REWARDS INCREASE AT LOS ANGELES

Since the blowing up of the Los Angeles Times last Saturday, the rewards have increased until the entire amount subscribed now reaches $100,000. The city has placed a reward of $10,000 for the capture of each of the suspected criminals while the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association have offered a reward of $50,000. The belief is strong that the building was blown up by some very powerful explosive at the hands of designing parties, and from the big reward being offered for their capture, it appears that they are going after them there. It is a fine case for detectives to work on and the reward is too tempting for them to allow any stone to be unturned that would lead to the capture of the guilty parties. We expect to hear of the capture before many weeks.

Mr. Hart is one of the leading druggists of this city and is well known throughout the county as one of our most substantial citizens. Miss Standlee is the daughter of Monroe Standlee, an honored and active prosecuting attorney of this country before his death several years ago. The young lady, an orphan for several years, has been making her home with her brother at Colorado Springs, and was visiting her uncle, J. D. Standlee of Wilbarger County.

DREAD CHOLERA THREATEN U. S.

New York, Oct. 4.—The steamship Santa Anna, from French and Italian ports, now detained at quarantine, had a case of cholera aboard. The victim, a man in the steerage, died Sept. 25 and was buried at sea. Two other cases of intestinal trouble are under observation. Meanwhile the Santa Anna, carrying 224 first cabin passengers, some of them prominent Americans, and 1,072 in the steerage, is held as a possible "cholera carrier" pending further investigation.

Announcement of the foregoing was made tonight by Dr. A. A. Doty, health officer of the port, who has been fighting to keep the cholera out of this country during the epidemic abroad. In addition to the Santa Anna, he has as a precaution detained at quarantine the steamship Moltke, from Genoa and Naples, and the steamship, Virginia, from Naples. Tomorrow he will hold a conference with Dr. Walter Wyman, surgeon general of United States marine hospital service. Together they will map out a campaign of protection.

Dr. Doty's statement discloses that not only a cholera patient died aboard the Santa Anna, but a steerage passenger with a suspicious case was removed from the steamship Germania Sept. 26 and subsequently died on Swineburne island. Examination indicated, Dr. Doty says, that this also was a cholera case.

The Santa Anna surgeon's report of the death in the steerage gave the cause as gastro-intestinal affection. The victim died in three days.

More than a dozen steamships have been held up of late because of cholera in Europe but all save the three now under inspection were allowed to dock after rigid examination.

Marooned on the Santa Anna, which is a new vessel of the Fabre line, making her second trip to the port, are among other American tourists, Rev. D. J. Burrell of the Marble Collegiate church of this city and the Mills family of Washington, returning from an extensive European automobile tour.

The Moltke, a Hamburg American liner, has 391 cabin passengers and 988 in the steerage; the Virginia, 21 in the cabin and 556 in the steerage. Personal inspection of this long list kept the health authorities busy from sunup until tonight. Those in the steerage who were exposed to danger on the Santa Anna will be sent to Swineburn island and similar precautions will be taken in the case of the suspicious illness on the Moltke. Those not exposed will probably be allowed to land tomorrow.

F. C. Randall Dead

Frederick C. Randall who left here the 29th of last month for the City of Mexico on a short vacation died last Friday, Sept. 30, at 6:10 p. m., in Hamlin, Texas, the direct cause of his death not being known. He was returning to Crowell when he took bed, being sick for two days before reaching Hamlin which was Tuesday, Sept. 20.

Mr. Randall was born in Nebraska and when about one year old his parents moved to Leamington, Canada, where he was practically raised by an aunt and uncle, his mother dying when he and his brother and sister were quite young, his father dying when he was about grown. His relatives are all living in Canada.

He came to this country about one year and nine months ago stopping in Hamlin about a year ago then coming to Crowell being here about nine months. Mr. Randall was 26 years old and was above the ordinary in business qualifications. He was employed by the Crowell Realty Co.

The funeral services were held from the residence of A. H. Blimebrey, Saturday, Oct. 1, 1910, at 2:30 p. m. at Hamlin, Tex., under the auspices of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He made many friends during his stay here who join his relatives and friends elsewhere in mourning his death.

PATRONIZE THE LIGHT PLANT

When a man brings a new and needed enterprise into our town, and that at the solicitation of the citizens, makes an outlay of thousands of dollars in order to start a service for the city, spends his money with us and becomes one of us, common reason would say that such enterprise should be liberally patronized. In this connection we wish to say that of our own knowledge we know one of our latest added and most to be valued enterprises is not getting the patronage it is entitled to, and which it must have. That is the light plant.

Mr. Rucker has made an investment in this business and it must at least pay expenses or else the business must be abandoned, and in that case the city is loser as well as the owner of the enterprise. It is a public utility and must have the public patronage.

Mr. Rucker, being governed by what seemed to be good prospects for a light plant here, invested without asking the city for any guaranty of patronage, believing that he could give us a plant that would be a credit to the town. This he has done. He has and is making good. As a town, we have not.

These are the leading facts in the case, and from determine The city is fourth the should pay and then of citizens abandoned generous should e this ente fits

Surely a town of 3,000 people can guarantee a light plant a living. If we can't do that we had better plant a telephone pole right in the middle of town for the hooting owls to roost on and make for an unknown country. This is plain speaking, but if anyone thinks the situation does not demand it, he shall not be hindered from so expressing himself. Seriously, let us give this matter more consideration. A good light plant is not picked up every day.

Children must be taught what the parents want them to know. Teach them truthful, gentle ways, and they will be true and gentle. If a boy hears bad language from his father, he will repeat it just as certainly as he has a tongue in his mouth, and if a little girl hears her mother gossip, she will gossip the moment she meets a playmate. People who devour their food like cattle need not expect to have nice table manners. Gentlemen and good women are home-made. There is nothing on earth for which one ought to be more thankful than for having been brought up in the atmosphere of a good home.

Do Something

Young man, do not stand yawning and lounging on the threshold of a glorious future that is brim full of golden opportunities and mines of untold wealth in its hidden resources

We do not laugh enough. There is nothing more pleasant to the ear than the merry laugh of a happy, joyous person, and nothing drives away gloom and care like a good, hearty laugh. Laughter and good humor make a happy, pleasant home and a cheerful bright home is the greatest safeguard against the temptations for the young. Parents should guard against this and spare no pains to make home a cheerful spot.

There are some people who will not consent to be made happy. They find their greatest satisfaction in incessant grumbling and repining against destiny. Of all the bores that are inflicted upon our social life, none is more disagreeable than the self-complacent nancie who is not content with being miserable herself but insists on making everybody else so, if he can. It is not best to let such a one have his own way. If he would be content to confine his mutterings to himself and to maintain a strict seclusion, he might be pardoned and pitied; but when he thrusts his grievance upon society, he then becomes as Dore-berry eloquently observes, "most intolerable and not to be endured."

Maternal Love

The love of a father may be as deep and sincere as that of a mother, yet it is a calmer, and, perhaps more calculating and more fully directed in the great periods and ends of life; it cannot descend to those minutiae of affection, those watchful cares for the minor comforts and gratifications of existence which a mother, from the finer sensibilities of her nature can more readily appreciate.

The pages of history abound with the records of maternal love in every clime, and every rank of life; but it is a lesson of never-ending presence, which the heart can feel and acknowledge, and needs no example to teach how to venerate.

Can there be a being so vile and odious, so dead to nature's impulse, who in return for constant care such unvarying kindness, can willingly or heedlessly wound the heart that cherished him, and forsake the now lonely one nursed and sheltered him, who can manly sever the sweet bonds of human union, and bring down the gray hairs of his parents with sorrow to the grave; who can leave them in their old age to solitude and

DIVISION SENTIMENT IN WEST TEXAS

There is evidently a growing sentiment in West Texas that the interests of the Eastern portion of the State and those of the West are so vastly different that those of each would be better served under a division of the State into two commonwealths with their own separate State governments. So manifest has the sentiment become that some of the leading dailies have taken cognizance of the fact, among them being the Houston Post, which paper has this to say.

"The Post has read with considerable interest what Senator Hudspeth and the El Paso Times have said in advocacy of the division of Texas, and though it must be classed with those who utterly oppose such a proposition, it does not intend to join the ranks of those who are disposing of the dissatisfaction in West Texas by denunciation and abuse. And it will be better all around if the people of East Texas—by which we mean those who reside east of the ninety-ninth meridian—pay attention to the complaints of the people of the West and consider their welfare, instead of dismissing the idea of separation as preposterous.

The fact that the great majority of the population at present reside east of the ninety-ninth meridian is no reason why the interests of the western area of the state should be ignored. The people who are developing that country are Texas people and they are entitled to consideration. They have done great things for the development of Texas and their progress has been more than marvelous. When the census reports of the West are read by East Texans, somebody is going to be surprised.

The restrictive legislation of which West Texas complains is a matter of great concern to the people out there. If the more densely populated areas of the state had been compelled to struggle for railroads under such conditions, the mileage of the state would have been considerably less than it is, and it should be the policy of East Texas to give to the West the broadest opportunities to grow, consistent with the demands of fairness and justice.

An infernal demand for the division of Texas should be a warning to the intolerance of majorities. The solidarity of so large a commonwealth as Texas cannot be maintained forever if the policy of crushing minorities be ruthlessly practiced.

The time may come when a dissatisfied minority in one section may make common cause with dissatisfied minorities in other sections. If it does, separation will be inevitable. We must not forget that we are getting further and further away from the historic ties which up to the present time have bound us together. The incoming millions seeking homes are not so much concerned about the Alamo, Goliad, Conception and San Jacinto as our generation is, and when Texas numbers a population of 20,000,000, which it will within another generation, appeals to the sentiment which thrills the people of today will not be so compelling.

The way to dispose of division agitation is to encourage the great western area of the state in every possible way and to avoid unjust restriction upon the activities and liberties of the people. The ignoring of the complaints of the people of the West and the great Panhandle region, as well as the apparently uncontrollable zeal of people of other sections to place upon South Texas conditions against which they will naturally revolt, will tend in time to destroy the present sentiment for a Texas imperial and indivisible. Majorities can, as a rule, accomplish greater good by the exhibition of wisdom and justice than by everlastingly invoking the doctrine of force."

Big Circus

The big circus of Forepaugh and Sells Bros. will exhibit at Wichita Falls, Friday Oct. 14, Altus, Saturday, Oct. 15, San Angelo, Monday, Oct. 17.

Not since the beginning of time has an amusement enterprise so tremendous in size been organized as this one. Its magnitude is almost beyond belief. It comes this year after an absence of several seasons, with a complete new equipment from start to finish. It cost the management $3,200,000. Every corner of the earth has been searched by the foreign agents of the show for novelties. The result is a performance brim full of sensational acts, the largest and the only complete zoo in America and a three mile parade. This parade is a veritable world's fair and a panoramic history of the earth from the days before the flood up to the last tick of the clock.

This great circus is fifty years old. It has always stood at the top among all the amusement enterprises of the world. This year it returns bigger, better and more attractive than ever. On its list of performers there are 350 names. These great stars have been gathered from European arenas. Among them are the three Tybell sisters, who present a "Human Butterfly" aerial spectacle which electrified all Europe last winter; Karl Handley and his company of German acrobats; Paul Alvarez of Spain, the greatest head balancer on earth; the Avalons from England, the best of all high-wire artists; Capt. Webb and his two troupes of trained seals; Nellie Welch of Australia, the only woman double somersault equestrian in the world; Ada Bell Edwards the world's strongest woman, and the Alvo family of aerialists from Italy. The greatest trained animal act in all history is presented by sixty-one horses. There are also the fifteen best educated elephants on earth. They perform in company with three companies of trained dogs.

In the menagerie there are 780 wild animals. Scarcely a one of them has ever been seen in this country before. The menagerie alone represents an expenditure of a million dollars in money. When it comes to the street parade a description is impossible. The great free pageant must be seen to be appreciated. It is natural to expect this circus, above all others, to present the best open-air spectacle. Never in its splendid history has it displayed such extravagance as it shows this year.

The organization now numbers 1000 employees and has 600 horses. It travels on a train over a mile in length. This train is divided into several sections. When under canvas the show covers ten acres of ground. Its many tents and the grounds are lighted with 4,000 incandescent lamps and arc lights. The circus carries its own lighting plant.

The greatest holiday of a lifetime is near at hand. Without a doubt many from this city and its vicinity will see the newly organized Adam Forepaugh and Sells Bros. shows.

Did you try that 15 cent can of sliced Lemon Cling Peach, best California stock, sold by Vannoy.

Our attention was called to the condition of the public square Monday after the crowds of men and horses had eaten their dinners, leaving corn cobs, watermelon rinds, etc., on the square, with the suggestion that we urge the city council to pass an ordinance against it. There is no question but that feeding horses around the square and throwing melon rinds on the streets is a bad practice and should certainly be prohibited. But it can hardly be expected that the people will remain from this since there is no place to hitch horses. We suggest that before such an ordinance be passed the city buy a building ground as near as it can be gotten to the public square, provide it with good hitching posts and then pass an ordinance relative to hitching on the square. We all expect Crowell to grow indefinitely, and that being the case, the time will come when the city will certainly feel more keenly the necessity of doing this. If indeed it does not find it indispensable. Now is the time, since such site can be bought for less money than a year hence. We believe this is something that should not be neglected.

One of the perplexing problems confronting the church at this day is how to deal with non-paying members. There are those in most, if not in all the churches, who have nothing whatever to do with this part of the work. They attend revivals once a year, get so chuck full of religion that they don't need to go to meeting any more during the entire year. Consequently they contribute nothing towards the maintenance of the church or the spread of its benign influence. They are nothing but figure heads. They don't even count one, and should be struck from the church register. A man's religion is measured by what he gives to support of the gospel, and if that is all he can do it is as much as any man ever give.

We call attention of our readers to the advertising of our issue merchants and business men through the columns of the News. These have dependable merchandise and appeal to you for your trade with the promise of as good values backed by as strong guarantees as you will find anywhere. It is the very poorest kind of judgment for you to send your money abroad for an article you can not see until after you have parted with your hard-earned cash, while at home you have the privilege of examining every article before buying. Not only is it poor judgment, but it is bad policy.

We said last week that our buyers were paying better prices for cotton than any of our neighboring towns, which is a fact. This week it has sold for as high as 13.85, at least a half a cent above the market. It pays to haul your cotton to Crowell. Our buyers will do you right on cotton and our merchants will do you right on merchandise.

We receive each week a little scavenger sheet that is run by a fellow that Josh B. Blings would have denominated an "amosin' cuss." We have learned to look forward to its coming with a feeling close akin to joyful anticipation, for it furnishes us material for many a jolly laugh. Lately it devoted the larger part of its front page which after all is not much space, to a savage, mean and bitter attack on the memory of Thomas Jefferson, apostle of free government, author of the Declaration of Independence, and founder of the Democratic party. At first our feeling was one of indignation at the irreverence and contempt manifested to the memory of the fathers of American free government by one claiming to be an American and white. Then we laughed, when we thought that this disciple of a foreign atheistic and free love cult was like all others of his kind—an enemy of American ideals and institutions and a fierce anarchistic iconoclast at war with everything connected with the existing order. The memory of Thomas Jefferson is safely enshrined in the hearts of millions of loyal and liberty loving Americans and needs no defense at our hands. It is easy for even a Jack ass to kick a dead lion.

People sometimes get the idea into their heads that preachers are perfect. Perhaps the standard of life is higher for them, though it should not be so, than for laymen, or rather the standard of laymen should be no lower er than that of the preachers. Let the time come when the world may take no other than a common sense view of things.

The cotton crop in Foard is better than it was expected that it would be as a whole. Some farmers report nearly a third of a bale while others say they will not get more than a fifth. With the splendid prices prevailing quite a sum of money will be brought into the county by the cotton crop, though it be short.

Commendable Training
The fire drill practiced in the Crowell public schools is an excellent thing. So well have the pupils in each grade been trained that at the sound of the alarm, business is instantly suspended and each one takes his place in the orderly march to the grounds. Our superintendent is to be commended for having so perfected this drill that within one minute after the alarm the entire school can be on the outside of the building.

TOO SLOW FOR A SOLDIER

Military Inclined Youth Whose Movements Even Gravitation Seemed Not to Accelerate.

In a room on the top floor of a large factory a boy was amusing himself by going through the bayonet exercise with a long-handled brush in lieu of a rifle. His boss, coming quickly upon him, gave him a box on the ear for wasting his time.

The sudden blow caused the lad to lose his balance and fall down the elevator shaft, but, fortunately, he kept his hold on the brush, the handle of which (getting across the shaft) broke his fall and enabled him to grasp the chain, down which he slid in safety.

The boss was horrified at the effect of his action and rushed breathless and gasping with fear down the eight flights of stairs to the basement, expecting to find a mangled body, for which he would have to account.

He was, however, just in time to see the lad drop on his feet unharmed, so, recovering his self-possession and his breath, exclaimed:

"Want to be a soldier, eh? Well, you're too slow for that. Why, man, I can walk down all those stairs quicker than you can fall down the elevator shaft."

ATTACKED BY A BIG EAGLE

Plucky Fight of a Scotch Gamekeeper and His Dog With a Vicious Bird.

Nature faking is an art unknown in Scotland, wherefore this story about a golden eagle that attacked and wounded a gamekeeper may be accepted as true. James Fraser, a gamekeeper on an estate near Turcastle, Lochiel, was walking in Glen Laragan, near Fort William.

A grouse, apparently pursued, alighted between him and his dog, and immediately afterward a magnificent specimen of the golden eagle rose and soared away. Fraser a couple of hours later took shelter from the rain near the same spot, when the eagle swooped upon him and fixed its talons in his leg.

His dog promptly attacked the eagle and a fight ensued between dog and bird. The eagle, however, was handicapped by its hold on the keeper's ankle and ultimately was killed, though the dog was badly mauled in the fight.

It was then found that so firmly had the eagle fixed its talons into the keeper's ankle that the bird's leg had to be severed before release could be obtained. The claws are being kept as a memento.

THE MINISTER AMONG MEN.

The distinctive phraseology of the pulpit, the professional dress and manner, also, are too commonly impediments to the progress of the minister in the affectionate regard of the men of his flock. The military officer wears his uniform only on occasions of ceremony. The "soldier of the cross" who, in mingling with the male members of his congregation, is anxious to penetrate their armor of reserve only for the sake of finding his way into their hearts, surely has no use for formality in this intercourse. Why, then, should he not be simply a man among men, discarding both the air and the vocabulary exclusively associated with his profession, just as the lawyer in the drawing room avoids technical verbiage and the physician wears to dinner a coat free from the odor of drugs?—Francis E. Leupp, in Atlantic.

COMPENSATION

Compensation is the term applied to the methods used to secure a uniformity of time in the varying temperatures to which a watch is exposed.

The cause of the error is the expansion and contractions of metals.

The South Bend Balance wheel is made of two metals of unequal expansion, so proportioned, one to the other, that the expansion and contraction is neutralized perfectly. A South Bend Watch keeps time in all temperatures, as well as in all positions.

Citation by Publication THE STATE OF TEXAS

To any sheriff or any constable of Foard County—greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Frederick Rudge, the unknown heirs of Frederick Rudge, and all persons who claim an adverse estate or interest in the property hereinafter described, by making publication of this citation once in each week for eight consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 46th Judicial District; to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Foard County, Texas, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Crowell on the 4th Monday in November, A. D. 1910, the same being the 28th day of November, A. D. 1910, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 28th day of September, A. D. 1910, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 657, wherein W. T. Raso is plaintiff and Frederick Rudge, the unknown heirs of Frederick Rudge, and all persons who claim an adverse estate or interest in the property hereinafter described, are defendants, and the cause of action being alleged as follows: A suit in trespass to try title for the purpose of determining the adverse estate or interests claimed by defendants, or either of them, and to remove cloud from plaintiff's title, to the following described tract or parcel of land situated in Foard County, State of Texas, and being a part of section No. 455, in Block A, located by virtue of certificate No. 31-2843, issued to the Houston and Texas Central Railway Company, by the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the State of Texas for 640 acres of land. Said part of said survey sued for by plaintiff being described by metes and bounds as follows: Beginning at a point in the North boundary line of said section No. 455, 653 varas west of its northeast corner thence south 1139 varas to the N. B. line of the J. T. White survey; Thence west on the N. B. line of said White survey 1245 varas out to the west boundary line of said section No. 455; Thence north on the west boundary line of said section No. 455, 1050 varas to its N. W. corner; Thence east on the north boundary line of said section No. 455, to the place of beginning. Plaintiff alleges that said part of said section No. 455, Block A, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. above described and owned by plaintiff is wholly in conflict with a survey of 320 acres of land located by virtue of certificate No. 2188, issued by Bernard E. Bell, Secretary of War, on the 30th day of January, 1888, to Frederick Rudge for 320 acres of land. Plaintiff alleges that he is the owner of all said land in fee simple, that he and those under whom he claims have had and held the actual, peaceable and adverse possession of said land for more than ten years next preceding the filing of this suit, claiming the same under the location made by virtue of land certificate No. 31-2843 issued to the Houston and Texas Central Railway Company, and mesne conveyances from said Railway Company down to plaintiff, and giving plaintiff chain of title to said land from and under the sovereignty of the soil, and also under the three, five and ten years statutes of limitation of the State of Texas. That defendants are asserting some kind of claim to said land of plaintiff's on account of its conflict with the location of said Frederick Rudge survey, the nature of which is unknown to plaintiff, which constitutes a cloud upon plaintiff's title.

Plaintiff prays that defendants be cited to answer his petition and for judgment divesting all title and interest in and to said land out of the defendants and each of them and investing same in plaintiff, and that the cloud heretofore existing upon plaintiff's title on account of any claim or claims of defendants to any adverse estate or interest in said land be removed and that plaintiff be quieted in his title and possession of said land.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court, on said first day of next term thereof, this writ, your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness my hand and official seal at my office in Crowell, Texas, this 29th day of September A. D. 1910.

First Monday

As usual, a large crowd of people were in town Monday, that being Trade Day here. A good showing was made in live stock, especially young mules. Some mule colts were sold for very fancy price. One of the best on the ground, raised by J. W. Cook, brought $60. It was a 6-months old colt.

While there was quite a good deal of interest shown by the appearance of so large a crowd and through the exhibit of their stock, yet our First Monday, or our special trade day, lacks a great deal of being what it might be. We can not refrain from reiterating the statement that our business men could do more and ought to take the lead in making First Monday a real big trade day for Crowell. Every business man in town would enlarge the volume of his business by contributing regularly to a prize fund. It should not be regarded as an expense but an investment. A large list of prizes offered each month for a display of farm products and live stock would be a great incentive to the farmers and stock men to raise the best of everything and it would be a great advertisement for the business men at home and also an advertisement for our town abroad. Why not get busy and make First Monday a real trade day?

TERRELL WILL SPEAK AT QUANAH

Hon J. O. Terrell of San Antonio, candidate for Governor of Texas on Republican ticket, will speak in Quanah on Monday, October 10th. It is requested that all Foard County Republicans attend this speech if possible. Everybody invited.

J. E. BELL,
Chairman.

The "hip-pocket movement" is a popular and potent plea in the court houses of this State. It often transpires that the victim of the episode was not even armed; yet that circumstance does not seem to impair the utility of the plea. That we can ever prevent all abuse of this plea is, of course, not to be assumed; but is it extravagant to hope that it will eventually be barred in those cases where it is shown that the man against whom the "hip-pocket movement" is alleged was not armed? Surely to ask us to believe that a man who was not armed made a "hip-pocket movement" imposes a considerable tax on one's credulity. The peril to which one subjects himself in this State by the "hip-pocket movement" is pretty well appreciated so that when we are asked to believe that an unarmed man made a "hip-pocket movement" we are also invited to infer that he was in an advanced stage of idiocy. It is for the lawyers to say, what, if any, remedy there is; but we are moved to suggest that if no other useful expedient can be found, such pleas might be barred, under these circumstances, on the ground that the making of them betrays a contempt for the intelligence of the Judge and the jury.
