Young Yoder Tells Interesting Things in Letter from Egypt

Miss Emily Purcell handed the News a clipping from the Snyder paper containing a letter from Theodore Yoder, who is now in Cairo, Egypt, as a missionary.

Theodore is the oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Yoder and is known to many of the Crowell people, as the family resided here before going to Snyder some years ago. Theodore is a young man and attended Crowell public schools, afterwards going to S. M. U. and still later attending a school of special preparation for his work in Chicago. We are quoting a few of the paragraphs from the clipping which is interesting to any one:

Yes, I am in Cairo, the capital of Egypt, the country which cradled civilization. Our alphabet, calendar, understanding of mathematics and astronomy, all of which came originally from Egypt. Our present calendar with a few alterations was originally invented in Egypt some 5,200 years ago. It was an Egyptian who first learned the art of smelting metal.

There are some 14,000,000 inhabitants in Egypt, 1,000,000 live in Cairo. You see therefore how strategically located this university is. Not only is it a large city but it is the center of the Moslem world. The oldest Moslem university and the most widely known is the Alshar University founded before Oxford and Cambridge universities in England, or about 970 years A. D. But they teach the Koran and that is about all. They still think the earth is flat and that Mohammed is the only real and sure enough prophet of God.

We have funny days out here. During the week we get up at about 5:15 or 7:30, getting to work at some time around 9:00. Lunch at 1:00 or 1:15, then tea from 4:15 to 5:15 or 5:30, then dinner in the evening at 8:00 or 8:30. Some times it is even later as 9:00. Most people usually take a short nap after lunch. I have been taking rather long ones but I have had nothing more pressing than writing letters and I have put off writing so many that my conscience is quite seared by this time.

The donkeys that go past our windows sound like sleigh reindeers because they have gongling bells on them to scare off the evil spirits. The carts are painted all sorts of funny colors for the same reason. Babies, donkeys and even radiators on automobiles wear blue bands to keep evil spirits away. Many women still wear veils. We sleep under mosquito netting to keep the "skeeters" from making a meal of us and giving us dengue fever.

Ninety per cent of the people of Egypt have trachoma and Cairo has the full share of the 90 per cent, so you see blind people in almost every block and many people who can see very little. This is one of the things that I shall be working on in my work—teaching people how to prevent blindness by just being careful and clean.

It costs 7½ cents for the ordinary letter to the United States, so I shall have to be careful how many I write. It's going to be a good job to save enough out of $500 so I shall be able to travel some next summer.

New Eating Place Being Opened Up

A new restaurant is being opened up on the north side of the square by Albert Smith and Frank Hukill in the L. D. Fox building. They plan to be ready to open for business next Saturday.

F. W. Mabe will occupy a portion of the building with his shoe repair business and top work on cars.

CORRECTION

In Self Motor Company's ad of last week four lines were omitted from the ad through mistake. The portion referred to should have read "New Genuine Ford Batteries $8.00 and Your Old Battery." The portion left out was, "and Your Old Battery." The News hastens to correct this that no misunderstanding may occur from the error.

The number of Americans in Mexico has decreased from about 75,000 in 1911 to about 20,000 at present.

Story of Capture of Cynthia Ann Parker Next Week

If readers of the News will file next week's paper they will have one of the best and most authentic stories of the recapture of Cynthia Ann Parker that has ever been written.

The News is indebted to Mack Boswell for this story. It will appear in the magazine section of the paper and he is given full credit for it. Mr. Boswell compiled the data and the story is well written. There has been much said about Cynthia Ann Parker's recapture but some portions have been somewhat conflicting. Data has been carefully compiled and we believe there is no truer story in print than this one. We are sure every reader will appreciate this.

Election Ballots Printed This Week

The order for the printing of the election ballots was turned in to the News last Saturday and the job was finished Monday and delivered.

The ballot is just about like most general election ballots in its size and number of parties represented. It is 13x20 inches in size and has five tickets, the Democratic, Republican, Communist, Socialist and a blank ticket to be filled in as the voter may wish to vote.

Only three of the tickets have the full number of electors, the Democratic, the Republican and the Socialist. And only one ticket is complete with nominees from top to bottom for this county. That of course is the Democratic.

Besides the names of nominees to be voted for there are three amendments to be voted on. The reader will remember that these were printed in the paper some weeks ago. One relates to a State Board of Education, one to the exemption of church property from taxation and the other to Confederate pensions.

The general election is not far away, just two weeks, and every person should make it a point to go to the polls and vote. There is emphasis on the going and there should be emphasis on the voting, and that just as you wish to vote. It is a great privilege one has. You can express your wishes at the polls just exactly as you wish and no one can deny you that privilege.

Work on New Hotel Making Progress

The new hotel being erected by Mr. Dockins is making fairly good progress. He says he thought he would have had the building finished by October 20th, but did not quite reach his expectations in that and now has to make new calculations. Everything is going forward with as rapid progress as can be had and it should not be many weeks until the building is entirely completed.

It will be a very nice little hotel when it is finished.

First Little Theatre Program, November 1

Crowell's first Little Theatre program will be given next Thursday night, November 1st, at the high school auditorium. The program will consist of three one-act plays that promise a real program of entertainment and with excellent casts along with frequent rehearsals, the plays have every indication of being presented in a splendid manner. Miss Jessie A. Johnson who has had many years of experience in directing plays, is in charge of staging and directing these plays.

The first play, "Gretna Green," has a cast including Elizabeth Kincaid, Peggy Thompson, and Leoma Knox. "Hanging Out the Wash," a play dealing with two colored characters, has as its leading characters, Mrs. F. A. Davis and Miss Louise Ball. Henry Black plays the part of the architect in "Suppressed Desires" and Winnie Self acts as his wife. Mable, Henrietta's little sister, is characterized by Miss Thelma Shaw.

COWS PASSED TEST

J. L. Kinchloe, S. E. Tate, C. R. Bryson and W. E. Emery recently had their cows tested and all of these herds passed the test and are free from T. B.

It is good information not only to the buying public, but to the sellers as well.

Teachers Institute in Session Here 2 Days Last Week

The teachers of Foard County met in a two-day session on Thursday and Friday, October 18th and 19th, at the Crowell high school building, with sixty-five teachers in attendance.

Judge J. E. Atcheson, ex-officio county superintendent, acted as temporary chairman and officially opened the meeting. Superintendent Jones of Thalia was elected chairman and Miss Lottie Woods of Crowell, secretary.

The opening feature was an entertainment number, "A Mother Goose Circus," presented by children from the primary department of the Crowell school, under the direction of Miss Barbara Cryer.

The regular program consisted of addresses and discussions in general sessions, and sectional meetings conducted by Miss Cora Carter, Margaret, Miss Mattye Reid, Thalia, and Miss Thelma Shaw, Crowell, in the primary and intermediate departments, and I. T. Graves, Crowell, and Bailey Rennels, Margaret, in the high school department. Rev. J. F. Powers, pastor of the Christian church, made a pertinent talk on the far-reaching personal influence of teachers in present-day civilization. Rev. W. R. McCarter of the Methodist church, spoke on "The Teacher's Perfect Score Card," emphasizing the fact that standards are necessary for the teacher's self-measurement; and these standards must conform with the highest ideals in the matter of personal and professional attitudes, professional preparation and appearance both as to bearing and dress.

Byron Reese made a short address in which he pointed out that in a civilization which is marked by such rapid changes as that of the present-day, the obligation of service to that civilization is more sacredly imposed on the teaching profession now than at any other period. He also stated that economic stability of the teaching profession depends on the ethical attitude of its individual members toward establishing standards of capability, training and experience as the basis of remuneration rather than the "cheapest salary" standard.

Rev. C. C. Armstrong, pastor of the Methodist church at Margaret delivered a highly inspirational address on the theme of service through performance of the duty at hand.

These talks were all marked by a practical and professional idealism which is often lost sight of in the everyday routine of the teaching world.

Other interesting talks given during the general meetings were an account of her visit to spots in Europe of literary and historical interest given by Miss Winnie Self, Crowell. A series of picture talks conducted by Mrs. F. A. Davis, Crowell, and a talk on how nature study may be conducted in Foard County by Mrs. Frank Kirkman, Vivian. Entertainment numbers were a quartet composed of Misses Sloan, Woods, Self and Patterson of Crowell; a group of songs by the Crowell intermediate chorus under the direction of Misses Patterson and Self; piano solos by Miss Mary Sam Crews of Crowell and Miss Katherine Wheeler of Thalia, and a musical reading by Miss Lorene Shultz of Thalia.

The interscholastic League organization for this year was perfected with the following officers and directors elected: Supt. Jones, Thalia, director general; Mrs. Pauline Todd, Black, secretary; Walker Todd, Crowell, athletics; Miss Pearl Ward, West Rayland, declamation; Miss Maye King, Gambleville, essay writing; Henry Lewis, Swearingen, arithmetic; Thelma Shaw, Crowell, wildflower; Mrs. Frank Kirkman, Vivian, tiny-tot story-telling; Miss Lottie Woods, Crowell, music memory; Miss Cora Carter, Margaret, spelling; Mrs. Jimmie Hembree, Ayersville, sub-junior declamation; Miss Barbara Cryer, Crowell, art; Miss Mattie Russell, Thalia, girls athletics; Miss Ola Carter, Margaret, chorus.

Mr. C. E. Jackson of Foard City presented the matter of securing conference courses with representatives from the State Teachers' Colleges at Denton or Canyon, to be held at Crowell if it can be arranged with either school.

A resolutions committee composed of Miss Lottie Woods, Crowell, Mrs.

Attend Feed Rate Conference At Quanah Thursday

Foard County's representatives at the rail rate conference in Quanah Thursday were: H. E. Davis, Farmers Co-Operative Society, Crowell; Fred Rennels, Mack Boswell, C. B. Morris, Farmers Gin, Thalia; Fred Reithmeyer, Margaret; T. M. Haney, Thalia; Alton Bell, Bank of Crowell; E. V. Halbert, Foard City. These men will meet with rail officials and other representatives of this section relative to securing a reduced feed rate to this section.

Crowell School Loses Game at Burk Burnett

Although the Crowell High School football team made more first downs than Burk Burnett High School last Friday on the latter's ground, they again lost by the score, 20 to 6. Burk Burnett made two touchdowns in the first five minutes of play on Crowell's fumbles, and then the game was a draw in the other fifty-five minutes of play with each team making a touchdown a piece. Thompson, playing fullback, made all three touchdowns for Burk Burnett. Guy Todd, quarterback, made Crowell's touchdown on a spin play.

The local team plays Knox City here today and needs your support to help them win their first game.

Laubenthal Case Is Transferred to Vernon for Nov. 14

The case of F. A. Laubenthal charged with assault and attempt to murder, his wife being the victim, was tried in the district court here recently but the jury failed to agree and the case was carried to Quanah and set for trial Monday of this week in the district court. It was not tried but transferred from Quanah to Vernon Monday and will be tried in the district court there on Nov. 14.

Complete Sale of Orient Line in Kansas City

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 19 (AP).—The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad Friday became a part of the Santa Fe system.

In the offices of the Orient here the directors and W. T. Kemper, president of the reorganized company, resigned.

Officers of the Santa Fe then handed Kemper a check for $8,600,000, the share the Kansas City group received for their Orient stock.

The payment concluded the entire purchase of the property for $14,507,500 with the purchasers assuming a mortgage to the Government of $2,500,000. The balance of the purchase price was paid to English noteholders a month ago.

Present officials of the Santa Fe were elected as officers of the new property. Mr. Kemper will remain receiver for the Orient until the completion of the transfer of the Mexican properties now held by the road.

The Santa Fe was represented by E. L. Copeland, Topeka, secretary-treasurer; Warren E. Brown, Wichita, director; E. E. Melonis, Chicago, general solicitor; A. C. Jones, Kansas, director, and C. E. Betts, Chicago, auditor.

The Santa Fe will immediately take steps to rehabilitate the road it was intimidated at the conference.

From Wichita, Kan., to Alpine, Texas—739 miles—the Orient line now is complete. Part of the line from the American border to the western terminus at Topolobampo, Mexico, has been completed and construction work is being pushed.

The following Santa Fe officers were elected to corresponding posts with the Orient: W. B. Storey, president; E. L. Engle, vice president; E. L. Copeland, secretary-treasurer; S. F. Bledsoe, general counsel.

Members of the Santa Fe board of directors were elected board members of the Orient.

PARTNERSHIP DISSOLVED

Claude Brooks is now sole owner of the City Tailors cleaning and tailoring shop, having purchased Sidney Miller's interest a few days ago.

Mr. Brooks will continue to operate the business. Mr. Miller is undecided as yet about his own course of action, but will remain here for the present.

Former Citizen of Foard County Died Wednesday

The daily papers carried a report of the accident causing the death of M. L. Raney in Fort Worth Wednesday of last week. The accident happened on Saturday, October 13th, in Fort Worth when a car struck Mr. Raney injuring him to such extent that death followed.

According to the statement, Mr. Raney was partially blind and walked into a moving car, the handle of the door striking his head and inflicting the wound.

Funeral services were held at Hedley, 14 miles northwest of Memphis, in the First Baptist church Saturday at 1 o'clock, Rev. C. B. Brooks officiating.

Mr. Raney formerly lived on the place now occupied by J. G. Coffey east of Crowell and was one of the pioneers of this country. He and the family moved to Hall County about 20 years ago where they resided for some years. It was at this place that Mrs. Raney died a number of years ago. Mr. Raney was living in Fort Worth at the time of his death. He is well remembered by the old timers of this county.

George P. Brown of McKinney Strong for Election of Smith

The following letter to his sister, Mrs. Belle Allee, of this city, written by George P. Brown of McKinney, giving his reasons for supporting Al Smith for President was handed to the News for publication by G. A. Mitchell. Mr. Brown is well known here and his letter will no doubt be of interest to all of our readers. It follows:

McKinney, Texas, Oct. 12, 1928.

Dear Mollie, Belle and Rance: Mollie, I received your letter yesterday, and in that letter you asked me who I thought would be president. I am frank to say that I fear it is Hoover—I want Smith and shall vote for him.

It is rather peculiar that 436 years ago today, Columbus discovered America—October 12, 1492, was the day. At that time he erected the Roman Catholic Cross, and to the country in the name of Ferdinand, King, and Isabelle, queen of Spain. The Roman Catholic Religion was the first Christian religion to be planted in America. At that time this country was occupied by the American Indian. Now, what is the point, I hear you ask? It is this—some honest, but misguided people believe that Smith's election will put us under the Pope of Rome. I have no more fears of the Pope of Rome getting hold of this country again, than I have of the American Indian—both had it once, neither has it today, and neither ever will again, I don't care who is president. I have had Methodist preachers sent to me by the conference with whom I could not, and did not agree on church matters, but I did not quit my church and join another; I have had conventions nominate men for office with whom I did not agree, but I have never quit my party and joined another. I had as soon quit my church and desert it in time of trouble, as to quit my party in time of trouble. I shall never do either—have not and will not. I can see why some people will not vote for Smith, one because they think he can nullify the 18th Amendment, and the other because he is a Roman Catholic—he can no more nullify the Amendment than can Dan Moody, or Hoover or any other man—no one man can do that—Congress by a vote or the people by a vote—neither will ever do that. I can not see how any person—excepting two classes—who are Democrats can vote for Hoover—here they are, one class that comprises the "down and out politician" who hopes by voting for Hoover to get the "pie counter of the Republicans, and the other that honest misguided faithful prohibition who thinks Hoover is a better man and a better prohibitionist than Smith; this last class, I fear have been misdirected by such men as Bishop Cannon of the Methodist church, and others of the church; and some of "big men" so-called, of the Baptist church. It is my honest opinion that more harm is being done the church by such men as these than is being done the party. I fear the effect of these preachers will not wear out for 50 or possibly 100 years to come. I

Thieves Steal Fisch Chrysler Roadster Last Friday Night

Irving Fisch, owner and operator of the Famous Store in this place, lost his Chrysler roadster last Friday night while he was attending a picture show in Wichita Falls.

When he came from the building he noticed his car had disappeared but thought some of the Crowell boys with him had played a trick, but he soon learned that it was a mistake and that the car was really gone. The car contained four football suits worth about $80 and these were gone. No trace of the car has been found, although Fisch made report as early as possible to the police station.

He had some insurance. The lock would not work on the car, Mr. Fisch says.

Plumbers' Convention Held Saturday Night

Ten cities were represented at the plumbers convention held here last Saturday night. These are Wichita Falls, Vernon, Quanah, Childress, Archer City, Seymour, Nocona, Electra, Paducah and Crowell, 28 visitors besides those in Crowell who attended, 33 plates being laid. The feast was served by the ladies of the Rebekah lodge in the basement of the Baptist church. After the program was rendered at that place a business meeting was held by the plumbers at the O. O. Hollingsworth place of business on the east side of the square.

The program was one of entertainment and information. Judge Ben Tipton of Electra was the visiting speaker and his talk was one of interest. Other fine talks were made by Judge R. D. Oswald, Dr. Hines Clark and Mack Boswell.

Very fine entertainment was furnished by a quartet made up of young ladies of Crowell and piano solos by Mary Sam Crews.

The next meeting will be held at Vernon on November 3.

Mrs. W. F. Wood of Thalia Died Monday

Mrs. W. F. Wood died at her home near Thalia Monday morning following a brief illness. The funeral and burial took place Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Wood was a comparatively young woman and her death was a shock to the family and to the entire community. She is survived by her husband and four children, Miss Mimie and Frank, Mrs. Truett Neill of Thalia, and Mrs. Emma Moore, of Enid, Okla.

In the Paris opera house alone, "Faust" has been given 1,800 times.

I have never seen such division, and splits, and contentions in the church in all my life. I was 21 March 26, 1880—the next year there was an election for State-wide prohibition, and I voted then for it and have always done so. What is Hoover's prohibition record? He says nothing, except to carry out the present policies, which of course means to allow the whiskey rings of Chicago and Philadelphia, and the State of California to continue to reap big rewards by the sale of intoxicating liquors.

Hoover's religion is that type that has no paid ministry, no mission fields, and many of them deny the Divinity of Christ and differ on the Divinity of Christ, just as some Methodists do not believe in infant baptism nor immersion. I don't know which branch Hoover belongs to, but I do think he is not the best nor safest nor proper man for president, at this time, unless we want the bootlegger to continue. Religion should have no place in this election, but it has been brought in to it by such persons as John 'Cock' Roach Stratton of New York and Mrs. Willdebrant of the Attorney General's office.

I am for Smith, strong—against Hoover just as strong. Study Hoover's religion, please, since they have made Smith's religion an issue; when you have done that you may not vote for Smith, but I am sure you will not vote for Hoover.

Lots and lots of love. A copy to Belle and Rance is sent of this letter. Let me hear from you again.

Lovingly,
GEORGE.

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

(By West Texas Cham. of Com.)

A new school house at Allmon embracing three class rooms, an auditorium, teachers office and library, and costing $14,000 for the building, and $1,500 for the equipment has been turned over to the school district by the contractors.

Plainview is to have a new eight story Hilton Hotel on the corner of Sixth and Austin streets. Construction will begin this week, and is expected to continue for six months, at which time the building will be completed.

Big Spring is to have a new church. The Church of Christ denomination is to be the owner of the new church, and will build the place of worship on South Main Street, of buff colored brick veneer at a cost of $15,000.

The first 4-H Club for Boys and Girls has been organized in Turkey for the school children. Miss Ruby Adams, county demonstration agent, organized the club and will meet with its members twice each month.

Machinery for the laundry being installed by E. H. Turner in Rotan is being set as it arrives. This is to be one of the most modernly equipped small laundries in the country, and capable of doing first class work.

The Coleman Gas and Oil Company is making a $40,000 addition in the form of a six-inch welded line laid from the city to the Santa Fe junction and a mile south. Another reservoir is to be constructed to the 10-inch trunk line of the Lone Star Company.

Approximately 1,000 head of spring lambs have been shipped from Farnsworth, lately. Six carloads of lambs were shipped by E. W. Biggers, and five carloads by J. W. Rogers. The farmers in this section are finding this a profitable sideline.

Giles Garner, champion wheat raiser who lives near Snyder, has received two ounces of drought resisting wheat, namely Nongaar, Nowawa, and Glwyas Early wheat from the Experimental Farm in Perth, Australia, for propagation purposes.

The fifth annual meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association will meet in San Antonio on November 30, with a heavy bill of well known and interesting speakers on the program, including Dr. Rollo G. Reynolds of Teachers College, Columbia University.

Building permits in Lamesa have exceeded a quarter of a million dollars since the first of June this year. There is a great demand for rent houses. Plenty of labor to take care of the building now in progress is available.

W. P. Weaver, County Agent of Mills County, states that he will be available to any group of farmers in the community who want to learn terracing, if they will secure a level and select leaders. Farmers of Mullins are taking advantage of the offer.

The $125,000 bond issue for the purpose of building a new court house in Callahan County was carried by a 125 majority recently. The new Temple of Justice will be erected in Baird.

Things could be lot worse. What if you had to lather your lawn before you cut the grass.

THE IMMIGRATION ISSUE

The first drastic immigration laws passed by Congress were passed in 1921, but it was not until there was considerable alarm at the influx of the great numbers of people from the war-stricken portions of Southern Europe. As a result of the war the number of immigrants from Europe reached 1,058,885 in 1913, but during the first year after the close of the war, in 1919, the number dropped to 24,627. The year 1920 witnessed an increase to 246,295, and then again in 1921 it rose to 632,364. It was then that Congress enacted a law limiting for a period of one year the total number of immigrants from any one country in Europe to 3 per cent of the number residing in the United States shown by the census of 1910 to have been born in each of those countries. This law was found to have many technical imperfections. So the immigration act of 1924 was passed, a carefully worked out permanent immigration policy, the one now in effect.

It has as its principal object the preservation of the racial homogeneity of the American people. On the theory that the great mass of Americans are descended from the peoples of Northern and Western Europe—that is, from English, Scotch, Irish, German, Dutch and Scandinavian forebears—it aims deliberately to limit the numbers of immigrants from the Southern and Eastern European countries. It is based on the census of the foreign population of 1890 and has a 2 per cent limitation of each country's population in this country. Now Mr. Smith wants to come down to the census of 1920 and use that as a basis instead of that of 1890.

Let's make an analysis. The makers of this law chose the census of 1890 because the figures for that year showed about the same relative proportion between what was known as the new and the old immigration that existed during the development of the country. That is, it favored the nationals of Northern and Western Europe at the expense of the South and East. There was a great shifting of immigration to this country during the period between 1890 and 1920. What was known as the new immigration was from Southern and Eastern and it is a matter of record that from 1890 to 1900 the new immigration furnished 52 per cent of the total, and from 1901 to 1910 it furnished 76.7 per cent. Despite the war, this figure climbed in 1911 to 1920 to 77.6 of the total. In other words, Russia, Italy, Poland and the other nations of Eastern and Southern Europe were furnishing 77.6 per cent of the immigration, and the countries from which the original stock that founded America were furnishing only 22.4 per cent of the total. That was up to the year 1920, which Mr. Smith wants to take as the basis. The quota would be 2 per cent of the population each country had in this country at that time. It would give Southern and Eastern Europe the advantage in the ratio of about 4 to 1.

That is Mr. Smith's plan. Mr. Hoover wants the basis to remain as at present based on the 1890 census. The difference in the position of the two men on immigration is as great as light is from darkness.

One of two things is certain regarding Mr. Smith's idea. It is either intended to win favor for Smith in his campaign or else he did not know anything about the subject.

Any man in Foard County is entitled to as much space next week as we have here used to prove that these statements are not logical and reasonable. What the voters want is not muddling from a soap box, but intelligent discussions of the issues before us.

"I am of the opinion that all who can should vote for the most intelligent, honest and conscientious, irrespective of former party opinions." These are the words of Gen. Robert E. Lee, the great Southern hero loved and honored not only by the South, but by all the world. We think if you are voting your sentiments, it matters not for whom, you are putting into practice the admonition of the great Lee, for you are to be the judge as to the intelligence, honesty and conscientiousness of the candidate. This paper has always said that when people thus exercise their will the safety of our country is certain. It is the individual who has no thought of his own, the one who is swept off his feet by the spellbinder, the one who is whipped into line by the party lash, the one who permits himself to be intimidated, the one who is looking to the future for some political favor whose vote too often hurts. We have no quarrel with any one who votes just exactly as we do—as we please.

Of course, all of the kiddies will want one, and perhaps the grown-ups, too, for what would Halloween be without a party? And what would a Halloween party be without favors, place cards, whistles, appropriate decorations, etc? That's where we come in, for we have a most complete supply of all the needed decoration materials and favors.

Get Your Supplies at Once

The stock won't last long, for the demand will be great, so get your supply of the things you need at once.

Here you will find place cards, black and orange crepe paper, black cats, whistles, invitation cards, novelty favors, paper hats, confetti, serpentine, and other timely material, all moderately priced.

Don't forget — buy early.

A feature Story by Dorothy Hinds

Dorothy Florence Hinds, who is taking journalism at T. W. C. sends us the following feature story:

"You girls certainly didn't sleep on that bare mattress last night, did you?"

"We certainly didn't sit up all night," answered Betty.

"Oh, we're used to sleeping on hay stacks back at the ranch, and that wasn't much worse," added Peggy.

The guest left the room without any further comment.

Peggy did not go to breakfast the next morning because she had a headache. When Betty returned she said: "Oh Peggy, you should have gone to breakfast, it was delicious. I didn't let any of those girls know I was from the country. I poured my coffee into my saucer, but I didn't blow it like common folks do; I fanned it with my napkin."

On Friday night the Freshmen were given a theatre party by the Palace Theatre. This trip to town was Betty's and Peggy's first trip on a street car. The car was crowded, and both of the girls had to stand up.

"I know how they make men drunk in movies; they put them on a street car and make them stand up," said Betty.

When the girls returned the car was not so crowded, and there was room for them to sit down.

"I wish a woman would get on the car so we could let her have our seat. I like to stand up."

But the first and only woman to get on the car was a negro woman.

"How did you enjoy the show, Peggy?"

"Oh, just fine. And weren't those bell hops cute?"

"Were those bell hops? I have heard of them, but I was silly enough to think that they worked in hotels. I'm glad you told me before I should mention it to anyone else."

On Saturday afternoon Betty and Peggy went to the city with the chaperon. After going through the regular exercise of signing off, they were allowed to go shopping. They went into an apartment store and walked around for awhile on the first floor.

"I wonder what all of those doors are for," said Betty, they must have lots of trade here to need so many doors in one place."

Then one of the doors opened into a small room.

"Going up."

Another one opened.

"Going down."

Betty and Peggy looked at each other amazed.

"Let's go in one of those things and see what happens," suggested Betty.

"But none of those people have ever come out yet. They're not still in those rooms, and I don't see any other doors in them."

"Look up over that door," said Peggy, "it says 'elevator.' That's where they make things isn't it? Let's go in and watch 'em."

They walked into the next door that opened and looked around another door but could see no one. They stood there in the corner awhile.

"Peg, I'm getting dizzy; what's wrong with this place?"

"I am too; let's get out the next time that door opens."

They got out and found that they were not in the same place as they were when they went in.

"I'm going home; I don't feel well," said Peg.

The girls walked around but could see no doors.

"Would you please tell us how to get out of this store?" Betty asked of a lady.

"Certainly, come with me." She took them back to the store door that they had come in through.

"We just came out of there, so it makes one feel so funny."

"Want to get out of here?"

"But," said the lady, "there are no stairs and you will have to back down the elevator."

When they were outside again they found that it was after 10 o'clock. They rushed to the Palace but the chaperon had already gone.

"What shall we do?" asked Peggy.

"Well, I don't intend to walk home. Let's get on a street car for Polk."

"Here comes one now, hurry!"

"That says 'Poly Plug'; it must be going to a fire."

"Well, I'm going, too."

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of expressing our sincere thanks and appreciation for the kindness shown to us by dear friends and neighbors during the illness and death of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. W. F. ## Teachers Institute

Agnes Hoard, Foard City, Miss Mattys Reid, Thalia, Bailey Rennels, Margaret, Nixon, Thalia, offered the following resolutions which were read and adopted:

To the teachers and county superintendent of Foard County in meeting assembled:

Whereas, since we have spent two days together in profitable session, be it resolved that we continue this organization for the purpose of bringing about a better understanding of our mutual professional interest, and the problems and conditions which affect the school and teaching profession in Foard county.
And be it resolved further:

First, that we commit ourselves wholeheartedly to the duty of keeping ourselves in touch professionally with the tendencies and policies of education in Texas and throughout the nation, by means of alignment with the State Teachers' Association and other agencies within our reach.

Second, that we lend our hearty support collectively and individually to the Intercollegiate League organization, and do all within our power to make it function as a successful educational influence in Foard County.

Third, that we go on record as being in favor of some form of county-wide seventh grade examination, and that a committee be appointed to report at a future meeting findings concerning the application of this form of examination in Foard County.

Fourth, that we express ourselves in favor of the constitutional amendments now pending which will, if passed, affect the membership of the State Board of Education and the tenure in office of trustees of independent school districts.

Fifth, that we extend our thanks to all persons who have appeared before us either in capacity of speaker or entertainer, and that we express our appreciation to Mr. Jones who has faithfully administered the program; to Judge Atcheson for his assistance and co-operation; and to Superintendent I. T. Graves for his courteous efforts in making the meeting a pleasant one.

105 Towns Served by West Tex. Utilities Co.

Ablene, Texas, October 22.—The addition of Dodsonville, Collingsworth County, Medicine Mound, Hardeman County, and Wingate, Runnels County, brings the total number of cities, towns and communities served by the West Texas Utilities Company to 105, it was announced from the general offices here.

The number of customers served to date totals 53,430, making a gain of 1,036 customers in the past month. Seven years ago the West Texas Utilities Company was serving but seven of the larger cities of West Texas. Today the entire area covered by approximately 2,600 miles of transmission lines has a population of more than 500,000.

Split Voting in Election Ruled Legal by Pollard

Democrats bolting their party ticket to vote for Republican electors for the presidency and vice presidency, but yet desirous of casting those same ballots for the Democratic nominees for State offices were assured that such action would not make their votes illegal in a pronounced issue Friday by Alvin S.
Moody of Houston, State chairman for the anti-Smith Democrats of Texas from headquarters in the Southland Hotel.

Moody's assurance is based on an opinion he received from Attorney General Claude Pollard, which was offered on the strength of a sample ballot submitted Pollard by Moody after Moody had marked it for Republicans and for Democrats.

Pollard's letter read in part:
"If a voter desires to vote for the Republican presidential electors and at the same time vote for all the Democratic nominees for State offices, it is legal for such a voter to run a line through the presidential electors on the Democratic ticket, leaving the presidential electors on the Republican ticket unmarked; and when he reaches the nominees for State offices, leave same unmarked on the Democratic ticket and run a line through the nominees for State offices on the Republican ticket.
This, of course, would necessitate running a line through the entire ticket of any other party appearing on the ballot.

Moody announced in this connection that copies of sample ballots appropriately marked for the edification of anti-Smith voters would be distributed over the State within the next few weeks.—Dallas News.

Hog Cholera Reported
There has been some hog cholera reported from the east side of the county. One man lost three nice meat hogs before he knew what was wrong.

There are two kinds of vaccination.
One is the serum method alone, which is supposed to produce immunity for a period of six months.

The other method is administering the serum and the virus simultaneously. This will produce permanent immunity.

This form of vaccination requires a great deal of caution in as much as the virus is the live cholera germs and if scattered will cause cholera.

J. L. Kinchloe, who lives west of town, has reported that he has received certificate showing that his dairy cows are free from tuberculosis. His cows will be tested from time to time so that they may be kept on the certified list.
