the limb off behind him is not a cartoonist's joke but a reality. Harry Kull, twenty-one-year-old employee of the department of parks, is in a hospital as the result of sawing off a limb while sitting on it. The injuries he suffered in the fall are not serious.

Extension Is Seen in Frisco Merger

Stamford, Texas, Jan. 28.—Efforts of the Frisco system to absorb the Quanah, Acme & Pacific Railway, running from Quanah to Roaring Springs, is regarded by West Texas Chamber of Commerce officials here as presaging the early extension of the line to Roswell, N. M., or at least to some connection with the Santa Fe on the Plains.

The Quanah, Acme & Pacific Railroad's original plans were to extend to Roswell, according to reports received here. Sam Lazarus, owner and president of the line, is a large stockholder in the Frisco lines. He is also financially interested in cement and plaster mills in New Mexico along the route of the proposed extension.

Another angle seen in the invasion of the Plains by the Frisco is an end of Santa Fe domination and monopoly of that great territory. Under the proposed zone grouping plan of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Frisco lines would be in a group different and distinct from that in which the Santa Fe would be dominant. It is said that the Frisco has asked the State Legislature for permission to make the absorption as early as possible so that it may proceed with its plan of extension before the grouping and zoning system is put into effect.

It is known that Roswell has a standing bonus of $200,000 for the first east-and-west railroad which is built into that place. Many towns along the proposed route would be glad to aid in that line, it is said.

Breakfast Foods in the Pie-Belt.

"What kinds of breakfast food have you?" the dyspeptic inquired of the waitress at the Klinkerville inn, who stood before him with her arms akimbo.

"We've got all the reg'lar kinds," said the waitress, who was a Klinkerville girl; 'ham an' eggs, steak, brook trout, doughnuts an' apple pie. You can have 'em all, if you like, an' a cup of coffee an' griddle-cakes. We calculate to charge enough so folks can eat all they want."—Philadelphia Ledger.

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS

"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

Even if cross, feverish, bilious, constipated or full of cold, children love the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." A teaspoonful never fails to clean the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the souring food and nasty bile out of the stomach and bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.
