$2.00 A YEAR

Per Cent of Taxes Are Paid For Year 1926

For several years the collection of taxes in this county has been remarkably good, but no year has ever been better than the one just closed. It is almost surprising to some people that collections were so good. According to figures given by the tax collector a little more than 97 per cent of the taxes were paid for last year. The total amount charged was $2,225 and the amount collected was $1,113,977.35, including occupation taxes not charged. The round numbers the collector is as follows: October more than $3,000; November more than $3,000; December more than $25,000; January more than $81,000. The four divisions are state ad valorem, county ad valorem, school, and road. State ad valorem was $1,759; county ad valorem, $41,000; school tax, $30,717.12; road tax, $7,328.58. These are the amounts collected.

The amounts charged were, state ad valorem, $35,339.59; county ad valorem, $42,557.34; school tax, $31,474.07; road tax, $7,521.23. Deducting the occupation tax of $122.00 from the total collections, it leaves a difference between the amount collected and the amount charged of a little more than $3,000 uncollected.

H. Cooper Pays Paducah a Visit

H. H. Cooper of Crowell, a man who specializes in Rhode Island Red chickens, and an expert in the chicken business, was in Paducah last Saturday, conferring with H. M. Canas, this county agent. In talking with a Post reporter, he said in part: "I have just been down to see the agent, and think it is one of the best inventions of the age. It is killing a long-felt want among the people who desire to raise some chickens, no matter whether they wish only a few birds or a large flock. And I am certainly pleased at the way the people over this entire section are becoming interested in this hatchery. I understand they are sending eggs here from a half dozen or more towns around Paducah, and that the citizens of the county are keeping the machine running over all the time. Mr. Cantrell told me that it will be away up in March or April before there will be any empty trays in the machine, and he has applications every day for hatching space. This hatchery is put in more on the experimental than otherwise, for it was not known just how the machine would run out, or how much interest the people generally would take in that kind of thing. But from what I hear I see it is a foregone conclusion that the machine-hatched way is going to be the only way in Cottle county from here out. The co-operation given your County Agent along this line will mean thousands of dollars to be spent in this county in a few months. It will mean satisfaction among the chicken owners and it will mean that only the purest strains will be found in this county."—Paducah Post.

Worms Reported in Small Grain Crop

A number of farmers over the county have recently reported that they have found among their wheat and oats an abundance of cut worms. These appeared last year in spots in the oat crops and in some instances literally destroyed considerable portions of fields but it seems that they did not appear in the wheat until this year. They are not reported to have done harm to the wheat yet but the fact that they did injure the oats last year and are now present in the wheat makes the farmers a little apprehensive that they may do harm. The worms are said to work on the roots of the small grain, cutting them and causing the plant to die. They are found at a shallow depth under the surface of the ground. For the last two winters the temperature has been rather mild, no long protracted freezes, and it may be that this has had something to do with it. Just what this is going to amount to can not be foreseen. Perhaps there is no cause for alarm, and yet the worms might prove to be a serious menace to the small grain.

Beer Maker Runs Away While House Is Being Searched

Homer Cawthan, a well known man in Crowell, had been suspected as being engaged in making beer for some time by the officers but a search could not be made until evidence warranted it, so on Saturday night of Feb. 19th, the sheriff procured a search warrant and took charge of Cawthan and took him to the office of the county attorney, in whose charge the man was left while the sheriff and city marshal went to search the house, and while they were gone Cawthan simply got up and left the county attorney, pulling away by main force. He ran away and has not been seen in Crowell since. A search of the premises of the Cawthan residence revealed the fact that suspicions were well founded and quite a quantity of beer was found. It was being made within two blocks of the court house. But just how long it is not known.

Little Boy at Paducah Struck by Automobile

Last Sunday afternoon Puryear Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Thomson of this city, started across the street between the Fair Store and the First National Bank. A negro man driving a big car was coming down the street and in some manner struck the little boy, knocking him down. The car ran over one of the child's feet and it was thought at first that he was seriously hurt. He was rushed to the Paducah Sanitarium where a thorough examination was had, and it was found that no bones were broken and that he would soon be all right once more. The little boy was badly frightened and it was indeed a narrow escape.—Paducah Post.

Underwood Attends N. E. A. at Dallas

Prof. R. B. Underwood, superintendent of the Crowell public schools, attended the big National Educational Association at Dallas this week. He went down on Sunday and was there for Monday. This is one of the big events for the teachers of Texas. It is the first time the National Educational Association has ever been brought to Texas and it was a rare opportunity the teachers of Texas have had to attend. Usually the meetings are held in the larger cities, such as Chicago, Cincinnati and others of that class in the North and East.

Fruit Retarded by Recent Cold Wave

The cold spell coming last Sunday and lasting for several days this week will undoubtedly prove a benefit to the fruit crop. Peaches are ready to bloom and only await the coming of a few warm days. But it is not thought they were far enough advanced to be injured to any extent by the cold weather of the week.

Board of Directors Employ Plainview Man As Secretary

At a special meeting of the board of directors of the Foard County Chamber of Commerce Monday Mack Boswell of Plainview was unanimously elected as secretary of the organization and was notified by County Agent Fred Rennels of the board's action. Mr. Boswell visited Crowell Saturday and met with the directors that evening and talked with them about the work, looking to a probable agreement of his acceptance of the position. Mr. Boswell is a brother of John Boswell, formerly secretary of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce, but now with the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, who is well known over this section of the state.

The younger Mr. Boswell has been acting as assistant secretary of the Plainview organization for about 20 months under Maury Hopkins and has had splendid training and sufficient experience to give him a practical knowledge of the details of the work. He is young, but is energetic and will make every effort possible to serve in the capacity of a secretary to the benefit of all concerned. We believe that Mr. Boswell, with the board of directors and committees all co-operating to promote the interests of Foard County, will be able to show beneficial results in the months to come, and no doubt the organization will become a fixed and permanent organization in our midst.

It might be said here that this is not a thing just to promote the interests of Crowell, but it is a county organization and will seek to bring development to the varied resources of the county. Among these, and possibly the one that will stand at the top of the column, is agriculture. The fact is not to be overlooked that the prosperity of the towns depends upon that of the rural sections. So the county must necessarily have first consideration and the towns will take care of themselves.

The news feels that it expresses the sentiments of the board and the new secretary in making these statements, and further, that county-wide co-operation will be sought to the end that the organization may function to the limit of its needs and even beyond expectation. Mr. Boswell was very favorably impressed with this section of the county and thinks it has unmeasured possibilities. He will be active in the work as soon as he can be relieved of his present responsibilities which will probably be less than a week.

BIBLE CLASS HAS BANQUET

The members of the young men's Bible Class of the Baptist church met last Thursday night at a banquet in the basement of the church. There was good attendance and the interest taken by everyone present made it a very enjoyable occasion. Several talks were made by the members stressing the value of the Sunday School and the opportunity that is offered in Crowell for the building of an excellent Bible class. Rev. E. L. Mayfield very ably stressed the importance of co-operation of the members with teachers and officers. Plans were also discussed for operating the church paper. The members present expressed themselves as being in favor of having a regular monthly banquet and business meeting in connection.

MARRIED HERE SUNDAY

There is a time for all things, it is said: a time to eat, a time to sleep; a time to work, a time to play. Also there is a time to marry, and it happened on last Sunday that a couple wanted to get married just as the preacher was ready to shove his feet under the dining table for the noon meal. Of course, there was nothing to do but to answer the call of the anxiously waiting parties, who were by name Mr. Roy Powell and Miss Nell Osborne, of Paducah, and the call came for Rev. W. J. Mayhew to go to the Rialto Theatre just as the hands of the clock pointed to high noon, and while the enjoyment of a meal for the time being was interrupted, two souls were made happy.

A. L. Johnson to Start Building a Poultry House Soon

Gravel is being placed on the ground just west of A. L. Johnson's feed store for a new poultry building. The building will be a frame structure 25x80 feet and will have a concrete floor. This will be included under the roof of the feed store building which will be somewhat remodeled. The upper story of the feed house will be taken off and made one story, the two, the feed house and the poultry house being put under the same roof. The new building will then be the same size as the old one and the two will occupy 50x80 feet.

This building will be occupied by the Crowell Produce Company, with which Mr. Johnson is connected, and it will be their headquarters here for the handling of poultry in the future. It will be a great improvement over the old Woodmen building near the Commercial Hotel for the handling of turkeys during the season, as well as handling of chickens and eggs all along. The poultry business is growing in Foard County. Last season alone these people handled about $70,000 worth and it meant much to the farmers and poultry people over the county. This year it will be more and will increase from year to year.

Bryan O'Connell Buys Home Bakery

A deal has been consummated whereby the ownership of the Home Bakery is transferred from Cecil Myatt to Bryan O'Connell and the latter is now in charge of the business. Mr. O'Connell is a home man and is therefore no stranger to the people of this community. He is young and enthusiastic and possesses business qualifications that should enable him to become one of the progressive and leading business men of the city. He knows what the public demands in every line of business—service of high quality—and knowing this he will bend every effort possible to satisfy that demand in this business venture.

Mr. O'Connell already has employed a good baker and expects to maintain a standard in the quality of his products that will class them with the best. He will also keep the bakery strictly sanitary in every particular. Mr. Myatt has not made known his plans for the future but will probably remove to some other place.

Want First Monday Trades Day Boosted

Some persons have called attention to the fact that the time of year has come when we may expect good weather conditions and have suggested to the News that attention be called to First Monday as a trades day. For many years First Monday has been a very important day in the month, a time when the farmers come to town and bring anything they may have to trade or sell. It has often been a day of lively trading and proves beneficial to many. Next Monday is first Monday in March and will be trades day, the first in the year, according to information given the News. Come and if you have anything you want to sell bring it along.

Bowie Wcman Urged To Take Presidency of T. F. W. C.

Mrs. W. R. Potter of Bowie is being urged by her many friends to allow her name to be presented as a candidate for president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, an honor which her friends think she is especially fitted to accept. Her friends in Crowell will be pleased to know that Mrs. Potter is being boosted for this position, first because of her eminent qualification for it and second because of the fact that she is a West Texas woman and her election would be something of which West Texans would be proud. The preachers marry for money but don't always get it.

The Cotton Crop Is Nearly Gathered

The gins are still having a little cotton to gin but most of the crop has been gathered. There are perhaps not more than two or three hundred bales yet to be ginned, according to information given the News.

This has been a hard year on the farmers because of the low price of cotton, which made it difficult to get it gathered, and also because of the continued wet weather throughout the fall and most of the winter. At this time the ground is wet and little farm work has been done in the way of getting ready for another crop. Little can be done until the ground dries out so that plowing can go forward. The farmers are already late getting all the cotton off the land and the indications are that they will be late in getting started on the new crops. It has been a most unusual year in many respects but the fact that the ground is supplied with an abundance of moisture is no discouraging condition. Too often the case is that spring comes with an insufficient amount of moisture to brighten the hopes of the farmer. This spring he will not have to worry about that, but he will be confronted with the problem of deciding on the acreage he can best afford to plant to the different kinds of crops.

Committee Decides to Move Clarendon College to Amarillo

Clarendon, Texas, March 1 (Sp)—Sixteen of the committee of twenty-five men chosen at the annual meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference last fall at Childress to look well into the relocation of Clarendon College met in Amarillo Monday of this week and voted fifteen to one to move the institution to Amarillo. The Rev. O. P. Clark of Vernon was chairman of the committee that has been looking for a new location. A choice of five proposed sites for the college in Amarillo will be selected on March 7.

A special meeting of the Northwest Conference has been called by Bishop John M. Moore to convene March 29 to formally accept the findings of the special committee that has made the location. A special committee of citizens from Amarillo has already visited Southern Methodist University at Dallas and much of the new college at Amarillo will be patterned after the Dallas institution. Subscription lists have already been started in Amarillo for the immediate building of dormitories and an administration building. The sessions of Clarendon College that have been held here for the last twenty-nine years will cease to be at the end of the summer school. Agitation has been carried on for the last two years to move the college from Clarendon.

The removal order in February was coincidental with the fact that Clarendon citizens raised $21,437 in February, 1925, and paid off all indebtedness on the college in order to raise the rank to that of a senior college, and were of the opinion that there would be no further agitation for removal. Actual figures show that 75 per cent of all contributions to the college in the past come from a radius of twenty miles around Clarendon. If plans of the commission are realized the first session of college in Amarillo will open with the September session of school.

Clarendon College was founded in 1898 by the Methodist Church. It is a Class A college. Dr. G. S. Hardy was president of the college for several years, being succeeded by Dr. George S. Slover, who retired about a year ago on account of failing health after serving as president for more than twenty years. Dr. R. E. L. Morgan is now president of the college.

The college is coeducational and has been a strong factor in denominational education in Texas. Many of the leading citizens of the Panhandle are graduates of this institution.

If a fellow would just marry his affinity in the first place, he could save a lot of support money and court costs.

Club Work Looks Good, Says the County Agent

According to County Agent Fred Rennels, club work among the boys and girls of the county looks mighty good this year. He is delighted with the outlook and is very much pleased with the hearty co-operation given by the teachers of the various rural schools.

He has made practically every school in the county and plans are laid to have an organization in every community, and to have monthly meetings at all these clubs. A great amount of good can be done through these clubs in the promotion of better farming, better stock and better poultry, and since agriculture, with its kindred interests, is the foundation of the material prosperity of the country, the News feels that too much can not be said through the press or done by individual effort to stimulate interest along these lines.

It has been suggested that a county agricultural advisory board composed of individuals over the county, whose business it would be to look after matters pertaining to better farming and working through the various clubs would not be a bad thing. In one county in Texas this is one feature of a five year program and it has as its aim to provide a program of rural life education, to promote boys and girls' club work and to create and promote what is called "The County Plan."

Perhaps not enough encouragement and co-operation have been given these clubs. The county agent has done his best and has had remarkable success, but club work needs more encouragement from over the county generally, and especially from the business men of the towns. A few prizes offered would stimulate the work. In this we are building for the future. It will bear its greatest fruits when the boys and girls now studying improved methods of farming come to be the citizens of the county.

WEST RAYLAND TEAM WINS TWO GAMES

The girls' basket ball team of the West Rayland School played two games of basket ball Wednesday, February 23.

The first game was played at Vernon, where the West Rayland team met the Vernon Junior high team and defeated them, the score being 22 for West Rayland and 11 for Vernon Junior High.

This game was called at 4 p. m., Wednesday evening. The West Rayland team met the Elliott (Wilbarger County) team at the Harold team. This was the fastest, the most thrilling and one of the closest games that the West Raylanders have had any part in. The results of the game were uncertain until the final whistle of the scorekeeper. The result was West Rayland 21, Elliott 16.

Mr. Taylor of the Vernon Junior High called both games. He called them fair, fast and tight.

It would be hard to pick the star player of the West Rayland team as each member of the team played a star game in her particular line. On the scoring end Ruby Freudigger made 34 of the 43 points that were made. The other scores were divided among Willie Mae Farrar and Era Mae Derrington, who played at both forward and center. Velma Ladd also played a great game at center and at guard, while Edith Kate Prescott and Nora Richter kept the opposition from scoring by their alertness at their positions of guard.

Ruth Freudigger was substituted for Edith Kate Prescott during the latter half of the fourth quarter.—Contributed.

At the conclusion of the evening's play Mr. Que R. Miller was given the prize for highest total score among the gentlemen. Mrs. J. C. Brian received the prize for high score among the ladies, having made an unusual score throughout an evening of record-breaking hands and play.

A delightful lunch was served at 11 o'clock consisting of a nicely arranged plate of chicken salad, cherry pie with whipped cream, coffee, cakes and potato flakes. The plate decorations were tastefully planned in honor of George Washington's birthday.

MUSIC MEMORY NOTES

On a date which will be announced later, a program will be given in Crowell in which numbers used in the music memory contests will be featured. This will be the third annual program of this type given here and it is hoped that the project will be given the support it has received in the past. Local musicians have willingly consented to lend their efforts in making the program a real event. The complete program will appear in this column at a later date.

The presentation of this program is under the auspices of the Columbian Club, which sponsors the music memory work in the local school. All communities in the county are invited to attend this program, and it is especially urged that those teachers and pupils who are conducting the work, make plans to attend.

Reports come from different schools engaged in the work that lively interest is being shown. It is hoped that a real appreciation of good music is being fostered and acquired in the communities, since this, as has been stated frequently in these notes, is the chief aim of the contest.

"The Swan" is from the suite "The Animal's Carnival," a composition by the French composer, Saint-Saens (Sahn-Sohns). Saint-Saens was the dean of present-day French composers. He died in 1921. In this suite, "The Animal's Carnival," the composer used tone as a means of portraying certain animals and birds and their habits. The beauty and grace of "The Swan" is shown in this number.

"Spring Song" by Mendelssohn is one of the composers many and famous "Songs without Words."

It is a descriptive number and represents the spinning with its steady rhythmic whirr. This number, perhaps, stirs memories in the minds of the old who remember some one in their childhood using the spinning wheel. It produces fancies in the mind of the young, to whom the idea of the spinning wheel is ever of keen interest.

Mendelssohn was born in Hamburg, Germany, in 1809. He died at the age of thirty-nine years, a comparative young man. His was a happy life. He is designated as one of music's happiest characters. This happiness is reflected in his compositions and makes itself felt in the lyric beauty of several numbers. The "Spring Song" is one of these happy lyrics of tone and melody. It will be remembered as one of the popular numbers of last year's music memory list.—Director.

Crowell, Texas, March 4, 1927

A committee appointed at the Northwest Texas Conference last fall to decide the matter of relocating Clarendon College met Monday and voted almost unanimously in favor of removing the institution to Amarillo. The fact that fourteen out of fifteen favored the change of location is pretty strong evidence that there were some mighty good reasons for the change. To one not very much interested in the matter it appears to be a wise decision. Continued growth for the institution could not be expected in a town so small as Clarendon. Besides, Clarendon is not a railroad center, which fact is a drawback to the college. In all probability, too, the committee had the assurance of stronger financial support for the college at Amarillo. We judge that Clarendon has a town of its size. It has been to many of them a thing of pride, done its best by the college, and that it has been no small part for but the future will be more promising and it will gain prestige with its expansion of usefulness and influence amid new environments.

Everyone interested in improving public school facilities in this community will be glad to know that steps are being taken to effect consolidation with two adjoining districts. This school year has been one of great hardship on teachers and pupils and it is the hope and anticipation of most everybody that there will be hearty co-operation on the part of all to the end that the present handicap will be overcome by the time another school year is upon us. A good school building here with the necessary equipment will be an object of pride and will be all the more appreciated because of the obstacles necessary to overcome. But one of the very gratifying features of the situation is that there has been comparatively no personal opposition. The people have been patient as the board has tried to work out and solve the building problem, and now that it seems to be taking the only course open, that of an election on consolidation, prospects of achievement of long-cherished hopes are brighter than ever.

Hidalgo County started to put on a three million dollar campaign for hard surfaced roads, but decided not to fool with a small thing like that and doubled it, making it six millions. Some of Hidalgo's non-resident property owners in Foard County are going to help pay that six millions, and so far as we know are not kicking about it. These should be our biggest boosters for good roads in Foard County.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For City Marshal:
HENLEY GOODE,
R. J. THOMAS,
P. D. MOSELEY.

This film is owned and controlled by the American Legion and can only be shown by American Legion Posts. The Gordon J. Ford Post of Crowell has gone to a great expense in order that this historical film could be brought to Crowell and we hope that every one will avail themselves of this opportunity of seeing this great history of the World War. This picture will be shown at the Rialto Theatre March 14th and 15th.

THE PICTURE — "The World War," the most elaborate production of its kind yet attempted, is an accurate, historical record, expertly compiled and carefully edited, showing not only America's part in the world war, but that of the Allies and Germany as well. There are thrills and action aplenty, for many of the scenes were photographed under enemy fire! This unusual picture brings a true realization of the war, and inspires the greatest honor and respect for those who fought and died for right and justice.

Detailed Specifications
Type: Straight, historical war picture. No plot.
Length: 8,900 feet.
Number of Reels: Nine.
Screening Time: Two hours.
Synopsis: War in all its phases is to be seen in this unusual production. Lumbering tanks, murderous machine guns, sweeping No-Man's Land, poison gas, smoke screens, death bombs, the sinking of ships by submarines, falling planes, the flare of star shells, falling men—all elements of war—are to be seen in "The World War." Animated maps that grow light and dark and extend and contract, show the progress of the war in a most graphic and absorbing manner. America's part is traced from the declaration of the war by President Wilson, through the training camp period, the transporting of troops to France, disembarkation and the heroic action of the A. E. F. at Cantigny, Chateau-Thierry, Belleau Woods, Champagne-Marne, Aisne-Marne, St. Mihiel, the Argonne, and finally the scenes at the front when on Armistice Day the guns were silenced. It is truly a never-to-be-forgotten picture.

What Price, Service!

Far up in the Pacific Northwest, where tumbled mountain ranges toss snow-crowned peaks above the clouds and lonely forests whisper primeval secrets, dwells a race of hard-bitted men whose deeds of daring, whose courage and hardihood, whose determination and devotion to duty have woven about themselves a colorful tradition. An epic figure—the red-coated ranger of the Northwest Mounted Police. What is it they say of him? "He always gets his man!"

And down in the Southwest, where tawny prairies sweep out to limitless horizons and blue northers scream down across the Great Divide, thrives another breed of weather beaten adventurers, whose deeds of daring, whose hardihood and devotion to duty if of no less heroic measure, if less spectacular, than that of the red coated riders of the North.

Consider this, and answer if you can. Which requires the greater courage—to face the blazing muzzle of a forty-five in the hand of a killer and to tempt destruction in the hot, red glory of combat or alone under the stark, black vault of a starless night, to cling dizzy and sick with cold at the top of a swaying, ice-sheathed pole and with numbed, groping fingers to strain at the swinging wires when unseen death leaps lightning swift at your side?

Let the electric lineman who kept your lights aglow while February storms raged across West Texas answer the question for you.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to announce to the trade that I have bought the Home Bakery and am now in charge of the business.

In assuming the responsibilities of conducting the business of a bakery I am not unmindful of the fact that service and quality of products are the two important things to receive attention, and I shall spare no efforts to reach a standard in both that will commend my products to the general public.

The business will be conducted at the same stand and everything will be made strictly sanitary and kept that way. An experienced baker is now on the job and none but the best to be had will be employed. In brief, I wish the public to know that the products you buy at the Home Bakery hereafter will be the best that bakers can bake and everything will be conducted under strict sanitary rules and regulations.

That is the best any one can promise and it is upon this that I expect to build and maintain patronage.

As soon as conditions will permit I expect to make additions of machinery and equipment that will increase my facilities for handling the trade.

I believe you will give me an opportunity to prove myself worthy of your patronage, and that is all I ask.

Come to see me at the

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

(By West Texas Cham. of Com.)

Rankin—The new Hotel Yates, a $70,000 fire proof hostelry, will soon be completed here, making it one of the finest hotels in the oil fields. The structure will have three stories of hollow tile and face brick walls. It will contain 44 rooms, bar, beer shop, coffee shop and drug store.

Trent—The Trent postoffice has been moved into a stucco building on Front Street to care for increased business due to oil boom activities. Eighty new boxes have been installed and 3 windows are now being used.

Perryton—According to tentative plans, a forty room, all modern hotel is to be erected here. The building will be a two story affair, 50x140 feet, costing $60,000.

Pampa—Pampa is to have a modern creamery. It will be known as the Gray County Creamery, and will be equipped with the most modern fixtures.

Pecos—The local chamber of commerce is now ready to consider offers made by several interested men in building a hotel for this place. Selection is to be made within the next few weeks so that work can be started at once.

De Leon—S. L. Stockard, school editor of the Farm and Ranch magazine, spent a week here recently, working in conjunction with Comanche County Agent Barton visiting various school communities where club work is organized, and organizing activities in sections not already operating.

Crowell—The high line of the West Texas Utilities Company is to be extended to this place. The line will run from Munday to Truscott and from Truscott to Crowell.

Bowie—Contract has been let by the State Highway Commission for the paving with a "high type" of paving the highway from Alvord to the Clay County line on State Highway No. 2 and No. 50. Expenditure will be $205,000 on a stretch of about 25 miles in length.

R.P.M. & Power

YOUR motor is designed to deliver a certain number of revolutions per minute to give maximum power and response under all conditions.

But as carbon forms, that "knock" occurs. The motor revolutions drop—and you lose power on hills and pick-up in traffic.

Conoco Ethyl Gasoline knocks out that "knock." What's more, the carbon (which causes the "knock") becomes a means of power because carbon increases pressure—and increased pressure means increased power. Conoco Ethyl Gasoline performs perfectly under this increased pressure.

So fill the tank with this revolutionizing fuel at the nearest sign of the Continental Soldier—and get extra knockless miles in spite of carbon.

Wife and I have been unusually busy thus far this winter. She has a large house to look after and I have a garden and have been setting out various kinds of fruit and ornamental trees. In addition to this we are again taking the six weeks' course for elderly people at the Organic School. This includes the folk dancing, also the arts and crafts department. It gives us an opportunity to get acquainted with many of the students from the various states. There are some thirty taking this course this winter. Up to January 15 the winter was extra fine and we had a fair garden for new comers, as one must know how to use commercial fertilizer to get results here.

This is the natural home of the long leafed pines and they seem to flourish best in very poor soil and when the ground is cleared for cultivation of the crops one must add most of the material on which crops are expected to thrive. It is, however, a very nice soil to cultivate and farmers that have cows and poultry are apparently doing fairly well.

January the 15th we had an unusually hard freeze for this country. There was ice for three mornings and the last morning where the ground was bare it was frozen to a depth of two inches. Onions, lettuce and cabbage were the only crops that stood such cold. However, since that the weather has been fine, some days most too warm for comfort. Nearly all kinds of fruit has been in bloom, some have had strawberries to eat. A very large acreage has been planted to Irish potatoes and some are now six inches high. The weather was colder on the 19th and 20th, but 40 was the lowest and at sundown Sunday it was 50.

At this place one has opportunities to hear noted people speak and lecture. The Evangelist Sunday drew the largest crowd, but Clarence Barrow has spoken three times in the large hall. Crime, Lincoln and Tolley were the subjects. He is a very odd but intensely interesting speaker. Then a K. K. K. revivalist held sway for several days. He put all the preachers out of humor by saying that all protestant churches should disband and join in with the K. K. K., as they stood for all that is worth standing for. He was against evolution but more ignorant than Bryan as to what it really means.

We surely get a variety here in both religion and politics. With best wishes,
H. M. FERRIN.

TON LITTER CONTESTS

For the past few years there has been conducted through the State and United States each year a Ton Litter Contest, which, when originally started aimed at the production of One Ton of Pork from one sow in six months. That is, the pigs when 180 days old should weigh 2,000 pounds or better. Records have been continuously broken until they have gone around the 5,000 pound mark. This work has been conducted through various agencies throughout the country, while in Texas it has been sponsored by the Extension Service of the A. & M. College. This year, however, it has been taken over by the Progressive Farmer and the Extension Service is co-operating with them.

Some of the benefits derived from the Ton Litter Contests is learning to feed hogs in the most economical way, to prove that pigs may be brought to a marketable condition in half the time that has been usually taken.

Foard County, although having more hogs per farm than many other counties during the recent shortage of hogs has failed to have any entries in the contest. Several have expressed a desire to enter the contest within the next few weeks. Below are a few rules of the contest:

1. Any hog owner residing in Texas is eligible to enroll in the contest.
2. Litters must be farrowed between Feb. 1st and May 25th to be eligible.
3. Hogs of any kind or breeding are eligible—scrub, grade or purebred.
4. Contestants must notify their

7. Contestants are required to keep a record of rations fed the sow during gestation period and while suckling the pigs; also feed fed the pigs from the beginning to end of the contest.

Litters of any number of pigs, large or small, will have a chance at a prize. The prizes run from $35.00 to $100.00. Boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 18 producing heaviest litter, $50.00. They will also compete in the other classes. It is likely that the Foard County Chamber of Commerce will offer some prizes in these contests for the county winners. Missionary Society

The society had its social meeting Monday afternoon at Mrs. A. Y. Beverly's. The weather prevented many from attending. The study of Africa, led by Mrs. Mayhew, was both interesting and instructive. Mrs. Hughston gave a paper on "World currents in Africa." Mrs. Sam Bell gave a paper on "The mission of the Christian church in Africa." Several other topics were discussed. It was announced that Southern Methodism went over the top in contribution to the Bennett Memorial building.
