HOUSE THAT JACQUES BUILT—One veteran's answer to housing problem—he built his own home, and didn't pay a cent for materials! Lucky Jacques Brownson (inset) of Aurora, Ill., was furnished plans, instructions and all materials by the editors of Popular Mechanics Magazine to help them prove a pet project—that any man who can build a table lamp or a bunk-bed can build his own house if given simple step-by-step directions. Poppies Will Go On Sale May 24th

An appeal to all veterans of World Wars to honor their comrades by wearing a poppy on Poppy Day next Saturday, May 24, was issued today by J. Ford Post of the American Legion. Commander Hardin also asked generous contributions for the welfare of disabled veterans, their families and the orphans of deceased veterans. He said "Let us not forget those comrades of ours whom we left behind in the battle fields in so many parts of the world. We should remember, too, their comrades who did not survive. They are still fighting a grim struggle against wounds and illness in veterans' hospitals. They are the poppies. The contribution we make for the memorial are for them, their families and the orphans of the dead. Let us do our part to help them. I am sure that veterans are an example of generosity to other citizens."

Memorial poppies will be sold throughout the town on Saturday, May 24, at the corner of the new 6x8-ft refrigerator placed in the rear of the market.

Polio to Be Treated at Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation

Gonzales.—Through the co-operation of the members of the Texas State Dental Society, the facilities and program of The Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children are being expanded to render even more comprehensive services to Texas polio victims, President Ross Booth has announced.

The Texas State Dental Society, under the direction of its president, Dr. C. B. Lynn of Austin, is sponsoring the establishment of fully-equipped dental facilities at Texas' comprehensive center for the treatment of Polio.

Individual members of the society and affiliated district societies are raising funds to construct quarters and provide the latest type of equipment for the dental room at the Foundation. In addition, the Society, through its Guadalupe Valley District, is pledged to provide the professional assistance in operating the clinic.

"We feel that this is an important addition to our program of services to Texas polio victims," President Booth commented. "Many of our patients come from families unaccustomed to regular dental service and are in urgent need of dental attention at time of arrival. They remain at the Foundation for several months and often need dental services which, if not given, can retard response to the treatments."

"We are very grateful to the members of the Texas State Dental Society and its members for their contribution of these facilities."

The dental facilities will be located in the new 40-bed, air-conditioned treatment building donated by the citizens of Fort Worth.

Currently under construction at the Foundation's Treatment Center, located adjacent to Gonzales-Palmetto State Park just off Highway 29, are three new buildings representing an investment of approximately a half-million dollars.

Veterans News

More than 6,000,000 of the 14,447,000 World War II veterans have applied to the Veterans Administration for education and training benefits, VA reported this week.

Veterans seeking these benefits by states included: Texas, 228,805; Mississippi, 76,728; and Louisiana, 51,780.

Of the 2,604,000 on-the-job or in educational institutions on April 1, Texas accounted for 154,513; Mississippi for 33,098 and Louisiana for 36,076.

VA estimated that 2,560,000 World War II veterans have been granted certificates of eligibility but have not yet entered training or educational courses for reasons of their own.

Men and women who served in World War II are enrolled in 25,000 colleges and other educational facilities and are taking on-the-job training in 365,000 factories, farms and offices.

Educational facilities being utilized in VA's Dallas Branch Area included 1,534 in Texas; 1,469 in Mississippi, and 887 in Louisiana.

Factories, farms and offices approved for veteran training in the same Southwestern area numbered 31,608 for Texas; 11,233 for Mississippi and 6,666 for Louisiana.

Veterans attending school under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (GI Bill) who plan to continue their education this summer in a different school should apply immediately for a supplemental certificate of eligibility, VA warned this week.

VA said it is necessary that applications be filed with VA well in advance of the end of the spring semester in order to insure receipt of the certificate by the veteran before he enrolls in a different school.

A veteran may obtain an application from the registrar, veterans' co-ordinator, or training officer at the school he is now attending, or from any VA office. Applications should be sent to the VA Regional Office having jurisdiction over the school the veteran is now attending. Veterans cannot be admitted to a new school without the certificate.

Ex-GI Joe thus far has proved to be a good loan risk, according to latest Veterans Administration figures on defaults for loans guaranteed by the Government under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (GI Bill).

As of March 25, VA had approved for guaranty more than 643,000 home loans with a face value of $3,642,000,000 and carrying guarantee commitments of $1,707,000,000.

As of the same date, claims had been made against the guaranty by lenders in only 212 loan cases, and 42 of these subsequently were withdrawn by the claimants. Of the remainder, 135 claims in the net amount of $235,400 have been paid—and this amount will be reduced by further recovery through liquidation of assets.

VA said the small number of current defaults could not be expected to reflect the long-term trend. The loans are made repayable up to 25 years. The contracts have been negotiated since September, 1944, when the program went into effect.

Casualties among veterans who went into business with the aid of GI loans are considerably higher. Of 59,450 such loans totaling $187,000,000, some 960 have resulted in claims. VA has paid 732 for $680,000, also subject to further recovery through liquidation of assets.

VA said business loans are made repayable in much shorter periods of time than real estate loans, therefore a higher rate of defaults during the 2 1/2 years of operation of the GI Bill is to be expected.

Only 26,700 farm loans, had been approved by VA through March 25. Claims had been filed against 68, of which 42 had been paid in the amount of $31,700. Farm loans may be amortized over periods up to 40 years.

On the other side of the ledger, VA said that 12,590 loans of all types had been repaid in full by March 25. These included 7,698 home loans, 3,920 for business and 972 for farms. There aggregate face value was $42,470,000.

How many do you have in your house?

Counting on your fingers is fair. But first, make a quick guess: How many electric motors do your home-work for you? Would you say 3?, 5?—maybe 10?

Now count 'em up. It's easier if you think of them room by room. How about the bedrooms? Electric clocks and shavers each have a motor. So do the fans you use in summer.

A modern kitchen is a gold mine. There's a motor in the electric refrigerator, the food mixer, the ventilating fan. (The list below will remind you of others.) Don't skip any rooms. Even the basement and storeroom may be rich picking.

Finished? How does the count compare with your guess? Most people guess way low. Actually 10 motors per house is common—20 is not unusual!

But, whatever the number, the point is true. We seldom realize how many jobs electricity does for us, because it does them so dependably, regularly and cheaply.

You've helped bring this about by taking advantage of so many electrical opportunities. And the men and women of the business-managed electric companies are always working to bring you better service at lower cost. That's one reason why the price of electricity has gone down and down, while the price of almost everything else has gone up and up.

Here's a Partial List of Electrical Helpers—Each One Operated by an Electric Motor

What We Think (By Frank Dixon)

I was interested, as was everyone, at the effort made by American retailers to bring about a wave of general price reduction in the retail field.

I think the effort is deserving of considerable praise at the present time when the general tendency is to increase prices more and more. I do not feel, however, that the movement will attain a very large degree of success unless it is promptly followed up by a number of other things.

The first thing that should follow is a reduction in prices by wholesalers, a reduction in price by the manufacturers, and either a reduction in wages paid workers or increased production on the part of the workers.

I believe that all elements should join in the effort and work to bring down prices voluntarily before the whole set-up is forced to bring down prices in the natural course of events.

If labor does not accept a reduction or does not increase production then the manufacturer cannot contribute much to the program. He can only go so far until he begins to consume reserves and operating capital.

Finding an answer to the question is much like finding an answer to the question as to which comes first the hen or the egg.

The point is it has to start some place. Some group has to pioneer the movement. In the present situation it seems to be the retailers who have made the

AGRICULTURE in County
(Joe E. Burkett, County Agent)
CANNIBALISM IN CHICKENS AND TURKEYS
Another worry for you poultry raisers may be showing up soon and that's cannibalism. Cannibalism is the name applied to chicks and poult's habit of picking toes, combs, vents, feathers and other parts of the body, and it can spread rapidly in a flock when it gets started.
Ted Martin, Extension poultry husbandman of Texas A. & M. College, says that, just like most all troubles in poultry raising, cannibalism is much easier to prevent than it is to stop after it gets started. Crowding the chicks and poult's is probably the biggest cause of cannibalism, Martin tells us. Other conditions leading to the trouble are too much heat and not enough air in our brooders, poorly constructed nests, as well as not enough nests, unbalanced rations, and other minor causes, most of which can be traced back to these main causes we just named. Giving our flocks plenty of room to eat, drink and lay, and keeping brooders regulated and ventilated for chicks and poult's will do a lot toward preventing cannibalism. Feeding a balanced ration, with the right amount of fiber, vitamins and minerals, is also insurance against the trouble.
If cannibalism has already broken out in your flocks, beak trimming is your best bet. Trim the upper mandible with a knife or better still, an electric de-beaking machine which is on the market now. You can also paint the picks chicks with bone oil, pine tar oil, or a commercial "anti-pick" compound. Then remove from the flock all birds that have been picked, and check for all the things that cause cannibalism and correct them if possible.

Want to know one of the best gifts for Mother? Security! It's the kind of gift which makes every day free from financial worry, and filled with confidence at the ability to meet sudden emergencies or achieve family ambitions. Where do you buy this gift? That's as simple as ABC.
United States Savings Bonds are on sale at any bank or postoffice. For $18.75 you can buy $25 worth of security 10 years hence. What better way is there for you to express your love for mother, than to do something to assure her future happiness.

CATTIFISH BY THE ACRE
Texas farmers have grown cotton by the acre, corn by the acre, beef to the acre of grass, and now it's fish by the acre.
There are more than 100,000 ponds on farms and ranches in the state that are kept for stock water. Every year, more farmers and stockmen are putting more of these ponds into fish production by stocking and fertilizing.
In connection with fertilization, R. E. Callender, specialist in wild life conservation of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, is telling "fishmen" and landowners now that the time has rolled around when the spring application of fertilizer goes into the fish pond. The fertility of the water means just as much to healthy growth of fish as a fertile pasture means to the weight of a beef animal, Callender says.
Various mixtures of fertilizers may be used to promote growth of plants that make fish food. Probably the most common is a mixture of 400 pounds of cottonseed meal and 200 pounds of superphosphate, which makes enough fertilizer to take care of one acre of water for one year. The first application, 300 pounds of the mixture early in the spring, applied broadcast. Second and third applications, 100 pounds each, can be made at four to six weeks intervals.
If you are interested in securing fish for your farm pond, you must first write to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, Austin, Texas, for application blanks. After the application cards are filled in, the card is forwarded to one of the twelve state hatcheries which is located nearest your farm pond. The superintendent of the hatchery then sends out cards as to when he will deliver fish to that section of his district and the time and place he will be at the different towns.
Distribution starts August 1 of each year.

Ivy Poisoning to Appear in Summer
Austin.—With the advent of summer and the ensuing exodus from city to country resorts and picnic spots the annual problem of ivy poisoning is once more making its appearance.
In order that city dwellers may guard against this poisonous plant by instant recognition of it, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following statement: "Poison ivy may be recognized by its leaves and its fruit. Each leaf is divided into three leaflets, the margins of which vary from smooth to more or less notched outlines. The small greenish flowers appear in May or June and the fruits which are the size of a small pea are pale green and poisonous when immature."
The symptoms of ivy poisoning range from slight redness and itching to exaggerated swelling and blisters, accompanied by severe burning sensations. There are all gradations between these extremes. In mild cases the skin is covered by numerous small blisters containing a colorless serum which is not poisonous. The poison cannot spread from broken blisters but pustules may form and infections may result as secondary consequence. Recovery usually occurs in from 10 days to three weeks. Occasionally a persistent skin inflammation follows.
Dr. Cox advised persons planning picnics and out door excursions to learn to recognize ivy and thus be able to avoid it. Prevention is much easier to accomplish, than relief from ivy poisoning.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS
Washing Colored Cotton.—When washing colored cotton dresses for the first time, put about one tablespoon of salt in each quart of water used. Use vinegar in the same proportion in the rinse water. This will keep and brighten the colors.
Steel Wool on Bath Tubs.—The steel wool that you use for kitchen pans will remove obstinate rust or water marks from your bath tub.
Curtains For Windows.—Sprawling designs make a window look shorter and broader, and stripes tend to increase the height and if used in excess give a stiff uncomfortable appearance.

THANKS

We, the Press Club want to thank you, Mr. Klepper, and staff for your co-operation this past year in printing our school paper. Without your help it would have been impossible for us to write, print and enjoy our well-known column. With next year's staff we shall continue to have a good "Wildcat," so here's good luck to you, the press club, and the paper.

SENIOR TRIP

With a shout of joy each and every Senior, class mother and sponsor looked at our bus, which said "Srs. 46-47" Crowell, Texas, and after much shoving and pushing settled down for a nice sixteen hour ride to Galveston. Between bites of our picnic supper, which we ate along the way, could be heard the strains of Mr. Black's jaws working, which continued all the way there and back, either putting in food or yelling at his lady friends along the road. Of course, everyone was very anxious to get to Galveston so with a mad scramble to see who would get the back seat we were on our way again. Through the cigar smoke could be seen lovely scenery, and above the drone of the songs sung by the kids at the front of the bus, could be heard the sweet love words from those at the back. Well, we rode and we rode and we rode, and what do you know—"Cow Town." There we had a stimulating cup of java and were again on the road. Some sang, some slept, some talked, and some just sat (big joke!) but believe me when we got to Houston and saw a sign that said Galveston 40 miles we were all "mighty" happy. With a piece of meat in one hand and an egg in the other we tore out of the Houston cafe and ended up in Galveston about one hour later. After finding our courts, the Maxman to be exact, everyone was on his own. Some went swimming, some shopping and some just went "sight seeing." That night we took in the famous "Midway" and believe it or not the boys were just as scared as the girls on the roller coaster. After a good seafood dinner and a moonlight walk along the beach I'd be happy to have a lunch of kids sent to bed. After sleeping (I'd be an I talking about?) a few hours we were ready to go again. We started the day off with a bang by taking a boat ride along the harbor and seeing all the big ships. Our boat was the "Quarterback," and in spite of the fact that we were drenched from the spray we had fun. We then took a tour to Texas City. Some of the kids took pictures and you can see for yourself how terrible it must have been. When we got back to Galveston we took in another seafood dinner and looked around. Some of the kids got left in town and had to take a bus to the cabins, but it was fun.

About four o'clock everyone went to Stewart's beach to swim and returned with sore feet, sandy hair and blistered backs. Ouch! By this time everyone was so tired they had to drag themselves around but we did manage to ride the roller coaster several dozen times again that night, but by three or four o'clock we hit the hay. With droopy eyes someone looked at the clock to find it was fifteen until eight. Only fifteen minutes to catch the bus. With much cramming and sitting on our suitcases we finally got them closed, only to discover we had left our toothbrushes. Oh, well, such is life. Everyone boarded the bus, put his head on his neighbor's shoulder and dozed. We ate breakfast in Houston, dinner in Huntsville (where we tried to leave the class mothers and the sponsors) and supper in Fort Worth. Getting a last drink of water everyone got back on the bus (say, this is getting monotonous) settled down for the remaining 200 miles from there to the DeLuxe Cafe, where we managed to open our eyes, get off the bus, say bye to our swell driver, mothers, sponsor, and pals, and take home a heart full of wonderful memories about our Senior trip of '47.

MARVIN MYERS

We won't say just how long ago it happened, but a few years back a tall boy with brown hair slowly and painfully went through high school at Munday, Texas.

This boy who liked to hunt and fish for pastime and play basketball for sport grew into a "young" man with his love for hunting, fishing and basketball unchanged.

He went through West Texas State and Texas A. & M., receiving a B. S. degree at each school. And then—it happened! The Navy got our character and kept him two long years!

The ship U. S. S. Wilhoite was the lucky vessel which got to transport our faculty member around on his world-seeing trip.

While Mr. Myers was in the Navy, he acquired the tag "Tex." (Wonder if anyone ever called him Shorty?)

Things he liked in the Navy were calm seas and "liberty." And then the things he disliked were, strangely enough, rough seas and ship duty.

"Tex" Myers, or just plain Myers to the most of us has no hobby and doesn't like music. He is interested in things like the clarinet as if he were Artie Shaw's teacher, and tennis as if he were Tilden himself. After graduation Charles will go to A. & M. at College Station. The youngest girl in the graduating class is La Juan Lenton, who is sixteen also. Virginia Bell will graduate in the summer; she is fifteen. Both these girls have vivacious personalities and are well liked by every one here at CHS. La Juan deserves special recognition for her religious work. She plans to be a missionary.

HAS ANYONE ELSE—

Dreaded final examinations? Gotten sick on shrimp as Louis Pyle did?

Noticed Sharon's suntan since the senior trip?

Wondered how Mr. Black could eat so much?

Wished the rain would stop? Wondered who R. C. took to the dance during the rodeo?

Seen the good looking girls that Larry and Bobby went with at Galveston, especially Larry?

Been fortunate enough to attend the Santa Rosa Roundup?

Wished everyone the best vacation ever?

NUMBER, PLEASE!

Last week Mrs. Herman Biggerstaff, one of our telephone operators gave us a very interesting and helpful talk concerning the use of the telephone. She gave us some very helpful advice which we should all use when using the telephone, and we wish to thank her very much. One of the main pointers which she brought out was the fact that the next time you are going to use the phone and are getting impatient just think about the operator trying to answer 50 calls at once.

THANKS!

We, the Seniors, wish to thank all the mothers who helped make it possible for our picnic supper Thursday evening on our way to Galveston. Though we had to eat at a filling station and between sheets of rain the food prepared for the starving seniors was eaten with great gusto. The food was delicious and there was plenty of it.

P. S.: We also wish to thank the senior class mothers who accompanied us on our trip, also Mr. Black, our sponsor, and Marvin Myers. The Seniors.

WILDCAT PURRS

Well, since we've returned from Senior day and recovered from blistered backs and faces (some of us anyway) maybe we can buckle down to work and at least try to pass our finals. (Try, that is). It seems that a few of us we-tots need the credits if we hope to graduate.

THIS AN' THAT:

We wonder if Charles B. and Billy R. C. ever got around to calling up those gals in Galveston.

What happened to the Borchart-Jones case? Autry seems to have taken over.

Wonder if G. Yocham and E. Brock had fun the other night?

Observed in Galveston Cafe: Louis Pyle and others heading for the nearest cafe exit—too much shrimp? Anyway that's his new tag.

Steadies of the week (or any other time), Rouse T. and Tommie M., Johnny M. and Evie B., Bob E. and Mary Jo S., Joe M. and Janet R.

After worrying about Danny being home all week-end while she was out of town Kathleen found him staying in town just to see her. (Along with several lovely graduation gifts. Lucky gal.)

Presley T. and R. C. S. seem to think Doris C. and Martha J. are plenty o. k.

Pete Moody still wants everyone to know Betty Smith is still his gal.

Seen Sharon H. and M. W. Wagon enjoying each other's company.

LaVerne O. seems to have broken a certain guy's heart, namely Kenneth O. Elizabeth J. makes a good nurse though.

Seen, Marion G. and Bobby Abston, a cute twosome.

Anybody seen Jo Ann M's and Ruth B's turquoise bracelets—pretty.

Seen gazing at Clifford O. Clara J.—That's o. k., Clara, he can take care of himself.

PARTING ITEM:

Don your specs, sharpen your pencils, and start practicing that intelligent look, 'cause final exams are ready to make their appearance.

OUR BELOVED "WEE ONES"

The "mighty mites" of our fair school. Yes, sir! "Kathy" Eddy and Billy Roy Cooper. Mighty likable, mighty nice, and mighty cute (if you'll excuse the somewhat trite adjective "mighty.")

Anyhow we carry our point. Both are seniors, both have blue eyes and blonde hair. No, they are not twins, as one might suspect, but are just the smallest in the class.

Billy Roy is salutatorian, and "Kathy" was Senior Queen for the 56th anniversary celebration; so one might add that both are outstanding students of CHS.

We, at CHS, think our wee ones are a "little bit" of all right, and we know they will always be a success when it comes to making and keeping friends.

YOUNGEST SENIORS

A Thalia lad, Charles Bursley, has the "distinction" of being the youngest senior boy in the class. He is sixteen years of age, since last January 16. (Where were you that night of January 16?) Aghhh! How'd that get in here.

Back to Charles. He is an average student and has a pleasing personality; has black, wavy hair and dark brown eyes. He plays

ONE-ACT PLAY

You have seen much publicity in our interpretation; but still we went on and rehearsed. You know the rest; how we won first place at Wichita Falls, and I am sure, were near the top in Regional finals in Dallas.

We rehearsed almost every night for weeks. At frequent intervals Mr. Charles Ferguson, director of the play, was kind enough to take us to his home and give us sandwiches and coffee. Going over and over the same lines and the same sounds in our interpretation; but still we went on and rehearsed. You know the rest; how we won first place at Wichita Falls, and I am sure, were near the top in Regional finals in Dallas.

In Wichita Falls, Montez Laquey won the award for best actress, and Larry Wood the second place award for actor.

Montez did it again at the Regional finals in Dallas. Second place actress out of all the twenty girls, some of whom had been rehearsing their parts before Montez had begun.

Yes, our play for '47 was a success, and we, the cast: Montez Laquey, Larry Wood, Lou Stanley, Bailey and Norma Lou Stanley shall always remember it as fun, and we shall always be appreciative of Mr. Ferguson, who had so much patience with us.

You would foot the bill!

Look out! There's another big railroad wagedemand headed your way!

The non-operating unions alone—whose members do not actually operate trains—are demanding a flat increase of 20 cents an hour. These demands would cost the railroads of the country five hundred sixty-eight million dollars a year!

Last year these employes had an increase of 18½ cents an hour. This was their third major wage increase since 1939. Their average weekly pay has gone up 75%, as against a cost-of-living rise of 54%.

Since 1939, railroad wage and material costs have gone up more than three times as much as freight rates, and five times as much as passenger fares. That is why in 1946, with the largest peacetime traffic in history, the net income of railroads went down to the equivalent of only 2¼% of the net property investment.

What About 1947?

Even with the recent freight rate increase, preliminary figures indicate that the railroads will make only about the same low return in 1947 as in 1946. This will be because:—the wage increase made in 1946 will be in effect for all of 1947;

—special payroll taxes on railroads have recently been increased;

—and passenger traffic has declined.

Where Would the Money Come From?

We can't pay out what we don't take in. And we are not taking in enough now to meet present costs and to complete the improvements in service that you need and that we want to give you.

You Would Foot the Bill!

GOL IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

Lesson Text—Amos 5:6-15;
21-24.

Memory Selection—Seek good,
and not evil, that ye may live.—
Amos 5:14.

Social justice, though much spoken about in recent times, has been the concern of right thinking men ever since sin entered the world and started man's inhumanity toward man. In the prophet Amos we find the eloquent and plain-spoken voice of one crying out against such conditions almost 800 years before Christ.

This lesson is one which is of utmost importance, because in our present-day struggle with social injustice we have come to assume that it is primarily a political or economic question.

The book of Amos and all other scripture right gets at "the focus of infection," which is sin.
Sin in the heart leads to sinful actions, and these inevitably involve others, and thus bring about social problems.

I. God Is Great and Just (vv.
6-9).

From the little village of Tekoa and out of the wilderness in which he had been a herdsman came Amos, the man of God, to hurl his prophecy of disaster upon the heads of the complacent people of Israel and to take up a lamentation over those in Israel
living in luxury and prosperity.

It was true that the common people were being ground under the heel of cruel oppression, but who cared about the poor as long as they could be squeezed for taxes to support the luxurious comforts and pleasures of the rich?
A prosperity which does not reach the homes of the poor is not a real prosperity at all. When in addition it encourages the "haves"
to oppress the "have-nots" it becomes a grave danger, a real cause for lamentation.

Over against the social sin and sorrow of his day Amos placed the almighty and righteous God. The people were urged to seek him and his righteousness. Would they do it? The answer came quickly.

II. Men Are Small and Wicked
(vv. 10-13).

Thank God that it is not true
of all men, but those of Amos' day (and many are like them in our day) turned away in hatred of the one who dared to rebuke their wickedness.

Sin is always a horrible thing,
but when men who have fallen into sin are responsive to correction and ready to repent and forsake their sin, there is hope. The thing which made Israel's state so serious in the sight of God and of his prophet was that they had only hatred for those who were bold enough to reprove them or to live among them according to God's standards (vv. 10, 13).

"They will endure no criticism have slammed the door in the face of truth. When we get to the place where we cannot endure having our faults pointed out, we are on the way to moral collapse" (Douglas).

III. Men Should Hate Evil (vv.
14, 15).

God loves the sinner, even when he is in his sin. God wants to help him, and so pleads with him to hate the evil enough to forsake it,
and have the good enough to turn
to God in repentance.

God's Word condemns sin, but it also presents a remedy. In Christ we have the perfect, final,
and complete answer to the sin
question. Amos, speaking centuries before Christ, admonished Israel to repent and to turn away from the evil which they had cultivated with such assiduity, and to be equally zealous about doing good, in the hope that "it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious" (v. 15).

How favored we are to be permitted not only to urge people to turn from evil to good, but offer them the One who is the way, the truth, and the life.

Israel did not repent, but in folly depended on their religious ceremonies to satisfy an offended
God. The prophet therefore declares that

IV. God Hates Hypocrisy (vv.
21-24).

God had no pleasure in their religious observances and rites, because they were presented with unrepentant hearts and by hands which were soiled by the oppression of their fellow man.

Mark it well, God has no delight in the attendance upon church services, beautiful though they may be; he does not listen to the sweet strains of sacred music, nor does he accept the rich
"offerings" of those who live in unforgotten sin and who pay for magnificent church buildings and beautiful church services with money gotten by crooked dealings
and social injustice.

God is righteous, and God's Word always cuts right through the hypocrisy of men. Let us heed
the plea of Amos, that righteousness should run through our personal and national life "as a mighty stream," and then we shall be ready both as individuals and as a people to worship him aright.

Table Grace

A recent Gallup poll reveals that more than four out of every ten families in the United States follow the practice of saying grace before meals. However, a generation ago six families in ten gave thanks to God, aloud, before meals.

The Scriptures contain numerous admonitions to give thanks to God, the strongest one being found in Ephesians 5:20, "Giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."

But when we think of God's greatness, we sometimes wonder if it makes any difference to Him whether we give thanks at the table or not. It seems such an insignificant thing.

Then comes the moment when we must see God in all his tenderness, when we must realize that everything, no matter how inconsequential, makes an impression on Him.

We have been created to give glory to God. Thus we feel good when we thank Him for such seemingly commonplace things as our daily meals. We feel that we are acting in harmony with His plans and purposes for our lives.
Nothing is so small and of so little importance that God does not expect us to thank Him for it. For the little things of life are also ordained of God.

"Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Cor.
10:31). Even the less profound things of life like eating and drinking are important in God's sight, for he experienced them as the Son of God, and he said that "the disciple is not above his master."

Truly Jesus is our model. For we find in the study of his life
that his manner of returning thanks at the simplest meal was so noticeable that two of his disciples recognized him by this attitude of his resurrection.

As we reflect upon the wondrous goodness of God toward us on the one hand, and upon the other hand think of how seldom we give him thanks, we are humbled before our Creator. Would you not soon tire of helping and providing for someone so ungrateful as never to even mumble "thank you" for that which you have done
for him?

VETERANS' QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. I am an honorably discharged World War II veteran, and would like to know of what benefit is a guaranteed loan if I purchase a home under the G. I.
Bill?

A. The guaranty provides or increases the security you have to offer for a loan by the amount of the guaranty; it tends to induce the lender to lend more liberally the full purchase price of the property and to give you a better rate of interest, and finally 4 per cent of the amount guaranteed is paid to the lender
by VA and is an outright gift to you.

Q. My wife and I plan to purchase a $9,000 home. We are both World War II veterans. Can we acquire the property jointly and so increase the amount which may be guaranteed?

A. Yes, you may acquire the property jointly, but the maximum guaranty may not exceed 50 per cent of the loan.

Q. I have a G. I. loan on my home and would like to know if I can have the loan extended?

A. Yes, you can have the loan extended if the lender is willing to give you more time, but the extension must provide for complete payment of the loan within the 25-year maximum period provided by law.

Q. What is the largest amount
I can borrow under the G. I. Bill and still have the loan guaranteed?

A. There is no limit on the amount which can be borrowed under the G. I. Bill. The limitation by law is on the size of the government guaranty and not upon the size of the loan.

Mothers Honored by Columbian Club with Program and Tea

The annual Mothers' Day program of the Columbian Club, honoring all mothers of the section, was presented on Wednesday afternoon, May 7, at the First Christian Church. A large number of guests were present for the party and the church was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, blue bonnets, irises, roses and peonies being artistically arranged throughout the church.

During the assembling of the guests, Mrs. D. D. Denison played incidental piano music, using the loved old songs dear to every mother's heart.

Mrs. Charlie Thompson directed the program as leader. Following a prayer offered by Rev. D. D. Denison, Mrs. Thompson introduced Mrs. Grady Halbert, president of the Columbian Club, who in well-chosen words extended greeting to the guests.

Rev. Denison, the guest speaker, brought a beautiful and encouraging message based on the Bible stories of Hannah, Lois and Eunice. He stated that the Bible accords much credit to these women for their stalwart sons, Samuel and Timothy.

Mrs. Grady Magee, chorus director, presented Miss Cora Carter and the Grammar School ensemble in several beautiful songs, pleasing to mothers.

Mrs. Thompson led the audience in singing the old hymns of long ago and still dear to all. Mrs. John Ray was accompanist for the songs.

Mrs. R. L. Kincaid presented corsages of orchids to Mrs. B. F. Ringgold, the oldest mother present, and to Mrs. Grady Halbert, the youngest mother present. Mrs. Kincaid called to mind that the Columbian Club had celebrated Mothers' Day every year since Mothers' Day has been instituted and stated the fact that the late "Mother Crowell" had a new dress made to wear to Mothers' Day party after she was eighty years of age. The Columbians consider it a distinct pleasure to thus honor the mothers each year.

TRUSCOTT W. S. C. S. MEETS

The Truscott Woman's Society of Christian Service met on May 5th at the Christian Church. As the opening song, "Just When I Need Him Most," was sung by the group.

Mrs. Guyan Hickman brought a devotional, stressing that it be kept in mind that "blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God," Matthew 5:8, as she read the parable of the Sower, Matt. 13:24-30. The scripture was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

After a few words pertaining to the type of soil, the weather, the animal life and vegetation of India, she showed several pictures of the people of India and their surroundings from a third of the book, "Home to India" by Santha Rama Rau. The author reveals what she found in India after an absence of ten years spent in Great Britain.

Typhus Fever Has Developed Into Health Menace

Austin.—In recent years typhus fever has developed into a serious health menace in Texas according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who today issued an appeal for every Texan to co-operate in rodent control measures which will prevent the spread of this disease.

"Last year, 1,147 cases of typhus were reported in Texas, and in the first 18 weeks of this year, the State Health Department has been notified of 185 cases," Dr. Cox stated. "With the peak of this disease usually occurring in August, if the present trend is continued, we may expect this total to be greatly increased by the end of summer."

The type of typhus fever occurring in Texas is known as endemic or Brill's disease, and is transmitted to human beings from infected rats, by means of the rat flea. The eradication of rats is the only way to reduce this health hazard, and a consistent program will materially aid in the control of typhus in Texas.

Dr. Cox stressed the fact that it is the duty of every individual to co-operate in strict rodent control measures since the eradication of rats is the only possible way typhus fever can be controlled.

FOARD CITY W. S. C. S.

Mrs. R. E. Sparks was hostess to the Foard City Woman's Society of Christian Service on Monday, May 5, with Mrs. W. L. Johnson, president, in the chair during the brief business meeting. Gift boxes were given those present and the pennies thus collected will be spent in furthering the cause of missionaries at home and abroad.

Mrs. Kenneth Halbert, secretary of Christian Social Relations, asked that old magazines be brought to the church next Sunday and that they will be distributed to centers where they are needed most. Announcement was made of the District meeting of the W. S. C. S. to be held in Crowell on May 15.

The devotional, based on the Lord's Prayer, was directed by Mrs. Sparks. She discussed the phrase "lead us not into temptation" and explained that God never leads us into trouble; He delivers us from evil ways if we but ask His help.

Mrs. Virgil Johnson scanned several chapters of the text now being studied and presented her impressions of Dr. O'Hara's valiant search for Christianity in inter-racial relations. "Advantage to all men, regardless of creed or color, is the voice of religion. Harlem is the world's greatest example of how wrong segregation can be and how expensive," said Dr. O'Hara. "He classed Harlem as a 'sore boil.' America is a land of opportunity—for the white man."

Mrs. Sparks dismissed the group with prayer and served cold fruit juice and cookies to the guests.

Glass makers estimate that there are 75,000,000 soft drink deposit bottles in American homes. They urge that they be taken back to the store to help ease the demand for bottles. Bottle production is being held up because of the shortage of soda ash, an ingredient of glass.

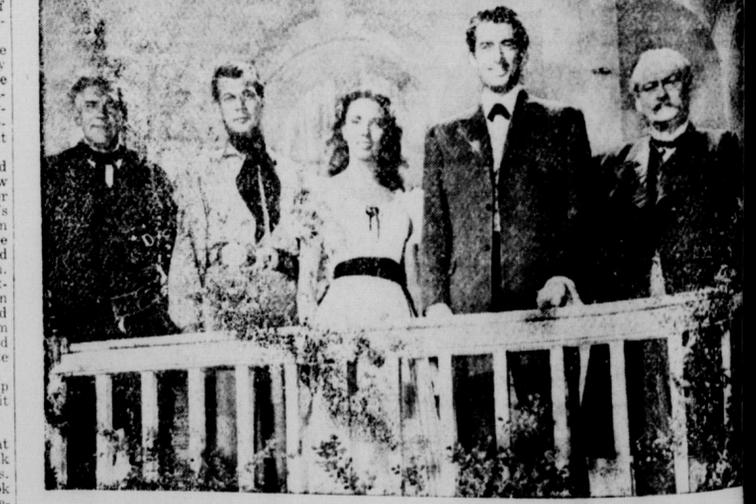

"Duel in the Sun" Is Impressive Film

Long anticipated by the theatre-going public as one of the important film events of 1947, David O. Selznick's "Duel in the Sun" more than lived up to expectations in a multitude of ways as it made its debut at the Rialto Theatre last night. A dramatic Technicolor saga of the Texas Panhandle during the 1880's, "Duel in the Sun" is a Selznick International Picture released through the Selznick Releasing Organization.

"Duel in the Sun" has a terrific impact. It is a tremendously exciting photoplay that immediately sets your pulse to pounding and its scope and power leave you breathless at the end. Selznick personally wrote the screenplay of "Duel" from an adaptation by Oliver H. P. Garrett as suggested by a novel by Niven Busch and while it is historical in pattern, Selznick has drawn his characters sharp and clear and each one comes so violently etched in memory that they will surely become as well-remembered as Selznick's Rhett Butler and Scarlett O'Hara in his "Gone with the Wind."

More than 6,000,000 veterans of World War II have applied for educational benefits. The total number of World War veterans is 14,447,000. As of April 1, approximately 1,884,000 veterans were enrolled in more than 25,000 U. S. and foreign educational institutions, about 720,000 were taking on the job of training in more than 365,000 plants and factories, offices and farms. About 825,000 had completed or discontinued their courses at the time the last count was taken.
