Advertising Carries Benefits Just as Important as Increased Sales Volume

By T. B. KLEPPER

Advertising carries benefits which may be just as important to some merchants as increased sales volume. One valuable benefit of good advertising is the increase in efficiency of a retail store.

ed with our products and prices when she arrives," the grocery executive said.

"When we evaluate our advertising, we always consider the fact that it would take an army of salesmen to handle the questions which can be answered in one newspaper advertisement . . ."

These comments do not apply to supermarkets alone. Advertising reduces selling time in any type of store. The potential buyer of an advertised product is always partially sold when he enters a store, he knows what he wants and where he can get it.

He will address the local club and confer with President George D. Self, Secretary Decker Magee, and committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

Mr. Walton is vice president of Hardin-Simmons University, and he is a member and past president of the Rotary Club of Abilene. He is also a past president of the Rotary Club of Ranger and was Golden Anniversary Chairman for the 186th District during the Governorship of Warren Tayman. He was elected as the District Governor of Rotary International for the 1957 and 1958 fiscal year at Rotary's 48th Convention in Lucerne, Switzerland, last May. He is one of the 249 District Governors who serve as representatives of Rotary International and help in supervising the activities of more than 9,400 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 446,000 business and professional executives in 104 countries throughout the free world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are organized, President Self said in discussing the Governor's visit, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Crowell, because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding, and peace among all the peoples of the world.

250 Receive Polio Shots Friday and Saturday

Foard County's "mass polio inoculation" program got off to an excellent start last week with the injection of 250 shots of Salk vaccine. This program is being sponsored as a community project in an attempt to make all residents of the county immune to polio. The project was initiated by the Foard County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and later a committee of school, county and city officials together with other interested citizens made the final plans and instructed the county health officer to order the vaccine.

The fees collected for these shots will be used only to pay for the vaccine and to purchase more if needed to complete the program. None of it will be paid to anyone connected with the program. The Foard County Chapter, NFIP, and the Thalia P. T. A. have pledged to pay for all vaccine not covered by the fees collected. The shots were given by volunteer nurses while off duty and the records were prepared by volunteer clerical help.

John W. Wright, county chairman for the NFIP, said Tuesday, "On behalf of all those interested in the program, I wish to thank the health officer and the following ladies for generously giving of their time to this worthy cause:

"Nurses, Mrs. Bill Gafford, Mrs. Gilbert Choate, Mrs. Alonzo Kelly, Mrs. Charlie Huskey, Miss Martha Rettig and Mrs. M. M. Kraicke.

Crowell Wildcats Defeat Holliday 27-6 for Second Conference Victory

The Crowell High School football team won its second conference game of the season at Holliday last Friday night by defeating the Holliday Eagles 27 to 6. The Wildcats did all of their scoring in the first half and coasted during the last two quarters. The Eagles came back strong after the intermission period to score one touchdown and outclass the Crowell boys in statistics. However, the Wildcats played only defensive ball during the last half, trying only one pass.

Game at a glance:

Crowell took the opening kickoff on their own 38-yard line and marched for five first downs and a touchdown without losing the ball. The linemen were opening up good holes and Gerald Bradford, Printess Gidney and Ray Thomson alternated in the ball carrying department for this score. Fullback Thomson made the final two yards on a plunge over tackle. Harvey Smith kicked three out of four extra points during the game. The fourth touchdown attempt was not tried by a kick due to a bad snap back from center.

Three Trucks Involved in Wreck Last Thursday

A three-truck collision eleven miles west of Crowell about three o'clock last Thursday afternoon resulted in one man being hospitalized in the Crowell hospital and the complete destruction of one truck.

Sheriff Percy Taylor reported that L. E. Talkington of Hydro, Okla., was placed in the hospital suffering from head lacerations and other minor cuts. He reported that the other two men involved, James Douglas Cheek and James Roland Landan, both of Corsicana, escaped injury.

Extensive damage was reported to two of the trucks, and the one driven by Talkington was completely demolished, Sheriff Taylor said.

He was assisted in the investigation of the accident by Highway Patrolman James Young of Paducah.

Kadane-Griffith Oil Co. reported its No. 4 Maude E. Raspberry, in the Raspberry (6100 Caddo) Field of Foard County, flowed 114.38 barrels of 41 gravity oil during 14-hour test for a calculated 24-hour potential of 196.19 barrels.

Flow was through 18-64-inch choke from open hole at 6040-62 feet, with packer on casing and 130 pounds pressure on tubing. Pay was treated with 500 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 460-1. Producer is twelve miles west of Crowell, in section 26, block A, SPRR survey.

ELECTED CLASS PRESIDENT

TROOPER ESCORT

Two troopers march a Central High School student down the street near the school after 50 students left the school protesting the ford, Printess Gidney and Ray Thomson alternated in the ball carrying department for this score. Fullback Thomson made the final two yards on a plunge over tackle. Harvey Smith kicked three out of four extra points during the game. The fourth touchdown attempt was not tried by a kick due to a bad snap back from center.

Boy Don Payne came into the game in the second quarter and picked up several good gains. The second touchdown was set up by an Iban Cates to Gidney to David Carpenter combination pass play that was good for 15 yards. The score was made by right half Bradford's 35-yard run around Crowell's left end.

Carpenter pounced on an Eagle fumble on Holliday's 13-yard line and Gidney made 3, Payne 2, Gidney 2 and Bradford 6 to score. The next touchdown came after Gidney intercepted an Eagle pass on Holliday's 30-yard line. After several gains, the Eagles received a 15-yard roughing penalty that gave Crowell the ball on the one. Gidney carried over for Crowell's final score of the evening.

The second half found the flubbed Crowell boys pretty weak and the Eagles certainly took advantage of the situation. They ran up nine first downs to Crowell's two during these last two periods. However, it took a fluke play to score their only touchdown of the evening. All-district quarterback Kenneth Knowles elected to pass on fourth down early in the final quarter and when a Wildcat back juggled the ball into the air, fullback Don Ervin grabbed the pigskin and loped 35 yards to pay dirt. Their extra point was no good to leave the final count Crowell 27 and Holliday 6.

Several of Crowell's boys gave out before the game was over due to weakness from sickness last week. They played an outstanding game during the first half and certainly deserved to win. The Holliday Eagles, last year's district champions, led by the versatile Kenneth Knowles, played extra good ball during the last half.

Chillicothe Forfeits Game with Crowell Because of Flu

J. C. McCleskey, superintendent of the Chillicothe schools, stated on Tuesday that 14 of the 19 members of the squad were in bed with the flu.

This gives Crowell three district wins and will make the game here next week with Archer City an important one in the District 1A-11 race.

Cattlemen Urged Not to Overstock Range Lands

After taking a mid-year look at the West Texas livestock industry, Dr. Wayland Bennett of Texas Tech's agricultural economics department advises area cattlemen to go easy when stocking range land.

While February rains brought the most promising prospects for spring range and pasture feed, this moisture is almost gone in many areas of West Texas. Dr. Bennett states in the current issue of West Texas Today.

With the 1949-56 drought seriously depleting subsoil moisture, only moderate stocking under a rotation management program will help gain the maximum survival of grass in many areas, he says. "One or two years of normal or above normal rainfall will not have the customary restorative values," Dr. Bennett writes. "It will take, under favorable weather conditions, from five to ten years before our ranges—even with sound range management practices—are capable of being stocked at pre-drought rates."

Dr. Bennett points out that while cattle numbers were down approximately two per cent below the 1956 peak in the United States, numbers in Texas have declined approximately 13 per cent below their 1952-53 peak.

Improvement in both range and livestock conditions has led to an increased local demand for heifers and young cows as both farmers and ranchers restock. Others, however, are withholding restocking at present to allow their ranges to recover further from the drought.

Fire Prevention Week in Progress

Get out of the house the minute you discover a fire or suspect one—and get everyone else out at the same time.

"Everyone should memorize this and other life safety rules about fire," warns County Agent Joe Burkett, "because they're your best guarantee of surviving a fire in your home."

He recommends these other rules as important to remember, too, if fire should strike:

Be ready with different escape routes from any room in your house.

Feel a door before opening; if hot, block it with furniture and seal with wet towels and blankets; try to get out another way.

Never jump from upper story windows except as last resort; wait for firemen.

Hold your breath if you have to dash through smoke and flame; and remember that the air is usually better near the floor in a smoke-filled room.

Once out, don't ever go back into a burning building—smoke and gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly; children very often go back into their homes, so keep them restrained.

Get medical treatment at once if you are burned or exposed to smoke; seemingly minor burns or smoke inhalation can be exceedingly dangerous.

Call the fire department the instant you're certain that everyone is safely away from the fire.

Tennis was purely an amateur sport until 1926.

Advertising Carries Benefits Just as Important as Increased Sales Volume

By T. B. KLEPPER

Advertising carries benefits which may be just as important to some merchants as increased sales volume. One valuable benefit of good advertising is the increase in efficiency of a retail store.

These comments do not apply to supermarkets alone. Advertising reduces selling time in any type of store. The potential buyer of an advertised product is always partially sold when he enters a store; he knows what he wants and where he can get it.

In fact, when man-hours are converted to dollars, newspaper advertising is practically free as compared to the cost of personal selling.

No wonder the consumer expects to find the best prices in stores that advertise. The stores which cut costs through advertising are able to pass the savings from modern selling methods on to their customers.

'57 Acreage Reserve Agreements Still in Effect

Acreage Reserve agreements under the 1957 program remain in full force and effect through December 31, this year, farmers are reminded by Ray Hysinger, chairman of the Foard County ASC committee.

Mr. Hysinger explained that he is concerned that some farmers who already have been paid for land placed in the 1957 Acreage Reserve may feel that they have fully complied with the program. The provisions of Acreage Reserve agreements remain in effect although the payment may be made before the end of the year.

Under the Acreage Reserve, the land specifically designated by the farmer for the program may not be cropped and livestock may not be permitted to graze on it. There are only two exceptions to this: (1) The land may be planted this year to a crop that will be harvested in 1958 or later and (2) grazing may be permitted by specific permission of the Secretary of Agriculture under emergency conditions.

Crowell People See Russian Satellite Thursday

The first reported sighting of the Russian satellite, Sputnik, by Crowell residents occurred last Thursday night at 9:30 when Roy D. Fox and daughters, Edith and Lola Mae, spotted the man-made moon in the north.

Mr. Fox reported that the satellite was visible for about three minutes, and traveled from the north to the northeast where it disappeared from sight. He said that it appeared larger than a star and was much brighter. A news report last Thursday afternoon said that the satellite would pass over Oklahoma City at 9:32, just two minutes after the Fox family saw it here.

Rotary Club to Welcome District Governor Oct. 23

The Rotary Club of Crowell on Wednesday, October 23, will be host to W. Truett Walton, Governor of the 57th District of Rotary International, who is making his annual visit to each of the 37 Rotary Clubs of this area.

Mr. Walton is vice president of Hardin-Simmons University, and he is a member and past president of the Rotary Club of Abilene. He is also a past president of the Rotary Club of Ranger and was Golden Anniversary Chairman for the 18th District during the Governorship of Warren Taysan. He was elected as the District Governor of Rotary International for the 1957 and 1958 fiscal year at Rotary's 48th Convention in Lucerne, Switzerland, last May. He is one of the 249 District Governors who serve as representatives of Rotary International and help in supervising the activities of more than 9,400 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 446,000 business and professional executives in 104 countries throughout the free world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are organized, President Self said in discussing the Governor's visit, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Crowell, because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding, and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Each year this worldwide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength, President Self added. During the present fiscal year, 341 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 41 countries of North, South, and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Islands of the Pacific, and 6 countries were added to Rotary's roster—Cambodia, French Cameroon, French Equatorial Africa, Guadeloupe, Liechtenstein, and Uganda.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. F. Yeager, 84, widow of a pioneer Mineral Wells physician, were conducted Wednesday, Oct. 9, at the First Methodist Church in Mineral Wells with burial in Elmwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Yeager was the first president of the Palo Pinto County Medical Society Auxiliary and had held every office in the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, serving for a number of years as district secretary.

250 Receive Polio Shots Friday and Saturday

Foard County's "mass polio inoculation" program got off to an excellent start last week with the injection of 250 shots of Salk vaccine. This program is being sponsored as a community project in an attempt to make all residents of the county immune to polio.

The project was initiated by the Foard County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and later a committee of school, county and city officials together with other interested citizens made the final plans and instructed the county health officer to order the vaccine.

The fees collected for these shots will be used only to pay for the vaccine and to purchase more if needed to complete the program. None of it will be paid to anyone connected with the program. The Foard County Chapter, NFIP, and the Thalia P. T. A. have pledged to pay for all vaccine not covered by the fees collected. The shots were given by volunteer nurses while off duty and the records were prepared by volunteer clerical help.

John W. Wright, county chairman for the NFIP, said Tuesday, "On behalf of all those interested in the program, I wish to thank the health officer and the following ladies for generously giving of their time to this worthy cause:

"Nurses, Mrs. Bill Gafford, Mrs. Gilbert Choate, Mrs. Alonzo Kelly, Mrs. Charlie Huskey, Miss Martha Rettig and Mrs. M. M. Kraljick.

"Clerks, Mrs. Darwin Bell, Mrs. Otis Gafford, Mrs. Clinton McLain, Mrs. Carl Wishon, Mrs. Guy Todd, Mrs. H. B. Sanders, Miss Dorothy Erwin, Mrs. Alynne Williams, Mrs. Grady Adecock and Mrs. J. T. Brooks."

Mr. Wright also announced that the second shots will be given in November.

Mr. Norman died at 1:30 a. m. Monday, Oct. 7, in an Altus, Okla., hospital after suffering a long illness.

He was born April 24, 1895, in Fannin County, Texas, and moved to the Arlie community near Hollis in 1926.

Crowell Wildcats Defeat Holliday 27-6 for Second Conference Victory

The Crowell High School football team won its second conference game of the season at Holliday last Friday night by defeating the Holliday Eagles 27 to 6. The Wildcats did all of their scoring in the first half and coasted during the last two quarters. The Eagles came back strong after the intermission period to score one touchdown and outclass the Crowell boys in statistics. However, the Wildcats played only defensive ball during the last half, tying only one pass.

Game at a glance:

| Crowell                 | Holliday |
|-------------------------|----------|
| 14 First downs          | 13       |
| 180 Yds. gained rushing | 158      |
| 15 Yds. gained passing  | 40       |
| 1 of 4 Passes completed | 6 of 19  |
| 3 Passes intercepted    | 1        |
| 5 for 30 Punt av.       | 2 for 32 |
| 5 Recovered fumbles     | 2        |
| 5 for 35 Penalties      | 2 for 20 |

Crowell took the opening kickoff on their own 38-yard line and marched for five first downs and a touchdown without losing the ball. The linemen were opening up good holes and Gerald Bradford, Princess Gidney and Ray Thomson alternated in the ball carrying department for this score. Fullback Thomson made the final two yards on a plunge over tackle. Harvey Smith kicked three out of four extra points during the game. The fourth touchdown attempt was not tried by a kick due to a bad snap back from center.

Roy Don Payne came into the game in the second quarter and picked up several good gains. The second touchdown was set up by an Iwan Cates to Gidney to David Carpenter combination pass play that was good for 15 yards. The score was made by right half Bradford's 35-yard run around Crowell's left end.

Carpenter pounced on an Eagle fumble on Holliday's 13-yard line and Gidney made 3, Payne 2, Gidney 2 and Bradford 6 to score. The next touchdown came after Gidney intercepted an Eagle pass on Holliday's 30-yard line. After several gains, the Eagles received a 15-yard roughing penalty that gave Crowell the ball on the one. Gidney carried over for Crowell's final score of the evening.

The second half found the flustered Crowell boys pretty weak and the Eagles certainly took advantage of the situation. They ran up nine first downs to Crowell's two during these last two periods. However, it took a fluke play to score their only touchdown of the evening. All-district quarterback Kenneth Knowles elected to pass on fourth down early in the final quarter and when a Wildcat back juggled the ball into the air, fullback Don Erwin grabbed the pigskin and loped 35 yards to pay dirt. Their extra point was no good to leave the final count Crowell 27 and Holliday 6.

Several of Crowell's boys gave out before the game was over due to weakness from sickness last week. They played an outstanding game during the first half and certainly deserved to win. The Holliday Eagles, last year's district champions, led by the versatile Kenneth Knowles, played extra good ball during the last half.

Three Trucks Involved in Wreck Last Thursday

A three-truck collision eleven miles west of Crowell about three o'clock last Thursday afternoon resulted in one man being hospitalized in the Crowell hospital and the complete destruction of one truck.

Sheriff Percy Taylor reported that L. E. Talkington of Hydro, Okla., was placed in the hospital suffering from head lacerations and other minor cuts. He reported that the other two men involved, James Douglas Cheek and James Roland Landan, both of Corsicana, escaped injury.

Extensive damage was reported to two of the trucks, and the one driven by Talkington was completely demolished, Sheriff Taylor said.

He was assisted in the investigation of the accident by Highway Patrolman James Young of Paducah.

Chillicothe Forfeits Game with Crowell Because of Flu

The 1A-11 district football game between Crowell and Chillicothe scheduled to be played at Chillicothe Friday night has been forfeited to Crowell on account of a flu epidemic among members of the Chillicothe football squad.

J. C. McCleskey, superintendent of the Chillicothe schools, stated on Tuesday that 14 of the 19 members of the squad were in bed with the flu.

This gives Crowell three district wins and will make the game here next week with Archer City an important one in the District 1A-11 race.

EDITORIAL
BE PREPARED
This true story happened to a family in Oklahoma. It was a cold winter morning, and the gas heater had been lighted to warm the young children while dressing. One of them stepped too close, and in an instant, her clothes were in flames. The girl screamed; the other children cried. The mother stood filled with horror. The father and his 13-year-old son came running upstairs. While the father stood confused, the son caught up a small rug from the floor and rolled the screaming little girl in its folds. In a moment he had smothered the flames and had prevented serious injury. One could hardly say that the boy was prepared to smother the flames on his sister's clothes. He was, however, prepared to take quick inventory of the situation and act quickly and accordingly.

Every day situations arise that require instant decisions. The person who prepares himself mentally for these decisions finds that he keeps himself prepared constantly through each day. The coaches know the value of being prepared. The team trains and works together long before the first game. When they take the field against another team, they are prepared to meet any obstacles.

Being prepared for emergencies, however, is not the only way one can be ready to meet life. Be observant of your surroundings. If it may rain, carry a raincoat. During a recent football game in San Angelo, rain came early in the first quarter. Only a few of the expected 5,000 stayed for the game. Only a few were prepared for the rain.

But what if you find, in spite of your precautions, that you have been caught unawares? Then be stubborn. Don't give up and go home as did thousands of those football fans. Stick with the problem and you will not fail!

ATTENTION "WILDCAT" READERS

We, the Wildcat Staff, are constantly on the lookout for some way to improve our weekly edition. We find it hard to have something different for each week's publication—so somebody had an idea! IT WILL WORK TOO—if you will help us. First, we wonder if anyone besides local students read our columns. Too, we wonder just how many states or even countries our paper may reach. In fact—we wonder if you enjoy our publication. So it matters not whether you attended our school in 1900, or 1957—or not at all, if you are reading our editions, we want to hear from you. Tell us where you live, what you do, and even offer suggestions for improving our columns.

If you read this, please know that we are extending you a personal invitation to write to us. We'll publish your letter—or in case of "land slide" response, we'll at least list those who have written us.

Who'll be the first to write? Don't wait on someone else! Let us hear now! Address your letter to our editor, Miss Shirley Fox, Crowell, Texas. Remember, we're expecting to have some letters by next week or week after next—at the latest. We're counting on YOU! The Staff.

LIBRARY NEWS
The CHS Library Club held its second meeting of the year Oct. 9 at 2:30 p. m. in Mrs. King's room. Due to circumstances beyond our control, the meeting was held an hour earlier than the usual time of 3:30.

Plans were made for the ordering of a replica of the White House for the library office. Each member agreed to bring 50¢ by the next meeting for the cost of the replica. Delicious refreshments were served to Beverly Kelly, Peggy Cates, Judy Hollenbaugh, Lillie Polk, Lois Ann Painter, Carolyn Aydelotte, Helen Vessel, Joyce Howard, Roberta Hough and Mrs. King by the hostesses, Dee Ann Christian and Virginia Williamson.

FRESHMAN CLASS PLANS PARTY
The freshman class met Friday, Oct. 11, to discuss having their first class party. They decided to have a wienie roast on Oct. 22 from 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. at the North Wichita River. The mothers selected to help with this party are Mesdames Latimer, Bell, Barry and Carpenter.

SENIOR GIRL OF THE WEEK

Our senior girl of the week is none other than our own Shirley Fox. Shirley is 5'6" tall and has blonde hair and green eyes. Fried shrimp is Shirley's favorite dish, and if the dessert is apple pie, the meal is most certainly perfect.

Shirley's favorite music is swing and Les Elgart with his band is her favorite recording artist. This year, Shirley is editor-in-chief of the Wildcat, vice president of the Sub-Junior Adelphean Club, and secretary for the band.

Shirley likes to participate in basketball; but football is the sport which she likes to watch. Shirley's favorite subject is band; she plays first chair flute. Her most difficult subject is Algebra II, but in our opinion, nothing could be hard for Shirley.

As for the future, Shirley plans to attend Texas Tech after graduation. There, Shirley plans to study interior decorating. We all wish you luck, Shirley, and we know you will be a success in your work.

SENIOR BOY OF THE WEEK

For this week, we chose "Cotton" Love as the senior boy of the week. Cotton, who was really christened Larry by his parents, stands 6 feet tall, has brown hair, and dark blue eyes.

Cotton's hardest subject is English IV. His favorite subject is V. A., and he was elected secretary of the chapter for this year. Cotton, and his favorite sport-time is just plain "shooting the bull" with one of his comrades. Fried steak, topped off with a dessert of apple pie, are Cotton's favorite foods. Any movie is all right, so long as it stars Audie Murphy.

After he graduates, he plans to find work on a ranch. We wish you luck, Cotton, no matter where you go.

SPORTS SPURTS

Crowell took a giant's step toward the district title by vanquishing the Holiday Eagles Friday night. By scoring 27 points, Crowell literally went "hog wild" and took the Eagles to a good thrashing during the first half. However, Crowell seemed to slow down at the half, and Holiday finally pushed over a score in the latter part of the last quarter. This victory leaves Crowell with five wins and one loss for the season. And if you would like to know, this is the first time since 1953 that Crowell has won over four games straight.

LOCAL F. F. A. GROUP VISITS DALLAS

Larry Hord, Joe Wheeler and Curtis Stone, local FFA boys, and their advisor, Marvin Myers, attended the Dallas Fair last Saturday.

The group journeyed to Fort Worth Friday evening, and they spent both Friday and Saturday nights. They reported a very enjoyable and educational trip, and they especially liked the ride on the new turnpike between Fort Worth and Dallas.

SAY "HEY" WEEK

Hey! How! Hi! Howdy! and Hey! What's going on? Well, it's like this. The Student Council is sponsoring a Friendship Week like you've never seen before... only this year it's Say "Hey" Week! On Monday there will be an assembly. Bro. W. B. Fitzgerald of Thalia will give a talk on friendship. Each class president will pass out name-tags to the members of his class. (Seniors, blue; Juniors, orange; Sophomores, green; and Freshmen, white). The schedule for the rest of the week will be explained by Ray Thomson. P. S. Penalties will be placed on our "Snobbish CHS students."

CHAUCER'S CHARACTERS ARE REAL; THEY WALK THE HALLS OF C. H. S.

In studying Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales," emphasis has been placed on the reality of Chaucer's characters. Although these characters lived in the middle ages, they are descriptive of men and women in any age. We've tried our hand at fitting some of these descriptions to people around CHS. "He wore the latest clothes," Fredrick; "Quite short," Turk; "Had close cropped hair," R. H. McCoy; "She had a very, very tender heart," Mrs. Davis; "Fought in tournaments," the fierce Wildcat; "This lad had fallen in love," "Bubba"; "Well built and tall she was," Gayle; "He didn't give a plucked hen for that law," Jimmy Dean; "Talked you blue," Sandra Sanders; "So pompous was he," Ray; "He knew the taverns well," everyone's good; "And starved for learning's sake," Speedy; "A learned man, at least he thought so," Jimmy Rader; "Yet he seemed busier than he was, I'll swear," Spider Bell; "Enjoyed good food," "Crittter"; "His greatest joy was eating all the while," Mr. Taylor; "They were all dressed alike," Cheerleaders; "Fad was dieting," Carolyn.

FOOL'S PHILOSOPHY

Classes, classes, classes, nothing but classes. Who ever thought of them anyway? Sometimes, I think that finding the cube root, infinitives, gerunds, and all that stuff were just not made me and my kind. And if I know anything, there are a lot of my kind around. You know, those people who lie around and wish they were in Florida, and on the beach while the rest of the people work and study. Ah, sweet bliss—or is it blisters?

The physics class made up their minds. If anyone is going to launch another satellite, it is going to be them, and no one else. After all, we know no one lurch of people who are better informed about such things of that sort. Why, just the other day, they were talking about such technical stuff as why the Milwaukee pitcher got knocked out of the box in the 3rd game. They figured that he wasn't holding the ball right fo Bernoulli's principle. You know, that law about his not having anything on the ball?

GUEST SPEAKER GIVES ADVICE ON MARRIAGE

Planning to get married? Don't until you read this! On Wednesday, Oct. 9, Rev. C. T. Aly, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Crowell, spoke on the subject: Courtship and Marriage. He explained and proved that post-marital courtship was just as important as pre-marital courtship.

One may ask, "What is marriage?" Some girl will undoubtedly reply, "Just changing my name." It is more than that. Marriage is taking care of the person that you marry.

One of the keys to the progress of our country is the progress connected with the home. There are many mistakes in marriage. Foremost among these are stubbornness and selfishness.

There are many things that one should think about before marriage. First, one should study the subject and then the subjects (boy and girl). One should plan the wedding with sense and poise. Then, one should study post wedding life. He should exercise self-restraint to prevent terrible mistakes in marriage. Last of all, Bro. Aly advised us to consult God as He knows what is best for us.

This talk was very worthwhile. If we young people will examine each of these ideas carefully before marriage, they may help us have a much happier married life.

TATTLE TALE

Attention CHSites. Wouldn't you like to see a picture of the 26th grade girls who have their eyes on Gerald Bradford? They are filling our scandal locker up. How about a picture, little girls.

Does anyone know what the Sub-Jr. Adelphean Club is planning? Something special, no doubt. Lois Ann, what are you so fond of these days?

Whom could Janise and Linda have their eyes on? The Tattle Tale knows.

Seems as though Patricia Pittillo had fun at the fair. How about this, Pat?

Ronald, Grady, who are the two sophomore girls that have their eyes on you all? It couldn't be Carolyn Aydelotte and Helen Vessel, could it?

Judy Hollenbaugh, whom were you with Sunday night? We think it was Felix Westmoreland, Right?

What about Butch Labor, Bettie Linda, or is it Joe Jim Cromartie?

It seems Q town is quite popular. At least that's what the Tattle Tale heard about Ruthie Orr and Bill Graves.

Yes, Barbara Goodwin was very disappointed because she could not go to Dallas. Could it be because of Mike Keller?

Whom have we been seeing with Ronald Yarborough? Yes, Beverly Kelly.

Seen together last Tuesday were Don Tole-Linda Caddell and Karl Bell—Lou Ann Summers.

Seen over the week end as usual—Carolyn, Ted.

Lizzy-Sonny attended the Plaza Sunday night.

Watch the Tattle Tale next week for the special plans that are being cooked up for your entertainment.

MEMU

Monday, Oct. 21: light bread, meat loaf, lima beans, macaroni and tomatoes, stuffed celery, apple sauce cake.

Tuesday, Oct. 22: corn meal muffins, pinto beans, hot tamales, Spanish rice, fresh tomatoes, fresh that don't burn, running around, special attention, girls that don't talk too much.

What girls like: candy, flowers, boys that talk about the right things, boys who check on their dads, boys from out of town, boys.

To a more serious side of the column. Do you know how long we had for lunch last Monday? 24 minutes! How about that! Some of the kids that live in town just run through the house, smell of the fool, run back to school, and then get a pass because they are late for 4th period class. We of this vicinity think that something ought to be done for our ailing digestive tracts. We'll all get ulcers yet!

And then there's this little lesson in geography: Friendship, N. Y.; Love, Va.; Kissmee, Fla.; Ring, Ark.; Parson, Kans.; Reno, Nevada.

Comparative prices: good and choice steers and yearlings, $18.50-23.00 and medium and lower grades $13-18.50; fat cows, 13.50-15.50; canners and cutters, $8-13.50; bulls, $11-16; slaughter calves of good and choice kind, $19-21; some baby heaves higher; common and medium sorts, $13-18; rannies, $11-13; stocker steer calves $23 down; stoker steer yearlings $21 down; 2-year-old feeder cattle, $19.50 down; a few stocker cows, $13-15.

The strangest development in a long time at Fort Worth's market was noted Monday when packing sows and choice butcher hogs both topped at $18. The weird situation was brought about by the fact that supplies of sows, the number one item in sausage making, have been light here and all over the country as hog men are fruit slices. Wed., Oct. 23: hamburgers, lettuce, tomatoes, onions, pickles, fried potatoes, chocolate pudding.

Thursday, Oct. 24: light bread, barbecued spare ribs, whole kernel corn, tossed green salad with tomatoes, green beans, blackberry cobbler.

Friday, Oct. 25: tuna fish sandwiches, cheese and crackers, potato chips, Jello and cookies.

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

There is nothing like a rain to put starch in the cattle market. Receipts Monday at Fort Worth were curtailed sharply by the general rains, and except on drylot fed steers, the trade opened with a rush and prices were unevenly higher on both slaughter and replacement kinds.

In a sneeze, the expelled travels about 100 miles an hour. Grapefruit are so-called because they sometimes grow in clusters. (Continued on Page 7)

Offers Offered on Livestock Feeding Emergencies

Ranchmen know they will reduce their livestock numbers during drought, but hesitate to sell because of their better prices for the losses they may suffer if the disposal of carefully selected breeding stock.

The procedure of reducing numbers and feeding the remainder applies particularly to preserving selected breeding stock. Two considerations are: (1) to use the feeds in amounts to keep the stock alive and (2) to use the feeds to maintain production. The principal difference is in the amounts of feed supplied. Other considerations vary little, whether the objective is maintenance, subsistence, supplemental or emergency feeding. A bulletin recently released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, B-218, "Emergency Feeding of Livestock," contains much information that will help ranchers with their feeding problems. It contains section on general considerations; vitamin A deficiency; cost of feed nutrients; roughages and concentrates; methods of feeding; salt-cottonseed meal mixtures; feeding judgment; feeding weak stock; trap or drylot feeding and other related subjects. It also contains a chart giving the percentage chemical composition of various feeding materials.

This publication is available at the county agent's office. by VERN SANFORD, Mgr. Texas Press Association

Austin, Tex.—There's talk now of not just one, but two special sessions of the Legislature.

East Texas House members, who served as a tightly-knit team in pushing pro-segregation laws last spring, are asking Governor Price Daniel for a chance to put through some more.

Texas needs laws to prevent the kind of trouble that developed in Little Rock, say the East Texans. Specifically, they propose (1) a law to allow local boards to close schools in case of riots or occupation by troops and (2) a measure directing the Attorney General to assist local school systems involved in federal suits to enforce integration.

Daniel said, "It may be we should take some further action." But he said he thought the East Texans were wise in not suggesting the segregation issues be added to the agenda of the session which opened Monday. It was called to work on lobby registration, regulation of practice before state agencies, water conservation and crime study. Most observers think thrashing out all the details on these will take a full 30 days.

FOUR INDICTED — Travis County Courts, which serve as the arena in which state officials are taken to task, are due many more months of statewide attention.

After four months of studying the history of the ICT Insurance Co., a Travis grand jury returned perjury indictments against Former Insurance Commissioners Garland A. Smith and J. Byron Saunders. It also indicted ICT's one-time manager, Ben Jack Cagle, on charges of bribing the commissioners. Also Smith's son-in-law, Max Wayne Rychlik, on perjury charges.

Jurors recommended state laws be strengthened, particularly in regard to liabilities and responsibilities of company officers and board members.

There wasn't time to go into legislative lobbying, said the weary jury. But it urged a law requiring registration and expense reports by lobbyists.

Proof that the jury's tiresome task took its toll was the hospitalization of one member just as the term ended, reportedly suffering from "physical exhaustion."

WATER PREVIEW — Sectional rivalries and lack of money have hobbled past efforts for an over-all water conservation program in Texas. So said speakers at the Texas Water Conservation Association meeting where water problems confronting the special legislative session were previewed.

State Water Board Chairman R. M. Dixon said his department has never had enough money to carry out its assigned duties. He asked for more money to gather data and pay salaries comparable with other state departments.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr pointed out that legislators have had trouble getting together on a water program because they reflect the conflicting ideas of their constituents, said Carr. He urged cooperation.

Governor Daniel recommended a water plan to take care of needs up to the year 2030. "We can go forward," he said, "and guaranteed the future growth and prosperity of our state, or do nothing and face economic stagnation."

WATER AMENDMENT — Governor Daniel has expressed great pleasure over the widespread interest in passage of the Constitutional Amendment for water development.

He pointed out that the measure, which is third on the Nov. 5 ballot, has received the endorsement of the state's leading organizations and associations.

"Each day's mail brings additional support from local chambers of commerce and other civic organizations, as well as private citizens interested in the welfare of Texas," the governor added.

ROD AND GUN STATISTICS — Texans spend twice as much money to hunt and fish as they do for admission to all football, baseball and basketball games, plus all other spectator sports, plus all the movies and other theatrical attractions combined.

So said L. A. Wilke of the Texas Game and Fish Commission at a Rotary Club luncheon in Austin.

Here are some other facts with which Wilke surprised the Austin Rotarians: Anglers and hunters outnumber golfers 9 to 1. They also spend more on hunting and fishing than all Texans spend on medical and dental care and hospitalization insurance.

FLU CASES PILE UP — "That foreign flu" is getting familiar to Texans. Reported cases doubled in a week, according to the State Health Department, bringing the total of flu-like illnesses to 62,319.

A number of schools had to close after absences skyrocketed. Many others canceled football games, band concerts and other special events.

COTTON FORECAST UP — Texas' 1957 cotton crop will be 83 per cent of normal, says the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. October estimate is for 4,100,000 bales—a half million bales more than was expected in September.

USDA also reported that mild fall weather was helping farmers in many areas. Scattered showers brought up winter wheat on the Plains and encouraged volunteer oats and other pasturage for cattle over wide areas. Weather also was favorable for harvesting peanuts, rice and sweet potatoes.

APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR — Named by Governor Daniel to serve on state boards are:

W. W. Heath, Austin attorney, rancher and banker . . . to the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools.

Dr. B. B. Brown of Dallas (re-appointed) and Dan McKnight of Rocksprings to the State Board of Pharmacy.

Dr. Elmer C. Baum of Austin, Cyrus Hill Lambert, a pharmacist of El Paso, and Dr. William Hibbits of Texarkana, to the State Board of Health.

Dale Broussard of Beaumont and Norman Bratcher of Denison to the State Board of Morticians.

SHORT SNORTS — People in Brazos County, home of Texas A&M, are unhappy. Their county was assigned auto license plates with the prefix letters TLL. That, to Argies, sounds too much like the initials of their arch-rival, the University of Texas. What they don't know is that tags with AM letters now are appearing on Austin cars . . . Texans leaving the Armed Forces in September was more than double the number entering service, reports State Selective Service Headquarters . . . Despite an attorney general's ruling that the House speaker and lieutenant governor are legally entitled to Capitol living quarters, former State Sen. Joe Hill is still trying to get them thrown out. Hill has carried his fight to the Court of Civil Appeals where he contended the practice was unconstitutional and "ridiculous," besides.

ONE FOR THE BOOKS — Baytown, Tex.—A man in a foul temper was hauled into jail in his "birthday suit." Deputy Sheriff J. C. Bickerstaff said he found the man wandering around without his clothes, on Highway 73.

He seemed to be more mad than drunk, Bickerstaff said, but he never could discover the reason for his anger, nor where his clothes were. As a result he was charged with drunkenness and given a cell to hide in.

"It's one for the books," Bickerstaff said, "and it went into mine."

There are no retroactive social security disability benefits payable on a claim filed after December 1957.

Accidents don't just happen. They are caused. Drive safely.

Henry Fergeson . . .

must get all the education they could and must make good citizens, men and women of value to their communities.

Henry Fergeson turned to the life of a cowboy. It was the work that was most needed. Besides it had always appealed to him. As a boy it seemed to him that it was a glamorous life.

Henry smiles as he tells of working on a ranch in the south part of Foard County, of working like a dog all day, then dressing in his best, which was a doubtful "best," and with Charlie Thompson and Ross Roark, setting in a buggy and going to Foard City to a dance, coming back in the early morning hours.

Henry has many memories of those days. One is of the time he and four other men, two roping, two throwing, one branding — branded 138 calves in one hour and forty minutes.

Cowmen can testify that this is swift work, and if you figure minutes and branding you will find that those five men must have been ready for chuck and rest when the strain was over.

Today a rodeo is an event which is featured in the papers, is widely advertised, is held in an arena, is marked by "pomp" and "ceremony." When Henry Fergeson was a boy, rodeos were held on the prairie, with wild horses that had never been tamed and which were turned loose as soon as they had been roped, and were, perhaps, never seen again. There were no seats for visitors, no chutes for horses to be driven down into the rodeo grounds. It was crude, just as wildly exciting, perhaps even more exciting than rodeos are today.

Henry did not go to the first rodeo he heard of in West Texas, but he took time out and went to the second and took part in the only two events of that time — calf roping and bronc riding. After that he became a rodeo addict.

There is a thread of thrift running through the Fergeson family. Every member of the family is shrewd in business affairs. Henry manifested this by deciding that he could not afford to go through life earning only $25.00 a month. He had to have a business that would grow and bring him in money, more and more as the years passed. He took his savings and bought an interest in a drug store in Crowell. He was now a business man.

In a few years, Henry's partner decided to move so three other Fergesons invested in the business and the four brothers ran the business together, Charles, Stone-wall, Tom and Henry.

During all these years, Crowell had no railroad. At last the day came in 1908 when a Kansas City, Mexico and Orient RR train puffed into Crowell. On that train was a shipment of bricks. They were billed to the Fergeson Brothers, and were used to build the finest drug store in Foard County.

Many amusing stories are told of their experiences in that drug store. Henry smiles as he recalls a day when an old lady came into the drugstore to consult the physician, who officed in a room off the main store room. Dr. W. H. Adams, then the leading physician of the town. She asked him to prescribe for her.

"But, Dr. Adams, that last medicine you gave me tasted so bad I dreaded to take it. Can't you put something in it to take that bad taste out of it?" she asked.

"Pshaw, I can beat that now," returned the doctor. "There's a new invention that keeps you from tasting the medicine at all. Go to Henry. He will put it up for you."

Henry put the medicine into those new-fangled things, called capsules, and the old lady left. In a few weeks she came into the store and sought out Henry.

"Henry," she said, while smiling, "I did not taste that medicine one bit. It was wonderful. Those little jars you used are the very thing to make it easy to take bad medicine."

Henry Fergeson stayed on in the drugstore long enough to see that every woman came in and demanded capsules and not "little jars." He stayed longer than that for many modern medicines passed through Henry's hands before he finally got out of business.

Romance was late in entering Henry's life. He always meant to marry, but the right girl did not cross his path. When J.C. Harrison moved to town, and Effie Mae Harrison, a girl of fifteen, came into the drugstore, Henry was faced with a problem. For some unexplainable reason, Effie Harrison seemed to be the very girl he had waited for. He could not understand why he would be attracted to her since she was still considered too young to "go with the boys," as was the saying of the day, but Henry resolved that he could wait. In time, her parents would permit her to go with him, and he would do his best to win her, and that day came.

They were married on June 25, 1911. On September 28, 1912, their son, Charles Derwood, was born. Charles was six years old when his sister, Ruth Harrison Fergeson, came into the home. These two children occupied Henry and Effie Fergeson for years. Both children graduated from Crowell High School and were given their choice of colleges. Charles selected Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky, where he was given an AB Degree. In time, he married a schoolmate, had one son, then passed away from heart attack in 1933.

While much of this was happening to Charles, Ruth was growing up in grammar grades. She finished High School at Crowell, then decided she would go to a business college and be a career woman.

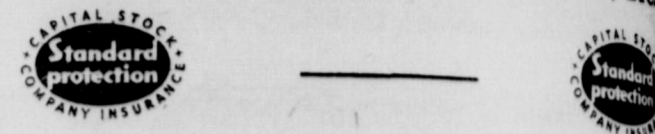

Ruth went to college, as she had planned, but forgot that career when she met Karl ten Brink. Today, Ruth and Karl and their three children, Charles, Helen and Sarah, live in Crowell, while Karl farms nearby.

After Effie, Henry Fergeson's wife, died, he felt so alone that he assumed greater responsibilities. He and his son-in-law, Karl, bought out the drugstore. He had been a member of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church for forty-five years and took even greater interest in church affairs.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Crowell State Bank, and is alert in business trends, as always. He threw himself into all these interests with greater abandon in order to fill his life after Effie left him.

Another sorrow came to him. Twenty years ago his brother, Stonewall, passed on. Both his other brothers retired, and live in Crowell, Charlie with his wife, Tom with his children.

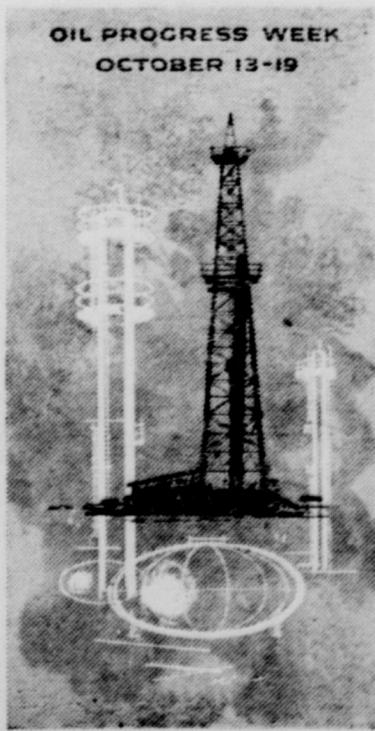

Henry's vision failed so he and Karl sold out and after forty-four years there was no Fergeson in the drugstore in Crowell. He looks after two farms and about the world at will.

Henry Fergeson was eighty on November 6, 1956. He had to be in town so I have asked to sing a song that he gave at San Antonio last year. It is a favorite years ago.

THE WONDROUS YEARS OF OUR TIME...

Man's use of petroleum — of oil and natural gas — began before the first records of history. But petroleum's full usefulness to man has been a matter of decades only. They have been wondrous years, those decades. Years that saw automobiles built by the millions because gasoline was available as a cheap source of power. Years that saw the oceans dwindle under the high speed of great ships powered by oil. Years that saw the evolution of a more comfortable living in homes warmed by oil and natural gas. Years that saw rubber, fibers, paints and many other useful items of everyday living produced from petroleum's hydrocarbons. Years that saw the earth shrink under the wings of the airplane, and great wars decided by the availability of oil.

Thus, the oil industry has led the way into the wondrous years of our time. The industry, through foresight, ingenuity, research, and risk-taking, has found and produced the oil required in greater quantity each year, has conserved oil for the future, has devised the transportation systems that move oil economically, has built the refineries and plants that convert crude oil and natural gas to the hundreds of useful products needed by a growing United States. The Humble Company, founded in 1917, has participated in petroleum's progress during four great decades, and has pioneered in the development of many current techniques for finding, producing and refining oil. This week, with the industry, Humble invites you to consider the variety and extent of oil's progress . . . Surely no other industry has contributed more to the making of modern America.

MY FEET GET ITCHY

Abilene, Tex. — Abilene police can usually depend on Mike Garity to stop in for a visit when things get slow.

Recently he came by, with the assistance of eight Negro boys who found him loose about 9:30 p. m. near Lincoln Junior High. They dropped him at the police station. He was armed with a toy double-barrel shotgun.

Mike is 7, and a regular visitor with the city officers. Every few weeks, police say, his bare feet itch and he goes for an unauthorized stroll. A while back he got on a tricycle and rode across Abilene to a feed mill building, which he promptly climbed.

Another time Police Radio Operator Allen Hatchett encountered Mike. On a borrowed tricycle he had left home and pedaled the vehicle three miles to Municipal Airport. Hatchett saved him the trip back.

After his last trip an officer jokingly told Mike he might have to spank him if he caught him gallivanting around again. The boy studied the policeman a few moments, then replied, "My mother will do that when I get home."

by HUGH WILLIAMSON

Survey takers, out gathering figures on hunting and fishing, have come up with some rather amazing statistics.

For example: More people hunt and fish than take part in all spectator sports combined. And anglers and hunters outnumber golfers nine to one.

Texans spend twice as much money to hunt and fish than they do for admission to all football, baseball, and basketball games, plus all other spectator sports, plus all movies and all other theatrical attractions combined.

The hunting and fishing bill of Texans is greater than that spent on medical care, dental work, and hospitalization insurance.

And the money spent for outdoor pursuits is rapidly increasing. That's because the population is growing and folks nowadays have more leisure time.

These are cold facts, based on accurate, scientific surveys, conducted for the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Plenty for All Fortunately, there is going to be a bountiful supply of fish and game for all these anglers and shooters. Building of many new lakes, stocking them, and good rains this year will mean many fish.

Deer and turkey, along with antelope, once faced extinction in Texas. Game management programs and favorable conditions afield have brought back the deer and the turkey populations and put them in proper balance.

Viewers of the situation are pleased. But they see a need for more and better facilities and accommodations for the hunter and the fisherman.

Trend in Motors Another indication of change, is the trend toward bigger outdoor motors. A decade ago most of these were five horsepower and under. But this year, a major manufacturer predicts that 48 percent of the motors will be in the 30-horsepower class or larger.

This big stuff is for the speed boat people and those who tow the water skiers. It's not to much for fishermen. A Mercury-6 is plenty of motor for her.

You can stir around and get up an argument between the speed boat boys and the fishermen. But I don't think it's necessary. There's plenty of water for all.

Mostly the conflict comes about when the lakes are crowded on week ends and holidays. At those times I fish where the big boat boys don't go. Below a certain dam, for instance, it's too shallow for the heavier craft. I chug along up there, dodging rocks and stumps as I go, anchor just below the dam, and catch fish.

Belligerent Blacks The best black bass fishing I know is in one or two South Texas lakes. I was down there the other day when the blacks were hitting surface lures like mad.

In this particular lake there's a wooded area, with plenty of weeds and brush. The bass abound there. They are infuriated by the noise of a topwater lure.

I had spectacular success with one lure that had a spinner aft. The sound it made was like a school of minnows in flight.

One thing we noticed was that a hooked fish was nearly always followed to the boat by one or two of his fellows. When I hooked one, my partner cast to the same spot to try for the other fish. I did the same when he had a fish on. Sometimes this strategy paid off.

It was a great day and a great place for bass fishing. The weather was cool enough, except just in the middle of the day. We drifted around, among the old mossy trees, casting into the shade where bass were hiding. Very often, after a twitch of the lure, a bass hit. Before the end of the day, we had our limit of blacks.

That kind of fishing is rare, but there will be more of it during the coming months, as this year's fine crop of young bass reaches maturity.

If you hanker for bass, plan to be in your best fishing spot during February and March.

Whoopers Moving The big whooping cranes are in process of moving from their breeding grounds in Canada to their winter home. Eight adult and two young birds have been sighted on the wing.

Whoopers move along by easy stages. Usually they begin arriving at their Texas refuge about the middle of October or later. Lag-gards will trail along at intervals.

There are only about 30 whooping cranes alive now. In flight, they appear as huge, white birds, with jet-black wing tips, red-crowned heads and long legs trailing. Please don't shoot them!

A Few Quick Ones Word reaches us that the hottest duck hunting grounds during the coming season will be in far Southeast Texas, around Beaumont. There is water in the marshes to entice the quackers. Hunting should be excellent.

Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas is timely in planning now to inaugurate a firearms training program. With the deer and turkey season just around the corner, people will be conscious of safety precautions necessary to prevent hunting accidents.

Cecil Reid, SCOT executive secretary, said the plan is designed mainly for teenagers and "would hinge on gun safety, but naturally would include emphasis on the handling of modern weapons, some of which are much more complex than the old type one-shot hammer gun."

Well, Mr. Reid sure has got something there. In the old days a shot gun was either a single barrel or a double barrel, and not much complication either way. Today's shotguns—rifles too, for that matter—are as intricate as can be.

And maybe more so.

Chinese Girl Now Student at Tech

Enrollment in a big institution like Texas Tech may give some new students the temporary jitters, but not Hsing Yung Wang.

For by now the petite Chinese girl is used to having her life completely changed in a matter of days.

She has experienced a childhood in an isolated North China village, and womanhood in a Japan besieged by U. S. bombers. And she has lived on the island fortress of Formosa, where cultures of East and West blend.

Consequently she could step confidently on a large airliner last week and in only 18 hours fly from the Orient into a way of life that probably is as different from her old environment as can be found on earth.

Leaving home was not as hard for her as for many new students. She experienced it before under much more trying circumstances. During World War II, the Japanese occupied her small village, sent her mother to prison and her father, four brothers and two sisters to separate areas as slave laborers.

But Hsing has a gift that set her apart in the eyes of the Japanese and later brought her to Tech. That gift is special ability in mathematics.

The Japanese, who recognized more and more the technical prowess of the West as the war progressed, desperately sought scientific help. When they found Hsing's abilities through tests, they sent her as a prisoner-student to the Nara Girls Normal School, near Osaka, Japan.

There she witnessed the spectacle of U. S. bombers reducing Osaka's industries to rubble.

"We were not afraid," she said. "As far as we could tell, the Americans bombed only the factories. They never hit anything close to our school."

After V-J Day, Hsing returned to China to look for her family. She found her father, one brother and one sister and they moved as quickly as possible to the freedom of Formosa. The whereabouts of her mother, three brothers and one sister still are unknown.

Hsing completed her bachelor's degree in mathematics at Cheng Kung University in Tainan, a city of approximately 300,000 in southern Formosa.

A close friend of Hsing — Mei Ling Tsai—is a Tech graduate student in chemistry and it was through correspondence with her and through Tech bulletins that Hsing decided to come to Texas.

Hsing is working toward a master's degree in mathematics at Tech. Authorities there think enough of her ability that they are allowing her to teach a course in her field.

What is her ultimate ambition? "If I had my choice, I would go home to my village," she replied. "But that is impossible now."

Prussic Acid Dangerous to Livestock

The time of the year is approaching when cattle owners should be warned that Johnson grass or sorghum after a frost is sometimes extremely high in prussic acid content and is very dangerous to livestock.

When wilted by frost or drought, certain chemical changes sometimes occur in the plant and it develops a content of prussic acid, or hydrocyanic acid, says Joe Burkett, county agent. The poison acts quickly, and can kill an animal within a short time after the damaged plant has been eaten.

Symptoms described by the agent include an appearance of nervousness, difficult breathing, and difficulty in standing. Whether a poisoned animal can be saved depends upon how quickly a veterinarian can get to it. Treatment involves injecting antidotes directly into the blood stream.

Young plants will develop more prussic acid than those approaching maturity, points out Burkett. The leaves will contain from three to 25 times more acid than corresponding portions of the stalk in plants in the boot stage. The upper, younger leaves will contain more acid than the lower leaves.

Frosted or drought-stricken Johnson grass or sorghum should not be grazed until it is completely dry, advises the agent. If Johnson grass or sorghum is ready to cut before a frost, it may be cut during the first day after the frost and used for hay if care is taken to see that it is completely cured before baling.

Winter Cover Crops Beneficial to Soil

The rains and winds that characterize winter weather often rob the farmer of valuable topsoil through erosion—not to mention the hidden damage from leaching. But farmers can prevent this wintertime destruction of their land by planting cover crops.

But it must be remembered that cover crops do more than just protect the land, says Joe Burkett, county agent. These crops improve the soil itself, leading to increased yields.

Many growers have discovered that winter legumes increase their cotton and corn yields, more than paying for the time and money spent in putting in the legumes, points out the agent. These cover plants do not interfere with other crops, coming at a time when farm work slows down. They are turned under to add plant food, especially nitrogen to the soil during the slack period in the spring.

Grazing, hay silage or seed taken from the winter crop will provide other sources of income for the farm, he adds.

Annual winter legume crops named by Burkett include vetch, Austrian winter peas, and sweet clover. Some operators use a combination of small grains and annual legume while others prefer the annual grass alone.

Mrs. Sim V. Gamble, Mrs. Bill Cates and Mrs. Walter Ramsey and mother, Mrs. E. M. Gamble, attended a WMU Leadership Clinic at the Calvary Baptist Church in Vernon last Thursday.

LACK OF WATER

"Awareness of the lack of water supply in the U. S. today is in about everybody's mind. However, if you think we have troubles now, take a look on down the road, say two decades hence. It is estimated that by then America's water supply will have to be doubled." — Liberal, Kansas, Daily Times.

STUBBORNESS PAID

Dallas, Tex.—Clyde Tom Rugel, who owns a drive-in, saved himself from being robbed one night by stubbornness.

A man asked Rugel for a paper bag to put a pair of shoes in. When Rugel got the bag, the man pulled a pistol and told Rugel to put his money in the bag.

"No," said Rugel.

"I mean business," the man warned, shooting behind the bar and above Rugel's head.

Rugel still refused. The would-be bandit laid his gun down and told Rugel, "Call the police, I want to go to jail." At this point Rugel stopped being stubborn.

"I'm cooking dinner with my CLEAN, AUTOMATIC Electric RANGE" and nothing is as COOL, FAST and SAFE as Electric Cooking—

As this modern kitchen clearly shows, today's trend is to electricity. And perhaps the best example of this is the electric range. Smart looking, convenient. Insulated on all 6 sides (as are all electric ovens) you get even, steady heat for baking and roasting. No guesswork with electric surface units either. The heat you set is yours automatically every time. And the heat goes directly into the bottom of the pan, not up the sides and into your kitchen. But the thing you'll appreciate most is the way your electric range stays modern—year after year.
