Miss Winnie Self Is Now in Europe Writes Letter Home

On Board S. S. Minnekahda, Atlantic Transport Lines, June 11, 1928.

Dear Family: This letter will not be mailed until we get across but we will be so rushed on arriving, so thought I would write some each day. We make two stops before getting to London, at Boulogne, France, and Plymouth, England. We got quite a thrill leaving New York harbor at 4:40 p. m. and as we passed the Statue of Liberty made some snapshots of it, as we also did in New York. Some of the people got sea sick the first day out, but so far I have escaped. The water is very smooth but the boat sways some. We have awfully good things to eat and plenty of it. We have breakfast at 7:30, lunch at 12:00 and dinner at 6:00. There are two sittings and only half of the people eating at a time.

Yesterday morning I went to church. It was an Episcopal service but I enjoyed it very much. We have a deck chair and rug and spend about half our time on deck. It is nice and cool, about like it is at home right after a big rain. We need our coats on deck and a wool dress. We have all kinds of deck games, such as shuffle board and golf. We have explored every nook and corner of the boat. I like all the girls. They are from everywhere, Arizona, Tennessee, West Virginia, etc. My berthmate is from West Virginia but she gets off at Boulogne. I met such a nice lady yesterday from Hollywood, Calif. She is visiting some in London and represents a big movie concern. I have also met the girls from Dallas and they are real nice looking.

Tuesday, June 12—We slept this morning until noon, so the day will not seem so long. Yesterday afternoon we played bridge in the dining room. Each morning there is a lecture. I went yesterday but not today. He lectured on England and tomorrow it will be Switzerland. There is something doing all the time, morning, afternoon and night. The ship posts radiograms each day, so we get a gist of the world's news. There is a map in the library showing how much we travel each day. The first day was 262 miles, the second day 367 miles, third day 371 miles and we know exactly where we are all the time. It seems awfully calm to me and I have not been the least bit sick, and those who were sick at first are about to get over now. There are several professors on board from Harvard and Yale. They talk awfully funny to us, but we guess we talk as funny to them. The stewards are very accommodating. There are stewards on boat instead of porters, as on trains.

We passed a ship today and three yesterday. We are only a short distance from one now, a freighter. The sun is shining so pretty outside. We have to run our watches up 30 minutes each night at midnight. Now it is 5:45 here and 2:45 at home. There is a difference of 5 hours in New York and London time. New York City has daylight savings time and is not in Eastern time. So there is a difference of two hours in New York time and that at home. I am keeping a diary of just the little happenings of each day.

Thursday, June 14—Today we made 365 miles. Our location is 31 longitude, 36—59 latitude. We have made 1932 miles and have yet to go 1367 miles. It is colder and misting and every one is inside. Yesterday we talked to the head of the radio department and he told us of interesting things. He is from Ireland and tried to persuade me to go to Ireland instead of England. Mr. Hathliner gave us some clipping guides so we would know where to get certain things when we get to London. Guess we will get it up and we cannot yet count English money.

Saturday, June 16—This is the beginning of the seventh day and we are getting anxious to get to London. It was posted on the bulletin board yesterday that we would get to Plymouth Monday at 6:00 a. m., at Boulogne, France, Monday night and London Tuesday. The two days have been terribly cold. Yesterday morning we went to a lecture in the dining room.

Safety Improvements Made at Club Lake

A net work of wire cables have recently been strung over the country club lake with ropes suspended every few feet which greatly lessens the danger of any person being drowned. The rest they afford the swimmers is greatly enjoyed.

The big picnic and basket dinner given at the lake on the evening of the Fourth was attended and enjoyed by practically every member of the club and many visitors, the crowd numbering about 250.

Speaking to Be at West Rayland

The News has been requested to say that the candidates will speak at West Rayland one week from last night, that is, on the night of July 12th.

The people of West Rayland want the candidates to come to their community and of course they will be glad to go and speak, as they have been doing in other communities.

ATTENDED CONVENTION

Sam Lewis of Vivian attended the big Democratic convention at Houston and has much of interest to tell about it. Mr. Lewis was the only man from Foard County to attend the event. He went down there to visit a sister whom he had not seen for about ten years and he took the advantage of the opportunity offered by the convention.

He said it was very hard to understand all that was being said because of the constant noise and mumble, so he found the radio at the home of his sister about the best means of getting transactions.

He heard and appreciated very much the keynote speech of Bowers.

Heard Prof. Phillips (negro) of London University. He lectured on the contribution of the American negro. It was real good and he sure was an intelligent negro. Everybody has been getting money changed to English money and we have been trying to learn the different pieces. The English penny looks like our half dollar to me. I shall keep some of each kind. There is nothing on board to spend for but it is the custom to tip your stewards in English money when the boat docks. We will have a fine drill at 11 today to see if all the life boats are working properly. We have never had on our life preservers but have them hanging just over our beds. I don't think we shall need them, sure hope not, for the water looks awfully cold. The old sailors say this is the steadiest boat they have ever ridden on and does not rock and vibrate like some of the bigger boats. It is very heavily loaded. There are a number of people bringing their cars over. Then we have 2,000 tons of lead, 3,000 tons of grain, besides 800 people. Still I have not been sea sick and do not think I will be. Most of the others have gotten over it. Yesterday at noon we had gone 2092 miles and had 1007 more to go. Yesterday they gave us our landing cards to give to the immigration officers.

Sunday, June 17—I got up early this morning and walked around the deck five times before breakfast to get some exercise. It is pretty here now and the sun is shining. The sea is calm and nice. There are a lot of cultured and refined people on board and I have enjoyed meeting them so much. I will not write any more until I get to London, for the mail will be put off tomorrow. The lady across the hall from us get a radiogram every day from her husband in the States. We can send radiograms from the ship at 27c a word. Yesterday I got some money changed into English money. They gave me two pounds and eight half pennies for $10.00. We have been studying them so we will not get cheated in London. Last night we passed a big ship real close to us. It was all lighted up and looked real pretty. Don't worry for I am getting along fine and never felt better. I have not been sea sick. The stewards say sea sickness is mostly in the mind anyway and they have not much patience with the sick ones. We are looking forward to landing and will write you as soon as I land.

Lots of love to all.

WINNIE.

Valuations for This Year Show Heavy Increase

According to a statement issued by Tax Assessor Claud Callaway, the valuations for this year will show an increase over those of last year of more than $150,000. Following is his statement:

After making a complete re-captulation of all assessments, I find that Foard County's total tax value is $5,279,600.00 for 1928. The county's total valuation for 1927 was $5,125,170.00, which makes a net gain for 1928 of $154,430.00. In this gain in value we will find that our corporations were quite a help as well as an extensive building program which lasted through 1927. The West Texas Utilities Co.'s value was increased about $50,000, while the Orient Railroad value was raised from $3,000.00 to $5,000.00 per mile which made a total of $42,000.00. The Gulf pipe line crossing the southwest corner of the county was increased $9,000.00, while our gas line which was incomplete on January 1st, helped out $10,000.00. The Haskell Telephone Co.'s rendition was raised $2,500.00 and the new buildings made a big gain in real estate values. While on the other hand, there was a decrease in practically every line of personal property, cattle being one of the main items. On account of no grass last fall and cattle selling for a good price I find that we were 1200 head short of last year. The above statement is true according to the best of my knowledge and belief.

CLAUDE CALLAWAY, Tax Assessor, Foard Co.

Young Lady of Rayland Died Tuesday, 26th

Information of the death of Miss Nora Martin of Rayland did not reach us last week until we were off the press. Therefore it could not be handled until this week. The following information is given the News relative to this fine young woman who was taken in the full bloom of young womanhood, a fact that brings sorrow to the home and her many friends:

Miss Nora Martin, 33, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Martin of Rayland, died at her home Tuesday morning, June 26th, at 2:30 o'clock, after an illness of several months. She was teaching school at Foster, Okla., and became very ill with influenza about Christmas. Her health would not permit her to finish her school. Another teacher took her place and she returned home March 28. Miss Nora graduated from high school at Edmond, Okla., in Central State Teachers College after which she later received her life certificate there.

During the months she has been at home she has received letters of consolation and gratitude from many of her friends, pupils and schoolmates. She received all the care that loving hands or medical aid could give, but all was in vain. During all her illness she was ever patient and kind.

She had been a member of the Christian church for 10 years and was ever dutiful to her Christian tasks.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Martin, five brothers, Lester and Luther, of Edmond, Okla., Homer, Ira and Emmett; five sisters, Mrs. Ollie Evans of Edmond, Okla., Mrs. Iva Crisp, Mrs. Effie Fite of Denton and Miss Josie.

The funeral was conducted by J. M. Carney of Vernon at the Thalia cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock where interment was made. May the mercy and peace of our Heavenly Father rest on the bereaved.

FOARD COUNTY

This county has now been organized in accordance with the new Vital Statistics Law, by the appointment of registrars for each justice precinct and each incorporated town or city. In some cases, two or more precincts have been combined into one district, where it seemed best so to do.

Every birth is required by law to be reported to the local registrar of the district in which it occurs, by the attending physician or midwife, or if there was neither, then by the father or mother, within five days after the birth.

The law prohibits the burial or removal of a dead body before a death certificate properly and completely filled out, has been filed with the local registrar, and a burial or removal permit has been secured.

The immense legal value of these records makes it important that the citizens of Texas be given this protection by having a complete, legal record properly filed in accordance with this law.

During the first three months of 1928 there were reported from Foard County 45 births and 11 deaths. This would indicate only a fraction of those which probably occurred.

Below is a list of local registrars of your county, and it is urged that you make every effort to comply with the law and to aid in securing complete registration in your county. For further information, address State Department of Health, Bureau of Vital Statistics, Austin, Texas.

Mrs. Inez Spencer, Crowell, precincts 1, 3 and 4.

J. T. Billington, Crowell, precinct 1—Crowell.

J. A. Stovall, Thalia, precincts 2, 5 and 6.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Klepper and J. W. Klepper visited Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Klepper at the home of Mrs. J. H. Westbrook in Truscott Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Klepper arrived in Truscott Monday in their car from Los Angeles, Cal. After a few days rest they will be in Crowell for a visit with relatives and old friends.

Revival Meeting in Full Swing

The revival meeting started at the Baptist church Sunday, July 1, is progressing nicely under the preaching of Evangelist Jno. W. Newsom of Abilene and the services of Singer Joe R. Mayes of Baird.

Although the weather has been unusually warm, the crowds have not only held up well but have increased and at practically every service, both morning and evening, a splendid audience has listened to these fine services. Those who have for any reason not attended these meetings have missed more than they can realize. The evangelist is delivering some very fine and helpful messages and an open mind cannot fail to be benefitted from them. The singer is one of the best we have had in Crowell for many a day.

It is planned, we understand, to continue the services over July 15. So there is another week of opportunity for those who have not been in attendance to go and get real benefits from them.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Womack went to Dallas week before last to visit with their son, E. S. Womack, and family and Mrs. Womack decided to have a specialist examine one of her eyes, which had commenced to fail. The examination revealed the fact that a cataract had started and an operation was advised. On Monday of last week she submitted to the operation and has been getting along fine. She was kept in St. Paul's sanitarium for several days where special attention has been given her day and night. A special nurse looked after her at night and during the first week Mrs. E. S. Womack looked after her in the day. This week Mrs. Womack has been assisted by Mrs. H. L. Kimsey, who went down to Dallas Saturday.

The many friends of Mrs. Womack will be glad to know that complete recovery is expected with her sight improved. She has been resting well and has suffered no pain.

In the hospital Mrs. Womack has been a favorite with about a dozen in the ward with her and the fact that she has asked for very little attention, being up in the 70's, has been a matter of wonder to the others, all of whom are young, some of them in the teens.

Newsom Speaks to Rotarians at Luncheon

Rev. John W. Newsom, Baptist evangelist, was the principal speaker at the Rotary luncheon in the basement of the Baptist church Wednesday. Newsom gave an appropriate Fourth of July address that was thoroughly enjoyed.

Joe R. Mayes, song leader of the Baptist revival meeting, rendered a vocal solo and a short talk. Talks on "My Vocation and Why" were made by Rotarians in their alphabetical order. Bert W. Self and O. O. Hollingsworth were discovered to be real orators through this procedure.

The meeting was well attended and the following guests were present: Lawrence Kimsey, E. E. Smith, Joe R. Mayes, John W. Newsom and W. R. McCarter. The name "Rotavox," was decided upon as the name for the club's weekly publication. "Rotavox" means "The Voice of Rotary."

OVERCOME BY HEAT

Ollie French, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe French of Thalia, was overcome by heat Tuesday just after lunch while she was chopping cotton in Pete Gamble's field. Some other children were chopping but they had become separated from the French girl when she had the stroke. Mr. Gamble, who was plowing, found the girl unconscious when he came near her.

She was brought to the sanitarium at Crowell and given medical treatment but became conscious before arriving here. She is reported to be getting all right and was able to go home a day or two ago.

S. H. Ross and family returned Wednesday from a 2300 mile trip to East and South Texas and points in Oklahoma where they visited relatives. Henry reports a very enjoyable trip.

Fine Home Is Being Completed by Tom Burnett

One of the most magnificent homes in West Texas is now being completed about twenty miles west of Crowell by Tom Burnett on his ranch in the extreme western portion of the county. The house is a two-story structure built of white face brick and red tile roofing. It is about as large as the Methodist church, or perhaps larger and is one of the finest homes that it has been our opportunity to see.

It is strictly modern throughout with a built-in electric refrigerating cabinet, modern water system, hot air heating plant and the various other things that go to make up a modern home. Upstairs alone there are seven large closets and one of these is a cedar closet that is as large as a room in many houses. Two bath rooms also occupy the second floor in addition to two on the first floor. Two extra large screened in porches are also a feature of the structure. There are hard wood floors throughout the house and a new type of finish is obtained on the walls by using burlap covered over with paint.

Work will likely be completed on the house this week. It is also planned to make a very beautiful yard for the home.

Motion Pictures To Be Made Here By Paramount

Polo scenes, steeple chasing, and other unique shots for the special news reel feature "The Polo Trainer" will be filmed near Crowell by the world's largest moving pictures organization, Paramount, at some future date according to a letter received yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce from Fred Bockelman of Dallas, staff camera man for Paramount.

Over a week ago the Chamber of Commerce received a letter from Bockelman in which he asked if arrangements could be worked out by this organization so that he could make moving pictures here. He enclosed a clipping from the New York Times of a tremendous steeple chasing scene and stated that he would like to make a major scene similar to it. In answering his letter the Chamber of Commerce offered him its fullest co-operation as well as that of local horse dealers and asked for further details as to the number of horses that would be required and as to the probable date that he would be here. In his letter yesterday he stated that he was to make pictures of the first passenger train over the new Denver extension to the Plains and would likely be here then. At present it is not known just when that event will take place, however, it may be several weeks.

Claude Barry, Paul Shirley, Fred Bomar and others have offered the fullest co-operation in this matter. Jim Minnick is in Colorado Springs at present and it is hoped that he may be here when Bockelman arrives. At least 75 ponies will be required for the various scenes and Bockelman says that he will film other unique shots when he gets here.

Paramount News has a circulation of over forty million people and to have a special news reel feature flashed on the silver screens all over the United States and in many foreign countries as coming from Crowell, Texas, is valuable publicity and Crowell should feel fortunate that it is offered this splendid opportunity.

Fred Bockelman was formerly with Pathe and Fox News and made moving pictures here during the polo tournament over a year ago. He joined Paramount about a year ago.

BRINGS IN ROASTING EARS

The News force was the recipient yesterday of two dozen fine roasting ears given us by our good friend, H. A. Wesley, the efficient postmaster of Margaret. Mr. Wesley said this corn would have been two weeks earlier but for the cold spell in March. The roasting ears were raised on Mr. Wesley's farm by Grady Weathers. Now if anybody has any better or earlier roasting ears than Mr. Wesley we sure would like to sample them, so bring them in. Many thanks Herb.

See us for all kinds of sack feeds, corn chops, maize chops, hominy feed, shorts, bran, mixed cow feed, meal and hulls, corn. Also mill products.—Bell Grain Co.

TEXON TALES

Them crows is going to swipe all your golf balls if somebody don't fix them some nests.

The editor of the "Splinters" took his radio so he could have the news with him. What he ought to of took was some sardines so he would have some fish to eat—on his fishing trip.

The Rialto says they have the best pictures of any theatre in Texas. They mean any town except Texon. They also say to go to the show for the blues. Now we can have mighty good blues out of our radio. Fact is, we don't care nothing about having the blues.

One thing we aint going to mention is politics, etc. We've heard both sides and the other fellow will ruin us if he is elected so it looks like we are blowed up any way we go.

One bird claims his auto oil is "packed with extra miles" so it is certain he don't drive an old model Ford or he wouldn't care about no extra miles.

We don't think that guy who paid $72.75 for a cultivator and sold it for $20.00 made a very good trade.

Mr. Thompson might have been pretty bad disappointed by his partner not showing up but it might have been more disappointing if they had of gone and not got nothing. That's the way with fishing trips.

Has Self Dry Goods got the seasons mixed or what's wrong? They say mid-winter hats for $295.00. That's too high even in winter time. Hardware stores advertise jar lids in peach season. Maybe that's what Self's has, jar lids, that $295 would jar you alright. I guess that's just new kind of advertising to make you notice things. The M Store had one of them kind a little too. I first thought they was going to tell about some bird being knocked out by eating their chuck but then they had a storm and after the storm there was enough good eats after the smoke cleared to make you starve. And R. B. Edwards' ad—I thought it was bank robbers having a rucus over the loot but it just tells you what kind of shoes is good. We read every bit of the News.
See you in August.

1. Every person needs variety in his life.
  2. Monotony is killing.
  3. Sunday should be "different."
  4. A spiritual tonic on Sunday makes the work of the other six days more effective and pleasant.
  5. The moral teachings of the church are a help and an inspiration as well as a necessity to right living.
  6. A town without churches is no fit place to live.
  7. It takes people to make a church.
- We ask the reader to read these and think them over.

SPEED IN OUR LIVING

Deaths due to organic diseases of the heart increased during the past year and now exceed those due to any other cause.

It is becoming more apparent that there is too much speed in life today. Men in the prime of life suffer nervous breakdown just when they should be the most proficient.

Competition in every line of business activity is so highly developed that men have to draw on all of their stored up nervous energy to shoulder continually mounting responsibilities.

Women, in addition to discharging their duties at home, find so many demands upon their time in meeting their social and civil obligations, that they have little time for relaxation and rest.

The pace that the twentieth century has set for us is so strenuous that it is little wonder that the heart wears out and ceases to function.

It is about time that we were calling a halt on the modern tendency to put full steam and leave none in reserve for emergency use.

If we don't, the race will degenerate into a misfit people, broken physically, and incapable of carrying on for the betterment of future generations as it should.—Roy E. Harrold Service.

Thousands of people in the South who have devoted years and years of their best efforts to the promotion of the prohibition sentiment are faced with the embarrassing situation of voting for a candidate for president on the Democratic ticket who is avowedly opposed to what they have fought for and achieved through hard and long contests, or bolt the party and vote for the man of the opposite party.

Doubtless thousands of good men will remain loyal to party in spite of the fact that the candidate is not their choice, while others will feel that such action would stultify their conscience. We think that no man should be criticised for exercising his own independence in the matter, for he has that constitutional right and so long as it is exercised by free men not swayed by vote-winning influences purposely set in motion without regard for truth, the results should be good. What we are trying to say is that if the real candidate elected is the real choice of the people, all should be well. We can hardly think the American people will make a bad choice if they choose of their own free will and accord. The danger is the man elected in November may be the choice of organized forces. Vote for whom you please and you are taking your place as a citizen that really counts for something. Vote to please somebody else and you are selling your birthright for a mess of pottage and are unworthy to be called a citizen. The nation is safe in the hands of the American people so long as they are their own.

In the main, the boy and girl problem is one that is to be studied and solved, if solved at all, in the home. Not many bad boys and bad girls go from homes where there is good home government.

One trouble with lots of us is that we want to travel a paved road to success and they haven't built any of that kind.

Some good people who never raised any children know better than anybody else how it can be done.

Anyone who applies theory alone to the doing of things is doomed to certain failure.

Mr. Raines is survived by his mother and three brothers, E. V. and E. F. Raines of Wainsboro, Miss., and Oliver Raines of Rayland; three sisters, Mrs. Effie Privett of Southland, Mrs. Beulah Darnell of Attalla, Ala., and Mrs. Elsie Mazingo of Wainsboro, Miss. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. W. Loyd at the Rayland Baptist church at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Interment was in Thalia cemetery.

J. H. Self was among the visitors to come to the News' new building Monday. He thinks we have a mighty fine home and is a well-wisher of the paper's success. Incidentally Mr. Self said Monday was his and Mrs. Self's 48th wedding anniversary and we suggested that since they are closely approaching their golden wedding anniversary they get ready to have a big blowout and invite all their friends. Of course he will have to leave that matter with Mrs. Self and could make no promises about it. Mr. and Mrs. Self have resided in Foard County for 42 years, being among the first settlers that came here. They have made Crowell their home for 28 years. They are planning just now to spend a few weeks in cool Colorado, provided Mrs. Self's mother, Mrs. G. W. Thompson, improves in health so that they can leave.

Sunday, June 24th, Mrs. J. W. Klepper celebrated the birthdays of Mrs. Allen Fish and Mrs. T. B. Klepper with a lovely dinner party. It was an entire surprise to the honorees and much enjoyed and appreciated by them. They and their families and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brooks were the guests.

Mrs. T. V. Rascoe returned Wednesday from Dallas where she had been for several weeks with Mr. Rascoe's mother who recently underwent an operation in that city. She reports Mrs. Rascoe as improving nicely. She was accompanied home by her nephew, James Leonard Higdon.

Our Poultry Column

(By F. W. Kazmeier, Bryan, Texas)

The World's Average

The world's average yield of wheat is ten and one-half bushels. The world's average egg-production per hen per year is 60 eggs. There is no question, but that eggs will never sell high enough, so that the world's average egg-production can be made at a profit. Nobody on earth, but the farmer and poultry raisers themselves can remedy this condition. No form of legislation can help the situation. A farmer or poultryman that can do no better than the average is doomed to failure and disappointment. The "average" most certainly is not good enough if we wish to succeed. To make a success, you must be above the average, and the hen must be above the average. The average is crowding around at the bottom of the ladder, but there is plenty of room on top. There are several million hens that can lay 60 eggs or less in a year, but there are only several thousand in comparison, that are laying 200 eggs or more each a year.

The Feed Situation

All kinds of poultry feeds are still too high, at least so, from the poultryman's viewpoint. Prices on wheat and oats have already dropped. Corn, milo and maize have come down a little. Bran, shorts and mill feeds are still high, but also have started down hill. Taking everything into consideration, it is our opinion, that we may look for lower prices the next 60 days.

The Egg and Poultry Market

On May 1st the storage holdings for frozen poultry in the United States were 21,499,000 lbs. less than in 1927 and 11,102,000 lbs. less than the five year average. Considerably less chickens were raised this spring, a much greater percent has already been marketed, with reference to hens, and unquestionably there would be a serious shortage of pullets this fall. Storage holdings of eggs are considerably below last year. Viewing the pictures of less layers and less eggs in cold storage, only one thing can happen and that is a much higher price for eggs and poultry. The middle of June, fresh laid infertile eggs are bringing bet farmers from 20 to 23 cents per dozen. The jobber in the cities are paying from 25 to 27 cents, and the retailers are selling them to the consumer for 28 to 30 cents.

Dirty Eggs Expenses

Sonoma County, California, just completed a survey of 79 poultry farms, and as a result they estimate the loss to the poultry producers of that county at over a half million dollars. If it costs one county a half million dollar loss to produce dirty eggs, maybe it does pay to produce clean eggs. Clean nests, houses and yards are necessary to make it possible to produce clean eggs.

ON THE FARM

By the County Agent

Talking Turkey

Last year, according to produce houses, there were five carloads of dressed turkeys shipped from Foard County. Some of these may have been trucked in from other counties, but to say the least of it the turkey industry is greater than we realize.

Every farm is not situated to raise turkeys on open range and as profitable as others, however, the majority of farms in the county are in position to raise turkeys profitably.

Those who have experimented with turkey diseases have come to the conclusion that most turkey troubles are due to keeping the stock on ground that has been used for growing chicks.

Dr. W. A. Billings, of the University of Minnesota, St. Paul, has published a bulletin, "Talking Turkey," that is the most complete that I have seen. It gives every phase of the industry. This bulletin can be secured free of charge by those interested.

Club News

One of the large creameries of Texas has offered a scholarship to A. & M. College of Texas to the club boy who makes the best dairy calf record. This is done to encourage the boys on the farm to become interested in the dairy business. The boy who wins this will be required to take a four-year dairy course. To win this, the boy must own his own animal! It must be registered in his name. He must keep an accurate record of the feed, the milk production, the butterfat test of his cow and other things that are prescribed for the contestants to carry out.

We have some boys who will enter this contest. Some of our members should have a fair opportunity to win in this contest.

Legumes

It has been thoroughly demonstrated that cow peas planted with maize or corn in alternate rows do not reduce the yield of feed in most instances. They also help to build up the soil, and on the lighter sandy soils of the county, they help prevent blowing. A variety of peas should be selected that make a vigorous growth. The whippoorwill, Red Clay and a few other varieties thrive here. The blackeyed peas, as a rule, on most soils, do not make enough vine.

Those who are planning to plant alfalfa or sweet clover in the fall will likely have better success by planting peas on the land, plowing them under and then sowing.

Are You Still Living in The Tar Bucket Period?

Grandfather carried a tar bucket under the rear of his wagon, from which he obtained the best lubricant he could find for his wagon spindles.

But today we have speedy efficient automobiles and trucks to replace the labor of horses. These demand lubrication that is as highly developed as the machinery itself but so many do not get it.

You are living in the tar bucket age if you do not use the best lubricants, such as we have. Get it here.

Drive in, let us grease, oil and gas your car and when you come back it will be not for complaint, but for a refilling.

They called her a soulless "gold-digger" but...

Do you remember the sensational breach of promise suit, a few years ago, by a humble flower-girl against her young millionaire lover and his wealthy mother? At the trial many ugly charges were hurled at the girl. She was called a "gold-digger," a blackmailer; a shameless creature who loved only money and the luxury money could buy.

court-room a bombshell that reverberated to the ends of the earth.

Most people were stung by the unexpected outcome of the trial. Even today few suspect the true history of events behind that tremendous drama of intrigue, suffering and deathless love.

But now the entire story has been told by the girl who was the central figure in that amazing drama. Told in words that will bring tears to your eyes—tears of joy, of sorrow, of understanding and sympathy.

FEEDING FOR EGGS

(By F. W. Kazmeier, Bryan, Texas)

There is no question but that both egg-production and growth is greatly influenced by the ration fed. Many factors and ingredients enter into a well balanced ration. On most farms the greatest part of the ration consists of grain, mill feeds and by-products. Careful poultry feeding research has developed the fact that the use of animal protein, such as meat scraps, fish meal or milk in a ration, consisting only of stable grains, used for many farm flocks, will increase egg-production about one-half and at the same time greatly decrease the cost of producing eggs. In extensive feeding tests it was found that the flock fed only whole and ground grains, laid only an average of 85 eggs per hen per year and went into an early moult. The other pen fed ordinary grains supplemented with meat scraps produced an average of 150 eggs per hen per year. Here is a difference of about 65 eggs in favor of the pen fed some animal food along with the whole and ground grains. Animal food of some kind seems to be necessary in all good rations for both laying hens and growing chicks.

New York City Eats Live Poultry

Each year the City of New York requires about 12,000 car loads of live poultry, weighing something over 200,000,000 pounds, valued at over $60,000,000. About 30 percent of New York City's population is composed of Jews, which requires its poultry to be koshered or killed in accordance with the rites of the Jewish religion, hence the great demand for live poultry. Bear in mind the figures just given are only for live poultry. New York City consumes almost as many car loads of dressed poultry and turkeys.

Average Hen Lays 60 Eggs

According to the census the average farm hen lays less than 60 eggs a year, and most of these from March to June when prices are lowest. If you have a flock of mongrel hens, the chances are good, they belong to the 60 egg class. There is only one way to make such a flock profitable and that is to put all of them into the soup bowl. Study of egg prices shows that in April prices are lowest. They begin to go up in July and August, by September they have gone up in price a great deal and by December, the price is as a rule the highest. Here then there is a great opportunity to increase the egg-production of our farm flocks, especially fall and winter egg-production. The ability to lay is inherited. I believe I am safe in saying that the average flock of White Leghorns will produce better than 120 eggs a year. This is twice as many as the average farm hen. A well bred flock of White Leghorns or any other breed will produce 180 eggs per hen per year. This is three times as many as the mongrel hen. In figuring profit, however, the well bred hen laying 180 eggs is at least ten times as profitable as the 60 egg hen. The well bred hen lays many of her eggs at least around 90 to 100 when they are up in price. Well bred hens are profitable investments. Poorly bred hens are money losers.

THE MAIN THING IN LIFE

We all know plenty of smart fellows who never get anywhere. They always made the best grades in school and were always ready with an answer to every question. Yet they never accomplish much.

We also know plenty of dull fellows who take home so much money on Saturday night that if they were paid in silver, they would have to call a five-ton motor truck. In school they were slow to learn. The teacher told them they would never amount to anything—but they did.

The answer is plain. We are all paid in proportion to the ability we use, not what we possess. The man who buries his talents finds they have rotted when he goes to dig them up. The man who uses his to the utmost develops them and keeps them working to the maximum.

Human ability is purchased C. O. D. Delivering the goods is the main thing in life and is the true measure of any man. The person who pays sees only what he gets; not how he gets it. He is not interested in what is in the other fellow's head, but what comes out of it.

Are you delivering the goods?
