C. H. S. Baseball Team in Tie with Archer City

The Crowell High School baseball team went into a tie with Archer City for first place in the district here last Friday afternoon when it defeated the Archer City team 8 to 7 in a game that went two extra innings. Archer City had handed Crowell its only defeat of the season three weeks ago at Archer City by a 7 to 3 score. Both teams have won six of seven games played thus far this spring.

Crowell's final score came when Floyd Borchardt led off with a double and scored on Jimmy Rasberry's double. Jimmy was pinch-hitting for Marvin Brisco. Both boys hit the ball over Archer City's left fielder. Borchardt received four hits in this contest. Dale Everson hit a home run for Crowell in the first inning and John Bell hit a home run for Archer City in the fifth inning. J. P. Bartley collected three bingles for the Wildcats. Jerry Burney and Bell received two hits each for Archer City.

Clifford Ohr held the Archer City team to seven hits while Crowell was collecting thirteen hits off of Danny Powell, Archer City pitcher. Ohr struck out eleven batters and Powell struck out nine. Powell received sixteen strikeouts last week in a game against Nocona.

Each of these teams has three more games on the regular district schedule. There is a great possibility that there will have to be a post season playoff between them for the district championship. The Wildcats journey to Seymour tomorrow afternoon for another conference game. Crowell defeated this team by a 22 to 4 score earlier in the season.

'THE NORTHERN LIGHTS HAVE SEEN STRANGE SIGHTS'... In the northern Manitoba gold fields where pioneers pushing back the continent's last frontier take blizzards and 50 below temperatures as a matter of course, the simplest everyday tasks take on a staggering enormity. For instance, in order to get water for washday or Saturday night baths, Mrs. Elbert McRae, at Wekusko, Manitoba, has to melt down a batch of snow over an outdoor fire. Hundreds of feet below her, men are pushing drills into the gold ore of Wekusko gold mine.

F. F. A. Judging Team Will Go to A. & M. Friday

The dairy team is Richard Brock, Bruce Benham and Charles Pittillo, with Jack Murphy as alternate. The poultry team is composed of Donald Reynolds, Glenn Jones and James Bice, with H. L. Ayers as alternate.

By defeating Vernon 7 to 6 on Friday night, April 23, and outscoring Thalia 20 to 4 on Tuesday night, April 27, Crowell remained undefeated in Greenbelt Softball League play and moved into undisputed first place in the league.

Forced to come from behind after trailing for six innings, Crowell turned on the power in the local field last Friday night and shaded Vernon by a 7 to 6 score. Once again Gus Russell pitched sterling ball for the locals but had spotty support.

Tuesday night at Thalia the Crowell entree amassed a total of twenty runs while Pitchers Toie and Russell held the Thalia team to four. Big guns in the Crowell attack were R. J. Owens, Bill Bell and Cotton Owens, Duane Capps of Thalia and Bill Bell of Crowell hit home runs.

Rain and Hail Fall in County Saturday Morning

Heavy showers with some hail fell in Foard County Saturday morning. The precipitation measured six-tenths of an inch by the Government gauge at the Crowell State Bank.

The rain in the west and southwest portions of the county was very light and did not benefit the wheat to any extent. In the east and southeast part the rain was enough to be of benefit to the wheat. In the northeast part of the county the wheat crop received damage from hail.

The extensive fields of wheat in the southeast part of the county have suffered less from dry weather than in other parts and is reported to be in good condition and will produce a fair yield without much more rain. Farmers report that the damp, cool winds which prevailed two weeks before the rain was of great benefit to the wheat generally in all sections of the county.

The government issued, the other day, a warning on the oil shortage. Motorists were advised to conserve on gasoline if they didn't wish to find empty service station pumps this summer.

Home owners who burn oil were also asked to conserve, otherwise they may find themselves short of oil next winter. The warnings came from the Interior Department's oil and gas division. Industry leaders are of the opinion that unless consumption is reduced control over distribution will have to be imposed. One plan proposed is that dealers will be allotted a share of fuel oil and gasoline and the turn will allot it to their customers so that each will get a share. If this isn't done it is predicted that many service stations will be closed for at least three days a week, and perhaps more.

It is becoming an accepted plan in this country to put on drives to support various foundations to combat ailments which afflict the race. We believe this is a good thing. It is a splendid way to provide an ample backlog of funds with which to carry on research. Coming each year as these drives do they insure a continuance of the financial support over a long period of time. This makes possible the laying out of a program over a period of years. In research of this kind this is important since there is no way of knowing how long it will require to discover the secret of the cure. Some examples of such foundations already set up are the tuberculosis foundation and the infantile paralysis foundation. All are well on their way and all are being liberally supported through the annual drives and are making splendid progress.

Russia gives the lie to her claim that she wants peace every time she annexes additional territory to her domain. Russia knows that such things lead to war and always have. This thing of a nation claiming to be for peace while at the same time it is committing warlike acts is too obvious to conceal even with lies.

HISTORY

National Maritime Day — May 22: May 22, the date of the sailing of the steamship "Savannah" was designated as National Maritime Day by a resolution adopted by Congress in May 1933. Following the adoption of the resolution President Roosevelt issued a proclamation on May 2, 1933, designating May 22 as National Maritime Day and calling upon the people of the United States to observe the day by displaying the flag at their homes or other suitable places and at all government buildings and grounds. The incident which suggested May 22 as the day to be observed as Maritime Day was the sailing date of the steamship "Savannah," the first steam propelled boat built in this country for transoceanic service. The ship was built for a transoceanic steamship company incorporated by the Georgia legislature in 1818. The construction took place in a shipyard on East River, New York. The building of the boiler, the engine and the paddle wheel was quite an undertaking in those days and called for the best metal fabricators of the time. The ship sailed March 28, 1819, for Savannah harbor, arriving there eight days and fifteen hours after leaving Sandy Hook. The Savannah started its first transoceanic trip on May 22, arriving at Liverpool, June 30. Before returning to Savannah harbor the "Savannah" visited other European countries.

A lot of misguided individuals who are flirting with Communism are going to wake up some day, if that theory of government should succeed, and begin to call for some one to save them from their folly. They are going to discover that while democracy and liberty are fragile things that may be overthrown, once destroyed it requires years on end of effort and sacrifice to restore them. It is always easier to wreck a temple than it is to build one.

When the doctor tells a man he must take a rest it won't do any good to argue with the doctor. Changing his mind, if you could, wouldn't change conditions that make rest imperative. The best thing to do is to decide to make the change that will permit the rest or to decide not to take the rest and accept the consequences.

At a recent meeting of conservationists it was brought out that each year 500,000 acres of land in the United States is ruined by erosion. Wisconsin has lost 41.6 per cent of her top soil, and one-fourth of the United States has been reduced to semi-desert. Russia sold Alaska to the U. S. for $7,200,000.

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

While I like to feel that I am an optimist and am always able to see the silver lining to a cloud, if it has a silver lining, I confess to being uneasy and disturbed because of present economic conditions here at home. As to world conditions I think every one who is a realist is disturbed — or should be.

But to get back to the home situation, I do not see how we are going to escape a disastrous crack up — a crack up that will be infinitely worse than the crack up in 1929. I feel that we are definitely and surely headed for that very thing — in fact I do not see how we can escape it. Workers of all kinds and classes who have not for years wanted for a dollar are going to find dollars hard to get and fewer and further apart.

30 YEARS AGO IN THE NEWS

News items below were taken from the issue of the Foard County News of April 26, 1918:

Fite Crowell has had the old wooden building on the west corner, south of the square torn away and will erect a new building and put in a filling station.

Ector Roberts was wounded on the battle front in France on April 13, according to an official notice to his mother, Mrs. J. C. Roberts, of Denton.

The draft made on Foard County for six men will be answered by Crutcher Cole, Doyle Kenner, J. W. Orendorph, Sam D. Nelms, Reger Adams and John E. Franklin, (colored). A later call has been made which will be answered by Oscar H. Nelson, Jas. C. Cates, Bert Bain and Roscoe L. Smith.

Andrew Y. Beverly of Crowell and Walter Taylor of Margaret were on the list of soldiers from Officers Training School at Camp Bowie who were recommended for commissions as 2nd lieutenants.

A new girl arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McKown this week.

Miss Winnie Rucker is at home from Petersburg for a few days visit.

Robert Watson has taken charge of the Crowell postoffice.

Miss Essie Thacker will present her piano pupil, Miss Bess Harris, in recital Friday night, May 3.

N. J. Dickerson is at home from Lawton, Okla., and is ill with blood poisoning.

Curtis Ribble and Fred Mitchell came in Sunday from Petrolia.

The regional War Assets Administration office will shift into new quarters during May by moving a few hundred feet into Plant A, of the former North American Aviation plant near Grand Prairie. The relocation next door to the present WAA headquarters in Plant B was declared most satisfactory from the viewpoint of government economy and suitability to some 600 employees, most of whom reside in either Dallas or Fort Worth. The move will be made to clear Plant B for the navy. Plant A is under a navy lease to the Texas Engineering and Manufacturing Company, now engaged in aircraft modification and other work. Both Temco and WAA will occupy the A Plant.

The WAA is looking for a new buyer for the big Continental Motors plant at Garland. The National Equipment Company of Marshall, Texas, previously had contracted to buy the 104 acre installation, but failed to meet the down payment deadline. The factory with its eight additional subsidiary buildings, is described as one of the finest plants still under government ownership. Letter proposals for purchase, accompanied by one percent deposit, will be received by the Grand Prairie office of real property disposal between April 9 and April 29.

Seventy-five buildings of the Childress Army Air Field are not to be included in the airport property to be transferred by WAA to the city of Childress. They will be offered in a public location sale at the field April 21 and 22. The buildings will be sold regardless of priority, enabling purchasers who desire individual structures for their own use to buy them on high bid basis for removal. Catalogs will be available at the Childress location, where the inspection period will continue through April 20.

No punches will be pulled in describing the condition of 40 house trailers soon to be sold by WAA at Houston. The trailers are actually unusable due to deterioration of roofs, sides and flooring, the agency advises. Thirteen are located at the University of Houston, 3801 St. Bernard St., with the others at 3201 Wheeler St., where they may be inspected on April 26. They'll be offered on a high bid basis to World War II veterans from 10 to 11 a.m. April 27, with any remaining going to the general public thereafter.

Continuing its continuous series of public sales of war housing, War Assets will move its traveling crew soon to the Pampa Army Air Field. Approximately 207 surplus buildings at this field will be offered without priority through informal bidding May 4, 5, and 6. Almost every standard type of GI camp building will be included in the sale. The general public is invited to complete inspection by visiting the field between April 22 and May 3, excepting Saturdays and Sundays.

As WAA scurries toward the finish line in its disposal job, a number of small site clearances will place quantities of consumer goods on the market at scattered locations in Texas. Goods discarded for military usage are being assembled now for lot bid sales at Love Field, Dallas and camps near Lubbock. WAA emphasized that the army and navy still has top priority for withdrawal of any materials it may conceivably need. Advance announcement of location sales will be made through the Grand Prairie Customer Service Center.

MEMBERS OF A TEAM

Testifying before the Fact Finding Board appointed by the President to consider the wage dispute between the nation's railroads and three unions of railroad workers, Dr. Jules Backman of New York University pointed out that in recent years, "employees have received substantial increases in pay while the investor has received a relatively smaller return. . . . Largely because of wage increases rates have had to be increased. In other words, the employe has received the lion's share of the benefits from the productivity of the railroad industry, the shippers and passengers, that is to say, the consuming public, have participated in the benefits, whereas the stockholder has received practically none of these gains."

This is clearly an unhealthy situation, and must be considered both in making wage decisions and in reorganizing the railroad rate structure. No industry can exist and progress indefinitely if it cannot earn sufficient profit to make it attractive as an investment—to the people and the institutions which own it, and which have put up the money that made it possible. The Supreme Court has held that a 6 per cent return on the investment is a reasonable figure for regulated public utilities. But railroad earnings have not approached that figure for many years, and have often run at half of it or less.

R. D. Oswalt of Vernon in District Attorney's Race

R. D. Oswalt of Vernon has authorized the News to announce his candidacy for the office of District Attorney for the 46th Judicial District of Texas, subject to action of the Democratic primary in July.

Mr. Oswalt and family lived in Crowell sixteen years, moving to Vernon in 1939. During his residence here he served several terms as county attorney.

While here Tuesday Mr. Oswalt released the following statement in regard to his candidacy: "To the voters of the 46th Judicial District of Texas, I'm taking this means and opportunity in making my announcement for the office of District Attorney for the 46th Judicial District of Texas, which district is composed of Hardeman, Foard and Wilbarger counties.

"I have seriously considered the great responsibility resting upon the person serving in this capacity, but having served as County Attorney in each of the counties comprising the 46th Judicial District, and now serving my third term as County Attorney of Wilbarger County, I believe my close connection with law enforcement agencies for the past several years, and the experience acquired during my tenure in office as County Attorney in each of the counties comprising the 46th Judicial District, should to some extent justify my claim for promotion.

"I don't feel that I am a stranger in your midst. I moved to Hardeman County with my parents in 1906, and have lived continuously in Hardeman, Foard and Wilbarger counties since that time. I received my license to practice law in 1917, and have practiced law continuously since that time.

"Should I be elected, it will be my policy to discharge the duties incumbent upon me, to the very best of my ability, without fear, favor or partiality. It will also be my policy to conduct this campaign upon a high plane in keeping with the dignity of the office, and should I be elected, I will be forever grateful.

"Upon this statement, I earnestly and humbly solicit your support. I hope to see every voter in the district personally, but in the event I should fail, I sincerely hope you will accept this as a personal solicitation of your vote and influence."

The gold stock now owned by the United States totals 23 billion dollars. This is a record high for any nation in history. This represents more than three-fifths of all the world's known supply of monetary gold. During the past year the gold stock increased 2,039 million dollars. Most of the gold now being received is shipped by other countries to pay for American products. These countries do not sell enough of their own goods in this country to get the dollars they need to pay for their purchases here. They make up the difference with gold.

Trying to be funny cost A. K. Linn, a collector for the Mercantile Acceptance Corporation of Fresno, California, $6,704. Linn received the bag of money from the cashier and said with a smile, "This is no good to me I will just throw it in the waste basket." He did, and forgot it. So did every one else until too late to recover it.

VETERANS' QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I have added total disability income coverage to my 20-payment National Service Life Insurance policy. Does the disability coverage continue after my policy is paid up?

A. Yes, provided you have not reached the age of 60. You continue to pay the additional premium for disability protection to the end of the 20-year period when it, too, becomes paid up. All disability income protection ceases when the insured reaches age 60, but payments are continued to those who are totally disabled at the time they reach 60.

Q. I have been discharged from the service for over a year. What is the latest date on which I can enter school or take training under the G-I Bill?

A. You have until July 25, 1951, to start school or training under the provisions of Public Law 346 (G-I Bill), and all schooling or training must be completed by July 25, 1956.

Q. I converted my National Service Life Insurance to 20-payment life. Is it possible to convert this policy once again to a cheaper plan of insurance, such as ordinary life?

A. You may, provided you are able to pass a physical examination, and the effective date of the converted policy is not more than five years ago.

Q. I am the beneficiary of a $10,000 National Service Life Insurance policy. Are the payments I am receiving subject to taxation?

A. No. The payments of National Service Life Insurance are such as wholly exempt from Federal taxation. Except that they must be included as a part of the estate for Federal estate tax purposes.

President Truman has directed the Postoffice Department to issue a special stamp to mark "100 years of progress by the Women of America." It will be a 3-cent stamp. The stamp will be placed on sale at Seneca Falls, New York, where the first women's right convention was held in 1848.

FLYING FARMERETTES

It's a bird. It's Supermouse. It's the Gamble girls.

Yes, right here in CHS we have a pair of flying friends, to wit, Norma and Dorothy Gamble. Norma and Dorothy are two cute juniors. They both have about forty hours flying time. Dorothy and Norma have learned what they know from their father who is a licensed pilot. He has also taught his wife, Ed Gamble, who has about the same flying time as her daughters. The whole family flies strictly for pleasure except for Mr. Gamble, who uses the plane to make quick inspections at his farms near Hereford and Vega.

JONES AND AYERS ENTER REGIONAL TYPING CONTEST

Thursday afternoon at 1:20 two very happy girls — Mary Ray Ayers and Faye Jones, left for Dallas with J. C. Jones, Faye's father, to enter the regional typing contest.

Mary said, "We were scared as could be, but we calmed down and had a good time anyhow." The contest was held at SMU; Mary made a tentative forty-two sidered no good, and the boy is not allowed to marry her. We went swimming between four o'clock and five-thirty when we went to a huge weiner roast on Stewart's Beach. The ocean looked forbidding, but it was wonderful to be in.

Friday morning was again spent in a meeting at the gym hall. Over 1500 girls and sponsors were present. We were told that the Texas Association of the Future Homemakers of America has 10 percent of the total national membership of 217,223 girls.

Friday afternoon we left Galveston going home. We visited the San Jacinto Monument and Battleground. From the top of the monument one can see the Battleship Texas very plainly.

Sunday we traveled all day. The most welcome sight was Ft. Worth which made it seem as if we were almost home. Mrs. Kenner and I took the bus from Vernon to Crowell. I reached Truscott about ten o'clock. We were home at last. Just waiting for school on Monday morning. (Big Joke)

TO PEGGY

The paper was published this week without the aid of typist Peggy Pittillo, who is recovering from an appendicitis operation. We will certainly be glad to see her back at school again when she gets well.

BATTER UP

Monday the third period students were waiting to begin lessons when the assembly bell rang. That was music to their ears. They jumped up, looked happy, and started for the auditorium. Mr. Graves said, "I know this film will be interesting to boys going out for baseball, for it shows the most exciting moments of the world series between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Yankees." It was like having a seat on the sidelines and watching big league baseball. The Yankees won four games out of seven to the great disappointment of "dem Bums" from Brooklyn.

"Do you think Crowell will have boys ready for big league teams any time soon, Mr. Graves?" "Maybe not too soon, but if they keep playing such good ball, CHS may have some professional ball players before too many years." (He said it with a grin).

The Rialto Theater invites Lora Abston and Edna Lee Sandlin to see "Good News" in Technicolor with June Allyson and Peter Lawford May 2 and 3.

THE MIGHTY RED RASBERRY AT THE BAT

There was ease in Boogee's manner as he stepped into his place. There was pride in Boogee's bearing, and a smile upon Boogee's face. And when responding to the cheers, he lightly doffed his hat. No stranger in the crowd could doubt 'twas Boogee Red Raspberry at the bat.

Oh, somewhere hearts are filled with love, for man and boy alike. The band is playing somewhere as the umpire calls two strikes. And somewhere men are laughing and somewhere children shout as the mighty Boogee covered himself with fame when his timely hit won the game.

CROWELL OUTLASTS ARCHER CITY IN A THRILLING EXTRA INNING GAME

Crowell stepped into a tie with Archer City for first place in District 13-A Friday, April 23, when they won by a score of 8 to 7. The game went two extra innings before two doubles brought in the winning run.

Crowell started off fast with five runs in the first inning, including Dale Everson's home run. After this inning it settled down to be a tight pitcher's duel with errors and timely hits resulting in the runs. Crowell rallied in the last of the fifth to take a one run lead. Archer City came back to take a one run lead in the first of the sixth. Crowell stayed in the game by scoring the tying run. The seventh and eighth innings went scoreless, but in the last of the ninth with no one out, Bochardt, whose hard hitting kept Crowell out of trouble, drove a double into left field. Red Raspberry's pinch hitting for Marvin Brisco took two strikes and then hit a line drive over the left fielder's head to knock in the winning run.

Crowell has played seven games, winning six. The next conference game will be Friday at Seymour. Crowell defeated them last time by a score of 21 to 4.

BOX SUPPER

Frilly crepe paper and ribbon plus plenty of imagination made the box supper held Friday night at eight o'clock in the auditorium a success. Girls could hardly keep from smiling when Stovall-Thompson or George Self held a box up as if it were very heavy and called, "What am I bid?"

Rondyn Self's box sold for seven dollars and fifty cents to Vernon Jones. That was the most expensive box of the evening with Joline Lanier's to Jake Autry and Myrtle Bartley's to Jerry Culbertson as close seconds.

Who ate the most? It was probably Marvin Brisco. He bought four boxes. You know he was either very hungry, had a lot of school spirit, or just liked girls.

The contest for most popular boy and girl of CHS culminated at the box supper. Most votes were received by Clifford Ohr and Myra Don Self. Clifford, a junior, is pitcher of the Wildcats and Myra Don, a freshman, is his girl. She is a cute little blonde from Thalia. All popularity entrants were the following: seniors—Jimmie Swan and Marvin Brisco; juniors—Peggy Pittillo and Clifford Ohr; sophomores—Betty Brock and Rouse Todd; freshman—Myra Don Self and Jimmy Raspberry.

The Choral Club, directed by Mrs. W. F. Stotser, sang "Beg Your Pardon," "Now Is the Hour," and "Four Leaf Clover." For an encore they sang "Near You." Seniors made eighty-seven dollars, and Mr. Black said that will be enough to take them to Galveston May 12. Happy day!

SING THE WHILE

Tuesday, April 20, high school students saw something different in the CHS auditorium on visual education.

The Eastern Films made songs seem real and a part of everyday life by letting actors present them as plays.

Irish songs made up the first of the program and an Irish cop, sang "Tiz the Smile of the Irish" while walking his beat and making everyone smile as they sang and danced to the cheerful Irish tune. "East Side, West Side" and "When the Irish Parade," "Who Threw the Overalls in Mrs. Murphy's Chowder," "Take Me Out to the Ball Game," Sidewalks of New York. "In the Good Old Sumner Time." "By the Light of the Silvery Moon." "Wait Til the Grey Shines, Nellie," and "Little Grey Home in the West" were lovely melodies acted out and sung in an inspiring way. Everyone looked as if they had just said "cheese" when they came into the hall.

WILDCAT PURRS

Often we are asked if all the idle chatter appearing in this column is true. Well, now "ain't necessarily so" but next time I report the shattering of a six-year romance, I'm making a contract, containing an agreement with both parties involved that they positively are not to "make up" until after publication of the paper. Almost as unpredictable as young love is this Texas weather. Never again will I commit myself by stating the temperature is at a three mark. Invariable by Thursday there's a blazing sun and should I be so ingenuie as to forecast little scorching sunrays, surely icicles would adorn every window.

The new look is not always so easily recognized—at least we wonder if that was part of it when the senior girls are seen at noon going barefoot?

When "Ham" came home one day last week with a waist fitting sport shirt on, his father amazingly questioned him, "You're not wearing that — pajama top to school, are you?" (I said it wasn't all true, Ham). However the new look is accentuated this week with top honors going to Raymond Carter's car and its inscription should read, "Graduation is something which can be done when you're too old to do anything else."

Afraid you'll have to pay for a corsage or just don't want company, after all Thursday night is the big night!

Neva Lou seems to have received a post card from an admirer last week.

Myrtle had a good time at Thalia over the week-end.

Pat and Bill were seen at the shoot 'em up Saturday night.

Has anyone else noticed the sparkling diamond on the third finger of Jackie Wesley's left hand? We hear the lucky boy is Loyd Shultz. Congratulations, Jackie and Loyd!!

Mr. Black, Rouse Todd, Jean

Gamble, Bob Edwards, Jerry Swann, Jerry Culbertson, Lora Abston, Mary Short, Marvin Brisco, Slim Abston, Virginia Abston, Billy Lynch and Pat Fox were the box supper. They were Myrtle Bartley's house.

Just who all was in the jeep Saturday night in Vernon? Betty, John Nance, Mary Allen and Mary Norman. Beck had a weiner roast at north pocket park after the Saturday night.

Bob Johnson was seen wearing Ruth Slovak Sunday noon.

See ya, The Cat's Tail

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Washing Shirts and Collars Rub the exceptionally dirty spots on shirts and collars before putting into the regular wash. Wash before washing — all articles before they are washed. The holes and tears come worse with washing. This is done. A little time before washing saves much time after washing.

SCRIPTURE: Nehemiah 1-7.
 DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalms 122: 1-9.

Nehemiah Rebuilds Jerusalem

BORN and reared in Persia, Nehemiah appears in the opening scene of his prophecy as cup bearer to King Artaxerxes in the royal palace at Shushan. He was a favorite at court, due, no doubt, to his personality and training, plus a keen desire to serve his people. He obtained a royal order from Artaxerxes, granting him passage to Jerusalem. It was a long and dangerous journey, but Nehemiah travelled not only with letters from the king, but assurance in his heart that he was on the Lord's mission. He was given authority to seek help from other nations. Just how much help he received from other nations is not definitely certified, but we do know that he achieved the high purpose which God had put in his heart. He governed the city wisely for a dozen years, and wrought many notable reforms. Read the first seven chapters of Nehemiah for the complete story. Read also Psalms 122:1-9.

WHEN FRIENDS WORK TOGETHER

Upon arrival in Jerusalem Nehemiah made a tour of the city by night. He was shocked and amazed at the ruins. He called upon the people to come and help rebuild the walls. And they were impressed with the earnestness and sincerity and courage of his call. "So build we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the wall thereof; for the people had a mind to work," Nehemiah 4:3. There is work for everyone who is of a willing mind. There is work in the home. Boys and girls who pitch in and share in the everyday work of the home make glad the hearts of their parents, and at the same time they are learning how to care for their own homes when they grow up.

STRENGTH AND ENCOURAGEMENT

Nehemiah set the people together in families, with tools for work and weapons for defense against the enemy. And in this union of numbers there was both strength and courage. We need today to learn anew this lesson of working together. So often we witness evidence of people pulling against one another. We see it in the home and in the school and in the wider areas of life—in politics and in the clash between capital and labor.

THOSE WHO OPPOSED NEHEMIAH

Our lesson describes not only the courage and wisdom of Nehemiah in getting the Jews to work and work together, but it tells us about those who opposed the rebuilding of Jerusalem. Sanballat was the governor of Samaria, and when he heard that Nehemiah was rebuilding Jerusalem, he put in to defeat him by many schemes of sabotage. He began with ridicule. "What do these feeble Jews?" he scoffingly asked. Ridicule is always one of the weapons of those who would tear down and destroy. Young people will do well to guard themselves against the snare of cynicism. It is a dangerous thing. Sanballat and his cohorts, Tobiah, and certain Arabians and Ammonites and Ashdodites, conspired to hinder Nehemiah in many devious attacks but the people worked and fought, in the name of the Lord.

WHAT MAKES A REAL LEADER?

This is the question which will inevitably arise as we study this lesson. How could one man inspire people to undertake the impossible? First, Nehemiah relied implicitly upon God's help. Second, he threw himself into the task, fearlessly and intelligently. Third, he possessed the quality of inspiring faith and hope in others. These are the qualities that make a real leader, anywhere, any time.

How do we need such leaders today! And the Bible speaks to us in the story of Nehemiah, reminding us how real leaders are produced. Read the 122nd Psalm. Here is the secret of it all—"They shall prosper that love thee." Every difficulty confronting the home, the community, the nation, the world, can be met and mastered, provided we tackle it in the name of the Lord, relying upon his wisdom, his strength, his poise.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

The song "The Old Rugged Cross" opened the regular meeting of the Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service on Monday, April 26, at the church. Mrs. Welch led in prayer preceding the business meeting. With Mrs. Virgil Johnson, the president, in charge, subscriptions to the church magazines were taken and other business of importance transacted. For a devotional, Mrs. Kenneth Halbert read an article by Rev. John W. Holland, D. D. entitled "A Creed We Can Live By." Ten statements, fundamental and Christian and plausible, were given and enlarged upon. "Committed Unto Us" the study book being used, was taken up with Mrs. Luther Marlow, dealing with Chapters 3 and 4, which concerns the pioneer missionaries. "The more the Bible is attacked, the more it is sought," said Mrs. Marlow. Missionary work at home or abroad is not limited to direct evangelistic work. The humble worker in the field, in the home, in village work, can accomplish ends that are beyond the reach of an official missionary. It has been said that you educate a man but, when you educate a woman, you educate a family. Knowing this and realizing the influence a wife and mother has at her command should make us humble and willing to strive to so use our opportunities that the Lord can look with favor upon us. Mrs. Kenneth Halbert will have the fifth chapter at the next meeting on May 3. The chapter's title is "New Ways for a New Day." Mrs. J. M. Barker dismissed the meeting with prayer.

NEW LIBRARY BOOK

"While the Angels Sing," a new book, has recently been added to the Library books. It is a story of the preparation for Christmas of a wholesome, normal New England family. Seen through the keen, kindly eyes and nice heart of Grandma, the revelation of the strength of family ties, the romance of a prodigal son and a spinster neighbor and the distinct likable personalities are all pleasing.

"Good News" Coming to Rialto Screen Sunday and Monday

The gone - but - not - forgotten campus days of the '20's, when students wore raccoon coats instead of worried expressions, carried ukeleles instead of the burdens of a family, and met at the college malt shop instead of a quonset hut, are happily revived in MGM's Technicolor musical jamboree, "Good News," which is bringing good entertainment news to the Rialto screen this week. This new and fast-paced film version of one of Broadway's biggest musical-comedy hits offers a field day of singing, dancing and romantic excitement for a host of toptotch Hollywood and Broadway headliners, among them June Allyson, Peter Lawford, Patricia Marshall, Joan McCracken, Ray McDonald, and Mel Torme.

Set on a typical pre-war, colorful college campus, with its action backgrounded by football excitement, gay proms, and the feminine intimacies of sorority houses, the tongue-in-cheek plot revolves about the battle of two co-eds, June Allyson and Patricia Marshall, for the love of the campus hero and Adonis, Peter Lawford, with a number of subsidiary predicaments involving the other principals. It all provides an amusing and diverting framework for the picture's delightful flock of songs and some of the most original and arresting dance routines yet seen in a film musical.

Former King Mahai of Romania, stated on the occasion of his recent visit to this country, that if the people abroad could see democracy in action here as he had "things would be much better all over. I wish lots of other people abroad would know what's going on in America. This is my first trip and I couldn't see enough. I was impressed by the kind of life and liberty here."
