The Revival at M. E. Church To Close Next Sunday Night

The revival which has been in progress at the Methodist church for the last two weeks will be brought to a close with next Sunday night's service.

The general interest and co-operation has been splendid, not only among the membership of the church, but among those of other denominations who have attended the services. This is a fact very gratifying to the pastor and those closely associated with him in this religious campaign.

The services last Sunday evening were the most largely attended of and yet held, the auditorium having been filled to its capacity with an overflow going to the balcony. The Sunday School attendance was increased as the result of a campaign for attendance, the goal of 250 being reached Sunday morning. A large number of converts have been added to the membership of the church, as well as several having been transferred from other churches.

This religious campaign has been conducted exclusively by local talent. Rev. W. R. McCarter, pastor of the church has done the preaching, and his messages have been of a deep spiritual nature, making a strong appeal to both the Christian and the non-Christian to live the better life. The singing service has been conducted by "Uncle" Jake Wright for the most part and he has done it with his usual enthusiasm. In this he has had the co-operation of the singers of the town.

The services will close Sunday night and it is expected that the day with its two services will be the red-letter day of the entire campaign.

A meeting of the Foard County Federation of Women's Clubs was held Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. in the courthouse with over 75 women from all parts of the county present for the program and covered dish luncheon.

The meeting opened at 10:35 in the district court room when Mrs. M. S. Henry, president, called the meeting to order. Mrs. John Ray, secretary, read the minutes for the last meeting that was held at Foard City on March 21st.

The program for the morning session followed with Mrs. R. L. Kincaid in charge, assisted by Mrs. C. B. Morris of Thalia. "How to Spend a Profitable Vacation" was the topic for the morning session. It was brought out in this discussion that nearly everyone could take some sort of vacation and that vacations could range from visiting far-away national parks to trips at nearby places of interest. Teddy Roosevelt's idea of training and entertaining a family was brought out.

Miss Elizabeth Kincaid entertained at the morning session with two readings, "Gossip Town," and "Between Two Loves."

At 12 o'clock a covered dish was served in the county agent's office in the basement of the courthouse.

At 1 o'clock the group adjourned to the district court room for the afternoon session which was opened with reports from Mrs. Daw Miller, Mrs. L. A. Andrews, Mrs. John Ray and Mrs. Hub Sneed, Foard County delegates to the recent district meeting of the State Federation at Snyder.

C. Q. Crawford's Home Was Destroyed By Fire Early Monday

Fire completely destroyed the residence occupied by C. Q. Crawford and family in the northwest part of town Monday. The residence, belonging to B. J. Glover, and all of the Crawford furnishings were a complete loss and although a small amount of insurance was carried on the house, there was no insurance on the furniture.

No one was at home when the fire broke out and its origin is not known. Mrs. Crawford had not returned from taking her daughter to school when the fire occurred. No fire was left in the house. The fire gained so much headway that it was impossible to save a single article in it. The fire department made a run to the fire but due to the long distance to a fire plug, it was impossible to fight it.

Good Will Tourists Of Wichita Arrived In Crowell Friday

Special Pullman Train Arrived Here With 125 Leading Business Men of "Air Capital"

Over 125 leading business men of Wichita, Kansas, reached Crowell at 4:25 p. m., ten minutes ahead of schedule, last Friday and then after spending over a half hour in this city, they boarded their train and continued their tour northward to Altus, Oklahoma, where they were to spend the night.

In spite of the early arrival there was a great crowd of Crowell people to meet the train and there were more than enough cars to transport them to town where the famous American Legion Band gave a concert and which was also accompanied by an excellent quartet in several numbers.

While the music was going on, novelties were distributed by the representatives of various interests and many Crowell people formed acquaintances with the men from Wichita.

Practically all of the advertising material and novelties distributed by the Wichita men mentioned the fact about Wichita being the "Air Capital" of the nation. Wichita men stated that there were now thirteen airplane factories located in their city and that Wichita produces more than 25 per cent of all America's airplanes. Frank L. Dunn of the Dunn Investment Company stated that Wichita did not wait for outside capital to come in and put in their factories but in every instance they have started by local capital.

Several representatives of flying schools were in the group that visited here as well as a few representatives of the plane factories. H. M. Van Aucken, executive secretary of the Wichita Chamber of Commerce, stated that special air tours are also made each year by Wichita men and that every step possible had been taken in that city to promote aviation and that the people there now are reaping tremendous benefits from their alertness in taking to the air industry.

Poultry and Dairy Tour Over County Was Made Tuesday

Over sixty boys and girls of Foard County, including the 4-H Club boys of Thalia and Foard City and the agricultural students of Crowell High School, made a tour of inspection over the county Tuesday. Fred Rennels, county agent, and Henry Black, agricultural instructor of Crowell High School, accompanied the group on the trip which was sponsored by the Thalia 4-H Jumbo Club.

The first visit was to the R. H. Cooper farm, one mile northeast of Crowell where the visitors were shown Mr. Cooper's fine flock of Rhode Island Reds. The next stop was at the Jack McCoy farm where the system for the poultry industry on it was explained. The McCoy's have just recently reduced their number of hens from 700 to 400 by culling out the undesirable ones. Mrs. McCoy explained that they sold some of their good hens due to the fact that their housing space is limited and that a few hens well cared for will pay a greater profit than many hens in crowded conditions. Mrs. McCoy gave the group some interesting figures on the profits that have been made on the farm this year. These figures are given in another article in this paper. Rose Comb Brown Leghorns are kept on the McCoy farm.

The agricultural students of Crowell High joined the group after they left the McCoy farm for this class had visited that farm before. The next stop was made at the farm of S. E. Tate where about 200 White Leghorn and Rhode Island Red chickens are kept. Just last month these hens produced 3,152 eggs and the sale of chicks and eggs brought him $91.85. He figured that fed and general expenses were about $1.00 a day.

Lunch at Callaway Farm

After leaving the Tate farm the next visit was to the farm of Claude Callaway near Foard City. The party arrived there at 12:30 and to the surprise of many of the visitors, Mrs. Callaway served a delicious plate lunch consisting of home grown baked ham, chicken and dressing, cake and ice tea.

Miss Victoria McDaniel entertained the group with several songs at this time. She acted as her own accompanist at the piano. Coot Callaway showed the group two pigs and explained that he was feeding them A. & M. protein supplement and stated that he expected to have them weigh 250 pounds each at 6 months of age. They are now about 8 weeks old.

A unique feature of the visit to the Callaway farm was an egg guessing contest. Each person passed through the dining room and registered on the number of eggs in a large bowl. J. C. Wisdom, club boy of Thalia guessed the number and received 2 settings of eggs as a prize. Arthur Bell of Crowell High won second and received one setting of eggs.

After lunch the group visited the incubator cellar where 1400 eggs were hatching, and then an inspection of the brooder and laying houses was made. Mr. Callaway explained his method of handling poultry and emphasized the need of modern equipment.

Visits Ricks Dairy

Ricks Dairy, east of Crowell, was the next place visited. Mr. and Mrs. Ricks milk 41 cows at present. The party arrived just at milking time and had an opportunity to observe how the work is carried on at a dairy. They were carried through the milk house where each visitor was given a bottle of cold delicious milk.

Those making the trip were Edith Schooley, Jewel Mullins, Arrie Fleta Beidleman, Virgie Lee Johnson, Rachel Stewart, E. C. Wheeler, Homer Matthews, Earl Roberts, J. P. Lilly, Clark Rennels, J. D. Miller, Wilbur Edens, A. B. McElroy, Beecher Wisdom, J. W. McDaniel, J. K. Elizabeth Kincaid Was Presented in Recital At Home Last Thurs.

Miss Elizabeth Kincaid, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Kincaid, was presented in an unusually interesting fine arts recital at the home of the family last Thursday night. Both expression and musical numbers were given by this accomplished young lady before the eighty-nine guests that registered for the occasion.

Miss Kincaid's unusual talent and splendid training were reflected in every number of the recital, from the short humorous reading to classical piano solos and the rendition of one of Richard Harding Davis' most famous stories.

Variety of Numbers

The first number given was a short reading, "Gossip Town," and though short it brought out enough thoughts in unique manner that could have well filled a long lecture. "Clock Work" by Juliet Wilbur Thompkins was the next number and it was followed by the first musical number of the evening, "Tarantelle," a piano solo by Charles Denece, Op. 23, Number 4.

A humorous reading "Watchin' the Sparkin'" by Fred Emerson Brooks was next given and an Italian reading, "Between Two Loves," that followed brought a great deal of laughter. "Juba" by R. Nathaniel Dett was given as the final piano solo by the young artist.

The feature of the evening's performance came when Miss Kincaid recited "Her First Appearance," a Van Bibber story by Richard Harding Davis. Although lengthy this excellent number and the splendid manner in which it was given held the undivided attention of all. This was the final number of the evening and was met with the same hearty applause that had followed all other numbers.

Received Certificate

In a short talk following the final number, Mack Boswell presented Miss Kincaid with a little book "Culture" by Ralph Waldo Emerson on behalf of her expression instructor, Miss Jessie A. Johnson. Just inside the cover of the book, a sheet was attached serving as a certificate for ninety-five hours of work accomplished in dramatic art under Miss Jessie A. Johnson. This certificate, signed by Miss Johnson, entitles Miss Kincaid to credit for the work in many leading schools.

Miss Kincaid is a piano student of Mrs. S. T. Crews and many compliments were given Miss Kincaid on her musical talent.

Guests were seated in two rooms of the Kincaid residence and French doors led from each to the room in which the numbers were presented. The unique arrangement afforded a clear vision for all.

Preceding the recital, guests registered and were served punch before taking their seats. Just before giving her first number, Miss Kincaid displayed a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas showing that her sister, Loretta, in New York City had not forgotten her on the occasion.

Miss Kincaid, her mother, and two instructors, Miss Jessie A. Johnson and Mrs. S. T. Crews, were the recipients of many compliments following the recital.

DAIRYMAN MUST SING

A press correspondent living in Hamilton, Mo., either has a vivid imagination or tells a good story. He asserts that when Dr. Herbert Booth took over a "thin, starved Holstein cow" to satisfy a $75 debt she was giving little milk, was wild and inclined to be vicious. Dr. Booth turned the cow over to 14-year-old Warren Williams, who "sings as he works." Soon the Holstein became gentle, her milk flow increased and for sixteen months she gave more than three gallons of milk a day and got in the 250 butterfat class. It is said that when young Warren took sick and his mother cared for the "Luc Elsie" the cow's milk flow fell off 50 per cent. As soon as the kid got back on the job the temperamental Holstein began producing again and soon was in the three gallon class. Sing to 'em boys. It pays.—Hopkins (Mo.) Journal.

Heard On The Streets

One of Foard County's most prominent farmers was expressing a few opinions about this and that Wednesday and placed special emphasis on his desire to see trades day promoted in Crowell on the first Monday of each month. "I just recently noticed the court house lawn of a Texas city on first Monday and everything from chickens to horses and from sewing machines to farm implements were there to be sold or traded by the farmers. The merchants had on special bargains and there was sure a big crowd in town. It sure seems to me that this first Monday business ought to be pushed in Crowell," he said.

Christian Church Is Forming Gospel Team

As a part of the evangelistic work under a Pentecost-to-Pentecost program leading up to Pentecost 1930, the Crowell Christian Church is organizing a Gospel Team. The purpose of this organization is to carry the gospel to every community around Crowell where it is needed and wanted.

This will be accomplished by giving these communities devotional services on Sunday afternoons; helping them to organize Sunday Schools and other church organizations, in helping to plan and carry out special services, in providing speakers for special occasions, in counseling with local church workers on any matters that they may desire help upon. Those wanting such service as this Gospel Team is equipped to give, have but to communicate with Rev. J. F. Powers, John Long, Joe Ward, Albert Schooley, C. V. Allen or any other member of the Gospel Team.

The organization is not yet completed, but it is expected to have an organization with the regular officers used in other church organizations; records will be kept of finances received and disbursed, of meetings held, of work done, accomplishment made, etc. The members of the Gospel Team are not to receive any financial remuneration for their services, however offerings will be taken at each service, the funds thus received to be used only in the expense of the enterprise over and above the personal expenses of the members and in the spreading of the gospel wherever possible.

The first service held by the Gospel Team was at Claytonville School last Sunday with 11 members of the team present. There were about 100 people of the Claytonville community present. Arrangements were made for the Gospel team to meet with the people at Claytonville each fourth Sunday afternoon for a similar service.

Those present from Crowell at the Claytonville services were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson, Grady Walker, Miss Mary Clayton Giddings, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Powers, A. T. Schooley, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Allen and sons.

Senior Play Attracted Large Crowd Tuesday

One of the largest crowds at the high school auditorium this year was present Wednesday night when the Senior Class presented "An Arizona Cowboy" for its annual play.

Every member of the cast gave a creditable performance and the audience responded with liberal applause at the conclusion of each act. Emma Kempf entertained the audience between acts with well selected piano numbers.

Miss Autie Anthony, director of the play, stated that about $85.00 was cleared on the play and this money would be used to take care of graduation expenses and other incidental expenses of the class.

ATTEND DALLAS CONFERENCE

Mack Boswell returned from Dallas Monday where he went Saturday for a conference with A. L. Reed, attorney of that city who is prominent in railroad circles. Furd Haisell of Fort Worth and J. W. Wishon, local rancher, were present at the conference which was held to discuss Crowell's possibilities for new rail outlets.

The status of the rail situation in this section was explained by Mr. Boswell at a meeting of local men Tuesday morning.

Former Resident of Crowell Becomes An Expert Plane Pilot

Although Mrs. John Rider, of Dallas, sister of Mrs. T. N. Bell, and a former resident of this city, having spent most of her life here, is well known in Crowell and Foard County, yet few know that she is an expert airplane pilot and one of the few aviatrix of Texas, at least the writer didn't know it until he accidentally found it out.

Having the opportunity to accompany Mrs. Rider and her mother, Mrs. Mary Gordon, to Dallas Saturday, the writer took advantage of it and while he offered to drive, he found that Tom Bell was right when he said that Mrs. Rider objected to anyone driving other than herself while she was on a trip and that furthermore she could beat anyone driving and this latter statement was also found to be true long before the arrival in Dallas.

The trip had not progressed far until this party complimented Mrs. Rider on her driving which was fast and skillful, and in doing so, chanced to make the remark that he bet she would like to some day control an airplane and the surprising reply came back, "Yes, that's true for I have already secured more than 200 hours time in piloting airplanes and intend to secure many more."

Being an aviation enthusiast and finding that a person was present who really knew aviation I entered into an enjoyable discussion of the industry which lasted for practically all of the trip with the exception of about 30 miles through the section in Clay County where Mrs. Gordon lived in the early days of that section and she pointed out a number of interesting points and told of many interesting experiences that happened at them.

That Mrs. Rider is an expert pilot, was not learned from her, but from an aviator at Love Field in Dallas the next day who knew her. He stated that women in general were not inclined to make good pilots but that Mrs. Rider was an exception and that she could be trusted to bring a plane safely to ground most any time.

Mrs. Rider learned to fly about three years ago in New York City and has done a great deal of flying in that part of the nation and having spent much time at New York fields since then, she has had the opportunity to meet practically all of the famous pilots of the nation, and not only meet them but to also fly with them. Through a companion who was a personal friend of Dick Blythe of New York, nationally famous in aviation circles, Mrs. Rider was persuaded to learn to fly and her acquaintance with Mr. Blythe came at a fortunate time for shortly afterward he became Lindbergh's personal representative and with his partner, Harry Bruno the firm of Blythe and Bruno became the personal representatives of practically all of the trans-Atlantic fliers.

Mrs. Rider is personally acquainted with Lindbergh, Clarence Chamberlain, who made a non-stop flight from New York to Germany; Commander Richard Byrd, Bert Balchen, Bert Acosta, Maitland and Hegenberger, trans-Pacific pilots; Art Goebel, Ruth Elder, Schlee and Brock, Eddie Stinson, Haldeman and many other world's famous aviators.

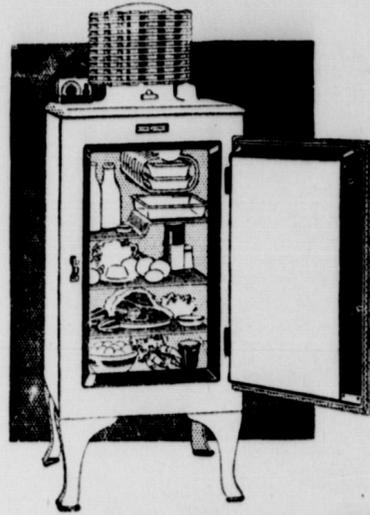

Chamberlain Greatest

Of the group Mrs. Rider considers Clarence Chamberlain and Bert Balchen the greatest of all. She has flown from N. Y. to Washington with Mr. Chamberlain and his wife on several occasions. She has also made a trip over Paris, France, with Schlee and Brock as she happened to be in that city when these men were making their famous world trip by airplane. She considers their flight the greatest of any yet made and stated she thought that they would have completed their trip had not President Coolidge asked them to abandon the hop eastward across the Pacific which was one of the last laps of their world trip.

Mrs. Rider has attended many receptions that were given trans-Atlantic pilots after their return to New York and her accounts of these and the personalities of the men are very interesting. She was also present at a meeting of ocean fliers that was given by President Coolidge and through the acquaintance with Mr. Blythe, she attended a number of meetings of the "Quiet Birdmen," a fraternity for aviators who have had over 500 hours in the air and who have passed various difficult examinations and tests.

She considers the meetings of the "Q. B.'s" that she has attended as among the most interesting events of her life. She said that Lindbergh became a Q. B. just before he flew the Atlantic and that he wore the Q. B. pin on that flight. It is the highest ambition of every aviator to become a Q. B., according to

M. S. Henry & Co.

Mrs. Rider, and that the fliers in that fraternity are especially honored low. Practically everyone recalls when they land at any field in America.

Mrs. Rider stated that she was present at a Q. B. meeting when Richard Byrd and his men, Acosta, Novill and Balchen, had just returned from France and were to give an account of their trip to the Q. B.'s. She said that many details of that particular flight never reached print as Byrd never discussed them publicly but was duty bound to tell all at his fraternity meeting and that before his fraternity meeting and before the men who made the trip with him, he told of a number of incidents that none of the men would like to have been published.

She thinks that Balchen deserves far more credit than Byrd for that flight which came so near ending disastrously. Mrs. Rider said according to Byrd's account at that meeting, "Acosta was piloting the trimotored ship while it was lost over France with both compasses out of commission and the gasoline running low. Practically everyone recalls reading newspaper accounts of their flight in the heavy fog on that night.

"Noville, radio operator, became temporarily insane when Byrd asked him to send out an S. O. S. as only two hours of gasoline were left and in his excitement he wrecked the radio and had to be knocked unconscious by Byrd and Balchen before doing further damage. Balchen asked Byrd to let him pilot the ship for he believed that he could bring it down safely.

"When Byrd ordered Acosta to leave the controls, he objected and another struggle followed before Balchen occupied the pilot's seat. Balchen is a young Norwegian and a natural born navigator. He put the plane on the course where he thought it ought to be and being unable to see anything in the darkness and fog, he opened a window and stated that by the feel of the air he knew he was over water. Again taking another course he felt he was over land and as only a little gasoline was left decided it would be safer to let the plane down blindly on water on the land and his skillful piloting in this respect saved the crew. Quiet Birdmen presented Balchen with a medal for his work and Commander Byrd became indignant a result of not receiving one. Commander Byrd is too conceited such men as the late Floyd Bennett and Balchen deserve the most of credit for Byrd's glory, in my opinion."

Mrs. Rider stated that Lindbergh is an outstanding character but practically all of the recent criticisms directed at him is justifiable.

Hundreds of other interesting incidents concerning aviation were discussed by Mrs. Rider following many questions asked her between Crowell and Dallas. In the estimation of this writer, if Mrs. Rider as good a pilot as she is at directing heights in aviation, and that does mean altitude alone.

Baptist Church News

Last Sunday was another good day with Crowell Baptists. The crowds were fine considering the fact that many of our other friends were in their revival. We worshipped with them at the Methodist Church Sunday night.

The Sunday School shows growth and we organized our different B. Y. P. U.'s into a general organization in order to do more efficient work. Each Sunday evening just before preaching service, this Federation of Unions will give a 15 minute program in the main auditorium. Next Sunday at this hour the Junior-Primary Union will have charge of the special program. We hope that our entire congregation will be present. This indeed is a forward step in our B. Y. P. U. work.

Sunday School next Sunday at 9:45; preaching at 11; B. Y. P. U. at 6:45 and preaching at 7:45.

We are soon to have another training school. The Lord is greatly blessing our work.

IMPORTANCE OF LIGHTING

Poor lighting may seriously impair the future of a child or may reduce the usefulness of older people, yet it is a question that receives scant attention from the average person.

Excessive brightness is said to be the worst offender. It would be a simple matter to overcome some of the evils of poor lighting, if those suffering from the consequences would take the time to determine the source of the trouble.

Methods of lighting the home to promote health and comfort, as well as to conserve the eyesight, are becoming vital factors of domestic science and modern housewives should not fail to keep in touch with the developments in the lighting of the home.

The farm problem is going to be solved for the boys. A tractor that will do fifty miles an hour has been invented.

Man may return to dust, but at this time of the year he doesn't return to dust the year.

Texas Women Battle Kitchen Drudgery

Drudgery is the foe of the housewife, and particularly of the farm woman who not only is charged with ordinary household cares but who often has in addition the responsibility of conducting one or more of the minor farm enterprises, such as poultry raising and dairying and gardening.

These are some of the conclusions drawn by home demonstration officials as a result of years of study of the problem in farming sections all over the state, and this has prompted the state-wide program of kitchen improvement in recent years.

It is demonstrated by home agents that water may be piped into any farm kitchen with very little expense, and that even an elevated water barrel just out side the door with a pipe and faucet is a great saver of steps.

MODERN YOUTH IS IMITATOR

Much has been said and equally as much written about the supposed degeneracy of the younger generation of the present day.

In every age the same complaint has been made by the older against the younger generation. It seems to be a law of life.

In this day we hear much of the profligacy of youth. And we are very apt to judge the many by the misdeeds of the few.

Most of us, in passing judgement, forget that young people are imitators—nothing more. They do largely the things that they have seen their elders do.

As one high school boy so aptly puts it: "When I see one of our leading citizens take a corner on three wheels, I feel that I have the same right to do it too, and I want to try it with Dad's car."

The boys and girls don't realize their lack of experience. They grow up quickly, in their own estimation, as all parents know; and they feel they should have privileges that come with maturity.

There is no escaping the responsibility that goes with mature years. No one can reasonably expect the imitators to rise above the level on which the imitated live.

One of the important tasks in this life is deciding what to do on the next Sunday.

Another Wichita Man Testifies

Wife Gains On Orgatone, Would't Be Without It Says He

Still another well known Wichita Falls man comes forward with his unqualified endorsement for Orgatone. This time it is J. R. Terry, who resides at 1020 Bond st., of that city.

"My wife actually improved so much since she started taking Orgatone that it is almost unbelievable," said Mr. Terry in an interview recently, "and has been benefited so much in every way that I am glad to make this statement, which I hope will be the cause of others who may be suffering as she did getting relief, suffering as she did getting relief."

"She has been in such a run-down condition for the past fifteen years that she felt like she should have been in bed most of the time. She was subject to frequent attacks of dizziness and sick headaches. She also suffered intense pain from the gas on her stomach, and she was habitually constipated. She had a tired aching feeling all the time, which left her so weak she could hardly stand up."

"She had been wonderfully benefited by Orgatone, in fact, I consider it remarkable the way she has been built up, for she is almost like a different person. She has been relieved entirely of stomach trouble, headaches and that aching feeling. I am delighted more than I can tell with what Orgatone has done for her, and we would not be without it now for anything. It is by far the best medicine she has ever taken."

Genuine Orgatone may be obtained in Crowell at the Reeder Drug Co. (Adv.)

Your MODEL T FORD is still a good car

THE Model T Ford led the motor industry for twenty years because of its sturdy worth, reliability and economy. Those same reasons continue to make it a good car.

As a matter of fact, nearly one-fourth of all the automobiles in use today are Model T Fords. Millions of them can be driven two, three and even five more years with reasonable care and proper replacements.

Don't sacrifice your Model T, therefore, but take it to the Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of putting it in A1 shape. A very small expenditure may be the means of giving you thousands of miles of additional service.

For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. This price includes new bearings, reboring cylinders and any other work necessary. Parts are extra.

Valves can be ground and carbon removed for $3 to $4. The cost of tightening all main bearings is only $6. The labor charge for overhauling the front axle is $4.50 to $5—rear axle assembly, $5.75 to $7.

New universal joint will be installed for a labor charge of $3. Brake shoes relined for $1.50. Rear spring and perches rebushed for $1.75. The cost of overhauling the starting motor is $3. A labor charge of approximately $2.50 covers the overhauling of the generator.

It will pay you, therefore, to see your Ford dealer and have him put your Model T in good running order. By doing so you will protect and maintain the investment you have in your car and get months and years of reliable transportation at a very low cost per mile.

 New Six Cylinder
CHEVROLETS
 since Jan. 1st

Sweeping constantly ahead to greater and greater heights of popularity... making and breaking new records of success with impressive regularity... the new Chevrolet Six has established one of the most remarkable records in automotive history—more than 500,000 on the road since January 1st!

Not only does this brilliant accomplishment surpass the greatest record that Chevrolet has ever achieved in the past—but it brings to Chevrolet the significant honor of having built in only four months a greater number of six-cylinder cars than any other manufacturer has ever produced in an entire year!

Even with such a record to focus attention upon the outstanding value of the Chevrolet Six—many people still do not appreciate what “a Six in the price range of the four” actually means!

To such persons, consideration of the features responsible for this tremendous popularity will prove a revelation. So read the adjoining column carefully—and then come in and ask for a ride in this sensational six-cylinder car.

COMPARE the delivered price as well as the list price in considering automobile values. Chevrolet's delivered prices include only reasonable charges for delivery and financing.

Outstanding Features of the New Chevrolet Six that have created this Tremendous Popularity—

6-Cylinder Smoothness

Due to the finer inherent balance of its six-cylinder motor—the new Chevrolet Six provides that smooth, quiet, flexible performance which is characteristic of the truly fine automobile. At every speed, the power is delivered easily, freely and without annoying vibration.

6-Cylinder Getaway

In sheer brilliance of performance, as well as in smoothness and quietness of operation, the new Chevrolet Six is a revelation. Acceleration is remarkably fast. And a new non-detonating cylinder head eliminates every trace of “lugging.”

6-Cylinder Speed

The new Chevrolet Six has speed in abundance—but even more important than its speed is the smooth, quiet, restful comfort you experience at every point on the speedometer. You can open the throttle wide with a feeling of complete security.

Better Than 20 Miles Per Gallon

The marvelous performance of the Chevrolet Six would be exceptional in any car. But in the new Chevrolet Six it is actually sensational—for here it is combined with an economy of better than 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline!

Exceptional Riding Comfort

Another vital factor that has influenced over a half-million people in their selection of the new Chevrolet Six is its marvelous riding comfort. It travels smoothly over rough roads—and its balance on turns and corners is exceptional.

Beautiful Fisher Bodies

Longer, lower and roomier—finished in attractive, long-lasting colors—and upholstered in rich, deep-tufted fabrics—the new Fisher bodies on the Chevrolet Six introduce into the low-price field an entirely new measure of style and distinction.

Proved Dependability

Tested for more than a million miles on the roads of the General Motors Proving Ground—the new Chevrolet Six went into the hands of its owners thoroughly proved in every detail. And now reports of its performance on the highways of the nation pay glowing tribute to its endurance and dependability.

Amazing Low Prices

An achievement that surpasses even the brilliant performance qualities of this sensational six-cylinder car are the prices at which it is offered. Study these prices, and compare them with any other car and you will recognize the remarkable value represented in this Six in the price range of the four!

Infertile Egg Market Importance Stressed

College Station—It is wise for poultry raisers to begin now to look for markets that will pay a premium for infertile eggs, for with the coming of warm weather next month farm eggs will likely be discriminated against in price because of the wide prevalence of fertile eggs...

In suggesting such a course of action, E. N. Holmgren, Poultry Specialist in the Extension Service of A. and M. College, calls attention to the great increase in recent years of cooperative selling of fresh, infertile eggs in Texas...

"Summer poultry success," says Mr. Holmgren, "depends on keeping up production and getting premiums on infertile eggs. With the coming of warm weather broodiness increases and production falls off unless something is done about it..."

BREAKS ARM

OUR HOME GARDENS

The approach of spring—some call it spring—brings with it thoughts—and much talk—of gardens. Everyone aspires—that is, most everyone—to be able to point to a plot of ground, carefully laid off, with the proud boast, "that is my garden..."

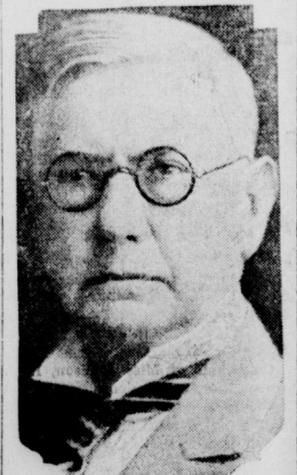

Gardening pays from whatever angle it is considered. The economy of home grown vegetables was demonstrated in the days of the war and many people then got the garden habit to such an extent that they now regard it as a part of their life routine...

The value of vegetables as food, especially for children, has proved an incentive to gardening and has increased the interest of many people in growing much of their own food-stuffs.

The benefits are not alone in foods produced, but in the exercise gained for the gardener is stimulated in both body and mind. Spading the ground and working it, preparing the seed beds and sowing and planting provide a form of exercise that is most helpful and diversified.

Gordon Says He Is Like New Man Now

"Words cannot express the good I derived from Sargon," recently declared B. H. Gordon, Southwestern Representative of Dodd Mead & Co., one of the largest school book publishing houses in America.

B. H. GORDON

"I was in a terribly run-down condition and suffered constantly from stomach trouble. My kidneys gave me so much trouble I had to get up eight or ten times every night. I was underweight and had so little strength I could attend to no business at all that required physical exertion. Treatments and medicines consistently failed to help me."

"I talked with several people who had taken Sargon. They were so enthusiastic over the medicine I decided to try it. I was greatly surprised by the actual results. I am like a new person. I am no longer troubled with my kidneys, and I sleep like a child. I relish my meals and everything agrees with me. I have gained ten pounds and attend to my every duty now without tiring."

"Sargon is wonderful and I would tell everybody in the world about it if I could." Mr. Gordon maintains offices in the Gunter Bldg., San Antonio. He is one of the foremost authorities on educational matters in the Southwest. Sargon may be obtained in Crowell at the Reeder Drug Co. (Adv.)

Higher Butterfat Cows Need of Dairy Industry

In an article by Victor H. Schoffelman in a recent issue of the Dallas News in which he was stressing the need of higher butterfat cows to further the Texas dairy industry, he said:

"The average Texas farm cow is said to produce approximately 3,600 pounds of milk a year and about 135 pounds of butterfat. Manifestly such an animal will pay elsewhere. Since income from the farmer's milk comes chiefly from the sale of butterfat, and since it costs some where around $50 a year to feed a cow, it will be seen that the average farm cow will not leave much profit above her cost of feed."

"There is the main trouble at present with any plans to develop a successful dairy industry. The cow population of the State not only must be increased but the types of farm cows now mostly kept must give way to more productive dairy animals. In place of the 135-pound cow Texas farms must be stocked with 300 and 400-pound cows which will assure a fair profit over cost of feed."

The following table based on studies made by J. D. McDowell, dairy specialist of the United States Bureau of Dairy Industry, who studied the records of some 12,000 cows in various states and some 3,000 herds in 96 cow-testing associations between 1910 and 1922, will prove the wisdom of the foregoing procedure:

Table with 2 columns: (1) and (2). Rows show various cow types and their corresponding butterfat production and income over cost of feed.

(1) pounds of butterfat per year. (2) average income over cost of feed per year.

"The average feed cost per year of the cows studied by Mr. McDowell was $52 a year. Butterfat prices averaged 44 cents a pound. A 330-pound cow gives more than four times as much income as a 160-pound cow and the 600-pound cow gives nearly six times as much. In this direction lies the success of dairying whether it be in Texas or in Missouri, Iowa or Wisconsin."

SUMMER TRAINING

Plans for the organization of the annual summer training camps for citizens are going rapidly forward all over the United States, and during the summer months these camps will be opened to thousands of young Americans, who will be taught the principles of obedience, healthful living and an idea of preparedness.

Every community is invited at this time to be represented in these summer camps. The government pays all expenses for this undertaking, and applicants are sent to the nearest government fort or regular army camp.

The training camp system is our strongest reliance in building up at short notice a citizen's army when a war emergency threatens. But there is another influence that contributes materially to the effectiveness of those camps and permits them to graduate their members with such a high degree of proficiency in the short time available for instruction. Many of the young men who enroll in the army camps are high school students or have recently graduated from high schools.

In most of those schools there are cadet organizations in which the boys get their first instruction in the use of arms and in military tactics. In many of them not only the manual of arms and marching drill are taught, but the cadets are initiated into battle formations, rushing the enemy, effective use of cover, and other accomplishments that make the efficient soldier.

In many of our school organizations army officers are detailed as instructors, and army paraphernalia is loaned for the use of the cadet corps. The school authorities sanction the military exercises, but in too many instances military drill is not recognized as part of the regular school curriculum. Credits are not given for military proficiency as for high standing in other studies; school hour periods are not allotted for military study, and the student is not properly encouraged to enroll in the cadet corps.

Compulsory military training is antagonistic to American democracy and students in our schools should not be coerced into it; nevertheless military instruction should be elevated to the same plane as other studies in the recognized school course.

The mental discipline that comes from instant obedience to commands the coordination of mind and body that unconsciously follows, and the training of the individual as one unit of an orderly mass, have a psychological value not found elsewhere in the school system.

Every school superintendent and board of education should ponder the matter and accord to military drill the part which it rightly deserves in our system of public education.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heart felt thanks and appreciation to each one who in any way came to our relief in our recent misfortune in the loss of our home.

Words cannot express the gratitude we feel. May God's richest blessings be with each and every one. Mr. and Mrs. C. Q. Crawford and children.

McCoy Chicken Profits Are Better This Year

Mrs. J. J. McCoy stated that even better poultry profits are being made this year on the McCoy farm in the Black community than were made last year when $1,080 was cleared from 400 hens.
Already this year $890.56 worth of chickens and eggs have been sold from the farm and $365.49 has been spent for feed leaving a clear profit of $525.07. Mrs. McCoy stated that there was enough grain left to last for the rest of the year from the feed that has been bought and that much is about the only kind of feed that it will be necessary to buy.
Eggs that have been sold for the first four months this year have amounted to 2,865 dozen from about 400 hens. Egg sales have amounted to $704.91 and the sale of hens has amounted to $194.65. NOTES OF FASHION and Store News

Worth, Lanvin, Jane Regny and Scheaparelli are turning their talents to creating new wash frocks and men's silk shirting, shantung, linen and wash crepe are the favored fabrics. Nelly Don makes note of these and copies them in her clever way so that we may sell them for $10.95.
A dainty new linen handkerchief comes from Hollywood and is applied with smart little touches of printed linen—all hand made and sells for only 50c—every summer wardrobe should boast of a number of these tiny accessories.
Flops for the little girl—and flops for the big girl! Everyone is wearing flops to keep their skin fresh and give that languid, summery appearance that is always popular.
Never before has so much attention been paid to the junior girls. Dainty underwear, smart dresses and hats and good looking, comfortable footwear are here in profusion. A very pretty new sock for boys and girls is very short and has a wide cuff. They come in assorted colors and popular prices.
The separate shirts and trunks for men in silk, rayon and cotton continue to be the most favored. We are finding that men like their underwear attractive as well as women do.
A new shirt for the small boy is the most convenient and the neatest fitting one we have ever seen. It is developed in white and striped broadcloth and is made so that trousers can be buttoned to it—thus eliminating the necessity of an undershirt.
For our Friday Special we are going to give you a real treat. Any silk dress in the house, 1-3 off—and we are going to give you an extra day on this, Friday and Saturday. But "the early bird gets the worm!"
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rosenthal left Sunday morning for Dallas where Mrs. Rosenthal will study for a week in a special school for cosmetizing that the Gossard Company is conducting in that city. Sam will spend Monday in Fort Worth attending a Retail Merchants Convention.

Expression Programs Given at High School

Two interesting programs were given at the high school last week when Miss Jessie A. Johnson presented her pupils of the speech arts department in programs at the assembly periods Wednesday and Friday.
The first program was given for the grammar school division on Wednesday morning with the following program: Don't—J. C. Ross; Announcing the Engagement—Catherine Ferguson; My Grandma—Ada Evelyn Smith; Spring Song—W. C. Green; Budge's Account of the Flood—Mamie Lee Teague; The Pillow Fight—Thelma Jo Ross; Billy Brad and the Apple—Peggy Thompson.
This was the final program of this department for this school year and it was testimony sufficient of the value of the speech art department in the public schools. Under Miss Johnson's guidance Crowell schools have made great progress in the appreciation of the value of speech training.
Mrs. R. L. Kincaid summarized the accomplishments of this department for the year and in behalf of the pupils, thanked Miss Johnson for her services.

High School Program

Friday morning two high school students, Iva Pearl Teague and Elizabeth Kincaid, of the department entertained with readings and following these Mrs. Baxter Johnson led a discussion on dramatic art and its value. The program was as follows: Blue Roses, a fairy tale—Iva Pearl Teague; Her First Appearance—Elizabeth Kincaid; Religious Drama—Rev. W. R. McCarter; Tragic Drama—Mrs. George Self; Value of Dramatic Art—Mrs. Baxter Johnson.
On behalf of Miss Johnson, I. T. Graves, superintendent, presented diplomas in expression to Iva Pearl Teague and Leoma Knox. He mentioned that a similar one had been presented to Elizabeth Kincaid at her recital in the Kincaid home. He expressed his and the school's appreciation for the excellent work done this year by Miss Johnson, both in regular expression classes and in the one-act play. "She has truly inspired us with a fuller appreciation of real dramatic art," said Mr. Graves in concluding.

Following the opening of the meeting with prayers and the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, Rev. McCarter gave an interesting talk on the subject, "Dawn of a New Day for the Churches in Crowell." He reported the outlook for his church was encouraging and that the goal they set last Sunday for 250 in the Sunday School was reached exactly. Rev. McCarter also expressed satisfaction with the results of the Methodist revival.
Rev. W. W. Smith spoke on the condition of the Baptist Church now as compared with the time he came. He reported that every department of his church was developing rapidly and that he had received 43 members in the last three months. Local Boys Entertain At Rotary Luncheon

Roscoe Brown and Homer Johnson were the principal entertainers at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Wednesday at the Commercial Hotel. They furnished a number of musical selections with Brown playing the guitar and Johnson the mandolin. At the close of the luncheon, Brown gave an exhibition of clog dancing with Johnson as accompanist. The young musicians responded to many encores.
Mack Boswell outlined the present status of rail matters in this part of the state and told of Crowell's chances to receive a new rail line. President M. S. Henry discussed several matters of international interest concerning Rotary. He read a questionnaire from national headquarters asking how the local organization stood on the matter of the proposed changes in the calendar. On taking a vote of the club, those wanting the same won by one vote.
At the suggestion of T. N. Bell, John Rasor and Mack Boswell were appointed to debate on the matter at the next luncheon with Mr. Rasor taking the side that the calendar should not be changed.
J. Ben Parrish of Quanah was present and gave plans for the training school for scout leaders that is to be held here beginning Friday and continuing each Friday for six weeks. C. H. McClellan of Wichita Falls was also a visitor at the luncheon.
