Former Crowell Citizen Dies at Home at Wichita

The death of J. Frank Hays occurred at his home 4 miles north of Wichita Falls Friday, August 12, after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Hays was born in Rusk County, Texas, January 18, 1859, and while a mere lad the family moved to Cooke County, where he grew to manhood, and in the year 1898 he with his family moved to Foard County, locating at Crowell. The family resided at Crowell until 1920 when they moved to Burk Burnett, remaining there for two years, when they moved to Wichita Falls, where the home was at the time of Mr. Hays' death.

During most of his stay in Crowell Mr. Hays was engaged in the grocery and meat business and was one of the pioneers in business here.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. J. F. Hays, and six children, Mrs. Tildon Gafford, Wichita Falls; Grover Hays, Crowell; John Hays, Wichita Falls; Mrs. Ben Crowell, Wichita Falls; J. F. Hays, Jr., Wichita Falls; Mrs. L. A. Beverly, Crowell. He is also survived by 11 grandchildren, by two brothers, J. F. C. and H. E. Hays, both of Crowell, and one sister, Mrs. J. P. Reynolds, Waxahachie, Texas. All the children and the two brothers and sister, and two nieces, Mrs. G. A. Burks, Covina, California, and Miss Jesalie Cates, Crowell, Texas, were present at the funeral, which took place at an undertaking parlor in Wichita Falls Saturday afternoon, after which interment was made in the cemetery at Wichita Falls.

Those from Crowell attending the funeral were Russell Beverly, Mrs. G. W. Walthall, Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Beverly and baby, Mrs. Dow Miller, Fite Crowell and daughter, Virginia Sue and Mrs. N. A. Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Easley, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bain, and Jesalie Cates. Mrs. S. O. Woods also attended, stopping over on her way home from Oklahoma.

Week-End Meeting To Be at Foard City

A meeting will be held at the Baptist church at Foard City, commencing Thursday night, August 25, and will continue over Sunday night following.

The preaching will be done by Rev. John W. Newson of Abilene. Rev. Newson held a very successful revival at Foard City two years ago at which time a large number were converted. He is a very strong preacher and it will be well worth the time of any who can do so to attend these services.

FROM CAMP PALACIOS

A copy of the Camp Palacios Daily Arrowhead was sent the News the first of the week, dated August 11. It is a splendid sheet and gives news of the activities of the 36th division now encamped in that city.

A marked paragraph had a few few words to say about one Crowell man and a former Crowell man. It was this:

"Col. Claude A. Adams, U. S. P. & D. O. for Texas, is entertaining as his guest, Mr. Sam Scales of Crowell, the city that gave the Guard 'Crip' Adams. Mr. Scales' son is first Sgt. of Co. 'I', 142nd Infantry, and the father is known as the patron and friend of the unit. It might be well for an influential citizen in each city to 'adopt' a guard unit and help it along.

"We are mighty happy to announce that Colonels Adams and Nichols are able to be about their duties—though just a wee bit down by their illness."

Rangers Ordered to Childress Recently

Probable sharp competition between white and negro labor in the gathering of the approaching cotton crop of Childress and adjoining counties is given as the cause of some fights between the two races in Childress Saturday afternoon, which caused some excitement and was sufficient to cause the officers to call upon the Governor for rangers to assist in preventing a race riot.

Some white youths who had been jailed for attacking negro huts are said to have been delivered by their friends when they overpowered the officers and took them.

WE THINK

That some of us, like water, follow the course of least resistance, and therefore go down hill rather than up.

That there never was a time when all the people were of one mind, favoring constructive community building. Some of us, if we could have had our way, would be trying to get along with a wooden courthouse just as we did 25 years ago.

That the streets of Crowell are going to have to be worked to keep them from washing away.

That after the majority have voted for a chicken law everybody ought to keep their fowls in pen or dispose of them.

That the people of Crowell cannot afford to show a lack of interest in a golf course and swimming pool for the city, because of the opportunity of recreation it will offer.

That there ought to be an organized effort to keep the town free from weeds and make Crowell a beautiful town as well as one of healthfulness.

That everybody ought to dispose of his worthless dog, because of the fact that it is a nuisance to the town, and is actually dangerous, but that he ought to keep his good dog and take special care of it because it is a comfort and a joy forever.

That some of these times we are going to have an oil field in Foard County that will prove to be one of the best in this part of the state.

That we are going to have one of the biggest cotton and feed crops in the history of Foard County and that the cotton is going to bring a good price. Consequently we think this county is going to be on top of the world this fall.

That some people would do nearly anything to keep from paying taxes for the development of the country, that they would not only slap the other fellow in the face, but would butt their own nose against a wall just to have a sore one to stick around where other people are.

That it requires no brains, no intelligence, no love to be criticizing the other fellow always, but that it does require a lot of ignorance and hate to do the job well.

That some old dry fossils who merely grunt as you pass them on the street ought to get out on the creek and take voice from the frogs and have somebody put a stick in their necks so that they can look the world in the face, even if they must wear a false one.

That we need less selfishness and more love and consideration for other people and their rights.

Mrs. Jim Kidd of Bristow, Okla., has been here visiting her niece, Mrs. E. A. Dunagan. She and Mrs. Dunagan and Mrs. D. W. Pyle went to Mineral Wells last week to visit the family of J. N. Bryson, returning Monday. Mrs. Kidd expects to return home today. The Kidd family moved away from Crowell fifteen years ago.

Rev. Paul Merrill, of Corsicana, a former pastor of the Christian church here, was in Crowell Wednesday on business. He was accompanied home Miss Edith Schooley who will visit there for several days. Her father, A. T. Schooley will go to that city Saturday to attend a meeting of I. O. O. F. Secretaries and she will accompany him home.

Middlebrook Bull Comes from $25,000 Sire, Says Simons

That Foard County has some of the very best Jersey stock to be procured at any price is the belief of people who know where they were purchased and the blood lines from which they come. We have special reference to the stock recently purchased through our county agent, Fred Rennels.

In a letter to I. W. Middlebrook, who drew one of the bulls, Mr. Simons has this to say:

"I expect you would like to know something about the breeding of this calf. His sire is a splendid imported bull, shipped here from the herd of W. R. Spann, Morristown, N. J., about two years ago. This calf is a son of Xneias Sultan, which sold for $25,000, and has sired some of the breeds' best cows. The dam of your calf is sired by a son of Jersey Volunteer, another bull that sold for $25,000, and that sired real cattle. You will thus see that your calf is of popular blood lines, and in addition, carries a register of merit record on his dam's side that makes him a sure bet for building up your herd.

"You men are to be congratulated on having such bulls and I hope you will give their calves an opportunity to grow up into well developed cows."

The News believes a very wise step was taken when this stock was purchased. We can not realize it now because it is too early, but in the years to come we shall see the results of the placing of this stock in the county. It is the laying of a foundation for real Jersey herds in this county, we believe and will never be regretted.

If people are going to sell dairy products, it stands to reason that good producers are far more profitable than poor ones.

Twenty-Eight Have Subscribed to Club

Subscriptions to the movement to organize a country club, buy land, build a golf course and provide a swimming pool have reached 28 in number.

The promoters of the proposition at first were considering a site west of the City Lake. They have another site in view which they are also considering, that is an 80 or a 100 acre tract south of Tom Vecera's place east of Crowell. This land belongs to J. W. Bell and is said to be an ideal site. It is reported to be not only favorable for golf grounds, but would be a very fine place for polo grounds. It also contains one of the finest sites for a lake of clear water in the country. It is a place where the water would accumulate from a water shed free from red hills and would therefore be clear and fine for a swimming pool.

Mr. Bell has made the organization a price on his land which is very reasonable and terms entirely within its reach, provided the goal of 50 members can be secured at $100 each. It seems altogether probable that 50 members can be secured, since already 28 have subscribed and paid in their $100.

NEW LINE NOW 6 1-2 MILES ALONG

The track laying force of the Fort Worth and South Plains railway is six and one-half miles from Estelline, according to information received at Estelline Sunday night. The contractor is just getting his forces at actual work and from now on it is believed that the work will be given greater activity than the week past.

The track has been finished for several miles and a number of small culverts and bridges have been put in place, thus avoiding delays for this work. The grading is to Turkey, although there will be some bridges to be erected before the track layers reach that place.

So far none of the depots have been erected and will not be until after the trains begin running, as temporary quarters can be arranged within a few days.—Childress Index.

RETURNS FROM COLORADO

J. H. Self returned from a visit to Loveland, Colorado. Mrs. Self returned with him as far as Amarillo where she visited her sister, Mrs. Wilson. According to Mr. Self, Colorado is in fine condition so far as crops and feed are concerned. He said the state is the greenest he ever saw it. It has been raining very much lately, so much so that harvesting of wheat has been somewhat delayed.

Three-Inch Rain Falls at Crowell Saturday Afternoon

One of the biggest rains ever seen to fall in Crowell came Saturday afternoon from about 4 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, measuring 2 3/4 inches by the gauge at the First State Bank.

Weather conditions seemed to be somewhat cyclonic in character, as the wind suddenly changed several times and came in opposite directions with terrific force, and several small outbuildings were demolished and some flues blown from houses. The smokestack of the Blue Gin was blown down. R. J. Roberts' garage was demolished and some plate glass at the News Office was blown out. No dwellings were injured as far as we have learned.

The rain, as heavy as it was, was rather spotted. In and near Crowell it seems to have been heaviest. It reached north to the river and from there on to Quanah the dust was scarcely settled. From Sloan Springs, 7 miles west of Crowell, on this way was a good rain but was lighter west of there. Only a modest shower fell in the Foard City community and south of town, while east of town as far as Thalia the rain was heavy. East of Thalia to near Rayland lighter rains are reported and in the Rayland country a very heavy one. It was spotted from there to Oklaunion, according to some one who came from there late Saturday.

But this will be a wonderful help to the cotton and feed. A considerable territory has been covered and the indications are favorable for more to follow. It looks like we are assured of good crops over the county, and this, with the rise in prices of cotton, makes things look mighty good for Foard County.

Has Found Boll Worms in Cotton

J. L. Hunter reports the finding of some boll worms in his cotton near Margaret and he does not know just what the outcome is going to be. They are numerous enough to give one a feeling that they may do quite a lot of damage to his crop and he seems to be at a loss to know just how to combat the pest.

This is the first report we have heard of the boll weevils. If there are many of them over the county it is likely that little notice has been taken of them. Perhaps there are some in other places and they have not been seen. Mr. Hunter says they had plenty of leaf worms last summer and there was a way to fight them, but he wants to know how in the world one is going to reach Mr. Boll Worm who is seated down under the leaves on the bolls.

The probability of having to fight the boll worms is about the only thing that darkens the cotton prospects at this time, and it is hoped that it will not prove to be a serious pest. There are those who claim to have half a bale of cotton already made, but Mr. Hunter says he cannot see that much in his, even with the boll worm eliminated. But he admits that the cotton is good and says it is loading up just like it did last year.

J. L. Rennels Hurt AS Team Runs Away

J. L. Rennels of the West Rayland community was injured Tuesday afternoon about 6 o'clock when a team of horses ran over him while he was plowing in his field.

According to the information we get, Mr. Rennels and another man were running cultivators in his field and the team driven by the other man became frightened and threw the driver off and came up behind Mr. Rennels and ran into him, breaking three ribs and crushing a shoulder. At first it was thought that he was very seriously injured, that he was fatally injured, but he is reported to be getting along very nicely and is expected to recover.

Mr. Rennels is the father of our County Agent, Fred Rennels.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Clark of Austin were here several days visiting Mr. Clark's brother, Dr. Hines Clark, and family. Mr. Clark is a member of the State Board of Water Engineers and attended a mass meeting of citizens of West Texas at Abilene yesterday together with Governor Moody, Attorney General Pollard and other members of the Board of Water Engineers, to discuss the water rights of Texas.

Canning for Home Use Very Profitable

Mrs. C. W. Ross of Margaret has had wonderful success in using the Home Pressure canner and the Burpee Sealer. Last year Mrs. Ross canned thirty two varieties of vegetables and meats from their farm including tomatoes, beans, peas, pumpkins, potatoes, corn, squash, beets, cucumbers, okra, kraut and meats of various kinds.

Mrs. Ross has been using this method of food preservation for the past four years, and there has not been a year that she has not had plenty of vegetables and products from the farm to can for the home use. It is necessary to purchase very little food for the family away from home. The Ross home is supplied with plenty of milk and butter, chickens, eggs, home cured bacon and an abundance of home preserved fruits, vegetables, and canned meats of various kinds. In discussing the merits of the Burpee Sealer and the Home Pressure Cooker, Mrs. Ross said that their canning equipment more than paid for itself the first year, and besides the economy and the saving of canning the products of the farm, it is just better food and is always ready to serve.

Visited Black Hills But Saw No President

J. J. Handley, Orient Ry. Agent, is now back on the job after having been away for the past two and a half months on vacation in the Black Hills of Irion County, Texas, not of South Dakota.

Mr. Handley and family report a very pleasant vacation which has been very beneficial to Mrs. Handley's health. Mrs. Handley spent the time on the banks of the famous Spring Creek with the finny tribe where she had the pleasure of catching a great many nice bass, channel cat and perch, too numerous to mention.

Oil News

Interest continues to center about the Fain-McGaha well on the Matthews place north of Thalia, but little is known more than has already been given out.

It is said that drillers have reached a depth of more than 1800 feet in an effort to reach a better pay sand and that at different times within the last week gas has accumulated and forced oil and mud to the top of the derrick. It is said that work is progressing slowly and under dangerous conditions, for it is never known when the gas is going to shoot out and maybe force the bit or the slush bucket out.

Work on the Watkins well by the Texas Company south of Crowell is progressing nicely and it is said that a depth of more than 1800 feet has been reached. Nothing is given out as to the formations encountered at this well.

Preparations are being made to spud in on the test well to be drilled on the old Bomar ranch 12 miles southwest of Crowell. It is expected that this will be done the last of the week.

Poultry Specialist Coming to Crowell

On Wednesday, September 7th, a poultry and hog specialist will be in Crowell to give an educational short course, teaching how to recognize, correctly diagnose, treat and prevent disease and other troubles common among poultry and hogs.

Dr. E. A. McCain, a veterinary specialist, is the man who is to be here and give this short course for one day. He will also give a free clinic and will ask you to bring in unthrifty poultry and pigs and watch a recognized specialist make a post-mortem examination. He will show where the trouble is and show how the remainder of the flock or herd may be saved. However, if there is any probability of a contagious disease present among them it is safest not to bring them but to ask for a visit from this specialist and if it is possible he will call and make examination.

Ferguson Bros. have the particulars in regard to the matter an expect to make some more definite announcement later. Those who are interested might see them and find out more about it.

Haney-Rasor Safe Is Robbed of $93 Monday Morning

Some time between ten and twelve o'clock Monday morning the safe of the Haney-Rasor Grocery was robbed of $93 in currency.

The outer door to the safe was unlocked but the key was in the door to the money chamber and the thief simply turned the key, opened the door and took the currency from the money pouch containing the currency, some silver and some checks. Neither the silver nor the checks were taken.

As soon as the money was missed an investigation began but to the present time no clue has been found that would throw any light on the matter.

Ed McMullin, a negro who has been working around the grocery store for some time was arrested on suspicion and lodged in the jail pending investigations.

Only Land to Be Irrigated by Gravity Flow in Preliminary

It has come to the notice of the people of Crowell and vicinity that the petition to be submitted to land owners for a bond issue for the preliminary survey for Pease River dam includes only land that would be irrigable by gravity flow. This would leave all lands in Crowell and Foard County, as well as Quanah and all lands in Hardeman County, out of the proposition entirely. In other words, the petition defines the boundaries of lands only in Wilbarger and Wichita Counties as those included in the district to be irrigated. The amount of this is 300,000 acres.

The petition is to be submitted to the landowners within these bounds of 300,000 acres for a short term bond issue of ten years to secure money with which to make the final survey. Then the acreage is to be cut to 150,000, and the owners of this are to pay all expenses of the preliminary survey and the construction of the dam across Pease River.

It occurred to some of the people here that this might for all time bar lands not defined in the petition, and consequently those towns not specified. So at the suggestion of C. S. Clark of the Board of Water Engineers the matter is being taken up with the directors in the hope that something definite may be included in the petition that will at least make it possible for others to come in and get the benefit of the water to be developed in case they wish to.

It is not understood that any section of the country is to be purposely left out, but the question is in case they wish to use water, even though they must go to the expense of having to lift it, will they have that privilege, or will they forever be barred from using it.

It would seem that it would be left up entirely to the directors, and should there not be more than enough water to supply the needs of those who are now being included in the district, it would just be the misfortune of those who are left out that they could not get a drop.

$150,000 Worth of Building in Course of Construction

From time to time the News has estimated the amount of building under construction, and attention has been called to the fact that it is not spurt building, but is steady. At this time there are perhaps contracts for building in Crowell that will run to $150,000. This includes the many dwellings under construction and not yet finished, and the new school building just started.

In all probability there has never been more money spent at one time for building purposes in Crowell than right now. It is hard to keep up with the new structures. Before one knows it a new home is partially or entirely completed. The vacant lots are fast filling up with new and modern bungalows and when we have a little more cheap water with which to care for trees and grass we can beautify the homes and make Crowell the most attractive little city in West Texas.

OUR HOME TOWN

Not so long ago the U. S. brought back from England the remains of a man and erected a monument to his memory. All that man ever did to deserve such honor was to write a few simple lines.

"Home Sweet Home."

Home is where the heart is, and the home town is where the home is. The home town is what we, who live in it, make it. When you trade with us and we trade with you, all of us are building the finest home place on earth. But when we send away for things we can buy at home, we are helping other people to build their towns. If all of us sent away for all the things we need, who would support our schools, build our roads, improve our streets?

But why ask such a question?

There would be no town, and so no need for streets, roads or schools. Suppose you look around the old home town and see if you can get what you want at the price you want it. The money we spend abroad is gone, but the MONEY we spend at home comes back to us. (Think it over.)

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

(By West Texas Ch. of Commerce)

Stamford—The official call for the mass meeting of citizens of West Texas in particular and Texas in general to be held in Abilene, Texas, August 18, for the purpose of discussing water rights of Texas has been issued from the headquarters office of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce upon authority of President J. A. Kemp of the Texas Conservation Association and of R. W. Haynie, president of the regional organization of the West.

Governor Moody, Attorney General Pollard, and the Board of Water Engineers, as well as other state officials, have been invited to attend the meet. The water rights problem is attracting state wide attention of leading business men, farmers, and other interested parties and it is expected that a record breaking crowd will be on hand August 18 to take part in what is scheduled to be an open forum discussion.

In the official call as issued it is stated that the Texas Conservation Association and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce expect to oppose resolutely any efforts that will place the agricultural, livestock, or industrial interests of the State in jeopardy. The call announces, also, that the conference will disseminate information relative to the rights of landowners with regard to run-off waters and the need for protection thereof. Such action as is deemed necessary and justified will be taken at the mass meeting.

Weinert—Cotton in this community is reported as good. There is but little complaint of worms, this coming from the sandy land district. A good rain is needed. Many farmers here are spending more time on poultry, turkeys, hogs, and better type milk cows.

Hamlin—Considerable improvement has been made in Hamlin property recently. A local filling station, tailor shop, and another business concern have been worked on, making them more modern and convenient. Three new modern residences are being erected in the southern part of town and other building is underway.

Panhandle—The name of "Panhandle Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture" has been adopted here due to widening activities of the commercial organization. Roy Arnold has been re-elected secretary for another year, and new officers have been chosen. Fifteen new directors will look after agricultural interests of the section.

Wellington—President R. W. Haynie of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be initiated into the district convention work of the organization August 25 when he attends the Panhandle-North Plains regional gathering to be held here at that time. Following attendance at this his first district meeting, he will attend the Hills Country Convention at San Saba in September.

Eden—Highway No. 9 Association is now at work. Organization of the group was effected here August 4 when representatives from Big Springs, San Angelo, Brady and Mason met in session at the call of interested citizens of this district.

Midland—The Midland Chamber of Commerce is sending their secretary, Paul T. Vickers, to the national school for commercial secretaries which will be held at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, on August 22 and through September 3. The school will give its attendants opportunity to hear experiences of from 350 to 400 leading secretaries of the nation.

Good Reason Why He Didn't Put on Brakes

It does give one a feeling of security when autoing if the car has one of those "brakes tested" disks on it. To be sure, the brakes may get out of order the day after the disk is pasted on, but if one doesn't know it there is no worry. Besides, it furnishes a fine alibi if one's car is in a collision. Just point to the blue disk and tell the other fellow he must be to blame.

But what is going to happen to those drivers who play the debonair in the matter of brakes? A defective brake means less to them than a buzzing mosquito. It reminds one of a Springfield man who was noted for the reckless way in which he slid down hills. Coming whizz bang down a particularly steep incline, a man riding with him protested, "Why didn't you put on your brakes, for gosh sake?" he asked.

"Because I haven't any," calmly answered the reckless driver, and proceeded to coast down hill at top speed.—Springfield Union.

Girls Shun Architecture

One has to read this twice to believe it.

Out of something over 5,000 United States college students who answered a questionnaire as to their life ambitions, not a single girl wanted to be an architect. Although they wanted to be everything else on earth—everything except soldiers and architects.

It would seem that one of the greatest jobs any woman could undertake would be architecture. Especially of private residences. After all, the designing of a residence is just putting a wall around a house-keeping job. And the architect who makes the plans usually has women to deal with as cash customers. All that a man ever does with a new house is to explain how he would like to have the den and then finds out there isn't going to be any den.—Los Angeles Times.

Book Preserver

A coat of varnish may be applied over the finest tooled leather or other book binding without fear of injuring the color or appearance in any way. The idea is a good one for the protection of rare old books, since the varnish forms a moist-proof, wear-resisting coat which will preserve the cover indefinitely. It is a good idea, too, for children's books, which soon show finger prints and other signs of wear; or for the cook book, which is likely to become spotted and sticky. The washable varnish makes the binding neater and the book more sanitary.

"Alterations to Please"

The smiling little man hustled into the tailor's and asked to see some ready-made suits. He was given a choice. "I'll take this one," he said, "if you'll make any alterations I require." "Certainly, sir," beamed the tailor. "All alterations free, sir—you read our advertisement." "I did," said the customer. "Just after the price, then, from forty dollars to twenty-five and I'll take the suit with me."

Western Story

Sir: A judge in a small Western town was determined to stop the boys from shooting in the town. One day one of the boys got drunk and started to shoot up the place. When he was brought before the judge he was given "Twenty dollars and costs." "But judge," he said, "I fired into the air." "That's all right," said the judge "you might have shot an angel."

Uncle Sam's Islands

The Philippine Islands were ceded to the United States by the treaty of Paris, December 10, 1898, following the Spanish-American war. By the terms of this treaty the United States paid to Spain $20,000,000 in connection with the relinquishment of all claims to the Philippines, Porto Rico and Guam, and under a later treaty of November 7, 1900, a further payment of $100,000 was made to Spain for the cession to the United States of further islands of the Philippine archipelago.

New Perfection Stoves of all types.—Crews-Long Hdwe. Co., Crowell and Thalia.

CHILDREN'S FATAL DISEASES

Worms and parasites in the intestines of children undermine health and so weaken their vitality that they are unable to resist the diseases so fatal to child life. The safe course is to give a few doses of White's Cream Vernaluge. It destroys and expels the worms without the slightest injury to the health or activity of the child. Price 25c. Sold by

Indian Workers Left Tools in Salt Mines

Three great caves in a mountain of salt in Nevada have yielded relics of Indian miners who worked there as early as 1000 B. C. The great natural salt mass stands near the town of St. Thomas, Nevada, in a desert where rain falls so seldom that it has remained for ages without dissolving, which would have been its fate in a moister region. Underground waters, however, have hollowed the caverns in its interior, and in these were found stone hammers with wooden handles, sandals of yucca fiber, carrying nets, and even corncobs, all perfectly preserved through the drying and antiseptic action of the salt. Most of the relics date since the beginning of the Christian era, but a carved club was found of a type used by the basket-makers, the fore-runners of the present Pueblos, who inhabited the Southwest about 1000 B. C. The salt of the mountain is now being mined from the surface by a commercial firm. Why the Indians chose the difficult and dangerous work underground, when salt is easily obtained outside, is difficult to imagine. It is conjectured that several tribes had "salins" on the mountain, and that the later comers, finding the surface workings all pre-empted, had no choice but to enter the dark caverns to seek their salt supplies.

World Eagerly Seeks Great Men's Letters

Immortality and letter-writing go hand in hand, and those who make their business to keep green the graves of the departed great pursue an eternal quest. What wouldn't disciples of the "Shakespeare myth" give to be able to unearth a packet of letters from William Shakespeare to some correspondent in which he settled, clearly and definitely, all the points that have led to controversy? It is extremely improbable that any such convenient packet will ever be found. But students of Alfred de Musset are slightly more hopeful of one day discovering a set of lost letters written by the French poet to the French actress, Rachel. Having ransacked France in vain, they have now turned to England, with the assurance that "any information as to the whereabouts of these letters will be gratefully received."

John L.'s Signature

R. F. Dobbie in his biography of John L. Sullivan records that once a dainty little miss asked the famous pugilist to write her a few autographs so that she could sell them at a church fair. "Oh, what're you giving me?" said John L. in a gracious tragic way. "I ain't no good at writing, but I'll have my manager make as many of 'em—what d'you call 'em, as you want." The damsel told him that this would hardly do. So pens, ink and paper were ordered and after many laborious efforts in which he spoiled more than a dozen pens and ruined a quantity of stationery, Sullivan finally succeeded in scratching down about twenty badly blotched but fairly legible signatures. "I always like to do what I can for religion," he assured her as grasping her hand and most of her forearm between his ink-stained fingers he bade her a courteous good-by.

Happiness in Work

There are social and economic maladjustments, and many of them lead to failures. Failure is unhappiness. But no man fails if he likes the job. Ford is right. Life's real thrill is in the job. That is what we mean by the "pursuit of happiness" in America: it was the quest of the men who built this wonderful American government for us, and it still is the thing which lures us on to larger achievements. Jobs are full of thrills if we wish it so, but we get these thrills only when we fit the job, when we like it, and give it the best we have in us, when we put something of ourselves into the thing we do.—Mobile Register.

Made Goldfish Popular

Goldfish first appeared in England about two centuries ago, but it was Luigi Curas and his father who made them popular in the parlor windows of the nation. They began almost by chance. The Curas came to London from Italy sixty years ago, when Luigi was a boy, and his uncle sent him a can of goldfish to comfort him in his exile. Finding the fishes interested their neighbors, they began to import them and sell them. After a time they added tortoises to their stock-in-trade, and forty thousand tortoises, as well as half a million goldfish, passed through their hands in a year.

"Tidy" Philosopher

Many of the world's greatest philosophers are known to have had very little concern for their personal appearance. One notable exception, according to a biography written about 1688 and recently reprinted, was Spinoza who, says the author, "was extremely tidy." Whenever he left his house there was, as well, "something about his clothes which usually distinguishes a gentleman from a pedant." A present-day critic observes: "He was a man of the greatest reticence, but with nothing to conceal; a man of intensely private life, but wholly transparent."

Races in Malta Speak Same Tongue as Christ

There is still in this world a race of people who speak the same tongue that Jesus and His apostles used in their ordinary everyday talks to the people, says the Christian Science Monitor. This spoken language was "Aramaic." We still may find languages and dialects which have descended from Aramaic. To find today in the pure Aramaic language that Jesus used we must go to the island of Malta. Even there the traveler must not expect to hear it in Valletta. The people of the seaport have long had intercourse with the Italians and the English and their language has changed accordingly. Travel inland to those compact cities of stone—in Zejtun, to Musta with its enormous dome, the third largest in the world—there one hears not the Anglicized, not the Italianized speech, but pure Aramaic. There also one sees a race of people of not only similar speech, but of similar appearance and of similar character to the "chosen of our Lord"—"devout men and women who serve God daily." One can well imagine while living among these people what Andrew, Peter, John and Matthew must have been like. Many races have held so-called dominion over these islands, but none has succeeded in implanting its language.

Lucky Discoveries of Vast Mineral Wealth

This is worth about $1,470 a ton. At North Dundas, in Tasmania, a nugget of the metal has been found which weighed 5,400 pounds, and was almost pure metallic tin. Copper often occurs in nature in a pure state. A solid block of this metal, weighing more than a ton and a half, has just been found in South Africa. The most wonderful discovery of the kind was made in the Andes, at the back of Peru, where, at a height of 14,000 feet, there has been found a mountain of copper ore a mile long and half a mile wide. Silver is sometimes found in great masses. Most of us have heard of Cobalt, the miracle silver city of northern Ontario. One day, in the spring of 1903, two workmen quarreled while at work on a rough railway track made for hauling lumber. High words led to blows, and one man flung an axe at the other. It missed him but struck a boulder, splitting it in two and showing up in its heart a mass of glittering whiteness. It was a lump of almost pure silver. That spring Cobalt had four small shacks, but six months later there were more than 5,000 inhabitants.

The Modest Groom

At a village church a wedding was fixed and the happy morn arrived. In due course a youthful swain and a buxom damsel presented themselves at the church steps. When the supposed bridegroom was asked, "Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife?" he stammered: "Please, sir, I'm not the man; I don't want to get married!" "Not the man?" exclaimed the clergyman aghast. "Then where is the bridegroom?" "He's down at the bottom of the church, sir. He's too shy to come up."

Advertising

"What is the idea of that old fellow's taking the road warning sign, 'CURVE,' and sticking it up in his front yard?" asked a motor tourist in the Ozarks. "I reckon likely he wants to get his oldest daughter married off," replied Jig Fiddlin of Clapboard Springs. "What in the world has the word, 'curve,' to do with it?" "I reckon you hain't seen the shape of his—p'tu—oldest gal, have you?"—Kansas City Star.

Common Name for Cats

Nancy, age four, sat on the back steps at grandmother's holding one of the many kittens which lived there. "Mother," she called, "come see what a nice kitty this is." "Yes, it is," replied mother, "and what is that kitty's name?" "Oh," said Nancy, "all of grandmother's kitties have the same name." "That's queer," said mother, "what is their name?" "Why, their name is Scat," said Nancy.

Trying Hard to Please

Louisa, the colored kitchen maid, was from the country but she was energetic and learned fast. Part of her duties was to water the fern and change the water in the goldfish bowl. Her mistress asked her on the second day: "Did you remember to empty the water under the refrigerator?" "Yes, ma'am, I emptied it and put in fresh water."—Indianapolis News.

French Claim "America"

Musical historians in France contend that the familiar music of "America" and "God Save the King" which was supposed to be an old German air, was really composed by the famous Lull, musician to Louis XIV. It is claimed the air was composed on the occasion of the king recovering from sickness and was first sung by the pupils of the St. Cyr girls school.

"MONEY-MAD AND BRIDGE-MAD"

A judge of one of the juvenile courts in this country recently made the statement that the "boy problem" in this country was basically "the problem of the money-mad father and the bridge-mad mother."

But there isn't much to be gained by warning the two classes of people characterized by these phrases. The money-mad man will only snort and throw himself into high gear again in his frantic pursuit of another dollar; and the bridge-mad woman will only tilt her upturned nose a little higher at your old-fashioned ideas, and bid you a hurried farewell, for she is a little late for that meeting of the "Won't-Go-Home-Till-Morning Bridge Club" over at Mrs. High Low Jack's house.

Some day when son or daughter has landed in the middle of an awful mess Pa and Ma will call the preacher over the telephone. When he gets there he'll find, judging from their looks, two of the most piously aggravated individuals on the planet. Pa will be blubbering and snorting like a steam caliope and Ma will be gulping frantically in her efforts to avoid a total collapse.

They have called the preacher over, they will explain, to seek from him some spiritual advice, and to see if he can find out from the Good Lord why He has sent this calamity upon them; and the wonder of it all is that the Lord doesn't strike them both dead on the spot.—Texas Christian Advocate.

Every week in the year there are bargains advertised in these columns. The buyer can save money by scanning the paper before he buys his needs, whatever they may be, merchandise or anything else. Looked at from the standpoint of an advertising medium, then, the local paper is something that renders real service—service that means a saving of dollars to the buyers. A week of hard work is spent by one person in getting up the ads, making cuts, layouts, etc., for the News. Perhaps the public does not realize just how much work and expense this represents. It's the big public service feature of all papers at the present time, dailies and weeklies. It is a day of ad reading. But once in a while a person may be found who does not read the papers. He takes none, not even the home paper. Usually he it is who would walk up and down the street all day trying to sell a cow, when a few lines in the paper will find the buyer. Maybe somebody has advertised that he wants to buy a cow, but the poor fellow who does not take the paper knows nothing about it and sells at the first opportunity, maybe losing $5.00 on the deal. The disadvantage, perhaps, is greater in the case of the buyer who knows nothing of what is offered for sale. This is illustrated by the story of the man who drove eight miles to buy a load of maize and paid $30 a ton for it, but found upon returning that a farmer only 4 miles away was advertising maize at $25 a ton delivered. He was not able to take the local paper but was losing on many business deals because he was not a subscriber.

The people of West Texas should enter the fight with zeal to prevent syndicates from monopolizing the water courses of West Texas. The fight is on and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce now has an opportunity of rendering a service to the people as never before. Texas has reached a stage in its development, especially West Texas, when its water rights are appearing as something worth while, and it would be the height of folly to allow corporations to take them from the country. The results of the meeting held yesterday at Abilene by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which was attended by many of the leading men of the country, will be watched with great interest.

The old adage that actions speak louder than words means that people will sometimes lie when speaking. Maybe they can lie by action, but not so easily. George Washington recognized the truth of the familiar saying about actions and words and made the following statement: "Actions, not words, are the true criterion of the attachment of friends; the most liberal professions of good will are very far of being the surest mark of it."

The world would be better and happier if all people could fully appreciate the truth of this statement by George Eliot: "What greater thing is there for two human souls than to feel that they are joined for life, to strengthen each other in all labor, to rest on each other in all sorrow, to minister to each other in all pain, to be one with each other in silent unspeakable memories of the moment of the last parting?"

Possibly there are those who are not optimistic over crop prospects, but in all probability they could not be under any circumstances. When conditions are good they know they are going to be bad again, and when they are bad, they know they will never be better. So they go through life and when they get through they wonder how in the world they got through.

The prospects of Crowell's getting gas for fuel is accepted with a good deal of interest. Gas is one of the finest and cheapest fuels in the world and it seems that West Texas is favored with an abundant supply. In the future years, no doubt, gas will take the place of coal in every town in this country.

Hundreds of flivver drivers are wishing that Doheny had run out of gas just before they met him. But they might have passed him up and lost the ten bucks he so pleasingly placed in the hand of his benefactor near Fort Stockton the other night for a gallon and a half of the precious fuel.

Personally we do not intend to buy a poodle dog until they get cheap enough that when the would-be seller wants to dispose of his he will have to add enough to get him taken off of hand to pay for killing the dog.

It is foolish to wait for the latest automobile model before buying. You may get the latest today, but tomorrow they will have another one out of the factory with improved touches here and there, so you can't hope to be at the head of the style but a day or two.

Fewer four-wheel brakes and more neck breaks of speed devils would help wonderfully to shorten the daily death list by automobile accidents.

It may be true that American income has doubled in the last twenty years. It is certainly true that bills have doubled.

CROWELL MAY GET GAS
Representatives of two companies were here this week making preliminary surveys of the town and getting data looking to the laying of pipe lines for gas for the city of Crowell.
It was stated by these men that if the proposition is undertaken, Crowell will have gas by late in the fall.

Dogs Readily Detect Unreality of "Movies"

Cats, birds and snakes respond to motion pictures as if they were real, but dogs cannot be fooled, according to tests made by a German scientist. The dogs paid no attention even when pictures of other dogs were shown. The only exception was when a little dachshund ran up to the screen, sniffed at the people shown on it and then suddenly lost interest, apparently satisfied that the figures were not real, relates Popular Mechanics Magazine. Cats bristled defiance when a large dog appeared on the screen, domestic fowl showed fright at the sight of a hawk hovering over a field, and wild birds showed different degrees of interest. An excitable rooster flew repeatedly at an imaginary enemy on the screen. When pictures of flies and worms were shown in their natural size on a white screen, various reptiles snapped at them and evidenced astonishment when they caught nothing.

Saving Search

The kind woman noticed an old man, whose right leg was gone, standing on a street corner with a perplexed look on his face.
"My poor man," she said, "are you lost?"
"No, ma'am," he replied. "I'm looking for a feller that got his left leg shot off in battle."
"What is his name?"
"I don't know that," was the reply, "but he wears a number ten shoe."
"For heaven's sake, if you don't know who he is, how do you know he wears a number ten shoe?"
"I ain't sure he does, but it stands to reason that if he don't, one or t'other of us is going to have trouble with his bunions. Lady, I'm looking for a right-legged feller to go partners with on a new pair of shoes."

Good Citizenship and Good Business

Do you know why it is that when this Company enters a new town in West Texas with its services the leading citizens of that town generally consider themselves fortunate? One reason, of course, is because they know that their homes, their business institutions, and their industries are assured for all time an adequate, absolutely dependable electric light and power service at reasonable rates.

But that is not the only reason. They have every reason to believe, from what they have seen of this Company's actions and policies in other towns, that they are gaining a GOOD CITIZEN.

Good citizenship and good business policy and practice usually go hand in hand. The good business man realizes that the success and growth of his business depends exactly upon the success and growth and welfare of the community in which he does business. And if he conducts his business on sound principles he will neglect no opportunity to aid in the advancement and growth of that community.

Steinmetz once said that "Cooperation is not a sentiment; it is an economic necessity"

The stockholders of this company, through their directors, have permanently invested in West Texas more than twenty millions of dollars, building here one of the major electric power distribution systems in America. Unless West Texas shall grow and develop and prosper, this enormous investment will have been unwisely made.

This company therefore conceives it to be not only a duty it owes to the public it serves, but an economic necessity that it shall in every possible way foster and encourage and assist in every proper effort for the advancement and improvement of the communities which it is privileged to serve. It has always been found, and will always be found, in the forefront of every worthy movement looking toward the development of the schools, the churches, the civic institutions and public enterprises soundly conceived and properly promoted for the general welfare.

This is its conception of GOOD CITIZENSHIP and GOOD BUSINESS.

Famous Oil Man Visits Truscott

Edward L. Doheny was a visitor at Truscott Saturday night, having come up on a special train from Sweetwater to look after his oil interests in that locality.

Mr. Doheny is chairman of the board of the Pan-American Petroleum Co. of California, and president of the Pan-American Western Petroleum Co. He is regarded as the pioneer petroleum man of the West, and has operated extensively in California and Old Mexico. He has been before the public for some years.

Mr. Doheny is quoted as saying that the big trouble today is that overproduction is ruining the oil industry and that refineries are forced to sell for less than the cost of production.

The following sketch printed by the San Angelo Standard is interesting:

"Mr. Doheny is one of the great wildcatters of all time. He discovered oil in California and in Mexico and wrung from the soil one of America's great petroleum fortunes. The companies that are known as his, have a combined capital of a quarter of a billion dollars. He is one of the great independent operators of the world.

"His first idea of the road to wealth was gold and he went to the wide open west from his home in Fond du Lac, Wis., in search of it in 1872. From a driver of pack mules he became a surveyor's assistant on a government expedition, but he soon realized that governmental success was long and tedious. He left the government service and searched for mines, and this for twenty years, landing in the Pacific coast in 1892 with $10,000 and a good knowledge of metallurgy, geology and chemistry.

"Mr. Doheny's oil career started in Los Angeles in 1892 where he leased a vacant lot at Patton and State streets, and sank a shaft to 150 feet and struck oil in small quantities. Seventy-five feet deeper he found it in paying quantities.

No Refineries Then
 "No refineries were available and tanks were erected in which to store the oil. Here he met competition for many experienced heads at the game came flocking into Los Angeles. Within two years 200 companies had been organized and more than two thousand wells had been drilled within the city limits of Los Angeles.

"Mr. Doheny next sought new fields and entered Mexico. With the aid of Indian guides Mr. Doheny and his associates were led through a jungle and made their first strike in the Tampico region.

"In that immediate vicinity 280,000 acres of land were purchased and options were obtained on 500,000 acres surrounding the purchases. Then more lands were discovered and purchases made. He entered Mexico in 1900 and was so successful that the Mexican Petroleum Company was formed with a capital of $10,000,000. Since that time Mr. Doheny's developments in Mexico were said to constitute the largest private investment of foreign capital in the world.

Apt Student of Mexico
 "Mr. Doheny was an apt student of character and when his operations in Mexico became extended he studied the people in whose land he was doing business and conformed his methods of doing business to theirs. His system proved its worth to his companies for in the years that followed the Diaz overthrow he remained one of the few American capitalists able to successfully do business in Mexico, under any government.

"Nor is Mr. Doheny altogether an oil man, for he has many other interests. Before the establishment of the Irish Free State, Mr. Doheny took an active interest in Irish politics and advocated the establishment of the Irish republic. At Chicago in April 1921 he was elected president of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic."

Field of Peterloo

The Field of Peterloo is a name popularly given in England to the scene of an attack by the yeoman cavalry upon a political meeting held in St. Peter's field, Manchester, on August 19, 1819. The meeting was attended by 60,000 persons, and in the clash with the cavalry eight persons were killed and many wounded. The word Peterloo was formed from the name of the field in burlesque imitation of Waterloo, the scene of Wellington's famous victory over Napoleon, won four years and two months before the clash at St. Peter's field, Manchester.

Effort Alone Gets Results

Character is the individual's peculiar way of dealing with life. Character is to life what efficiency is to working. Indolence plays a persistent hand in human nature. Effort is the sole reality from which any definite result can be expected. If failure comes, in spite of added knowledge, nothing remains but further effort. We have only to renew effort in the light of still better knowledge.—Psychology Magazine.

Prestige Gained

By wearing clean, neat-appearing clothes it worth many times the trouble and expense of having your clothes cleaned and pressed regularly.

NOT A LUXURY—A NECESSITY

Wearing clean, well-pressed clothing is by no means a luxury—it is a necessity in this day.

Slouchiness in appearance brands one as being the same in character. It costs so little to have your clothing cleaned and pressed, and means so much.
